

NO. 49.

been brought, indeed, upon the posterity

The third member of the group afforded a striking contrast to both the others. He was tall and pale, with his left arm raised to point his weapon at the breast of some one. He was a perfect fact stifle of a gibbon, but a slight tremor could be seen to run through his frame from time to time but whether occasioned by fear or cold, we cannot say.

old. Trembling with the weight of years he stood the last of the generation, a stranger amidst the desolation around him.

I saw the old oak standing in all its glory upon the mountains—the birds were calling in the boughs—I returned, and that was leafless and sapless; the winds playing at their pastimes through its bare an the really good literary and amusing publications may be comprised in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint reviews and magazines ever attempted in any country; a comparison with others were useless here to enter upon, the 'Library' itself being the best test, by which in colours; all of which he is determined will suit. His shop is kept in the house Washington G. Tuck, Esq. next door

Messrs. Hall & Franklin's store. He w make up work at the shortest notice, and the best and most fashionable style. Gent men wishing to encourage him will do well
call on him.
Oct. 23.

ANAPOLIS.
Thursday, December 9, 1834.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.
We received from Washington by Express on Tuesday, and issued from this office the same night.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

At a meeting of the Brotherton Temperance Society, held at the Cross Roads Meeting House A. A. county, according to public notice, on the 9th November, Dr. John H. Brown was called to the Chair, and Wm. H. Baldwin appointed Secretary.

The following Report of the Board of Managers was read by Mr. J. M. Jones, and adopted. "The number of members at present composing the Brotherton Temperance Society, is 70. The number of coloured people attached to the Temperance Society of coloured people, auxiliary to this Society, is 19. A Juvenile Temperance Society, consisting of 40 members, also auxiliary to this Society, has been established at the 12 Primary Schools. The proprietors of two stores in the vicinity, have discontinued the sale of ardent spirits. The Society has, by the blessing of Providence, been the means of rescuing many precious souls from the snare of Intemperance, and its salutary influence has occasioned a great and happy reformation on the manners and habits of almost every family in the neighbourhood."

The Society was then addressed by the Rev. J. P. S. After which, Mr. J. M. Jones, with some appropriate remarks, submitted the following pledge for the adoption of the Society:

"We, the undersigned, her by, solemnly agree to abstain, not only from ardent spirits, but from wine, (except when used for religious purposes, or in cases of extreme sickness,) and from cider, beer, or any liquor that will intoxicate."

By permission of the Chair all persons desirous of uniting with the Society, were invited to attach their names to the original pledge of the Society, or to that proposed by Mr. Jones. Nine names were attached to the former, and forty seven to the latter.

The Society proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing year, and the following gentlemen were duly elected:

Dr. John H. Brown, President.
William H. Baldwin, Secretary.
John M. Jones,
B. Kitz,
H. W. Woodward, } Managers.

The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That it is expedient that the friends of Temperance in Anne Arundel county hold a Convention in Annapolis, and that Friday, the 9th day of January next, be recommended as a suitable time for its meeting, and that the Annapolis Temperance Society be requested to make the necessary arrangements. Therefore,

Resolved, That Wm. H. Baldwin, J. M. Jones, H. W. Woodward, H. E. Allen, and C. H. Hammond, Esq's, be appointed to represent this Society, in the said convention.

Resolved, That the members of this Society be recommended to unite on the first Sabbath of every month, in fervent prayer to the Almighty, for the success of the efforts of the friends of Temperance.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Society, be given to the Rev. Mr. P. for his eloquent Address, and that a copy of the said address be solicited for publication.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Society be given to the officers entrusted with its management during the preceding year, for the efficient performance of their duties.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this Society be published in the Maryland Republican, Maryland Gazette and the Temperance Herald.

Resolved, That this Society adjourn until the 24th day of December next.

JNO. H. BROWN, Chm.

WM. H. BALDWIN, Secretary.

SNOW-HILL BURNT.

We are sorry to learn, from the following letter, that a most disastrous fire took place on Monday night, the 24th ult. at Snow Hill, consuming forty houses, the Court House, eight Stores, two Hotels, &c.

"Snow Hill, Nov. 28th, 1834.

"My dear friend,—Our village is in ashes.—It took fire from a Carpenter's shop, in the centre of the town. The whole central portion is burnt, every house of every description. All the stores except Jenkins' and John Dennis'—both the taverns. John Blah's dwelling, Denwood Williams's, Annanias Jones's, Isaac P. Smith's, E. Dymond's, George Hudson's, Dr. John R. Purnell's, Mrs. Due's, Lewin Townsend's, Lewis Jenkins'—all the millinery, shoemakers', tailors', and all other little shops in the central part of the town. The Court House is in ashes—it is said, however, that the records and the most valuable papers are saved. I have given you a very imperfect account of this most dreadful calamity. I am exhausted almost to faintness. What can be done? many of our citizens are homeless, penniless, without food and clothes. I have lost nothing. The saving of J. Dennis's store and I. P. Smith's stables, was the means of saving all the south-western part of the town. The wind was about west-north-west, and blew a fresh breeze. Those who are acquainted with the location of the houses burnt, will readily know who are safe. Very respectfully, your obdt. serv't.

JOHN S. MARTIN."

HOT-POT PICKLE.

To 6 quarts of Vinegar 1 pound of Salt, 1.4 pound of Ginger, 1 oz. Mace, 2 oz. White Pepper, 2 oz. Mustard, 2 table spoons full of Red Pepper, 1 oz. long pepper.

Roll them in the fingers—when cold put into the jar any Green Vegetables or Fruit, only wiping them—12 pound Shalloes if preferred.

WASHINGTON RAIL ROAD OUTRAGES.

At a large and respectable meeting of inhabitants of Anne Arundel and Prince George's counties adjacent to the Baltimore and Washington Rail road, and held at Merrill's Tavern on the 26th inst. Col. Geo. Cooke being called to the chair, and Geo. L. Brockway, Esq. appointed Secretary. The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, a portion of Anne Arundel and Prince George's counties, bordering on the Baltimore and Washington rail road, has been the scene of successive riots, dangers and bloodshed since the commencement of said work down to the present time; and whereas, the recent scene of murders of the most wanton, diabolical and atrocious character upon respectable and unoffending citizens, scarcely paralleled in the annals of our history, has given ample cause to our fellow citizens for alarm and apprehensions for the safety of their lives; and whereas, while they suffer themselves to remain exposed to the deep laid schemes of that population from which all these grievances emanate.

And whereas, it is known to be confined exclusively to that class of labourers which has been generally employed on the aforesaid work, and it having been established beyond all question, that the Irish Labourers compose that class, and that they have formed secret associations, to which they are bound under the most awful and solemn oaths to keep each other's secrets, and under which association they are enabled to accomplish their hellish plots without being in danger of discovery. And whereas, the good citizens of these Counties have in vain set forth their grievances and remonstrances to the proper sources for the removal of the cause. And whereas, it is the right and bounden duty of our fellow citizens to defend themselves and their property against the hand of the ruffian, we the subscribers, citizens of the aforesaid Counties, do unanimously agree to adopt the following resolutions:—

Resolved, That we do consider and hold the present class of Irish labourers employed on the Baltimore and Washington rail road as agents of ruffians and murderers, combined together under the most solemn ties to carry into effect such hellish designs as their passions or prejudices may prompt them to commit.

Resolved, That, inasmuch as by their plots of secret association, justice and the laws are deprived of their due, it is the duty of our fellow citizens to adopt such measures as will tend to their quiet and safety.

Resolved, That so long as the cause of these evils remain among them, there is no security for either, and that it is indispensable that it be removed.

Resolved, That the President and Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio rail road company, be requested to order their agents and contractors to discontinue their employment of such labourers as have been herein described.

Resolved, That we will use all lawful means in our power to bring to justice, as many of the participants in the late murders, and all suspected persons as can be arrested.

Resolved, That we will unite in expelling from our country, forcibly, if we must, all such characters as have herein been described.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be presented to Lt. Col. CAMPBELL and the officers and troops under his command for the prompt and efficient aid afforded by them in the arrest of the perpetrators of the murders of JOHN WATSON and WILLIAM MERRILL.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be presented to Lt. Col. WILLIAMS for his zeal and services in aiding the civil authorities to arrest and put down these riotous and also to Major HORACE CARSON for the prompt and efficient aid rendered to him in the execution of his orders, with so small a force, and to our fellow citizens who so promptly volunteered their services on this important occasion.

Resolved, That this meeting approve the subjoined letter of Col. Geo. Cooke addressed to the President of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published.

GEO. COOKE, Chairman.

GEO. L. BROCKWAY, Secy.

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, Nov. 26, 1834.

PHILIP F. THOMAS, Esq. Pres. Balt. & Ohio R. R.

Dear Sir—In consequence of the recent murders on the Washington Rail Road, the inhabitants of the county adjacent to the R. R. Road, have been kept in a constant state of alarm, no efficient measures have been adopted by the company to find out and arrest the murderers, and also from the fact that a number of our citizens have been threatened by the labourers on said road, I have been requested to state for your information that the residents of this section of the county are determined that in case the company do not adopt such measures as will in future secure them from being harassed by these frequent riots on the road, that they will muster a sufficient force and drive every Irishman off the road, from the Patuxent to the big Patuxent, at all hazards, and in this determination they are promised the cooperation and aid of other sections of our county.

In making this communication I assure you the people are actuated by no other motive than to put an end to these continued murders and riots, which, if they are permitted to go unpunished as heretofore, may in the end lead to those wretched depredations still further on the surrounding neighbourhood. If the ringleaders cannot be secured and punished, the whole force ought to be discharged and a new set employed.

The work had better be delayed a short time than to be the scene of such frequent and disgraceful outrages.

With respect, your obdt. serv't.

GEO. COOKE Chairman.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 26th 1834.

Brig. Gen. G. H. Stuart.

Sir,—Agreeably to your orders of 24th instant, the detachment under my command, consisting of such portions of the companies, mentioned below, as could be assembled, on so short a notice, marched to Merrill's Tavern on the Washington road, 12 miles from Baltimore, on Tuesday morning the 25th inst. where I reported to R. G. Stockett, W. B. Dorsey and Thomas Snowden Esqrs. Justices of the Peace, and informed them that we were by your orders, "to aid the civil authorities in maintaining the peace and quiet of the State."

They furnished me the general warrant accompanying this report, and recommended the apprehension of all persons employed on the line of the rail road near where the murders and other outrages had been committed.

In company with Lt. Col. Williams of Anne Arundel, who favoured us with his advice and assistance,—accompanied by the remark, that as senior officer, the arrangement was of course with me,—We marched to Junction section, and extending along the rail road and adjacent country several miles, apprehended all the labourers and suspicious persons we met to the number of 200, and placed them under guard during the night.

Capt. McGuire with 30 Morgan volunteers arrived at night, at 10 o'clock, to participate in the duty of guarding the prisoners. On the morning of the 26th, two hours before day, Capt. Bouldin with his troop of horse, marched to the Savage Factory, and thence to that part of the rail road which was near the place of the recent murders, and continuing thence along the line, apprehended many suspicious persons, whom with several prisoners taken by Major Capron, they brought to Merrill's Tavern, where they met the other companies of my detachment who were waiting with our prisoners for the arrival of the magistrates.

I submitted the whole of our prisoners, upwards of 300 to Esqrs. Snowden and Dorsey, who committed them to Baltimore County Jail, at which place I delivered them to the warden about 5 o'clock the same evening. There is strong reason to believe that some, if not all of the murderers of Watson and Mercer are among the prisoners now in custody; and probably all the important witnesses. No doubt, among them there are many not only innocent of the crime, but ignorant of the perpetration of it. But it is considered impracticable to arrive at the truth and fulfil the ends of justice in any other way than by such general arrests as we have made. There was no resistance by these unfortunate men, and it is extremely gratifying to be able to state that no personal injury was sustained by any of them during our whole proceedings.

Every facility was afforded us by the Rail Road Company and its agents in the performance of our duty, and they furnished provisions, refreshments and the best accommodations in their power, for the whole of my command; and every thing they could to save us expense and unnecessary trouble.

The duty of the officers and men, though unavoidably painful and laborious was rendered with alacrity.

The services of Capt. Bouldin and his troop of Dragoon of the Third Brigade were invaluable—I am much indebted to Mr. Wm. J. Cole, who accompanied the detachment as a volunteer, and acted as Agent. I cannot express myself too highly of both officers and men of my whole command for the efficient and humane manner in which they performed their duties.

The following comprised the whole of my command:—

Captain Bouldin, with 20 Dragoon.

Willie, 20 Union Artillery, acting as Infantry.

Hickman, 18 1st Light Infantry.

Spurrier, 30 Baltimore Volunteers.

Hughes, 27 1st Baltimore Riflemen.

Hodgkinson, 20 1st Baltimore Sharpshooters.

McGuire, 30 Morgan Volunteers.

Total, 165

I have the honour to be very respectfully,

B. U. CAMPBELL.

Lt. Col. 1st Light Regt. Md. Vol.

DISTURBANCES ON THE WASHINGTON RAIL ROAD.

In order to correct many false reports which are too freely in circulation through the city, we subjoin all the information we can procure, and in as correct a form as possible.

On Thursday night, about 8 o'clock, a large fire broke out, pertaining to the Tavern kept by Mr. Merrill, at Waterloo, was discovered to be on fire, and was soon reduced to ashes. A brisk wind at the time, carried the sparks immediately over the tavern and dwelling house, and which but for a sudden change in its course, would have been also consumed. As it was, however, the kitchen was set on fire in several places, but with timely assistance the flames were arrested and but trifling damage sustained.

Yesterday afternoon, between 2 and 3 o'clock, a party of 6 or 8 of the workmen who had been released from the jail in this city were returning to the rail-road by way of the Washington turnpike. Arriving at the bridge across the Patuxent usually called Dennis A. Smith's bridge, they refused to pay the customary toll, and as one of the party attempted to force his way through the gate he was fired at by the toll-keeper and wounded; some persons state in the fleshy part of the thigh, and as others declare in the abdomen. His wound is not dangerous. As an excuse for this proceeding on the part of the toll-keeper, we are informed that every gate keeper on the road is continually annoyed by attempts made to pass without paying toll. Mr. Smith, to secure his bridge and dwelling, which are in the immediate neighbourhood, from all danger, sent into this city for arms and men, and a party set out immediately to his assistance. The rumor that McCartney's bridge had been threatened, is false.

The authorities of Anne Arundel county are on the alert, and will do every thing they can to restore tranquility.—Balt. Gazette.

We regret to learn that a serious accident occurred to the venerable Bishop Stone, this morning, near the Depot of the Annapolitan R. R. Road. In walking near one of the embankments, the Bishop trod upon a stone, which caused him to slip, and he fell down the embankment and broke his leg. Our informant stated that the Bishop seemed to be in a good deal of pain when he left there. Several of the clergy, and many of the Bishop's friends were present, and aided in giving every attention which his situation required.—Id.

ROCKVILLE, Md. Nov. 20.

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL.

A gentleman just from the line of the Canal, informs us that on Friday last, the water was let into the Canal at Hollman's dam, and has been brought down to Harper's Ferry. As far as they have been put to trial, the embankments and works have stood the test; very few leaks having been discovered and these of little consequence. Hollman's dam is about 8 miles below Williamsport, but backs the water up to that flourishing town, and thus the navigation will be perfected for more than one hundred miles. All who are acquainted with the valley of the Potomac, admit that the advantages accruing from the navigation will increase in proportion to its extension, and we trust that the advantages which will now be made apparent, will animate the friends of internal improvement to a strenuous effort, to secure the completion of the whole work.

OUR CANAL.

It is with no little pleasure we mention that the navigation is now open, on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, from Georgetown to Shepherdstown. To show the great effect and consequence of the progress already made in this great work, we state the fact, that, among other boats, a single boat has just arrived at Georgetown, in less than two days passage from Shepherdstown, (a distance of about a hundred miles,) containing eight hundred barrels of flour, and drawn by one horse.—Nat. Intel.

THE PIRATES.

The Jury, who have been fifteen days on the trial of the twelve men accused of Piracy, came into Court this morning, with their verdict.—They pronounced 7 Guilty, and 5 Not Guilty.

The names of the seven are Pedro Gibert, (Captain,) Bernardo de Soto, (Mate,) Francisco Ruiz, (Carpenter,) Manoel Boyga, Jose Busillo de Castro, (alias Juan Montenegro,) Angelo Garcia, and Manuel Castillo.

The names of the five found Not Guilty, are Nicola Costa, (the boy,) Antonio Ferrer, (the black,) Jose Valquez, Antonio Portana, and Domingo de Guzman.

D. Soto, the mate, was recommended to mercy. The prisoners who were pronounced guilty, were thrown into a violent passion on hearing the verdict, and Garcia exclaimed that it was unjust to condemn some, and free others, when they all belonged to the same vessel.—The prisoners who were pronounced not guilty, were immediately set at liberty in the court room.—Boston paper.

OFFICIAL—NAVY REGISTER.

Vessels of the different squadrons came on the last month except the frigate Constellation, returned from the Mediterranean.

NOTICES.

MEDITERRANEAN.

Frigate Constellation, Capt. Read, arrived at M. Mon on the 12th of August, at Gibraltar the 8th of October and anchored in the light of Cray Island 21st of November, thirty days from the Mediterranean.

Schooner Shark, Lt. Comdg. Paulding, parted company with the Delaware on 7th, on their way down the Mediterranean, on the 18th of September, and had at last advices, 8th of October, arrived at M. Mon, where the Delaware was expected to touch.

Sloop John Adams, Capt. Conner, arrived at Funchal Road (Madeira) the 8th September—all well; still there 17th September.

Sloop St. Louis, Capt. McCuley bearing the broad pennant of Com. Hensley, sailed from Norfolk for the West Indies the 14th Nov.

Sloop Vandalia, Capt. Webb, still at Norfolk, nearly ready for sea; will sail soon for the West Indies.

Sloop Flimouth, Capt. Rousseau, was at Vera Cruz the 28th Oct.

Schooner Experiment, Lieut. Comdg. Paine, sailed from Pensacola the 22d October was at Key West 14th November.

COAST OF BRAZIL.

Sloop Natchez, Capt. Zantagier, bearing the broad pennant of Com. Ronshaw, arrived at Rio 13th Sept. 7 days from Bahia still at Rio 2d September.

Sloop Ontario, Capt. Fisher was at Bahia the 5th of Sept. to sail soon after for Rio.

Schooner Enterprise, Lt. Comdg. Campbell, arrived at Rio 15th September, 63 days from Hampton Roads.

PACIFIC.

No intelligence from the squadron on this station since the last monthly report.

Schooner Boxer, Lieut. Comdg. Page, sailed from Norfolk the 2d of Nov. for the Pacific.

THE MAILS.

For the Mediterranean, can be sent by a vessel to sail from N. York from 15th to 15th Dec.

For the Coast of Brazil by the ship, Nymph from Baltimore, and by a brig from N. York—both advertised to sail the first week in December.

For the Pacific by the ship Leonidas, advertised to sail from N. York the first week in December, and as usual on the 15th of each month by the packet from N. York by way of Kingston, Jamaica.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, }
November 29, 1834. }

HORRID MURDER.

The following account of a most dreadful transaction, has been communicated to us in a letter dated—

CHARLOTTE COURIER.

"CERAR SHOAL, C. D. (So. Ca.) Nov. 10.

"The circumstances attending the death of Captain Rodman, together with another neighbor, Mr. Wm. Walker, are, perhaps, the most outrageous acts of human butchery ever perpetrated in any country. They are briefly as follows:—On Wednesday evening, the 12th inst. John G. Ferguson, a young man of this vicinity, went to the store of Capt. Rodman to trade him a small bag of cotton, which he did, and in the settlement there was a small balance of change due Ferguson, which it was not convenient for Capt. Rodman to make at that time. Ferguson became enraged, and swore that if he did not pay him then, he would sue him. At this time, Mr. Walker (who, with another man, were the only persons present) observed to Ferguson, not to make himself uneasy about the change, that Rodman would pay him shortly.—Ferguson immediately laid hold of Walker, threw him down, and was beating him severely, when Capt. Rodman got over the counter and separated them. Ferguson then drew out his knife, when Capt. Rodman retreated back over the counter; in doing which, he received a stab in the side from Ferguson and one in the arm, which proved mortal in 48 hours. Ferguson then turned upon Walker, who got up and was sitting upon the counter, plunged his knife into Walker's left breast, and to the handle, as appeared afterwards when the knife was found. Walker survived but 24 hours. Ferguson made his escape, and has yet eluded his pursuers. Thus have this community been deprived of two respectable citizens, by the hand of a worthless assassin."

Indian murders—and probable War.—The American Warrior arrived at this port on Saturday from the Chinese. We are sorry to learn, as we do by the Indians in that region have again been engaged in hostile acts and that they portend a serious consequence. A short time since, a party of the Black and Tan River, and killed three persons. The murders were, however, (it was ascertained at Rock Island,) committed by Keokoe, to a detachment of the United States soldiers, under command of Capt. — They were on board of the steamboat Winnebago, bound for the Mississippi, for the purpose of being per force.

On the day previous to the arrival of the Warrior, Prairie du Chien, another Missouri took place in the same tribe of Indians. On an island, three miles above the Prairie, a lodge of Winnebago was established. It was occupied at the time by warriors and children only—the warriors being about on a hunting excursion. Suddenly, the Sac and Fox Indians, their appearance before the lodge, first in a friendly and, and scalped ten of the Indians. But one of the Sac warriors lost his life, and that was by the hand of Winnebago boy, about fifteen years of age. The boy was standing at the door of the lodge, between his brother and sister, when two of the warriors appeared, and fired upon them. Rodding instantly, that an old gun remained in the lodge, he procured it and awaited the return of the boy who had retreated for the purpose of reloading the gun. As soon as they appeared before him, he deliberately aimed one of them, first, and the bullet struck through the heart of his enemy. He then escaped the interior of the lodge, made his way for the stream and gave information of the massacre at the Crawford.

A detachment of troops was immediately ordered in pursuit of the murderers, but as far as it is known without success. The Winnebago, it is said, had terminated on retaliation, and their warriors were ready collecting. Their foe, it is also known, are ready to receive them—having been recently armed with equipping themselves for fight. Towards the Winnebago, all parties of the Sac and Fox have as yet been hindered. They view them as having been the cause of their bad conduct, of all the calamities brought on them by the United States, and as having seized a treacherous and infamous part at the termination of it. It is very circumstantial to consider to make it more than probable, that should a conflict take place, it will be a bloody one.—Republican.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 12 o'clock the Senate was called to order by the Vice-President of the United States (Hon. MARTIN VAN BUREN) when it appeared that the following Senators were in their seats: From Maine—Ether Shipley.

New Hampshire—Samuel B. Linn.

Massachusetts—Nathaniel Silsbee, Daniel Webster.

Vermont—Benjamin Swift.

Rhode Island—Asher Robbins, Nelson Knight.

Connecticut—Nathan Smith, Gideon Tinslinson.

New York—Silas Wright, N. P. Tallmadge.

Pennsylvania—Samuel McKean.

New Jersey—Samuel L. Southard, Tavels Frelinghuysen.

Delaware—Arnold N. Main.

Maryland—Joseph Kent.

Virginia—John Tyler.

North Carolina—Willie P. Mangum.

Georgia—John P. King.

Alabama—G. Briel Moore.

Mississippi—G. G. Polk.

Tennessee—Hugh L. White, Felix Grundy.

Kentucky—Henry Clay.

Ohio—Thomas Ewing.

Indiana—Wm. Hendricks, John Tipton.

Illinois—Elihu K. Kane, John M. Roberts.

Mr. White submitted the following resolutions, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed, of the part of the Senate, to join such Congress as may be appointed by the House of Representatives, to wait on the President of the United States, and inform him that quorums of the two Houses have assembled, and that Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

Messrs. White and Swift were appointed to the Committee on the part of the Senate.

Mr. Knight submitted the following resolution, which was also adopted.

Resolved, That each Senator be supplied, during the present session, with three such newspapers, printed in any of the States, as he may choose; provided the same be furnished at the usual rates for the annual charges of such papers, and provided, also, that if any Senator shall choose to take any newspaper other than such papers, he shall be supplied with as many such papers as shall not exceed the price of these daily papers.

Mr. Grundy submitted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the 34th rule of the Senate, so far as respects the Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads be suspended, and that the present Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads be continued, with all the powers vested in them, and subject to all the duties imposed on them by the resolution.

[The 34th rule provides Committees shall be elected of each session.]

The resolution was taken on motion of Mr. White. Ordered, That the Secretary read the report of the Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads.

A message was received from the President, by Mr. F. stating that a quorum of the House had convened at the House, for the appointment of the Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads.

The Senate then adjourned.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 12 o'clock the House of Representatives assembled, and the roll was called. Present, 120 Members.

NEW MEMBERS.

The following new members were sworn in, and took the oath of office: From Kentucky—R. B. Johnson.

From Ohio—Daniel F. Johnson.

The Maryland Gazette.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1854.

NO. 50.

VOL. LXXIII.

Printed and Published by
JONAS GREEN,
at the Brick Building on the Public
Circle.
Price—Three Dollars per annum.

COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LI-BRARY.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals, ever offered to the public.

BEFORE the Select Circulating Library had been long in existence, it was discovered that there was still something wanting—that many occurrences in the world must pass unknown, as regarded the agency, without an extension of the plan.

To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which, we are reason to believe, was afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give it gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown other desiderata which the "Companion" is designed to supply. While reading for the Library a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magazinaire, inter-persed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would enrich too much on the columns of the "Library" designed for books, and yet to pass-em by is constantly a subject of regret.
To concentrate, therefore, the publication of books, Reviews, lists of new works, &c.
&c. &c. the "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of present subscribers and the public at large.
It is believed that with the "Library,"
the "Journal," and the "Companion," such acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being published from the same office, more facility offers for subscribing, and having fewer people to deal with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and are readily corrected when they do. The interval of two weeks between the publication of each number, it is thought too, will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies.

The following plan is respectfully submitted.

1. The "COMPANION" will contain the most desirable reprints of the best matter
in the British periodicals.

2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the Library—each number containing sixteen pages, every six months, giving thirty-two numbers, which can be bound with the Library at little or no more expense, and making a better sized volume; and to those who do not take the Library itself, a volume year, of 416 quarto pages of the size of the present.

3. The price will be three dollars for a subscriber—five dollars for two—and clubs and upwards will be supplied at two dollars each.

4. As the work will not be commenced, less a sufficient patronage be obtained, no payment is required at present, only the amount sent free of postage. Those wishing support the publication will be pleased before to announce their intention as early as possible, as it is intended to commence work on the first of January next. On the issuing of the second number payment
will be expected, as its appearance will receive a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid circulation of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to his work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the extension on the part of the Editor, who has ready at hand the material for such a work,
the really valuable matter of the English Library and amusing publications may be impressed in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely to sell. It will form the cheapest reprint of views and magazines ever attempted in any country; a comparison with others it is needless here to enter upon, the "Library" itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day,
to have no competitor for value or cheapness; how far he is likely to do this he must leave at present to the decision of his readers.
Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the "Library" and "Companion" both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety five cents, divided into seventy eight payments, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance from Philadelphia, while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magazines in octavo form would be eighteen dollars, and the postage as three to one. We make this assertion advisedly.

Subscriptions to the "Companion" will be taken either with or without the "Library."

The proprietor trusts that his punctuality and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the "Library," will be considered a sufficient guarantee of the completion of his proposed undertaking.
ADAM WALDIE.

Nov. 8 41.

ADVERTISEMENT.

The undersigned, commissioners appointed by Saint Mary's County Court, to value and divide the real estate of Joseph Millard, deceased, late of Saint Mary's county, according to the provisions of the acts of Assembly in such case made and provided,
do hereby give notice to all concerned, that he shall meet at John Barnes' the Tenant, on the premises, on THURSDAY the fifth day of February next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to proceed in the business for which we are appointed.

B. GOUGH,
THOS. W. GOUGH, } Com'rs
W. WOODWARD. }

WILLIAM BRYAN,
Merchant Tailor.

HAS just received a valuable assortment
of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES and VEST-
INGS, very superior in quality, and variety
in colours; all of which he is determined to sell low. His shop is kept in the house of Washington G. Tucker, Esq. next door to Messrs. Hart & Franklin's store. He will make up work at the shortest notice, and in the best and most fashionable style. Gentlemen wishing to encourage him will do well to
call on him.
Oct. 25.

NEW IMPORTATION.
GEORGE McNEIR,
MERCHANT TAILOR.

HAS just received a LARGE & FINE
SOME assortment of
LOUIS CASIMIERES and VESTING of the latest importation and style, which he invites his friends and the public to call
and examine.

ALSO:
A supply of GLOVES, STOCKS, COL-LARS, HOSIERS, SILK ROSE &
C. &c. &c.
Oct. 10.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY virtue of sundry writs of fieri facias,
issued out of Anne Arundel County Court, and to me directed, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of Upton
D. Welch, at suit of James Sykes Christian Esq., Reuben Warfield, Joshua Dryden, and Densmore and Kyle, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand, both at law and equity, of said Upton D. Welch, and to all those tracts or parts of tracts, of land and premises, called the Last Shift Shipley's Search, Shipley's Contention, one other tract, called a Farm in a better Shape, containing in the whole, three hundred and thirteen acres of land, more or less, being in Upton D. Welch, lying and being in Anne Arundel county, near Sykesville, also one other tract of land, called John's Last Shift, containing two hundred acres of land more or less, and one other tract called, Lot No. 2, containing one hundred and ninety acres of land, more or less, also the following Natives, one Negro man by the name of Solomon, one ditto woman named Ann, one ditto woman Rachel, and her two children, Joseph and Thomas, also sundry Stock, Horses, Cattle, and a number of Hogs, Plantation Utensils, among which is an excellent Waggon and Geary and on Wednesday, 31st
Dec: instant, at the residence of the said Upton
D. Welch, I shall proceed to sell the said said property, or such part thereof as may be necessary to discharge the debts due as aforesaid. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.
Terms CASH.

2 R. WELCH, of Ben.
Sh'ff. A. A. County.

Dec. 4.

CASH IN MARKET.

FOR ONE HUNDRED NE-GROES of both sexes, from 10 to 30 years of age. I will give more for that number of slaves than any other Purchaser in the market, or the country. All communications will be promptly attended to if left at James Hunter's Hotel, Annapolis, at which place the subseriber can be found.
WILLIAM HOOPER.

Oct. 4.—8m.

POETRY.
THE MAD FORT'S ADDRESS TO THE MOON.

I cannot endure thy ghastly glow,
Thou moon, so barren and so cold;
A sick like rock with a burning flow
Through my weak and weary brain doth go
With a high continual sound;
And my dumb eye I am forced to throw
Up from the cool dark ground.
It is strange—scarce a year, with its burden of ill,
Hath sped on eternally's blast,
Since I felt in my bosom the sweetest of thrills,
And joyously trod o'er the lone mossy hills,
With music eye over up to thee cast;
And drank with delight at thy clear raining rills,
Made purer by thee as they passed.
But now, should I drink at a streamlet of thine,
Which deeply reflects thy strange ray,
I seem as if drunk with the strongest of wine,
And my brain heaves with shapes that I cannot define.

And, delicious, I hurry away,
And mutter and beat thy poor forehead of mine
Till the first soothing streak of the day,
Then the spirit of song started up in my breast,
And I sang all night long in thy praise;
And I felt with the first of my joy by blast,
When I saw the pure shroud of love and of rest
A canopy over thee raise.

And I wept when I saw thee go down in the west,
Like thy priests in the old heathen days.
But the spirit of song then was gentle and glad,
But no more it is so strident and sad,
As it lies in my bosom so strident and sad,
Like a demon that from the beginning was mad,
Like a demon that from the beginning was mad,
And the long-forgotten strings of its minstrelsy had
An other destroyed or deranged.

And I have to keep watch over it early and late,
And all the long dreary night,
In fear it should rise and destroy me in hate,
And howl like an ominous dog at a gate,
Where death is prepared to alight,
And make my own tongue to deliver the date
When my heart with the dust must unite.

Even now, while I write through thy thick fiery mists,
I feel it upspring in its lair;
Even now, in its fury and pride it exists,
And I dare my weak spirit to enter the lists
With it in the deadly air.
And I know that thy influence, dread spirit, assists
To bring me along with it to the sea.

Awake I must drive through the depths of the sea,
And find out some hidden cave,
Where my mind's shadowy shadowy shifting may be,
Where the spirit of song, when it cannot get free,
May die in my bosom—its grave,
Away to the rock-girdled ocean I flee,
To cool my hot brain in the wave.

— W. M.

MISCELLANEOUS.
THE FOUNDER FORM.

BY GEORGE D. PRENTICE.
I was never a man of feeble courage. There are few scenes either of human or elemental strife, upon which I have not looked with a now of daring. I have stood in the front of the battle, when swords were gleaming and crying around me like fiery serpents of the air. I have sat on the mountain pinnacle, when the whirlwind was rending its oaks from their rocky clefts and scattering their piecemeal
to the clouds—I have seen these things with a swelling soul, that knew not that reck-ed not of danger—but there is something in the thunder's voice that makes me tremble like a child. I have tried to overcome this unnatural weakness—I have called pride to my aid. I have sought for moral courage in the lessons of philosophy—but it avails me nothing
—at the first low moaning of the distant clouds, my heart shrinks, quivers, gasps, and dies, within me.

My involuntary dread of thunder had its origin in an incident, that occurred when I was a child of ten years. I had a little companion—a girl of the same age of my childhood.
She was, that, after the lapse of almost a score of years, that countenance should be so familiar to me. I can see the bright, young creature—her large eye flashing like a beautiful gem, her free locks streaming as in joy upon her ruggled, and her cheek glowing like a ruby through a wreath of transparent snow.

Her voice had the melody of youthfulness of a bird, and when she bounded over the wooded hill or the fresh green valley, about a glass-answer to every voice of nature, and existence, she looked as if breaking away like a freed nightingale from the tie of earth, and going off where all things were but useful and happy like her.

It was a morning in the middle of August
the little girl had been passing some days at my father's house, and she was now to return home. Her path lay across the fields, and I gladly became the companion of her walk. I never knew a summer morning more beautiful and still. Only one little cloud was visible, and that seemed as pure and white,
and peaceful, as if it had been the incense
smoke of some burning altar of the skies.
The leaves hung silent in the woods, and the waters of the bay had forgotten their undulations, the flowers were bending their heads
as if dreaming of the rainbow and the dew,
and the whole atmosphere was of such a soft and luxurious sweetness, that it seemed a cloud of roses, scattered down by the hand of a Peri from far off gardens of Paradise.

The green earth and the blue sea lay abroad
in their boundlessness, and the peaceful sky
bent over and blessed them.

The little creature at my side was in a delirium of happiness, and her clear, sweet voice came ringing upon the air as often as she heard the tones of a favourite bird, or found some strange and lovely flower in her frolic wanderings. The unbroken and almost supercal tranquillity of the day continued until nearly noon. Then, for the first time, the indications of an approaching tempest were manifest. Over the summit of a mountain, at the distance of about a mile, the shoals

of a dark cloud became suddenly visible, and, at the same instant, a hollow roar came down upon the winds, as if it had been the sound of the waves in a rocky cavern. The cloud rolled out like a banner fold upon the air, but still the atmosphere was calm and the leaves as motionless as before, and there was not even a quiver upon the sleeping water to tell of the coming hurricane.

To escape the tempest was impossible. As the only resort, we fled to an oak, that stood at the foot of a tall and ragged precipice.
Here we remained and gazing almost breathlessly upon the clouds, marshalling them selves like bloody giants in the sky. The thunder was not frequent, but every burst was so fearful that the young creature who stood by me shut her eyes convulsively, clung with desperate strength to my arm, and shrieked as if her very heart would break.

A few minutes, and the storm was upon us.
During the height of its fury, the little girl raised her fingers to the precipice, that towered above us, and an amethystine flame was quivering upon its grey peaks; and the next moment, the clouds opened; the rocks tottered to their foundations, a roar like a groan of the universe filled the air, and I felt myself blown and thrown, I knew not whither. How long I remained insensible, I cannot tell, but, when consciousness returned the violence of the tempest was abating.
The roaring of the winds dying in the tree tops, and the deep tones of the clouds coming in faint murmurs from the eastern hills.

I arose, and looked trembling at almost deliriously around. She was with me—the dear girl of my infancy, stretched out upon the wet, green earth. After a moment of resolution, I went up and looked upon her.
The hapless creature upon her neck was slightly red, and a single dark spot upon her bosom told where the pathway of death had been.

At first I clasped her to my breast with a cry of agony, and then laid her down and gaze into her face, almost with a feeling of repulsion. Her bright eyes were closed, her cheeks were sweetly around her brow, the look of terror had faded from her lips, and an infant smile was pictured beautifully there, the red tongue upon her cheek was lovely as in life,
and as I pressed it to my own, the fountain of tears were opened, and I wept as if my heart were waters. I have but a dim recollection of what followed—I only know, that I remained weeping and motionless till the coming on of twilight, and that I was then taken tenderly by the hand, and led away, where I saw the countenances of parents and sisters.

Many years have gone by upon their wings of light and shadow, but the scenes I have pour-trayed still come over me, at times, with a terrible distinctness. The old oak yet stands at the base of the precipice, but its limbs are black and dead, and its hollow trunk, looking upwards to the sky as if calling for drink, is an emblem of rapid and noiseless decay. A year ago I visited the spot, the thoughts of bygone years came uninvitedly back to me—
thoughts of the little innocent being who fell
by my side like some beautiful tree of Spring, cut up by the whirlwind in the midst of its blossoming—but I remembered, and oh there was joy in the memory, that she had gone where no lightnings slumber in the folds of the rainbow cloud, and where the sunlit waters are never broken by the storm-breath of Omnipotence.

My readers will understand why I shrink
in terror from the thunder. Even the consciousness of security is no relief to me—my fear has assumed the nature of an instinct,
and seems indeed a part of my existence.

LETTER OF A TAR.

We have received (says the Norfolk Beacon) the following characteristic epistle
from one of the crew of the United States Ship Constellation, just arrived from Gibralter. It was written in the true sailor fashion, and if our mercantile friends have evered it, it would have awakened associations of heavy remittances. But it contains something above all gold and silver—the record of a noble deed.

THE LETTER.

During our stay at Toulon we were informed that a young man by the name of Alexander Jamieson, was a convict in that place—
having made some inquiries respecting him,
we found that he was an American, and was detected while in the act of smuggling when attached to an American vessel lying at Havre de Grace. He was tried by the laws of France, and sentenced to 6 years hard labour in the Navy Yard at Toulon, of which he had served four. He sent some letters on board for our perusal, from his mother, residing in the state of New Jersey, and one from himself stating the miserable condition he was in at present. Finding he was deserving of our assistance, we raised by subscriptions $100 and requested Capt. Read to place the amount in the hands of some respectable resident of the place, to be kept until the term of servitude expired, in order to procure himself
clothing and passage to his native country.
We also by the benevolent influence of Captain Read, got one year taken off his servitude.

How much must the feelings of his aged mother be excited, when she hears that her son and perhaps her only child now a slave

in a far distant clime was assisted by the crew of our ship, a set of beings thought by those residing on shore unfit to associate with the lowest dregs of society. Where is there a heart more open or a hand more ready to assist the distresses of any description than a Sailor's?

ROBERT M. DURAND.
U. S. Ship Constellation.

GREAT UNIVERSAL PLAGUE.

This dreadful pestilence, like the cholera, made its first appearance in the east. It rose in China, Tartary, India, and Egypt, about the year 1315. It is ascribed by contemporary writers to the general corruption of the atmosphere, accompanied by the appearance of millions of small serpents and other venomous insects, and in other places, quantities of huge vermin, with numerous legs, and of a hideous aspect, which filled the air with putrid exhalations. Making every allowance for the ignorance and credulity of the age, it appears evident that some natural causes had contributed to corrupt the air, and load it with pestiferous vapours.

Thus, it came into England in the end of the year 1348; and it rained from the previous Christmas until Midsummer, almost without cessation. Great inundations followed, and accumulations of stagnant water, by which the atmosphere was poisoned. It appears that in many countries there were also earthquakes, and tremblings of the earth. In many of the accounts given of these convulsions of nature, we may presume there was a great deal of exaggeration. But the testimonies are too numerous and respectable to leave any doubt that, before and during the pestilence, the elements were in a state of general convulsion which seems unparalleled
in history.

The Plague extended its ravages from India into the more western parts of Asia, into Egypt, Abyssinia, and thence into the for-thern part of Africa. It proceeded over Asia Minor, Greece, and the Island of the Aegean, almost depopulating the regions over which it stalked. It may be literally said to have decimated the whole world, even though we were to take this term as implying the destruction of nine, in place of one out of ten.

The plague appears to have lasted five or six months in one place and then given search of fresh victims. Its symptoms are minutely described by many writers, and appear to be the same in every country it visited. It generally appeared in the groins, or under the arm pits, where swellings were produced which broke out in sores, attended with fever, spitting and vomiting of blood. The patient frequently died in half a day, generally within a day or two at the most. If he survived the third day there was hope, though even then many fell into a deep sleep from which they never awoke.

From Greece the plague passed into Italy.
The Venetians having lost 100,000 souls, fled from their city, and left it almost uninhabited.
At Florence, sixty thousand persons died in one year.

France next became exposed to its ravages,
and the mortality was horrible. The malady proceeded northward through France, till it reached Paris, where it cut off fifty thousand people.

About the same time it spread into Germany, where its ravages are estimated at the enormous amount of twelve million, four hundred thousand souls.

At last this fearful scourge began to be felt in England. About the beginning of August, 1348, it appeared in the seaport towns—the cases of Dover, Bristol, and Southampton, were soon reported to Bristol. The people of Gloucestershire immediately interdicted all intercourse with Bristol, and in vain. The pestilence, or rather flew over Gloucesters-hire. Thence it spread to Oxford, and about the first of November reached London.
Finally it spread over all England, scattering everywhere a fearful death, that out of two whole population, hardly one in ten was left alive.

I credit a statement may appear, it seems, on the authority of the most authentic authorities. In the churchyard at Yarmmouth 702 persons died in six months. In the city of York the mortality was equal. In London the dead were thrown into pits, forty five or sixty to one, and large fields were employed as burial places, the church-yards being found insufficient for the purpose.
No attempt was made to perform this last office with care and decency. Deep and broad ditches were made, in which the dead bodies were laid in rows, covered with earth, and surmounted with another layer of bones, which were also covered. The mortality fell chiefly upon the lower classes of society, and among them, principally upon the old men, women and children. In these respects this plague seems to have differed from some of the plagues of the 17th century, which I have particularly among the upper classes. It was remarked that not one king or prince of any nation, died of the plague, and of the English nobility and people of distinction very few were cut off. Among the higher orders of the church, the deaths were rare. It appears that precautions could prevent the influence of the contagion. The bonds of society were loosened, parents forsook children, and children parents; some fled to the country, others locked themselves up in their houses, and many went on board vessels. But every where fugitives were followed, for the destroying angel had a foot on the waters as well as on the land. The pestilence spread into Wales and into Ireland. As to the Scots, they are said to have brought the disease on themselves. Taking advantage of the defenceless state of England, (or rather resolved to avenge the injuries suffered under the Edwards) they made a hostile irruption with a large force in the country. But they had not proceeded far when the plague overtook them. They perished in thousands, and carried the disease with them into Scotland, where its ravages were soon as destructive as they were in England. Early in the year 1349, the plague began to abate and by the month of August it had entirely disappeared. Its consequences, however, continued for some time to be severely felt. During the prevalence of the disease, the cattle for want of men to tend them, were allowed to wander about the fields at random, and perished in such numbers as to occasion a great scarcity. Though the fields, too, were covered with a plentiful crop of corn, much of it was lost for want of hands to reap and gather it in. The last drags of this great plague were drained by that unfortunate race, the Jews. A belief spread over several countries that they produced the pestilence by poisoning the wells and fountains; and in many places they were massacred in thousands by the infuriated populace. In several parts of Germany, where this persecution chiefly raged, the Jews were literally exterminated. Twelve thousand of them were murdered in the single city of Mentz; and multitudes of them, in the extremity of their despair, shut themselves up in their houses and consumed themselves with fire. The extent of such atrocities in a barbarous age, may well be imagined, when we remember the outrages which were at first produced in some parts of the continent by the cholera point.

Maryland Gazette.

ANNAPOLIS:
Thursday, December 11, 1834.

Mr. GREEN, If you think the following version worthy a place in the Gazette, you will please give it insertion and oblige yours &c. LOGAN.

For the Maryland Gazette.

Went you with the fair last night,
With Ludo, Gents assembled;
All, all was pleasure and delight,
They made the welkin tremble—
Miss Florabel—she was there,
With mark'd attention they received her;
And placed the Tally in her care,
While none pitied or relieved her.
Belles and Beaus—Lads and Lassies
All did join to bowl molasses—
Ah! there was one—surprising fair,
Surrounded by the loves and graces;
Her voice was soothing—drowning care,
Dispelling gloom from all our faces—
Than Laura Fair—none sweeter were,
Excepting One, my heart's delight,
With m'ans bland, serene air—
She too—was there that tiffy night—
Belles and Beaus—Lads and Lassies,
All did join to stew molasses—
The sisters three by none excelled,
Their charms expanded shone;
When as we view'd our bosom swell'd,
And thought them all as one—
A stranger Lady—was I seen,
Was there enrobed in sorrow's gloom,
Her smiles were few and far between;
A morning glory set at naught—
Belles and Beaus—Lads and Lassies,
All have gone to stew molasses—
Two Flowers there were—who form'd to shine,
Heralds in the court of bliss—
Fair lovely Buds—in morning's prime,
With love unalloy'd by time—
Dare one select from Beauty's choir,
A lady from that band divine;
A form to love and to admire,
'Twould be the blessing Adeline—
Belles and Beaus—Lads and Lassies,
All were there and sup'd not alone—
Now Mr. Slick—the ladies pet,
Came in, in haste had scarce set down;
Before his mouth was closely shut;
Reliev'd by now and then a frown—
His looks by all unheeded were,
'Mid glooms that circled all around;
His hat he seized—and bade the fair,
"Good night!" a bow then to the ground—
Belles and Beaus—Lads and Lassies—
All—but one did eat molasses—
Now Mr. Straight—he being at home,
Quite politely we were treated;
While Petrus Pedagogue walk'd alone,
Altho' by all was kindly greeted.
On times he sought the lovely eye,
The glowing cheek—traced every line;
And wonder'd if a flower could vie,
With the lovely Adeline—
Belles and Beaus—with charms divine
Must yield the palm to Adeline.

Court of Appeals, December Term, 1834.

Monday, Dec. 1st—This being the day fixed by law, for the meeting of the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore of Maryland, the Hon. E. F. Chambers attended.
Tuesday, Dec. 2d—Present—Buchanan Ch. J. and Chambers Judge.
Wednesday, Dec. 3d—Present as yesterday.
Thursday Dec. 4th—Present, Buchanan, Ch. J. and Chambers Judge.
Friday, Dec. 5th—Present as yesterday, and the Hon. Judge Dorney.
No. 1. John A. Clark and wife, ad'rs. of C. Helius Underwood, vs. State, use Williams, ex'rs. of Williams. This case was argued by Gausin for the Appellants, and Tuck for the Appellee.

No. 2. John Kilgus, vs. Miles and Goldsmith. The argument of this case was commenced by Gausin for the Appellant.
Saturday, Dec. 6th—Present as yesterday, and the Hon. Judge Stephen.
The argument of No. 3 was concluded by Johnson for the Appellees, and McMahon for the Appellant.
No. 4. Tho's K. Biscoe, vs. Langley Biscoe. This case was argued by Jno. Gausin for the Appellant, and Johnson for the Appellee.
Monday, Dec. 8th—Present as on Saturday.
On application James Boyle, Jr. Esquire, of the city of Annapolis, was admitted as an attorney of this court.
No. 120. Zaddock Sasser vs. Kemp and Young. This case was argued by T. F. Bowie and Johnson for the Appellants, and Alexander for the Appellees.
Nos. 40, 45. Bruce and Fisher vs. Cook, Garnishoe of Scarborough, and James & John Weaver vs. Baltzell, and Davidson, Garnishoe of McCaffrey. The argument of these cases was commenced by Lloyd and McMahon for the Appellants, and Johnson for the Appellees.
Tuesday, Dec. 9th—Present as yesterday.
The argument of the above case was concluded by McMahon for the Appellants.
Nos. 41, 42. Rebecca E. Crews, II's L'ase vs. Stephen Lawson—cross appeals from Baltimore county court. The argument of these cases was commenced by Lloyd for the Appellant in the first case.
Wednesday, Dec. 10th—Present as yesterday.
The above case was further argued by Evans for Lawson.
No. 14. Estep & Hall's Lessee vs. William Weems, et al. The argument of this case was commenced by Pinkney for the Appellant, and Boyle for the Appellee.

REPORT Of the Post Master General.

GENERAL POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
November, 1834.

To the President of the United States:
SIR—The Report which I had the honour to make on the 30th November, 1833, exhibited a balance due from this Department on the 1st July, 1833, beyond the whole amount of its available funds, of $195,208 40.

The expenses for the transportation of the mail necessarily continued undiminished till the close of the year 1833, prior to which date the retrenchments stated in that Report could not take effect; consequently the balance of debt against the Department continued to augment till that period.

The gross amount of postage was, from July 1 to December 31, 1833, $1,375,437 23

Compensation to Postmasters, including the contingent expenses of their offices during the same period, amounted to $134,629 86

Incidental expenses of the Department during the same time, amounted to $17,797 20

The expenses for transportation of the mail from July 1 to December 31, 1833, was $1,313,192 69

Making the total expenses of the Department for that half year $1,495,628 86

This sum, after deducting the gross amount of postage for that period, leaves a deficit for the six months ending 31st December, 1833, of $120,391 58

To this sum add the deficit existing on the 1st July, 1833, $105,208 40

And the balance of the debt against the Department beyond the amount of its available funds, was, on the 1st of January, 1834, $315,599 98

From the 1st of January, 1834, the retrenchments in the transportation of the mail, stated in my Report of last year, began to take effect; and from that period, the revenues of the Department have exceeded its expenses.

The gross amount of postage was, from January 1 to June 30, 1834, $1,448,269 69

Compensation to Postmasters, including the contingent expenses of their offices, within the same period, amounted to $461,433 64

Incidental expenses of the Department for the same time amounted to 30,300 36

The transportation of the mail from January 1 to June 30, 1834, amounted to 909,028 43

Making the total expenses of the Department for that half year ending the 30th of June, 1834, $1,400,762 45

This sum deducted from the gross amount of postage for that period, leaves a revenue beyond the amount of expenses for the half year from January 1, 1834, of 47,507 24

This sum deducted from the deficit existing January, 1, 1834, 31,598 98

Reduce the balance of debt which existed against the Department on the 1st July, 1834, to $368,092 74

Such was the financial condition of the Department on the 1st day of July last. The amount of this debt has been continually diminishing to the present time, and it continues to diminish in an increased ratio.

On the 1st day of July, 1834, the balance of the account with Banks was $398,616 99 against the Department, consisting of loans, $275,000, and over checks to the amount of $123,616 99.

In this statement, the difference between loans and over checks is rather nominal than essential.

When over-checks are mutually agreed upon to a certain definite amount as a standing order, they are called loans, but when they vary indefinitely as to time and amount, they are called over checks. In either case they are debts due from the Department to Banks.

This amount of balance against the Department has been considerably reduced since the first of July last.

On the 1st day of the present month it stood as follows:
Amount due for loans from Banks, $275,000 00
Amount of over-checks, November 1, 1834, 55,969 09

Making together the sum of $330,969 09
On the same day the balances of Bank deposits in favour of the Department, constituting the amount of cash on hand, amounted to 82,031 34

Making the actual balance of the accounts with Banks, against the Department, on the 1st November, 1834, 248,937 75

The contracts for the southern section, including the states of Virginia, N. Carolina, S. Carolina and Georgia, and the Territory of Florida, which will expire with the current year, have been renewed, to take effect from the 1st of January, next, on such terms as will effect an annual saving from the amount now paid for transportation in that section, of about $120,000.

Additional retrenchments have also been made in the expense of transportation subsequent to my last report, to the annual amount of $50,000. Making together an annual saving from the 1st January next, $170,000.

From the savings thus effected, together with the current excess of revenue in favour of the Department, it may be safely calculated, that without any reliance upon an increase in the gross amount of postage, the revenues of the Department will exceed its expenditures during the ensuing calendar year, to the amount of $270,000.

From a careful estimate, it may be anticipated with entire confidence, that before the close of the year 1835, the whole balance of debt against the Department will be extinguished. No part of this debt was contracted upon the credit of the Treasury, nor upon any other credit or authority than that of the Department alone.

It was never regarded by either of the parties in the character of a debt of the Government, but a mere expedient to anticipate the resources of the Department, based upon the credit of those resources alone.

The means of its liquidation within a reasonable time were always within the legal control of the head of the Department; and no other means have at any time been sought or desired by the Department.

In my Report of November, 1833, the expense for transporting the mail, and for incidental expenses, from July 1 to December 31, 1833, was estimated at $1,061,644 71

The actual expense for that period, was 1,031,199 97

Varying from the estimate only $444 74

The net proceeds of postage for the year ending 30th June, 1834, were then estimated at $2,037,410 81

The actual net proceeds of postage for that year, were 1,927,944 44

Falling below the estimate by the sum of $109,766 37

Thus it appears that the expenses of the Department have not essentially varied from the estimates; but the net revenue arising from postage has fallen short of the estimates then made, more than a hundred thousand dollars. This is believed to be, in a very considerable degree, attributable to the great increase of free letters. The progressive increase of population naturally brings with it an accumulation of business in the Executive offices, which tends in some measure, to increase their correspondence; and in addition to this, a law passed in March, 1833, extending to members of Congress the privilege of franking during the whole recess. Every other year, the session of Congress is protracted to a much greater length than in the alternate year, when a Congress terminates.

The expenses for the delivery of free letters at two cents each, have always amounted to a much greater sum during the year when the session is protracted, than during the alternate year. To make a fair comparison between the amount of free letters before and after the extension of the franking privilege, it is necessary to take two entire years. Thus: The allowance to Postmasters for the delivery of free letters for the two years ending July 30, 1832, (before the extension) was $40,556 89

For the two years ending July 1, 1834, (after the extension,) was 64,158 88

Making, since the extension, an increase of $23,601 99

Or payment for the delivery of 690,099 free letters.

more than were delivered the two preceding years. But no allowance is made for the delivery of free letters at post offices where the Postmasters' commissions exceed $500 a quarter.

If the same proportion of free letters is delivered at offices where no allowances for them are made to Postmasters, as at the smaller offices, then the increase since the franking privilege was extended, is equal to 960,000 free letters more than what were delivered within the same period of time prior to that extension. The postage on each of these letters, if not free, would be from six cents to two dollars. The average it is believed, would not be less than twenty-five cents each, exclusive of the Postmasters' commissions. If estimated at this average, they would amount to $240,000 00

To this add the allowance actually made for their delivery, 13,601 99

And the increase of free letters within the last two years has actually cost the Department $253,601 99

which is more than equal to the balance of debt at this time existing against the Department.

Estimates have been obtained from several of the Executive offices, of the amount of their official correspondence carried on through the Post office establishment under the franking privileges of the officers by whom it is conducted; and it appears that from the Departments of State, Treasury, War and Navy, including the subdivisions of the Treasury and Navy, the official correspondence by mail, on which no postage is paid, is estimated to be equal to 2,685,235 single free letters in a year, and that by far the greater proportion of these are sent the full distance, of which the highest rate of postage would be chargeable. The average postage on these letters, if not free it is believed would be not less than 16 3/4 cents each, which would amount to $441,456 56.

This estimate is exclusive of the offices of the Attorney General, Adjutant General, Commissary General, Inspector General, Quartermaster General, Paymaster General, and Superintendent of the Patent Office, all of whom have the privilege of franking. It is also estimated that the number of free letters passing under the frank of members of Congress, amounts to 8000 a day during the session.

If the correspondence of the offices above mentioned, which are not embraced in the estimate, and the postage fairly estimated which would be chargeable on the correspondence of members of Congress, if not free, should be added to the estimate, it is believed that the annual amount of free letters would not fall short of a million of dollars, exclusive of the correspondence of the Post Office Department itself.

This is an annual contribution by the Department to the Government.

Though the amount of revenue arising from postage, for the year ending June 30, 1834, did not equal the amount of the preceding year. The gross amount of postage for the year ending June 30, 1833, was $2,016,706 27

For the year ending June 30, 1834 it 2,823,538 27

Making an increase in the gross amount of $806,832 00

The net amount of postage, after deducting commissions to postmasters, and the contingent expenses of their offices, was, for the year ending June 30, 1833, $1,790,254 63

For the year ending June 30, 1834 it 1,927,944 44

Making an increase in the net proceeds of $137,689 79

The finances of the Department continue to be in an improving condition, and the solicitude which has been shown to obtain mail contracts, the reduced rates at which they have been taken for the Southern Section, and the rate at which contracts generally preserve in their services to the Department, furnish ample demonstration that its credit is unimpaired.

The number of the post offices in the United States, was, on the 1st of July last, 10,693, being an increase of 566 over the number reported last year.

The annual amount of transportation has been but slightly varied since my last report. The mail is now carried in stage and steam boats, about 10,900,000 miles a year; and on horseback, and in sulkeys, about 8,600,000 miles, making together about 19,500,000 miles a year.

The celerity of the mail should always be equal to the most rapid transition of the traveller; and that which shortens the time of communication, and facilitates the intercourse between distant places, is like bringing them near together. While it affords convenience to men of business, it tends to counteract local prejudices, by enlarging the sphere of acquaintance.

It perpetuates existing friendships, and creates new ones, by which the bonds of union are strengthened, and the happiness of society promoted. These considerations have always had their full weight upon my mind in making improvements in mail operations.

The multiplication of rail-roads in different parts of the country promises within a few years, to give great rapidity to the movements of travellers; and it is a subject worthy of enquiry, whether measures may not now be taken to secure the transportation of the mail upon them. Already have the mail roads between Frenchtown, in Maryland, and Newmarket, in Delaware, and between Camden and Amboy, in New Jersey, afforded great and important facilities to the transmission of the great Eastern mail. The rail-road in this city and Baltimore will soon be completed, and distance from the post office in this place to that of Baltimore, will not be materially varied from the present road, 33 miles.

From Baltimore by Port Deposit, in Maryland, to Coatesville, in Pennsylvania, the line for a rail-road is located, and the stock subscribed for its completion; and from Coatesville to Philadelphia a rail-road is made and in operation.

The distance between Baltimore and Philadelphia, on this road, will be 117 miles, about 18 miles greater than the present land route. From Philadelphia, to Trenton bridge, about 28 miles, the rail-road is nearly completed, and from New Brunswick, in New Jersey, to Jersey city, on the west side of the Hudson river, opposite the city of New York, 30 miles, the rail-road is in a state of progress. When these works shall be completed, the only interval will be between Trenton and New Brunswick, about 26 miles, to complete an entire rail-road between this place and the city of New York; and it cannot be supposed that the enterprise of New York, New Jersey will long delay to perfect a communication of such great importance, passing through most of her large and most flourishing towns.

When this shall be done, the whole distance between this city and New York, on a continuous rail-road, will not exceed 240 miles; and the journey may be performed at all times with certainty, allowing ample time for stopping at important places on the road, in 16 hours, and ordinarily in a shorter period.

If provision can be made to secure the regular transportation of the mail upon this, and upon other rail-roads which are constructing, and in some instances already finished, it will be of great utility to the public otherwise, these corporations may become exercising in their demands, and prove eventually to be dangerous monopolies.

I have the honour to be, most respectfully, your obedient servant,
W. T. BARRY.

not be supposed that the enterprise of New York, New Jersey will long delay to perfect a communication of such great importance, passing through most of her large and most flourishing towns.

When this shall be done, the whole distance between this city and New York, on a continuous rail-road, will not exceed 240 miles; and the journey may be performed at all times with certainty, allowing ample time for stopping at important places on the road, in 16 hours, and ordinarily in a shorter period.

If provision can be made to secure the regular transportation of the mail upon this, and upon other rail-roads which are constructing, and in some instances already finished, it will be of great utility to the public otherwise, these corporations may become exercising in their demands, and prove eventually to be dangerous monopolies.

I have the honour to be, most respectfully, your obedient servant,
W. T. BARRY.

E. K. AVERY.—Our readers will remember the report in circulation a few days since, that this man had made a full and unexpurgated confession of the murder of Sarah Maria Cornell. The Providence Journal of Thursday last, says, per almost on the spot, in allusion to this report, and in all probability totally unfounded, makes the following observations: "Had such a confession been made, it would have been proclaimed in all directions, yet we hear nothing of it except through the Republican. The probability is, that the information is erroneous."

From the Washington Mirror.
No. 1.

SAYINGS AND DOINGS IN CONGRESS.

On Monday 1st of December, at the Capitol, the second session of the Twenty-Third Congress. We propose, in a series of articles under the foregoing title, to present our readers with a synopsis of the sayings and doings in Congress, accompanied occasionally with brief observations thereupon, and interspersed with such anecdotes, incidents and en dit as the political occurrences of the week, in this Metropolis, are constantly furnishing. Our position at the seat of the General Government, our intercourse with intelligent gentlemen both in and out of Congress, and numerous other advantages which it is unnecessary to point out, will, we trust, enable us to do ample justice to our readers in this respect. We do, indeed, flatter ourselves that we shall have it in our power to render such an account of what is doing in this city, during the session, and even in the recess, as will interest our distant subscribers, and procure us many additions to our subscription list, amongst those who have neither time nor inclination to read the congressional speeches in extenso; who do not read the Washington daily paper; but who, nevertheless, are anxious to read a brief sketch of the proceedings in Congress and in this city during each successive session. We trust that this notice of our plan will attract the attention of our friends at a distance, and that they will, with us, exchange, more particularly, will send us their intention, and aid us through their columns in procuring additional subscribers. To the editors of every newspaper, who have not room for congressional speeches, our synopsis will be, we presume, very acceptable. We suggest to gentlemen at a distance, who wish to become subscribers to the Washington Mirror, that payment (six months in advance, according to our proposals) may be conveniently made, through the hands of Congress now in this city, or through the respective postmasters at the places of their residence. To any postmaster, or other person remitting to us dollars, we will send six copies of the Washington Mirror for six months from the receipt of his remittance. To any postmaster or other person writing to us postage free, who desires to see a specimen of our journal, we will cheerfully send our latest published number. The price of the Washington Mirror is Two Dollars per annum, the first half year liberally in advance.

The proceedings in Congress from Monday last till Thursday afternoon, when both houses adjourned on Monday next, were not very important. On Monday last about 180 members were in attendance at the sitting of the roll in the House of Representatives. In addition to the usual business of the day, a bill was introduced for the relief of a certain individual, which was referred to a committee.

On Tuesday at 12 o'clock, the President's message was presented by Mr. Donelson to both Houses of Congress. It was a document of great length, which occupied nearly two hours in the reading. After reading the copies to be printed for the use of the Senate, and 10,000 copies for the House of Representatives, both houses adjourned.

Mr. Senator King, of Georgia, distinguished himself on this day, by uttering a philippic against newspapers, and opposed the usual subscription to provide them for the use of each member of the Senate. The Senator, however, voted in favour of the appropriation. Mr. Foote, of Missouri, moved the continuance of the Committee on Public Lands, with all the powers vested in them. This was agreed to, as was, on the preceding day, a similar resolution of Mr. Grundy, to continue the Post Office Committee. On Wednesday, the Chair of the United States, the report of the Treasurer of the United States, Mr. Ewing gave notice that he would tomorrow ask leave to bring in a bill to amend the laws relating to the State of Ohio. After some other resolutions by Mr. Polk and Mr. Moore, references were made on motion of Mr. Grundy, of so much of the President's message as relates to the Post Office Department, as Mr. Allen, of Vt. Fulton, Ill., of Tenn. Hamers, of Ohio, Graham, Stewart, Crane, Corwin, and (last, but not least) CROCKETT: Resolutions were offered on this day by Mr. Casey, of Illinois, and Mr. James, of Vermont, to pay the annual tribute of respect to the memory of the Hon. Charles Sumner, and the Hon. John F. Deming, late members of Congress. The House then adjourned. On Thursday, in the Senate, Mr. Leigh appeared and took his seat. A message on this day received from the President of the United States, accompanying a letter from George W. Ledyard, along with an engraving on copper, of the Declaration of Independence, which his illustrious father bequeathed to Congress, as a last tribute of respect to patriotic love, and affection for his adopted country. Mr. Ewing introduced his promised bill to establish a northern boundary line of the State of Ohio, which was read and ordered to a second reading. In the House, then adjourned until Monday next. In the House, Representatives resolutions were offered by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity.

On Tuesday at 12 o'clock, the President's message was presented by Mr. Donelson to both Houses of Congress. It was a document of great length, which occupied nearly two hours in the reading. After reading the copies to be printed for the use of the Senate, and 10,000 copies for the House of Representatives, both houses adjourned.

Mr. Senator King, of Georgia, distinguished himself on this day, by uttering a philippic against newspapers, and opposed the usual subscription to provide them for the use of each member of the Senate. The Senator, however, voted in favour of the appropriation. Mr. Foote, of Missouri, moved the continuance of the Committee on Public Lands, with all the powers vested in them. This was agreed to, as was, on the preceding day, a similar resolution of Mr. Grundy, to continue the Post Office Committee. On Wednesday, the Chair of the United States, the report of the Treasurer of the United States, Mr. Ewing gave notice that he would tomorrow ask leave to bring in a bill to amend the laws relating to the State of Ohio. After some other resolutions by Mr. Polk and Mr. Moore, references were made on motion of Mr. Grundy, of so much of the President's message as relates to the Post Office Department, as Mr. Allen, of Vt. Fulton, Ill., of Tenn. Hamers, of Ohio, Graham, Stewart, Crane, Corwin, and (last, but not least) CROCKETT: Resolutions were offered on this day by Mr. Casey, of Illinois, and Mr. James, of Vermont, to pay the annual tribute of respect to the memory of the Hon. Charles Sumner, and the Hon. John F. Deming, late members of Congress. The House then adjourned. On Thursday, in the Senate, Mr. Leigh appeared and took his seat. A message on this day received from the President of the United States, accompanying a letter from George W. Ledyard, along with an engraving on copper, of the Declaration of Independence, which his illustrious father bequeathed to Congress, as a last tribute of respect to patriotic love, and affection for his adopted country. Mr. Ewing introduced his promised bill to establish a northern boundary line of the State of Ohio, which was read and ordered to a second reading. In the House, then adjourned until Monday next. In the House, Representatives resolutions were offered by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity.

On Tuesday at 12 o'clock, the President's message was presented by Mr. Donelson to both Houses of Congress. It was a document of great length, which occupied nearly two hours in the reading. After reading the copies to be printed for the use of the Senate, and 10,000 copies for the House of Representatives, both houses adjourned.

Mr. Senator King, of Georgia, distinguished himself on this day, by uttering a philippic against newspapers, and opposed the usual subscription to provide them for the use of each member of the Senate. The Senator, however, voted in favour of the appropriation. Mr. Foote, of Missouri, moved the continuance of the Committee on Public Lands, with all the powers vested in them. This was agreed to, as was, on the preceding day, a similar resolution of Mr. Grundy, to continue the Post Office Committee. On Wednesday, the Chair of the United States, the report of the Treasurer of the United States, Mr. Ewing gave notice that he would tomorrow ask leave to bring in a bill to amend the laws relating to the State of Ohio. After some other resolutions by Mr. Polk and Mr. Moore, references were made on motion of Mr. Grundy, of so much of the President's message as relates to the Post Office Department, as Mr. Allen, of Vt. Fulton, Ill., of Tenn. Hamers, of Ohio, Graham, Stewart, Crane, Corwin, and (last, but not least) CROCKETT: Resolutions were offered on this day by Mr. Casey, of Illinois, and Mr. James, of Vermont, to pay the annual tribute of respect to the memory of the Hon. Charles Sumner, and the Hon. John F. Deming, late members of Congress. The House then adjourned. On Thursday, in the Senate, Mr. Leigh appeared and took his seat. A message on this day received from the President of the United States, accompanying a letter from George W. Ledyard, along with an engraving on copper, of the Declaration of Independence, which his illustrious father bequeathed to Congress, as a last tribute of respect to patriotic love, and affection for his adopted country. Mr. Ewing introduced his promised bill to establish a northern boundary line of the State of Ohio, which was read and ordered to a second reading. In the House, then adjourned until Monday next. In the House, Representatives resolutions were offered by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity.

On Tuesday at 12 o'clock, the President's message was presented by Mr. Donelson to both Houses of Congress. It was a document of great length, which occupied nearly two hours in the reading. After reading the copies to be printed for the use of the Senate, and 10,000 copies for the House of Representatives, both houses adjourned.

Mr. Senator King, of Georgia, distinguished himself on this day, by uttering a philippic against newspapers, and opposed the usual subscription to provide them for the use of each member of the Senate. The Senator, however, voted in favour of the appropriation. Mr. Foote, of Missouri, moved the continuance of the Committee on Public Lands, with all the powers vested in them. This was agreed to, as was, on the preceding day, a similar resolution of Mr. Grundy, to continue the Post Office Committee. On Wednesday, the Chair of the United States, the report of the Treasurer of the United States, Mr. Ewing gave notice that he would tomorrow ask leave to bring in a bill to amend the laws relating to the State of Ohio. After some other resolutions by Mr. Polk and Mr. Moore, references were made on motion of Mr. Grundy, of so much of the President's message as relates to the Post Office Department, as Mr. Allen, of Vt. Fulton, Ill., of Tenn. Hamers, of Ohio, Graham, Stewart, Crane, Corwin, and (last, but not least) CROCKETT: Resolutions were offered on this day by Mr. Casey, of Illinois, and Mr. James, of Vermont, to pay the annual tribute of respect to the memory of the Hon. Charles Sumner, and the Hon. John F. Deming, late members of Congress. The House then adjourned. On Thursday, in the Senate, Mr. Leigh appeared and took his seat. A message on this day received from the President of the United States, accompanying a letter from George W. Ledyard, along with an engraving on copper, of the Declaration of Independence, which his illustrious father bequeathed to Congress, as a last tribute of respect to patriotic love, and affection for his adopted country. Mr. Ewing introduced his promised bill to establish a northern boundary line of the State of Ohio, which was read and ordered to a second reading. In the House, then adjourned until Monday next. In the House, Representatives resolutions were offered by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity.

On Tuesday at 12 o'clock, the President's message was presented by Mr. Donelson to both Houses of Congress. It was a document of great length, which occupied nearly two hours in the reading. After reading the copies to be printed for the use of the Senate, and 10,000 copies for the House of Representatives, both houses adjourned.

Mr. Senator King, of Georgia, distinguished himself on this day, by uttering a philippic against newspapers, and opposed the usual subscription to provide them for the use of each member of the Senate. The Senator, however, voted in favour of the appropriation. Mr. Foote, of Missouri, moved the continuance of the Committee on Public Lands, with all the powers vested in them. This was agreed to, as was, on the preceding day, a similar resolution of Mr. Grundy, to continue the Post Office Committee. On Wednesday, the Chair of the United States, the report of the Treasurer of the United States, Mr. Ewing gave notice that he would tomorrow ask leave to bring in a bill to amend the laws relating to the State of Ohio. After some other resolutions by Mr. Polk and Mr. Moore, references were made on motion of Mr. Grundy, of so much of the President's message as relates to the Post Office Department, as Mr. Allen, of Vt. Fulton, Ill., of Tenn. Hamers, of Ohio, Graham, Stewart, Crane, Corwin, and (last, but not least) CROCKETT: Resolutions were offered on this day by Mr. Casey, of Illinois, and Mr. James, of Vermont, to pay the annual tribute of respect to the memory of the Hon. Charles Sumner, and the Hon. John F. Deming, late members of Congress. The House then adjourned. On Thursday, in the Senate, Mr. Leigh appeared and took his seat. A message on this day received from the President of the United States, accompanying a letter from George W. Ledyard, along with an engraving on copper, of the Declaration of Independence, which his illustrious father bequeathed to Congress, as a last tribute of respect to patriotic love, and affection for his adopted country. Mr. Ewing introduced his promised bill to establish a northern boundary line of the State of Ohio, which was read and ordered to a second reading. In the House, then adjourned until Monday next. In the House, Representatives resolutions were offered by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity, and by Mr. Wadsworth, for the abolition of Chastity.

On Tuesday at 12 o'clock, the President's message was presented by Mr. Donelson to both and Mr. White, of Florida, for the purpose of...

The Speaker held before the House, a letter from the...
The House then, on the motion of Mr. Mann, of New York, adjourned until...
the 8th instant.

THE PIRATES.
The Boston Confinement contains the following remarks...
The whole transaction, from its inception to the...
The jury, has been one of the most extraordinary...
in the annals of crime. An American vessel...
is encountered by pirates, in the midst of the ocean...
of miles from land, and for aught that the...
concerned knew to the contrary, as far from a...
the American crew were driven...
beaten, menaced with instant death by fearful odds...
and at all points, against them, compelled to give up...
the vessel, and finally looked down below. A band...
of pirates, on the vessel, seized upon the nautical...
instruments, and the sails and rigging, broke...
himself; destroy the compass; collect the most com...
municable materials at hand, apply the torch; leave the...
in this deplorable condition, to the mercy of their...
fate, taking the boat of the American vessel...
they did not want—scuttled it in sight of the...
looking from his own cabin window, and then sail...
away, with the manifest intention of burning the...
and crew while looked down below! This is the...
statement of facts, as abundantly proved as the...
of the fact.

In this awful condition, Providence interposed for... protection! By mere chance, a small scull...
by the pirates unobserved. One of the men gets out...
and releases all his companions from the most horrible...
all deaths—immediate confinement on the lonely...
far from friends and home. Probably in less than...
minutes more, the vessel would have been enveloped...
in flames! They come on deck and extinguish the... reading fire! Even at that tremendous crisis these...
men were afraid to show themselves on deck...
the demoniac pirates should return and consummate...
their deed by murdering them all in cold blood! But...
their enemies, thinking the Mexican post redemption...
and departed probably in pursuit of another victim, then...
chance in sight. They now attempted to repair their...
damage. But what a spectacle! Every thing in con... fusion, their rigging devastated and destroyed, and they...
in the midst of the ocean, without compass! It pairing...
down damage as well as they could, they worthy men...
showed their intrepid voyage, and with empty pur... ses and heavy hearts shaped their course towards St. Louis...
But we have neither time nor room to do justice to...
this subject. The Mexican reaches home and the pi... rates beat off their plunder, relying for impunity on the...
destruction of their victim and all on board...
Providence order otherwise. The tidings of the pi...
ratey were borne on the winds to the utter part of...
the earth, and with a description of the piratical...
deeds passed away, and the news reached Africa, and...
a British vessel cruising on that distant coast. The... news was there immediately suspected. The result...
is known. She was captured by the British vessel...
one pilot, and many of the crew kept prisoners, and...
after the lapse of nearly two years, they were brought...
to Salem to be confronted by the very men whom they...
had robbed so long before, and considered dead and...
buried in the deep! What an astonishing turn of event!...
The extravagant tales of fiction are realized! The...
of the pirates are brought to trial, and condemned to death...
by the testimony of the very men whom they had robbe...
d and consigned to death, who appeared in judg... ment against them, as it were in the arms of the prisoners...
as risen from the dead. Such scenes of guilt, are... brought to light by the inscrutable operations of a... good Providence.

IN CONGRESS.
On the 6th of Dec. the House of Representatives...
under the foregoing bill, and...
and occasionally with...
interfered with each...
as to the political...
the seat of the General...
with intelligent...
and numerous...
to point out, will...
to justice to our...
the other side of the...
the nation, and even...
distant subscribers, and...
our subscription list, except...
to the...
who do not take...
of the proceedings in...
each successive...
of our plan will...
at a distance, and...
more particularly, will...
through their columns in...
to the editors of...
not room for...
will be, we presume, very...
gentlemen at a distance...
to the Washington...
in advance, according to...
recently made, through the...
this city, or through the...
the places of their...
other person residing in...
copies of the Washington...
the receipt of the...
other person writing to...
so as to receive of our...
our latest published...
Washington Mirror is two...
year respectively in Ad...
Congress from New York...
both houses agreed...
very important. On...
were in attendance...
of Representatives...
very largely display...
action seen the last...
the Chair on this day, in...
was thought by many...
of the...
of both houses to...
run that Congress was...
decision he was...
the President's...
to both Houses of...
of great length, which...
reading. After...
the use of the...
of 12 representatives, both

THE PIRATES.
The Boston Confinement contains the following remarks...
The whole transaction, from its inception to the...
The jury, has been one of the most extraordinary...
in the annals of crime. An American vessel...
is encountered by pirates, in the midst of the ocean...
of miles from land, and for aught that the...
concerned knew to the contrary, as far from a...
the American crew were driven...
beaten, menaced with instant death by fearful odds...
and at all points, against them, compelled to give up...
the vessel, and finally looked down below. A band...
of pirates, on the vessel, seized upon the nautical...
instruments, and the sails and rigging, broke...
himself; destroy the compass; collect the most com...
municable materials at hand, apply the torch; leave the...
in this deplorable condition, to the mercy of their...
fate, taking the boat of the American vessel...
they did not want—scuttled it in sight of the...
looking from his own cabin window, and then sail...
away, with the manifest intention of burning the...
and crew while looked down below! This is the...
statement of facts, as abundantly proved as the...
of the fact.

IN CONGRESS.
On the 6th of Dec. the House of Representatives...
under the foregoing bill, and...
and occasionally with...
interfered with each...
as to the political...
the seat of the General...
with intelligent...
and numerous...
to point out, will...
to justice to our...
the other side of the...
the nation, and even...
distant subscribers, and...
our subscription list, except...
to the...
who do not take...
of the proceedings in...
each successive...
of our plan will...
at a distance, and...
more particularly, will...
through their columns in...
to the editors of...
not room for...
will be, we presume, very...
gentlemen at a distance...
to the Washington...
in advance, according to...
recently made, through the...
this city, or through the...
the places of their...
other person residing in...
copies of the Washington...
the receipt of the...
other person writing to...
so as to receive of our...
our latest published...
Washington Mirror is two...
year respectively in Ad...
Congress from New York...
both houses agreed...
very important. On...
were in attendance...
of Representatives...
very largely display...
action seen the last...
the Chair on this day, in...
was thought by many...
of the...
of both houses to...
run that Congress was...
decision he was...
the President's...
to both Houses of...
of great length, which...
reading. After...
the use of the...
of 12 representatives, both

IN CONGRESS.
On the 6th of Dec. the House of Representatives...
under the foregoing bill, and...
and occasionally with...
interfered with each...
as to the political...
the seat of the General...
with intelligent...
and numerous...
to point out, will...
to justice to our...
the other side of the...
the nation, and even...
distant subscribers, and...
our subscription list, except...
to the...
who do not take...
of the proceedings in...
each successive...
of our plan will...
at a distance, and...
more particularly, will...
through their columns in...
to the editors of...
not room for...
will be, we presume, very...
gentlemen at a distance...
to the Washington...
in advance, according to...
recently made, through the...
this city, or through the...
the places of their...
other person residing in...
copies of the Washington...
the receipt of the...
other person writing to...
so as to receive of our...
our latest published...
Washington Mirror is two...
year respectively in Ad...
Congress from New York...
both houses agreed...
very important. On...
were in attendance...
of Representatives...
very largely display...
action seen the last...
the Chair on this day, in...
was thought by many...
of the...
of both houses to...
run that Congress was...
decision he was...
the President's...
to both Houses of...
of great length, which...
reading. After...
the use of the...
of 12 representatives, both

IN CONGRESS.
On the 6th of Dec. the House of Representatives...
under the foregoing bill, and...
and occasionally with...
interfered with each...
as to the political...
the seat of the General...
with intelligent...
and numerous...
to point out, will...
to justice to our...
the other side of the...
the nation, and even...
distant subscribers, and...
our subscription list, except...
to the...
who do not take...
of the proceedings in...
each successive...
of our plan will...
at a distance, and...
more particularly, will...
through their columns in...
to the editors of...
not room for...
will be, we presume, very...
gentlemen at a distance...
to the Washington...
in advance, according to...
recently made, through the...
this city, or through the...
the places of their...
other person residing in...
copies of the Washington...
the receipt of the...
other person writing to...
so as to receive of our...
our latest published...
Washington Mirror is two...
year respectively in Ad...
Congress from New York...
both houses agreed...
very important. On...
were in attendance...
of Representatives...
very largely display...
action seen the last...
the Chair on this day, in...
was thought by many...
of the...
of both houses to...
run that Congress was...
decision he was...
the President's...
to both Houses of...
of great length, which...
reading. After...
the use of the...
of 12 representatives, both

IN CONGRESS.
On the 6th of Dec. the House of Representatives...
under the foregoing bill, and...
and occasionally with...
interfered with each...
as to the political...
the seat of the General...
with intelligent...
and numerous...
to point out, will...
to justice to our...
the other side of the...
the nation, and even...
distant subscribers, and...
our subscription list, except...
to the...
who do not take...
of the proceedings in...
each successive...
of our plan will...
at a distance, and...
more particularly, will...
through their columns in...
to the editors of...
not room for...
will be, we presume, very...
gentlemen at a distance...
to the Washington...
in advance, according to...
recently made, through the...
this city, or through the...
the places of their...
other person residing in...
copies of the Washington...
the receipt of the...
other person writing to...
so as to receive of our...
our latest published...
Washington Mirror is two...
year respectively in Ad...
Congress from New York...
both houses agreed...
very important. On...
were in attendance...
of Representatives...
very largely display...
action seen the last...
the Chair on this day, in...
was thought by many...
of the...
of both houses to...
run that Congress was...
decision he was...
the President's...
to both Houses of...
of great length, which...
reading. After...
the use of the...
of 12 representatives, both

IN CONGRESS.
On the 6th of Dec. the House of Representatives...
under the foregoing bill, and...
and occasionally with...
interfered with each...
as to the political...
the seat of the General...
with intelligent...
and numerous...
to point out, will...
to justice to our...
the other side of the...
the nation, and even...
distant subscribers, and...
our subscription list, except...
to the...
who do not take...
of the proceedings in...
each successive...
of our plan will...
at a distance, and...
more particularly, will...
through their columns in...
to the editors of...
not room for...
will be, we presume, very...
gentlemen at a distance...
to the Washington...
in advance, according to...
recently made, through the...
this city, or through the...
the places of their...
other person residing in...
copies of the Washington...
the receipt of the...
other person writing to...
so as to receive of our...
our latest published...
Washington Mirror is two...
year respectively in Ad...
Congress from New York...
both houses agreed...
very important. On...
were in attendance...
of Representatives...
very largely display...
action seen the last...
the Chair on this day, in...
was thought by many...
of the...
of both houses to...
run that Congress was...
decision he was...
the President's...
to both Houses of...
of great length, which...
reading. After...
the use of the...
of 12 representatives, both

IN CONGRESS.
On the 6th of Dec. the House of Representatives...
under the foregoing bill, and...
and occasionally with...
interfered with each...
as to the political...
the seat of the General...
with intelligent...
and numerous...
to point out, will...
to justice to our...
the other side of the...
the nation, and even...
distant subscribers, and...
our subscription list, except...
to the...
who do not take...
of the proceedings in...
each successive...
of our plan will...
at a distance, and...
more particularly, will...
through their columns in...
to the editors of...
not room for...
will be, we presume, very...
gentlemen at a distance...
to the Washington...
in advance, according to...
recently made, through the...
this city, or through the...
the places of their...
other person residing in...
copies of the Washington...
the receipt of the...
other person writing to...
so as to receive of our...
our latest published...
Washington Mirror is two...
year respectively in Ad...
Congress from New York...
both houses agreed...
very important. On...
were in attendance...
of Representatives...
very largely display...
action seen the last...
the Chair on this day, in...
was thought by many...
of the...
of both houses to...
run that Congress was...
decision he was...
the President's...
to both Houses of...
of great length, which...
reading. After...
the use of the...
of 12 representatives, both

IN CONGRESS.
On the 6th of Dec. the House of Representatives...
under the foregoing bill, and...
and occasionally with...
interfered with each...
as to the political...
the seat of the General...
with intelligent...
and numerous...
to point out, will...
to justice to our...
the other side of the...
the nation, and even...
distant subscribers, and...
our subscription list, except...
to the...
who do not take...
of the proceedings in...
each successive...
of our plan will...
at a distance, and...
more particularly, will...
through their columns in...
to the editors of...
not room for...
will be, we presume, very...
gentlemen at a distance...
to the Washington...
in advance, according to...
recently made, through the...
this city, or through the...
the places of their...
other person residing in...
copies of the Washington...
the receipt of the...
other person writing to...
so as to receive of our...
our latest published...
Washington Mirror is two...
year respectively in Ad...
Congress from New York...
both houses agreed...
very important. On...
were in attendance...
of Representatives...
very largely display...
action seen the last...
the Chair on this day, in...
was thought by many...
of the...
of both houses to...
run that Congress was...
decision he was...
the President's...
to both Houses of...
of great length, which...
reading. After...
the use of the...
of 12 representatives, both

In crying such an important favor, sir, the...
Son of General Lafayette, the adopted Grand... of Washington, known, and shall never for...
got that he would become unworthy of it, if he...
was ever to cease to be a French and American...
patriot.

With the utmost respect, I am, Sir,
Your devoted and obedient servant
GEORGE W. LAFAYETTE.
To the President of the United States.

INTERESTING CASE.
In the ship Alabama, which arrived a few days since...
from New Orleans, came passenger a native African, a...
about 15 years of age, who was stolen from the land of...
his birth about 28 years ago, along with many other...
unhappy beings, and carried into Charleston, S. C.,...
where he was sold to General Pinckney. His native...
name is Lamin Kirby; his American name, Paul. Af... ter remaining about six years in the service of General...
Pinckney, he was sold to Mr. Pratt, of Edgefield Dis... trict, and by him to some one else, and so on, till at...
length he passed into the hands of Frederick Haley, of...
Summer County, Tennessee, and subsequently became...
the property of James Hoard, Esq. of Vicksburg, Miss.

To this gentleman he is indebted for his liberty, and not...
only for his liberty, but for his passage to this city, and...
$10 for the supply of his necessities on his arrival...
His object is to return to Africa, where he left a wife...
and two children.

He was born and brought up in the district of Foot...
gallo, (capital Timbuc.) in the interior that he...
says it would have taken him 3 weeks to walk to the...
Atlantic shore. When stolen he was asleep at a place...
on the coast called Timbuk, whether he had gone for...
the purposes of trade. He was awaked from his slumbers...
by the chains which were being fastened around him.

He recalls and writes his native language, the...
Aralie, with ease and fluency, and appears to have pos... sessed an accomplished education. After devoting...
seven years at home to the pursuit of learning, he re... sided to a College at Bonda, about 900 miles East of...
Footgallo, where he passed another seven years in... completing his education. He then engaged in the bu... siness of teaching, in which employment he was occu... pied till near the period of his disastrous visit to the...
coast, since which time he has never heard from his... friends, nor they of course from him. At the time he...
left Africa, his father's brother was King of Footgallo...
and he supposes the crown still rests upon the head...
of some one of his relatives.

He represents himself to have embraced Christianity...
before he left his native country, though the mass of the...
people in Footgallo were Mohammedans. He remem... bers to have seen a Bible there, and says a considerable...
part of the population were able to read and write.

He will be provided with a passage to Liberia by the...
first vessel, from which point he enters no doubt...
that he can soon make his way to Footgallo.

FROM THE BALTIMORE AMERICAN.
In the passage of the steamboat Maryland...
from the East on Monday, the 8th...
inst, an encounter and a violent gale, and...
reaching the mouth of the Patuxent, about 4...
o'clock in the evening, off the Broken, two vessels...
were discovered at a distance, and...
Capt. Taylor immediately steered for the...
wreck, and after approaching as near as prac... tically, he manned his two small boats, and...
them to the relief of any sufferers that might...
be on board of the vessels in distress; and...
notwithstanding that the violence of the winds...
rendered the attempt extremely hazardous, he...
did not hesitate to go himself to their rescue.

One of the vessels proved to be the schooner...
Temperance, of Cambridge; her crew, three in... number, stated that they had been seized about...
10 o'clock in the morning, and contrived to...
save themselves by getting into the small boat...
and lying under the lee of the schooner. They had...
suffered much with the cold during the day, and...
were in momentary expectation of sinking into...
a watery grave. The name of the other vessel...
which was a sloop, could not be ascertained. On... reaching her it was found that the hatchway was...
severely flooded under water; and it is to be feared... that all on board had perished. A canoe was...
the only small craft attached to the wreck, and...
no person was to be found on board for the wreck...
or in the canoe. The persons taken from the...
Temperance stated that although they had been...
in sight of the sloop all day, they had seen no...
person on board.

The promptness and humanity of Capt. Taylor...
and his crew in rendering relief to the un...
fortunate sufferers, elicited the entire approbation...
of the passengers on board of the Mary... land; by whom it was

Resolved, unanimously, That the humane con... duct of Captain Taylor, as evinced to-day in...
the rescue from peril of the persons on board of...
the schooner Temperance, merits our highest...
praise; and as a mark of our approbation of his...
prompt humanity we will present to the public a...
statement of facts with our names annexed.

Thomas Wright, Queen Ann's county, Md.
Stephen L. Wright, do do do
John Brown, do do do
Daniel Newman, Centerville, M. I.
Charles Downes, do do do
Thomas B. Cook, do do do
Richard C. Hollyday, Cumberland, Md.
Francis West, Philadelphia.
P. M. Lafourcade, do
Joseph Knight, do
Geo. Reed, Caroline county, Md.
Chas. W. Smith, do do do
James Harris, Jr. Queenstown, Md.
Stephen Denning, Chestertown, Md.
Francis Cann, do do do
E. B. Hardecute, Denton, Md.
Thomas S. George, Millington, Md.

We the subscribers, Captain and crew of...
the schooner Temperance, take this opportunity...
of tendering our sincere thanks to Captain...
Taylor of the steamboat Maryland, for his hu... manity and manly conduct in coming to our re... lief and rescue while wrecked at the mouth of...
the Patuxent river on the 8th inst.

LOFTUS KIRBY,
THOMAS TUNN,
JOSEPH GREEN.

THE PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE PROCEEDINGS.
Saturday last, to ballot for Senator of the U... nited States, in place of Mr. Wilkins. On the... fourth ballot Mr. James Buchanan (of Pennsylv...
nia) received a majority of all the votes, as fol... lows:

Fourth Ballot.
James Buchanan had 31
Amos Ellmaker, 21
James Clarke, 20
Joseph Lawrence, 6
J. B. Sutherland, 1

From the Baltimore Chronicle.
RAIL ROAD RIOTERS.
As misapprehensions appear to exist in relation to...
the proceedings against the persons apprehended, or...
charged with being concerned in the late riots and mu...
ders, on the Baltimore and Washington Rail Road, we... think it proper to state, that nearly four hundred per... sons were committed to Baltimore county goal—that...
from the period of their commitment Judge Brice and...
the State's Attorney, assisted by Mr. Chaves, have been...
incessantly engaged every day, without intermission...
even the Sabbath, in their examination. This labour...
was conceived necessary, that those who might be pro... ved innocent should be promptly discharged. We un... derstand that the investigation terminated yesterday, and...
that all have been liberated with the exception of ten or...
twelve, some of whom are retained as witnesses and...
be others for trial.

We know nothing of the nature of the testimony a... gainst those who are to be tried—but it is greatly to be...
dreaded that the perpetrators of the horrible murders...
committed on the rail road should be discovered and...
punished—else their escape may give rise to mea... sures which may hereafter, on the recurrence of similar...
outrages, involve the innocent and guilty alike in their...
ruin. We have heretofore expressed our opinions freely...
on this subject, and do not deem it necessary to re... peat them here. But we cannot forbear the remark...
that, although there was great tardiness somewhere in...
the arrest of the rioters, there has been the utmost...
promptitude in their examination since committed.

The bust of Napoleon, taken by Dr. Antonmarchi... immediately after his death at St. Helena, was present... ed to the city of New Orleans by the Dr. on the 23d ult...
The presentment took place at a special sitting of the...
City Council. The acknowledging of the Corporation... were made to the donor by the Mayor, to which a... suitable reply was returned.

FROM ARIZONA.
Little Rock, Ark. Nov. 18.
Gen. M. Arbuckle arrived at Fort Gibson on the 4th...
inst, and on the following day entered on the duties de...
volving on him as Commanding General of the South... western frontier. It will be a gratifying to his numerous...
friends to learn that he is entirely recovered to health.

Capt. D. Perkins, U. S. Dragoons, passed down y... esterday, from Fort Gibson, on his way to the mouth of White... river.

Mr. Featherstonhaugh, Geologist, arrived at this place...
on Sunday last, in good health, after an arduous ex... amination of the highlands between the Missouri and Ar... kansas rivers; and purpose, after resting here a day or...
two, proceeding to the Hot Springs, and pursuing his...
researches from thence South to the Mexican frontiers.

The late Eclipse of the sun, which was noted at Charle... ston, was seen there under every advantage of fine we...
ther and a clear sky. At the period of total obscuration...
the planet Venus was brightly visible in the east, Mer... cury was seen in the west, and the fixed stars Antares...
at a short distance below the conjoined stars.

FOREIGN.
LATEST FROM FRANCE.
By the packet ship Francis 1st, Captain Castoff, the...
editors of the Journal of Commerce have received Pa... ris papers to the 10th, and Havre papers to the 11th...
of November.

It is stated in the last Paris accounts that the Duke...
of Bassano, the former Minister of the Interior, has... been entrusted by the King with the formation of a new...
Ministry, which it is said will be composed as follows:

The Duke of Bassano, Minister of the Interior, with...
the presidency of the Council.
M. Broton, at present Envoy at Berlin, Minister of...
Foreign Affairs.
General Bernard, War Department.
M. Teissie, Minister of Commerce.
M. Sarrail, Minister of Public Instruction.
M. Portal, Minister of Justice.
M. Guizot, Minister of Marine.
M. Pansy, Minister of Finance.

The Chambers were to be immediately convened, and...
a law of amnesty presented for their concurrence.
Much damage and some shipwreck occurred to the...
shipping on the English coast and in the Baltic, by a... severe storm in the latter part of October. A large...
American ship from Liverpool was reported as lost on...
Beaumont Rocks, near Castle-town—crossed over.

PARIS, Nov. 10.
The announcement of the formation of a new Minis... try under M. Bassano, so-called, evinced in the...
funds, and further development is expected to...
3 per cent. open at 76.25, closed at 76. 5 per cent. open... ed at 106. 45, closed at 106. 30.

OBITUARY.
Died, on Sunday morning last, after a long...
and severe pulmonary affection, in the 37th year...
of his age, Mr. NELSON REED NICHOLS.
It may be truly said of the deceased, "he was...
the noblest work of God—AN HONEST MAN." He... has left a Widow and five infant children to... mourn the loss of an affectionate Husband, and...
tender parent.

"Man's longest day is brief!"
Is but a fading light;
The wintry blast of death
Shall bid Man's mortal glories in the tomb;
But Faith in God will pierce the midnight gloom;
And God's vivifying breath
Annul the powers of Death.

At his residence near this City, on the...
19th ult. Mr. HOWARD DUVALL, in the 73d... year of his age, a respectable and worthy man.

NOTICE.
All persons having Books belonging to...
the Sunday School Library of St. Anne's...
Church will please return them.
December 11.

NOTICE.
The Commissioners for Anne Arundel... county will meet at the Court House in...
the city of Annapolis on TUESDAY the 20th... day January next, for the purpose of settling...
with the inspectors of Tobacco, hearing ap... peals, and making transfers, and closing their...
books for the year 1834.
By order,
R. J. COWMAN, Clk.
Dec. 11—m.

IN CHANCERY.
6 December, 1834.
Jane Thompson
vs.
The Heirs and Devisees of Thomas
Lytle, and Samuel Chase.

THE object of the bill in this case is to... obtain a conveyance to the plaintiff, and...
her heirs, of a lot of ground in the city of...
Baltimore, which is contained within the fol... lowing description: Beginning for the same...
at the distance of one hundred and twenty...
four feet six inches from the north-west cor... ner of Lot number twenty eight, (so number...
ed on a Plat for the sale of the real estate of...
Thomas Parkin,) and running southerly, bind... ing on Scott-street, seventy eight feet six...
inches thence easterly, until it intersects the...
thirty-eighth line of the whole tract; thence...
binding on said line north-easterly until it...
intersects a line drawn parallel with the...
last line of Lot number twenty-eight at the...
distance of one hundred and twenty-four feet...
six inches from said beginning and at right...
angles with Scott-street; and thence westerly...
binding on said last line to Scott-street, the...
place of beginning; said Lot being part of...
the tracts of land called "Rich Neck," and...
"Howard's Timber Neck." The bill states, that...
the plaintiff is the widow and only heir at...
law of William Thompson, late of Balti... more, who died intestate, and without issue;

that said William about the year 1808 pur... chased for $325 from Samuel Chase the sam...
piece of ground, and paid the purchase mo... ney therefor—that said Chase as trustee for...
the sale of the estate of Thomas Parkin, had...
sold said Lot number 28, of which said piece...
of ground is a part, to one John Walraven...
under the decree for sale of said estate, bea... ring date 13 December 1803—that said Wal...
raven, not paying for said Lot, relinquished...
it to said Chase—that Chase by deed record... ed among Baltimore county Land Records in...
Book W. G. No. 134, folio 1, &c. dated 1...
June 1815, conveyed said Lot No. 28 to Tho... mas Lytle—that said conveyance, though ab... solute in its terms, was really in trust that...
said Lytle should convey said piece of ground...
to said William, and his heirs, and other...
parts of said Lot No. 28 to other persons re... spectively to whom said Chase had agreed to... sell the same. The bill further states, that...
said Lytle removed from the state of Mary... land, and departed this life, without execut...
ing to said William a conveyance of said...
piece of ground, and that the plaintiff knows...
not whether said Lytle left any heirs, or con... stituted any devisees of said piece of ground...
or, if he left any heirs or devisees, who or...
where they are. The bill also states that Sa... muel Chase resides out of the state of Mar... yland.

It is thereupon ordered, That the plaintiff...
causing a copy of this order to be insert... ed once in each of three successive weeks in...
some newspaper before the sixth day of Ja... nuary next, give notice to said heirs and de...
visees of Thomas Lytle, and to said Samu... el Chase, of the substance and object of the...
bill, that they may be warned to appear in...
this court in person, or by solicitor, on or be...
fore the sixth day of June next, to show...
cause, if any they have, why a decree should...
not be passed as prayed.

True copy—Test.
RAMSAY WATERS,
Reg. Clk. Can.
December 11.

MARYLAND LOTTERY.
Approved by William R. Stuart, Edward...
Hughes and J. S. Williams, Commissioners.
Class Number 25, for 1834.
Yates and McIntyre, Managers.
To be drawn at Baltimore, Dec. 16, 1834.

SPLENDID SCHEME.
1 prize of 10,000
1 prize of 10,000
1 prize of 2,000
1 prize of 1,000
5 prizes of 1,000
10 prizes of 500
10 prizes of 400
20 prizes of 300
20 prizes of 250
20 prizes of 200
20 prizes of 150
20 prizes of 125
36 prizes of 100
64 prizes of 50
128 prizes of 40
128 prizes of 35
128 prizes of 30
128 prizes of 25
128 prizes of 20
2,861 prizes of 15
4,032 1st or 2d drawn No. 9
4,032 3d or 4th drawn No. 8
4,032 5th or 6th drawn No. 6
10,080 7th or 10th or 11 drawn No. 5

25,861 prizes, amounting to $270,100
Whole Tickets $5. Halves $2 50, Quarters
$1 25.

Tickets and Shares for sale at DUBOIS'
LOTTERY & EXCHANGE OFFICE,
(Church-street, Annapolis.)

ANNUAL MEETING.
YOU are hereby notified to appear, on the...
15th inst. Friday, in full dress, at...
year annual parade ground, front of the State...
House, at 3 o'clock, P. M.
By order,
JOHN PINKNEY, C. S.

Dec. 4.
SEALED PROPOSALS for supplying the...
Troops at Fort Severn, Maryland, with...
FRESH BEEF for one year, commencing on...

CE, five acres has been paid but a deed was made.

2

J. BOYLE, Trust

GREAT NATIONAL WORK. AMERICAN MAGAZINE

Of useful and entertaining knowledge. To be illustrated with numerous Engravings by the Boston Engraving Company.

THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazine from the English Press, has led to preparation for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make the work strictly what its title indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain all articles of interest to its patrons which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work honorable to its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty splendid engravings, will appear on or before the first of September, and be continued monthly, containing between forty and fifty imperial octavo pages, and be furnished at the low price of two dollars per annum. It will comprise—

Portraits and Biographical Sketches of distinguished Americans; Views of Public Buildings, Monuments and Improvements; Land-Scapes; Scenery; the boundless variety and beauty of which, in this country, will form an unceasing source of instruction and gratification; Engravings and descriptions of the character, habits &c. of Beasts, Birds, Fishes and Insects, together with every subject connected with the Geography, History, Natural and Artificial resources of the country, illustrated in a familiar and popular manner.

FREEMAN HUN, Agent of the Boston Book Company 47 Court St. Boston, July 17.

*Editors throughout the United States who will give the above Prospectus a few insertions in their respective papers, shall be entitled to one year's subscription to the same.

STATE OF MARYLAND, SC. Anne Arundel County, Orphans Court,

October 23th, 1834.

ON application by petition of Nathan Shipley, administrator with the will annexed, of John McMullen, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of six successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Annapolis.

SAM'L BROWN, Juror.
Reg. Wills A. A. county.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.

THAT the subscriber of Anne Arundel county, hath obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration with the will annexed, on the personal estate of John McMullen, late of said county deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 28th day of April next, they may otherwise be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 28th day of October, 1834.

NATHAN SHIPLEY, Adm'r.
With the will annexed.

NOTICE.

COMMITTED to my custody as a Runaway on the 28th August 1834. A negro Man who calls himself John Gross, and says he belongs to Nanamuel Washington of St. Mary's county; said fellow is about five feet six inches high, of a yellowish complexion, bushy head of hair, no perceptible flesh marks; his clothing consists of a blue shirt and trousers, old shoes, and hat much worn; he has also other old clothing, and produces a pass, which no doubt is forged. His owner is requested to pay charges and take him from jail, he will otherwise be discharged agreeable to law.

R. WELCH of Ben.
Sh. A. A. County.

Sept. 1834.

50 DOLLARS REWARD.

Run away from the subscriber living on the Head of South River A. A. County, on the 10th inst. a negro man named NICK who calls himself NICK JOHNSON; the said fellow is about 21 years of age, 5 feet 9 or ten inches high, black complexion, wide mouth and thick lips and when spoken to has a smile on his countenance. No marks recollected except a cut on the fore finger of the left hand. I will give the above reward if taken and lodged in Jail so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home.

STEPHEN BEARD.

South River, Nov. 13.

NOTICE.

WAS committed to the Jail of Anne Arundel county as a runaway, Nov. 2, 1834, a negro man who calls himself and says he is free born, and was raised at Bears Landing on Pokomoke river, in Dorchester county, on the eastern shore of Maryland—his complexion black, about 27 years of age, five feet six inches high—clothing cloth trousers and roundabout, old fur hat, and coarse shoes and stockings. If not free, the owner is requested to come and prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be discharged according to law. Given under my hand this 26th Nov. 1834.

ELIJAH ROBERTS,

R. WELCH of Ben.
Sh. A. A. county

Dec. 4.

THE SACRED CLASSICS.

THE subscriber has made arrangements to republish as fast as they are received from England, Series of the standard Theological works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,

OR, CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY.

With an original introductory essay to each author. Edited by RICHARD COTTERMOLE, B. D. and the Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

The following is the Advertisement of the London Publisher:

UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DR. LARDNER'S CYCLOPEDIA; THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c.

PRICE ONLY THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE.

On the 1st of January, 1834, will be published Vol. I. of a Series of the Standard Theological Works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,

OR, CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY:

With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.

THE REV. RICH'D. COTTERMOLE, B. D.

AND

THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

No other country is so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines, in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation while her Divines have been distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of character thus given to the standard Theology of England has, through a variety of circumstances, been happily prevented from degenerating into the barrenness of scholasticism; and thus the whole series of our "Sacred Classics," is a work of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student.

It is intended to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the moral interests of individuals, or to the order and well being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morals, and Evidences of Christianity, which have received the permanent stamp of general approbation; select Sermons of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the benefit and gratification of the reader.

To the productions of each author, or to each separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out their characteristic excellencies; and, in some instances, comprehending a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his times.

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in undertaking this CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY, to present the collection to the public at such a price, that he who purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral publications, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

The work will be handsomely printed in Foolscap 8vo. on good paper, cloth pressed, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, lettered, and published (in Volumes of about 400 pages each) on the first day of every month.

Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence.

Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication are submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection:

Jeremy Taylor, Botes, Boyle, Baxter, Owen, Cudworth, Thomas A. Kempis, Burnet, Howe, Butler, Wilson, Bunyan, Fenelon, Doddridge, South, Bull, Hammond, Barrow, Johnson, Sherlock, Jortin, Farinon, Hoadley, Hales, Scoldingfleet, Porteus, Locke, Leighton, Cave, Chillingworth, Hall, Jewel, Jackson, Flavel, Charnock, Wesley, Skelton, Watts, Lowth, Romaine, Waterland, Whitcote, Balguy, Pearson, Ken, Newton, Stanhope, Whitby, Hammond, Burkit, Herbert, Doune, Merriam, &c. &c.

Vol. I. (to be published on the 1st of January,) will contain

THE LIBERTY OF PROPHECYING, by Jeremy Taylor—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Richard Cottermore, B. D.

Vol. II. (to be published on the 1st of February) will contain

CAVE'S LIVES OF THE APOSTLES—with Notes, and an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Henry Stebbing, M. A.

Vol. III. (to be published on the 1st of March) will contain

BATES'S SPIRITUAL PERFECTION, UNFOLDED AND ENFORCED—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. John Pye Smith, B. D.

LONDON: John Hatchard and Son, Piccadilly. Whittaker & Co. Ave Maria Lane, Simpkin & Marshall, Stationers' Court; D. A. Falgout, Oxford; J. & J. Deighton, Cambridge; Oliver & Boyd, Edinburgh; and J. Cumming, Dublin.

And to be had of every Bookseller throughout the Kingdom.

The English copy will cost in England, about ten shillings. We propose to issue the American edition, under the superintendence of a learned American clergyman, in weekly numbers, on a single sheet of superfine paper, giving ninety-six large 12mo. pages, to be folded and stitched, and covered with strong envelope paper, at the rate of five dollars per annum.

March 27.

DUFF GREEN.

WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

BUBBLES FROM THE BRUNNENS OF NASSAU.

A description of the fashionable watering places in Germany, by an old man, will form the commencement of the fourth volume of Waldie's Library.

This will be followed, at an early day, by the Memoirs of Henry Masera de la Tude, who was confined for thirty-five years in the different State Prisons in France, now first translated into English.

The works published in the current volume, now on the point of completion, are the following:—

Kruitzner, or the German's Tale, a novel, by the author of Canterbury Tales.

Memoirs of Sir James Campbell, of Ardinglass, written by himself: a very piquant book, containing anecdotes of most of the distinguished individuals of the last sixty years.

Good Sir Walter; a tale by the author of Family Portraits.

The Broken Heart; a dramatic sketch, from the Italian.

Rome in the Nineteenth Century; in a series of letters written during a residence in that city, by a Lady.

The Deaf and Dumb Pages a Tale.

Anecdotes of the Court of Louis the XIV. by the Duke of St. Simon.

The Black Watch; an Historical Novel, by the author of the Donnie's Legacy, &c. &c. One of the best novels, say the London Magazines, of the present day.

Fodor's new book of Travels in Mexico and Cuba.

A Cunningham's Biographical and Critical History of Literature for the last fifty years.

Helen, a Novel, by Maria Edgeworth.

Journal of a West India Proprietor, kept during a residence in the Island of Jamaica, by the late Matthew G. Lewis, Esq. M. P. and Lord of the Manor, &c.

The Curate's Tale, or Practical Joking; from a new work entitled Nights of the Round Table.

The Three Westminster boys, or Cowper, Lord Chancellor, Tourist, and Warren Hastings, contrasted; from the same.

A Narrative of the Shipwreck of the Antelope at Pileus, in 1783, and a brief account of the same.

All the above cost in the "Library" but 52 50!!!

Office No. 207 Chesnut street, below 7th.

Subscriptions to Waldie's Select Circulating Library which is published every week, at $5 per annum, thankfully received by

ADAM WALDIE, Philadelphia.

Subscriptions for the above valuable work received at this office.

PROPOSALS TO PUBLISH THE LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN AND WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY REVIEWS, FOR $8 PER ANNUM.

THE above Journals are already so well known to the public, that little need be said of their respective merits.

The well sustained reputation of the LONDON QUARTERLY, not only as an able defender of every principle, and the old order of things, but as the wisest and most entertaining of Reviews, will always command the attention of the literary and scientific

The EDINBURGH, celebrated for the vigor, learning and acuteness which its articles display, conducted by some of the principal literary men of the modern Athens, is an equally powerful champion of the moderate Reform party.

The FOREIGN QUARTERLY occupies a neutral ground in Politics, and is devoted to continental literature.

The WESTMINSTER is but little known in this country. It may be considered as the advocate of the Radicals, and the mouth piece of Benthamism. It represents the principles of party already known in England, and has increasing influence in the United States.

The numbers will be put to press immediately after they shall be received from Europe; and will contain the entire matter of the above work, making four annual volumes of upwards of six hundred pages.

They will be executed in as good style, and be printed in a shape but little differing from that of the European editions.

The price will be $8 per annum, payable three months after the delivery of the first number. The English copies cannot be had for less than $30. Of the three at present republished, two of them alone cost $10.

Any individual procuring four subscribers, and remitting $30 on the receipt of the first Number, will be allowed an additional copy.

Subscription papers if returned, and all communications to be addressed, post paid, to Theodore Foster, Albany, N. Y.

Oct. 16.

Subscriptions received at this office.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber is authorized to settle all claims against the estate of the Rev. John G. Blanchard, deceased, and to receive all monies due to said estate. Persons having books which belonged to the deceased are requested to deliver them immediately to

TH. ALEXANDER.

Nov. 20.

NOTICE.

ALL persons are hereby cautioned against A Gunning or in any other way trespassing on any part of my Farm.

C. C. BRICE.

November 13.

PRINTING
Neatly executed at this OFFICE.

BALTIMORE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE subscriber has received from the President and Directors of this Company the appointment of AGENT for the city of Annapolis.

Its capital is Fifty Thousand Dollars, and the company intends to execute the following business:

1st. Insurance on Lives.

2d. Purchase and Sale of Annuities.

3d. Receiving Endowments.

4th. Receiving Money in Trust.

5th. The Management of Trust Estates.

Applications made to the subscriber at his Office in West street, opposite the Farmers Bank of Maryland, will be promptly attended to.

SOMERVILLE PINKNEY.

November 28.

$20 REWARD.

STRAY away from the subscriber living at Cortis Creek Furnace, on the 2d of October, THREE HORSES; a black Horse about 16 hands high, 9 years old; a bay Horse 16 hands high, 6 years old; and a chestnut sorrel 15 1/2 hands high, 3 years old. Any person or persons finding the said Horse and bringing them to Cortis Creek Furnace, or to the Old Hay Stacks Tavern, sign of the Swan, in Old Town, Baltimore, shall receive the above reward.

EDWARD BROWN.

November 6.

DRAWING ANNOUNCED.

VALUABLE REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY,

SOON TO BE DISTRIBUTED IN SHARES.

IN pursuance of the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December session, 1833, to authorize ANDREW McLAUGHLIN to distribute his estate BY LOT.

This property is among the most valuable in Maryland, situated in the prosperous, healthy, and romantic village of Edcott's Mills, ten miles from the city of Baltimore, upon the Western Turnpike, and 15 miles upon the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, where all the cars go to and from the west, stop to breakfast and dine.

A sufficient number of Tickets have been sold to warrant the assurance to the public, that it will positively be drawn TWENTY-SEVENTH DECEMBER. Should the balance of the Tickets be sold before, it will be drawn sooner.

It consists of the large and extensive improvement known as the

PATAPSCO HOTEL.

With all the new improvements, and a highly ornamental garden, a beautiful Gothic Cottage, and other dwellings. Twenty valuable building lots, with numerous other shares of personal property, consisting of Plate, Carriages, Horses, Piano Forte, Books, Rich Furniture, and Old Wines, all valued at $58,000, and divided into FOUR HUNDRED SHARES, subject to no discount.

It is to be drawn upon the plan of the old Maryland Lotteries, viz. The numbers will all be put into one wheel, and the prizes into another, and all drawn in one day, under the superintendence of the Trustees, according to the Act of the Legislature. They will certify the same when drawn.

The property has been valued by three Commissioners appointed by the Treasurer of Maryland, and no speculations should be indulged in, and no bids with approved security given to the State for double the amount, that the law may be faithfully complied with. It is simply a distribution of property at its value, to reimburse the expenditure. It is well worth risking TEN DOLLARS for such a Capital as this would secure presents; it is larger than a mounted Capital, with twelve times the number of Tickets to contend with, and no 15 per cent off.

Many of the small shares will be paid in cash, if required.

SCHEME:

1 Share, consisting of the PATAPSCO HOTEL, with the new addition upon the Rail Road, the large stone Stable, Carriage House, Ice House, and the splendid Garden, forms the grand capital prize, valued at $36,500

1 Share, a new and convenient three story dwelling, under rent of $322, 3,000

1 Share, Angelo Cottage, a beautiful Gothic building, situated upon a ledge of rocks, commanding a delightful view of the village and factories; 2,650

4 Shares, valuable building Lots at $800 each 3,200

6 do. valuable Building Lots, at $750 each. 4,500

10 do. valuable Building Lots, at $200 each. 2,000

377 do. of Personal Property, ranging in value from $250 down to $10, 6,600

400 Shares, all free from discount $38,460

Those who wish Tickets are advised to make early application. The scheme is quite small, containing but 3845 tickets, and this will be the only distribution offered.

The price of a share is but $10, which may draw property now worth $36,500, increasing every day in value, free from discount, and with an unquestionable title.

A. McLaughlin invites all his friends, far and near, to venture a small amount in this distribution of his property, which is a lottery case, and includes all his estate. Do not wait, delays are dangerous. He is anxious to close the scheme and return to Baltimore.

Tickets for Sale by

E. DUBOIS.

Church street—Annapolis.

TAXES! TAXES!

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT the County Tax for 1834, is now due, and School Taxes for 1834, are now due. Those persons who are in arrears for taxes are requested to settle the same without further delay, as no longer indulgence can be given.

RICHARD RIDGELY, City and County Collector.

N. B. R. R. will attend to the drawing and acknowledgment of Bonds &c. and other duties connected with the office of a Justice of the Peace.

City and County Collector's Office.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE GLOBE.

PROSPECTUS FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.

THE Congressional Globe, which we commenced publishing at the last Session of Congress, will be continued through the approaching one. It will be published in the same form, and at the same price; that is, once a week, on a double royal sheet, made up of quarto form, at ONE DOLLAR per copy, for the session. When any improvement is discussed, we propose to print an extra sheet. Subscribers may calculate on at least three or four extra sheets. At the close of the session, an Index will be made for the last session, and sent to all the subscribers. We shall pay to the reporters, also, for preparing the reports that will be published in this paper, more than one hundred dollars per week, during the session. In publishing, therefore, at one dollar for all the numbers printed during the session, we may be said to afford the most important information at the cheapest price.

Editors with whom we exchange, will please give this Prospectus a gratuitous insertion, and those friends to whom we may send it will please procure subscribers.

TERMS.
1 copy during the session, $1 00
11 copies during the session, $10 00
Payment may be made by mail, post paid, at our risk. The notes of any specie paying Bank will be received.

No attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompany it.

Oct. 30.

NOTICE

I WILL sell my Farm on South River, Private Sale. It contains upwards of

THOUSAND ACRES.

and possesses more advantages than most farms. Any information which may be required may be afforded to those who will call upon me at my residence in this city, or on H. H. Harwood, Esq. at the Farmers Bank of Maryland.

The Land will be sold in Lots to purchasers.

RICHARD HARWOOD, of Town.

Jan. 23.

The Editors of the Baltimore Gazette, an American Farmer, will insert the above notice a week until otherwise required.

FUNERALS.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Cabinet Making business, and intends to confine himself to his future altogether to that of an UNDERTAKER.

All orders for Funerals will be attended to at the shortest notice, either in the usual manner, or according to special direction.

He returns his thanks to the public for their patronage during the last twenty years, and hopes that his promptness and attention will continue to merit their favour.

WASHINGTON G. TUCK.

May 29.

BASIL SHEPARD, MERCHANT TAILOR.

OFFERS to the citizens of Annapolis and the public generally, a selection of new and fashionable FALL AND WINTER GOODS, from the New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore markets, consisting of Black Blue, Dutch Rifle Dablia, Invisible Green, and Russia Raven; Brown, double milled Drab, Olive, and Gray

CLOTHS.

AND ALSO

CAMBLET, for Over Coats.

Diagonal, Zigzag, Polish Mixed and Printed, Mixed, Ribbed and Plain CASSIMERES, and Printed CASSIMERES.

Merinos, Matelasse Silk, Satin, plain and twilled Silk, Florentine, Medley Silks, Cashmere & Toinette

VESTINGS.

White, Black and Fancy Silk HANDKERCHIEFS, HOSE, GLOVES, SUSPENDERS, SHIRT SHAMS, STOCKS, COLLARS and ORIENTAL DRESSING GOWNS

All of which he respectfully invites the public to call and examine.

On application, Thomas Karney and John E. Howard, Esqrs. of the city of Annapolis, were admitted as attorneys of this court.

The specimen in question was sent to James W. McCulloh, Esq. of this city, by Capt. B. B. and was taken from his mine, near Jennings.

mounting; altogether to $3,700, to children and grandchildren residing at Newark and Albany; and confidentially informed him where this property was deposited.

ent. Messrs. Smith, White, Leigh, and Frelinghuysen, were elected,

Resolved, That the Committee of Columbia be instructed to inquire into the expediency of abolishing imprisonment for debt.

permit him to make a explanation of his course decision of the requested for consideration
 without understanding his subject, he had come to District of Columbia
 must be made, with whole United States
 be embraced; that
 that any law which
 not be confined to parts thereof. It was
 of our powers to
 and our parties there recently pursued this
 a member of the case, and he had used attempting to induce Congress, in the
 this subject should go Courts, in the re-
 yielded this point;
 laws of the
 for all the States
 upon equality with totally exempted for debt, and his
 of the Federal Judicalary. Let other States
 This humane pro-
 progressing slowly,
 he would be mis-
 were not in a little of civilized nations
 believed Kentucky has
 the Union had done. Such only writ which would payment for debt would not. There was no con-
 the body of a debtor
 In other States,
 their report practices he
 that imprisonment for liability, except in con-tioned by—Mr. J. Con-does there imprisonment
 any other condition—
 is derived, and will be the abandonment and im-this, under the idea of a national in its full sig-
 and total abolition.
 Kentucky, had acted upon opposition. Kentucky of passing laws, the
 was not necessary.
 was not to be feared, and
 and not a part of civil might say with truth, the
 of Kentucky, those falls more had been
 would have been under-
 He said that no mem-
 of the United States
 slavery and distress whic is now producing the several States of
 the recently null, compar times, unless he had a benevolent society in established him with their
 if he had the time,
 facts relative to the
 for his own instituto the proposition, it
 the object of the pl
 Congress had the expe-District, by a grant
 and he wished the ability of our country
 to pay for debt until set, upon his own mind
 for showing in District of Columbia,
 of Kentucky, arising from
 of its inhabitants—
 of a disunion of
 and consideration
 ment for it, would
 the debtor—no notice beneficial to all con-
 In conclusion he would resolved the States, as District, from a constituted abolish im-
 was done, no law
 injury to his own Statutes a system of ex-
 law just, than the ex-Federal Courts within K-to, to attempt nothing
 one of his own State,
 to adopt her poli-
 The resolution was
 The speaker laid before
 of report and documents
 of the State made for
 the, on motion of Mr.
 Secretary of the treas-
 specifying the ag-
 on imported man-of the Union, for
 table.
 The speaker also laid
 from the Secretary
 resolution of the Ho-
 the modification of
 of Mr. C. of ways and
 The House then adj-

On application, Thomas Karney and John Howard, Esqrs. of the city of Annapolia, were admitted as attorneys of this court.

The specimen in question was sent to J. W. McCulloh, Esq. of this city, by Capt. Bl and was taken from his mine, near Jennin great surprise he bequeathed various sums of money amounting, altogether to $3,700, to children and grandchildren residing at Newark and Albany; and confidentially informed him where this property was deposited.

For the Committee on Revolutionary Claims,
Messrs. Smith, White, Leigh, and Frelinghuysen, were elected,

Resolved, That the Committee on the District of Columbia be instructed to inquire into the expediency of abolishing imprisonment for antimonial wine, 17

tor, simmer if down
the others, taking a some,"

GREAT NATIONAL WORK.
AMERICAN MAGAZINE
Of Useful and Entertaining Knowledge. To be illustrated with numerous Engravings By the Boston Book Company.

THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazines from the English Press, has led to preparation for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make the work strictly what its title indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain all articles of interest to its patrons which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work more valuable to its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty splendid engravings, will appear on or before the first of September, and be continued monthly, containing between forty and fifty imperial octavo pages, and be furnished at the low price of two dollars per annum. It will compare—

Portraits and Biographical Sketches of distinguished Americans; Views of Public Buildings, Monuments and Improvements; Land-scapes; Scenery; the boundless variety and beauty of which, in this country, will form an increasing source of instruction and gratification; Engravings and descriptions of the character, habits &c. of Beasts, Birds, Fishes and Insects, together with every subject connected with the Geography, History, Natural and Artificial resources of the country, illustrated in a familiar and popular manner.

FRANKMAN HUNT, Agent of the Boston Book Company 47 Court St. Boston, July 17.

* Editors throughout the United States who will give the above Prospectus a few insertions in their respective papers shall be entitled to one year's subscription to the same.

STATE OF MARYLAND, SC.
Anne Arundel County, Orphans Court.

ON application by petition of Nathan Shipley, administrator with the will annexed, of John McMillan, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of six successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Annapolis.

SAM'L BROWN, Junior, R. Wells A. A. County.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.

THAT the subscribers of Anne Arundel county, both within and without the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration with the will annexed, on the personal estate of John McMillan, late of said county deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, to the subscriber, at or before the 28th day of April next, they may otherwise be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand and the seal of said county, the 28th day of October, 1834.

NATHAN SHIPLEY, Administrator with the will annexed.

NOTICE.

COMMITTED to my custody as a Runaway on the 28th August 1834. A negro Man who calls himself John Gross, and says he belongs to Nathaniel Washington of St. Mary's county; said fellow is about five feet six inches high, of a yellowish complexion, bushy head of hair, nose peculiarly fleshy; his clothing consists of a blue shirt and trousers, old shoes, and hat which worn; he has also his old clothing, and produces a pass, which is almost illegible. His mother is requested to pay charges and take him to jail, he will otherwise be discharged agreeable to law.

R. WELCH, of Ben. Shiff. A. A. County.

Sept. 1834.

50 DOLLARS REWARD.

Runaway from the subscriber living in the Head of South River A. A. County, on the 10th inst. a negro man named NICK who calls himself NICK K. JOHNSON; he said fellow is about 21 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high, black counten, wide mouth and thick lips and when spoken to has a smile on his countenance, in marks recollect except a cut on the fore finger of the left hand. I will give the above reward if taken and lodged in Jail so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home.

STEPHEN BEARD, South River, Nov. 15.

NOTICE.

WAS committed to the Jail of Anne Arundel county as a runaway, Nov. 2, 1834, a negro man who calls himself

ELIJAH ROBERTS, and says he is free born, and was raised at Bears Landing on Potomack river, in Dorchester county, on the eastern shore of Maryland—his complexion black, about 27 years of age, five feet six inches high, clothing cloth trousers and roundabout, old fur hat, and coarse shoes and stockings. If not free, the owner is requested to come and prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be discharged according to law. Given under my hand this 26th Nov 1834.

R. WELCH of Ben. Shiff. A. A. county.

Dec. 4.

THE SACRED CLASSICS.

THE subscriber has made arrangements to republish as fast as they are received from England, Series of the standard Theological works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,

OR CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY.

With an original introductory essay to each author. Edited by RICHARD COTTERMOLE, B. D. and the Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

The following is the Advertisement of the London Publishers:

UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DR. LARDNER'S CYCLOPEDIA, THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c.

PRICE ONLY THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE.

On the 1st of January, 1834, will be published Vol. I. of a Series of the Standard Theological Works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,

OR CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY:

With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.

EDITED BY

THE REV. RICH'D. COTTERMOLE, B. D.

AND

THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

Other countries so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines, in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation while her Divines have been distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of character thus given to the standard Theology of England has, through a variety of circumstances, been happily prevented from degenerating into the harshness of scholasticism; and thus the whole series of our 'Sacred Classics,' is a well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student.

It is intended to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the propagation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the immortal interests of individuals, or to the order and well being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morality, and Evidence of Christianity, which have received the permanent stamp of general approbation; select Sermons of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the benefit and gratification of the reader.

To the productions of each author, or to each separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out their characteristic excellencies; and, in some instances, comprising a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his times.

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in undertaking 'THE SACRED CLASSICS,' to present the collection to the public at such a price, that he who purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral publications, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

The work will be handsomely printed in Foolscap 8 vo. on good paper, cloth bound, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, interleaved, and published (in Volumes of about 400 pages each) on the first day of every month.

Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence: Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication, is submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection:

Jeremy Taylor, Bates, Boyle, Baxter, Owen, Cudworth, Thomas A. Kempis, Burnet, Howe, Butler, Wilson, Bunyan, Fenelon, De Lagrange, South, Bull, Hammond, Barrow, Tillotson, Sherlock, Jortin, Farinon, Horsley, Hale, Sallingham, Porteus, Locke, Leighton, Cave, Chillingworth, Hall, Jewel, Jackson, Flavel, Charnock, Wesley, Skepton, Watts, Lowth, Romane, Waterland, Whitehead, Balguy, Pearson, Ken, Newton, Stanhope, Whitby, Hammond, Burkit, Herbert, Doune, Merdoun, &c.

Vol. I. (to be published on the 1st of January) will contain

THE LIBERTY OF PROPHECYING, by Jeremy Taylor—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Richard Cottermore, B. D.

Vol. II. (to be published on the 1st of February) will contain

CAVE'S LIVES OF THE APOSTLES—with Notes, and an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Henry Stebbing, M. A.

Vol. III. (to be published on the 1st of March) will contain

BATES'S SPIRITUAL PERFECTION, UNFOLDED AND ENFORCED—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. John Pye Smith, D. D.

LONDON: John Hatchard and Son; Piccadilly. Whittaker & Co. Ave Maria Lane, Simpkin & Marshall, Stationers' Court; D. A. Falgout, Oxford; J. & J. Deighton, Cambridge; Oliver & Boyd, Edinburgh; and J. Cumming, Dublin.

And to be had of every Bookseller throughout the Kingdom. March 4th, 1834.

The English copy will cost, in England, about ten dollars. We propose to issue the American edition, under the superintendence of a learned American clergyman, in weekly numbers, on a single sheet of superfine paper, giving ninety-six large 12mo. pages, to be folded and stitched, and covered with strong envelope paper, at the rate of five dollars per annum.

March 27.

DUFF GREEN.

WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

BUBBLES FROM THE BRUNNENS OF NASSAU.

A description of the fashionable watering places in Germany, by an old man, will form the commencement of the fourth volume of Waldie's Library.

This will be followed, at an early day, by the Memoirs of Henry Masera de la Tude, who was confined for thirty-five years in the different State Prisons in France, now first translated into English.

The works published in the current volume, now on the point of completion, are the following:—

Kreutzer, or the German's Tale, a novel, by the author of Canterbury Tales.

Memoirs of Sir James Campbell, of Ardkinglass; written by himself: a very piquant book, containing anecdotes of most of the distinguished individuals of the last sixty years.

Good Sir Walter; a tale by the author of Family Portraits.

The Broken Heart; a dramatic sketch, from the Italian.

Rome in the Nineteenth Century; in a series of letters written during a residence in that city, by a Lady.

The Deaf and Dumb Page; a Tale.

Anecdotes of the Court of Louis the XIV. by the Duke of St. Simon.

The Black Watch; an Historical Novel, by the author of the Donnie's Legacy; &c. &c. One of the best novels, say the London Magazines, of the present day.

Tudor's new book of Travels in Mexico and Cuba.

Allan Cunningham's Biographical and Critical History of Literature for the last fifty years.

Helen, a Novel, by Maria Edgeworth.

Journal of a West India Proprietor, kept during a residence in the Island of Jamaica, by the late Matthew G. Lewis, Esq. M. P. author of the Monk, &c.

The Curate's Tale, or Practical Joking; from a new work entitled Nights of the Round Table.

The Three Westminster boys, or Cowper, Lord Chancellor Thurlow, and Warren Hastings, contrasted; from the same.

A Narrative of the Shipwreck of the Antelope at Pelow, in 1783, and a brief but accurate account of Prince Le Bon.

All the above cost in the 'Library' but $2.50!!!

Office No. 207 Chesnut street, below 7th. Subscriptions to Waldie's Select Circulating Library which is published every week, at $3 per annum, (including postage) received by

ADAM WALDIE, Philadelphia.

Subscriptions for the above valuable work received at this office.

PROPOSALS TO REPUBLISH THE LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN AND WESTMINSTER

QUARTERLY REVIEWS, FOR $8 PER ANNUM.

THE above Journals are already so well known to the public, that little need be said of their respective merits.

The well sustained reputation of the LONDON QUARTERLY, not only as an able defender of Tory principles, and the old order of things, but as the witliest and most entertaining of Reviews, will always command the attention of the literary and scientific.

The EDINBURGH, celebrated for the vigor, learning and acuteness which its articles display, conducted by some of the principal literary men of the modern Athens, is an equally powerful champion of the moderate Reform party.

The FOREIGN QUARTERLY occupies a neutral ground in Politics, and is devoted to continental literature.

The WESTMINSTER is but little known in this country. It may be considered as the advocate of the Radicals, and the mouth piece of Benthamism. It represents the principles of a party already numerous in England, and fast increasing in the United States.

The numbers will be put to press immediately after they shall be received from Europe; and will contain the entire matter of the above works; making four annual volumes of upwards of six hundred pages.

They will be executed in as good style, and be printed in a shape but little differing from that of the European editions.

The price will be $8 per annum, payable three months after the delivery of the first number. The English copies cannot be had for less than $50. Of the three at present republished, two of them alone cost $10.

Any individual procuring four subscribers, and remitting $30 on the receipt of the first number, will be allowed an additional copy.

Subscription papers to be returned, and all communications to be addressed, post paid, to Theodore Foster, Albany, N. Y.

Subscriptions received at this office.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber is authorized to settle all claims against the estate of the Rev. John G. Blanchard, deceased, and to receive all monies due to said estate. Persons having Books which belonged to the deceased are requested to deliver them immediately to

TH. S. ALEXANDER.

Nov. 20.

NOTICE.

ALL persons are hereby cautioned against Gunning or in any other way trespassing on any part of my Farm.

C. C. BRICE.

November 19.

PRINTING

Neatly executed at this

OFFICE.

BALTIMORE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE subscriber has received from the President and Directors of this Company the appointment of AGENT for the city of Annapolis.

Its capital is Fifty Thousand Dollars, and the company intends to execute the following business:

1st. Insurance on Lives.

2d. Purchase and Sale of Annuities.

3d. Receiving Endowments.

4th. Receiving Money in Trust.

5th. The Management of Trust Estates.

Applications made to the subscriber at his Office in West street, opposite the Farmers Bank of Maryland, will be promptly attended to.

SOMERVILLE PINKNEY.

November 28.

$20 REWARD.

STRAYED away from the subscriber living at Curtis' Creek Furnace, on the 2d of October, THREE HORSES; a black Horse about 10 hands high, 9 years old; a bay Horse 16 hands high, 7 years old; and a chestnut sorrel 15 hands high, 9 years old. Any person or persons finding the said Horses and bringing them to Curtis' Creek Furnace, or to the Old Hay Scales Tavern, sign of the Swan, in Old Town, Baltimore, shall receive the above reward.

EDWARD BRIAN.

November 6.

DRAWING ANNOUNCED.

VALUABLE REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.

SOON TO BE DISTRIBUTED IN SHARES, IN pursuance of the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December session, 1833, to authorize ANDREW McLAUGHLIN to distribute his estate BY LOT.

This property is among the most valuable in Maryland, situated in the prosperous, healthy, and romantic village of Edcott's Mills, ten miles from the city of Baltimore, upon the Western Turnpike, and 15 miles upon the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, where all the cars, to and from the west, stop to breakfast and dine.

A sufficient number of Tickets have been sold to warrant the assurance to the public, that it will positively be drawn TWENTY-FIFTH DECEMBER. Should the balance of the Tickets be sold before, it will be drawn sooner.

It consists of the large and extensive improvements known as the

PATAPSCO HOTEL.

With all the new improvements, and a highly ornamental Garden, a beautiful Gothic Cottage, and other dwellings. Twenty valuable building Lots, with numerous other shares, of personal property, consisting of Plate, Carriages, Horses, Piano Fortes, Books, Rich Furniture, and Old Wines, all valued at $58,450, and divided into FOUR HUNDRED SHARES, subject to no discount.

It is to be drawn upon the plan of the old Maryland Lotteries, viz. The numbers will all be put into one wheel, and the prizes into another, and all drawn in one day, under the superintendence of the Trustees, according to the Act of the Legislature. They will certainly the same when drawn.

The property has been valued by three Commissioners appointed by the Treasurer of Maryland, that no speculations should be indulged in, and bonds with approved security given to the State for double the amount, that the law may be faithfully complied with. It is simply a distribution of property at its value, to reimburse the expenditure. It is well worth risking TEN DOLLARS for such a Capital as this small scheme presents; it is larger than a moneyed Capital, with twelve times the number of Tickets to contend with, and no 15 per cent off.

Many of the small shares will be paid in cash, if required.

SCHEME:

1 Share, consisting of the PATAPSCO HOTEL, with the new addition upon the Rail Road the large stone Stable, Carriage House, Ice House, and the splendid Garden, forms the grand capital prize, valued at $58,450

1 Share, a new and convenient three story dwelling, under rent of $225, 3,000

1 Share, Angelo Cottage, a beautiful Gothic building, situated upon a ledge of rocks, commanding a delightful view of the village and factories; 2,650

4 Shares, valuable building Lots at $800 each, 3,200

6 do. valuable Building Lots, at $750 each, 4,500

10 do. valuable Building Lots, at $200 each, 2,000

577 do. of Personal Property, ranging in value from $250 down to $10, 8,600

400 Shares, all free from discount. $58,460

Those who wish Tickets are advised to make early application. The scheme is quite small, containing but 5845 tickets, and this will be the only distribution offered.

The price of a share is but $10, which may draw property now worth $36,500, increasing every day in value, free from discount, and with an unquestionable title.

A. McLaughlin invites all his friends, far and near, to venture a small amount in this distribution of his property, which is a salutary case, and includes all his estate. He is anxious to close the scheme and return to Baltimore.

Tickets for Sale by

E. DUBOIS, Church street—Annapolis.

TAXES! TAXES!

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT the County Tax for 1834, and City and School Taxes for 1834, are now due. Those persons who are in arrears for taxes, are requested to settle the same, without further delay, as no longer indulgence can be given.

RICHARD RIDGELY, City and County Collector.

N. B. R. I. will attend to the drawing, and acknowledgment of deeds &c. and other duties connected with the Office of a Justice of the Peace.

City and County Collector's Office.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE GLOBE.

PROSPECTUS

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.

THE Congressional Globe, which we commenced publishing at the last Session of Congress, will be continued through the approaching one. It will be published in the same form, and at the same price; that is, once a week, on a double royal sheet, made up in quarto form, at One Dollar per copy, delivered at the session. When any important subject is discussed, we propose to print extra numbers. Subscribers may calculate on at least three or four extra sheets, at the close of the session, an additional one will be made for the last session, and sent to all the subscribers.

We shall pay to the reporters, for preparing the reports that will be published in this paper, more than one hundred dollars a week, during the session. In publishing it, therefore, at one dollar for all the numbers printed during the session, we may boast of affording the most important information at the cheapest price.

Editors with whom we exchange, will please give this Prospectus a gratuitous insertion, and those friends to whom we may send it, will please procure subscribers.

TERMS.

1 copy during the session, $1 00
11 copies during the session, $10 00
Payment may be made by mail, postage paid, at our risk. The notes of any specie paying Bank will be received.

No attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompany it.

Oct. 30.

NOTICE

I WILL sell my Farm of South River, Private Sale. It contains upwards of a THOUSAND ACRES.

and possesses more advantages than most farms. Any information which may be required will be afforded to those who will call upon me, my residence in this city, or on H. H. Howard, Esq. at the Farmers Bank of Maryland.

The Land will be sold in Lots to suit purchasers.

RICHARD HARWOOD, of Thos.

Jan. 23.

The Editors of the Baltimore Gazette, and American Farmer, will insert the above notice a week until otherwise required.

FUNERALS.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Cabinet Making Business, and intends to confine himself to his future altogether to that of an UNDERTAKER.

All orders for Funerals will be attended to at the shortest notice, either in the usual manner, or according to special direction.

He returns his thanks to the public for their patronage during the last twenty years, and hopes that his promptness and attention will continue to merit their favour.

WASHINGTON G. TUCK.

May 29.

BASIL SHEPARD, MERCHANT TAILOR.

OFFERS to the citizens of Annapolis and the public generally, a selection of new and fashionable FALL AND WINTER GOODS, from the New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore markets, consisting of Black, Blue, Raven, Buff, Dab, Invisible, Green, and Russia Ruff, double milled Diab, Olive, and Gray.

CLOTHS.

AND ALSO

CAMBLET, for Over Coats.

Diagonal, Z-grass, Polish Mixed and Plain Mixed, Ribbed and Plain CASSIMERES, and Printed CASSIMERES.

Merinos, Matelasse Silk, Satin, plain and twisted Silk, Florentine, Medley Silk, Cashmere & Tullinette

VESTINGS.

White, Black and Fancy Silk HANDKERCHIEFS, HOSE, GLOVES, SHIRTS, PENDERS, SHIRT SHAWLS, STOCKS, COLLARS and ORIENTAL DRESSING GOWNS.

All of which he respectfully invites the public to call and examine.

FOR ANNAPOLIS CAMBRIDGE AND EASTON.

The Steam Boat Maryland, commencing her route on TUESDAY the 9th inst. leaving the lower end of Dogue Wharf, at 7 o'clock. A. M. for Annapolis (Cambridge by Castle Haven) and Easton, and return from the Eastern Shore on every Wednesday and Saturday, leaving Easton at 7 A. M. by Castle Haven and Annapolis. She will commence her Chesterdown Trip on Monday 22d April, leaving Baltimore at 6 o'clock, and return the same day, leaving Chesterdown at 6 o'clock, calling at Corsica wharf, for the convenient passengers.

N. B. All baggage at the owners risk. Passage to or from Easton or Cambridge, $2.50. Passage to or from Annapolis, 1.50. Passage to Chesterdown or Corsica, 75c. Children under 12 years of age half price.

LEM'L G. TAYLOR, Master.

VOL. LXXIX.

MOON'S PHASES.

January—31 days		D. 1
First	0
Full	14
Last	21
New	29
February—28 days		D. 1
First	5
Full	13
Last	19
New	27
March—31 days		D. 1
First	7
Full	14
Last	21
New	28
April—30 days		D. 1
First	8
Full	13
Last	19
New	27
May—31 days		D. 1
First	5
Full	12
Last	19
New	27
June—30 days		D. 1
First	4
Full	10
Last	17
New	25
July—31 days		D. 1
First	3
Full	10
Last	17
New	25
August—31 days		D. 1
First	4
Full	8
Last	16
New	23
First	30
September—30 days		D. 1
Full	0
Last	14
New	22
First	29
October—31 days		D. 1
Full	0
Last	11
New	21
First	28
November—30 days		D. 1
Full	5
Last	13
New	20
First	28
December—31 days		D. 1
Full	6
Last	12
New	19
First	26

ANDREW MARTIN V

JOHN FOR LEVI WOO
LEWIS CA
MAHLOE
WILLIAM BENJAMIN

NEW IM
GEORGE
MERCHA

HAS just received
SOME beautiful
CLOTHS, CASSIM
all of the latest implications his friend
and enemies.

A supply of GL
LAMB, SUSPENS
Oct. 2, 1854.

The Maryland Gazette.

VOL. LXXIX.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1834.

No. 22.

A CALENDAR FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD 1835.

MOON'S PHASES.		Sundays.	MONDAY.	TUESDAY.	WEDNESDAY.	THURSDAY.	FRIDAY.	SATURDAY.	Sun's rising and setting for every Saturday.
		S.	R.	S.	S.	H.	M.	H.	M.
January—31 days.
First	7 11 8 A	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
Full	14 5 3 A	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18
Last	21 3 52 A	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25
New	28 4 7 A	25	26	27	28	29	30	31
February—28 days.
First	5 2 31 A	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	13 5 5 M	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	20 11 47 A	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	27 0 24 A	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
March—31 days.
First	7 11 8 M	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	14 5 3 A	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	21 3 52 A	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	28 4 7 A	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
April—30 days.
First	6 4 27 M	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	13 5 12 M	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	20 11 47 A	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	27 0 24 A	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
May—31 days.
First	5 5 39 A	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	12 10 8 M	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	19 5 31 A	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	26 8 32 M	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
June—30 days.
First	4 3 1 M	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	10 5 11 A	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	17 7 4 A	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	25 11 16 A	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
July—31 days.
First	3 9 37 M	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	10 1 32 M	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	17 10 40 M	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	25 0 10 A	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
August—31 days.
First	1 2 45 A	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	8 10 25 M	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	16 4 11 M	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	23 11 18 A	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
September—30 days.
First	0 9 46 A	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	7 10 49 A	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	14 7 22 M	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	22 2 3 M	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
October—31 days.
First	0 11 56 M	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	7 14 48 A	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	14 7 13 A	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	22 10 42 M	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
November—30 days.
First	5 5 11 M	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	12 10 25 M	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	19 5 31 A	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	26 8 32 M	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
December—31 days.
First	5 0 31 M	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Full	12 11 41 A	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Last	19 5 31 A	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
New	26 8 32 M	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29

EXECUTIVE OF THE UNITED STATES.

ANDREW JACKSON, of Tennessee,	President.
MARTIN VAN BUREN, of New York,	Vice-President.
CABINET.
JOHN FORSYTH, of Georgia,	Secretary of State.
LEVI WOODBURY, of N. Hampshire,	Secretary of Treasury.
LEWIS CASWELL, of Ohio,	Secretary of War.
MAHLON DICKINSON, of N. Jersey,	Secretary of Navy.
WILLIAM B. BARRETT, of Kentucky,	Post Master General.
BENJAMIN B. BUTLER, of N. York,	Attorney-General U. S.

NEW IMPORTATION.

GEORGE McNEIR,
MERCHAND TAILOR.

HAS just received a LARGE & HAND-
SOME assortment of
CLOTHS, CASSIMERES AND VESTING,
all of the latest importation and style, which
he invites his friends and the public to call
and examine.

ALSO:

A supply of GLOVES, STOCKS, COL-
LARS, SUSPENDERS, SILK HOSK, &c.
Oct. 2, 1834.

WILLIAM BRYAN,
Merchant Tailor.

HAS just received a handsome assortment
of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES and VEST-
INGS, very superior in quality, and variety
in colours; all of which he is determined to sell low. His shop is kept in the house of Washington G. Tuck, Esq., next door to Messrs. Hall & Franklin's store. He will make up work at the shortest notice, and in
the best and most fashionable style. Gentlemen wishing to encourage him will do well to
call on him.

Printed and Published by
JONAS GREEN,
At the Brick Building on the Public
Circle.

Price—Three Dollars per annum.

POETRY.

The Angels' Whisper.

From Mr. Lover's Songs of the Superstitions of Ireland.

A SONG was sleeping,
Its mother was weeping,
For her husband was far on the wild raging sea;
And the tempest was swelling
Round the fisherman's dwelling,
And she cried, 'Dermot, darling! oh, come back to me!'
Her head white she numbered
The baby still slumbered,
And smiled in her face as she bonded her knee;
'Oh, bless'd be that warning,
My child, thy sleep adorning—
For know that the angels are whispering with thee.
'And while they are sleeping,
Bright watch over thy sleeping,
Oh, pray to them softly, my baby, with me—
And say thou wouldst rather They'd watch over thy father,
For I know that the angels are whispering with thee.
The dawn of the morning
Saw Dermot returning,
And the wife with joy her babe's father to see;
And closely embracing
Her child with a blessing,
Said, 'I know that the angels were whispering with thee!'
* * * * *
Oh, one of the popular superstitions of the Irish is,
that, when a smile plays over the face of a sleeping infant, angels are whispering with it.

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the American Monthly Magazine.

A SHARK STORY.

From a week at the five Islands, (the unpublished Diary of a Sportsman,) as told by Ned Loomis, in Raynor Rock's Fishing Hut.
'Well, gentlemen, I'll go a head, if you say so. Here's the story. It is true, upon my honour, from beginning to end—every word of it. I once crossed over to Faulkner's Island, to fish for toulangs, as the north side people call black fish, on the reefs hard by.
In the Long Island Sound, Tim Titus, (who died of the dropsy, down at Smeek point,
last spring,) was a right good fellow, only
he drank rather too much.
It was during the latter part of July; the sharks and the dog fish had just begun to spoil sport. When Tim told me about the sharks, I resolved to go prepared to entertain these aquatic savages with all becoming attention, and regard, if there should chance to be any interlopers about our fishing ground. So we riggered a set of extra large hooks, and shipped some more yew and steel chain, an ax, a couple of clubs, and an old harpoon,
in addition to our ordinary equipments, and off we started. We threw out our anchor at half past two, and took some thumping large fish—two of them weighed thirteen pounds
—so you may judge. The reef where we lay, was about half a mile from the island, and
perhaps, a mile from the Connecticut shore.
We floated there, very quietly throwing out
and hauling in, until the breaking of my line,
with a sudden and severe jerk, informed us
that the sea stories were in waiting, down stairs and we accordingly prepared to give them a tannet. A salt pork cloak upon one of our mignon hooks, forthwith engaged one of the gentlemen in our service. We got him a good side, and by dint of piercing, and thrusting, and hanging, we accomplished a most exciting and merry murder. We had business enough of the kind to keep us employed until near low water. By this time, the sharks had all cleared out, and black fish were biting against the rock began to make its appearance above the water, and in a little while its hard bald head was entirely dry. Tim now proposed to set me out upon the rock, while he rowed ashore to get the jug, which strange to say, we had left at the house. I assented to this proposition; first, because I began to feel the effects of the sun upon my tongue, and needed something to take, by way of medicine; and secondly, because the rock was a favourite spot for a reel and reel, and famous for luck; so I took my traps, and a box of bait, and jumped upon my new station. Tim made for the island.

Not many men would willingly have been left upon a little barren reef, that was covered by every flow of the tide, in the midst of a waste of water, at such a distance from the shore, even with an assurance from a companion more to be depended upon than mine,
to return immediately, and he by to take him off. But somehow or other, the excitement of my sport was so high, and the romance of the situation was so delightful, that I thought of nothing else but the prosecution of my fun and the contemplation of the novelty and beauty of the scene. It was a mild, pleasant afternoon in harvest time. The sky was clear and pure. The deep blue sound heaving all around me, was studded with craft of all descriptions and dimensions, from the dipping sail boat, to the rolling merchantman, sinking and rising like sea-birds snorting with their white wings in the surge. The grain, and grass on the neighbouring farms, were gold and green, and gracefully they bent over-sauce to a gentle breathing south-west.
Farther off, the high upland, and the distant coast, gave a dim relief to the prominent features of the landscape, and seemed the rich
but dusky frame of a brilliant fancy picture.
Then, how still it was! not a sound could be heard, except the occasional rustling of my own motion, and the water beating against the sides, or gurgling in the fissures of the rock,

or except now and then the cry of a solitary muddy seagull, who would come out of his way in the firmament, to see what I was doing without a boat, all alone, in the middle of the sound; and who would hover, and cry, and chatter, and make two or three circling swoops and dashes at me, and then, after having satisfied his curiosity, glide away in search of some other fool to scream at.

I soon became half indolent, and quite indifferent about fishing; so I stretched myself out, at full length, upon the rock, and gave myself up to the luxury of looking and thinking—The divine exercise soon put me fast asleep. I dreamed away a couple of hours, and longer might have dreamed, but for a tired fish-hawk who chose to make my head his resting place, and who waked and started me to my feet.

'Where is Tim Titus?' I muttered to myself as I strained my eyes over the now darkened water. But none was near, me to answer that interesting question, and nothing was to be seen of either Tim or his boat—
'He should have been here long ere this,' thought I, and he promised faithfully not to stay long—could he have forgotten? or has he paid too much devotion to the jug?

I began to feel uneasy, for the tide was rising fast, and soon would cover the top of the rock, and high water mark was at least a foot above my head. I buttoned up my coat, for either the coming coolness of the evening, or else my growing apprehensions, had set me trembling and chattering most painfully. I braced my nerves, and set my teeth, and tried to hum 'begone dull care,' keeping time with my fists upon my thighs. But what music!
what melancholy merriment! I started and shuddered at the doleful sound of my own voice. I am not naturally a coward, but I should like to know the man who would not,
in such a situation, be alarmed. It is a cruel death to die, to be merely drowned and to go through theoretical common-places of sutocation, to see your death gradually rising to your eyes, to feel the water mounting inch by inch, upon your shivering sides, and
to anticipate the certainly coming, choking struggle for your last breath, when, with the gurgling sound of an overflowing brook taking a new direction, the cold brine pours into mouth, ears, and nostrils, usurping the seat
and avenues of health and life, and with grandial flow, stilling smothering suffocating!—It were better to die a thousand common deaths.

This is one of the instances, in which it must be admitted, salt water is not a pleasant subject of contemplation. However, the rock was not yet covered, and hope, blessed hope, stuck faithfully by me. To beguile, if possible, the weary time, I put on a bait, and threw out for a fish. I was sooner successful than I could have wished to be, for hardly had my line struck the water, before the hook was swallowed, and my rod was bent with the dead hard pull of a twelve foot shark. I let him run about fifty yards, then reeled up.
He appeared not at all alarmed, and I could scarcely feel him bear up my fine hair line.
He followed the pull gently and unresistingly,
as one up to the rock, laid his nose upon its side, and looked up into my face, not as if utterly unconcerned, but with a sort of quizzical impudence, as though he perfectly understood the precarious nature of my situation. The conduct of my captive renewed and increased my alarm.—And well it might for the tide was now running over a corner of the rock behind me, and a small stream rushed through a cleft, or fissure by my side, and formed a puddle at my feet. I broke my hook out of the monster's mouth, and leaned upon my rod for support.

'Where is Tim Titus?' I cried aloud,— Curse on the drunken vagabond! will he never come.'

My ejaculations did no good. No Timothy appeared. It became evident, that I must prepare for drowning, or for action. The rock was completely covered and the water was above the soles of my feet. I was not much of a swimmer, and as to ever reaching the island, I could not even hope for that.— However, there was no alternative, and I tried to encourage myself, by reflecting that necessity was the mother of invention, and that desperation will sometimes ensure success.
Besides, too, I considered and took comfort
from the thought that I could wait for Tim,
so long as I had a foot-hold, and then commit myself to the uncertain strength of my arms and legs for salvation. So I turned my bait box upside down, and mounting upon that, endeavoured to comfort my spirits, and to be courageous, but submissive to my fate. I thought of death, and what it might bring with it, and tried to repent of the multiplied iniquities of my almost wasted life; but I found that that was no place for a sinner to settle his accounts. Wretched soul! pray I could not.

The water had now got above my ankles
when to my inexpressible joy, I saw a sloop bending down towards me, with the intention of picking me up. No man can imagine what were the sensations of gratitude which filled
my bosom at that moment.

When she got within a hundred yards of the reef, I sung out to the man at the helm to luff up, and lie by, and lower the boat; but to my amazement, I could get no reply, no notice of my request. I entreated then, for the love of heaven, to take me on, and I promised, I know not what rewards, that were entirely beyond my power of bestowal. But the wretch of a Captain, muttering something to the effect of 'that he had no time to stop,' and giving me the kind and sensible advice to pull off my coat and swim ashore, put the helm hard down, and away bore the sloop on the other tack.

'Heartless villain!'—I shrieked out, in the torment of my disappointment; 'may God reward your inhumanity.' The crew answered my prayer with a coarse, loud laugh, and the cook asked me through a speaking trumpet if I was 'nt afraid of catching cold?'—The black rascal!

It was now time to strip for my knees felt
the cold tide, and the wind dying away, left a heavy swell, that swayed and shook the box
upon which I was mounted, so that I occasionally had to stoop and paddle with my hands, against the water, in order to preserve my perpendicular. The setting sun sent his almost horizontal streams of fire across the dark waters making them gloomy and terrific,
by the contrast of his amber and purple glories.

Something glided by me into the water and then made a sudden halt. I looked upon the black mass, and as my eye ran along its outline, I saw, with horror, that it was a shark,
the identical monster out of whose mouth I had just broken my hook. He was fishing now for me, and was, evidently, only waiting for the tide to rise high enough above the rock, to glut at once his hunger and revenge. As the water continued to mount above my knees,
he seemed to grow more hungry and familiar.
At last, he made a desperate dash, and approaching within an inch of my legs, turned upon his back, and opened his huge jaws for an attack. With desperate strength, I thrust the end of my rod violently at his mouth; and
the brass head ringing against his teeth, threw him back into the deep current, and I lost sight of him entirely. This, however, was but a momentary reprieve; for in the next minute he was close behind my back, and pulling at the skirts of my fustian coat, which hung dripping into the water. I leaped forward hastily, and endeavoured to extricate myself from the dangerous grasp, but the monster's teeth were so firmly set, and his immense strength nearly drew me overboard.
So down flew my rod, and off went my devoted peace-offerings to my voracious
ter.

In an instant the waves around me were lashed into a froth and foam. No sooner was my old sporting friend drawn under the surface, than it was fought for by at least a dozen enormous combatants! The battle raged upon every side. High black fins rushed here now there, and long strong tails scattered sleet and froth, and the brine was thrown up in jets, and eddied, curled, and fell, and swelled, like a whirlpool in Hell-gate.

Of no longer duration, however, was this fishy tourney. It seemed soon to be discovered that the prize contended for, contained nothing edible but chere and crackers, and no flesh, and as its mutilated fragments rose to the surface, the waves subsided into their former smooth condition. Not till then did I experience the real terrors of my situation.
As I looked around me, to see what had become of the robbers, I counted one, two, three, yes up to twelve, successively of the largest sharks I ever saw, floating in a circle around me, like divergent rays, all mathematically equidistant from the rock, and from each other; each perfectly motionless, and with his glazing, fiery eye fixed full and fierce upon me. Basilisks and rat-le-snakes!
how the fires of their steady eyes entered into my heart! I was the centre of a circle, whose radii were sharks! I was the under-spring, or rather unwhetted game, at which a pack of hunting sea dogs were making a dead-point!

There was one old fellow, that kept within the circumference of the circle. He seemed to be a sort of captain, or leader of the band,
or, rather, he acted as the corner for the other twelve of the inquisition, that were summoned to sit on, and eat up my body. He glided around and about, and every now and then would stop, and touch his nose against some one of his comrades, and seem to consult, or to give instructions as to the time and mode of operation. Occasionally he would skull himself up towards me, and examine the condition of my flesh, and then again glide
back, and rejoin the troupe, and flap his tail, and have another consultation. The old rascal had, no doubt, been out into the highways and byeways, and collected this company of his friends in; kam-fan, and invited them to supper. I must confess, that horribly as I felt, I could not help but think of a tea party, of demure old maids, sitting in a solemn circle, with their skinny hands in their laps, licking their expecting lips, while their hus-
ties bustles about in the important function of her preparations. With what an eye, have I seen such assemblages of humanity survey
the location and adjustment of some especial condiment, which is about to be submitted to criticism and consumption.

My sensations began to be now most exquisite indeed; but I will not attempt to describe them. I was neither hot nor cold, frightened nor composed; but I had a combination of all kinds of feelings and emotions.
The present, past, future, heaven, earth, my father and mother, a little girl I knew once,

GREAT NATIONAL WORK.
AMERICAN MAGAZINE
Of Useful and entertaining Knowledge. To be illustrated with numerous Engravings. By the Boston Devick Company.

THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazine from the English Press, has led to preparation for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make the work strictly what its title indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain all articles of interest to its patrons which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work honourable in its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty splendid engravings, will appear on or before the first of September, and be continued monthly, containing between forty and fifty imperial octavo pages, and be furnished at the low price of two dollars per annum. It will comprise—

Portraits and Biographical Sketches of distinguished Americans; Views of Public Buildings, Monuments and Improvements; Landscapes; Scenery; the boundless variety and beauty of which, in this country, will form an unceasing source of instruction and gratification; Engravings and descriptions of the character, habits &c. of Beasts, Birds, Fishes and Insects, together with every subject connected with the Geography, History, Natural and Artificial resources of the country, illustrated in a familiar and popular manner.

FREEMAN HUNT, Agent of the Boston Devick Company 47 Court St. Boston, July 17.

* * * Editors throughout the United States will give the above Prospectus a few insertions in their respective papers, shall be entitled to one year's subscription to the same.

STATE OF MARYLAND, SC.
Anne Arundel County, Orphans Court.

October 25th, 1834.
ON application by petition of Nathan Shipley, administrator with the will annexed, of John McMillen, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of six successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Annapolis.

SAMUEL BROWN, Jr.,
Rt. Wills A. A. county.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.

THAT the subscribers of Anne Arundel county, hath obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration with the will annexed, on the personal estate of John McMillen, late of said county deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, to the subscriber, at or before the 28th day of April next, they may otherwise be lawfully excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand and the seal of said county, this 28th day of October, 1834.

NATHAN SHIPLEY, Adminr.
With the will annexed.

NOTICE.

COMMITTED to my custody as a Runaway on the 28th August 1834. A negro Man who calls himself John Gross, and says he belongs to Nathaniel Washington of St. Mary's county; said fellow is about five feet six inches high, of a yellowish complexion, bushy head of hair, no perceptible flesh marks; his clothing consists of a blue shirt and trousers, old shoes, and hat much worn; he has also other old clothing, and produces a pass, which no doubt is forged. His owner is requested to pay charges and take him from jail, he will otherwise be discharged agreeable to law.

R. WELCH, of Ben.
Shff. A. A. County.
Sept. 1834.

50 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber living on the Head of South River A. A. County, on the 10th inst. a negro man named NICK who calls himself NICK JOHNSON; the said fellow is about 24 years of age, 5 feet 9 or ten inches high, black complexion, wide mouth and thick lips and when spoken to has a snarl on his countenance, no marks is colored except a cut on the fore finger of the left hand. I will give the above reward if taken and lodged in Jail so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home.

STEPHEN BEARD.
South River, Nov. 13.

NOTICE.

WAS committed to the Jail of Anne Arundel county as a runaway, Nov. 2, 1834, a negro man who calls himself and says he is free born, and was raised at Beggs Landing on Potomack river, in Dorchester county, on the eastern shore of Maryland—his complexion black, about 27 years of age, five feet six inches high, clothing cloth trousers and roundabout, old flur hat, and coarse shoes and stockings. If not free, the owner is requested to come and prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be discharged according to law. Given under my hand this 26th Nov. 1834.

ELIJAH ROBERTS,

R. WELCH of Ben.
Shff. A. A. county,
Dec. 4.

THE SACRED CLASSICS.

THE subscriber has made arrangements to republish as fast as they are received from England, Series of the standard Theological works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,

OR

CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY.

With an original introductory essay to each author. Edited by RICHARD COTTERMOLE, B. D. and the Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

The following is the Advertisement of the London Publisher:

UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DR. LARDNER'S CYCLOPEDIA, THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c.

PRICE ONLY THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE. On the 1st of January, 1834, will be published Vol. I. of a Series of the Standard Theological Works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,

OR

CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY:

With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.

EDITED BY

THE REV. RICHD. COTTERMOLE, B. D.

AND

THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

Other country is so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines, in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation; while her Divines have been distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of character thus given to the standard Theology of England has, through the agency of circumstances, been happily preserved from degenerating into the harshness of scholasticism; and thus the whole series of our "Sacred Classics," is a well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student.

It is intended to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the immortal interests of individuals, or to the order and well being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morality, and Evidences of Christianity, which have received the permanent stamp of general approbation; select Sermons of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the benefit and gratification of the reader.

To the productions of each author, or to each separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out their characteristic excellencies; and, in some instances, comprehending a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his times.

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in undertaking "THE SACRED CLASSICS," to present the collection to the public at such a price, that he who purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral publications, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

The work will be handsomely printed in Foolscap 8vo. on good paper, cold pressed, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, lettered and published (in Volumes of about 400 pages each) on the first day of every month.

Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence.

Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication, is submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection:

Jeremy Taylor, Bates, Boyle, Baxter, Owen, Cudworth, Thomas A. Kempis, Burnet, Howe, Butler, Wilson, Bunyan, Fenelon, Doddridge, South, Bull, Hammond, Barrow, Tillotson, Sherlock, Jortin, Farinford, Horsley, Hale, Stillingfleet, Porteus, Locke, Leighton, Cave, Chillingworth, Hall, Jewel, Jackson, Flavel, Charonck, Wesley, Skelton, Watts, Lowth, Romaine, Waterland, Whichcote, Balguy, Pearson, Ken, Newton, Stanhope, Whitby, Hammond, Burkitt, Herbert, Doune, Merdick, &c. &c.

Vol. I. (to be published on the 1st of January) will contain

THE LIBERTY OF PROPHECYING, by

Jeremy Taylor—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Richard Cottermore, B. D.

Vol. II. (to be published on the 1st of February) will contain

CAVE'S LIVES OF THE APOSTLES—with

Notes, and an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Henry Stebbing, M. A.

Vol. III. (to be published on the 1st of March) will contain

BATES'S SPIRITUAL PERFECTION, UNFOLDED AND ENFORCED—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. John Pye Smith, D. D.

LONDON: John Hatchard and Sons; Piccadilly. Whittaker & Co. Ave Maria Lane, Simpkin & Marshall, Stationers' Court D. A. Palboys, Oxford; J. & J. Deighton, Cambridge; Oliver & Boyd, Edinburgh; and J. Cunningham, Dublin.

And to be had of every Bookseller throughout the Kingdom.

March 4th, 1834.

The English copy will cost, in England, about ten dollars. We propose to issue the American edition, under the superintendence of a learned American clergyman, in weekly numbers, on a single sheet of superfine paper, giving ninety-six large 12mo. pages, to be folded and stitched, and covered with strong envelope paper, at the rate of five dollars per annum.

DUFF GREEN.

March 27.

WALDIE'S
CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

BUBBLES FROM THE BRUNNENS OF NASSAU.

A description of the fashionable watering places in Germany, by an old man, will form the commencement of the fourth volume of Waldie's Library.

This will be followed, at an early day, by the Memoirs of Henry Massere de la Tude, who was confined for thirty-five years in the different State Prisons in France, now first translated into English.

The works published in the current volume, now on the point of completion, are the following:

Kreutzner, or the German's Tale, a novel, by the author of Canterbury Tales.

Memoirs of Sir James Campbell, of Ardkinglass, written by himself: a very piquant book, containing anecdotes of most of the distinguished individuals of the last sixty years.

Good Sir Walter; a tale by the author of Family Portraits.

The Broken Heart; a dramatic sketch, from the Italian.

Rome in the Nineteenth Century; in a series of letters written during a residence in that city, by a Lady.

The Deaf and Dumb Page; a Tale.

Anecdotes of the Court of Louis the XIV. by the Duke of St. Simon.

The Black Watch; an Historical Novel, by the author of the Don Quixote; &c. &c.

One of the best novels, say the London Magazines, of the present day.

Tudor's new book of Travels in Mexico and Cuba.

Allan Cunningham's Biographical and Critical History of Literature for the last fifty years.

Helen, a Novel, by Maria Edgeworth.

Journal of a West India Proprietor, kept during a residence in the Island of Jamaica, by the late Matthew G. Lewis, Esq. M. P. author of the Monk, &c.

The Curate's Tale, or Practical Joking; from a new work entitled Nights of the Round Table.

The Three Westminster boys, or Cowper, Lord Chancellor Thurlow, and Warren Hastings, contrasted; from the same.

A Narrative of the Shipwreck of the Antelope at Pelaw, in 1783, and a brief but accurate account of Prince Le Boe.

All the above cost in the "Library" but $2.50!!!

Office No. 207 Chesnut Street, below 7th.

Subscriptions to Waldie's Select Circulating Library which is published every week at $3 per annum, thankfully received by

ADAM WALDIE, Philadelphia.

Subscriptions for the above valuable work received at this office.

PROPOSALS

TO REPUBLISH THE

LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN AND WESTMINSTER

QUARTERLY REVIEWS,

FOR $8 PER ANNUM.

THE above Journals are already so well known to the public, that little need be said of their respective merits.

The well sustained reputation of the LONDON QUARTERLY, not only as an able defender of Tory principles, and the old order of things, but as the witliest and most entertaining of Reviews, will always command the attention of the literary and scientific.

The Edinburgh, celebrated for the vigor, learning and acuteness which its articles display, conducted by some of the principal literary men of the modern Athens, is an equally powerful champion of the moderate Reform party.

The FOREIGN QUARTERLY occupies a neutral ground in Politics, and is devoted to continental literature.

The WESTMINSTER is but little known in this country. It may be considered as the advocate of the Radicals, and the mouth piece of Benthamism. It represents the principles of a party already numerous in England, and fast increasing in the United States.

The numbers will be put to press immediately after they shall be received from Europe; and will contain the entire matter of the above works; making four annual volumes of upwards of six hundred pages.

They will be executed in as good style, and be printed in a shape but little differing from that of the European editions.

The price will be $8 per annum, payable three months after the delivery of the first number. The English copies cannot be had for less than $30. Of the three at present republished, two of them alone cost $10.

Any individual procuring four subscribers, and remitting $30 on the receipt of the first Number, will be allowed an additional copy.

Subscription papers to be returned, and all communications to be addressed, post paid, to Theodore Foster, Albany, N. Y.

Oct. 16.

Subscriptions received at this office.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber is authorized to settle all claims against the estate of the Rev. John G. Blanchard, deceased, and to receive all monies due to said estate. Persons having Books which belonged to the deceased are requested to deliver them immediately to

TH. S. ALEXANDER.

Nov. 20.

NOTICE.

ALL persons are hereby cautioned against

Gunning or in any other way trespassing on any part of my Farm.

November 13.

C. C. BRICE.

PRINTING

Neatly executed at this

OFFICE.

PUBLIC SALE.

BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery, the undersigned trustee, will offer at public sale on FRIDAY the 26th day of December next, at 11 o'clock M. at the residence of John Mercer, Esq. on West River, a number of

VALUABLE NEGROES.

Consisting of Men, Women and children. The terms of Sale will be cash, to be paid at the day of sale, or ratification thereof by the Chancellor. If payment is delayed until the ratification of the sale, the purchaser will be required to pay interest from the day of sale.

THOS. S. ALEXANDER, Trustee.

Dec. 4.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE undersigned, commissioners appointed by Saint Mary's County Court, to value and divide the real estate of Joseph Millard, deceased, late of Saint Mary's county, according to the provisions of the acts of Assembly in such case made and provided, do hereby give notice to all concerned, that we shall meet at John Barnes' the Tenant, on the premises, on THURSDAY the fifth day of February next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to proceed in the business for which we are appointed.

B. GOUGH.

THOS. W. GOUGH, Com'rs.

W. WOODWARD, }
Dec. 4.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY virtue of sundry writs of fieri facias, issued out of Anne Arundel County Court, and to me directed, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of Upton D. Welch, at suit of James Sykes, Christian Capito, Reuben Warfield, Joshua Dryden, and Densmore and Kyle, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand, both at law and equity, of said Upton D. Welch, of, in and to all those tracts or parts of tracts of land and premises, called the Last Shift, Shipley's Search, Shipley's Contention, one other tract, called a Farm in a better Shape, containing in the whole, three hundred and thirteen acres of land, more or less, being the land and premises at present occupied by Upton D. Welch, lying and being in Anne Arundel county, near Sykesville, also one other tract of land, called John's Last Shift, containing two hundred acres of land more or less, and one other tract called, Lot No. 2, containing one hundred and ninety acres of land, more or less, also the following Negroes, one Negro man by the name of Solomon, one ditto woman named Ann, one ditto woman Rachel, and her two children, Joseph and Thomas, also sundry Stock, Horses, Cattle, and a number of Hogs, Plantation Utensils, among which is an excellent Waggon and Gear; and on Wednesday, 31st Dec. instant, at the residence of the said Upton D. Welch, I shall proceed to sell the said property, or such part thereof as may be necessary to discharge the debts due as aforesaid. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock. Terms CASH.

R. WELCH, of Ben.

Shff. A. A. County.

Dec. 4.

BALTIMORE LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY.

THE subscriber has received from the President and Directors of this Company the appointment of AGENT for the city of Annapolis.

Its capital is Fifty Thousand Dollars, and the company intends to execute the following business:

1st. Insurance on Lives.

2d. Purchase and Sale of Annuities.

3d. Receiving Endowments.

4th. Receiving Money in Trust.

5th. The Management of Trust Estates.

Applications made to the subscriber at his Office in West street, opposite the Farmers Bank of Maryland, will be promptly attended to.

SOMERVILLE PINKNEY.

November 28.

$20 REWARD.

STRAYED away from the subscriber living at Curtis Creek Furnace, on the 2d of October, THREE HORSES: a black Horse about 16 hands high, 9 years old; a bay Horse 16 hands high, 8 years old; and a chestnut sorrel 15 hands high, 9 years old. Any person or persons finding the said Horses and bringing them to Curtis Creek Furnace, or to the Old Hay Scale Tavern, sign of the Swan, in Old Town, Baltimore, shall receive the above reward.

EDWARD BRIAN.

November 6.

CASH IN MARKET,

FOR ONE HUNDRED NEGROES of both sexes, from 10 to 30 years of age. I will give more for that number of slaves than any other Purchaser in the market, or that may come. All communications will be promptly attended to if left at James Hunter's Hotel, Annapolis, at which place the subscriber can be found.

Oct. 4.—Am.

WILLIAM HOOPER.

Anne Arundel County, To wit:

I HEREBY CERTIFY, That George C. Stewart of said county, brought before me as a stray trespassing on his enclosures, a Grey GELDING, about 7 or 8 years old, about fifteen hands high, no perceptible marks, shod all round, except one of his shoes lately off, trots and canters, has a switch tail. Given under my hand one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said county, this 24th day of November 1834.

JOHN KNIGHTON.

TAXES! TAXES!
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.

THAT the County Tax for 1834, and the School Tax for 1834, are now due. Those persons who are in arrears for taxes are requested to settle the same, without further delay, as no longer indulgence can be given.

RICHARD RIDGELY,

City and County Collector.

N. B. R. will attend to the duties and acknowledgment of Deeds &c. and all duties connected with the office of a Justice of the Peace.

City and County Collector's Office.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE GLOBE.

PROSPECTUS

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.

THE Congressional Globe, which was commenced publishing at the last Session of Congress, will be continued through the approaching year. It will be published in the same form, and at the same price; that is, a week, on a double royal sheet, made up in quarto form, at ONE DOLLAR per copy, the session. When any important subject is discussed, we propose to print an extra sheet. Subscribers may calculate on at least three extra sheets. At the close of the session, an index will be made for the first 2d sessions, and sent to all the subscribers. We shall pay to the reporters, for preparing the reports that will be published in this paper, more than one hundred dollars, during the session. In publishing, therefore, at one dollar for all the numbers printed during the session, we may be said to afford the most important information at the cheapest price.

Editors with whom we exchange, will give this Prospectus a gratuitous insertion, and those friends to whom we may send will please procure subscribers.

TERMS.

1 copy during the session, $1.00

11 copies during the session, $10.00

Payment may be made by mail, post paid, at our risk. The notes of any paying Bank will be received.

No attention will be paid to any order unless the money accompany it.

Oct. 30.

NOTICE

I WILL sell my Farm on South River, Private Sale. It contains upwards of

THOUSAND ACRES.

and possesses more advantages than most. Any information which may be required is afforded to those who will call upon my residence in this city, or on H. R. Wood, Esq. at the Farmers Bank of Maryland. The Land will be sold in Lots to purchasers.

RICHARD HARWOOD, of the

Jan. 23.

The Editors of the Baltimore Gazette, and American Farmer, will insert the above a week until otherwise required.

FUNERALS.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Cabinet Making business, and intends to confine himself to future altogether to that of an UNDERTAILOR.

All orders for Funerals will be attended at the shortest notice, either in the usual manner, or according to special direction.

He returns his thanks to the public for the patronage during the last twenty years, and hopes that his promptness and attention will continue to merit their favour.

WASHINGTON G. TUCKER.

May 29.

BASIL SHEPARD,

MERCHANT TAILOR

OFFERS to the citizens of Annapolis, and the public generally, a selection of and fashionable FINE AND WINTER GOODS, from the New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore markets, consisting of Black Blue, Dutch Rifle, Drab, Green, and Russia Raven; Brown, double milled Drab, Olive, and Gray

CLOTHS.

AND ALSO

CAMLET, for Over Coats.

Diagonal, Zephyr, Polish Mixed and Plain Mixed, Ribbed and Plain CASSIMERES and Printed CASSIMERES.

Merinos, Matelasse Silk, Satin, plain and twilled Silk, Florentine, Medley Silk, Cashmere & Tulle.

VESTINGS.

White, Black and Fancy Silk HANDKERCHIEFS, HOSE, GLOVES, SUIT PENDERS, SUIT SHIRTS, STOCKS, COLLARS and ORIENTAL DRESSING GOWNS.

All of which he respectfully invites the public to call and examine.

FOR ANNAPOLIS CAMBRIDGE AND EASTON.

The Steam Boat

RYLAND, commencing her route on TUESDAY the 9th inst. leaving lower end of the