PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryat, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Art; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvania says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied; and each number contains more really valuable reading matter than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $300 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet; at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittance at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!
NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REMINISCES, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

"I was one of the great objects of 'Waldie's Library,' 'to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door.' That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a pungent seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at achieving, to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves."

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enlighten and enliven the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars a club of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Ree's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

67 Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

VOL. XLII.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1837.

NO. 5.

Circle.
Price—Three Dollars per annum.

26,000 SUBSCRIBERS!
PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryat, and six of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Art, Internal Improvements, Agriculture, in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvania says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"We know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable 'reading matter' than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.
Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c.; whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, railroads, &c. with other interesting and useful features; roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps).

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are such sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

It was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to be its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

Waldie's Literary Omnibus will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitters; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Rees's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

Our Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

ANNAPOLES.

Thursday, February 2, 1837.

The Annual Fair for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the city of Annapolis, will be held at the Assembly Room of said city on Thursday, the 9th of February next, commencing at 12 o'clock. A variety of articles will be exhibited for sale. Industry and skill, taste and fancy are combining their powers to produce a variety which may be pleasing and attractive to the spectators. Many a benevolent heart is devising, and many a kind hand employed in executing something to aid the Fair; and the Managers give this early notice, that others, who perhaps have not yet thought of it, may understand that now is the time to arise for our help. Our hopes are bright, our expectations sanguine, that the result will prove as gratifying as that which has followed similar efforts. Every exertion will be made to have the exhibition as pleasing to the eye as possible; but it is to the heart that we make our appeal, and we trust that those who visit it, will look beyond that which meets the outward vision, to the object for which it is set forth—an object which cannot be known without being appreciated. How full of sorrow is the name of orphan! If rank and wealth and honour surround life's childhood, each and all of them can offer no equivalent for the tender smile, the fond endearment, the watching, ceaseless care of parental love; and when all these are wanting, sad indeed is the situation of the helpless outcast! It is for such we plead, for such we solicit your compassion. Friends and patrons, citizens and strangers, we feel assured that you will give to the relief of the orphan. Yes, you will, for you have not forgotten that it is written, "as Father of the fatherless is God, in his holy habitation," and verily may you believe that "inasmuch as you have done it to one of the least of these, you have done it unto him."

The New York Star says:—We regret to perceive that Mr. Eugene Robertson, the celebrated Aeronaut, recently died at the city of Mexico. His repeated beautiful ascensions at this place will be long remembered. He was a man of much science, and followed the business of ballooning as a profession, his father before him having had much celebrity as an Aeronaut.

On the morning of the 10th inst. at Greenville, S. C. the mercury stood at 28° below the freezing point. The distant mountains were capped with snow—the rivers and ponds were in good skating order, and the tavern keepers were laying in supplies of ice for the summer.

The Richmond Enquirer of Thursday states that the ice in James river has broken up, and a steamer had arrived at Richmond the day before, from Norfolk. This surely is an early spring.

THE SOUTH SEA EXPEDITION.

After all the fears which have been felt by the friends of Science for the success of the contemplated South Sea Expedition—from the well known opposition of the Secretary of the Navy, the publication of disputes between several of the officers selected, and the thousand indiscreet attacks which have been made by the disappointed—we are happy to state that the necessary preparations for this great enterprise are nearly completed. The President, upon learning that the directions given by him previous to his journey to Tennessee, had not been attended to, found it necessary to re-issue them, which was done in so effectual a manner, that we shall probably hear of no further opposition to the expedition.

Already have several gentlemen received their official appointments as members of the Scientific Corps, and sometime in the coming spring, the expedition will leave our shores. Among these appointments are several names long known to the scientific world.

The following have been selected as Naturalists.

From Philadelphia, Charles Pickering, M. D.

Reynall Coats, M. D.

Titian Peale.

Prof. W. Johnson.

From New York, Asa Gray, M. D.

From New Hampshire, Dr. Dana.

From Boston, Joseph P. Couthney, Esq.

John Witt Randall, Esq.

Mr. Drayton, of Philadelphia, goes out as artist, and Mr. E. Darley, of the same city, as Portrait Painter. Mr. Agate, a young artist of much merit of New York, is engaged as draftsman to the Natural History Corps. We also learn that Mr. Horatio Hale, son of Mrs Sarah J. Hale of this city, will be selected as Philologist.

PROCLAMATION.

IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE REPUBLIC OF TEXAS.

Whereas, the late government "ad interim" of the republic aforesaid, have, at various times, and to diverse individuals, issued and granted commissions for "letters of marque and reprisal," and whereas, similar commissions have also been issued by the present government as a means of temporary defence, which from the increase of our national marine, has now become inexpedient; and believing that it is not only the duty but the policy of all civilized governments to discountenance every species of warfare which is manifestly calculated for mere private plunder, and not for the attainment of a nation's glory or an honourable peace; and believing that the system of "privateering" is a warfare of that description, and keeping in view the example of the United States of the North and Great Britain, the most enlightened and civilized nations of the earth—

Therefore I, Samuel Houston, President of the Republic aforesaid, by the authority in me vested, do hereby ordain and declare all such "letters of marque and reprisal," and all commissions and authorities touching the same, to be and the same are hereby suspended; and all persons holding or having received such "letters of marque and reprisal," or any commission or authority touching the same, are hereby commanded and required to return the same, and report themselves within forty days from this date, to the Secretary of the Navy of the Republic.

Done at Columbia, this sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and in the year of the Republic the first.

SAM'L HOUSTON.

S. FISHER RHODES, Secretary of the Navy.

Dec. 17, 1836.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Columbia, Dec. 19, 1836.

GENERAL ORDERS.

From information received at this department, it appears that many persons in this republic, and also in the United States of America, are wearing the uniform and military badge of the army and navy of Texas, without the warrant or a commission from the government, and have by their licentious and unprincipled conduct, and many impositions practised upon the friends of Texas abroad, reflected disgrace on the country and service which they pretend to represent.

It therefore becomes my duty to pronounce all such persons, acting without authority from this department, or by order of the President of this republic, traitors, and it is hoped they will be treated as such.

No person within the limits of Texas, or of any friendly power, shall wear the insignia of an officer in the Texas service, without a special order or permission to that effect, from this or the Naval department of this government.

By order of the President.

S. FISHER,

(Signed) Acting Secretary at War

CIRCUIT COURT.

CASE OF R. H. WHITE.

On the opening of the Court yesterday morning, an unusual number of spectators were assembled to hear the decision of the Court in the case of Richard H. White. Judge Morsell delivered his opinion orally, that the special verdict of the Jury, was not admissible, and that the United States were entitled to a new trial. In this view of the case, Judge Thurston concurred and read an elaborate opinion in support of it.

Chief Justice Cranch also delivered a written opinion of great length and ability, dissenting from the opinions of the Court as above stated, and declaring that he thought the special verdict of the Jury was entitled to be received, and the prisoner to an acquittal. A majority of the Court, however, decided otherwise, and the special verdict was set aside, and a venire facias de novo ordered.

After the Court had pronounced their opinion in this interesting case, which has been so long pending, and which has been so extensively published, Mr. W. L. Brent applied to the Court for a copy of their opinions, in order to their being laid before the public. We understand that the Chief Justice and Judge Thurston signified their assent. Judge Morsell observed that as his opinion was not committed to writing, he could not comply with the learned gentleman's request. We hope that the opinions of all the three Judges will be published with all convenient speed.

CASE OF HARRY WHITE.

The opinion of Chief Justice Cranch (in which Judge Thurston concurred,) was delivered from a written paper. It was of some length and great ability, and decided against the motion in arrest of judgment. In expressing his concurrence in the views of the Chief Justice, Judge Thurston paid a merited compliment to the able and erudite opinion of the former.

Judge Morsell dissented from the opinion of the Court in this case.

Harry White, soon after the opinion of the Court was delivered, was brought into the Court room, in custody of the Deputy Marshal. The Court, however, ordered him to be remanded to prison, observing that they would pass sentence on him to-morrow (this morning) along with the other prisoners who had been already convicted, but not yet sentenced.—Metropolitan.

HENRY WHITE, convicted of being concerned in burning the Treasury building in March 1835, was on Friday sentenced by the Circuit Court to ten years imprisonment in the Penitentiary.

AURORA BOREALIS.

Between seven and eight o'clock last evening, we had quite a brisk alarm of fire. Bells rang in various parts of the town, and the cry was given in that deep, determined and startling tone which informs the practised ear that he who utters it is satisfied that he has reason for his clamor. In going forth to enquire into the "whereabout" of the conflagration, we were somewhat disposed to join in the outcry, on observing the north-eastern portion of the sky glowing as if it reflected the glare of a burning city. Its rolling volumes of variegated light, ribbed as it were with pencilings of white fire, however, spoke the Aurora Borealis, and changed alarm into admiration. The flame gradually extended along the northern horizon, assuming new and more beautiful forms, until it reached a bright reflection in the east, when one-half of the heavens were the aspect of "a sky with clouds of flame—a sea with billows of fire," streamers of brilliant whiteness shot upwards from every part of the illuminated space to the zenith, where they knotted and twined into clouds of pearly hue, contracting and spreading into an infinite variety of shapes.

The cold, yet sparkling brilliancy of the stars, visible through the crimson, heated atmosphere, had a contrasted effect, which was peculiarly striking, and heightened the startling impression of the scene. The whole display soon gradually paled and melted away, until in less than an hour, the sky assumed its usual appearance. The Aurora is rarely witnessed in such beautiful perfection so far south as Philadelphia, and in a more superstitious age its glare of blood and fire would have been taken as a portent of war, pestilence and famine.—Phil. paper.

FROM FLORIDA.

The Charleston Courier of the 22d contains the following information, received at that port in 10 hours from Jacksonville.

COURIER OFFICE,

Jacksonville, Jan. 18—4 P. M.

The Army.—Mr. Keer, who arrived at this place last Tuesday from Fort Drane, gives us the following information:

On Thursday of last week, he met an express from Gen. Jesup, bearing orders for all the wagons at Black Creek to be sent with provisions to Fort Drane. The express left the army under Gen. Jesup, not far from Dade's battle ground, on the march from Tampa to Fort Drane, where the army has arrived before this.

The hostile Indians had not been fallen in with by the army. Jim Boy, of the Creeks, has however, been successful in taking sixty negro prisoners, near the Ocklawaha. These negroes, said to be Indians negroes, were armed and made resistance, but were so completely surprised, that they were secured with only two wounded of the friendly Creeks.

But few Indians were with the negroes. Of those few, two or three, it is said, were killed. Among the negroes taken, is Primus, who belonged to the unfortunate Rogers, killed last winter, at the same time with General Thompson.

It will be recollected, that this Primus was sent twice to the hostiles, by Gen. Gaines. The first time he returned, but being sent a second time, he joined the Seminoles, instead of having been killed by them, as was supposed. Primus is now in no enviable situation. He must turn traitor to the Indians now, or he must die. It is said that Gen. Jesup demands of him to point out to him where the hostile Indians and their families are—and told him that he has till next Saturday to give the information required, but that, if he then refused to give it and do as required, he should die the death of a traitor—that he should be hung.

In addition, we learn from a passenger in the George & Mary, that the Indians had killed a Mr. Jessy Bandy, and wounded a Mr. Sistrunk, residing about 20 miles from Suwannee Springs and had fired into the house of a Mr. Wills, but without doing any damage.

OFFICE OF THE COURIER,

Charleston, Jan. 24—2 P. M.

The schooner Oscar, Capt. Kenyon, arrived at this port yesterday in two days from St. Augustine.

We are indebted to the attention of Captain K. for the following intelligence, being the latest from the Floridian army, and what is more gratifying, affording an indication that the Indians are in a fair way of being subdued.

The news is contained in a slip from our correspondent of the St. Augustine Herald.

St. AUGUSTINE, Jan. 20, 1837.

A letter from an officer of the Army, dated Camp Dade, 10th Jan. 1837, states:—(To-day General Jesup arrived from Tampa Bay. A scouting party captured 15 Negroes near Wahos Swamp, who state that Powell was then in the swamp with a few of the Micauky Indians, the rest having left him. That in the general actions of Gov. Call, a great number of Indians were killed. That in the affair when the whites destroyed a boat in the Withlacoochee, 17th Jan., 10 hostiles were killed, and 20 wounded. That Juxkes, Micauky, and Anrak were at A-ha-pop-ka, and were willing to make terms, if they will be treated well. That the Indians have but a small quantity of ammunition left. The letter goes on to state:—"To-morrow we shall march against Powell, or against Philip, at Top-ka-li-ka, or both, and that circumstances indicate an early termination of the war."

"An express arrived last night to Col. Crane, from which we learn that Gen. Jesup had ordered home the Georgia and Alabama militia. There was a regular force sufficient in the field. It is reported that the mail rider between this and Tallahassee has been killed by the Indians.

"Col. Crane has been ordered to Gary's Ferry, where he will have his head quarters."

GEORGIAN OFFICE,

Savannah, Jan. 25th—1 P. M.

A young coloured woman named Maria, a servant of Mrs. F. S. Fell, of this city, while engaged day before yesterday in cooking, had her clothing unfortunately enveloped in flames, by which she was so much injured as to expire yesterday morning. She had an infant child in her arms when the accident occurred, which escaped with slight injury. The deceased had on a calico dress, and was a valuable servant, with but one child.

Quick Passage.—The ship Governor Troop, of this port, which sailed hence on the 24th November, arrived at Liverpool on the 18th Dec. completing her passage in nineteen days.

FROM THE JACKSONVILLE COURIER, 19th inst.

POSTSCRIPT.

Capt. D. S. Garener, from Tallahassee, via Newnansville, just arrived, gives us the following information:

On the 8th instant the Indians attacked Mr. Wells in his own house yard, near the Mineral Springs, on the Suwannee. He fled into his house, and with the assistance of his daughter closed and held fast the door. The Indians fired on the house and several balls went through the floor. Hearing the noise of a cart and some persons crossing a branch near the house, Mr. Wells called out, "come on my boys, here the Indians are in the yard." The Indians broke from the yard, and ran to the branch—There they killed Mr. Jesse Bandy, who was driving the cart. The Indians then proceeded to Mr. Sistrunk's house, near by, and while Mr. S. who was a short distance from his house was raising his gun to fire on them he received a ball in his left arm. Mr. S. ran for his house, three Indians in pursuit of him. He escaped. The Indians took off two horses and a mule.

We are informed that Col. Fanning, in pursuance of an order received from Gen. Jesup, left Black Creek with 300 of his command for Volusia.

GEORGIA COURIER OFFICE,

Augusta, Jan. 26th, 7 P. M.

Last night (horresco referens) the snow fell in this place to the depth of 8 or 6 inches. To-day our ears have been greeted, in the way of variety, with the merry jingling of sleigh bells mingled with the sound of happy voices. Our boys consider this new article a God-send, and the snow balls are flying in every possible direction.

Of political news there is a plentiful lack. The French expedition against Constantine, under Marshal Clausel, has been awfully defeated.

He started with 7000 men, expected to take Constantinople without difficulty, did not take enough provisions, (only 6 days' forage and provisions for a 15 days' march) was disappointed in supplies promised by some Arab allies, reached Constantinople without baggage or light artillery, were frozen out, and rained out, and thawed out, and went back to Bona, a skeleton force, like the sad expedition to Russia.

The Courier and Enquirer of Saturday last comes to us on its mammoth sheet. It would be a curious calculation, though we are not satisfied that it would warrant the time necessary to make it, to ascertain how much matter one of these mammoth sheets contains. We are satisfied that it contains more than all the daily papers published in this city to-day.

From the above it appears that the State of Maryland has a larger number of free negroes than any other State in the Union—That she has 52,938 more than the large, populous and flourishing State of New York, when at the same time the population of New York is four times as great as that of Maryland—That Maryland contains more free negroes than Virginia by a majority of 3,590—while Virginia contains a population of more than double that of Maryland.

The following facts are obtained from the census of 1830:—That the entire population of Somerset was then 20,100, embracing whites, slaves and free negroes—that out of a population of 20,100 there were 6,556 slaves, and 2,239 free negroes—that more than one fourth of our black population is free.

It is but reasonable to presume that the slave population of 1830 has diminished considerably, and that the free black population has increased since that date—and it is but reasonable to presume that our slave population since 1830 has diminished to 5000, and that the free black population has increased to 2,500; if so the free negroes amount to half the number of slaves in Somerset.

These data are submitted to the people of Somerset for their serious consideration.

WOMAN BURIED ALIVE.

The Philadelphia Ledger relates an instance of an aged mulatto woman, who was supposed to have been buried alive last Sunday. The grave digger heard groans when filling up the grave. The coffin was disinterred, and though the corpse was found to have changed its position it was without any signs of life, and accordingly again interred last Tuesday—N. Y. Star.

There is a subscription at all the newspaper offices in New York, for the men who so gallantly plunged into the sea at Rockaway with their little skiff, and took off the only few persons saved from the awful wreck of the Mexico.—Morning paper.

The patriarch, with his sons and grand-sons, who, after dragging their boat for miles, launched it into such a surly under such an atmosphere as is described by those who witnessed the wreck of the Mexico, and rescued eight human lives at the risk of their own, would have earned statues from an ancient State, and poets would have made them immortal. The daily press can do little, perhaps, for such purposes, but it is not to suffer their exploits to pass without emphatic and reiterated commendation. The spirit that prompts such exertions is of the best and brightest character—noble, brave, and disinterested. Happily for the honour of our nature it is not often wanting when occasion demands its exercise, though it is seldom called into action under circumstances so appalling as those to which we allude. That boat's crew deserves to have their names enrolled as public benefactors, and to receive the thanks of every philanthropic society throughout the Union.—Nat. Gazette.

After the 4th of July next, the Flag of the United States will be decorated with 26 stars, (now 25.) The 26th will represent the new State of Michigan.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individuals and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:
The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.
The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Herington; Hayward's True Church of Christ shown; Hayward's Charity and Truth; More's Catholicism, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripturist; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. McHale's Evidence of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventura's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.
Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for the year.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library. BOOKS BY MAIL. PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success was attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty per cent attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belles lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventure &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library is now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Reed's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and ungenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.
This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio only an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
Seventh, two doors south of Chesnut street, Philad.

The Museum of Foreign Literature and Science, price $5 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $15 00.

SEVENTEEN POPULAR NOVELS.

THE NEW-YORKER—QUARTO FORM NEW SERIES.

THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol. II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty-two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and contemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, further than to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is which will be printed still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Annexed are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct and duty will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.
The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and affording to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol. II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty-two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and contemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, further than to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is which will be printed still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Annexed are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct and duty will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.
The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and affording to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdote, and Facetiae.

EMBELISHED WITH NUMEROUS GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

Each number comprising seventy-two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year two volumes of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humourists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offspring of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdote, and Facetiae, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilarating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

THE "EVERY BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly, in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper; at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for five dollars.

When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid.)

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryat, and fifty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvania Aves.—The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union; the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable reading matter than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Fanny, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Lowlands, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished on order for from four to six cents a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

It was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door. That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the best and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good to enlighten and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London quarter volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance. As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfillment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Rees's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46, Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

Mr. Simmons, submitted the following preamble and resolutions.

Whereas frequent changes in the revenue laws often affect very seriously the business and prosperity of the country; and whereas, such changes should not be made unless to get rid of acknowledged grievances, as well as to anticipate a benefit.

Resolved, be it resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, that the tariff law of March 2d, 1833, commonly called the compromise act, should be observed inviolate and in good faith.

Resolved, that the public lands are the property of the State, and that no distribution of them should be made in which all do not equally participate.

Resolved, that for the proper and necessary wants of the Government are provided for; and to prevent the accumulation of large sums of money in the treasury, which would tend to embarrass the trade of the country—the surplus should be unconditionally distributed, quarter annually, amongst the States.

Resolved, that whenever the exigencies of the Government should require it, Congress is clothed by the constitution, with ample authority to put in requisition all the resources of the country—and a patriotic people will never fail to sustain a government of their own choice, with all the means in their power.

Resolved, that the Senators and Representatives from this State, in Congress, be requested to bring the subjects embraced in the preceding resolutions, before their respective houses, and to urge the adoption of such measures as will be in accordance therewith.

Mr. Richardson submitted the following preamble and resolutions—

Whereas the great charter of our liberties, the declaration of independence, proclaims and establishes, upon the broad basis of eternal truth, the glorious and ennobling doctrine that all men are created equal, and of right ought to be free—

And whereas the citizens of this free and happy country hold these truths as sacred and inviolable, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of the happiness or liberties of the governed, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its powers in such principles and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness—

And whereas the people of Maryland have beheld with grief and indignation a soulless despotism trampling with ruthless feet upon the lives, the liberties and the happiness of the people of a neighboring state, and have witnessed with feelings of unmingled admiration and delight their brilliant chivalrous and successful resistance to their oppressors, and their establishment of a government suited to their wishes, and guaranteeing the equal rights of all—

And whereas sound policy, reason and justice all combine in urging us to acknowledge their independence, and to welcome them into the family of nations—Therefore,

Resolved, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the people of Texas, having by their valour and patriotism, driven from their soil the proud despots who sought to enslave them, and having established a government of their own choice, and by their own power, ought to be recognized as a free, sovereign and independent state.

Resolved, That the Senators and Representatives of the State of Maryland in the Congress of the United States be and they are hereby instructed to vote for the immediate recognition of the independence of Texas.

Resolved, That His Excellency the Governor transmit, forthwith, a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to each of the Senators and Representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States now in session;

Which were read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The committee have very carefully examined the provisions of this bill, and reflected upon the principle which it seeks to establish, and after the most mature consideration they have determined to report unfavourably thereon; the committee cannot perceive the justice of drawing what may be considered an unjust distinction between different classes of labourers; no preference is now given to any over another, except upon the principles of the common law, and upon which no legislation is deemed necessary—If any lien should be created as proposed by the bill, in the case mentioned your committee cannot discover any reason for rejecting the numerous applications that may be made to the house from other tradesmen and labourers, for similar privileges—such laws cannot be reduced to any system, or establish any principle, which in its application would be general.

Such discriminating legislation, your committee think exceedingly injudicious, and should not be sanctioned by this house—they therefore recommend the rejection of the bill, and pray to be discharged from its further consideration.

The Clerk of the Senate returned the bill, to make valid a certain instrument or writing there,

Maryland Gazette.

ANNAPOLIS:
Thursday, February 9, 1837.

The Annual Fair for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the city of Annapolis, will be held at the Assembly Room of said city on THIS DAY, the 9th of February, commencing at 12 o'clock. A variety of articles will be exhibited for sale. Industry and skill, taste and fancy are combining their powers to produce a variety which may be pleasing and attractive to the spectators. Many a benevolent heart is glowing, and many a kind hand employed in executing something to aid the Fair; and the Managers give this early notice, that others, who perhaps have not yet thought of it, may understand that now is the time to arise for our help. Our hopes are bright, our expectations sanguine, that the result will prove as gratifying as that which has followed similar efforts. Every exertion will be made to have the exhibition as pleasing to the eye as possible; but it is to the heart that we make our appeal, and we trust that those who visit it, will look beyond that which meets the outward vision, to the object for which it is set forth—an object which cannot be known without being appreciated. How full of sorrow is the name of orphan! If rank and wealth and honour surround life's childhood, each and all of them can offer no equivalent for the tender smile, the fond endearment, the watching, ceaseless care of parental love; and when all these are wanting, and indeed is the situation of the helpless orphan! It is for such we plead, for such we solicit your compassion. Friends and patrons, citizens and strangers, we feel assured that you will give to the relief of the orphan. Yes, you will, for you have not forgotten that it is written, "a Father of the fatherless is God, in his holy habitation," and verily may you believe that "as much as you have done it to one of the least of these, you have done it unto him."

Whether there be for the contemplated change in Maryland the great necessity which some appear to think, may well admit of doubt. Evils, and great evils not far off, may be the result of innovations, calculated it is supposed to produce nothing but good. Be however the contemplated change for evil or for good, he must be a dull man indeed who does not perceive that change (it may or may not be reform) is now inevitable. Heretofore it has been thought that Maryland was divided into only two classes of counties, small and large—that the former class constituted the majority, and that the political influence of the large could not be increased without diminishing the influence of all (called) the small counties. But the project of the Senate (and that of the House of Delegates too) looks into a very different secret. It divides the state into three classes, the large, the larger, and the small counties, and while it contemplates to increase the influence of the largest, does not diminish, indeed it increases that of the large counties. The small counties then are in the minority. Thus the people cannot fail to discover, and hereafter there can be no doubt that a majority of the counties will be favourable to this reform. Some of the delegates may think otherwise, but they will be mistaken.

Since then change is necessary, why not adopt the Senate's bill as the Senate's committee reported? Why not say that the Senate and Legislature hereafter shall be composed of men elected by the twenty counties, and the city of Baltimore? Why, when no real interest of the state, or any portion of it requires it, introduce into the amended system any provision which inevitably will produce dissatisfaction and clamour? If it be that "the rotten borough" system can no longer be endured by the people, why not give it up, and not grudgingly? Why keep alive a state of feeling which must inevitably lead to further changes, and some of them essentially injurious to the really small counties?

REFORM.

Proceedings had in the Committee of the whole house, on the bill reported by Mr. Ford, Chairman of the Committee on the Constitution, entitled, "An act to amend the Constitution and Form of Government of the State of Maryland."

Monday, February 6, 1837.

Mr. Ford moved to amend said bill, by filling the blank in the first section with "the first Monday in October."

Mr. Hicks moved to fill the blank with "first Wednesday in October."

Mr. Tuck moved to fill the blank with "first Wednesday in August."

Mr. Ridgely moved to fill the blank with "second Wednesday in November."

Mr. Bringle moved to fill the blank with "second Wednesday in October."

Mr. Harris moved to fill the blank with "last Monday in July."

The question was first put upon the motion of Mr. Ridgely, being the latest day, to fill the blank with "second Wednesday in November," and Determined in the negative.

The question was then put on the motion of Mr. Bringle to fill the blank with "second Wednesday in October," and Determined in the negative.

The question was then put on the motion of Mr. Hicks to fill the blank with "first Wednesday in October," and Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Eccleston moved further to amend said bill, by striking out from the word "or," in the 1st section, 4th line, to the end of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

Two delegates from the city of Baltimore and the several counties of this state, and an additional delegate for every fifteen thousand population in any county of this state and the city of Baltimore; provided that no county shall have more than four delegates, and the city of Baltimore not more delegates than the most populous county in the state, until after the census of 1840;

Which was read.

Mr. Ely moved to amend said amendment, by

However wise may have been this policy originally, yet it does not seem to have been thought necessary in more modern days, to give to all cities, as cities, a distinct voice in the legislature. Frederick is a city, but it still remains a part of the county in state elections; and perhaps its people as well as the people of all other cities of not greater size, or more trade, would not be promoted by making it a distinct community in the election of delegates to the General Assembly, or of Senators.

Baltimore, besides being a city, is very populous, has much trade, and it is inhabited principally by those classes of people, manufacturers, merchants, tradesmen, &c. whose interests are especially confided to city delegates. Hence, and especially as we have but one great commercial city, it seems to be wise to give to it an increased delegation. It is quite as wise to abolish entirely the old distinction between towns and cities; and until population, trade, &c. would seem to require it to be otherwise, leave all of them as parts of the counties to which for many purposes they now belong. A city or town instead of being benefited, is essentially injured by a distinct representation, unless it be a city or town which has those distinct interests, which in order to be attended to requires a distinct representation to protect them. The privilege, as it is called, often proves a curse to these cities and towns upon which it is bestowed. "Old Sarum" has never been benefited by its privilege of electing a member of Parliament, and in the destruction of the rotten borough system every where, every man who does not wish to live and acquire consequence by the sale and purchase of votes, is deeply interested.

Whether there be for the contemplated change in Maryland the great necessity which some appear to think, may well admit of doubt. Evils, and great evils not far off, may be the result of innovations, calculated it is supposed to produce nothing but good. Be however the contemplated change for evil or for good, he must be a dull man indeed who does not perceive that change (it may or may not be reform) is now inevitable. Heretofore it has been thought that Maryland was divided into only two classes of counties, small and large—that the former class constituted the majority, and that the political influence of the large could not be increased without diminishing the influence of all (called) the small counties. Pending this motion, the committee rose, reported progress, and asked leave to sit again.

CARROLL COUNTY.

The citizens of Westminster, as soon as the intelligence was received by them of the passage of the bill to erect Carroll county, determined upon a public celebration of the "glorious and triumphant event" by a procession and an illumination of the town. Carroll county is one of the prettiest counties in the State, and will soon, we have no doubt, be one of the most populous and wealthy. We take the following notice of it from the Westminster Carrolltonian.

CARROLL COUNTY, created out of parts of Frederick and Baltimore counties, is comprised within the following boundaries, viz.—beginning at the Pennsylvania line where Rock creek crosses said line, thence with said stream to the Monocacy, down the Monocacy to Double Pipe Creek, up said stream to Little Pipe Creek, thence with the said stream to Sam's Creek, up Sam's Creek to Warfield's mill, thence with the Buffalo road to Parr's Spring, thence with the western branch of the Patuxent Falls to its junction with the northern branch of said Falls to the bridge erected over said Falls on the Westminster and Risterstown turnpike, thence with a straight course to the Pennsylvania line, running north 17 degrees east, thence with the Pennsylvania line to the place of beginning.

The population of the county is from 20 to 22,000, and the number of voters about 2700. About three-fifths of the population is taken from Frederick, and two-fifths from Baltimore county.

In reference to the amount of white population it is the fourth county in Maryland.

There are about 60 Flouring mills, a large number of S.W. mills, several Woollen Factories, Oil and Paper mills, and a considerable amount of water power unoccupied.

The towns and villages are as follows—Westminster, (the seat of justice,) Manchester, Taneytown, Uniontown, Hampstead, New Windsor, Middleburg, Freedom, Finkburg, Union Bridge, Frieslesburg, Mount Vernon, together with several lesser villages.

The number of Election Districts will be 9. Commissioners will be appointed shortly to lay them off.

Judges Dorsey, Ridgely, and Wilkinson, of the Montgomery, Calvert, and Anne-Arundel county courts, will sit upon the bench of Carroll county. The time of holding the Courts will be designated by law. The County Clerk, it is supposed, will be appointed by the judges on the first day of the court.

The Register of Wills will be chosen in a week or two by the legislature.

GREAT DESPATCH.

The Pioneer, which conveys Santa Anna to Mexico, was gotten ready, and at ten in the very short space of twenty-four hours!

SINGULAR CASE OF POISON.

A friend of ours who was called in on the occasion, has been kind enough to communicate some facts relative to the poisoning of twelve persons. It seems that some relative of her's in New York, sent a plum cake to a free negro woman living at Rockketa, with a letter, which is said to be almost illegible, by the packet Leontine. The woman gave several of her friends portions of the cake, and all who ate of it soon became very ill—these were eleven negroes and one white woman. One negro man died yesterday morning at five o'clock, having partook of it the night before. The others are all in a fair way to recover. The cake has not been examined as yet; but it is supposed by the physician, from the representations of the poisoned, to contain verdigris. Some was given to a dog and a cat, which caused immediate and violent vomiting.

SINGULAR INSTANCE OF SUDDEN DEATH.

On the day of the last Presidential election, the wife of Mr. Conrad Carpenter, a respectable victualler residing in the District of Spring Garden, gave birth to two sons. The infants were named Andrew Jackson and Martin Van Buren, and grew in health and loveliness, the pride and joy of their parents, and the admiration of the whole neighbourhood. Last Saturday morning they appeared to be as usual in a state of perfect health, and between 8 and 9 o'clock the mother was nursing the one named after the venerable chief magistrate, when, without apparent cause, his head fell back, and without a struggle or a groan the little innocent expired. About 8 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, the sorrow stricken mother was nursing her remaining babe, when like his brother, he too expired, while apparently drawing sustenance from the maternal bosom.—Philadelphia Ledger.

CONNUBI

A correspondent gives the following during the trial of fire to the Treasury

"In the course of and celebrated thief and scenes of ingenious closed which have attracted admiring woman examine that she overheard that he had succeeded Treasury."

"Where the counsel for the moment, a hand whiteness, was passed then in a low voice State's Prison in you not in the State went to see my husband confined there for a 'Were you never cence!'"

The Court suggested she was not competent She paused as if to then lifting her head lighted up with merriment and energy, she said, I was charged with instruments to prison, and (raising the same time) I did famous offence, I did and universal burst part of the Court's play of connubial could not be repeated."

CONJUGIAL AFFECTION.

A correspondent of the Newark Advertiser gives the following incident, which took place during the trial of Richard White, for setting fire to the Treasury buildings at Washington: "In the course of the trial the most clever and celebrated thief takers have been examined, and scenes of ingenious villainy have been disclosed which have inspired us with wonder approaching to admiration. There was a beautiful woman examined, a Mrs. Baldwin, to prove that she overheard White telling her husband that he had succeeded in setting fire to the Treasury. "Where is your husband?" asked the counsel for the prisoners. She paused for a moment, a hand beautifully formed, of ivory whiteness, was passed over her dark eyes, and then in a low voice answered, "he is in the State's Prison in New Jersey." "And were you not in the State's Prison?" "Yes, when I went to see my husband." "But were you not confined there for an infamous offence?" "No." "Were you never charged with an infamous offence?"

The Court suggested to Mrs. Baldwin that she was not compelled to answer that question. She paused as if to summon all her energy, and then lifting her head exhibiting a countenance lighted up with more than ordinary intelligence and energy, she answered, "I will tell. Yes, sir, I was charged with taking to my poor husband instruments to enable him to escape from prison, and (raising her arm and her voice at the same time) I did it. If you call that an infamous offence, I do not." There was a sudden and universal burst of approbation from every part of the Court room, to recompense this display of conjugal devotion and fidelity, and it could not be repressed until it had found full vent."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Nancy Jacob, relict of the late Mr. Ezekiel Jacob, departed this life on Sunday last in this city, in the 84th year of her age. She was one amongst the earliest members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this State, and remained a faithful attendant, considering it an inestimable privilege as long as her physical powers enabled her to do so. They have been gradually failing for some years, and left her at length a striking instance of how attenuated the thread of life may become. Of the most amiable, affectionate, endearing of dispositions, who was always beloved, in proportion as she was known. [Rep.]

At his residence, West River, after a long illness, Capt. JAMES DEALE.

MAMMOTH SHEET.

OFFICE OF THE SATURDAY NEWS

AND LITERARY GAZETTE.

Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest—or one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression—but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheet, &c., can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprise. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention.—It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, the London copy of which costs $4, and has 384 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprise and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that no similar publication shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributors.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our attention and ability to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers.

L. A. GOBEY, & Co.

THE SALMAGUNDI.

DESIGNED BY GEORGE B. B.

EMBEDDED WITH A MULTITUDE OF

COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN

will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER,

Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionally high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the price of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canada has resolved to put it to press forthwith, and therefore throws himself on his Countrymen for their aid and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is personally encouraged by the fact that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their pastoral duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:
The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ showing Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholic, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripturist; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. McHale's Evidence of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Langan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Chailson's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errors.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.
Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for the year.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library: BOOKS BY MAIL. PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transmission by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the efforts upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty rival attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying police literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social letters, reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventures, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union, as to form an inextinguishable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library is now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle of families; for a cent and a half a copy, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Ross's Cycloped. The volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of perpetual reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or the listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, "The Journal of Belles Lettres," containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chambers's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE, Seventh, two doors south of Chesnut street, Philad.

The Museum of Foreign Literature and Science, price $6 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $12 00.

SEVENTEEN & POPULAR NOVELS.

VIZ: Newton Forster, Facha of Many Tales, Japhet in Search of his Father.

BY CAPTAIN MARYATT. Last Days of Pompeii, Rienzi, Falkland, Pilgrims of the Rhine.

BY E. L. BOLWER. Will be given as a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of The Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bulwer or Maryatt, as may be preferred.

The prices of the novels above mentioned, if purchased of the booksellers, would be $21 25; and in Godley's cheap and uniform edition they cost $6 50. They can be had of the publisher, at $3 50 for Bulwer, $3 for Maryatt, complete.

The SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general Literature, Criticism, the Drama, Agriculture, Intelligencer, News, &c. Many of the best writers of Philadelphia are contributors to its columns; and its selections are made from the whole range of English literature. A correspondence is maintained with the principal cities of the Union, and letters are expected from a gentleman of high talent about to travel in Europe.—The subscription price is $4 per annum, payable in advance, of three copies for $5.

The Saturday News and Bulwer or Maryatt's Novels can be had for $5.

All orders must be addressed, free of postage, to A. A. GODEY & Co., 100 Walnut street.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, and are by the leading press of this city:—Saturday News.—This weekly paper with the above title, which we foretold a few weeks since came to light on Saturday last, under the auspices of Messrs. Godley, McMichael & Neal. Such a trio never got together before. Neal and McMichael bent all their writing, and Godley bent all for publishing; and a capital job they made of their first number, so by all that was promised.

We prophesy for them great success, and for the readers of the Saturday News a new era of literary enjoyment. The Saturday News is a weekly paper, which we have been favoured with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to all concerned. The literary matter is far above the ordinary standard, and would not discredit the columns of the most popular newspapers of the British metropolis. Sustained in the same spirit, the News will soon win liberal patronage and a ready circulation. An amusing extra will be found in a subsequent volume.—Enquirer and Courier.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE.—The first number of a new weekly paper, with the above title, issued in Philadelphia on Saturday last—it is of the largest size of newspapers published in the city, and succeeds the Gentleman's Vale McMichael, formerly issued by Mr. Charles Alexander, which has been by him transferred to Messrs. L. A. Godey, J. C. Neal, and M. McMichael, three gentlemen very favourably known as possessing exquisite qualifications for conducting such a periodical in the most advantageous manner. The first number is a highly satisfactory specimen of what may be expected from the paper, especially as a literary Gazette. The annual subscription is at the very moderate rate of two dollars.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a weekly paper of the largest class, issued by the Messrs. Godley, Neal and McMichael, able and experienced newspaper editors, who will not fail to give a due share of entertainment and interest to their sheet. The Gentleman's Vale McMichael has been transferred to Messrs. Godley & Co., and will be continued under the title of the Saturday News, which will contain besides a large amount of interesting intelligence and literary matter in addition to that heretofore embodied in the Vale McMichael. We intended to publish their prospectus, but have been prevented by want of room.

Herald and Schuylkill Journal.—We have received the first number of a new weekly paper, of the above title, edited by L. A. Godey, J. C. Neal, and M. McMichael, and Joseph C. Neal, editor of the Pennsylvania, and Morton McMichael, the late editor of the Saturday Courier. Judging from the first number we should conclude that it will far exceed, for original matter, and new selections, any weekly paper in Philadelphia. It is not a reprint of any other Gazette, which is too much the case with the mammoth sheets of this city.—Veronaite Gazette. The first number of the Philadelphia Saturday News has been received at this office, and promises to be one of the very best weekly papers in the Union. The number before us is very creditable to the enterprising publisher and editors, its contents being various, entertaining and instructive. Those who wish a good family paper from the city, cannot do better than to subscribe for the Saturday News. It is published by L. A. Godey, J. C. Neal, and M. McMichael, and Joseph C. Neal, Editors.—Daily Republican.

Saturday News.—The new Journal advertised in our paper under the above title, made its appearance last week, and is, very unexpectedly on the "big advance" system.—There is no doubt, but that the publisher, our friend Godley, whose Lady's Book we have in time past laboured to make our fair readers fairly in love with, will give troops of friends in his new enterprise, and live his pockets to some purpose with the "needful." Very well. We are glad of it. The sketch under our notice headed by Mr. Neal, and in its last number, style. We hope to be able to treat our friends often to such exquisite touches of sly and quiet humor.—Saturday Courier.

THE NEW-YORKER—QUARTO FORM—NEW SERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME.

THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol. II, thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under this improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and contemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, but to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is which will be printed, still the numerous orders may be received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply all subscribers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Annexed are the conditions, which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and affixed to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $5 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdotes, and Fables.

EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

Each number comprising seventy-two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year two volumes of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humourists, Ethers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offerings of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quirks, Anecdotes, and Fables, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilarating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

THE "EVERY BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for five dollars. When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid).

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryat, and sixty-five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Art; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvaniaian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors; and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public; if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable 'reading matter' than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.

This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.

MAPS.

In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.

TERMS.

The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)

AN NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.

NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

It was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Library," to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door. That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give, in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enlighten and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain:

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non-fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Rees's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

Mr. Hensley—from Mary Higgins, to be placed on the pension list.

Mr. Nelson—from citizens of Harford, to present the opening a certain road.

Mr. Coombs—from citizens of P. George's, to make the levy court a board of appeal for the assessment of property.

On motion of Mr. Buchanan,

Ordered, That the committee of ways and means be directed to inquire into the expediency of extending the charters of certain Banks in this State, which will expire in the year 1845, on condition, that they aid in constructing a certain turnpike road in this State, which is to connect the National road with a turnpike road lately made by the United States Bank, from the State line towards the city of Baltimore.

Mr. Maulsby, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, delivered the following report.

The committee on grievances and courts of justice, to whom was referred the petition of sundry physicians and other citizens, of Talbot county, praying relief from grievances therein mentioned, have had the same under consideration, and ask leave to report—that the petitioners set forth in very becoming terms, the devotion of the medical profession to their duties; and more especially the hardships, and inconveniences which that highly honorable and useful class of citizens, are so well known to be willing at all times, to endure to relieve, their suffering fellow men, and they pray the legislature to grant them greater assurance of compensation for their very valuable services, by making their bills for medical services and attendance, during the last illness of deceased persons, claims of preference against the test estates.

Your committee cannot but admit the truth of the allegations stated in the petition, and they very cheerfully and with great satisfaction, bear testimony to the zealous, and unremitting attention, with which medical gentlemen, always devote their time and services, to the alleviation of the misery, and the restoration to health, of their suffering patients; and if any privilege could possibly be extended to any class of persons, in the manner proposed in the petition, your committee would most cheerfully recommend the proposition of the Medical Faculty to the favourable consideration of this house—but they are of opinion that no such distinction should be made. They are aware that, not unfrequently, the estates of deceased persons are much embarrassed; so much so that physicians receive little or no compensation for their indispensable services, and while they sympathize with them in their grievances, they are not prepared to recommend any legislative action for their relief.

In such cases this class of citizens share the common lot of other creditors, who have not been able to procure a preference by lien: all are alike sufferers, and in many cases other creditors would feel this discrimination more acutely than ever the physician does by his present equality with them.

The committee do not perceive the justice or propriety of extending the preference which creditors may now obtain. It is against the policy of the law, to recognize any formation among our citizens, or grant to one a privilege or immunity which others cannot enjoy; they therefore pray to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject and that the petitioners have leave to withdraw their memorial.

Respectfully submitted,
I. D. MAULSBY,
from the Committee.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publications; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual, and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadian has resolved to put it to press forthwith, and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:—The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine ruled paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ shown; Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholicæ, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scriptures; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. McHaie's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received, and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookeller, N. Y.

Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publishers, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for the year.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library: BOOKS BY MAIL.

PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty petty attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belles lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventures &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle of family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Kees's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and unbecoming society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chambers's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE, Seventh, two doors south of Chestnut street, Philad.

The Museum of Foreign Literature and Science, price $6 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $12 00 Oct. 8.

SEVENTEEN POPULAR NOVELS.

By Peter Simple, Jacob Faithful, Francis and Three Cutlers, Rachel in Search of her Father, King's Own, &c.

By Captain Harryatt, Last Days of Pompeii, Rionni, Falkland, Pilgrims of the Rhine, &c.

By E. L. Bulwer, Will be given as a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of The Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bulwer or Harryatt, as may be preferred.

The price of the novels above mentioned, if purchased of the booksellers, would be $21 25; and in Godley's cheap and uniform edition they cost $6 50. They can be had of the publisher, at $3 50 for Bulwer, $3 for Harryatt, complete.

The SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general Literature, Criticism, the Drama, Agriculture, Intelligence, News, &c. Many of the best writers of Philadelphia are contributors to its columns; and its selections are made from the whole range of English literature. A correspondence is maintained with the principal cities of the Union, and letters are expected from a large number of high talents in Europe. The subscription price is $2 per annum, payable in advance, by three copies for $3.

Saturday News and Bulwer or Harryatt's Novels can be had for $5. All orders must be addressed, free of postage, to L. A. GODEY & Co., 100 Walnut street.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, made by the leading press of this city:—Saturday News.—The weekly paper with the above title, which we foretold a few weeks since came to light on Saturday last, under the auspices of Messrs. Godley, McMichael & Neal, such a trio never met together before. Neal and McMichael great all for writing, and Godley brags all for publishing, and a capital job they made of their first number, so that all that was promised. We prophesy for their great success, and for the readers great satisfaction.—United States Gazette.

The Philadelphia Saturday News.—We have been favoured with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to all concerned. The literary matter is far above the ordinary standard, and would not discredit the columns of the most popular newspaper of the British metropolis. Sustained in this way, the News will soon win a liberal patronage and a valuable reputation. An amusing extract will be found in a subsequent column.—Evening Post and Courier.

The Philadelphia Saturday News and Literary Gazette.—The first number of a new weekly paper, with the above title, issued in Philadelphia on Saturday last—it is of the largest size of newspapers published in this city, and is edited by the Gentleman's Vale McMichael, formerly of the Philadelphia Evening Post, which has been by him transferred to Messrs. L. A. Godley, J. C. Neal, and McMichael, three gentlemen, very favourably known as possessing the requisite qualifications for conducting such a periodical in the most advantageous manner. The first number is a highly satisfactory specimen of what may be expected from the paper, especially as a literary Gazette. The annual subscription is at the very moderate rate of two dollars.—Baltimore Gazette.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a weekly paper of the largest class, issued by the Messrs. Godley, Neal and McMichael, able and experienced newspaper editors, who will not fail to give a due share of entertainment and interest to their short-lived paper. The Gentleman's Vale McMichael has been transferred to Messrs. L. A. Godley, J. C. Neal, and McMichael, and will be continued under the title of the Saturday News, which will contain besides a large amount of interesting intelligence and literary matter, in addition to that heretofore embodied in the Vale McMichael. We intended to publish their prospectus long ago, but have been prevented by want of room.—Herald and Schuylkill Journal.

Saturday News.—We have received the first number of a new weekly paper, of the above title, edited by Louis A. Godley, conductor of the Lady's Book; Joseph C. Neal, editor of the Pennsylvania; and Morton McMichael, the late editor of the Saturday Courier. Judging from the first number we should conclude that it will far exceed, for original matter, and new selections, any weekly paper in Philadelphia. It is not a reprint of any other Gazette, which is too much the case with the mammoth sheets of that city.—Newcastle Gazette.

The first number of the Philadelphia Saturday News has been received at this office, and promises to be one of the very best weekly papers in the Union. The number before us is very readable to the enterprising publisher and editors, it contains being various, entertaining and instructive. It does better than any other paper from the city, cannot do better than to subscribe for the Saturday News. It is published by L. A. Godley, and edited by Morton McMichael, and Joseph C. Neal, Esqrs.—Daily Republican.

The new Journal advertised in our paper under the above title, made its appearance last week, and is, very unequivocally on the "go ahead" system.—There is no doubt, but that the publisher, our friend Godley, whose Lady's Book we have in times past laboured to make our friends fairly in love with, will gain troops of friends in his new enterprise, and line his pockets to some purpose with the "newspaper."

Very well. We are glad of it. The sketch under our police head is by McNeal, and is in his inimitable style. We hope to be able to treat our friends often to such exquisite touches of sly and quiet humour.—Saturday Courier.

THE NEW-YORKER—QUARTO FORM—NEW SERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE SECOND VOLUME. THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, a weekly edition of their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply.

With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol. II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty-two columns each, with Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and contemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to any regret regarding their future intentions, further than to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is, it will be printed still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Announced are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable inflexibly in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $3 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdotes, and Facetiae. EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

Each number comprising seventy-two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year two volumes of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary careers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humourists, Etchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offspring of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdotes, and Facetiae, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilarating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

THE "EVERY BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for six dollars. When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid).

PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.

THE splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryat, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 32 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvania says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"We know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1836, says, "the Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25,000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable 'reading matter' than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.

Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.
NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!!

NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

It was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door. That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the uttermost parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enrich and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain,

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.

As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor hath redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Rees's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

THE ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

The following was the order observed on the occasion:

II. ORATION—Mental Culture—by FREDERICK STONE BROWN, of Charles County.

IV. ORATION—The Benefits derived from Concentrated Action—by JOHN MACCALL BROWN, of St. Mary's County.

V. ORATION—Individual Responsibility, with the Valedictory Addresses—by JOSEPH TRAPP, of Frederick County.

DEGREES CONFERRED.

THE BENEDICTION.

For the Maryland Gazette.

The remarks which follow were met with in a late periodical. At all times, but especially at this time, they may deserve some attention.

"The young man at College is a very peculiar being. He has arrived at a period when he is neither boy nor man. His voice has lost the treble of the child, without deepening into the bass of manhood. His passions are beginning to sweep over him with tremendous energy. He has undisciplined impulses. He is a boisterous friend to liberty; whence there is danger that his love of liberty will get the better of his love of order. If he has brought with him tendencies to perverseness and folly, their development now becomes extremely active. The days have come for him which a friend of ours once called 'the agonizing days of puppyhood.' His vanity puts forth with a vigorous growth. Having been all his life before completely controlled he thinks he ought now to be exempted from all control, and by a process of juvenile logic he comes to regard all who are placed over him as his natural enemies. His love of liberty is so touchy, that a new study or an additional exercise, rouses him to rebellion, and he forthwith proceeds to combine against the constituted authorities and proclaim the rights of man. Reasoning with him at such times is vain. A syllogism addressed to a north-easter would be quite as cogent. In dealing with such people, the times of trouble come round pretty often; so that we have heard the wish expressed that boys, unless of special sobriety and promise, might be put to sleep at 14, and not wake up till 21. But as that is impossible, they must be trained up by other means. This brings us round again to the necessity of some adequate control. The subjects of college tutelage will not be regarded as boys; and they ought to be treated as gentlemen, while they have like gentlemen. But they ought to be subjected to all the responsibilities of gentlemen. They must be made to feel that they have no immunity from the penalty of violated laws—but that the strong arm of law is over them as over the rest of the world, and its sleepless eye upon their doings."

"Academical discipline is not always a shield against outrages both on persons and property. In times of high excitement, and even at other times, deeds of violence are perpetrated, which would send the offender, in other walks of life, to the county jail or State Prison. But the young gentleman at college, meets only a college punishment, in the shape of a rustication, dismission, or expulsion. We are persuaded the circumstances of the country will soon demand a more effectual organization of the government of our Universities, and that young gentlemen surrounded by all the blessings of liberal learning, will not be allowed much longer to set the laws of their country at defiance, by perpetrating outrages which draw down upon all other persons the heaviest vengeance of society."

ELLICOTT'S MILLS, Feb. 18th, 1837.

Agreeably to notice, a meeting of the citizens of the upper section of Anne Arundel county, was held this day at Mrs. Disney's Hotel, to take into consideration the propriety of memorializing the Legislature of Maryland to partition off the upper section of said county into a separate county. The meeting was organized by appointing Gov. Howard Chairman, and Col. George Cooke, Secretary. After the grounds for the necessity of this measure were freely and fully discussed and explained, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in conformity with the desire made to this meeting by several respectable citizens present, and residing in the same, that the territory embraced in the bend of the Patuxent Falls at Ellicott's Mills from its upper to its lower termination be included within the limits of the proposed new county, this meeting would consider the said territory as a valuable acquisition thereto, and the more particularly, when it is known that the position of a portion of the same constitutes a part of the village of "Ellicott's Mills," and would therefore gladly receive and embrace it within the limits of the proposed new county.

Resolved, That the chair appoint a committee to prepare a memorial to the Legislature to embrace the above objects, to be presented to the general meeting of the citizens for their consideration, to be held at this place on Saturday next the 25th inst.

The chair in conformity thereto, appointed the following committee—Geo. Howard, Thos. B. Dorey, Nath'l. H. Ellicott, Edward Gray, Allen Thomas, George Cooke, Gustavus Warfield, Andrew Ellicott, Chas. D. Warfield.

Resolved, That this meeting stands adjourned to Saturday next the 25th inst. at 12 o'clock.

Resolved, That the newspapers in the city of Baltimore be requested to publish the above proceedings.

GEO. HOWARD, Chairman.

Geo. Cooke, Sec'y.

FROM FLORIDA—REPORTED SURRENDER OF OSEOLA.

The Savannah papers state that a letter had been received in that city from an officer in the Army in Florida, containing the gratifying news that OSEOLA has come into Jesus's camp with 300 warriors. The great Chief formed his men into the line—leaned himself against a tree—and when the U. S. officer who was deputed to receive him, came up, he approached him, and gave up his rifle with all the grace of a fallen hero.

Doubtful!

Gen. Jesup has thus covered himself with glory, for there can be no doubt that he will eventually have the haughty and malignant, but truly brave OSEOLA, within his power. We are glad that Jesup has succeeded. One of our generals, at least, will not be brought to a Court Martial for not doing his duty. What Clinch, Gaines and Scott, under fair auspices, could not have accomplished, Gen. Jesup has been enabled to perform. The stain which has blotted the national escutcheon, that of permitting a band of savages to burn our habitations, and destroy our citizens with impunity is at last wiped off.

Our correspondents need be under no apprehension respecting the truth of our statements. We can vouch for their general correctness. The Ocmulgee brings official despatches from Gen. Jesup, of the same tenor; and all may be assured that the war has terminated. We omitted to state before, that Jumper and Alligator selected the 18th of the current month as the day on which they were to meet General Jesup, with Escala, dead or alive.

Gen. Jesup we are informed, in the action of the 2d inst. took 150 negro prisoners, 250 ponies, and 1000 head of cattle.—Georgian.

UNCLAIMED BAGGAGE.

The New York Legislature have a bill under consideration to dispose of the unclaimed baggage at different steamboat and stage offices, throughout the state. It appears that there are some hundreds of trunks remaining unclaimed in the city of New York, and in Utica and Buffalo there are whole lots stored with unclaimed baggage, which has been collecting there for 15 years.

A bill passed the Senate of the United States on Wednesday, making the burning of any of the public buildings of the government punishable with death.

LATEST FROM NEW ORLEANS AND MEXICO.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 11.

By the arrival of the schooner Cors, from Tampico in eight days, information has been received that the new Mexican Constitution of centralism was proclaimed at Tampico in the latter part of January, and received with great rejoicings. The Cors brings 300,000 dollars specie for sundry merchants of New Orleans.

Captain Wain has been ordered to the command of a small cutter to cruise in the Gulf of California for the protection of Mexican persons and property.

Mr. Kidd has favoured us with the following extract of a letter addressed to him.

MATAMOROS, Jan. 17, 1837.

General Bravo and staff arrived here on the 9th inst. he immediately held a council and next morning sent despatches to the city of Mexico and Vera Cruz; also sent one of his Aids to Monterey to order the 1st Division to march for this place, about 3000 of whom arrived here on the 13th, and at this time the garrison consists of about 2500 men. They are still making preparations for the campaign against Texas, and are, we believe, calculating to start next April; the seah. Caffee has arrived from Campeche with a floating bridge for the use of the army, but it is thought that the want of money and the disinclination of the troops to venture in that quarter, will ultimately end in their being disbanded, as many of the officers sincerely wish that Santa Anna may dispose of Texas and save their military credit and reputation, which is already low enough. We have a report here that Bustamante is on his way to supercede Bravo.

The duty on flour imported at this place has been reduced from 40 to 20 per cent, but all flour imported under this regulation is to be applied to the use of the army.

MAMMOTH SHEET.

Office of the Saturday News and Literary Gazette, Philadelphia, November 25, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest—or one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression—but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c., can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and, added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprise. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention. It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, the London copy of which costs $4, and has 364 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has now become so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprise and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that no similar publication shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributors.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and ability to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers.

THE SALMAGUNDI, AND NEWS OF THE DAY.

ENLARGED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN

will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order, and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place Philadelphia.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionally high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS: The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ shown; Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholic, or Ages of Faith; Munford's Question of Questions; Munford's Catholic Scriptures; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M. Hale's Evidence of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Landon's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for the year.

Fourth Year of the Catholic Periodical Library

PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circular Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty similar attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, the publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belles lettres reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventures &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Rees's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chambers's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE, Seventh, two doors south of Chesnut street, Philad.

The Museum of Foreign Literature and Science, price $6 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio will be all supplied for $12 00. Oct. 8.

SEVENTEEN POPULAR NOVELS.

BY CAPTAIN HARRIS.

Will be given as a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of the Saturday News and Literary Gazette.

And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bulwer or Marryat, as may be preferred.

The prices of the novels above mentioned, if purchased of the booksellers, would be $21 25; and in Godley's cheap and uniform edition they cost $6 50. They can be had of the publisher, at $5 50 for Bulwer, $3 for Marryat, complete.

The SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general literature, Criticism, the Drama, Agriculture, Intelligence, News, &c. Many of the best writers of Philadelphia are contributors to its columns, and its sections are made from the whole range of English literature. A correspondence is maintained with the principal cities of the Union, and letters are expected from a gentleman of high talent about to travel in Europe.—The subscription price is $2 per annum, payable in advance, or three copies for $5.

The Saturday News and Bulwer or Marryat's Novels can be had for $5.

All orders must be addressed, free of postage, to L. A. GODEY & Co., 100 Walnut street.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, made by the leading press of this city:—The weekly paper, with the above title, which we foretold a few weeks since came to light on Saturday last, under the auspices of Messrs. Godley, McMichael & Neal. Such a trio never got together before.—Neal and McMichael beat all for writing, and Godley beats all for publishing; and a capital job they made of their first number, worthy all that was promised.

We prophesy for them great success, and for their readers great satisfaction.—United States Gazette.

The Philadelphia Saturday News.—We have been favoured with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to all concerned. The literary matter is far above the ordinary standard and would not discredit the columns of the most popular newspapers of the British metropolis. Sustained in the same spirit, the News will soon win liberal patronage and a valuable reputation. An amusing extract will be found in a subsequent column.—Enquirer and Courier.

THE PHILADELPHIA SATURDAY NEWS AND LITERARY GAZETTE.—The first number of a new weekly paper, with the above title, issued in Philadelphia on Saturday last—it is of the largest size of newspapers published in that city, and succeeds the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, formerly issued by Mr. Charles Alexander, which has been by him transferred to Messrs. L. A. Godey, J. C. Neal, and McMichael, three gentlemen very favourably known as possessing the requisite qualifications for conducting such a periodical in the most advantageous manner. The first number is a highly satisfactory specimen of what may be expected from the paper, especially as a literary Gazette. The annual subscription is at the very moderate rate of two dollars.—Baltimore Gazette.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a weekly paper of the largest class, issued by Messrs. Godey, Neal and McMichael, able and experienced newspaper editors, who will not fail to give a due share of entertainment and interest to their sheet. The Gentleman's Vade Mecum has been transferred to Messrs. Godey & Co., and will be continued under the title of the Saturday News, which will contain besides a large amount of interesting intelligence and literary matter, in addition to that heretofore published in the Vade Mecum. We intended to publish their prospectus to-day, but have been prevented by want of room.—Herald and Schuylkill Journal.

SATURDAY NEWS.—We have received the first number of a new weekly paper, of the above title, edited by Louis A. Godey, conductor of the Lady's Book, Joseph C. Neal, editor of the Pennsylvania, and Morton McMichael, the late editor of the Saturday Courier. Judging from the first number we should conclude that it will far exceed, for original matter, and new selections, any weekly paper in Philadelphia. It is not a reprint of any other Gazette, which is too much the case with the mammoth sheets of this city.—Newcastle Gazette.

The first number of the Philadelphia Saturday News has been received at this office, and promises to be one of the very best weekly papers in the Union. The number before us is very creditable to the enterprising publisher and editors, its contents being various, entertaining and instructive. Those who wish a good family paper from the city, cannot do better than to subscribe for the Saturday News. It is published by L. A. Godey, and edited by Morton McMichael, and Joseph C. Neal, Esqrs.—Daily Republican.

SATURDAY NEWS.—The new Journal advertised in our paper under the above title, made its appearance last week, and is, very unequivocally on the "go ahead" system.—There is no doubt, but that the publisher, our friend Godey, whose Lady's Book we have in times past laboured to make our fair readers fairly in love with, will gain troops of friends in his new enterprise, and line his pockets to some purpose with the "needful." Very well. We are glad of it. The sketch under our police head is by Mr. Neal, and is in his inimitable style. We hope to be able to treat our friends often to such exquisite touches of sly and quiet humour.—Saturday Courier.

THE NEW-YORKER QUARTO FORM NEW SERIES.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW-YORKER QUARTO FORM NEW SERIES.

THE Publishers of the New-Yorker commenced in March last, at weekly intervals, their publication in quarto form, and made, as they thought, ample provision for supplying as great a number of subscribers as their most flattering hopes led them to believe would patronize the work under its then new arrangement. They have been deceived—agreeably so, in their calculations, inasmuch as the favour shown to the publication rapidly absorbed the whole edition, and constant orders are received for copies, which the Publishers have been unable to supply. With a view to obviate this difficulty, and meet the wishes of the many who desire to patronize the work, the Publishers have resolved to neutralize the blank in the current order of the volume, by changing so far the present arrangement, as to furnish two volumes in a year, in lieu of one, as stated in the original prospectus.

On the Twenty-Fourth of September next, therefore, will be issued the first number of a new series of the Quarto New-Yorker, or No. 1. of Vol. II. thus affording to new subscribers an opportunity of beginning with a distinct volume, entirely unconnected with the one preceding, while our original patrons will be advantaged in receiving their copies in a form calculated better for binding in a convenient volume, than under the old arrangement. The distinguishing line between the old and new Series will be indicated at the head of the first page of every number; and as no change is contemplated in the size or quality of the work, no inconvenience can result to those who have taken it from the commencement; while, on the other hand, it presents the features of an entirely new publication to those who may date their subscription with the new volume.

Under its improved arrangement, the whole edition for one year will embrace two semi-annual volumes, each containing four hundred and sixteen pages of original and selected matter such as has heretofore been presented to its readers, and which, it is hoped, has been of a character to meet the full approval of the literary and general tastes of the reading community. The two volumes will comprise eight hundred and thirty-two pages of fifty-two of which will be Music.

The aim of the Publishers is to present in a compact, neat, and portable form, a literary and miscellaneous journal adapted to the intellectual wants of their readers; and from the very flattering success that has thus far rewarded their efforts, they indulge the hope that the New-Yorker will continue to receive that share of public favour which it has ever been their study to merit. The expression of cordiality and good feeling manifested by their friends and contemporaries affords gratifying evidence that the character of their journal has been based upon a correct foundation, and it would therefore be irrelevant to say aught regarding their future intentions, further than to express their determination of leaving no means untried of furnishing a sheet which will bear respectable criticism when compared with any of the periodicals of the day of a similar character.

To those who propose patronizing the work, promptitude in forwarding their orders is earnestly recommended, as from present appearances it is believed that, large as the edition is, it will be printed still the numerous orders daily received for it, will quickly put it out of the power of the Publishers to supply back numbers, and they will not warrant the entire volume to those who may come in late with their subscriptions. Annexed are the conditions which must be strictly adhered to, as the line of conduct laid down will govern the transaction of business between the publishers and patrons.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra-imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in city and country, at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. Orders from a distance, unaccompanied by a remittance, will necessarily remain unanswered. Any person or persons sending $3 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding, will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance. We will cheerfully preserve their files of the Quarto for any such who may desire it.

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.

A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdotes, and Facetiae.

EMBELISHED WITH NUMEROUS GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAVINGS.

Each number comprising seventy-two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year two volumes of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.

THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be interspersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humourists, Elchers, and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving offerings of genius and talent as the present. Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdotes, and Facetiae, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilarating channel much of the oppressive action of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

THE "BREVET BOOK'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 24 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for five dollars. When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid.)
