From Western Maryland's Only Teachers College

Vol. 11, No. 1 STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE, FROSTBURG, MARYLAND October 1, 1958

President Hardesty Welcomes Freshmen, Transfer Students

This month approximately 3,500,000 students are entering the Nation's 1800 private, publicly supported, and semi-publicly supported colleges and universities. The State Teachers College at Frostburg with 702 students enrolled for the first semester has the all high registration record in its history.

We greet you and welcome you as members of our College family; this is your home away from home. We hope you will accept us and join us in our endeavors always to press forward in cherishing our current traditions, and we look to each of you as an individual who continues to care enough about the College to contribute to and develop future traditions.

Like a large percentage of the Nation's 1800 colleges and universities, you returned to find here the largest student body in our history. Yes, our classroom space has become limited, the dining hall overcrowded, and our residence halls crowded and overflowing.

Your trustees and president are not unaware that additional buildings must be provided for you as rapidly as the Governor, Legislature and taxpayers can move. The six rooms of the present Laboratory School, with some renovation, will be available to you as college classrooms as soon as the elementary children move to their new building currently under construction. We are working untiringly for funds for a new dining hall building to seat 400 students at one sitting. This building will also contain offices and rooms to house your student organization. The site for this structure, to be known as Gunter Hall, is the tennis court area between Lowndes Hall and Simpson Hall. Equal effort is being exerted to secure funds for a third women's residence hall; incidentally, if this proposed hall were actually on campus, it would be filled today with students currently crowded into our present residence halls, with students cooperating with us by living at home although facing hazardous mountainous roads this winter, and with students currently renting rooms in Frostburg. We also acknowledge the urgent need for a second men's residence hall as we face another anticipated record enrollment next September.

We are fortunate in that our college has a strong faculty—one well-grounded in liberal arts training and professional training. Each instructor is a friendly person and stands ready to guide and help you succeed as an individual. Now to accomplish this goal, the student must take the initiative in making appointments with the instructor for an individual conference from time to time. Attendance in each course is closely allied with the type of scholarship you desire to attain for the registrar's recording at the end of the semester. Regular visitations to the library for study and research also affect the grade you wish to earn in each course. One's daily budget of time should also include membership in several organizations, regular attendance at assemblies and other programs, sports, and leisure time activities including conversation with fellow students who represent all counties of the Western Shore and two from the Eastern Shore.

Our personnel, including 120 men and women, wish for you a successful and happy academic year. Services have been added during the summer for your protection and convenience. If you think of other services which are reasonable and important to your welfare, please pass along the idea to your House Council or to your Student Congress who will study the proposal and refer it to the administration if necessary.

Cordially yours, R. Bowen Hardesty

Charles Sager Plans Program; To Offer Operatic Selections

Charles I. Sager, chairman of the Music Department, and director of the Maryland and Madrigal Singers, will present a vocal recital October 7, at 8:15 p. m. in Compiton Hall accompanied by Mrs. R. Monroe Harris, piano and organ instructor.

To begin the program, Mr. Sager will sing selections from two celebrated operas. "Madamina (Catalogue Aria Don Giovanni)" by Mozart is in contrasting style to Verdi's "Eri Tu (It is Thou)" from "Masked Ball."

The second part of the program will consist of three selections by both Richard Strauss and Claude Debussy. Mr. Sager will sing "Morgen," "Die Nacht," and "Zeignung," by Strauss, a post-Wagnerian song and symphonic poem writer. Of Debussy's numbers, he will include "Les Cloches," "C'est L'Extase Langoureuse," and "La Chevelure."

Seven selections will constitute the third and final portion of his recital. He will render "Soft-Footed Snow" by Sigurd Lie, a Norwegian composer; Moussorgsky's "Death's Serenade," one of his songs and dances about death; "In the Fields" by John Duke, a native of Cumberland.

Rachmaninoff's "In the Silence of Night" will be sung, followed by the folk song, "Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair." Earnest Charles' "The Green-Eyed Dragon" will be dedicated to the children in the audience. The program will be completed with Edward Grieg's "Eros," the god of love.

Mr. Sager, in addition to directing the vocal groups, performances, and recitals on campus is conductor of the Cumberland Choral Society and of the Centre Street Methodist Church Choir in Cumberland.

In 1954 at a workshop at Kansas University, Mr. Sager sang a lead in the opera "Martha." At the Berkshire Music Festival, Lennox, Massachusetts, he sang in the American premiere of the opera, "Peter Grimes."

Last year at the college, Mr. Sager was soloist for and co-conductor of the Axton Concert. During the 1956-57 term, he directed and produced the annual Christmas program, and the Richard-Rodgers-Oscar Hammerstein musical "Carousel."

The public is cordially invited to attend the recital. There will be no admission fee.

Charles I. Sager

Eight New Teachers Join College Faculty

New faculty members added to the college staff this year come from seven states and include three women and five men, according to President R. Bowen Hardesty.

Instructing in the English Department is Miss Anna Sandberg; in the Geography Department, William Monroe and James Cotton; in the Physical Education Division, Miss Marjorie Berkley and Harold Cordts; in the Science Department, Jack Snyder; in the Laboratory School, Mrs. Kathleen Layman, and in the Education Department, Charles Stansberry.

Miss Anna Sandberg completed her practice teaching at the Laboratory School at the University of Michigan, where she also received her B. A. and M. A. degrees and a diploma from their Nursing School.

Mr. William Monroe received his B. S. degree from Bowling Green State University, Ohio, and M. E. from Kent State University in Ohio. Presently residing in Frostburg, he moved here from Ohio where he formerly taught at the Cuyahoga Falls High School.

In the Geography Department also is James Cotton from Pennsylvania. He received his M. E. degree from Pennsylvania State University and is working on his doctorate there. He previously instructed at Connellsville and Grove City High Schools in Pennsylvania.

Physical Education Instructors

Miss Marjorie Berkley transferred from Madison College, Harrisonburg, Virginia, to Frostburg. She received her B. S. degree from the University of Tennessee. Miss Berkley is working toward her doctorate from New York University.

Mr. Harold Cordts is from Syracuse University, New York, where he taught physical education and directed physical education student teachers. Possessing his B. S. and M. S., Mr. Cordts will take an oral exam soon for his doctorate from Syracuse University.

In the Science Department is Jack Snyder, alumni of FSTC. He received his M. E. degree from Pennsylvania State University and is currently working on his doctorate there. He was a member of the faculty the past two years at State State Teachers College, Westchester, Pa.

Mr. Charles Stansberry received his B. S. and M. A. from West Virginia University and lacks only ten hours for his doctorate. Residing in Frostburg, Mr. Stansberry transferred from a principalship at the Hagan's Elementary School, West Virginia.

Teaching sixth grade at the Laboratory School, Mrs. Kathleen Layman, FSTC alumna, transferred from the Route 40 School, Garrett County. Mrs. Layman has attended Pennsylvania State University and University of Maryland for graduate work.

Carole Bean Cops Scholarship; Sorority Gives Music Award

Mary Frances Deluca, president of Phi Omicron Delta sorority, has just announced that Carole Ann Bean, a freshman from Frostburg, is the recipient of the music scholarship presented each year by the sorority.

Carole auditioned for the scholarship along with vocalists, instrumentalists, and other pianists last

May. The award was given her on the basis of her piano interpretation of Mendelssohn's "Agitation." She will receive a year's tuition for private piano instruction.

Carole was adjudged winner by Mr. Charles Sager, Dr. Ward K. Cole, and Mrs. Monroe Harris, all of the F. S. T. C. Department of Music; Mrs. John Zornig, local vocalist; and Mr. Frank Gamble, superintendent of music in Allegany County.

While at Beall High School, Carole was active in various organizations. She was president of Tri-Hi-Y, secretary of Honor Society, secretary-treasurer of band, secretary and accompanist of the chorus, and treasurer of the senior class.

At graduation services Carole received two awards: the "service above self" bond award and a bond award for excellence in music. She has taken piano lessons for eleven years; she has also taken both clarinet and organ lessons for about a year.

Carole will take piano lessons from Mrs. Monroe Harris. She is also enrolled in chorus and band, and plans to become an elementary teacher.

Dr. Harold Reese To Address Area Visitors On Campus Day

"Your Profession for the Second Half of the Twentieth Century" will be the address given by Dr. Harold Reese, State Department of Education, to high school seniors on Campus Day, October 10, sponsored by Student Congress.

The program will begin with registration at 9:00. An assembly will follow with a workshop for guidance counselors accompanying counselors. The tours will be next featuring lecture and laboratory visitation.

The afternoon program will feature Dr. Harold Reese as speaker, and musical selections by the college band and Madrigal Singers.

Central committee members are Lois Sweitzer, general chairman; Barbara Densmore, tours; William Fair, printed programs; Don Turley, registration; Dave Heck, seating; Marianne Holzer, publicity; Janice Diehl, invitations, and Larry Cleaver, afternoon program.

Tour guides for the day will be Tom Natolly, Cathy Joyce, Jane Duling, Sue Elbersole, Paul Nolan, James Ayers, Adolph Doerk, William Shertzer, Don Wittig, Larry McLean.

Dennis Knippenburger, Twyla Perry, Carol Ketteks, Becky Engel, Sherron Bailone, Carol Green, Joanna Newton, Linda Edwards, Sandra Cadarette, Tom Delaney, and Bill Brown will also assist with tours.

The seating committee consists of Martha McCoy, Jo Ellen Spangler and Dale Hawkins. The registration committee consists of Deanna Knepper, John Kreitzburg, and Judy Ritchy.

Student Congress Lists Elections On October 9

To elect six officers for the freshman class, and to elect the Homecoming Queen from three nominees selected by the senior class, an election will be held October 9, from 8:30 to 4:30, in Old Main, sponsored by Student Congress.

At this time also, an all-college election will be held in order to fill any vacancies that have occurred since the end of last year.

To select three candidates for Homecoming Queen, the senior class held a meeting. An all-college election will determine the Queen with the other two nominees serving as attendants. Each of the three remaining classes will elect two girls to serve as their attendants.

The Queen will reign at the Homecoming Dance.

Carol Ann Bean

Do You Take An Active Part?

There are many clubs and campus organizations open to all students on the campus. You wonder "How can I get into these clubs?" The answer is simple; just attend the meetings. You paid for membership privileges in the clubs when your activities fees were paid. There are very fw clubs on the campus where membership is by invitation.

Also, you, the students, have the privilege of voting in all college elections. Don't just sit around and gripe because things aren't the way you think they should be, or because the people you wanted didn't get elected; get out and vote. One vote can often decide an election.

This campus is run by students who have an interest in the well-being of the whole student body. Don't you be a sit-at-home; get out and take an active part; it is your privilege.

Enrollment Sets New Needs

When the need for a new building or equipment is felt by the administrators at Frostburg, a written statement is sent to the State Planning Commission asking for the desired article. This board reviews the request and if it agrees, recommends the plan to the governor or the budget director. Next the request is submitted to the Department of Public Improvements, appointed by the governor, which approves blueprints and money appropriated for the job. Then, if the legislature passes the bill, and the governor approves, Frostburg gets its building.

What has happened to our own dining hall and Student Union building is that our plans hit a snag which prevents many buildings from becoming permanently placed on state planning boards. Money for buildings can remain appropriated only two years, after which the appropriation becomes void if not in use. Since all bids for our dining hall were much above the money appropriated, and the State Board of Education felt that a cheaper building would not be functional, nor would it be in keeping with the other buildings on campus, the money was returned to the legislature. Consequently, a new procedure will have to be introduced to the Planning Commission.

This year we are again overcrowded. There are 36 more girls in Frost Hall than that dorm should house, while Simpson Hall is carrying eight students over capacity. To house some of its students, the college has again had to call on the community. We need more dorms; we need a new dining hall.

For Your Protection . . .

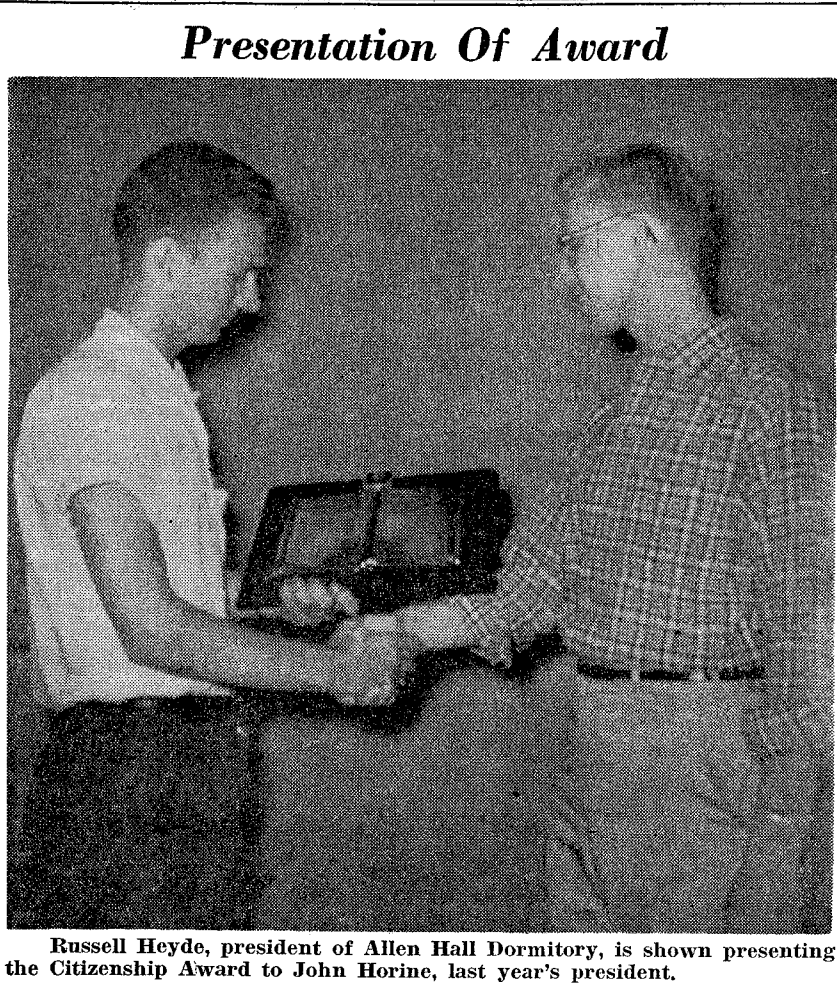

This year, there has been a much needed addition to our campus: the night watchman, or campus policeman. He has been hired for the protection of you, the student. His job is to protect your property, no matter how valuable or how trivial the article may be.

He is also here to give information to students or direct visitors around our campus and take them on tours of the buildings. Since the campus has expanded so much in the last few years, the watchman is an essential part of the college.

He is also our "fire prevention" in a sense of the word, as he makes regular checks of all buildings.

Treat the policeman with courtesy and respect because his is a most important job.

Have Education—Will Teach

With the falling leaves drifting past my window again, I recall my colorful college days of yesterday. Tense and wide-eyes (and with a cramped hand from writing) I fought my way through the freshman tests. Aching muscles (from standing in line) and a tormented mind (from trying to decide which courses to take) was my reward from registration day.

I spent a whole year trying to get used to the idea of time out between classes, and coke and chewing gum machines in the hall. That year, I lost hand, wrist and fingers to a worthy cause called "History of Europe."

The next year found me more confused than ever. What is a pulley? How does refrigeration work? Speech class left me with shaking knees and a crackling voice. With all this happening to me, I was a perfect specimen for psychology class. (Ithink they said that catatonic schizophrenia was my ailment.

Somehow, I lived (mostly in the library). I decided to go country style and "plowed" through all those methods courses. Since I didn't "dig fer it" the previous year, I had to work extra hard.

All that I have been through before seems like play compared to what has hit me this year! Gone are the days of leisurely classes and chewing gum and drinking cokes between those "easy" classes. Oh, to be back again . . .

Napoleon met his Waterloo and I've been introduced to Student Teaching. If you see a tense, wide-eyed individual, confused, and with more catatonic schizophrenia symptoms, that's happy little me.

Reporter Encounters Freaks

"Good evening ladies and gentlemen, this is Nosey Snodgrass, your roving reporter, broadcasting to you from the wilds of Frostburg, Maryland. I am now on the campus of Frostburg State Teachers College. Here, before my very eyes I can see many strange looking creatures resembling Martians from Venus. What? I've just been told they aren't spacemen, only freshmen going through the beloved "Hazing Week" activities.

"The noise you hear in the back ground is a group of students cheering for dear old F. S. T. C. I'll bet no one ever realized all the prospective cheerleaders here on the campus.

"Some of the students are out on the lawn hunting for four leaf clovers. Believe me, they will need some luck to get them through this week.

"I have must been informed that Thursday night there will a Kangaroo Court held to punish all wrongdoers. I imagine this court will deal justly with offenders. The judges will be teachers and students of the sophomore class.

"Well, folks, my time is just about up for this little broadcast. The things they've done Were all in fun So don't be angry, Don't be blue, Remember next year you'll be a sophomore, too!"

Library Display Features Toys

The group of toys now on display in the library are those of the children of a prominent family in Frostburg, and have been passed down to the present owner.

The rarest of all the toys is the collection of brown and white "Punch and Judy" English Wedgewood dishes. These are true antiques and very valuable.

Also found in the group are various furnished rooms of a house, cookware, silverware, a washstand, and a hand pump.

A fascinating section of the display consists of the dolls made from banister posts. They were painted by a youth.

There are gold framed pictures of children dressed in the styles of the periods in which they lived. A gold framed mirror is also an example of the many unusual toy specimens.

The background of the toys is explained by seventeenth and eighteenth century books pertaining to this subject found near the display. Illustrations of the period appear in the lobby.

Horine Wins House Honor

As an outstanding athlete, citizen and leader, State-To-Date, salutes John Horine, senior, the first recipient of the Citizenship Award of Allen Hall. This is the beginning of a new tradition on our campus.

As winner of the award John's name and the year of his receiving it have been engraved on the Citizenship award plaque which is in the lobby of Allen Hall. As a token of the honor, John was presented a medallion for his key chain.

An Award Committee of Russell Hyde, Stanley Wilson and William McCall chose ten nominees for the honor. The Allen Hall residents voted for three finalists, John Zink, Kenneth McKinney and John.

John displayed the qualities which earned him the award by serving as president of the Allen Hall Dormitory last year. While on the F. S. T. C. Campus, John has made a great contribution in the field of sports by serving as vice president of the Men's Athletic Council, meriting the All-Southern team for his soccer abilities, and being a member of track, baseball and intramural squads.

John has not limited his talents and abilities to sports, but is also a member of the Alpha Tau Alpha fraternity and served as treasurer of his sophomore class.

On behalf of the entire student body, faculty, and administration, State-To-Date, congratulates you, John, for your outstanding contributions to college life! When you embark upon your vocational career, we know that you will be as great an asset to that community as you were to Frostburg. We earnestly hope that the receipt of the Citizenship Award is only the beginning for you, John Horine.

Ten Commandments To Guide Freshmen

The following are 10 commandments for all F. S. T. C. freshmen:

1. Don't take college seriously.
2. Always cut classes whenever possible.
3. Spend several hours a day in Dr. Baum's or Dean Diehl's office. It stimulates your social life, and anyway, who needs to study?
4. When striving to join a club, use your pull. Go steady with a B. W. O. C. (Big Wheel on Campus)
5. Don't support or join any organization.
6. Don't take notes in class.
7. Don't bother to buy any books. They cost too much money.
8. Be absent about triad exams and finals. They're very insignificant in determining grades.
9. When you do study, avoid the library; instead try the shop.
10. Believe anything that you have just read, and Frosh, you've had it!!

Summer International Events To Be Discussed At Meeting

"The General Survey of Summer International Events" will be the topic for the next International Relations Club meeting which will be held on Oct. 9, in the Day Room. All freshmen are invited.

Phi Omicron Delta Invites Freshman Girls To Annual Sorority Tea, Tonight At 7 P. M.

Phi Omicron Delta sorority will hold its annual tea for the freshman girls in the Dining Hall at 7 p. m. tonight, according to President Mary Frances Deluca, senior.

In the receiving line besides the president will be Diane Slater, vice president; Joan Luttrell, secretary; Mary Ann Hesson, treasurer; Lynn Hitchcock, guard; Jane Duling and Catherine Watkins, corresponding secretaries, and Dr. Lucile N. Clay, advisor.

Anna Mae Bishop, Sue Ebersole, anevelyn Evans, Gail Kesner, Elai Elaine Smith, and Lois Smith will make arrangements for the tea. Invitations will be sent to prospective freshman members. This committee includes Carol Chaney, Sue Harrison, Diane Slater, Elaine Smith and Lois Spring.

Plans for the Homecoming Parade were discussed at a meeting held September 17. Joann Fiery will head the committee.

The scholarship given annually by the sorority to a freshman girl was discussed. A committee to prepare for next spring was selected. Sabra Hast was chosen chairman. The group is composed of Carol Chaney, Gail Resner, Carol Lannon and Joy Swett.

Sorority sweatshirts are available for all members and the fraternal group will sell Frostburg pennants on Campus Day, Oct. 10. Delores Vetter was chosen to serve as social chairman for the year. Rush captains for next semester, Nevelyn Evens and Lois Sweitzer, were also elected.

Delta Kappa Sponsors Services To Campus

Sigma Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa this year is sponsoring several new projects. In the very near future all students on campus will be able to purchase sweat shirts bearing the name of the college. These shirts will be navy blue with Frostburg State initialed on the front along with the State Bobcat.

Another project sponsored by DK this fall was the sale of beanies to the freshmen. Russ Hyde, chairman, announced that the sale was a big success. This is all part of a new program, adopted by Delta Kappa, to provide services to the campus.

A third project is also underway whereby all members of the fraternity will have a frat jacket before the end of the semester.

At a recent meeting President Stan Wilson selected the following committee heads: pledge and initiation, Michael Cunningham; audits, Oliver Wittig; newsletter, Oliver Rephann, and program, Michael Cunningham. These appointments are for this semester.

Graduates Accept Contracts; Directors Announce Positions

That twenty six 1957-58 graduates in the elementary program and fifty-five graduates in the junior-high program have been appointed to teaching positions has been announced by Mrs. Grace Kopp, Mr. John Dunn and Mr. Robert Jones, directors of practice.

In elementary schools in Anne Arundel County are Dorothy Bampton, Karen Casserly, and Gail Davis Stemple; in Frederick County, Natalie Mann, Carolyn Baum, Mary Eisen trout, and Beverly Miller. Alan Shane is in Washington County.

Instructing in Baltimore County are Frances Davis, and Marilyn Lewis; in Prince Georges, Jacquelyn Carder, Ruth Freeman, Bonnie Henson, Arlene Landefeld, Colleen Pollock, Sarah Slick, and Mary Yoder.

In Allegany County are Jean Kimble, Grace Nagle, Leah Robinette, Dorothea Rowe, Georgia Russell, Mildred Russell, Agnes Sinko, and Rose Winner. Teaching in Denver, Colorado, is Jo Epperson Boblitt.

Elementary graduates not teaching are Gladys Harsh Anderson, Sarah Murphy, Janice Shane, Ann Veach Sweeney, and Norma Taylor.

The eighteen junior high graduates teaching in Prince Georges County are Patricia Allen, Robert Bantz, James Bittinger, Joan Buskirk, Fred Capps, Joseph Carter,

Hamlin Quintet Aids Band Uniform Fund

The Johnny Hamlin Quintet presented a concert on Thursday, September 25, in the Compton Hall at 4:30 p. m. The concert, sponsored by the band, was held to raise funds to purchase uniforms for the more than twenty new band members.

The concert band, dance band, and majorettes will make their first public appearance of the school year on Campus Day, October 10. The second public appearance of the band will be at the annual Homecoming Parade.

The slate of band officers for this year includes John Zink, president; John Lester, vice president; Mary Frances DeLuca, secretary; Warfield Wilson, treasurer. Others deserving honorable mention are Dave Heck and Wanda Tate, librarians, and Bill Talbott and Mike Wilson, band managers.

The dance band had tryouts on Monday, September 22. Members are selected from the concert band.

Tryouts for majorettes will be announced shortly.

National Drama Frats To Present TV Show

On October 14 Alpha Psi Omega will present a show on the Hagerstown closed-circuit T. V. This show will highlight academic life at State. The script committee includes Mary Wheeler, Ed Lester, Joan Sweeney and Sue Ebersole.

Plans for the Homecoming Parade were discussed at a meeting held September 22 in Compton Hall. Suzanne Harrison, Ed Lester, Elizabeth Ann Maher, Sue Ebersole and Lyn Hitchcock will meet with the Little Theater float committee to further plans for the parade.

Approximately thirty theater enthusiasts attended the meeting, which was open to all students and faculty interested. Two movies, "One Way to Build a Flat" and "Make-up For the Theater" were featured.

The movies illustrated techniques of the theater. "One Way to Build a Flat" demonstrated an approved method for constructing a stage flat.

The basic principles of simple make-up application for both men and women were explained.

James Cave, Donna Clise, Edgar Dawson, Ramona Densmore, Ruby Schryock, Richard Matlick, Raymond Mc Ginn, George Seaton, John Seaton, Clifford Stevens, John Wambough, and Marina Tuya.

In Washington County are Marilyn Adams, John Burley, Robert Dignan, and Bennett Murray; in Frederick County, William Delaney, Dale Gangaware, Richard Gilpin, Sandra Haywood, Jack Hill, JoAnn Kepler, Ronald Lennox, Marvin Llewellyn, David Marple, William McCall, Hugh Nolan, Thomas Van Pelt, and Joseph Walker.

Instructing in Allegany County are James Eckard, Donald Garlitz, Jeanette Hicks, William McKenkie, William Price, Ralph Scarlett, Shirley Schaidt, Lois True; and in Anne Arundel County, Leo Rowan, Allen Stemple, and Myron Wotring.

In Garrett County are Melvin Garland and Virginia Miller; in Carroll County are Richard McPartland, and Allen Grumbine; in Baltimore County are Leonard House, Donald Kaplan, Robert Kloss, and Carolyn Smith, and instructing in Pennsylvania is Walter Witt.

Not instructing at present are Donald Blank, John Keister, Glenn Lloyd, Ernest Leigh, Joseph Madden, Clara Grimes, and Dixie Myers.

Hellman Trio Presents Musical Program

Parker Hill, Daphne Hellman and James Stutz

Daphne Hellman, harpist, James Stutz, bass player, and Parker Hill, guitarist, playing together as the Hellman Trio, presented a program September 24 at 8:15 in Compton Auditorium, under the auspices of the Assembly Committee headed by Mr. Charles I. Sager.

The program consisted of "Bourree" and "Gigue" by J. S. Bach; Scarlatti's "Two Sonatas"; "Gigue" by Corelli; Grandjani's "Petit Roi d'Yvetot"; and "Nutcracker Suite" arranged by Tchaikowsky.

Miss Hellman presented a short explanation of the harp. The trio performed "Second Piano Concertos" arranged by Rachmaninoff; and "Dans La Nuit" by Salzedo.

Performed by the bass and guitar were "Second Hungarian Rhapsody" arranged by Liszt; "Fats Waller Medley," "Blue Tango" and "Syncopated Clock" by Anderson; "March of the Siamese Children" by Rodgers; and modern jazz selections.

Daphne Hellman was born in New York of Irish and Dutch ancestry. She studied harp in Paris with Renie and in New York with Grandjani and Mildred Dilling. She has played concert tours over the United States as well as made appearances in Paris, Cannes, Germany, Dublin, and in the British West Indies.

Featured in Time, Mademoiselle and on the cover of Harper's Bazaar, she has written articles on music study for Vogue and other publications.

Stutz Plays as Youth

Arranger for the trio, James Stutz, had his own string quartet at the age of fourteen. In his home town of Columbus, Ohio, as a youth, he played guitar in dance bands and arranged for the Paul Whiteman orchestra.

Mr. Stutz has played at length with name bands of Benny Goodman, Woody Herman, Bob Crosby and Jimmy Dorsey. He currently is composing music for Les Paul.

Guitarist Parker Hill was born in North Cumberland, West Virginia. He began his career playing guitar in his brother's band in Steubenville, Ohio. He has performed with the Ina Ray Hutton, Gene Krupa, Ray McKinley and Sauter Finnegans bands.

Dot Downs, Jones, Hosack Attend Leadership Meet

Dottie Downes, sophomore, delegate to the Leadership Training Institute held at Camp Louise, Cascade, Maryland, September 19-21, reported to the FTA meeting September 22 in Lowndes Hall on this workshop.

Accompanying her to this workshop were Mr. Robert Jones and Mr. James Hosack, instructors.

The conference began at 4 p. m. Friday with registration, followed by dinner. The Master of Ceremonies was C. Wightman Seabold of Franklin High School, Reisterstown. Greetings were given by William M. Brish, superintendent of Washington County Schools, and Dr. James A. Sensenbaugh, superintendent of Frederick County Schools.

At orientation later that evening, Mrs. Mary T. Johnson, Cecil County, chairman of the training committee, presided. Mr. William Brish also made an address.

The keynote address of the Saturday morning session was given by Dr. T. M. Stinnett, Executive Secretary, Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards. Following this were conducted short courses on various pertinent topics.

Presiding at the Saturday afternoon session was Robert Y. Dubel, assistant executive secretary of MSTA, where the subject of "Building Participation in Local Associations" was discussed. The evening entertainment consisted of a movie entitled "Crowded Out."

Following Sunday morning services, there were discussion workshops and a farewell dinner at noon.

At this September 25 meeting of FTA where Dottie presented a resume of the conference, a membership drive committee was selected consisting of Mae Rice, chairman, Wanda Hill, Norma McLuckie, Carol Lannon, Virginia Smith and Marjorie Lewis.

A float committee comprising Marilyn and Freda Mueller, Wilma Stanley and Eleanor Mank was also appointed.

College Coach Teaches Calvert Countians Water Activities

On September 15, 16, Mr. Kenneth Babcock acted as consultant and teacher of canoeing and water safety to a group of Calvert County sixth-grade children.

This outdoor education experience, held at Kaufman's Camps, Dare's Beach, in Calvert County, was the first of its kind offered to this age group in the area. Approximately seventy boys and girls attended.

Dean Talks To Rotary Group

Dean Ivan C. Diehl appeared on the program of the Rotary Institute at the Penn-Alto Hotel, Altoona, Pennsylvania, Sunday, September 27. He served as chairman of a discussion group.

Twelve Returning Veterans Bolster Soccer Squad

Team To Open At Lock Haven On October 3

Eight returning lettermen head the list of this year's soccer team. Four other players are also returning to positions, but did not letter. Those lettermen returning include "Butch" Young, Bill Preston, Norm Nightingale, Ed "Sapp" Truly, Larry Shafferman, Neil Moore, Howie Gilpin, and State's All-American candidate, John Horine.

Also returning with ample experience are Art Scarpelli, Jim Lupis, Dorsey Johnson, and Tom Swauger.

Freshmen Vie

As in many other sports, freshmen candidates are vying for top positions. New faces include Roy "Mugs" Sigler, Bill Patton, Gerry Llewellyn, Adolph Doerk, Brent Stine, Marshall Jones, Art Isom, Geoff Whitmore, and Ronnie Mann. Newcomers who are not freshmen include Charlie Hartman, Paul Nolan, John Mummert and Don Amuruso.

Coach Kenneth Babcock has seven returning starters, but must fill positions vacated by Ed McCormick, John Keister, Dick McPartland and Carl Emerick. Each of these players was selected to last year's All-Southern team.

Bid For Berths

Strong bids for these positions are being made by Sigler, Llewellyn, Whitmore, Johnson, Swauger, Lupis and Scarpelli.

The team will open against a comparatively well-balanced Lockhaven team in the Pennsy city, October 3. Lockhaven won last year's encounter by a 3-2 score.

The first home game will be against the Penn State Frosh on October 11. Penn State was beaten by State last year 3-1.

Homecoming Game

Lynchburg, a new team on the schedule for this year, will furnish the opposition for the Homecoming Game set for October 25. Lynchburg is reported to have a strong team.

The other home game carded for the 1958 season will put the Bobcats against the Terriers of Western Maryland. The Terriers won last year's encounter 4-2.

Coach Philosophizes

Coach Babcock in relating how the team shapes up at this early stage said, "Most of the boys show some real hustle, but we have a lot to do in a short time."

The mediocre 3-5 record turned in last year was due in part to bad cases of "flu," comparatively small squad, and an unfortunate car accident which sidelined two regulars for six games.

Wins last year were recorded over Penn State Frosh, Mount St. Mary's, and American University. Losses were suffered at the hands of Slippery Rock, Salisbury, Washington and Lee, Western Maryland and Lock Haven.

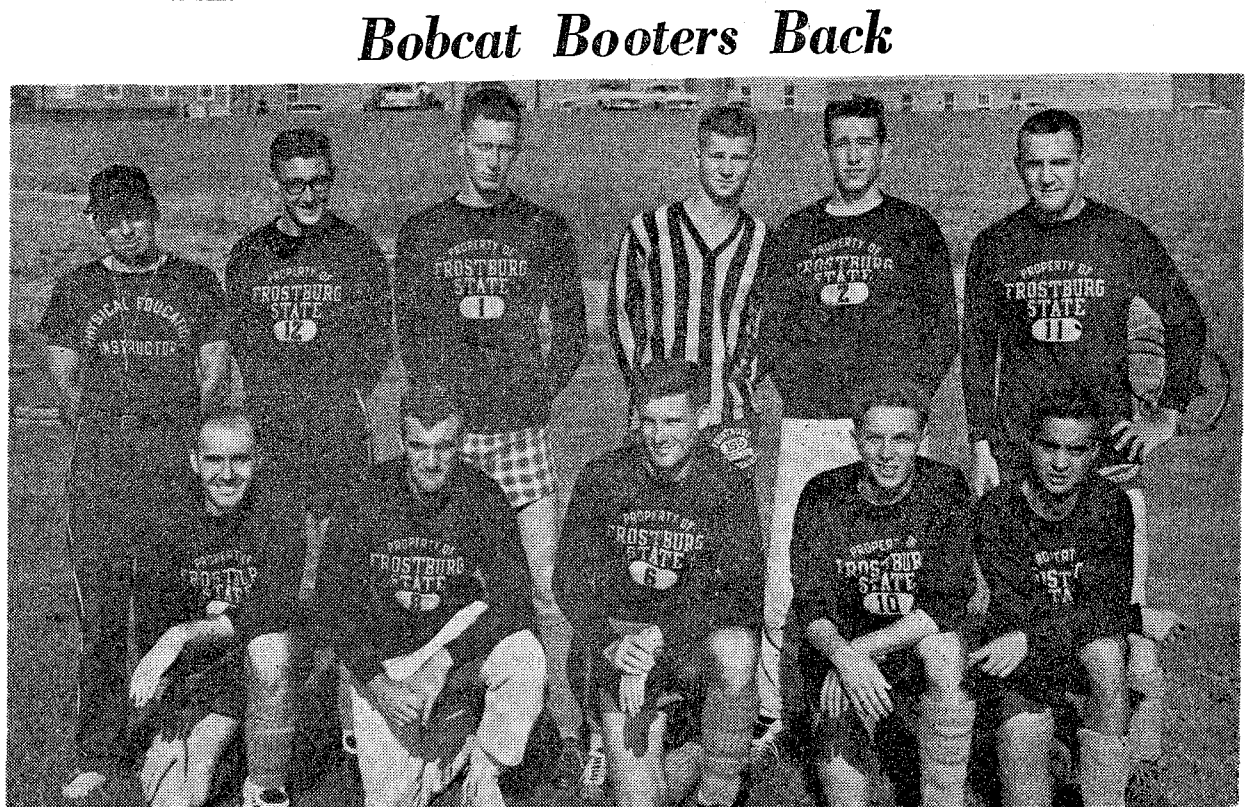

John Horine, returning inside left, and Norm Nightingale, returning center halfback, won honors on last year's All-Southern Soccer Team—making the third consecutive year that Horine has won the honor.

Track Record Bleak; Chappell Sets Mark

The track picture, although a little late because the last edition appeared before the completion of the season, was fairly bleak for the Bobcats. The Cindermen lost all three of their meets.

The highlight of the year was the jumping of Bill Chappell, who cracked Pete Wagley's high jump record of 5 ft. 11½ in. with a leap of 6 ft. 2 in. against Towson. Bill, in fine shape, appeared to be able to go several inches higher, but stopped so as to be able to help the squad in other events.

The 440 record of 53.2 set by Bill Preston in 1956 was shattered by Howie Gilpin in 52.6 against Fairmont. Gilpin was also high scorer for the season with 24 points, followed by Bill Preston with 20 points. Bill also won three races in the last meet.

Harold J. Cordts Will Assume Post As Cage, Diamond Coach

Mr. Harold J. Cordts, former freshman basketball coach at South Dakota State College, has been named successor to the posts vacated by Mr. Waldon Skinner.

Mr. Skinner, who coached Frostburg to its record 16-4 cage mark last season, resigned his position with this college to work on his doctorate at Columbia University.

Mr. Cordts is a newcomer to the varsity coaching ranks, but did tutor the South Dakota State freshman team for two years and was held numerous other positions in which he worked athletic-wise with men of college age.

Mr. Cordts, in addition to his varsity basketball and baseball tutoring capacities, will instruct classes in physical education, health and first aid.

While in South Dakota, Mr. Cordts played rather extensively with some high ranking amateur quints while teaching there in an elementary school.

He, more recently, has been working on his doctorate at Syracuse University. He will complete work for his degree sometime this year. While at Syracuse, Mr. Cordts supervised men student teachers in the physical education field.

Mr. Cordts spent his military obligation as a commissioned officer with the Army in the Korean conflict. During his stay in Korea, he assisted in intra-regiment and inter-division sports tournaments.

Stateside during his military tour, Mr. Cordts was physical training officer for the Army Field Forces.

When confronted with a question as to what school of basketball he is a member, and informed that he faced a drastic rebuilding task, Coach Cordts wisely remarked, "Let's wait and see what we have first."

Coach Cordts was informed that he barely missed "the Golden Age of Frostburg basketball." To this he soft-spokenly replied, "So I understand."

Basketball practice, according to our latest athletic staff addition, will begin about November 1. Needless to say, it is hoped there will be a huge turnout.

Cheerleaders

Two new cheerleaders will be chosen, tomorrow at 6:30 p. m. They will be selected on the basis of personality, appearance, coordination, pep and team work. Three present cheers must be learned and one original cheer demonstrated.

New members will be able to participate in the election of co-captains and other officers. The first appearance will be in the Homecoming Parade.

Mr. Cordts is also faculty advisor to the intramural football program.

Mr. Harold J. Cordts

Football? Intramural League Starts Second Year Under New Director

Long range plans for an intramural athletic program for the male student body during 1958-59 are shaping up, as shown by the introduction of intramural touch football.

As the intramural football season enters its second year at Frostburg, it will be under the direction of Mr. Howard Cordts. Mr. Cordts replaced Mr. Waldon Skinner who initiated intramural touch football at Frostburg last year.

The program will consist of six teams divided into two leagues. The teams will participate on a single round robin basis playing three nights per week. Two games will be played simultaneously with the probable starting time being 5:45 p. m. On days when there are soccer games the starting time will be changed to 4:30 or 5:15 p. m.

When the teams have completed a fifteen game schedule near the end of October, the winners of the two leagues will meet to decide the championship.

Officiating duties will be assumed by some physical education majors and by volunteers. Referees will be paid $3.00 per game. Anyone wishing to officiate at games should contact Mr. Cordts.

Fair Or Foul

By Bill Fair

Here it is another year, and here I am back at State-to-Date's sport's typewriter to pound out happenings, common or of the backstage variety, from the campus sports scenes. Glad to have a new reading audience aboard in the freshman class, and I'm hoping to retain some of this column's weathered critics.

The best thing to do when writing for a paper's first issue of the year is to find a place to begin. So, let's start from the most conspicuous spot—the beginning. By that, I mean the launching of the college's athletic season, and that of course—I hope everyone knows—is soccer.

The 1958 Bobcat soccer edition (as yet unpublished) has been receiving several rave previews from even some of the more conservative critics, or should I say "die-hards," myself included. Going by names, previous experience, capabilities and past performances (By the way, this isn't the Morning Telegraph), State should this year field its usual formidable booting squad. As the upperclassmen already know of Frostburg's soccer reputation, sure you do, I think the newest campus set should be informed that State is an opponent feared by practically any eastern and southeastern college.

With veterans such as "Mr. All-Southern" John Horine, Howard Gilpin (a recent upstart), "Diz" Nightingale, "Butch" Young, Dorsey Johnson, Bill Preston, "Sookie" Scarpelli, Jim Lupis, Larry Shafferman, Ed "Sap" Truly, and Tom Swauger, all having seasoned battles beneath their belts, and with the addition of several sharp Freshman prospects, I'm looking for quite a prosperous year amidst a rough schedule. (The schedule is on this page somewhere, I think).

In leaving my not-too-fluent treatment of soccer, may I say that students will be able to see their team in action this season. Unlike last year's "traveling eleven," the 1958 squad will play several home games on Compton gymnasium's backyard.

Speaking about tennis, (Who said anything about tennis?), how about those new courts being erected? Although they are to be hard-surfaced, which will be beneficial in the long run, they are quite an improvement over the not-too-smooth "courts" in the Simpson Hall area. Three are now near completion with, I understand, five more included in the plans.

Freshmen Vie For Frostburg Team Positions

Freshman athletes may hold the key to success in varsity sports for the upcoming seasons in soccer, basketball, baseball and track.

Many of the yearlings have had much previous experience in all these sports and could prove to be valuable "fill-ins" for last year's graduates.

Heading the list of soccer hopefuls under the tutelage of Coach Kenneth Babcock are Roy "Mugs" Sigler, Gerry Llewellyn, Bill Patton, Jeff Whitmore, Bill Henaghan, Ken Grandstaff, Joe George, Stevie Broadwater, Bob Brannon, Jim Ayers, Art Isom, Adolph Doerk, Brent Stine, and "Butch" Jones.

Llewellyn played soccer at Valley High where he was a mainstay on a team that was undefeated for three years. He was among the leaders in scoring in the Western Maryland Interscholastic League.

Lettered at Middletown

"Mugs" Sigler got his soccer experience at Middletown High School which generally fields a strong team.

Patton also played at Valley under Coach John Meyers, who has a knack for turning out fine soccer players.

"Butch" Jones gained poise while at Beall High where he was a key player in Beall's drive to unseat Valley.

New basketball mentor, Mr. Howard Cordts, will have many new faces when the cage sport comes into season.

Those boys who should help the tremendous rebuilding job facing Coach Cordts include Leon Brumbeck, Rick Winfield, Ronnie Mann, Gerry Llewellyn, Jim Price, Ray Kamauf, Jim Moffat, Bob Brannon, Harold Brautnick, Bob Bittinger, Jim Ayers, Terry Hull, John Mills, Gerry Smith, and Geoff Whitmore.

Played In Tourneys

Winfield was one of the big factors that made LaSalle a strong quint in the area. He led the Explorers to two tournaments and was an honorable mention All-City player.

Mann played at Oxon Hill and was a member of teams that went to the State finals twice.

Llewellyn was a member of Valley's runner-up Class B team last year and was also a top scorer in the W. M. I. L.

Price hails from Westminster where he played varsity ball for two years.

Hancock Represented

Brannon was a stand-out on Hancock's team last year that lost to undefeated Walkersville in the regional tourney.

Coach Babcock, handicapped by a small squad last year in track, looks forward to such hopefuls as Bob Brannon, Mike Fabbri, Tom Haselberger, Art Isom and Gene O'Baker.

Isom, O'Baker, and Haselberger were stand-out performers at Fort Hill, while Fabbri did his "tracking" at Beall and Brannon ran for the laurels at Hancock.

Baseball will be represented by Bill Andrews, Bob Brannon, Wayne Bruchey, Bill Bruchey, Larry Stup, Leon Brumback, Jack Densmore, Bill Frantz, Paul Flynn, Joe George, Ken Harris, Bill Henaghan, Ray Kamauf, Ronnie Mann, Dick Marriott, Ken Metz, John Mills, Bill Patton, Gerry Smith, Geoff Whitmore, and Arch Webster.

W. R. A. Holds Meeting; Outlines Year's Plans

On September 23, the Women's Recreation Association held its first meeting of the year. Judy Snyder, student leader of the organization, led the dozens of members and future members in a host of lively activities. A short business conference followed the games, and a wiener roast behind Compton Hall climaxed the evening.
