

Reminiscences Of Homecoming - 1965

MOMENT OF ELATION—Ann Young, senior, is captured in the epitome of surprised expression when she is announced the State Homecoming Queen for 1965.

THE MOMENT AFTER—Ann and husband Bob share the happy moment.

LATER—Smiling radiantly after the coronation, Queen Ann poses for her royal portrait, with Bob acting as escort.

HOMECOMING COURT—Members of this year's court were elected by the various classes, after being nominated at class meetings . . . The Homecoming Queen was selected from the senior princesses by means of an all campus election. Members of the court are Nancy Hershberger, freshman princess; June Glasgow and Sandy Brill, sophomore princesses; Willa Sharp, senior princess; Ann Young, Homecoming Queen; Cissy Wynne, senior princess; Gail Tipsward and Kathy Jewell, junior princesses; and Lucy Waldeski, freshman princess.

FRED FLINTSTONE FLATTENS THE FOE: For the second consecutive year, Alpha Xi Delta has won the float trophy for the lower division. Following the general theme of "Cartoon Carnival," the float was patterned after the Flintstone comic strip.

TKE RETIRES TROPHY! By winning the float trophy for the higher division for the third consecutive year, Tau Kappa Epsilon has retired the float trophy. The theme of the winning float was "Fool 'Em, Cats," featuring Charlie Brown.

THE THUNDERING HERD—Terry Ward "63" and Hank McRobie "75" lead Mike Davis "66." In spite of this fine attack, the Bobcats lost 26-12.

The new field proves a bit slippery for Slippery Rock as the Bobcats trip them 2-1 for a Homecoming victory.

Joe and Eddie are caught in the midst of their Homecoming performance, a perfunctory display which featured repetitious pseudo-gospel songs accompanied by much hand clapping and poor attempts at humor.

HIGHLIGHT OF THE EVENING—Very little publicity and microphone difficulty didn't stop their act from being a success; indeed, their variety of songs and witty remarks gained for them much respect and many fans at Frostburg.
