

NOTICE.

THE subscriber having leased that house and barn on Main's containing 150 acres, also a tract within two miles of Prince George, containing 500 acres. The first is an excellent tract of land, with excellent water power, and suitable for those engaged in business, &c. M. PARSONS will be held in no way responsible for any well established reputation of the house.

The BAR and LARDER are abundantly stored with all kinds of selection of Liquors and Provisions suited to the taste of Guests and Travellers. The STABLES, already supplied with Provisions, will easily undergo extensive repairs, and every care will be taken to make them available. The stable is situated near the Court House, and will be accessible to customers. He also has a thorough desire to accommodate the public, and encouraging exertions to render comfortable those who may honor him with their company, to share a portion of the profits of his enterprise.

JOHN W. B. PARSONS,
Princess Anne, Aug. 19, 1838.

The Snow Hill Standard and Baltimore Standard will receive the above three times, and charge 15 cts.

COACH, GIG & Harness Making.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform their customers, that he has opened a shop in the rear of his house, in the rear of the Court House, in the rear of the bridge, where all kinds of work in the line of business will be done in a substantial and workmanlike manner. They have that their services will be rendered with a determination to keep in their employ the most approved workmen, and of the less expensive, will warrant a large share of the purchase price.

They have constantly on hand
Gigs, Bunchers, Carriages, &c.

Manufactured out of the best materials, and finished in the most approved style. Orders for new gigs, &c., & other services in the line of business, will be received, and will be thinkingly received, and punctually attended to.

They would particularly invite their friends of Somersett to come and see their distance, and then will come to their next destination. They think that they can furnish Gigs, Bunchers, &c., at their shop which will be made nothing but a carriage with those manufactured by themselves, there, the stores, or a place where to go to take a look in order to have general view.
