THURSDAY, February 5, 1761.

LONDON, November 4.

WE hear his Majesty has bequeathed to the Duke of Cumberland, 250,000l. To the Princess Amelia, 200,000l. To the Princess of Hesse, 200,000l. To the Countess of Yarmouth's Son, 200,000l. and to his Grand-Children, being Seventeen in Number, 5000l. a Year each.

November 6. 'Tis said that the Princess Frederica Louisa, Daughter of the Reigning Duke of Saxe-Gotha, and Niece to the Princess Dowager of Wales, is destined to be the Consort of a certain illustrious young Monarch: Her Highness is a very accomplished Princess, about 18 Years of Age, being born the 30th of January, 1742.

The following Inscription is put on his late Majesty's Coffin.

Here lies deposited
The Remains of the Most Serene, Most Mighty, and Most Excellent Monarch,
GEORGE the SECOND,
By the Grace of GOD, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, Duke of Brunswick and Lunenburg, Arch-Treasurer and Prince Elector of the Holy Roman Empire.
He died the 25th Day of October,
In the Year of our Lord 1760,
In the 7th Year of his Age,
And 34th of his Reign.

November 8. The Expedition is going forward very briskly.

On Wednesday next all the Stores, exclusive of the Powder, will be on board.

All the Transports at their Loading in this Harbour, take in each a flat-bottom'd Boat.

At Spithead are, the Admirals Holbourn, and Durell, with 27 Sail of Men of War.

The King has been pleased to issue a Proclamation for the Encouragement of Piety and Virtue, and for preventing of Vice, Prophaneness, and Immorality; thereby declaring his Royal Purpose and Resolution to punish all Persons guilty thereof, of whatsoever Degree or Quality, within this Realm, and particularly such as are employed near his Royal Person; and that for the Encouragement of Religion and Morality, he will, upon all Occasions, distinguish Persons of Piety and Virtue by Marks of his Royal Favour. And he does thereby strictly enjoin and prohibit, all his loving Subjects, of what Degree or Quality soever, from playing on the Lord's Day, at Dice, Cards, or any other Game whatsoever, and either in Public or Private Houses, or other Place or Places whatsoever; and does require and command them, and every of them, decently and reverently to attend the Worship of God on every Lord's Day, on Pain of his highest Displeasure, and of being proceeded against with the utmost Rigour that may be by Law. And for the more effectual reforming all such Persons, who, by Reason of their dissolute Lives and Conversation, are a Scandal to the Kingdom, his further Pleasure is, that all Judges, Mayors, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, and all other Officers and Ministers, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, and all others whom it may concern, be very vigilant and strict in the Discovery, and the effectual Prosecution of Punishment of all Persons who shall be guilty of Drunkenness, Blasphemy, Prophaneness, Immorality, Prophanation of the Lord's Day, or any other dissolute, immoral, or disorderly Practices, that they take Care also, to effectually suppress all Public Gaming Houses and Places, and all other lewd and disorderly Houses. And to suppress all Vice and Debauchery may be prevented, and Religion and Virtue practised by all Officers, Soldiers, Mariners, and others, who are employed in the Service by Sea and Land, all Officers and Commanders whatsoever, are commanded to suppress all Prophaneness, Debauchery, and other Immoralities, and, that by their own good and virtuous Lives and Conversations, they do set good Examples to all such as are under their Care and Authority; and likewise take Care of and inspect the Behaviour of such as are under them, and punish all those who may be guilty of any of the Offences aforesaid, as they shall be answerable for the ill Consequences of the Neglect thereof.

November 1. Yesterday, about One o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Chitty, Knight, Lord-Mayor, accompanied by the Aldermen and Commoners of the Committee for the New Bridge, proceeded in State (but without Music) to Black-Fryars; and there, in the North Abutment, his Lordship laid the first Stone of the intended New Bridge, by striking the same with a Mallet, the Officers laying the City Sword and Mace thereon at the same Time, in the Sight of an infinite Number of Spectators; who, amidst the Firing of several Rounds of Cannon, placed there for that purpose, and the Bells ringing, expressed their Joy by loud Huzzas.

Several Pieces of Gold, Silver and Copper Coin, of his late Majesty, were placed under the Stone, together with the following Inscriptions, in large Plates of pure Tin.

Ultimo die Octobris, anno ab incarnatione

Cives Londinenses, uno consensu,

Huic Pontis inscribi voluerunt nomen

GULIELMI PITT.

[English'd thus:]

On the Last Day of October, in the Year 1760, and in the Beginning of the most auspicious Reign of

GEORGE the Third,

Sir THOMAS CHITTY, Knight, Lord Mayor,

laid the first Stone of this Bridge,

Undertaken by the Common Council of London,

(amidst the Rage of an extensive War)

for the public Accommodation,

And Ornament of the City:

ROBERT MYLNE being the Architect,

And that there might remain to Posterity

a Monument of this City's Affection to the Man who, by the Strength of his Genius,

the Steadiness of his Mind, and a certain Kind of happy Contagion of his

Probity and Spirit,

(under the Divine Favour, and fortunate Auspices of GEORGE the Second) recovered, augmented, and secured,

the British Empire

in Asia, Africa, and America, and restored the ancient Reputation and Influence of his Country

amongst the Nations of Europe;

The Citizens of London have unanimously voted this Bridge to be inscribed with the Name of

WILLIAM PITT.

When the Ceremony was over, his Lordship and the Committee returned to the Mansion-house, where an elegant Entertainment was provided for them by his Lordship.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, Oct. 20.

"There have been brought into this Place, within these few Days, about 200 Waggon's laden with Gunpowder, and other warlike Stores.

"The Men were at work all Yesterday [Sunday] upon the flat-bottom'd Boats, which are building in this Yard.

"For two or three Evenings past a great Number of Men belonging to the Deptford, Marlborough, and Newark Men of War, assembled together on Gosport Beach, and fought one Ship's Company against another, with Cutlasses, &c.

and notwithstanding the Vigilance of the Officers, they could by no Means disperse them. Great

Muchief was done, several of them had their Arms and Hands cut off, and 25 of them have been sent to the Hospital wounded."

September 12. Yesterday the Sessions ended at the Old Bailey, when 12 Prisoners were tried, one of whom was capitally convicted, viz. Francis David Stirne, for the wilful Murder of Mr. Richard Matthews, by shooting him in the Breast with a Pistol loaded with Ball; the Trial lasted near four Hours, and he was convicted on the clearest Evidence. Immediately after his Conviction, the Court passed Judgment on him, that he should be executed on Monday next at Tyburn, and his Body be delivered to be anatomized.

The chief Intent of Stirne's Evidence was to prove him not properly in his Senses. He was dressed in a green Night-Gown, and appeared to be a very personable young Gentleman, scarcely 25 Years of Age. He begged that he might be permitted the Use of a Coach, to prevent his being exposed to the Populace, which was denied. He seemed very much composed after Sentence was passed, and went out of Court with great Resolution.

Mr. Stirne had, during his Trial (as is supposed) by Means of some wicked Friend, procured a Quantity of Opium; of which he, at his Return to Prison, took so large a Dose, that it finished his Life last Night, about Half an Hour after Eleven o'Clock: He was a most shocking Spectacle to behold in his Agonies; and though he seemed in great Part insensible, yet by the repeated Convulsions, Throws and Distortions, he must evidently have felt as much, or more, than those he strove to avoid. By his Bed-Side he had Sherlock on Death, and a Piece of Opium about an Inch long. On the Wall of his Apartment he had written several Latin Sentences, relative to the Hope of an happy Resurrection; and on the Stone Wall in the Press Yard he had written with red Oker, O Lucifer, Son of the Morning, how art thou brought down to Hell, to the Side of this Pit! The Coroner's Inquest sat on his Body on Saturday Evening, and brought in their Verdict, Self-murder.

Stirne's Body was carried from Newgate to Surgeon's Hall to be dissected; the Operation was begun with his Head, to see what Effect the Poison had on his Brain. His Corpse having been inspected by the Surgeons, at their Hall in the Old Bailey, will this Evening be buried near Blackmary's Hole, and a Stake driven through his Body, agreeable to the Verdict of the Coroner's Inquest.

BOSTON, December 29.

We learn from St. Kitts, That a Flag of Truce was arrived at Guadaloupe from Martinico, with 60 Prisoners, among whom was Capt. Fanning, who was taken in a Sloop from New-London bound to Barbados.—That there had been a hard Gale of Wind at Martinico about the middle of November, which drove ashore above 20 Sail of Vessels; and that in the same Gale a number of Vessels were drove ashore at St. Kitts.—That there was an Embargo at Martinico on all the Privateers, being 80 Sail, and that they were in daily Expectation of a Visit from the English.

A Paragraph in the Jamaica News-Paper of the 18th of October, has the following, "A Vessel has been sent Express to Sir James Douglass, ordering him to meet Sir Edward Hawke at Carlisle-Bay in Barbados, who is on his way thither with a large Fleet, intended on some important Expedition."

NEW-YORK, January 12.

Yesterday the Gentlemen, and most of the Inhabitants of this City, entered into Mourning for the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign GEORGE the Second; when it was observed with great Reverence and Decency.—The several Churches in Town, were hung in Mourning, and Sermons preached in each of them suitable to the Occasion;—That at Trinity Church, by Mr. Barclay, from Job 1. Part of the 21st Verse, The Lord gave, and the Land hath taken away, blotted in 27 Name of the Lord. — At St. George's Chapel, by Mr. Auchmuty, from 1 Kings, 25. Verse 25. — At the Old Dutch Church, by Mr. Rittima, from Ps. 132. Verse 25. — And at the New Dutch Church, by Mr. Rittima, from 1 Chron. 2. 15. Latter Part of the 25th Verse, and the whole of the 26th Verse. — And at the Presbyterian, by Mr. Boilwick, from 2d Chron. 28. 16. Verse 33.

ANNAPOLIS, February 5.

Some few Days ago, a Widow on Kent-Place, having left her Two small Children at Home by themselves, while she went to a Neighbour's, the Eldest, a little Girl about Three Years old, being Cloathed in Cashmere, by some Accident her Cloaths took Fire, and the run out of the House; the Mother soon after returning Home, and seeing a Smoke in the Snow, went to it, and to her great Astonishment, found it to be her little Daughter burnt to Death.

We hear from Der-Byshire County, of the Death of HARRIS, Esq; Sheriff of that County. He was in the Prime of Life, well esteemed, and is regretted by all his Acquaintance.

THURSDAY, February 12, 1761.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

WESTMINSTER, November 18.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in his Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Henry Bellenden, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE just Concern, which I have felt in my own Breast, on the sudden Death of the late King, my Royal Grandfather, makes Me not doubt, but you must all have been deeply affected with so severe a Loss. The present critical, and difficult Conjuncture, has made this Loss the more sensible, as He was the great Support of that System, by which alone the Liberties of Europe, and the Weight and Influence of these Kingdoms, can be preserved; and gave Life to the Measures, conducive to those important Ends.

I need not tell you the Addition of Weight, which immediately falls upon Me, in being called to the Government of this Free and Powerful Country, at such a Time, and under such Circumstances. My Consolation is in the Uprightness of my own Intentions, your faithful and united Assistance, and the Blessing of Heaven upon our joint Endeavours, which I devoutly implore.

Born and educated in this Country, I glory in the Name of Briton; and the particular Happiness of my Life will ever consist in promoting the Welfare of a People, whose Loyalty, and warm Affection, to Me, I consider, as the greatest, and most permanent Security of My Throne; and I doubt not but their Steadiness in those Principles, will equal the Firmness of My invariable Resolution to adhere to and strengthen, this excellent Constitution in Church, and State; and to maintain the toleration inviolable. The Civil, and Religious Rights of My Loyal Subjects, are equally dear to Me with the most valuable Prerogatives of My Crown; and, as the sure Foundation of the Whole, and the best Means to draw down the Divine Favour on My Reign, it is My fixed Purpose to Countenance and Encourage the Practice of True Religion and Virtue.

I reflect with Pleasure, on the Successes with which the British Arms have been prospered this last Summer. The total Reduction of the vast Province of Canada, with the City of Montreal, was the most interesting Consequence; and must be as heavy a Blow to my Enemies, as it is a Conquest glorious to Us; The more Glorious, because effected almost without Effusion of Blood, and with that Humanity which makes an amiable Part of the Character of this Nation.

Our Advantages gained in the East Indies have been signal, and must greatly diminish the Strength and Trade of France in those Parts, as well as procure the most solid Benefits to the Commerce and Wealth of My Subjects.

In Germany, where the whole French Force has been employed, the Combined Army, under the wise and able Conduct of My General, Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, has not only stood in the Progress, but has gained Advantages over them, notwithstanding their boasted Superiority, and their not having hitherto come to a general engagement.

My good Brother and Ally, the King of Prussia, who surrounded with numerous Armies of Enemies, has, with a Magnanimity and Perseverance, almost beyond Example, not only withstood their various Attacks, but has obtained very considerable Victories over them.

Of these Events I shall say no more at this Time, because the Nature of the War in those Parts has kept the Campaign there still depending.

As My Navy is the principal Article of our Natural Strength, it gives Me much Satisfaction to receive it, in such good Condition; whilst the Fleet of France is weakened to such a Degree, that the small Remains of it have continued blockaded up by My Ships in their own Ports. At the same Time the French Trade is reduced to the lowest Ebb: And with Joy of Heart I see the Commerce of My Kingdoms, that great Source of Our Riches, and fixed Object of My never-failing Care and Protection, flourishing to an Extent, unknown in any former War.

The Valour and Intrepidity of My Officers and Forces, both at Sea and Land, have been distinguished so much to the Glory of this Nation, that I should be wanting in Justice to them, if I did not acknowledge it. This is a Merit which I shall constantly encourage and reward: And I take this Occasion to declare, that the zealous and useful Service of the Militia in the present arduous Conjuncture, is very acceptable to Me.

In this State I have found Things, at My Accession to the Throne of My Ancestors: Happy in viewing the prosperous Part of it: Happier still should I have been, had I found My Kingdoms, whose true Interest I have entirely at Heart, in full Peace: But since the Ambition, injurious Encroachments, and dangerous Designs of my Enemies, rendered the War both just and necessary, and the generous Overture made last Winter, towards a Congress for Pacification, has not yet produced a suitable Return, I am determined, with your cheerful and powerful Assistance, to prosecute this War with Vigour, in order to that desirable Object, a safe and honourable Peace. For this Purpose, it is absolutely incumbent upon Us, to be early prepared, and I rely upon your Zeal and hearty Concurrence, to support the King of Prussia, and the Rest of my Allies, and to make ample Provision for carrying on the War, as the only Means to bring Our Enemies to equitable Terms of Accommodation.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The greatest Uneasiness which I feel at this Time, is in considering the uncommon Burdens, necessarily brought upon My faithful Subjects. I desire only such Supplies as shall be requisite to prosecute the War with Advantage; be adequate to the necessary Services; and that they may be provided for in the most sure and effectual Manner, you may depend upon the faithful and punctual Application of what shall be granted. I have ordered the proper Estimates for the ensuing Year to be laid before you; and also an Account of the extraordinary Expenses, which, from the Nature of the different and remote Operations, have been unavoidably incurred.

It is with peculiar Reluctance that I am obliged, at such a Time, to mention any Thing which personally regards Myself: But as the Grant of the greatest Part of the Civil List of Revenues is now determined, I trust in your Duty and Affection to Me, to make the proper Provision for supporting My Civil Government with Honour and Dignity. On my Part, you may be assured of a regular and becoming Economy.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Eyes of all Europe are upon you. From your Resolutions the Protestant Interest hopes for Protection, as well as all Our Friends for the Preservation of their Independency; and Our Enemies fear the final Disappointment of their ambitious and destructive Views. Let these Hopes and Fears be confirmed and augmented by the Vigour, Unanimity and Dispatch of your Proceedings.

In this Expectation I am the more encouraged by a pleasing Circumstance, which I look upon as one of the most auspicious Omens of My Reign. That happy Extinction of Divisions, and that Union and good Harmony which continue to prevail among my Subjects, afford Me the most agreeable Prospect. The natural Disposition and Wish of My Heart are, to cement and promote them; and I promise Myself that nothing will arise on your Part to interrupt or disturb a Situation, so essential to the true and lasting Felicity of this Great People.

P A R I S, October 17.

WE have received the News of the Loss of Montreal and all Canada with Concern, but not with Astonishment. The Advices, true or false, that came some Time ago from Gaspe, imposed only on a few Persons. It was well known that our Troops, and our brave Canadians, were in Want of every Thing; and we cannot but applaud them for having capitulated on the Conditions that have just been made public here.

Cologne, Nov. 4. The Court of Rome seems to have given universal Disgust, and his Holiness, will probably find it impossible to pacify all the Powers, without lessening the Dignity of the Apostolic See; the Breach is as wide as it well can be between the Church and the Crown of Portugal; and they have so far provoked the Genoese, that were it not for fear of giving Umbrage to more respectable Princes, it is thought the latter would have sent 10,000 Men to settle their Difference at Rome; and the Mail brings Advice, that the Senate of Venice has renewed some old Pretensions, which will inevitably bring on an open Rupture with the Court of Rome.

By a Ship from Hamburg we have an Account, that Dresden is actually invested.

There is Advice that a Turkish Man of War, of 74 Brass Guns, lying at Cyprus, and all the Crew, except 200, being on Shore, 100 Christian Slaves, that were on board, rose and killed all but 40 of the Insiders, and carried the Ship into Malta, the 6th of October.

Yesterday an extraordinary Council was held at St. James's, to take into Consideration the Expedition now sitting out at Portsmouth; when it was resolved, That it should be carried on with the utmost Vigour.

Extract of a Letter from Lyddard Tregease in Wallisfore, October 15.

"On Monday last was married here William Rois, a young Fellow, Gardener to the Right Hon. Lord Bolingbroke, to Mrs. Mary Dorrell of High-tivity, possessed of a Fortune of £4000.

Clay'd in my monumental Arms

I yield thee up Four Thousand Charms

Each Charm, so current and so killing,

Will now Four Thousand Damnsels killing."

'Tis said that there is now in the Possession of Mr. Collins, Butcher, in Bath, a surprising Hog, not two Years old, which measures from his Snout to his Tail nine Feet and a Half, is four Feet and an Inch high, six Feet ten Inches in Circumference, and weighs near nine hundred Pounds.

Yesterday at Two o'Clock, some Merchants were forced to leave their usual Standing Places on the Royal-Exchange, occasioned by a large Quantity of Pepper Dust flying up through the Grates from the Pepper Cellars below, now occupied by the East-India Company; one of whose Directors being at that Time near the Place, was immediately acquainted with the Nuisance, and requested to use his Authority in preventing it for the future; to which he replied: Gentlemen, I will do any Thing in my Power to oblige you; but if you are not PEPPER-PROOF, I cannot help it.

November 18. On Sunday Night, and early this Morning, all the General Officers, the Colonels, and almost all the other Officers, were at the Right Hon. Mr. Pitt's, to take their Leave, and immediately to set out for Portsmouth, for the intended Expedition. And Yesterday a great Num-

RICHARD TOTTILL.

WHEREAS the Act of Assembly of this Province, made and passed in 1733, for putting and making current Ninety Thousand Pounds, is near Expiring; The Commissioners of the Loan Office therefore think it their Duty, to inform all those who have any Bonds in that Office, to come and discharge the same; otherwise they will be proceeded against as the Law directs.

Signed per Order,

ROBERT COUDEN, Cl. P. C. Office.

RAN away on the 25th of January last, a Servant Man (belonging to the Estate of the late Mr. Patrick Creagh) named Thomas Alder, by Trade a Wheel-wright; he is a short well-set Fellow, about 35 Years old, pitted with the Small-Pox, and soops in his Shoulders and Neck, and when he looks up or talks, he turns his Head to the right Side, he has light Eyes, is of a sandy Complexion, and talks quick. He had on when he went away, a light brown Kersey Coat, with short Skirts and a small Cuff turn'd up, a striped Flannel Jacket, a Pair of old Leather Breeches, a white Shirt, and a cock'd Hat. He served his Time to the late Mr. Alexander Lawson, at the Iron-Works in Baltimore County, and it is supposed that he is gone that Way, and intends to make for Philadelphia.

Whoever takes up the said Runaway, and brings him to me, shall have a Reward of three Pounds Currency, and reasonable Charges allowed; and if taken out of the Province, and brought home, Five Pounds, and reasonable Charges, paid by

RICHARD MACKUBIN.

To be SOLD by the Commissioners of the Paper Currency, at PUBLIC FENDUE, on Wednesday the 11th of March next, being the second Day of Anne-Arundel County Court, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the House of William Reynolds, in the City of Annapolis, for Paper Currency.

THE following Tracts of LAND, lying in the County aforesaid, viz:

Hazard, containing 60 Acres.

Hood's Hall, 100 Acres.

Part of Ben's Luck, 25 Acres. And,

Part of Freeborn's Progress, 150 Acres.

Also, Three Lots of Land lying in the New-Town, of the said City, with a Brick House having two Chimneys, standing thereon, on the South-West Side of Scotts Street, late the Estate of William Cumming, Esq; deceased.

LETT in the Warehouse of Mr. James Johnson, deceased, in July 1750, Twenty-four Pieces of damaged brown Hempen Rolls, which have not yet been call'd for by any Person: This is to give Notice, that they will soon be sold off at Public Vendue, if no Owner appears.

Those still indebted to the said James Johnson, are desired to come and discharge the same.

ROBERT COUDEN.

N. B. He has for Sale, Good West-India RUM by the Hoghead, and COFFEE by the Barrel.

Baltimore County, December 15, 1760.

THIS is to give Notice to all Persons indebted to Mr. Joseph Smith, late at Onion's Iron-Works; to make immediate Payment; and those who have any Demands against him, are desired to give in the same to

JACOB GILES,

WILLIAM YOUNG.

Bladenburg, January 26, 1761.

RAN away this Morning from the Subscriber, a Convict Servant Man named James Fairbanks; he is a short well-set Fellow, with large black Eye-brows, and a down cast Look; he was formerly the Property of Mr. Hazael Warfield on Elk-Ridge, and Mr. Richard Dawkins in Frederick County. He carried off with him, a brown Great Coat, with Mohair Buttons, and a Velvet Cape, a Claret colour'd close-bodied Coat, with white Metal Buttons, a Waistcoat of the same Colour, with Silver Twist Buttons, a Calico Hat, and brown cut Wig, a Pair of Buckskin Breeches, a Man's Saddle, with a neat Seal-skin Housing, and a Silver Watch with a Steel Chain, and a Silver Seal.

Whoever apprehends the said Servant, and delivers him to the Subscriber in Bladenburg, shall receive Five Pounds Reward.

DANIEL STEPHENSON.

By Virtue of a Writ of Fieri Facias to me directed, at the Instance of the Commissioners or Trustees of the Loan-Office, for the Use of Mr. James Cary, of Baltimore-Town, have taken Part of a Tract or Parcel of Land called or known by the Name of Kingsbury Resurveyed, containing Two Hundred Acres, more or less, lying and being in Baltimore County, near the Kingsbury Iron-Works, formerly the Property of Mr. Thomas Sherredine, of said County, deceased, and where he formerly dwelt, and now in the Occupation of Mrs. Tabitha Sherredine; which Land will be exposed to Public Sale on the Premises, on Monday the Second Day of March next, by ROGER BOYER, Sheriff of Baltimore County.

Baltimore County, January 27, 1761.

WHEREAS Messrs. Jacob Giles and William Young, have publicly required all Persons indebted to Mr. Joseph Smith, late at Onion's Iron-Works, to make immediate Payment, and those who have any Demands against him, to give in the same to them; the Subscriber would be glad to be publicly informed by the said Gentlemen, if by the Expression of give in the same to them, they would be understood to mean, that they will adjust and pay off all the lawful Debts of the said Smith delivered in to them, as the said Smith is truly indebted to the Subscriber, in the full Sum of Nine Hundred Pounds Currency and upwards, which the Subscriber's Answer, filed with his Account, in the Honourable Court of Chancery, to the said Smith's Bill of Complaint, will fully evince and make appear: Should this be the Meaning of the advertising Gentlemen, as they seem inclinable to intimate, under the Ambiguity of their Public Notice, their immediate Payment of what the said Smith owes to the Subscriber, would be very acceptable to him: But if the mere Reception of Demands against the said Smith, be all that his Creditors are to expect for their Trouble in giving in the same to the above named Gentlemen, they would act but candidly, in the Opinion of the Subscriber, would they be pleased to signify as much in the next Gazette; the Subscriber being one of those Sort of Creditors, who cannot comprehend that the bare giving in of Demands against a Debtor, can in Justice or Equity, amount to a Satisfaction and Discharge of the same.

EDWARD NORWOOD.

Onion's Iron-Works, Jan. 22, 1761.

WHEREAS Edward Norwood has Trespassed on the Lands at these Works, by cutting and destroying Wood under Pretence of an Authority from me for the carrying on and making Pig-Iron at the Furnace; and whereas I did, by an Advertisement in April, set forth, that I had discharged the said Edward Norwood from my Business, and did request that no Person might have any Dealings with him on my Account, and that I had sued the said Norwood in sundry Actions: Notwithstanding, he the said Edward Norwood, being aided and assisted by others, has cut and destroyed Wood at the said Works. Now this is to give Notice to all Persons employed by the said Norwood, who have any ways Trespassed on the Land or Improvements at Onion's Iron-Works, that unless they immediately compound, they will be sued by

Containing the latest Advices foreign and domestic.

THURSDAY, February 19, 1761.

LONDON, November 13.

TUESDAY about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, 1300 Foot Guards, and 250 Horse, 65 from each Troop of Horse and Grenadier Guards, were formed upon the Parade in St. James's Park, from whence they marched to do Duty at the Funeral of his late Majesty, at the respective Places appointed for them. At Six o'Clock St. Paul's great Bell began Tolling once every Minute, which was followed in the same Manner by all the Bells in every Parish in London, which continued till Eleven o'Clock at Night.

The Guns at the Tower began firing Minute Guns about Eight o'Clock, and continued also till Eleven.

The Nobility, Gentry, &c. who went in Procession, were marshalled at the Door of the House of Lords, from whence they proceeded through the Prince's Chamber, where his late Majesty lay in State, which was hung all over, and the Floor covered with purple Cloth, with at least 150 large Wax Candles in it, and so on to the Abbey.

A Line of Foot Soldiers, covered by the Horse, kept the Mob off from the Procession.

The Procession of his late Majesty's Funeral began from the Star-Chamber something after Eight o'Clock; and, through some Mistake, before the Torches were lighted up.

The Procession marched with great Solemnity, according to the Order published in the Gazette; the Heralds attending with Papers of the Form in their Hands, and marshalling the Nobility, Gentry and Others, agreeable thereto.

The Whole had entered the Abbey about Nine o'Clock, where the Anthem and Funeral Ceremony was performed, which took up three Quarters of an Hour, when they returned nearly in the same Order they went.

The Drums were all muffled up with Crape, and the Drummers ranged along the Scaffolding, beating a dead March during the Procession; the Household Trumpeters and Fife walked in Mourning, with black-Jockey Caps.

A Sky-Rocket was drawn up when the Royal Corps entered upon the Scaffolding, and another when the Procession returned from the Abbey, as Signals for firing the Minute Guns.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's Train (which was extremely long) was supported by two Dukes, assisted by the Vice Chamberlain; and his Highness had on an extreme large full bottomed brown Wig, hanging more than half Way down his Back, with a little Powder cast in it.

The Abbey was finely illuminated with Lamps, which made all the Monuments have a very grand and solemn Effect.

A great Number of Peace Officers attended on the Scaffold, many of whom, we are sorry to say, paid little Respect to the awful Solemnity, as to be out of Mourning.

His Royal Highness the Duke came and went in his State Coach, and not a Mourning one, neither were his Coachman and Footmen in Mourning.

The general and most probable Opinion of the Destination of our grand Expedition (which we hear has Orders to embark directly) is, that it is destined against Offend. Be it as it will, the Dutch are halting the shipping off the Goods they have lately purchased of the India Company with the utmost Dispatch; as they are not sure, but it may greatly affect them also. Fears will always operate upon People when they know they are guilty of Offences that ought to be chastised.

By an Account lately published, of the Number of French and English Men of War taken, destroyed, or casually lost, from the Year 1755 to 1760, to the present Time inclusive, it appears thus: Total Loss of the French is 104 Ships, carrying 4222 Guns: Total Loss of the English is 24 Ships, carrying 860 Guns.

St. JOHN'S (in Antigua) November 19. A Gentleman who left Martinico the 4th Instant, reports, that during the six preceding Days, seven Prizes were brought in; among which were the St. Kitts Planter, bound from London to St. Kitts, and reckoned to be worth 20,000l. and a very large Schooner from London and Cork to Guadeloupe; the rest being from the Northward. This Gentleman learnt, that the Antigua-Sloop, which was damaged some Weeks ago, and sent up as a Flag of Truce, was detained till the French could collect as many Masters and Passengers as she carried up Prisoners; they being refused to send no Seamen in her, suspecting that such a Vessel must have been sent with a Design to secure the Men for his Majesty's Service. The Martinico Privateers were sent out, to a very great Number; and Provisions of all Sorts were very plenty and cheap there.

We hear that a very fine Brigantine, now in this Harbour, has been purchased for his Majesty, and will be fitted out as a Cruiser.

November 26. His Majesty's Sloop Antigua, is just returned from Martinico with Prisoners, Seamen as well as others.

Many Vessels were drove ashore in the neighbouring Islands, by the late South West Winds. At Martinico 7 or 8 were drove ashore, and at St. Christopher eleven; three or four of which it is expected will be got off.

His Majesty's Ship Sloop Castle, of 74 Guns, Captain

Event, arrived here last Night, and brought in a Brig, laden with Sugar and Coffee from Hispaniola, which she took 16 Days ago.

From Santa Croix, and the neighbouring Islands, we hear, that the French Privateers are very numerous thereabouts, hardly a Day passes without some of our Northward-men being carried into Santa Croix, and they are generally sold the next Day.

We hear, that a fine Brigantine, called the Virgin, and another called the Guadeloupe are now fitting out at English Harbour.

It is strongly reported, and generally believed, that the Privateer Sloop Saunders, Captain Stevenson, belonging to this Place, has been sunk by two armed Vessels from Coracoa, who wilfully suffered the Captain and all his Company to perish.

BASSETERRE (in St. Christopher) Dec. 17. His Majesty's Ships have brought in the following Prizes to the Road of Basseterre, in this Island, viz.

A Ship from Martinico, with Sugar and Coffee, by the Coludon, John Barker, Esq; Commander, upon the 13th. A Schooner with Provisions, bound to St. Vincent, by the Tender of the Emerald, Charles Middleton, Esq; Commander, upon the 13th.

A Schooner with some Tobacco and other Goods, from St. Vincent, by the Griffin, Thomas Taylor, Esq; Commander, upon the 13th.

Dec. 20. It is said that the following Prizes were carried into Martinico, between the 15th of November and the 15th Instant.

A Snow, Curry, from Cape-Fear; a Sloop, Brown, from Cork; a Brig, Barron, from Virginia; a Schooner, Bogue, from Boston; a Snow, Gardner, from Cork; a Brig, Terre, from Africa; a Snow, Creagh, from Cape-Fear; a Brig, Wier, from Maryland; a Snow, Hoyman, from Rhode-Island; a Sloop, Coddington, from Ditto; a Sloop, Askev, from Cork; a Snow, Ravely, from London; a Schooner with Slave, from St. Kitts; a Schooner, Seton, from Salem; a Sloop, Ellis, from Plymouth; a Ship, late Didden, from Guadeloupe; a Schooner, from Ditto; and a Snow, Buchanan, from Glasgow.

Dec. 24. By a Vessel from Barbados we hear, that his Majesty's Ship Emerald, Charles Middleton, Esq; Commander, has lately taken and sent to that Island two French Privateers, of 3 and 10 Guns.

Upon the 21st Instant arrived in the Road of Basseterre, in this Island, a Sloop taken by his Majesty's ship Emerald; and on the 22d, a Brigantine taken by his Majesty's Sloop Guadeloupe, Roger Williams, Esq; Commander.

Dec. 31. On the 23d Instant, a Sloop from Martinico was brought in by his Majesty's Ship Crescent, Thomas Collingwood, Esq; Commander.

BOSTON, January 19.

Since our last we have had an extreme cold Season, whereby our Harbour has been for two or three Days almost filled with Ice. We have within this Time had several Alarms by the Cry of Fire, which were soon extinguished, without any extraordinary Damage occurring, until Tuesday Evening last, when at about Half an Hour after Nine o'Clock a violent Fire broke out in one of the Shops opposite the North Side of Faneuil-Hall-Market, on Dock-Square, which entirely consumed all the Row of wooden Buildings from the Store occupied by the Honourable Thomas Hubbard, Esq; to the Swing Bridge. These Buildings belonged to the Town, and were leased to a Number of Tradefmen, some of whom had their whole Stock therein, most of which was either consumed or lost. There were several small Schooners in the Dock, but they received little Damage; nor did the Fire proceed to the North Side of the Dock; on the contrary, it communicated itself to that lately Edifice Faneuil-Hall-Market, the whole of which was soon entirely consumed, excepting the Brick Walls, which are left standing: The Fire then proceeded to a Number of Shops, improved by some Tradefmen, on the South Side of the Market, and consumed them also. The Wind rising about this Time, carried the Flakes of Fire over the Houses towards King-street, and the Ware-houses and Stores on the Town-Dock, and Long-Wharf, wherein were the greatest Quantities of the richest Merchandise in the Town. The Inhabitants having the Fire of last Spring recent in their Minds, they were apprehensive of a further Destruction, especially as the Tide was down, the Dock filled with Ice, and some of the Pumps in the Neighbourhood failed; many People removed their Goods, some of which received Damage thereby: The Severity of the Weather was such, that many Persons could scarce stand it; and the Water which issued from the Engines congealed into Particles of Ice before it fell. Altho' the Flames and Flakes of Fire fell on many Houses and Stores, yet no Dwelling-house was consumed; one or two near the Market were considerably damaged. Never were Slates on Houses discovered to be of so much Advantage as at that Time; for when great Flakes of Fire fell thereon, they immediately run off, without doing any Mischief.

The Loss of Faneuil-Hall-Market must be great to this Town, as it was a noble Building, esteemed one of the best Pieces of Workmanship here, and an Ornament to the Town. It was built near 20 Years ago, at the sole Expence of the late generous Peter Faneuil, Esq; the capacious Hall, which bore the Founder's Name, would contain above 1000 of the Inhabitants at a Meeting. There were convenient Apartments for the Officers of the Town to transact their respective Businesses therein; besides two Offices at the East End of the lower Floor, one of which was improved as a Naval Office, and the other a Notary Public's: The other Part was very commodious for a Market. The Records, Papers, &c. with such other Things as could be removed, were mostly saved.

There are near 20 Tradefmen deprived of Shops by this Fire, which must make it extremely difficult in this Winter Season; especially when it is considered, that many of those who lost their Shops in March last, are not yet supplied with proper Places to carry on their respective Businesses. The frequent Fires in this Town in Winter, are occasioned oftentimes by the great Quantities of Charcoal which are burnt in Pots; wherefore it cannot be taken amiss to remind Persons to see that their Pots of Fire are well extinguished before they leave them; and that they have their Chimnies swept; and particularly to be careful of Ashes, which are generally carried into Cellars.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Levi Stufon, of the Ship Britannia, bound from Newcastle to this Place, dated Otago, near Caithness, October 21, 1760.

"This is to inform you of my Disaster last Night, being Ship-wrecked near Caithness, in the North of Scotland, and the Vessel and Cargo entirely lost. Our People got all safe on Shore in a small Boat, except the Mate, one Man and myself, who tarried for the Boat's coming off again; but the Sea was so high, that the Boat could not come off to take us in: We were obliged to stay on board; the Vessel soon went to Pieces, and myself, the Mate and the other Man, were washed about in the Wreck five Hours, and at last got on Shore on the Boltspirit, but destitute of Cloaths, having thrown the heaviest off, in order to swim."

N-E-W-Y-O-R-K, January 29. It is thought the following Account is not quite unworthy of Notice, viz. A few Days before Christmas last, a very valuable Negro, named Caesar, belonging to the Widow Furman, at Colt's Neck, in Monmouth County, New-Jersey, was found dead, at some Distance from Home, and being conjectured to have died by Accident, was buried; but soon after, a Neighbour informing, that the Night before he had heard great Cries of Murder near the Place where the Negro was found; and that he would have gone to the Assistance of the Distressed, but that a very large Mill-Pond lay in the Way, which he could not cross. The Negro was taken up again, and both his Legs found broken, and his Neck dislocated: Whereupon further Search was made, and at the Place of the Out-Cry was found many Marks of Caesar's struggling with his Adversaries, and several plain Tokens of his having been hang'd on a low Lamb of a Tree. It seems Caesar had made his Address some Time to a neighbouring Wench, who had received him kindly, and they were to have been married at Christmas; but another Fellow who also addressed the Wench, not being received well, and jealous of Caesar, and having several Negro Friends, it is thought poor Caesar was Way-laid, and murdered in that Manner; and this Suspicion is corroborated, by a Person's having heard an old Wench tell Caesar a few Days before, that if he continued to visit that young Wench, he would not live to see Christmas. Several Negroes have since been taken up on the Account, and 'tis thought the Truth will be discovered: So that poor Caesar's Antagonist is likely to be found in a worse State than the Dog in the Manger.

Near the same Place as the above, a few Days ago, three or four Men dug out of the Side of a Hill, from whence a fine Spring issued, Fifty-two large Rattle-Snakes, and Nineteen Black Snakes, all twined together in one Bunch or Knot: The cold Weather prevented their making any Resistance, though the Rattle-Snakes were so lively as to be able to rattle pretty briskly: They cut the Heads of the Rattle Snakes off, and then skin'd them: The Digging was purposely after them, as a great Number had been seen near the Spring the Summer before.

On Monday last the Earl of Halifax Packet Boat, Captain Boulderford, sailed from hence for Falmouth.

We hear there are several Vessels ashore between the Capes of Delaware and Sandy-Hook; one of them we know to be a Brig inward bound from the West-Indies, Brown, Master, belonging to this Port.

Captain Corne, in a Snow belonging to this Port also, bound in from Jamaica, is ashore on the South-Side of Long-Island.

We are credibly informed, that a Privateer Sloop, belonging to Jamaica, late the Fox of this Port, in an Engagement with a French Privateer of 6 Guns, off Hispaniola, was blown up, and that her whole Crew, one Man excepted, perished.

February 2. Captain Marshall, who arrived here from Bristol about ten Days ago, informs us, That on the 23d of November last, he spoke with his Majesty's Ship the Lion, which a few Days before had retaken the King Ruby, from Maryland for London, that was taken on her Passage by a French Privateer; and the 23d of November also, Captain Marshall fell in with his Majesty's Ship the Hero, of 25 Guns, the Captain whereof intended to board that he had taken, a Dutch Frigate, which he had taken at Long-Island, Bayonne.

ANNAPOLIS, February 19.

We hear that Capt. James Smith, in a Brigantine belonging to this Province, from the West Indies, was lately and away about 20 Leagues to the Northwest of Cape Charles; the Vessel and Part of the Crew, &c. but the People saved.

Last Friday Evening, died, at his Father's House on the 1st of a confirmed Consumption, in the 23rd Year of his Age, Mr. BAIL DOWDY, junior, of this City, Attorney at Law; a young Gentleman of great Hopes, endowed with many valuable Qualifications, which, if ripened by Years, might have rendered him eminent in his Profession, and a conspicuous Character in social Life. But alas! what he had appeared at the Bar, and given Specimen of his Abilities, Death has prevented the full Expectations. He is cut off in the Bloom of Life, and universally regretted by a numerous Acquaintance.

Last Week Two Men were committed to Prison here, for breaking open and robbing a Store at the Head of South-River.

One Morning last Month, a young Infant was found Dead in a Well at Cheshire-Town in Kent County. It was drawn up by the Bucket, and had been there for some Time. It had a String round its Neck, was crammed into Part of a Shovel, and is supposed to have been tied to a Pair of Pot-Hooks which was found at the Bottom, to sink it. The supposed Mother is taken up and committed to Prison there.

Last Week a Woman in Baltimore County, who had lived near Diers-Creek, was committed to Prison at Jessa, for the Murder of a Ballard Child. She was often taxed with being with Child, but always denied it; and at the Time of her Travail, went to the Creek side, and was delivered by herself, and smothered the Child in. A few Days after, the dead Child being found by the Children of the House, and she being charged with it, confessed the Fact.

And on Tuesday Afternoon last, a Dead Female Child was found floating in a Pond in this Town, few'd up in a Linen Bag, supposed to have been cast above 4 or 5 Days since the Birth. A large Pin was stuck in the Hip of it, and some other Marks of Violence. The Mother (if Wretches of her Stamp may be call'd by that Appellation) is not yet deliver'd; but it is hop'd she will soon, now being the proper Time for Examination, not only that the Guilty may suffer, but that the Innocent and Virtuous may be cleared from the malicious Whispers and Aspersions of the ill-minded and Censorious.

ARTICLES of AGREEMENT between the English and Dutch.

English Demand.

THE Director and Council of Chincura shall give full Satisfaction to the President and Council of Fort-William, for the Insult offered to the British Flag by the Commanders of the Dutch Ships, and for the Detention of many of our Vessels, which were seized and stopped in the River, contrary to the Treaties which subsist between the two Nations, and for the other Acts of Hostility committed by the said Ships.

Dutch Answer. The Director and Council of Chincura declare, that as they have always been possessed with Sentiments of Peace, the Troubles which have happened to disturb the good Understanding between the two Nations, have only served to give them a sensible Pain, and every Thing which has passed below, with respect to the English Flag, and the Insults committed, is without their Order, and what they regret, and perhaps done by the People of the Ships, from a Misunderstanding of their Orders, with which they hope the Governor and Council will be fully satisfied.

English Demand II. The Director and Council of Chincura shall make good, both to the Company and Individuals, all Damages done by the Commanders of their Ships, whether by their Order or not; and shall immediately restore all the Vessels, Stores and Effects, which may still be in their Possession.

Dutch Answer. As the Dutch Vessels have also been much damaged, the real Loss will be willingly made good; but it is to be hoped the Governor and Council reflect equitably on this Article; and if they insist upon it, we shall endeavour to satisfy them.

Done at Garhelly, the 1st of December, 1759.
RICHARD BECHER, JOHN BACHERACHT,
JOHN COOKE, J. C. HIST.

Dutch Demand I. That the English shall effect the Nabob's Return, or, at least, to prevail on him to remain quiet in his Camp, without doing any Injury; and that the Articles of our Agreement be accepted, approved and confirmed by the Nabob's Principal, as far as they concern him, as well for the present as for the future.

English Answer. We have already made use of all our Interest with the Nabob, and shall continue to engage him to withdraw his Arms, the Moment the Dutch Governor has fulfilled his Orders. The Articles agreed on between the English and Dutch cannot be included in the Treaty which the Government of Hughley may conclude with the Nabob's Principal.

Dutch Demand II. That what has passed, during the Troubles which have now ceased, shall be mutually forgot; and an Assurance given of a perfect Friendship, Fidelity and Correspondence, being kept up between the two Nations, by their respective Chiefs, without permitting any Hostility on one Side or the other, on any Pretence whatsoever. That each shall do his utmost to preserve this Intelligence, and to contribute, as far as possible, to the Good of both, without assisting, directly or indirectly, those who would prejudice either.

English Answer. Approved, as far as is consistent with the Alliance between the Nabob and us, and while Friendship subsists between our Sovereigns in Europe.

Dutch Demand III. As we have neither acted by Declaration of War, nor by Commission, our Troops and Mariners cannot be considered as Prisoners of War, subject to a Capitulation; but merely as temporary Captives, and therefore ought to be set at Liberty, with all military Honours.

English Answer. We do not look upon the Dutch Officers and Troops as our Prisoners, but as those of the Nabob; and are therefore ready to release them, as soon as they have concluded their Treaty with him, except such as are willing to enter our Service, or who demand the Protection of the English Flag.

Dutch Demand IV. That they shall leave us in the free Possession of our Settlements, Commerce, Rights and Privileges.

English Answer. We have never interrupted the Dutch in their just Rights and Privileges, nor ever purpose doing it.

Dutch Demand V. That all the People, Possessions, Settlements, Lands, Houses, Ships and Vessels, belonging both to the Company and Individuals, and every Thing belonging thereto, shall be declared free and restored, in Presence of the Deputies appointed by both Parties, in their proper Condition.

English Answer. All the Ships and Vessels in our Possession shall be restored as soon as our Demands are complied with, or on an Assurance thereof given by the Director and Council of Hughley.

Dutch Demand VI. These Treaties to be exchanged with the Approbation of the Directors of both Companies, as soon as possible.

English Answer. Granted.

Dutch Demand VII. Finally, The two Parties shall be reciprocal Guarantees for the Execution of the preceding Articles.

English Answer. We do not see any Necessity for this Article.

Articles agreed upon by the Dutch Company with the Nabob, and ratified under the Hands and Seals of the Dutch Director and Council, and the Seal of the Company.

I. We will immediately send away the Europeans, Buccasses and Tilangas, that have been brought hither in our Ships, and we will dismiss the Europeans, Seapoys, and Burgundasses, lately entertained.

II. We will bring no more armed Forces into the Country of Bengal; nor ever make War in the Country, nor erect any Fortifications, nor make any military Preparations.

III. We will entertain no more than 125 European Soldiers in all our Factories established within the three Provinces.

IV. We will carry on our Trade with Peace and Quietness; and in case (which God forbid) our Business should meet with any Obstructions, Disputes, or Oppressions, we will apply for Redress to the Nazem of the Provinces.

The Substance of the Memorial presented by General Yorke to the States-General, concerning the Disputes in the East-Indies, is as follows:

"That their High Mightinesses were already informed by the public News Papers, of an Event as surprizing as irregular, in Consequence of the Conduct which the Dutch have held for some Time in the East-Indies, and lately in the River of Bengal; notwithstanding the Regard which the British Subjects had on every Occasion shewn for them: That their High Mightinesses must be greatly astonished to hear by his Memorial of that extraordinary and unexpected Event, but that they would be much more so on reading the Piece annexed to it, containing a minute Account, drawn up with the strictest Regard to Truth, of the Irregularity of the Behaviour of the Dutch, at a Time when they enjoyed all the Sweets of Peace, and all the Advantages of an unmolested Trade; at a Time, in short, when his Majesty, from his great Regard for their High Mightinesses, carefully avoided giving them the least Umbrage.

"That his Britannick Majesty was greatly struck to hear of the monstrous Proceedings of the Dutch in the East-Indies, and their mischievous Designs to destroy the Settlements of his Subjects there, which they would certainly have effected, had not his Majesty's victorious Arms brought them to Reason, though only three of his Ships engaged seven Dutch Ships, and obliged them to conclude an Accommodation: That his Majesty would willingly believe that their High Mightinesses gave no Orders for coming to such Extremities, and that the Directors of the India Company had no Hand therein: That, nevertheless, he (Mr. Yorke) was ordered to demand, in the Name of the King his Master, signal Satisfaction; and that all who should be found to have had any Share in this Offence, which manifestly tended to the Destruction of the British Settlements in that Country, should be exemplarily punished; and that their High Mightinesses should moreover give Orders that the Stipulations agreed on, the Day after the Action, between the Directors of the respective Companies, in Consideration of which the Dutch had their Ships restored, after they had acknowledged their Fault, and that they were the Aggressors, should be strictly complied with."

The Answer of the States-General to Mr. Yorke's Memorial concerning the Difference between the English and Dutch in India, hath been misrepresented. It imported, "That nothing had as yet come to the Knowledge of their High Mightinesses, of what their Subjects were charged with; that they requested his Britannick Majesty to suspend his Judgment till he should be exactly informed of the Grounds of those Disputes; and that his Majesty should have Reason to be satisfied with the exemplary Punishment of all who should be found to be concerned in that Affair."

BOSTON, January 5.

Tuesday in the Forenoon, his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, the Honourable his Majesty's Council, and House of Representatives, and a Number of other Gentlemen, waited upon his Excellency the Governor at the Province House; from whence they walked in Procession to the Council Chamber, being escorted by the Company of Cadets, commanded by Colonel Jarvis; the Regiment of Militia, commanded by Colonel Phillips, were mustered on the Occasion, and appeared under Arms in Kingstreet. About 12 o'Clock the Proclamation was read, and repeated with a loud Voice from the Balcony of the Court-House; and on finishing with God save the King, three Huzzas were given by a vast Concourse of People of all Ranks, assembled on this Occasion; which was followed by three Volleys from the Regiment of Militia and Company of Cadets; and upon a Signal given, 63 Pieces of Cannon were discharged at Castle-William, and also a Round at each of the Batteries in this Town, and at Charles-Town. In the Evening there were public Illuminations, and a handsome Entertainment provided at Faneuil-Hall, where the Health of his Majesty King GEORGE the THIRD, the Royal Family, and many other Loyal Healths were drank. The whole Ceremony was carried on and concluded with great Decency and good Decorum.

Thursday Morning all the Bells in this Town began to Toll on Account of the Death of his late Majesty King GEORGE the SECOND, and continued tolling most Part of the Day. And at Ten o'Clock, Minute Guns, to the Number of 77, the Years of his Majesty's Age, were Discharged at Castle-William.

The same Day his Excellency the Governor, and the two Houses of Assembly, attended Divine Service at the Old Brick Meeting House, where a Sermon was preached by the Reverend Mr. Cooper, upon the sorrowful Occasion of the Death of our late Most Gracious Sovereign GEORGE the SECOND. And,

In the Afternoon of the same Day, a Sermon was preached by the Reverend Mr. Caner, at the King's Chapel, where his Excellency, and the Members of the Court attended.

NEW-YORK, January 19.

On Thursday Afternoon last arrived here his Majesty's Ship Powey, Captain Toning, by whom his Honour the President received Dispatches, confirming the Death of our late Most Gracious Sovereign King GEORGE the SECOND, on the 25th of October 1760; as also Others for proclaiming his present Majesty; Duplicates of which his Honour likewise received by an Express from Boston the same Day, brought thither by Captain Vernon, in seven Weeks from London. In Consequence of which, Orders were issued on Friday for the Militia to appear under Arms the Day following, being Saturday, when, about Twelve o'Clock, his Majesty was proclaimed in Fort George, under the Discharge of a Royal Salute (Twenty One) from the Ramparts: After which his Honour, accompanied by his Excellency Governor Ellis, of Georgia, who arrived here a few Days ago, via Philadelphia, the Hon. his Majesty's Council, such Members of the General Assembly as were in Town, the Mayor and Corporation, the Clergy, and Numbers of other Gentlemen, walked in Procession up the Broad Way, headed by John Roberts, Esq; Sheriff, with his proper Officers, and escorted by Captain De Peyter's Grenadier Company, and the Troop of Horse under Lieut. M'Evers, through the Lines of the Militia formed by Colonel De Lancey, to the City-Hall, where the Proclamation was repeated, and a general Huzza given, under another Royal Salute from the Fort. From thence the Procession returned to Fort-George, where his Majesty's Health was drank, followed by a Royal Salute, and the Militia discharged; after which the King of Prussia's Health was drank, and a Royal Salute given on Account of his late glorious Victory over the Austrian grand Army under Count Daun. The Powey Man of War also gave a Royal Salute, as did the Earl of Halifax Packet-Boat, Captain Bolderfon, &c. and notwithstanding the Severity of the Weather, the Whole began and concluded with great Order and Decency.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Dec. 30.

Letters from Augusta, dated the 22d Inst. bring no favourable Accounts of the present Disposition of the Creek Nation. The Long-Warrior of Coweta inform'd, that a great Number of Creeks and Cherokees were to have a Meeting about the Middle of this Month, in the Forks of Okonih River, about 20 Miles beyond the upper Path leading to the Oakfuskees, which he thinks portends no Good. The Wolf was on his Way to Savannah, in Consequence of the Invitation given him by Governor Ellis, and repeated by Lieutenant Governor Wright, and was arrived at Ogeachy: He was accompanied by 12 other Indians, who served as an Escort to Mr. James Germany, the Trader of Mucculassah. Joseph Cornel, who arrived at Augusta the 21st, from the Upper Creek Nation, says, That the Indians were insolent to the last Degree, and publicly threatened to cut off the Traders in the Spring, some say in February, others in March: That the Wolf continued our Friend, but he believed it would not be in his Power to prevent the French and Cherokee Party striking a Blow soon: That the Mortar continued indefatigable in Behalf of the Cherokees; and his Brother openly declared, he would kill the English Traders as well in the Nation as on the Road to Augusta: And that the Wolf desired him (Cornel) if he, on his Way down should meet any Traders with Goods going up, to stop them from proceeding till he came down.

December 31. We have certain Advices from the Southward, that the Creeks and Cherokees were to have a Meeting in the Woods about this Time.

The Creek Indians still continue coming to Savannah, but none of them pretend to have any Authority from their Nation. The well known Simprofeey, or Pool-Harry, and the Young Lieutenant, are two of the Creeks that were to have the Meeting with the Cherokees. The Mortar continues his Attachment to the French; at the same Time the Wolf-King remains staunch to the British Interest, and intends to come down soon to see the Governors.

There have been no French Privateers since 1753 in the Harbour of St. Augustine, nor have any additional Works been made there, or the former repaired, since the Commencement of the present War.

Yesterday four Chickesaws arrived in Town, with a Talk to his Honour from Piamingo, who is at Augusta, and is soon to return Home, when he will go out against the Cherokees.

The Little Carpenter (Attakullakulla) returned to Colonel Byrd's Camp punctually at his Time, with such white Prisoners as he was able to purchase from the other Indians. He would have destroyed Lantiniac, and his Companions; but was told by the Indians, if he did so, they would destroy the white Prisoners. Lantiniac brought only one Keg of Powder, a little Brandy, and a few Knives and Hatchets, as Presents. This Attakullakulla thinks will have no bad Effect, but on the contrary convince the Indians of the Poverty of the French, and their Inability to help them. He set out from the Camp, on his Return, about the 1st Inst. having with his People received handsome Presents from the Government of Virginia. His Party begins to increase in the Nation.

Jan. 10. On Tuesday and Thursday arrived five large Transports from New-York (under Convoy of his Majesty's Ship Nightingale, Captain Campbell) having on board upwards of 1100 Rank and File of his Majesty's Troops, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel James Grant. These Troops are destined to act against the Cherokees, and will stay here no longer than is absolutely necessary. Six Mohawks are also arrived with the Troops.

On Thursday some unfavourable Accounts were received from Augusta, dated the 5th Instant. The Wolf had been there 13 Days, but seemed to decline the Visit he intended to make to Georgia and this Province: His Return to the Creek Nation may be attended with very bad Consequences.

Jan. 14. On Thursday last forty Waggon came to Monck's Corner from the back Settlements: Large Quantities of Provisions having been sent by the Contractors to Watboo-Landing, for the Magazines on the Frontiers; these Waggon are employed in that Service.

The Barracks, on which a great Number of Hands were employed, being put into Repair, agreeable to the Orders issued by the Governor, the Troops from New-York Yesterday began to disembark; they are in Number about twelve Hundred. We hear Quarters will be provided in Town for such of the Officers as cannot be accommodated in the Barracks. 'Tis thought the Troops will remain here some Time, the Want of Forage rendering a March to the Westward at present impracticable.

The South Carolina Regiment of Rangers, commanded by Major William Thomson, is complete, viz. 525 Men, exclusive of Officers, and is continued in Pay.

Jan. 17. The Negroes, it seems, have again begun the hellish Practice of Poisoning. A Fellow called Abraham, belonging to Mr. John Gibbons, and a Wench of Mr. George Fickling, were executed last Wednesday, on Wadmelah Island, convicted of that Crime. Mr. Fickling was the Person poisoned, but having speedy Recourse to Caesar's Antidote, he recovered.

Jan. 21. On Saturday last, on a Message from his Honour the Governor, the Honourable the Commons House of Assembly Resolved to make Provision for continuing the seven Companies of Rangers in the Pay of this Province till October next, and for raising and paying another Troop of Rangers, to consist, as the former, of a Captain, two Lieutenants, and 75 Privates. The House have likewise provided Pay for an Adjutant, Quarter-master, and Surgeon, for the Rangers, and a Sum to purchase a Medicine Chest. The Captains, Lieutenants, and Surgeon, of the Rangers, have the same Pay as the Officers of the like Rank in the Provincial Regiment of Foot. By another Resolution, the House Resolved to make good any Deficiency that may have arisen in the Money provided for the Pay of the Rangers to the first of December last.

The new Company of Rangers, we are assured from good Hands, will be immediately filled up, when that Regiment, commanded by Major Thomson, will consist of six Hundred, exclusive of Officers.

Letters from Augusta of 29th ult. and 4th Instant, received last Thursday say, That our old firm Friend the Wolf King of Mucculassah, in the Creek Nation, had been there for some Time, and was preparing to set out for Savannah to see Governor Wright, whence he will come to Charles-Town to see Governor Bull. He seemed well satisfied, and by a Letter of 11th Instant we learn he was to go to Savannah next Day.

The Cherokees and Creeks seem to be determined to keep up the War; which will, no Doubt, end in the Destruction of both.

Now in the Port of Charles-Town, three of his Majesty's Ships of 20 Guns, five large Transport Ships, one Privateer Brig, and the following Merchant Vessels, viz. 21 Ships, 8 Snows, 20 Brigs, 5 Schooners, and 12 Sloops: In all 75 Sail.

This Day arrived a Messenger from the Cherokees with Dispatches to his Honour from Mr. Miln, Commandant of Fort Prince-George, Ken- wee.

Fort Prince-George, Jan. 9th, 1761. "The Young Warrior of Estatoe, with ten other Indians of that Town, went down towards the Settlements about 25th ult. and about two Miles from Beaversdams came up with two Men, supposed to be of the Rangers, one of whom they scalped, and laid his dead Body across the Road, the other made his Escape. The Indians of Settiquo tied one of the Women belonging to the Garrison of Fort Led-down to a Stake, and shot her full of Arrows, in which miserable Condition she died. We learn that the Indians of Tellico and Settiquo declare they will put every white Prisoner to Death whenever they hear of an Army being at Ninety-six, and they have sent down Powder and Ball to these Lower Towns People, with Orders to watch the Road, and give them Notice of the Approach of an Army; for this Purpose Scouts are constantly kept out, and as one Party comes in another goes out, whereby the Road is never clear. There seems as little Prospect of an Accommodation as when they first broke out. We expect Major Thomson will soon make us another Visit. I have seen several Winters in the North of Scotland, and do not think I ever felt it colder than here at this Time; the Snow is in general three Quarters of a Yard deep, attended with very sharp Frosts."

Jan. 11. I dispatched the Express last Night; he went as far as Twelve-mile River, where he heard the Noise of a Hatchet as employed in cutting Wood, and presently after discovered two Fires on the opposite or Eastern Side of the River, one at each Fording Place; this made him return with as much haste as possible, being afraid they might take his Track as the Snow lay thick on the Ground; he got back to the Fort undiscovered."

"I had this Day the following Intelligence: The Indians of these Lower Towns are all in a starving Condition, not having a Grain of Corn to eat, and instead of their Chiniz and Callico Petticoats, they are now making them of Deer Skin. The Creeks have sent Runners to these Indians (the Lower Towns) inviting them to the Creek Nation, where they are to be protected, and in 3 Days they set off in consequence of this Invitation and Promise: The Creeks have likewise promised the other Towns of the Nation, that they will assist them if they are attacked by the English. Occanostota is returned from the French Fort with Powder and Ball, accompanied with some Frenchmen, but how many I cannot learn. None of the Indians, possessed of white Prisoners, will part with them unless they are paid for them. The Young Warrior sent me Word, that as he was now going out of the Nation (to the Creeks) I would see who were Rogues when he was gone. He says the Standing-Turkey put the Hatchet into his Hands, and bid him carry on the War; and particularly that he ordered him to way lay the Express that brought the last Peace-Talk from the Middle-Settlements, kill him, and take the Letters."

We learn from Ninety-six of 14th Instant, that the Indians who lay in wait for Richard Robertson, the last Messenger sent up, killed a poor Man whom they took for him, by which Means Robertson got up safe.

Captain Bell at Ninety-six having received Intelligence that M'Gunningham and James Welsh, with a Squaw in Fort Ninety-six, were Spies for the Indians, sent them down to Congarees under a Guard, on the 14th Instant: the two last were delivered as Prisoners at the Camp, but M'Gunningham got off.

Monday last Captain Moultrie set out from the Camp at Congarees, with a Detachment, to escort thirty Waggon loaded with Flour to the Magazine at Ninety-six.

BOSTON, January 26.

Captain Furlong, late of a Schooner, bound from Quebec to New-York, arrived here Yesterday Passenger in a Vessel from Halifax, and informs. That after he left the River St. Lawrence, he met with very bad Weather, which obliged him to lay to; when, on the 13th of November, at Ten o'Clock at Night, his Vessel drove on Isle-Sable:—He had on board Major Elliot, with his Lady, and a Party of about 50 regular Troops, who all got on Shore safe, excepting two of the Seamen that were drowned. When they landed, they found the Company of another Schooner, which had been cast away a few Days before, one Potter, Master, belonging to Ipswich, and was bound from Louisburg for Boston:—There being no Place for Habitation, or Wood for Fuel, on the Island, they took the Sails of the Vessels to make a Covering, and Pieces of the Wrecks served for Firing, it being exceeding cold Weather. There were a Number of live Cattle on the Island; but they saved little or no Bread, nor indeed scarce any Thing that belonged to the Vessels.—After being seven Weeks in this deplorable Condition, they discovered a Marblehead Schooner making towards them; but the Sea running high, and the Weather very boisterous, only the above Captain Furlong, and some of the Seamen could get on board: They immediately failed for Halifax, leaving the Major, with his Lady, and about Fifty others behind; who were in Health, except Captain Potter.

The above Marblehead Schooner was fitted out by the People of that Place, in Quest of one of their Fishing Schooners, which had been missing from the Banks the last Fishing Season, and supposed to be on the above Island Sable; but tho' they had not the Pleasure of finding their Brethren here, yet they came very opportunely to the Relief of others in Distress.—Upon the Arrival of the above Schooner at Halifax, Commodore Lord Colvill ordered one of the Tenders to accompany the Marblehead Schooner, which was taken into Pay to proceed immediately to Island Sable, to bring off those left behind.

NEW-YORK, February 12.

We hear that the Ship General Johnson, from Jamaica for this Port, is aground near Shrewsbury. On Saturday Evening arrived Capt. Jordan, in a Sloop from Maryland, bound to this Place, but meeting with bad Weather was obliged to put into New-Port; we hear most of his People were frost-bitten.

Friday last Captain Stewart arrived here in 21 Days from St. Eustatia, in whom came three Seamen late belonging to the Sloop Dolphin, of New-Haven, Gadwell, Master. They inform us, That being bound to Antigua, within about 12 Leagues of it, on the 20th December last, they were taken by a French Privateer of 8 Guns, and 45 Men, Peiton, Commander, and that she was sent up to Martinico, together with the Capt. who soon got to Eustatia. These Men were kept ten Days on board the Privateer, when they came across a Dutch Ship bound to that Island, on board of whom they were put.

They also inform us, that another Sloop, called the Ruby, belonging to New-Haven, Phineas Cook, Master, outward bound, was taken about ten Days after by a French Privateer Sloop of 15 Guns, after two Hours smart Engagement; when the Frenchmen boarded Cook, they used him extremely ill, running a Broad Sword through his Arm, and beating him about with the Butt End of a Gun, inasmuch that his Life was despaired of. This Prize Monsieur sent into St. Martins.

By a Letter received lately from Lambert Garrison, Master of the Brig Young William, of this Port, who failed from Bristol the 29th October, bound to New-York, we have an Account of his being obliged to put into St. Christophers by Strefs of Weather, having lain on his Beam-Ends, and has had Four and a Half Feet Water in his Hold; all his Spars, and some of his Water, washed off his Deck, whereby said Vessel was rendered unfit to come upon this Coast: The greatest Part of his Cargo is damaged.

Friday last the Billander William and Anne, Captain Hespil, arrived here from London, with King's Stores, after a tedious Passage of fourteen Weeks.

We hear there are now not less than 15 Privateers belonging to Hispaniola, and that they met with great Success; one of them took Captain Prince, in a Sloop belonging to this Port, off Cow Harbour, the Day he failed from Kingston, in Jamaica.

Friday last the Garrison of Detroit arrived here from Philadelphia, about 40 in Number, and were immediately sent to Long-Island.

The Sloop Dove, Fenton, Master, belonging to this Port, is taken by a French Privateer, and carried into Santa-Croix.

PHILADELPHIA, February 19.

Capt. Washington, from Jamaica, on the Sixth of January, off Cape Nichola, spoke with Capt. Hickey, in the Sloop Pine-Apple, bound to Monto Christi from Virginia. And two Days after he fell in with a Privateer belonging to New-Providence, the Commander of which informed him, that he had spoke with a Providence Vessel, a Wrecker, that had taken several Men off the Hogtides, that were cast away there in a large Ship from Jamaica, which is supposed to be the Eagle Galley, of Bristol, Captain Nash, as the same Day a large lower Mast, without any Rigging on it, was seen floating along Side Captain Washington's Vessel.

ANNAPOLIS, February 26.

Last Friday his Excellency our Governor, in Council, was pleased to Prorogue the General Assembly of this Province, which stood Prorogued to the 9th of March next, to Monday the 23d Day of the same Month.

Monday last the Coroner's Inquest, on the Body of the Infant found Murder'd in a Pond, as mentioned last Week, ended; but were not able to discover the Murderer.

WANTED,

A MAN who understands the Management of a WIND-MILL. Such a One will meet with good Encouragement, by applying to the Subscriber at Herring-Bay.

SAMUEL CREW.

STOLEN from the Subscriber, near Upper-Marlborough, in the Night of the 24th of November last, a Black Horse, about 17 Years old, 13 Hands high, branded on one of his Buttocks with S, has several Saddle Spots about his Withers, a Switch Tail, a hanging Mane, paces and gallops, and trots, especially up a rising Ground. The Person suspected to have stole him, is one Thomas Hamilton, an Irishman, who said he was going to Annapolis on an Errand of Col. Taylor's in Virginia, and that he was Col. Taylor's Overseer. It is likely he will sell the Horse, as I expect he will tire or founder, the said Hamilton having with him a large Luggage, consisting of Broad-Cloth, striped Holland, a very good Saddle, and Housings with a Silk Fringe.

If he is Sold, and any Person will inform the Subscriber, or if he is offered to Sale, will stop him so as he may be had again, shall have Thirty Shillings Reward from

BASIL BURGESS.

STOLE from the Subscriber's Stable, on Friday Evening the 29th of January, a half-worn brown Hunting Saddle, and a checked Swan-Skin Saddle Cloth; with a Pair of remarkable double eyed Brafs Stirrups; and a Pelham Bridle with double Reins.

Whoever finds the Saddle and Bridle, and returns them, shall receive Twenty Shillings Reward; but any Person detecting the Thief, so that he may be convicted of the Crime, shall have a Reward of Forty Shillings, paid by RICHARD TOOTELL.

WHEREAS the Act of Assembly of this Province, made and passed in 1733, for emitting and making current Ninety Thousand Pounds, is near Expiring; The Commissioners of the Loan Office therefore think it their Duty, to inform all those who have any Bonds in that Office, to come and discharge the same; otherwise they will be proceeded against as the Law directs.

Signed per Order,

ROBERT COUDEN, Cl. P. C. Office.

To be SOLD by the Commissioners of the Paper Currency, at PUBLIC VENDUE, on Wednesday the 11th of March next, being the second Day of Anne-Arundel County Court, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the House of William Reynolds, in the City of Annapolis, for Paper Currency,

THE following Tracts of LAND, lying in the County aforesaid, viz.

Hazard, containing 60 Acres.

THE Sloop LITTLE BOB, a prime Sailer, Burthen One Hundred and Six Tons, and will carry about Five Thousand Bushels of Grain.

Any one inclinable to Freight or Charter the said Vessel, is desired to apply to John Pitt in Annapolis.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of Mr. Turner Weston, late of Prince-George's County, deceased, are required to make speedy Payment; and those who have any Demands against the said Estate, are desired to bring in the same to

WM. TURNER WOOTTON, Administrator.

RAN away on the 25th of January last, a Servant Man (belonging to the Estate of the late Mr. Patrick Creagh) named Thomas Alder, by Trade a Wheel-wright; he is a short well-set Fellow, about 35 Years old, pitted with the Small-Pox, and stoops in his Shoulders and Neck, and when he looks up or talks, he turns his Head to the right Side, he has light Eyes, is of a fandy Complexion, and talks quick. He had on when he went away, a light brown Kersey Coat, with short Skirts and a small Cuff turn'd up, a striped Flannel Jacket, a Pair of old Leather Breeches, a white Shirt, and a cock'd Hat. He served his Time to the late Mr. Alexander Lawson, at the Iron-Works in Baltimore County, and it is supposed that he is gone that Way, and intends to make for Philadelphia.

Whoever takes up the said Runaway, and brings him to me, shall have a Reward of three Pounds Currency, and reasonable Charges allowed; and if taken out of the Province, and brought home, Five Pounds, and reasonable Charges, paid by

RICHARD MACKUBIN.

On the First Day of MARCH next, will be Exposed to Sale on the Premises, being on Front-Street, opposite or near to the Sign of the White-Horse, in BALTIMORE-TOWN,

TWO LOTS, No. 13 and 14, with all Improvements thereon, consisting of the following Buildings, to wit, A good Dwelling-House 80 by 18, near new, completely finished, the same having Four Rooms below, Three whereof with Fire-Places, and also a good Kitchen and Cellar, with other Conveniences, such as Smoke-House, Oven, Garden, Wood Yard, Necessary House, &c. The Apartments above are Three Rooms with Fire-Places, and other proper Rooms for Servants or Lumber. The Whole is well adapted either for a private or public House.

The Terms of Sale will be easy, the Subscriber requiring only about one Half of the Purchase-Money to be paid at the Time of Sale, and will give one Year's Credit for the Residue, on Security if required.

THOMAS CLINDINNING.

N. B. If any Gentleman is inclinable to make a private Purchase, he may know the Terms by applying to the Subscriber, now living on the Premises.

Baltimore County, December 15, 1760.

THIS is to give Notice to all Persons indebted to Mr. Joseph Smith, late at Quinn's Iron-Works, to make immediate Payment; and those who have any Demands against him, are desired to give in the same to
