T H U R S D A Y, J U N E 7, 1770.

L E G H O R N, Feb. 27.

MUSCOVITE Man of War, of 72 Guns, entered our Port the Day before Yesterday, and another of 60 Guns arrived here this Day. We learn from the Crew that the Russian Admiral had dispatched several Frigates from Port Mahon for the Archipelago, and that he himself departed, in order to follow them, the 3d Instant. Some Vessels are still at Mahon, waiting for the Arrival of Admiral Elphinstone; after which they are to join the Russian Fleet, at the Isle of Wisdom, and proceed on their Route to the Archipelago.

CAGLIARI, Feb. 14. We have a Report just spread here, that a Russian Frigate, of 22 Guns, has perished on the Coast of Barbary. In the late Hurricane, 120 Ships, of different Nations, have been lost on the Coasts of Italy.

VENICE, Feb. 28. The Inhabitants of one of the Cyclades having lately risen against some Ottoman Troops who had landed on the Island, the Grand Signior, in Revenge, immediately sent thither a Detachment of Janizaries, who first massacred some hundreds of the richest Jews, and afterwards put the rest of the Inhabitants to the Sword.

March 1. We are informed from Barcelona, that ten Spanish Men of War are cruising in the Straights of Gibraltar, to observe the Motions of the Russian Fleet; and the last Letters from Provence assure, that there are actually in the Ports of that Province 22 new Ships of the Line, 10 Frigates, and six Chebecs, ready to put to Sea.

March 3. The Arrival of the Russian Fleet gives a great deal of Uneasiness to the Divan. All the Greeks, who inhabit the Morea, have just been disarmed anew; and the Pacha of Salonica has signified to the Inhabitants of Macedonia, that if they give Room for suspecting that they carry on the least Correspondence with the Russians, they shall be directly put to the Sword, their Effects confiscated, and their Houses destroyed from the very Foundation.

From the Frontiers of ITALY, March 6. The last Letters from the Levant mention that the Russian Fleet had appeared at the Islands of Cephalonia and Zante, in the Ionick Sea; and that they had failed, with a fair Wind, for the Morea. We expect therefore soon to receive some important News from thence.

DANTZICK, Feb. 24. Though Letters have been received here, that Brigadier Prince Gallitzin had entirely dispersed the Confederates some Miles from Warfaw; yet other Accounts declare that the Confederates, to the Amount of 3000, having marched towards that Capital, the Russians advanced to attack them, and engaged with 1800 of them near the Village of Terpilow, but were obliged to retreat to Gnatowie, which they burnt, with several other Villages, and continued retiring, till they took Shelter in the Church and House of the regular Canons at Blonia, which the Confederates attacked with two Pieces of Artillery. On this the Muscovites sallied out Sword in Hand, in order to cut their Way through the Enemy, but the greatest Part of them perished in the Attempt.

MADRID, March 6. The King has made several military Promotions. His Majesty has ordered the Expenses of his Household to be greatly diminished. A Man of War of 80 Guns has been entirely destroyed by Fire in the Port of Carthagena; and the other Ships, as well as the City, narrowly escaped the Conflagration. We continue sending from the Ports of this Kingdom, Troops and warlike Stores to our different American Colonies.

L O N D O N, March 10.

Sunday a Man harangued upwards of 500 of the Mob, from an Eminence erected for him under the Walls of the King's Bench Prison, treasonably exciting them to take up Arms against his Majesty, of whom he spoke in the most scurrilous and audacious Terms; read the City Remonstrance to them, with the King's Answer thereto, and made most impudent and treasonable Remarks thereon; notwithstanding which he was suffered to escape with Impunity.

One of the Noblemen, summoned to Court, to be present on the Delivery of the City Remonstrance, was asking another Nobleman what they were sent for there; to which he replied, "Why to be sure, my Lord, to have a Sight of the horned Cattle." "Nay, my Lord, (returned the other) if I may judge of some of our Fraternity whom I see amongst us (looking earnestly at a noble Duke) I should rather imagine the Citizens came here for that Purpose."

March 21. We are informed, that if any more Notice should be taken of Lord Chatham's Words in the House of Peers, respecting the Dismission of the late Lord Chancellor (Camden); that those Two Noblemen have concerted Matters as to produce Proofs of the Truth of his Assertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majesty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he should think himself obliged at all Times to stand up in Defence of his Majesty's just Rights; but that he should also think himself a Traitor to his Country to screen any base Transactions from the People, who were so amazingly cheated.

Informations are filed against the Author of Numbers III and IV of a political Paper, called THE WHISPERER.

March 22. A Member of the Upper Club, made the following Remarks on Monday, when speaking of the assumed Power of a certain Assembly; "That should a Majority therein take it into their Heads to vote themselves perpetual, for the Good of the Nation, he could not see how they could be prevented, as that honourable Club had solemnly declared it beyond their Province, to interfere with the Divisions of those Self-Electors."

March 24. Some Advices lately received from a respectable Personage at Petersburg, say, that the Thoughts of Kerim Kan, Emperor of Persia, taking up Arms to make a Diversion in Favour of the Russians, in the present War with the Turks, are now entirely subdued.

March 26. A Gentleman lately arrived in Town from Carthagena, says, that in that Harbour are several First Rate Men of War, besides Frigates, ready to put to Sea at a few Hours Notice. The same Gentleman says, he was assured, that in every other Port of Spain there were Men of War and Frigates, all well manned, and ready for immediate Service.

Letters from Vienna contradict the Reports in some of the Foreign Prints, that the Court of Ispahan had commenced Hostilities against the Turks; on the contrary, a Treaty of Friendship is actually concluding between the Persians and Grand Signior.

By various Accounts from the East, it appears, that from Barbarities already practised by the Turks upon the Greeks, and other conquered People under the Turkish Dominions, and the Dread of much greater Sufferings from the Rage and Resentment the Success the Russian Arms may Occasion, they are ready in almost every Place to revolt and rise against their Oppressors.

It is reported, that a celebrated Banker from Brussels is now in London, endeavouring to obtain from the Relations of the unfortunate Duke of St. Alban's, who has for some Years been a Prisoner at Brussels, a Sum of Money to satisfy his Flemish Creditors, and to obtain his Discharge; which humane Commission is likely to be attended with Success, and at length, for the Honour of his Family, this long exiled Peer will be restored to his Native Country and Dignity.

March 27. We shall not burn the City Remonstrance, said one in the Ministry, the other Day, to a Gentleman in the Opposition. I think you are right, returned the latter. Why? asked the Courtier. Because, if you did, it would certainly inflame the Minds of his Majesty's Subjects.

Among the many Houses that suffered from the ungovernable Rage of the Mob, on Thursday Night last, was his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's House in Pall-mall, most of the Windows of which were broke; and one of the Servants narrowly escaped having his Brains beat out with a Stone, weighing near a Pound.

Several thousand Georgians have revolted in a Body against the Ottoman Porte. Prince Heraclius is become very formidable, by his great Superiority of Genius. To the military Art of the Turks he has joined the Knowledge acquired during his Residence in Europe.

March 28. We are informed that the Duty on Teas, as well as on other Goods sent to America, will be taken off. The Duty it now pays will be collected in a different Mode, which will be agreeable to all Parties.

To prevent any Family Discontents, or Expence attending Divorces, it is proposed (as Gallantry is become so fashionable among our married People of Quality) that it be always inserted, as one of the principal Marriage Articles, that every Lady be at Liberty to have her Cicisbeo, and the Gentleman to have his Mistress, as is practised in Italy, to prevent any Dispute or Inconvenience on Account of little Familiarities either Party may choose to indulge themselves in.

It is said a certain Paper was, on Monday, censured by a very high Assembly.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Passenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Groyne, under Pretence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Corunna, Dec. 18, 1769.

"This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troublesome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are imprisoned in an Island separate from the Town, and have not spoke to the Consul General, nor the Vice Consul, nor any other Person; neither are they suffered to come and see us. We came here very wet, and were put in Prison in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a hard Floor for three or four Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. These are the Hardships which we now undergo, and what we shall suffer more God only knows! I know not. My Service to the Consul at Vigo. When you write to me desire the Consul to direct your Letter to Mr. Bankes, our Consul General."

A young Nobleman, recently married, has, within the Space of eighteen Months, reduced an Estate of 21,000*l.* per Annum to 3000*l.* by gaming with first rate Sharpers.

A late head Waiter, at a certain noted Gaming House at the West End of the Town, has lately retired from Business, on a Fortune of 1000*l.* per Annum, which he acquired chiefly by lending Money to Noblemen and Gentlemen at late Hours in the Night, when they were run out of Cash at the Gaming Table, for which they all allowed him the moderate Interest of half a Crown in the Pound, and gave him Draughts, or Notes payable in 48 Hours, for all Sums borrowed of him.

On Thursday last was held a Court of Assistance of the Goldsmiths Company, when they came to the following Resolution, which was proposed, and agreed to, without a single Hand being held up against it:

The Right Hon. the Lord Mayor having issued Precepts for summoning the Livery of this City to meet at Guildhall on Tuesday the 6th Instant, to consider of a farther Application for Redress of Grievances; at which Meeting a most indecent Remonstrance was ordered to be presented to his Majesty;

Resolved, and ordered, that for the future, the Wardens of this Company do not summon the Livery thereof to attend at any Meeting in Guildhall (except for the Purpose of Elections) without the express Approbation or Consent of this Court.

The Weavers Company have resolved the same.

Some very interesting Advices have been received from Gibraltar, respecting the Motions of the Spaniards in that Neighbourhood.

April 3. A Policy of Insurance is open at Jonathan's upon the Ears of that celebrated Patriot Mr. William Moore, Author of the Whisperm, but at a very high Premium.

The sagacious Lord Mayor, whose Penetration is equal to his other shining Qualities, has discovered that Mr. Moore is hired by Lord North to abuse his Majesty and his Ministers.

Upon a Motion being made in a certain Club for desiring the K— to prosecute the Author of some late atrocious Libels, a Law Officer said, there was no Occasion for this Motion, as Prosecutions were commenced. Mr. B. said, it was the Duty of M— to prosecute any Libellers, whether of M— or private Men. Lord N— (the Premier) said, "They would prosecute those who libelled the K—; but as for himself, he cared not how they abused him."

April 6. A patriotic Serjeant has lately been heard to declare, that the Prosecutions carried on by Ad— against Mr. Wilkes, have not cost the Nation less than 100,000*l.*

We hear that at the last Board of Admiralty some important Matters, in Regard to lending a Number of Ships to the West-Indies, were a considerable Time under Consideration.

Letters from Germany bring Advice, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick will shortly pay a Visit to the King of France, on Matters of Importance.

A Correspondent says, it is certain some Propositions of a very singular Nature have been made within these few Days to John Wilkes, Esq; which he has thought of such Moment as to require Time to consult his Friends.

It is reported, that at the next Meeting of the Supporters of the Bill of Rights, the Sum of Money wanting to discharge all Mr. Wilkes's Debts will be advanced by the Society, and an Order given to the Treasurer for Payment.

The Source of all our Disquiet (say the old Politicians) seems to be a general Contempt for the Character of the People in Power. This, more than their real Deeds, weighs them down. Their Neglect of foreign Affairs is shameful and notorious, their Conduct in America oppressed and absurd, and their late Proceedings here dangerous and unconstitutional; and yet, as the Effects of these Measures are not immediate, the Multitude, who never reason, would give them Credit for them, had they any Opinion either of their Talents or Worth. Forty or Fifty Years ago we required other Stuff to make Statuettes of, than seems to be in Demand at present; as in those Days neither my L—d G—, nor my L—d S—, nor my L—d W—, nor even R—d R—, would have had much Chance for Employment.

Advices from Paris, dated March 25, import, "That some Persons belonging to Rochelle and St. Malo, have requested of the King Two Ships, in order to trade to India; and his Majesty, willing to encourage Commerce and Navigation, had granted them Two Vessels, the Brillon and Penthièvre, which were among the Number of those that the India Company had ceded to him."

It is said that the Middlesex Remonstrance is intended to be presented on Friday next.

The Military Gentlemen at Chatham, are indefatigable in their Endeavours to prevent a Remonstrance from the County of Kent.

Yesterday a grand Entertainment was given by the Lord Mayor, at the Mansion-House, at which were present, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of

Among the many Houses that suffered from the ungovernable Rage of the Mob, on Thursday Night last, was his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's House in Pall-mall, most of the Windows of which were broke; and one of the Servants narrowly escaped having his Brains beat out with a Stone, weighing near a Pound.

Several thousand Georgians have revolted in a Body against the Ottoman Porte. Prince Heraclius is become very formidable, by his great Superiority of Genius. To the military Art of the Turks he has joined the Knowledge acquired during his Residence in Europe.

March 28. We are informed that the Duty on Teas, as well as on other Goods sent to America, will be taken off. The Duty it now pays will be collected in a different Mode, which will be agreeable to all Parties.

To prevent any Family Discontents, or Expenditure attending Divorces, it is proposed (as Gallantry is become to fashionable among our married People of Quality) that it be always inserted, as one of the principal Marriage Articles, that every Lady be at Liberty to have her Cicisbeo, and the Gentleman to have his Mistress, as is practised in Italy, to prevent any Dispute or Inconvenience on Account of little Familiarities either Party may choose to indulge themselves in.

It is said a certain Paper was, on Monday, censured by a very high Assembly.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Passenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Cayenne, under Pretence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Cayenne, Dec. 18, 1769.

"This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troublesome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are imprisoned in an Island separate from the Town, and have not spoke to the Consul General, nor the Vice Consul, nor any other Person; neither are they suffered to come and see us. We came here very wet, and were put in Prison in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a hard Floor for three or four Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. There are the Hardships which we now undergo, and what we shall suffer more God only knows! I know not. My Service to the Consul at Vigo. When you write to me, desire the Consul to direct your Letter to Mr. Banker, our Consul General."

A young Nobleman, recently married, has, within the Space of eighteen Months, reduced an Estate of 21,000*l.* per Annum to 2000*l.* by gaming with first rate Sharpers.

A late head Waiter, at a certain noted Gaming House at the West End of the Town, has lately retired from Business, on a Fortune of 1000*l.* per Annum, which he acquired chiefly by lending Money to Noblemen and Gentlemen at late Hours in the Night, when they were run out of Cash at the Gaming Table, for which they all allowed him the moderate Interest of half a Crown in the Pound, and gave him Draughts, or Notes payable in 48 Hours, for all Sums borrowed of him.

On Thursday last was held a Court of Assistance of the Goldsmiths Company, when they came to the following Resolution, which was proposed, and agreed to, without a single Hand being held up against it.

The Right Hon. the Lord Mayor having issued Precepts for summoning the Livery of this City to meet at Guildhall on Tuesday the 6th Instant, to consider of a farther Application for Redress of Grievances, at which Meeting a most indecent Remonstrance was ordered to be presented to his Majesty.

Resolved, and ordered, that for the future, the Wardens of this Company do not summon the Livery thereof to attend at any Meeting in Guildhall, (except for the Purpose of Elections) without the express Approbation or Consent of this Court.

The Weavers Company have resolved the same. Some very interesting Advices have been received from Gibraltar, respecting the Motions of the Spaniards in that Neighbourhood.

April 3. A Policy of Insurance is open at Jonathan's upon the Ears of that celebrated Patriot Mr. William Moore, Author of the Whisperm, but at a very high Premium.

The sagacious Lord Mayor, whose Penetration is equal to his other shining Qualities, has discovered that Mr. Moore is hired by Lord North to abuse his Majesty and his Ministers.

Upon a Motion being made in a certain Club for defusing the K— to prosecute the Author of some late atrocious Libels, a Lay Officer said, there was no Occasion for this Motion, as Prosecutions were commenced. Mr. B. said, it was the Duty of M— to prosecute any Libellers, whether of M— or private Men. Lord N— (the Premier) said, "They would prosecute those who libelled the K— but as for himself, he cared not how they abused him."

April 6. A patriotic Serjeant has lately been heard to declare, that the Prosecutions carried on by Ad— against Mr. Wilkes, have not cost the Nation less than 100,000*l.*

We hear that at the last Board of Admiralty some important Matters, in Regard to lending a Number of Ships to the West-Indies, were a considerable Time under Consideration.

Letters from Germany bring Advice, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick will shortly pay a Visit to the King of France, on Matters of Importance.

A Correspondent says, it is certain some Propositions of a very singular Nature have been made within these few Days to John Wilkes, Esq; which he has thought of such Moment as to require Time to consult his Friends.

It is reported, that at the next Meeting of the Supporters of the Bill of Rights, the Sum of Money wanting to discharge all Mr. Wilkes's Debts will be advanced by the Society, and an Order given to the Treasurer for Payment.

The Source of all our Disquiet (say the old Politicians) seems to be a general Contempt for the Character of the People in Power. This, more than their real Deeds, weighs them down. Their Neglect of foreign Affairs is shameful and notorious; their Conduct in America oppressed and absurd; and their late Proceedings here dangerous and unconstitutional; and yet, as the Effects of these Measures are not immediate, the Multitude, who never reason, would give them Credit for them, had they any Opinion either of their Talents or Worth. Forty or Fifty Years ago we required other Stuff to make Statesmen of, than seems to be in Demand at present; as in those Days neither my Lord G—, nor my Lord S—, nor my Lord W—, nor even Lord R—, would have had much Chance for Employment.

Advices from Paris, dated March 25, import, "That some Persons belonging to Rochelle and St. Malo, have requested of the King Two Ships, in order to trade to India; and his Majesty, willing to encourage Commerce and Navigation, had granted them Two Vessels, the Brillson and Penthièvre, which were among the Number of those that the India Company had ceded to him."

It is said that the Middlesex Remonstrance is intended to be presented on Friday next.

The Military Gentlemen at Chatham, are indefatigable in their Endeavours to prevent a Remonstrance from the County of Kent.

Yesterday a grand Entertainment was given by the Lord Mayor, at the Mansion-House, at which were present, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of the Minority of both Houses of Parliament: the Company would have been more numerous, had it not been for a Debate unexpectedly brought on that Day in Parliament, relating to the Remonstrance of the City of London, which retarded the company several Hours; the grand Egyptian Hall was illuminated with an Elegance surpassing all Description; 600 Dishes were served up; the whole Service on Plate, and every thing in the most grand and elegant Taste. The Company were entertained at Dinner by the most excellent Band of Music that could be procured in the Kingdom, consisting of a Number of select Pieces prepared for the Occasion, and conducted by Mr. Ruff. There were present 6 Dukes, 2 Marquises, 21 Earls, 13 Lords, 4 Viscounts, 17 Baronets, and 103 Members of the House of Commons. The Houses in Cornhill, Cheapside, St. Paul's Church-yard, and Fleet-street, were illuminated; a Number of loyal and patriotic Toasts were drank, before each of which Silence was proclaimed, by Sound of Trumpet, and in the Intervals between them an elegant Piece of Music was performed. Besides the Company at Dinner, about 700 Persons attended at the Lady Mayores's Ball, which was opened with her by the Duke of Devonshire about 10 o'Clock, and continued till near 5 in the Morning; when the Company broke up, greatly pleased with the Grandeur and Elegance of the Entertainment, as well as the Order and Regularity with which it was conducted.

MANCHESTER, March 19.

The Public may be assured, that the Manufactures in this Kingdom are not in the least benefited from the late Act of Parliament, which repeals all the late American Revenue Acts, save that in the Tea; the Exclusion of that single Article subjecting them to the same Inconvenience as if the whole were continued, their Orders from America absolutely expressing, not to ship one Ounce of Goods unless the whole of those Acts are repealed. This Town and Neighbourhood already feel the severe Stroke, having conditional Orders by them, to the Amount at least of 130,000l. the greatest Part of which Sum, in Manufactures, now lies dormant in their Warehouses, ready to be packed up, and some have large Quantities ready cased for shipping. What will be the Consequence God only knows; but this may be said with Propriety, that if some healing Remedy be not soon applied, the trading Part of this once flourishing Place will shortly experience a Fate, more terrible in its Consequence than the late Stamp Act would have entailed on them, had that Tax not been repealed.

BOSTON, May 17.

Last Saturday failed with a fair Wind for London, to the sad Mortification of all the Tories, Male and Female, who have been using all the Tricks which the grand Cabal were capable of inventing, to embarrass and hinder her Voyage, the good Ship Lydia, Capt. Scott, laden in Part with British Manufactures, and other Goods lately imported from Great-Britain, contrary to the Agreement of the Merchants of America, to the Amount of upwards of 15,000l. Sterling.—The Remainder of the Goods, lately imported contrary to the said Agreement, will be reshipped in the very next Vessel for London.

ANNAPOLIS, JUNE 7.

At a Meeting of the Inhabitants of the City of Annapolis, at the Court House, on the 6th Day of June, 1770.

A Letter from the Committee of Correspondence in Philadelphia to the Merchants of Annapolis, dated the 29th of May last, and received the 5th Instant, was read, advising that the Inhabitants of New-Port, Rhode Island, had violated the Non-importation Agreement. On which the Question was put, Whether this City do concur with the Inhabitants of Philadelphia, in their Resolutions of having no further commercial Intercourse with the Colony of Rhode Island, until they return to, and keep their former Non-importation Agreement, so long as any of the Revenue Acts remain unrepealed.

Resolved in the Affirmative, nemine contradicente.

The Question was put, Whether any Person or Persons, who have purchased Rum, Molasses, &c. from Capt. Whitney, from Rhode Island, knowing at the same time that the Merchants there had violated the Non-importation Agreement, had infringed the Association entered into the 22d of June last.

Resolved in the Affirmative, nemine contradicente.

TO THE PRINTERS.

THE Attempt now making by a few People, who have Lands bordering on the River Patowmack, to monopolize the whole Herring Fishery on that River has been the Occasion of much Contention, and has given very great discontent here, especially amongst the poor Sort, who have hitherto been supplied with any Quantity of Fish they wanted, at the most reasonable Rates, and very often by their Friends, without paying any thing; and who have by that means, in a great Measure, been able to raise and support their Children in a comfortable manner, upon the very meanness of our Lands: Whereas it is clear to me, that should the Fishery on that River get once engrossed by a few People, we should soon see the Price of Herrings raised to such a Degree, as would preclude Numbers of the Poor from that Advantage, which God in his great Wisdom and Goodness has given, and certainly intended should ever remain, in common to all Men; even as he has given the Fowls of the Air, as in them likewise no Property can be acquired, but by taking them, nor any Bounds fixed to their Flight; for which Reason I am really at a Loss to know under what Law or Gospel it is, that the Landholders on the said River derive that separate Right. The Law of Nature is clearly against them, as is also, in my Opinion, the Charter of this Province, under which I am told it is that they claim that separate Authority. By that Stipulation, an open and free Fishery is equally reserved to all his Majesty's Subjects of the Kingdom of England, as may be seen in the Words following: "Saving always to us, our Heirs and Successors, and to all the Subjects of our Kingdoms of England and Ireland, of us, our Heirs and Successors, the Liberty of fishing for Sea Fish, as well in the Sea, Bays, Straits, and navigable Rivers, as in the Harbours, Bays and Creeks of the Province aforesaid; and the Privilege of salting and drying Fish on the Shores of the same Province; and for that Cause, to cut down and take Hedging, Wood and Twigs there growing, and to build Huts and Cabins necessary in this Behalf, in the same Manner as heretofore they reasonably might, or have used to do: Which Liberties and Privileges the said Subjects of us, our Heirs and Successors, shall enjoy, without notable Damage or Injury in any wise to be done to the aforesaid Baron of Baltimore, his Heirs or Assigns, or to the Residents and Inhabitants of the same Province, in the Ports, Creeks and Shores aforesaid, and especially in the Woods and Trees there growing. And if any shall do Damage or Injury of this kind, he shall incur the Peril and Pain of the heavy Displeasure of us, our Heirs and Successors, and of the due Chastisement of the Laws, besides making Satisfaction."

I think it only remains now to be proved by the same Charter, that the People of England and the People of this Province are inseparably united, and made native born Subjects of the same Kingdom; wherefore they must be inseparably meant, and were inseparably taken Care of in the abovementioned saving Article; which I shall do, by citing the tenth Article of that Agreement, in these Words: "We will also, and of our more abundant Grace, for us, our Heirs and Successors, do firmly charge, constitute, ordain and command, that the said Province be of our Allegiance; and that all and singular the Subjects and liege Men of us, our Heirs and Successors, transplanted, or hereafter to be transplanted into the Province aforesaid, and the Children of them; and of others their Descendants, whether already born there, or hereafter to be born, be and shall be Natives, and liege Men, of us, our Heirs and Successors, of our Kingdom of England and Ireland; and in all things shall be held, treated, reputed and esteemed, as the faithful liege Men of us, and our Heirs and Successors, born within our Kingdom of England; also Lands, Tenements, Revenues, Services and other Hereditaments whatsoever, within our Kingdom of England, and other our Dominions, to inherit, or otherwise purchase, receive, take, have, hold, buy and possess, and the same to use and enjoy, and the same to give, sell, alien and bequeath; and likewise all Privileges, Franchises, and Liberties, of this our Kingdom of England, freely, quietly and peaceably, to have and possess, and the same may use and enjoy, in the same manner as our liege Men born, or to be born, within our said Kingdom of England, without Impediment, Molestation, Vexation, Impeachment, or Grievance, of us, or any of our Heirs or Successors; any Statute, Act, Ordinance or Provision, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding."

As this Dispute has in it a general evil Tendency, and has already been productive of several bloody Battles, and, as I am informed, is likely to bring on several expensive Law suits, I should be very glad to see all Parties set to Rights, by a full Discussion of it in your Paper; for which Reason it is that I now exhibit my Opinion to the Public.

I am your's, &c.
A FRIEND TO LIBERTY.

Prince-George's County, June 4, 1770.

TO THE PRINTERS.

IN your Gazette, N°. 1290, it appears among the Advertisements, that on the 26th of last Month, several of the Committees of this County, having met at Upper-Marlborough, they determined to adhere firmly to the Association of the 22d of June last.—I am sorry it should appear to the Public, that there was a Meeting upon such a Question; I thought as the Committee were going on daily, inspecting the Papers of the Importers, that no Question about adhering to the Association existed; for I understood, that the Quantum of the Tax, was not the Evil complained of, but the Right of Taxation; and I believe the County in general understood, that as the Right was not changed by the partial Repeal, the Association remained in full Force.—May the County pardon the Man who first dared to raise a Doubt upon it!—But I see you mention in the same Advertisement, that all the Inhabitants are defired to meet next Saturday, to consult on the above Subject.—Next Saturday!—No Time allowed for examining the Propriety of this Meeting through the Channel of your Paper!—May God forgive you (the Printers) for obliging a Number of People, who are almost in a State of Famine, either to ride those Horses, which ought to be working to prevent another Year of Famine, away to Marlborough, or allowing a few, who live near that Town, to determine whether the County, after fully providing for the Importation of Necessaries, that they might insure Stability to the Association, were in Earnest or in Jest when they associated.—Fy! Fy!

Annapolis, June 6, 1770.

I DO hereby certify, that at the Time I made Captain James Whitney the Officer for that Part of his Cargo of Molasses and Rum, which the said Whitney accepted, I did not then know that the Rhode-Islanders had broke through their Non-importation Agreement; therefore the Censure cast on Thomas Williams, & Co. by the Gentlemen Inhabitants of Baltimore-Town, was premature, and serves to cast a public Odium particularly on us, without being heard, notwithstanding there was Part of said Cargo purchased by others, both in and out of this City; probably as unapprised of their Proceedings as me.

THOMAS WILLIAMS.

To be SOLD, lying on Tom's Creek, a Draught of Monockasy River, in Frederick County, Maryland,

A FURNACE, with about 3000 Acres of exceeding fine Wood Land: The Stack of the Furnace, with the Bridge, Casting, and Bellows House, are all built of Stone, and finished in the most substantial Manner. There is also Two large Coal Houses, and a considerable Stock of both Coal and Ore on the Furnace Bank; the Ore is very rich, and of a good Quality, and by all Appearance there is an inexhaustible Quantity. There is likewise on the same Stream, about a Hundred Yards below the Furnace, a good Grist-Mill, also built of Stone. There are about 30 Acres of Meadow Ground clear'd, and Fifty or Sixty more may be made all in Ore Body, and of the very best Sort; the Plow Land is also exceeding rich and good. The above will be sold on very reasonable Terms, and Credit given any reasonable Time, for Payment of the greatest Part of the Money. Any Person inclining, may know the Terms, by applying to Normand Bruce, who lives not far from the Premises.

I HAVE good Reason to believe that there are several Persons, who make a Practice of sending their Servants out to get Wood, upon the Land belonging to me, lying adjacent to this City. They have no Right to act in that Manner, without my Consent, and I hereby tell them plainly 'tis disagreeable to me; and that I shall endeavour to make those suffer, who may be found trespassing for the future.

As for the Terms of the Remonstrance, I presume it will not be affirmed, by any Person less polished than a Gentleman Usher, that this is a Season for Compliments. Our gracious — indeed is abundantly civil to himself. Instead of an Answer to a Petition, his — very graciously pronounces his own Panegyric; and I confess that, as far as his personal Behaviour, or the royal Purity of his Intentions is concerned, the Truth of those Declarations, which the Minister has drawn up for his Master, cannot decently be disputed. In every other Respect, I affirm that they are absolutely unsupported, either in Argument or Fact. I must add too, that supposing the Speech were otherwise unexceptionable, it is not a direct Answer to the Petition of the City. His — is pleased to say, that he is always ready to receive the Requests of his Subjects; yet the Sheriffs were twice sent back with an Excuse, and it was certainly debated in Council, whether or no the Magistrates of the City of London should be admitted to an Audience. Whether the Remonstrance be or be not injurious to Parliament, is the very Question between the Parliament and the People, and such a Question as cannot be decided by the Assertion of a third Party, however respectable. That the petitioning for a Dissolution of Parliament is irreconcilable with the Principles of the Constitution, is a new Doctrine. His Majesty perhaps has not been informed, that the House of Commons themselves have, by a former Resolution, admitted it to be the Right of the Subject. His — proceeds to assure us, that he has made the Laws the Rule of his Conduct. Was it in ordering or permitting his Ministers to apprehend Mr. Wilkes by a general Warrant? Was it in suffering his Ministers to revive the obsolete Maxim of salus Terræ, to rob the Duke of Farland of his Property, and thereby give a decisive Turn to a County Election? Was it in erecting a Chamber Consultation of Surgeons, with Authority to examine into and supersede the legal Verdict of a Jury? Or did his — consult the Laws of this Country, when he permitted his Secretary of State to declare, that whenever the Civil Magistrate is trifled with, a Military Force must be sent for, without the Delay of a Moment, and effectually employed? Or was it in the barbarous Exactness with which this illegal, inhuman Doctrine was carried into Execution? — If his — had recollected these Facts, I think he would never have said, at least with any Reference to the Measures of his Government, that he had made the Laws the Rule of his Conduct. To talk of preserving the Affections, or relying on the Support of his Subjects, whilst he continues to act upon these Principles, is indeed paying a Compliment to their Loyalty, which I hope they have too much Spirit and Understanding to deserve.

His —, we are told, is not only punctual in the Performance of his own Duty, but careful not to assume any of those Powers which the Constitution has placed in other Hands. Admitting this last Assertion to be strictly true, it is no Way to the Purpose. The City of London have not desired the — to assume a Power placed in other Hands. If they had, I should hope to see the Person, who dared to present such a Petition, immediately impeached. They solicit their — to exert that constitutional Authority, which the Laws have vested in him for the Benefit of his Subjects. They call upon him to make use of his lawful Prerogative in a Case which our Laws evidently supported might happen, since they have provided for it by trulling the Sovereign with a discretionary Power to dissolve the Parliament. This Request will, I am confident, be supported by Remonstrances from all Parts of the Kingdom. His — will find, at last, that this is the Sense of his People, and that it is not his Interest to support either Ministry or Parliament, at the Hazard of a Breach with the collective Body of his Subjects. That he is the King of a free People is indeed his greatest Glory. That he may long remain as the King of a free People, is the second Wish that animates my Heart. The first is, THAT THE PEOPLE MAY BE FREE.

JUNIOUS.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) April 25.
To the GENERAL COMMITTEE of Philadelphia, and Province of Pennsylvania.

GENTLEMEN,

AN authentic Account of a Bill, ordered to be brought into the House of Commons, to repeal so much of an Act of the 7th of his present Majesty, as imposes a Duty on Paper, Glais, and Painters Colours, imported into the British Colonies in America, occasions this Address to you.

It is with the deepest Grief we observe the Oppressions of America so little regarded, as, that Duties on a few Articles, more ruinous in their Precedent, than fatal in their present Operations, should become the serious Objects of Parliamentary Attention, while the grand Evils, which affect the Life and Soul of American Happiness, are totally disregarded.

When the Resolutions were formed (surrounded with Difficulties as we were) on the only Plan we had left for the Recovery of our ancient Liberties (and which, we are convinced, will ultimately have their desired Effect, if we have but Virtue enough to resist the Allurements of present Gain, in Favour of the inestimable Blessings of our envied Constitution) for Want of a Communication with each other, the Colonies adopted Plans, various in Extent of Matter, and Limitations of Time: This Province, as it was among the last, so it has been the most comprehensive; and, well considering that Liberty in Retail is but another Term for Slavery, they have included every Object which tends to sap the Foundation of their Freedom. While the Board of Commissioners are permitted to riot with such an Extent of unrelenting Power; while our Property is subject to be dragged from Colony to Colony, under the Controul of an oppressive Admiralty, we are not free: And while these Acts continue in Force, we are chained down by our Resolutions: Such is our present Situation, in which we glory. The Day of Trial is but approaching: Unanimity is absolutely necessary: And we are positive nothing but an Exertion of the purest Virtue, in the Prosecution of one generally adopted Plan, can possibly revive our expiring Constitution. Should any of our Sister Colonies take an Advantage of the Repeal of these trifling Duties, we think it had been infinitely better to have submitted quietly to the Yoke, than to have discovered the deepest Knowledge of our Constitution, and a most ardent Desire of preserving it: Yet, when a Variety of Circumstances combine to insure our Success, we think it would be highly dishonourable to sink into a slavish Inactivity, when a spirited and steady Conduct can alone crown our Hopes.

The People of this Province have bound themselves, in the general Cause of American Liberty, by extending their Resolutions, until the Whole of their Complaints are removed. It would be a capital Crime in us to suspect the public Virtue of our Countrymen; nor can we even suppose, in the most distant Manner, this Province will fail a Sacrifice to the Purity of her Intentions. The Security of our inherent injured Rights, was the Foundation of our Agreements; until that Security is amply obtained, nothing can be said to be done. The principal Arguments in the House of Commons were founded on the Division of the Colonies; the Impracticability of manufacturing, and the Impossibility of continuing firm in our Non-importation. Let us convince them of our Unanimity, and the Futility of those dishonourable Reports, which declare any Breach of Consequence in our sacred Engagements, and we may be certain of Success. That Individuals will be found in every Colony, who, dead to all the warm Emotions of the Heart, even when Liberty is at Stake, will sacrifice the only Blessings, which make Life comfortable, to the dirty Consideration of present Emolument, is nothing extraordinary. Worthless Men are the Produce of every Climate: They serve only as a Foil to set off the Cause; and, unless we become Traitors to our own Liberties, we have little to fear.

Our Countrymen in Great-Britain are equally engaged in the Defence of the Constitution. Surrounded on all Sides with the Minions of Government, the best Men in the Nation have pledged themselves for its Defence. These Patriots are equally the Objects of our Admiration and Imitation; and, as our Blood and our Rights flow equally from the same Source, we should scandalize the rough unrelenting Virtue of our Ancestors, did we not follow their Example. Let us suppose the worst that can befall us, that the Iron Hand of Power will at last prevail, and trample upon every Right of American Liberty; yet we think it an indispensible Duty, which we owe to our Country and Descendants, inflexibly to persevere to the last, and let Posterity record, FORCE obtained a Triumph over PUBLIC VIRTUE; and though we rest, we rest with a Dignity and Spirit becoming the Sons of GREAT-BRITAIN. We are,

Your most affectionate Countrymen,
Signed,

By Order of the General Committee,
JOHN NEUFVILLE, Chairman.

NEW-YORK, May 31.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Boston to his Friend in this City, dated May 19th, 1770.

Capt. Symes is just arrived from London, and says, that his Majesty lent for the Marquis of Granby, and intreated him to resume the Command of the Army; but that his Lordship pertinaciously declined. — His Majesty asked Granby, whether he thought his Army might be depended upon, in Case of a Rapture with the People. — Granby answered, the Officers in general might, as the Bulk of them were Scotchmen. — Capt. Scott is this Day failed for London, with a Cargo of British Merchandise. — Britain will doubtless flourish, if the Conveniences, nay, the Luxuries, of Life, continue thus to pour in upon her from all Quarters.

We hear that the Britons have brought over the Statues of his Majesty and Mr. Pitt, now Earl of Chatham; also a large Bell, for the new North Church in this City, the Gift of Simon Johnson, Esq; to said Church; also Part of the Governor's Baggage, and several Servants.

We have undoubted Intelligence, not only that it was certain the Duty on Tea would not be taken off the last Session of Parliament, but that the Repeal of the Duties on Paper, Glais, and Painters Colours, was not to take Place before December next: So that the Non-importation Agreement, to answer the End, must necessarily subsist, at least till after the Season for next Fall Goods will be over.

ANNAPOLIS, JUNE 14.

We think it proper to acquaint our Readers, that by a Law made last Session of Assembly, any one who takes up a Stray is obliged to advertise it Three Weeks successively in this Paper.

Since our last arrived from London, the Louisa, Capt. Richardson, and the Lord Baltimore, Capt. Mitchell.

At a general Meeting of the Inhabitants of Baltimore Town, held at Mr. Little's, on Monday the 4th of June, 1770.

A Letter from the Committee of Correspondence in Philadelphia, to the Committee of this Town, dated the 29th of May, advising, that the Inhabitants of Newport, in Rhode Island, had violated the Non-importation Agreement, was read: On which the Question was put, Whether the Inhabitants of this Town do concur with the Inhabitants of Philadelphia, in their Resolutions of having no further commercial Inter-course with the Colony of Rhode Island, until they return to and keep their former Non-importation Agreement, and re-ship the Goods to Great-Britain, imported contrary to the Tenor thereof, or until the Revenue Act, laying a Duty on Tea, &c. is totally repealed.

Resolved in the Affirmative, nemine contradicente. Information being given, that the Sloop Speedwell, Captain Robert Sterry, and the Sloop Industry, Captain James Whitney, were just arrived in this Harbour from Rhode Island, with Cargoes, the two Captains attended this Meeting, and requested Liberty to trade; alledg-

ing, that they arrived in this Province the 31st Day of May, 1770, and made Entries at the Custom-House Annapolis and Patuxent District, and, in Support of such Allegations, produced their Certificates of Entry. On which the Question was put, Whether they should be permitted, or not.

Resolved in the Negative.

Captain Sterry and Captain Whitney being called to know whether they acquiesced in the Resolution abovementioned, declared they did, and promised to depart immediately: On which a Copy of the Proceedings was delivered to each, signed by the Chairman.

It having been reported, that Part of the above Cargoes were disposed of at Annapolis, Mr. Samuel Parsons was called on to pledge his Word and Honour, that he neither had, or would, purchase any Molasses from Thomas Williams and Co. the Purchasers thereof, nor any other Person, but such as can make it appear such Molasses were not Part of the Cargoes of the present Vessels. Which he accordingly did.

Prince George's County, June 9, 1770.

In Consequence of an Advertisement in the Maryland Gazette, requesting a general Meeting of this County at Upper Marlborough, a Number of Inhabitants assembled at the Court House, and appointed Joseph Sim, Esq; Moderator.

Resolved unanimously, to adhere firmly to the Association of the 22d of June last, notwithstanding the Repeal of the Tax on Paper, Glais, and Painters Colours, as the PRINCIPLE and Tax on TEA still remain.

Resolved, That in case a general Meeting should be requested by the other Counties of this Province, to explain and support the general Association, this County will appoint Four Deputies, to attend at Annapolis for that Purpose.

Resolved, That these Proceedings shall be printed in the Maryland Gazette. [Copied from the Minutes.]

Extract of a Letter from a Merchant in London, dated March 21, 1770.

I THINK proper to inform you, that by Act of Parliament, American Bar-Iron ought to be marked with the Provincial Stamp on each Bar: For the Officers of the Customs, for Reasons unknown, now insist that no Bar-Iron shall be landed, without Payment of Duty, unless each Bar be properly stamped. I have now a Parcel from Maryland, the Entry whereof paid Duty free at the Custom-House, but, on Examination of the Surveyors and Landwaters, it not being properly stamped, the whole Parcel is stopped and the Day claimed. — Due Attention should be paid hereto.

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1770.

L O N D O N, April 7.
ESTERDAY the Petitions from the Counties of Northumberland and Durham were presented to his Majesty at St. James's, the former by Thomas Delaval, Esq; and the latter by John Tempest, jun. Esq; Member for the City of Durham.
 To the King's most excellent Majesty.

The humble Petition of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
 WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, with all Humility and Deference, presume, at this alarming Juncture, to approach your Majesty's Presence, and with the warmest Hearts to assure your Majesty of our strictest Attachment to the true Principles of the glorious Revolution, and to the happy Establishment of the Crown in your illustrious Family, the firm Defenders of Civil and Religious Liberty.

Truly sensible that we address a British King, jealous of the Rights of his faithful Subjects, and conscious of the just Prerogatives of the Crown, we humbly hope, that, to preserve the one, your Majesty, at their united Request, will graciously exert the other.

From our Regard to your Majesty's Repose and Happiness, we should have withheld our just Complaints of many arbitrary Attempts of wicked Counsellors; but our Duty to your Majesty, to ourselves, and to Posterity, loudly calls upon us to remain no longer silent; when our last sacred Right, the Right of Election, the very Essence of our Constitution, is violently wrested from us.

With the deepest Concern we beg Leave to intimate to your Majesty, that the Confidence of the People is withdrawn from such Representatives, as have, contrary to the Trust reposed in them by their Constituents, violated the first Principles of the Constitution.

We join, therefore, in the earnest Prayers of our injured Fellow-Subjects, in requesting your Majesty to exert that Part of the Prerogative, so wisely vested in the Crown by our provident Ancestors, by dissolving the present Parliament.

Permit us, Royal Sir, from your known Goodness and paternal Affection, to hope for a gracious Compliance with the Request of Millions of your Majesty's Subjects, whose most ardent Wishes are ever to hail your Sacred Majesty by the endearing Names of Guardian, Friend, and Father of your Country.

April 9. It is positively asserted, that Lord North has declared publicly, that no fresh Prosecution is intended against a popular Gentleman.

April 10. The Bill for regulating the Expulsion of Members is postponed till Tuesday the first of next Month.

Yesterday the Petition of the County of Kent was delivered to his Majesty by John Calcraft, John Sawbridge, and James Esquires.

The above Petition, notwithstanding all the Influence of Government, was signed by upwards of 2700 Freeholders.

The same Day the Middlesex Petition, Remonstrance, and Address, was presented to his Majesty at St. James's by Messieurs Townshend and Sawbridge, Sheriff for the County, which was received, and given to the Lord in waiting, but no Answer returned.

It is said that a great Number of the principal Inhabitants of Westminster have signed a Paper, signifying their Disapprobation of the Remonstrance of that City.

It is positively asserted, that Lord Chatham will again take a Part in the Administration; and that a Bill will be brought in, to rescind some unpopular Resolutions, as soon as that Nobleman is invested with Power.

April 12. It seems to be pretty generally believed, that a Coalition is now actually on Foot, between the present Administration and the Leaders of the Minority. As a Confirmation of this we have been assured, that not only Lord Camden has been at Court, and had a private Conference with his Majesty, but that the Marquis of Rockingham, the Earl of Chatham, and the Duke of Northumberland, have appeared there also within these few Days.

The Marquis of Rockingham and Lord Mansfield, Lord North and the present Lord Mayor, have visited of late, from whence it is concluded, that some political Alliances are forming, that will tend to reconcile the national Disputes.

A great Personage, we are told, refuses to see Earl Temple, being greatly disgusted with him for publishing to the World, some Time since, in Print, a private Conversation which had passed between them.

A Letter from Denbighshire, received on Tuesday, contains the following Account: "The People of this County have refused to pay the Land-Tax, in consequence of which great Disturbances ensued, and the Military, quartered in this Neighbourhood, have been called upon to assist in preserving the Peace, and reducing the Malcontents to Order, which we hope they will be able to effect, but are apprehensive a Reinforcement will be necessary."

It is said the British Tully has declared his Intention of impeaching, the first Meeting after the Holidays, no less than Five Persons.

It was Yesterday said, that a great Personage was reconciled to Earl Temple, through the Intercession of the Marquis of Rockingham.

On Tuesday the Sum of 9681. 11s. was paid into the Hands of the Supporters of the Bill of Rights, for the Use of John Wilkes, Esq;

By a private Letter from Frankfort we learn, the Emperor of Germany, the Emperess of Russia, the King of Denmark, and the King of Prussia, will have a personal Conference some Time between this and September next, and that a Place will speedily be appointed for this illustrious Meeting.

April 13. The Consideration of Affairs respecting the Western Continent is again deferred till after the Adjournment of Parliament.

April 14. It was reported this Day, about Noon, that a certain foreign Ambassador has complained, in pretty severe Terms, of the dark insinuations lately thrown out by a noble Earl, respecting a Blow affirmed to have been struck against this Nation, which he thinks highly reflects upon the Honour of his Master.

Mr. Trevellick represented to the House of Commons on Monday last, that the Exports to America, in 1768, had exceeded those in 1769 upwards of 700,000l. He ventured to assert, that unless the Duties upon Tea were repealed, the Exports of this Year would fall considerably short of those of the last Year. It likewise appeared, that out of 18 Ships, lately in the Port of London, and bound to New-York, only Three sailed, and that the whole Amount of the Three Cargoes did not exceed 10,000l. whereas, if the Differences, which unhappily subsisted between the Mother-Country and the Colonies, had been amicably settled, the Cargoes of those Ships would have amounted to at least 300,000l.

Mr. Wilkes, we hear, previous to his Enlargement, gave Bond, as Security for good Behaviour for Seven Years, himself for 1000l. and Two Sureties, viz. Edward Burke and Matthias Hamberg, in 500l. each, agreeable to the Sentence passed upon him.

St. James's, April 16. The King has been pleased to appoint Soame Jenyns, Edward Elliot, John Roberts, W. Fitzherbert, Robert Spencer (commonly called Lord Robert Spencer), George Grenville (commonly called Lord Grenville), and Wm. Northey, Esquires, to be Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

April 19. Tuesday Evening, about Six o'Clock, Mr. Wilkes left the King's Bench Prison. In order to blind the Populace, who had assembled before the Prison, his Daughter and a Gentleman went out in a Coach first, which drew the Attention of the Populace for some Time, on which Mr. Wilkes, with a Friend, stepped into a Post-Chaise with Four Horses, and though the Postillions drove as fast as they could, they were stopped before they gained the Windmill, where the People, at first, insisted on taking out the Horses, in order to draw the Carriage about in Triumph; but he avoided this by Entreaties, and was at last permitted to pursue his Journey.

A Court of Aldermen is to be summoned to meet on Tuesday at Guildhall, in order to swear in John Wilkes, Esq; Alderman of Farringdon Ward without; after which he will be elegantly entertained by the Lord Mayor at the Mansion House.

To the GENTLEMEN, CLERGY, and FREEHOLDERS, of the County of MIDDLESEX.

GENTLEMEN,
 I OBEY the strong Impulse of a lively Gratitude, when I thus employ the first Moments of my Liberty, to thank you for the many Favours you have conferred on me, during a long, cruel, and unmerited Imprisonment. My sufferings the Two last Years were endeared to me, as well as rendered truly honourable, by the Support and Protection of the Friends of Freedom. The Trial was indeed long and severe, but the most happy Consequences have followed. The favourable Opinion you were pleased at first to entertain of my Integrity and Fortitude, has been confirmed on a Variety of Occasions, and I have experienced as frequent Proofs of your unwearied Zeal for your Country, and steady Regard to me. I will go on with the same Spirit, in the Cause of a brave and free People. To their Service, to the Defence of the Laws, and to the Preservation of the religious and civil Liberties of the whole British Empire, the Remainder of my Life shall be dedicated. I rely solely and entirely on your Protection, and I will form no Connection, which may in the smallest Degree warp me from my Duty to you, either as the Dependant of a Minister, or even as the Servant of the Crown; for I think a Representative of the People ought to be perfectly free and unbiassed, in order more effectually to keep every Minister in Awe, and to oppose every Encroachment of the Prerogative, against which the House of Commons was established as a firm Barrier. I will therefore know no Influence in Parliament, but that created by the Constitution, that of the Constituents over their Representative, and I do not mean to acknowledge any other Constituents, than those patriotic Friends, by whose Favour I am the legal Member for the County of Middlesex.

I reflect, Gentlemen, with great Satisfaction, that the many tedious Months of my harsh Confinement were not uselessly employed in the common Cause of public Freedom. I have enjoyed in Prison the Fruits of my long Labours, the Glory of destroying that dreaded Engine of Arbitrary Power, so cruelly employed of late, and so often fatal to our Countrymen, a General Warrant. After every Delay of Privilege and Chicanery from May 1763, an upright Jury in last November declared a late Secretary of State Guilty. No Punishment, however, has reached that first and great Offender. The Treasury paid the Fine, and the whole Expence of the Prosecution, and he has been even rewarded with the Custody of the Privy Seal. The very superior Abilities of my worthy Colleague Mr. Serjeant Glynn, were exerted through the whole of this important Cause. To his indefatigable Zeal, and Love of legal Liberty, every Subject of this Empire has the most essential Obligations. I have taken Care, that all the Proceedings in this great Struggle of the People against the usurped Power of Ministers, shall be entered in the proper Court, and I hope the Record will remain unaltered to our latest Posterity, as a complete Triumph of Liberty over Despotism. I feel with indignant Sorrow, that I have not been equally successful in another national Concern, which I had at Heart; I mean a strict Parliamentary Enquiry into the horrid Massacre of our Countrymen in St. George's Fields, on the fatal 10th of May, 1768. I gave to the Public all the original Papers respecting that wicked shedding of innocent Blood, by which the Land is defiled, and I offered to bring the Evidence to the Bar of the House of Commons. The only Hope which now remains to us is, that the Virtue of a future Parliament, faithful to the Trust reposed in them by the People, will soon pursue the Murderers, that Justice will at length overtake them, and that the most shocking of all Crimes will not be left unpunished. The Horror of the Action is still fresh in the Mind of every Man of Humanity, and I hold it to be the greatest Reproach of our Age and Nation, that so many of our Fellow Subjects have been basely murdered by an inhuman Soldiery in St. George's Fields, and other hired Ruffians at Brentford, without a single Victim to the public Justice of our Country, to the future Security of our Lives, or to the violated Laws of God and Man.

The State of this County, Gentlemen, is truly alarming. The House of Commons have not only rejected a Member chosen by a Majority of the Freeholders, but likewise obtruded upon you a Person, whom you never elected. They have openly assumed the whole Legislative Power. By their Vote they have declared an Incapacity, where the Law of the Land, and common Right, rendered the Party eligible to Parliament. This Proceeding is a direct Attack both on the Form and Essence of the Constitution, a flagrant Violation of the fundamental Privileges of Englishmen, and a Robbery committed on every Elector of the Kingdom, even in the most invaluable of all his Possessions, the Right of Representation in the House of Commons. You have petitioned, you have remonstrated, in the Spirit of true Sons of Liberty, but in vain. The Reason is most manifest. The Measure of my Expulsion and Incapacity was previously settled in the Cabinet, and only brought to Parliament by the Minister, in order to go through the common Forms, as other Business, in the usual Course of the Session. The Nation, however, are not the Dupes of this Artifice, and they regard the present House of Commons as no longer a just and fair Representative of the collective Body of all the Electors in this united Kingdom; and therefore they do not hold, that the Power and Authority of a legal House of Parliament is inherent in the Assembly now sitting at Westminster.

I am happy, Gentlemen, to leave a hateful Prison, without the least Spark of Anger or Resentment against the Authors of all my sufferings. I have no Malice nor Revenge to gratify. I feel no Passion, but that of Gratitude to my Friends, and my only Enemies shall be those of my Country, those who still manifest a rooted, unrelenting Malice against the Liberties of this Kingdom, and who endeavour to entail Slavery on us and our Posterity. If my Prosecutions are not yet ended, I will continue to bear up as a Man, firm and determined in the best of Causes; nor for your Sakes will I scruple to dare all the Vengeance of those wretched Ministers, who are now the Rulers over us, but possess neither the Confidence, nor the Esteem of the People. If his Majesty be graciously pleased to listen to the Cries of a loyal, but injured Nation, and to remove a most corrupt and despotic Administration, who are every Day basely and desperately flabbing the very Vitals of the Constitution, I shall then hope to live among you in the Enjoyment of the first Blessing, and the most sovereign Good, Liberty, both personal and political; and when I can no longer be useful to my Country, to die happy, in the Applause of the Friends of Freedom, and of England.

I am, with Deference and Regard,

Gentlemen,

Your faithful, and obedient humble Servant,

April 18, 1770.

JOHN WILKES.

In Consequence of a Letter from the Committee of Merchants in Philadelphia, to the Committee of Merchants in this Town, brought by Express last Tuesday Evening, desiring to know the Sense of our Merchants, Traders, &c. respecting the Non-importation Agreement, a Meeting was called the Day following at Faneuil-Hall, and, after full and fair Debates upon the Subject Matter of said Letter, it was VOTED, almost unanimously, That we would still strictly adhere to the Non-importation Agreement, entered into the 19th of October last, not to import Goods from Great-Britain, 'til the Act, laying Duties on Tea, Paper, Glass, Colours, &c. is totally repealed. This Meeting was as large and respectable a One as has been held upon such an Occasion, and the Spirit and Resolution manifested by 99 out of 100, to support their Rights and Privileges at all Events, would do Honour to any People. And our Brethren of the other Colonies may depend upon it, that the Inhabitants of Boston will not be so lost to a Sense of Honour, and the general Interest, as to give the least Opening for a Departure from these Measures, which, under Providence, are the most likely to work out our political Salvation.

May 28. At a Meeting of the Trade, &c. of this Town, at Faneuil Hall, on Friday last, a Letter was laid before the Body, lately received from the Standing Committee of Merchants in Newport, Rhode-Island; advising that several Persons (who it is said, are chiefly Jews) had imported Goods from Great-Britain, and refused to submit to have them stored, agreeable to their pledged Promise. It appeared that the Merchants and Inhabitants of Newport, were so far from discovering that Resolution upon this Occasion, which becomes Americans struggling for their Rights, as that even their Sincerity in the Cause is justly to be suspected. In this View of the Matter, the following Votes were passed.

HAVING, by a Letter from the late Standing Committee of Merchants at Newport, dated May 9th, 1770, been informed that several Persons of that Place have lately imported English and East-India Goods from London, and have refused to store the same, in direct Contravention and Defiance of their own Agreement, entered into and subscribed on the 30th of October last, by which every Person who entered into it, pledged his Word and Honour, "that if any European or East-India Goods should arrive in that Colony upon his or their Account, after the first of January 1770, the same should be stored, and not offered or exposed to Sale, until the Act imposing Duties on Paper, &c. for the sole and express Purpose of raising a Revenue in America, should be repealed." Therefore, VOTED, As the Sense of this Body, that the Conduct of the said Persons, betrays a Contempt of all the Sentiments of Faith, Truth, Sincerity, and Honour; as well as a total Insensibility to the Interest and Liberties of their Country and Posterity. And therefore that we will renounce all Commerce, Connexion, and Intercourse with them: And as the Inhabitants of Newport in general, have not expressed that Detestation and Repentment of such base and perfidious Behaviour, which their Sister Colonies had just Reason to expect, we will break off all Trade and Commerce with the Inhabitants of said Town of Newport, until they shall have given full Satisfaction for their base Duplicity of Conduct towards their Brethren on the Continent. And we rely upon the public Spirit and Virtue of the Inhabitants of Salem, Nantucket, and other trading and fishing Towns in this Province; as also of the Provinces and Colonies of Connecticut, New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, the Carolinas, &c. that they will heartily concur with us in this Resolution.

And further VOTED, That we will view in the same odious Light, and treat in the same contemptuous and resentful Manner, all those, who shall hold Commerce with the said Merchants and Inhabitants of Newport, as we do those who are wicked and hardy enough to have Communication with the few Importers residing in this Province.

VOTED, That the Standing Committee of Merchants be, and hereby are desired to transmit a Copy of the foregoing Vote to the late Standing Committee of Merchants in Newport; who in their Letter have expressed the Sentiments of public Spirit, and a just Abhorrence of the Perfidy of the aforesaid Importers, and the mercenary Disposition which their Conduct has evidently discovered.

NEWPORT, Rhode-Island, June 4.

Last Week the Merchants and Traders of this Town had Two Meetings, at which they concluded to renew their former Agreement of Non-importation, and appointed a Committee of Inspection; who waited on all those who had received any Goods contrary to said Agreement; and received all such Goods under their Care, as were then on Hand, which they put into Chests, Trunks, &c. and secured them properly; which Goods the Committee are determined to visit at least once every Week, 'til the Duty on Tea is repealed, and expose every Person who shall be so base as to offer to open any of the Packages; and to render it impossible for the Owners of said Goods to commit any Fraud without being discovered, the Committee took an exact Invoice of each Person's Goods.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.

Captain Richards, from Virginia, informs, that last Saturday Morning he saw a large Ship ashore at Cape Henry; and another Vessel, dismasted, which he thinks, went both ashore on Thursday Night.

ANNAPOLIS, June 21.

The COMMITTEE OF INSPECTION, appointed at Annapolis, request the Importers of Goods into Annapolis and its Neighbourhood, which have been already landed, to lay their Papers before the Committee, at their Meeting, on Tuesday the 26th Instant.

And, as to Goods hereafter imported, the Committee desire the Papers may be submitted to Inspection before the landing of the Goods.

TO THE PRINTERS.

THE impolitic Behaviour of some People, in some Parts of this Province (and I wish it may not be the Case in other Governments on this Continent), with Respect to the Act of Parliament, imposing Duties and Taxes on his Majesty's American Subjects, I think ought and must give every Well-wisher to the Rights, Liberties, and Privileges, of the People, on this Continent, great Concern and Uneasiness.

We hear of Letters being received from a neighbouring Government, intimating, that the Merchants and Traders in that Government are inclined to import Goods, as usual, excepting the Article of TEA. It is possible, the Merchants and Traders in that Government may receive Letters, to the same Purport, from some of the Merchants and Traders in this Government. It may be the Practice of the Tools of M—y (or those who would willingly be such) to send Letters of the same Kind, from Government to Government, throughout the Continent; by which Means, the People may be duped into an entire Neglect of their Resolutions, throughout his Majesty's Dominions in America; and the M—y and P—t of Britain thereby obtain their Ends, in taxing the American Subjects at their Will and Pleasure.

Certainly a Moment's Reflection must convince every thinking Man, how unavailing the M—y and their Party in P—t are to part with their favourite Scheme of taxing, or preserving a Precedent for taxing, the Americans, as they shall think fit hereafter. We are told they have repealed the Duties on every Article but TEA: Can such a partial Repeal be any ways satisfactory to the Americans? No. It ought to put them more than ever upon their Guard; and, instead of increasing, we ought rather to curtail both the Importation and Consumption of British Manufactures; especially as it is well known, that the whole Duties, imposed by that Act, would not defray the Expence to the Nation for collecting them: And how much greater must the Expence be to the Nation, for collecting the Duty on TEA ONLY.

This ought to convince every British Subject, that it was more for the Sake of supporting a Pack of M—l Tools, than for any real Good to the Nation, that such a Law was ever thought of. This ought to convince every American Subject, that it was more for the Sake of laying heavier Burdens on them hereafter, than for any real Benefit or Advantage to the Nation, that such a Law was ever attempted to be enforced on the Americans, who have the whole and sole Right, by their Charters, of taxing themselves by their own Representatives.

Discord and Division in the Community has proved the Ruin of many a State and Nation. Those Commotions have generally been raised, by a Set of Wretches, who, either through Thirst of Power to tyrannise over their Fellow-Creatures, or Want of Money to support them in Luxury and Debauchery, would even sacrifice their own Souls. And what Regard can such miserable Wretches have, for the temporal Happiness and Welfare of their Fellow Mortals in this Life?

It therefore behoves every Member of Society here, who has any Regard for the Freedom and Privileges of themselves and their Descendants hereafter, to use every Means in their Power to detect and expose any such Person (let his Rank and Condition in Life be what it will), who pursues any Measures destructive to the Rights and Liberties of ourselves and Posterity, either by violating the Resolutions, or attempting any Thing that may tend to the disuniting the People on this Continent. By those Means we may be able to preserve our Liberty, and, with that, our Loyalty to our Sovereign; which I hope can be no Ways doubted, especially if the Mother-Country would look a few Years back, and consider how willingly the Americans spent their Blood and Treasure, not only in defending, but in gaining new Conquests to their Sovereign's Dominions in America.

Liberty and Loyalty, my Countrymen, must either stand or fall together. Tyranny may destroy Liberty, and has done it in many opulent Nations; but what have been the Consequences attending it? The Sovereign and his Subjects have suffered a mere Hell upon Earth: The Sovereign, in continual Doubts of the Loyalty of his Subjects, and daily perplexed in finding out new Schemes of Oppression, to keep them in a State of Obedience; the Subjects, on the other Hand, daily seeking, with Anxiety of Mind, an Opportunity to release themselves both from their Sovereign and Slavery.

This has cost some Sovereigns and many Subjects their Lives, and in the End has proved the Overthrow of Kingdoms and Nations. Some Tyrants and their Successors have continued to rule with a Rod of Iron; but how wretched must the Fate of those be who are ruled by them! That it may never be the Case in America, I sincerely wish that every Subject in it would unite, as one Man, and pursue every reasonable Measure, to preserve the Rights and Liberties of themselves and Posterity to future Ages, by a firm and steady Adherence to our Resolutions for Non-importation and Consumption of British Manufactures, which may possibly be a Means of restoring us to our former State and Condition.

This being obtained, I should be sorry to think, and much more so to know, that there was one American, who would not hold their Loyalty sacred to their Sovereign, or as cheerfully as ever risked their Lives and Fortunes, in supporting the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and the Interest of the Nation in general.

I make no Doubt, some of those little mean and necessitous Crouchers, who transport themselves to this Continent, purely for the Sake of raising themselves from a State of Poverty to a State of Luxury; and who, when they have stripped a Living out of the Inhabitants here, have very little Regard for the future Happiness of those who have helped to raise them in the World, will be very apt to criticise on this Scribble of mine; but, if it sets abler Men to work, to spirit up the People to a just Sense of the Blessings of Liberty, I shall think it a full Satisfaction for any Thing such double-faced witty Fellows can say of me.

THE Subscriber, together with sundry other Persons, claiming under the Will of Madam Elizabeth Coursey, late of Wye River, in Queen Anne's County, deceased, preferred a Petition to the Assembly, at the last Session, for Leave to bring in a Bill, for empowering them to sell all and every the Tracts of Land, devised by Colonel Vincent Lowe, formerly of Talbot County, deceased, to his Executors, to be sold, and then remaining unsold, by either the said Executors, or William Coursey and Elizabeth his Wife, who obtained an Act of Assembly for selling the same, or the said Elizabeth whilst she was sole; and the Remainder of the Produce, after Payment of the just Debts, if any there be, of the said Vincent, to apply to the Use and Behoof of the Petitioners. Fell's-Point, Baltimore County, May 28, 1770.

WHEREAS a certain Thomas Sligh, of Baltimore Town, hath, by an Advertisement in the Maryland Gazette, No. 1284, after he has recited Part of an Advertisement in the said Gazette, No. 1275, relative to Two Pieces or Parcels of Land, the one called Find me out, the other Part of Mountain's Neck, descended to a Catalogue of Untruths, I shall recite some, and leave the Publick to judge of the rest.—He assures the Publick in his Advertisement, the Land was not to be made over, until Smith paid Equire Carroll 125 l. Sterling, and Damages thereon, which must be paid for a protested Bill, and for which he was under Execution—which is false.—It is well known, that if Sligh was forced to pay double that Sum for Smith, that he owed it to Smith, and that on Bond justly due; and if he was under no other Execution but that, which he falsely alleges, he ought to be kept there till he had honestly enough to pay that, and as well the Balance to Smith's Executors.—It is as well known that Smith paid Sligh for those Lands long before that Bill had any Existence.—His speculative Invektive is a so false—and I do assure the Publick, Smith, not many Months before he died, urged me to bring Action against Sligh to compel him to make the Land over, which Sligh's Circumstances prevented.—But it was not all the Production of his own Brain, but prompted and assisted by his Jobber and Companion R—y, whose Character and Actions lately at the City of Annapolis, as well as elsewhere, is well known.—It is no Pleasure to me to repeat the Failings or Crimes of others, and should have been silent, had not said Advertisement contained many scurrilous Untruths, notorious to Persons of Credit; and though I may have some Pity for Sligh, I despise his Jobber and Companion R—y, and do redoubtfully believe that they are both too well known, for their S—lying and Tails, to gain any Credit. The Lands above cited are occupied under my Possession, and Sligh can be at no Loss when and where to bring his Action, according to his Promise in his Advertisement.—The candid Reader may judge what infamous and designing Men will not attempt to do.

THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1770.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 3.

OR some Days past many Excesses have been committed in this Capital, at Scutari, and in the Quarter of Tophana. The Government, to remedy this Evil, hath judged it proper to put to death some of the Authors of these Disorders.

Letters from our Army contradict the Reports spread here, that the Russians have taken Bender, Oczakow, and Ibrailow, and that the Tartars had submitted to the Russians. These Letters add, that the Garrison of Bender lately made a Sally on the Russians with such Success, that the latter have been obliged to raise the Siege of Bender with a very considerable Loss.

The Bashaw of Candia, hath, it is said, informed the Porte that a Russian Squadron of 16 Sail hath appeared off the said Island, and that Five Ships of this Squadron were sailed towards the Morea, and the other Isles of the Archipelago.

CIVITA VECCHIA, March 23. By some Ships lately arrived in this Port we learn, that 14 Men of War from the Ports of Spain, and 20 from those of France, will soon sail to observe the Motions of the Russian Fleet.

L O N D O N .

To the Worthy Inhabitants of the Ward of Farringdon Without.

GENTLEMEN, FREEMEN, AND FELLOW-CITIZENS,

I CANNOT sufficiently acknowledge and applaud the persevering Spirit and Chearfulness with which you have struggled through the various Difficulties, arising from my Inability to attend the Duty of this great and respectable Ward. My future Conduct will best shew the Sense I have of so singular an Obligation. The tedious Imprisonment, to which I was sentenced for the firm Opposition I made to a wicked Ministry, is at length happily passed. By regaining my Liberty this Day, I hope to acquire the Power of rendering you real Services, and, from the superior Rank you have conferred on me, of becoming more eminently useful. I shall not fail to attend the next Court of Aldermen, when, in Support of your Rights, I mean to lay Claim to, and insist upon, the being admitted and sworn into Office, as having the Honour of being elected by the general Voice of so considerable a Part of the City.

It is a particular Satisfaction to me, Gentlemen, that I am to enter on my Duty at a Time when we are governed by so excellent a Chief Magistrate, and have Sheriffs of the most liberal Principles, zealous Promoters of the publick good, and of approved Virtue. But above all I rejoice, that the high Spirit of Liberty, joined with Prudence, Temper, and Intrepidity, in so peculiar a Manner now animates the whole Body of the Livery of London. The late Petition and Remonstrance will reflect Honour on them to the remotest Ages. The English History does not give a stronger Instance of the Uprightness of our Countrymen, nor an Example of any Body of Men more untainted by Corruption, more uninfluenced by every Consideration of Fear or Interest, and more calm, yet determined, in a great Cause. In the Time of the last Stuart King, during the general Confusion, when the dastardly Tyrant fled, the principal Nobility and Gentry resorted to our Guildhall for Protection, and concerted with our Ancestors, the Citizens of this Metropolis, that generous and equal System of Power, which was established by the People at the glorious Revolution, and confirmed by the succeeding Parliament in the Bill of Rights. We have seen the most valuable of those Rights, the Right of Representation in Parliament, openly violated. On this important Occasion, the Livery of London have shewn themselves the worthy Descendants of such Ancestors. The Petition and Remonstrance have carried that enormous Grievance to the Throne in a spirited and becoming Manner. I trust that their publick Virtue and Firmness will at last triumph over the Tyranny of the present Administration, and that our Sovereign will restore the Constitution, thus shaken from its Foundation, by the speedy Dissolution of a House of Commons, abhorred by all good Men, odious to the whole Nation, and the Validity of whose Acts is now daily arraigned by their former Constituents. Such a Consequence I think must soon follow from the noble Conduct of this City, and of other great and public spirited Bodies of Men. After that happy Event, the People of England may expect, from their true Friends in a future honest Parliament, the Three essential and only effectual Remedies of this disempowered State, Acts for the Exclusion of Placemen and Pensioners, for the short Duration of Parliaments, and for an equal Representation.

I know, Gentlemen, how much the Power and Wealth of this great City depend on its Trade and Commerce, which have always flourished most in the freest States, and never arrived at Perfection but under the Patronage of Liberty. I shall therefore be ever ready to receive your Directions on these important Points, and in whatever relates to the Prosperity of this City, and the particular Interest of our Ward. Every probable Plan for the Advancement of the common Welfare, as well as every mercantile Consideration, shall have its due Weight in my Mind. I will ever be a zealous Defender of the Rights and Privileges of the Livery, and of all the Freeman of London. In the Concerns of this extensive Ward I hope to have the Advice and Assistance of my Constituents, every one of whom may be assured of that Attention and Regard which I owe to them, by whose delegated Power I act, and for whose Interest I accepted this important Trust. It shall be my constant and earnest Endeavour to justify to the World the Choice you have been pleased to make of me as your Alderman, and to approve myself an upright Magistrate, and a good Citizen of the Capital of the British Empire. I am,

Gentlemen, Freeman, and Fellow-Citizens,

With Gratitude and Respect,

Your affectionate and obedient humble Servant,

April 18, 1770.

JOHN WILKES.

April 21: The Freeholders of Middlesex, it is said, are to assemble in Hyde-Park, to accompany John Wilkes, Esq; to the House of Commons soon after their next Meeting, when he intends to go and demand his Seat as Knight of the Shire for that County. And so great is the Spirit of the People to carry this grand Point, that it is expected a considerable Majority of the Freeholders will go on this Occasion in Procession.

We are assured, that among other Rejoicings for Mr. Wilkes's Enlargement, the following remarkable Instance of Merriment was exhibited at Greenwich. A Parish Officer there having invited some Company, after demolishing a Pye that weighed 45lb. drinking out 45 Bottles of Wine, and performing many other Acts of Patriotism, pursuant to the cabalistical Number, the Officer took his blue Coat off his Back, and parting it into 45 Pieces, distributed them among his Guests, with which they all departed extremely well satisfied.

It is confidently asserted, that a very great Personage viewed the Illuminations on Wednesday Night incoog, and that he seemed affected in the most sensible Manner by so general and unimpelled a Declaration of the People, in Opposition to the Measures of the Cabinet.

April 23. A private Letter from Berlin says, that unless the Arrears due to the King of Prussia at the Conclusion of the late War, from Great-Britain, is speedily paid, he will invade the Electorate of Hanover with an Army of 40,000 Men.

This Day, about One o'Clock, the Lord Mayor in the State Coach, attended by the Aldermen, Lad-broke, Turner, Trecothick, and Stephenson, and the Sheriff Townsend, in their respective Carriages, went in Procession from the Mansion House to Guildhall, to swear in John Wilkes, Esq; Alderman of Farringdon Ward Without.

April 25. A Cabinet Council was held on Sunday Night at St. James's upon the News received concerning the Insurrection at Boston, at the rising of which it was reported at the St. James's Coffee House, that a Fleet of Men of War, and Four Regiments, would be dispatched immediately for North-America.

Yesterday a Privy Council was held at the Cockpit, said to be in Reference to some Dispatches received from the North American Colonies.

They write from Leghorn, that in a late Skirmish between the Corsican Malecontents and a Party of French Troops, in the Heights of Nebbio, One Hundred and Thirty-nine of the latter were cut to Pieces.

Sunday Morning an Express arrived in Town, from Halifax, in Yorkshire, which brought an Account of a very dangerous Riot between the Militia Soldiers, and the Town's People, in which several had lost their Lives.

We hear that Yesterday an Express was sent down to Falmouth, to be forwarded by an Advice Boat, with all Expedition, to Gen. Gage, Commander in Chief of the Land-Forces in North-America.

By Letters of undoubted Authority from Bombay, in the East-Indies, we are informed, that Heyder-Aly is incessant in training up his Soldiers in all the Branches of the European Exercise; that he gives great Encouragement to Foreigners, and particularly to the French, to enter into his Service; and that among other Improvements he has established a Manufactory of Guns, and a Foundry for Cannon, on the Model of those in Normandy, in France.

April 26. The Zeal of the Crowd at Guildhall on Tuesday, was greater than their Strength; an Attempt was made by the People to draw the Lord Mayor and Mr. Wilkes in the State Coach from Guildhall to the Mansion-House, but the Weight of it was such, that they were obliged to desist.

By Letters lately received from a Gentleman now on his Travels into Greece, there is an Account that the White Island in the Bay of Santerini, which, in 1707, rose out of the Sea, to the Astonishment of all Europe, has lately been observed to have received very considerable Increase. This added to the Accounts received in France of the Disappearance of the Island of St. Helena; and in Holland, of the Removal of the Mountains of Bohemia; together with the fresh Eruption of Mount Vesuvius, after an Intermission of Two Years only, a Thing never before known, affords Matter of serious Contemplation to speculative People, and it is said, that the Jewish Rabbies have conceived Hopes, that these Presages are Forerunners of the Completion of an ancient Prophecy, that is expected, about the present Era, to be fulfilled in Favour of the Restoration of their Nation to the promised Land.—It is remarkable that the famous Mr. Whiston predicted some very considerable Alteration in the Appearance of the Earth about the Year 1770.

From the PUBLIC ADVERTISER.

AS the Happiness of a Kingdom is proportioned to the Wisdom of its Governor, the Education of a Prince will be of the highest Importance to the People. The Heir to the first Office in this Empire is now arrived at a State of Pupilage. Upon him the publick Eye is fixed, with the most anxious Attention. His Tutor has undertaken an arduous Employment, in which, if it be his Ambition to acquire himself with Rectitude, a brief Delineation of his Duty cannot offend him.

To the TUTOR of the PRINCE OF WALES.

S I R,

THE Manner in which you execute the Task you have undertaken will render your Name either venerable or infamous. As your Prince is young, his Heart is untainted, and therefore susceptible of the best Impressions. Imprint then upon it this Maxim, of all others most momentous, that every Man by Nature is equal. Preeminence is not due to Birth, but Desert. Teach him to reverence the UNIVERSAL PARENT, to love his Country, and to obey its Laws. Inspire him with the Desire of Glory and the Dread of Shame. Convince him, that the higher he is elevated, the less he can be concealed; that the more Power he is invested with, the more cautiously he should act; that a King should be less conspicuous from the Ensigns of State, than the Splendor of his Virtues. Let him never think himself a Prince till he has banished Calamity from his Kingdom, reedified its Ruins, annihilated Tyranny, and established Freedom. A State should ever be present to the Mind of its Sovereign. Love to his Subjects alone can secure their Affection to him. Arms and Treasures are insufficient Guards for Kings: Friends are their best Defence, and these are to be acquired neither by Force nor by Riches, but Fidelity and good Offices. In the Choice of his Counsellors let him accurately deliberate; when determined, let him confide in the Men of his Choice. To distinguish between a Friend and an Enemy in Disguise, is a Qualification of the highest Worth, and which few Princes have ever possessed. Deserved Praise will be an Incentive to Virtue, Flattery its most baneful Poison. To suppose that those love us, whom we do not esteem, is an Error; and to demand what they will not give is Injustice. Nothing is less restrained than the human Heart; it acknowledges no Master, it knows no Subjection. Let his Breast be never opened to Suspicion, nor his Ear inclined to Calumny. Let him never mask his Designs to others, nor pry into what they would hide. Let him be always what he appears, and he will have no Interest to be concealed, he will no more dread the Eye of a Foe than a Friend.

The Title of most serene implies that a Prince is elevated above the Commotions of Passion. The Breach of his Word is despicable in him, dangerous to his Subjects. Upon his Veracity depends their Tranquillity, and why should he wish to deceive, whose Advantage it is that all Men should speak Truth? Let Freedom of Access be proclaimed to the meanest of his Subjects. He was not born for himself, but the Publick; and then only is he properly employed, when administering to the publick Good. His first Object should be to labour for his People's Happiness, and to watch for their Preservation. No Office is more glorious, none more arduous; such a Servitude is the highest Dignity! When called to punish, Mercy, with the tenderest Address, should guide his Hand. It should ever be engraved upon the Heart of a Prince, that of all the Virtues, Clemency is most divine.

The Life of a King should be a Model to his People. It is by him they will regulate their Conduct. He therefore becomes responsible for the Crimes they commit from his Example. How irreproachable then should be his Manners! Teach him to contemn Luxury and to trample upon Pleasure.

Let him study the Lives of those who have dignified Humanity, that he himself may add to their Number. Then he should consider as Guides in the Road to Glory. Let him compare his Conduct with theirs, and this will elevate his Soul. How sacred is that Emulation which arises from the Love of Virtue! Let him, with equal Attention, consider the Misconduct of his Predecessors, and that shall secure him from Destruction.

Such, Sir, are the Outlines of your Duty. Accomplish what you have undertaken. He who partakes of the Glory should share likewise the Toil.

JUNIUS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 3.

OR some Days past many Excesses have been committed in this Capital, at Scutari, and in the Quarter of Tophana. The Government, to remedy this Evil, hath judged it proper to put to death some of the Authors of these Disorders.

Letters from our Army contradict the Reports spread here, that the Russians have taken Bender, Oczakow, and Ibrailow, and that the Tartars had submitted to the Russians. These Letters add, that the Garrison of Bender lately made a Sally on the Russians with such Success, that the latter have been obliged to raise the Siege of Bender with a very considerable Loss.

The Bashaw of Candia, hath, it is said, informed the Porte that a Russian Squadron of 16 Sail hath appeared off the said Island, and that Five Ships of this Squadron were sailed towards the Morea, and the other Tails of the Archipelago.

CIVITA VECCHIA, March 23. By some Ships lately arrived in this Port we learn, that 14 Men of War from the Ports of Spain, and 20 from those of France, will soon sail to observe the Motions of the Russian Fleet.

L O N D O N.

To the Worthy Inhabitants of the Ward of Farringdon Without.

GENTLEMEN, FREEMEN, and FELLOW-CITIZENS,

I CANNOT sufficiently acknowledge and applaud the persevering Spirit and Cheerfulness with which you have struggled through the various Difficulties, arising from my Inability to attend the Duty of this great and respectable Ward. My future Conduct will best shew the Sense I have of so singular an Obligation. The tedious Imprisonment, to which I was sentenced for the firm Opposition I made to a wicked Ministry, is at length happily passed. By regaining my Liberty this Day, I hope to acquire the Power of rendering you real Services, and, from the superior Rank you have conferred on me, of becoming more eminently useful. I shall not fail to attend the next Court of Aldermen, when, in Support of your Rights, I mean to lay Claim to, and insist upon, the being admitted and sworn into Office, as having the Honour of being elected by the general Voice of so considerable a Part of the City.

It is a particular Satisfaction to me, Gentlemen, that I am to enter on my Duty at a Time when we are governed by so excellent a Chief Magistrate, and have Sheriffs of the most liberal Principles, zealous Promoters of the public good, and of approved Virtue. But above all I rejoice, that the high Spirit of Liberty, joined with Prudence, Temper, and Intrepidity, in so peculiar a Manner now animates the whole Body of the Livery of London. The late Petition and Remonstrance will reflect Honour on them to the remotest Ages. The English History does not give a stronger Instance of the Uprightness of our Countrymen, nor an Example of any Body of Men more untainted by Corruption, more uninfluenced by every Consideration of Fear or Interest, and more calm, yet determined, in a great Cause. In the Time of the last Stuart King, during the general Confusion, when the dastardly Tyrant fled, the principal Nobility and Gentry resorted to our Guildhall for Protection, and concerted with our Ancestors, the Citizens of this Metropolis, that generous and equal System of Power, which was established by the People at the glorious Revolution, and confirmed by the succeeding Parliament in the Bill of Rights. We have seen the most valuable of those Rights, the Right of Representation in Parliament, openly violated. On this important Occasion, the Livery of London have shewn themselves the worthy Descendants of such Ancestors. The Petition and Remonstrance have carried that enormous Grievance to the Throne in a spirited and becoming Manner. I trust that their public Virtue and Firmness will at last triumph over the Tyranny of the present Administration, and that our Sovereign will restore the Constitution, thus shaken from its Foundation, by the speedy Dissolution of a House of Commons, abhorred by all good Men, odious to the whole Nation, and the Validity of whose Acts is now daily arraigned by their former Constituents. Such a Consequence I think must soon follow from the noble Conduct of this City, and of other great and public spirited Bodies of Men. After that happy Event, the People of England may expect, from their true Friends in a future honest Parliament, the Three essential and only effectual Remedies of this distressed State, Acts for the Exclusion of Placemen and Pensioners, for the short Duration of Parliaments, and for an equal Representation.

I know, Gentlemen, how much the Power and Wealth of this great City depend on its Trade and Commerce, which have always flourished most in the freest States, and never arrived at Perfection but under the Patronage of Liberty. I shall therefore be ever ready to receive your Directions on these important Points, and in whatever relates to the Prosperity of this City, and the particular Interest of our Ward. Every probable Plan for the Advancement of the common Welfare, as well as every mercantile Consideration, shall have its due Weight in my Mind. I will ever be a zealous Defender of the Rights and Privileges of the Livery, and of all the Freemen of London. In the Concerns of this extensive Ward I hope to have the Advice and Assistance of my Constituents, every one of whom may be assured of that Attention and Regard which I owe to them, by whose delegated Power I act, and for whose Interest I accepted this important Trust. It shall be my constant and earnest Endeavour to justify to the World the Choice you have been pleased to make of me as your Alderman, and to approve myself an upright Magistrate, and a good Citizen of the Capital of the British Empire. I am,

Gentlemen, Freemen, and Fellow-Citizens,
With Gratitude and Respect,

Your affectionate and obedient humble Servant,

April 18, 1770.

JOHN WILKES.

April 21. The Freeholders of Middlesex, it is said, are to assemble in Hyde-Park, to accompany John Wilkes, Esq; to the House of Commons soon after their next Meeting, when he intends to go and demand his Seat as Knight of the Shire for that County. And so great is the Spirit of the People to carry this grand Point, that it is expected a considerable Majority of the Freeholders will go on this Occasion in Procession.

April 23. A private Letter from Berlin says, that unless the Arrears due to the King of Prussia at the Conclusion of the late War, from Great-Britain, is speedily paid, he will invade the Electorate of Hanover with an Army of 40,000 Men.

This Day, about One o'Clock, the Lord Mayor in the State Coach, attended by the Aldermen, Ladbroke, Turner, Trecothick, and Stephenson, and the Sheriff Townsend, in their respective Carriages, went in Procession from the Mansion House to Guildhall, to swear in John Wilkes, Esq; Alderman of Farringdon Ward Without.

April 25. A Cabinet Council was held on Sunday Night at St. James's upon the News received concerning the Infurrection at Boston, at the rising of which it was reported at the St. James's Coffee House, that a Fleet of Men of War, and Four Regiments, would be dispatched immediately for North-America.

Sunday Morning an Express arrived in Town, from Halifax, in Yorkshire, which brought an Account of a very dangerous Riot between the Militia Soldiers, and the Town's People, in which several had lost their Lives.

We hear that Yesterday an Express was sent down to Falmouth, to be forwarded by an Advice Boat, with all Expedition, to Gen. Gage, Commander in Chief of the Land-Forces in North-America.

By Letters of undoubted Authority from Bombay, in the East-Indies, we are informed, that Heyder-Aly is incessant in training up his Soldiers in all the Branches of the European Exercise; that he gives great Encouragement to Foreigners, and particularly to the French, to enter into his Service; and that among other Improvements he has established a Manufactory of Guns, and a Foundry for Cannon, on the Model of those in Normandy, in France.

April 26. The Zeal of the Crowd at Guildhall on Tuesday, was greater than their Strength; an Attempt was made by the People to draw the Lord Mayor and Mr. Wilkes in the State Coach from Guildhall to the Mansion-House, but the Weight of it was such, that they were obliged to desist.

By Letters lately received from a Gentleman now on his Travels into Greece, there is an Account that the White Island in the Bay of Santerini, which, in 1707, rose out of the Sea, to the Astonishment of all Europe, has lately been observed to have received very considerable Increase. This added to the Accounts received in France of the Disappearance of the Island of St. Helena; and in Holland, of the Removal of the Mountains of Bohemia; together with the fresh Eruption of Mount Vesuvius, after an Intermission of Two Years only, a Thing never before known, affords Matter of serious Contemplation to speculative People, and it is said, that the Jewish Rabbies have conceived Hopes, that these Prefages are Forerunners of the Completion of an ancient Prophecy, that is expected, about the present Era, to be fulfilled in Favour of the Restoration of their Nation to the promised Land.—It is remarkable that the famous Mr. Whiston predicted some very considerable Alteration in the Appearance of the Earth about the Year 1770.

From the PUBLIC ADVERTISER.

AS the Happiness of a Kingdom is proportioned to the Wisdom of its Governor, the Education of a Prince will be of the highest Importance to the People. The Heir to the first Office in this Empire is now arrived at a State of Pupilage. Upon him the public Eye is fixed, with the most anxious Attention. His Tutor has undertaken an arduous Employment, in which, if it be his Ambition to acquit himself with Rectitude, a brief Delineation of his Duty cannot offend him.

To the TUTOR of the PRINCE of WALES.

S I R,

THE Manner in which you execute the Task you have undertaken will render your Name either venerable or infamous. As your Prince is young, his Heart is untainted, and therefore susceptible of the best Impressions. Imprint then upon it this Maxim, of all others most momentous, that every Man by Nature is equal. Preeminence is not due to Birth, but Desert. Teach him to reverence the UNIVERSAL PARENT, to love his Country, and to obey its Laws. Inspire him with the Desire of Glory and the Dread of Shame. Convince him, that the higher he is elevated, the less he can be concealed; that the more Power he is invested with, the more cautiously he should act; that a King should be less conspicuous from the Ensigns of State, than the Splendor of his Virtues. Let him never think himself a Prince till he has banished Calamity from his Kingdom, reedified its Ruins, annihilated Tyranny, and established Freedom. A State should ever be present to the Mind of its Sovereign. Love to his Subjects alone can secure their Affection to him. Arms and Treasures are insufficient Guards for Kings: Friends are their best Defence, and these are to be acquired neither by Force nor by Riches, but Fidelity and good Offices. In the Choice of his Counsellors let him accurately deliberate; when determined, let him confide in the Men of his Choice. To distinguish between a Friend and an Enemy in Disguise, is a Qualification of the highest Worth, and which few Princes have ever possessed. Deserved Praise will be an Incitement to Virtue, Flattery its most baneful Poison. To suppose that those love us, whom we do not esteem, is an Error; and to demand what they will not give is Injustice. Nothing is less restrained than the human Heart; it acknowledges no Master, it knows no Subjection. Let his Breast be never opened to Suspicion, nor his Ear inclined to Calumny. Let him never mask his Designs to others, nor pry into what they would hide. Let him be always what he appears, and he will have no Interest to be concealed, he will no more dread the Eye of a Foe than a Friend.

The Title of most serene implies that a Prince is elevated above the Commotions of Passion. The Breach of his Word is despicable in him, dangerous to his Subjects. Upon his Veracity depends their Tranquillity, and why should he wish to deceive, whose Advantage it is that all Men should speak Truth? Let Freedom of Access be proclaimed to the meanest of his Subjects. He was not born for himself, but the Public; and then only is he properly employed, when administering to the public Good. His first Object should be to labour for his People's Happiness, and to watch for their Preservation. No Office is more glorious, none more arduous; such a Servitude is the highest Dignity! When called to punish, Mercy, with the tenderest Address, should guide his Hand. It should ever be engraved upon the Heart of a Prince, that of all the Virtues, Clemency is most divine.

The Life of a King should be a Model to his People. It is by him they will regulate their Conduct. He therefore becomes responsible for the Crimes they commit from his Example. How irreproachable then should be his Manners! Teach him to condemn Luxury and to trample upon Pleasure.

Let him study the Lives of those who have dignified Humanity, that he himself may add to their Number. Then he should consider as Guides in the Road to Glory. Let him compare his Conduct with theirs, and this will elevate his Soul. How sacred is that Emulation which arises from the Love of Virtue! Let him, with equal Attention, consider the Misconduct of his Predecessors, and that shall secure him from Destruction.

Such, Sir, are the Outlines of your Duty. Accomplish what you have undertaken. He who partakes of the Glory should share likewise the Toil.

JUNIUS.

EDINBURGH, April 17.

We learn from Dumfries, that the solong sought for perpetual Motion, has been at last found out by one Mr. Kirk. He got his first Machine made by a Country Blacksmith, and is at present preparing another in Brass, which will be soon sent to London.

A Gentleman from the Mole, brings the following Account, which may be depended on as Authentic.

The Spirit of Liberty so much prevails in the Island of Hispaniola, that the general TOAST, is LIBERTY. The Inhabitants here are wishing for a War, thinking their Neighbours the English will soon settle them under that happy Constitution. The Gentleman that was the Ringleader of the late Revolt in that Island, was sent home to France, in order to have a Recompence from the Court there, for his turning a JUDAS and betraying all those who was in the Conspiracy along with him.—He was well received there, and sent back in a Frigate to Porto Prince: At his Arrival, he was put in Irons on board of the Ship for some Days, until they could have a new Set made for him, then carried on Shore and put into the Common Jail: He there lives on Bread and Water, and is so confined that his Wife is not permitted to see him.

We are informed, That there was a Bill before the Parliament for permitting us to strike Paper Money, agreeable to the Bill framed here; and that it had Two Readings, and was likely to pass.

MR. GAINE,

Please to give the following a Place in your Paper.

ON Monday last a Number of Merchants and Mechanicks waited on our Committee, desiring the Sense of this City should be taken by Subscription, whether an Alteration should not be made in our Non-Importation Agreement; in Consequence of which a Meeting was called the same Evening, the following Advertisement drawn up, and Persons appointed to go through the different Wards, and to each Inhabitant propose the following Questions. Do you approve of a general Importation of Goods from Great Britain, except Tea, and other Articles which are or may be subject to a Duty on Importation? Or, Do you approve of our Non-Importation Agreement continuing in the Manner it now is? Subscriptions were taken in accordingly, when a Majority appeared for Importation agreeable to this Advertisement, on which the Committee sent off Expresses to Bolton and Philadelphia, requesting their Concurrence.

WHEREAS an Act was passed last Session of Parliament, for repealing the Act imposing a Duty on Paper, Paint and Glass, imported from Great-Britain into the Colonies, by which a Step is made towards reconciling the Differences that unhappily subsist between the Mother Country and the Colonies. We the Subscribers, in Attention to this conciliating Measure, and at the same Time to shew the just Regard we have for the Liberties of these Colonies, which we consider as infringed by all Acts of Parliament, imposing Taxes without our Consent, do agree, that we will not import or receive from Great-Britain any Article or Articles, upon which a Duty is laid or hereafter may be laid, for the Purpose of raising a Revenue in America: And whereas the aforesaid Act, repealing the Duties on Paper, Paint and Glass, will not take Place till after the first of December next; We do also agree, not to receive or import any of the said Articles, until after the said first of December next: And whereas the Duty on Tea still remains unrepealed, We do hereby also further agree, that we will not import from Great-Britain any Tea, until the said Duty be taken off; all other Articles, which are free of Duty, we agree to import as usual. If any Goods shall arrive contrary to this and our former Agreement, they shall be re-shipped immediately. And any Persons, Masters of Vessels or others, that shall import, or receive a Consignment of any dutiable Goods, shall be deemed Enemies to the Colonies, and treated accordingly.

But that this Agreement shall not take Place until we desire the Concurrence of Bolton and Philadelphia, and receive their Answer by Return of Express, when, if this Agreement should be rejected by the other Colonies, the Sense of this Town will be again taken.

Messrs Sears and Vandervort request Mr. Hugh Gain will give the following a Place in his next Monday's Paper.

Gentlemen,

New-York, 14th June, 1770.

AS the End of our Appointment was to prevent the least Infraction of the Non Importation Agreement; and as many of this Committee seem desirous of breaking through the said Agreement, we the Subscribers, in Justice to our Constituents, cannot act in future as Members of a Committee, with Men who are using every Effort to counteract the very Design of our Appointment.

ANNAPOLIS, JUNE 28.

On Friday last came to this City, in his Way to the Northward, Sir William Droper, Knight of the Bath.

We are informed, that on Thursday the 14th Instant, a most horrid Murder was committed in Prince George's County.—Mr. William Elson, who was Overseer for Mr. Stephen West, walking with some of his Negroes in the Woods, and having before threatened to chastise One of them for an Offence, was struck with a Club, which occasioned him to fall. After this, supposing him dead, they carried him some Distance, and covered him with Leaves, but soon discovered that he had crept out of the Place where they had put him: They then, notwithstanding he begged his Life, cut his Throat from Ear to Ear with a broad Axe, and buried him near the Threshold of a Tobacco house Door.

Yesterday, at Prince George's County Court, Three Negroes received Sentence of Death for the Murder of Mr. William Elson, their Overseer.

ALL Persons who have any Claims against the Estate of Henry Hawkins, late of Charles County, deceased, are desired to bring them in, and those who are indebted to said Estate, are requested to make speedy Payment, to

Annapolis, June 6, 1770.

IDO hereby certify, that at the Time I made Captain James Whitney the Officer for that Part of his Cargo of Molasses and Rum, which the said
Whitney accepted, I did not then know that the Rhode-Islanders had broke through their Non-importation Agreement; therefore the Censure cast on Thomas Williams, & Co. by the Gentlemen Inhabitants of Baltimore & Town, was premature, and serves to cast a public Odium particularly on us, without being heard, notwithstanding there was Part of said
Cargo purchased by others, both in and out of this City; probably as unapprised of their Proceedings as me. THOMAS WILLIAMS.
