SPECIAL THANKS

First, foremost and without reserve, I give thanks to my Heavenly Father for blessing me with the gifts I love to share through music, and for showing new ways of reminding me of his never-changing love and faithfulness (Philippians 4:13). I also thank the most wonderful and loving support system of my parents, boyfriend, family, friends and talented teachers – I thank God for each and every one of you! I thank my very wonderful and dedicated teacher, Professor John Wesley Wright, for giving me the opportunity to perform in so many new and exciting places, meet fantastic people, and for helping me learn to shine! I also acknowledge the many talented musicians who take the stage with me tonight, for their long hours of dedication and hard work to make this recital a reality – Ed, Leigh and Becca, you all are fantastic! I have had a blast preparing for this recital and look forward to many more. Please enjoy!
