Jarod Armes is a sophomore at Salisbury University pursuing a degree in music education. Originally from Federalsburg, MD, Armes performed as trombonist with the U.S. Marine Corps Air Ground Combat Center Band in 29 Palms, CA, before enrolling at SU. Upon graduating, Jarod plans to teach music in the Maryland public school system.

Jocelyn Hensley is a junior at SU majoring in music education with a concentration in saxophone. Originally from Deal Island, MD, she graduated from Parkside High School in Salisbury, MD. After graduation, Hensley hopes to teach music at the middle school level and attend graduate school to pursue an advanced degree in either education or music performance.

Conductor Lee Knier conducts the Salisbury Pops Concert Band at SU and teaches courses in music and applied brass lessons. A graduate of both Temple and Arcadia universities, he earned degrees in music education and performance with concentrations in trombone and conducting. He also has served as interim conductor of the Salisbury Symphony Orchestra, assistant conductor of the New Jersey Youth Symphony Orchestra and assistant director of bands at Temple University. A trombonist, he has performed regularly with the Mid-Atlantic Symphony Orchestra, St. Peter-by-the-Sea Orchestra, the Metro Lyric Opera Orchestra, Garden State Philharmonic, Brookdale Big Band, Tex Benecke and the Modernairs and the Steel Pier Show Band. He has toured with the Nelson Riddle Orchestra and the Glenn Miller Orchestra directed by Buddy DeFranco. Knier lives in Salisbury with his wife Veronica and their son Chris.
