Orchestra Concert In April

The Endich-Morini performance, of March 25, has definitely been postponed due to the illness of the dancer. The next evening concert will be presented by the Virginia Orchestra on April 25.

Seniors Secure Dramatic Leads

Thomas Downs, a senior this semester, takes the male lead in Little Theatre's production, "Blithe Spirit." Tom, who comes from nearby Washington county, plays the part of Charles Condomine, a sophisticated cosmopolitan British novelist.

Tom has been active in many organizations here on campus. He is a charter member of Alpha Tau Alpha fraternity and of the Brotherhood. In sports, he has been a member of the intramural basketball program for two years, the intramural soccer program for a season, and manager of the Varsity soccer team for the season of 1950-51. Also, Tom has the rather difficult task of liaison officer for the resident men in the Resident government. He is a member of Little Theatre and Alpha Psi Omega.

Margaret Robinson, a senior this year, is noted here on State's campus as a beauty with a great deal of vigor and energy. After making a hit as Myrtle Mae in last year's production of "Harvey," she appears this year as the delightfully witty spirit of Charles Condomine's first wife whose antics cause a great many trials for Condomine and his second wife.

Margie has been extremely active during her four years here on campus. She has graced our Halloween float for two years, was our Princess to the Apple Blossom Festival last year and was Campus Sweetheart. She is past secretary of Little Theatre and past secretary treasurer of Alpha Psi Omega. Margie is noted for her fine singing voice, too. She sings with the Cavaliers and Art Shaeffer's Dixieland Band.

Ruth Farrell is a beauty who has graced our campus for almost four years now, and many males here have noted this fact. She has been Campus Sweetheart. She has been elected to the Halloween float for two years; this year she was the queen of the float. Ruthie is a member of the Women's Recreation Association and is a cheerleader for our varsity teams. She is secretary of the Future Teachers of America here on campus and also a member of Little Theatre.

Administration Announces Possible Plans For Proposed Student Recreation Centre

By September, the new science building should be completely ready for use. At that time a function will be planned to give the public a time to view the building. The actual completion of construction of the new building is expected to be in April, but it is thought that it will take the remainder of the college term and the summer to move and install the equipment. Many improvements are to be

At present, plans are being tentatively made to turn the old Science Building into a student recreation

Singers To Present Opera By Smetana

This year the Maryland Singers are attempting something they have not tried for a number of years. Under the direction of Dr. Maurice Matteson, the Maryland Singers will present the opera, "The Bartered Bride," by Smetana. The opera will be sung in English.

The leading roles will be sung by Harry Diehl and Darlene Brain. Others in the opera who have solo roles are Carolyn Hull, June Gilford, Betty Hanna, William Neff, William Harvey, James Light, Frederick Eichhorn, Vaughn Dullabaun, and Ross Keller.

The costumes for the main characters will be rented from one of the costume companies in New York. The scenery will also be rented.

One feature of the opera will be a group of the singers dancing in the village street while they sing.

All of the members of the Maryland Singers will participate in the chorus for the opera.

Junior, Senior Boys Construct Play Flats

Of interest to the college is the project that Little Theatre has undertaken to make "Blithe Spirit" a success. When production for the play was considered recently the question of flats or scenery for the play came to the front.

Little Theatre appropriated $200.00 for the building of a new set of flats. At first it was thought that Jim Jones' father would be able to build them, but then he found he would not be able to do so.

But with the generous offer from Mr. Jones to use his workshop and tools, four men on Campus decided to build the flats themselves. And so John Lizer, Don Burgess, Jim Jones, and Toots Poffenberger, built the forms for the flats under Mr. Jones' supervision on a recent Saturday. Congratulations, boys, for the fine effort.

The Sophomore Class and the Day Students have joined forces to sponsor the annual Sweetheart Dance.

This affair will be held at the Clary Club on March 21 with the Aristocrats providing the music.

The climax of this dance will be the announcement of the Campus Sweetheart during intermission.

Each class has elected two representatives to compete for the honor. These candidates for Sweetheart are: Mary Alma Winters and Margaret Diller, freshman class; Mary Elizabeth Erling and Robetta Wilson, sophomore class; Edith Utt and Ann Wilson, junior class; Mary Ellen Slite and Betty Hinzman, senior class.

The winner will be selected by the popular vote of the male students and will be crowned in the formal ceremony. The other nominees will serve as court of honor for the Sweetheart. A gold bracelet will be presented to the Sweetheart.

The general committee in charge of arrangements is made up of the following: Robert Hutcheson, chairman of committee; Pat Halloran, tickets; John Kelly, treasurer; Chester See, orchestra; Margaret Ann Diller, publicity, and Leslie Goodwin, election of the Sweetheart.

This promises to be a gala affair held in the true festive spirit of the Sweetheart Dance. The Sophomore class and Day Council will surely appreciate full support from the student body.

French Club Holds Original Program

A unique and original program will be presented Thursday evening, March 21, at the regular meeting of Le Salon Francais in the college dining room. Following the formal dinner a dramatization entitled "Une Nuit A L'opera Paris" which was written and directed by Ross Keller, the club's program chairman, will be presented.

The play depicts three different scenes in the opera house on the night of Mademoiselle Pon's debut at the opera.

Each member participates in one scene of the play.

Those in the cast are Mildred Regean as Queen Marie Antoinette; Geraldine Drake as Bonais, the maid; Ross Keller as King Louis the ninth; Mary A. Winters as Madame Renoir, the accompanist; Patricia Dantzig as the Queen's ward; James Goldsworthy as Claude Monet, the famous painter; William Harvey as the director of the Paris Opera House; George Herring as a messenger boy; Charles Kopp as Rene, Mademoiselle Pon's lover; Robert Smith as an American millionaire.

The faculty advisor of the French Club is Miss Irene Kirkeby.

Each member will come in an authentic French costume in keeping with his character. The dining room will be decorated with French objects.

Professional Ethics

On completing an observation in the training school, the usual discussion pertaining to the procedures and outcomes of the lesson ensued. During the discussion, two words which will constantly recur in our future as teachers were mentioned. These two words, expressing one important idea, are constantly used in connection with professional people.

Puzzled by what this idea might imply, the dictionary was consulted. Just what is meant by "professional ethics?" Professional—engaged in a profession, and ethics—a study of standards of right and wrong, is what Webster's book says. Do these definitions express the idea? Probably not!

By approaching it from the point of view of a medical doctor we can readily grasp the implication of "professional ethics."

A medical doctor, upon receiving his degree takes the Hippocratic Oath, a portion of which states: "... Whatsoever things I see or hear concerning the life of men, in my attendance on the sick or even apart therefrom, which ought not to be noised abroad, I will keep silence thereon, counting such things to be as sacred secrets."

Like the doctor, the teacher is entrusted with the confidence of her students. As a doctor wouldn't converse with anyone else concerning an individual's private affairs, neither would a teacher divulge a child's personal problems to others.

When in our discussions on the undergraduate level, we speak and adhere to "professional ethics" elation should prevail in our being. Why elation? The fact that we are mature enough to be accepted by professional people as advocates of the standards that "professional ethics" represent is indeed an accomplishment.

By recognizing our sincerity in our belief in professional ethics, our instructors are paving the way for our future adherence to these ethics later, as well as now.

Perhaps we have never thought of our intrustment with children's secrets, but the time to think about it is now. The time to practice it is now and likewise in the future. What does "professional ethics" mean to professional people! Seek the connotation and practice it!

Competent Teachers Most Desirable

Philadelphia, Pa.—(I. P.)—Competence in a teacher is a more important requirement than such attributes as attractive personal traits, good control of class, or friendliness and understanding. This was indicated in an informal survey conducted recently by Dr. James D. Page, Temple University psychology professor, in his mental hygiene class.

Discussing the general characteristics of well-liked teachers, Dr. Page outlined four categories and asked his students to rate them in declining order of importance.

"Competent and stimulating as an instructor," received most first-place votes from members of Dr. Page's class. This description, it was explained, means the instructor is helpful, presents assignments clearly, is interesting, creates a desire to work, knows the subject well and knows how to "put it across," is enthusiastic and interested in teaching, and invites discussion. This quality was rated first by 38 students, second by 15, third by two.

"Good-natured, friendly, and understanding," was chosen second in importance by most students.

Third most important trait was "Good control of class, based on discipline and fairness."

Rated last in importance was "pleasing or attractive personal traits."

Evidently, commented Dr. Page, when a student reaches college his main need in a teacher shifts from personal guidance and understanding to that of gaining an education. He is willing, he added, to put up with a teacher who is not friendly or understanding as long as the instructor knows his subject matter and can "put it across."

Sorority To Donate Money To Hospital

At a recent meeting of Phi Omicron Delta Sorority, it was unanimously decided to donate twenty-five dollars to Miners' Hospital for new equipment for the nursery. The Sorority has decided to take up certain welfare projects and this is its first. The twenty-five dollars will be used to buy either a new bottle tray or scales for the nursery. The hospital will decide which article is needed and then purchase that article.

As another project, each member is to either knit, weave, or crochet wool yarn squares which in turn will be made into an afghan. The afghan and others like it made by the Sorority girls will be donated to the hospital or to needy families.

The Sorority as a group has joined the Frostburg Campaign for Blood Donors. Every Sorority Girl has signed up to give blood.

As this year progresses many more welfare projects are to develop.

Japanese Art Display

Some interesting and lovely Japanese art can be found in the art show case. Loaned by Joe Tom Butler, the plates, which are genuine prints, are in color. The Japanese object art, contributed by Mary Swan and Raymond Rice, the latter who served in the American Armed Forces in Korea and Japan, consists of shoes and a cigarette case. A hand-painted wall hanging, also loaned by Joe Tom Butler, is on display in the art room.

Joe Tom Butler, a member of the art club has, by this display, motivated other art club members to make suggestions and plans for an art display to which other members would contribute.

The club is busy painting the scenery for Little Theatre's spring production, "Blithe Spirit." They also are constructing properties for this play.

Delta Kappa Sells Shirts

Delta Kappa Fraternity has purchased sport shirts with a State Teachers' College crest on them. These shirts were bought for all students who want a shirt with their college name on them. (Something to let the people know where you come from.)

These shirts were originally being sold for $3.50 but after hearing so many of the students say that they would like to buy one but couldn't afford the $3.50, Delta Kappa decided to be satisfied with an extremely small profit and let them go for only $2.98.

They are still on sale in the day room, so get yours while we still have them.

Religion, Mathematics Math Meeting Topic

The members of the math club met in the math room for their monthly meeting with George Herring presiding. The meeting was under the direction of Miss Hamilton. Religion and mathematics served as their topic as they discussed the connection between the two.

They stated that they desired more members and anyone interested should be present at the next meeting, which will be held Monday, April 7. The topic will be Mathematics and War.

Class News

Seniors

Dear Seniors,

This year certainly is a dilly. We've been planning to do so much to make sure we'll be remembered when we leave. The girls' "senior varsity" has started us off with a bang! They won the W. R. A. championship. Congratulations are in order for Pat Benna, Dolly Burrell, Maxine Conrad, Anne Povish, Margie Robinson, Mary Ellen Slite, and Gwen Turnbull. We can't forget our water girls and mascot, Gertie Weaver, Mary Lizer and Betty Hinzman.

Last week we elected our candidates for Campus Sweetheart. They are Mary Ellen Slite, and Betty Hinzman. Come on, all you seniors, get out and vote!

Mr. Diehl found out who I am. Really I'm glad I'm not in his class now. I'd hate to be called "Twerpie" in class. Do you know what it means? I hope not!

We have some samples of class rings and pins from the Merrill Company. "Zeke" Fowler has them if you'd care to take a peek. The representative from Baltimore will be here March 17 to give us an idea of what he has to offer.

We haven't heard from "Keyhole Snooper" lately. I wonder what dirt she's dug up. It seems the seniors at the far end of third floor have been doing some serious studying for History of Ed. It is conducted as a sort of seminar. Really interesting when eight of us get together. They also have a theme song about a little mouse. Ask them to sing it for you sometime.

It's about time our Prima Don or Donna came around too. Let's see if I can stump you in this one!

One of our darlings,
This little starling,
Came to see long ago.
She likes to walk
And sometimes talk
About some guy we know.
She is a doll,
And he knows Jill.
If you know them,
I'll really thrill.

Bye for now,
"Twerpie"

Juniors

A Junior Class Meeting was held on Thursday, March 13, for the purpose of discussing the Junior-Senior Prom. Please watch the bulletin board for other meetings concerning the dance.

Anyone who is especially interested in working on a specific committee should contact one of the class officers who are John Carter, Bill Williams, Tom Wagoner, and Mary Elizabeth Kammauf.

Remember, Juniors, the success of the dance depends upon your cooperation.

Freshmen

The Freshmen class held a class meeting on March 6 and made tentative plans for several spring functions.

The Freshmen have also selected their candidates for Campus Queen for the Sweetheart Dance. Chosen by the group were Margaret Ann Dillfer and Mary Alma Winters, both day students.

Spring Spirits Inspire Sports

If the weather man hasn't tricked us after the deadline, the snow is gone and the tennis courts will soon be mobbed by enthusiastic racketeers—pardon the pun. In a few weeks the round of outings will begin. The new "Bobcat" sport shirt being sold by Delta Kappa Fraternity is the ideal blouse for tennis or to keep you warm between plunges in the ice water at Pleasant Valley or New Germany.

About this time of the year, the clothes we've been wearing all winter seem tired and dull. A fresh new blouse is just the thing for that pre-spring pick-up. The Gibson Girl blouses are back—and prettier, too,—with her high collar and puffed sleeves. This season the Gibson girl blouse is favored in a delicate pastel, plain, or striped cotton and organdy with white collars and/or cuffs.

Even the early spring cottons have a Gibson girl appearance, with emphasis on the hour glass figure.

There are two innovations in this fashion world. One is the pleated stocking. These nylons are permanently accordion pleated, insuring perfect fit—naturally the pleats smooth out when you put them on and they fit as neatly as the old style.

In cosmetics, the latest idea is to buy two shades of lipstick and apply them separately or a coat of one shade over the other shade. In this way, from two lipsticks, you have four shades.

Record Chatter

Well, here we are back again for more platter chatters. Ready to spin?

Ella Mae Morse has supplied this week's biggest seller with her recording on Capitol of The Blacksmith Blues. This is one of the best sellers I've seen for a long time! Of course this could be due to the jup side, for Miss Morse does a good job on Love Me Or Leave Me on this side.

It seems that Jo Stafford and Frankie Lane have waxed another great hit together. Their Hambone—Let's Have a Party, is now selling more platters than their old hit Hey, Goodlooking. Talking about Frankie Lane, his "Gandy Dancers Ball," has one of his own compositions on the back. It is "When You're In Love."

The old hit, "You'll Never Walk Alone," is now on its way to the top again. Perry Como and Fred Waring both have a new waxer of it out. Another old hit, Tupils and Heather, is on its way up the ladder also.

The Alpha Tau Alpha Fraternity of Frostburg State Teachers College held its first formal initiation Monday evening, March 3, 1952. The newest fraternity on the campus has a substantial membership and is making quite a name for itself under the able direction of the executive committee, shown in the first row. A notable advance has made itself known in that the regular "Hell-week" has turned from a ridiculous to that of a constructive nature.

The other day I was up at the Court House and the funniest thing happened. I heard the judge say, "Order in the Court." The drunk replied, "Two hams on rye."

Carol Conrad has finally decided to speak to Don Fint and the reason is to thank him for the haircut he got just for her.

Ronald Chapman is still trying to talk Patsy Bohn into giving up the other five.

A worthwhile thought: We would not worry so much about what other people think if we realized how seldom they do. And then there's a little gem about the fellow who stole the block of marble. Of course, he didn't steal it; he just took it for granite.

Contemporary Lit.

Selects Next Book

The Contemporary Literature Club decided last week that after each meeting one of the members would write a review of the book discussed that night. The group hopes that more students will become interested in the club and its program.

The latest book on the list is One More Spring, by Robert Nathan, published in 1933 by Alfred A. Knopf, Inc.

Although primarily a story of the depression of the thirties, the author has chosen to show only one small part of the country affected by this economic condition. The scene is Central Park in New York City, where a small group of people live a precarious existence, each one being representa-

Graduates Gad Various Places

The marriage of Miss Carolyn Ringler to Sgt. Arthur Lakin took place March 3 in Kingsley Methodist church, with the Rev. M. A. Keesecker officiating. Miss Rebecca Manuel and Raymond Poffenberger were the attendants.

The bride is a graduate of Frostburg State Teachers College, where she was a member of Maryland Singers and a featured actress in Little Theatre. She also served as president of Alpha Psi Omega, the national Dramatic fraternity on the campus. She is now a member of the Silver Hill Elementary School faculty, Silver Hill.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Frostburg State Teachers College. Prior to entering the service he was a teacher at Greenbelt. Sgt. Lakin has now reported to Officers Candidate School at Fort Benning, Ga. Mrs. Lakin will go to Georgia in June.

Abroad

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Eugene Martin and their son, Michael Dean, have arrived in Copenhagen, Denmark, where they will reside for the next two years. Martin is with the Military Advisory Aid Group at the U. S. Embassy there. His wife, the former Miss Donna Zembower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Zembower, Takoma Park, formerly of Baltimore Pike, graduated from Fort Hall High School and attended Frostburg State Teachers College.

The family flew non-stop from National Airport in Washington to Paris, Frankfurt in Germany, and then to Copenhagen.

Teaching

Miss Arline G. Petry, Director of Practice, recently received a letter from Mr. George H. Robinson, Assistant Superintendent at Upper Marlboro, which included this statement about two of our January graduates:

"Both Jack Kalbaugh and Gerald Conway, who came to us at mid-term are getting along very nicely in their positions at Greenbelt Junior High School."

In the Service

President Compton has received a letter from Donald DeVore, a graduate of 1950. Mr. DeVore says that he is to be discharged on or before the twenty-first of March and hopes to return to teaching soon.

Graduate Work

Mr. Clavin E. Lauder and his wife, the former Beverly Beckman, both former students at Frostburg, are now living in Syracuse, New York. Mr. Lauder has written to President Compton that he will have completed requirements for the master's degree in speech and hearing therapy at Syracuse University by June.

tive of a large group of their kind throughout the nation. Elizabeth, the prostitute; Rosenberg, the violinist; Mr. Sheridan, the banker; others are all portrayed in a way to bring out the traits typical of the strata of society which they represent.

Although we see the problems as the author would like us to see them, we are continually aware of the whimsical quality and lovely poetic style that are always present in the works of Robert Nathan.

Student Recruiters Visit Local Schools

Student recruiting has started! The faculty has been working diligently in order to have an increased enrollment for next year's freshman class. It is not up to the faculty alone nor to those students who are assigned to go with the faculty student recruiting, but it is the responsibility of every student enrolled at State to get one or several members for next year's class. You are urged to contact your friends because personal contact by one already a member of a college is one of the most effective influencing factors.

The recruiters who visit the high schools are taking display cases assembled by the art club. These cases are moveable with double-page layouts. Various activities on the campus will be represented in the pictures. Pictures included are of Little Theatre activities, the May Queen, winning float in Halloween parade, Who's Who Dinner, laboratory students at work, Commencement exercise, Apple Blossom Princess, sorority initiation, Madrigals, Freshman play, cheerleaders, basketball varsity, and the Crusade for Freedom Ceremony.

Schools to be visited and the faculty member recruiters are as follows: Hancock, Diehl; Clearspring, Wellner; Williamsport, Van Newkirk; Central, Hamilton; Bruce, Rissler; Barton, Petry; Fort Hill, Compton; Old Town, Van Newkirk; St. Peter's, Babcock; Piedmont, Van Newkirk; Kitzmiller, Van Newkirk; Oakland, Van Newkirk; Grantsville, Briggs; Accident, Howard; Friendsville, Howard; Beall, Petry; Allegany, Compton; St. Mary's, Clay; Hagerstown, Diehl; Smithsburg, Wellner; Boonsboro, Hitchins; Girls' Central, Kirkeby; La Salle, Reese; Brunswick, Diehl; Middletown, Van Newkirk.

New Jersey Site For Med. School Exams

Princeton, N. J., January 11—Candidates for admission to medical school in the fall of 1953 are advised to take the Medical College Admission Test in May, it was announced today by Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the test for the Association of American Medical Colleges. These tests, required of the applicants by a number of leading medical colleges throughout the country, will be given twice during the current calendar year. Candidates taking the May test, however, will be able to furnish scores to institutions in early fall, when many medical colleges begin the selection of their next entering class.

Candidates may take the MCAT on Saturday, May 10, 1952, or on Monday, November 3, 1952, at administrations to be held at more than 300 local centers in all parts of the country. The Association of American Medical Colleges recommends that candidates for admission to classes starting in the fall of 1953 take the May test.

The MCAT consists of tests of general scholastic ability, a test on understanding of modern society, and an achievement test in science. According to ETS, no special preparation other than a review of science subjects is necessary. All questions are of the objective type.

Bobcat Hurlers, Catchers Tryout

On Monday, March 10, 1952, the pitchers and catchers of Frostburg State held their first practice. Frostburg should be strong in the catching department with both Jack Barham and Gabby Birmingham returning. The only holdover as a pitcher is Jack Carter. Jack Cline, a transfer from Hagerstown, is looking good in workouts. Others trying out for pitcher are Harold Scott, senior; Ray Ralston, junior; Bob Hutchinson, Wray Blair, James Williams, sophomores; and Gene Harris, Ronnie Fearer and Earl Shumaker, freshmen.

Infielders and outfielders report this week. Ed. Shuck and Ralph Dyer are returning at the infield posts. Help is expected from Bill Kirk and Ronnie Chapman.

We seem to be well set in the outfield with Jack Carter, Donnie Lewis and Davie Lewis and the one and only Harold "Hot" Scott returning to the outfield.

As the new candidates for infield and outfield positions have not reported for practice, it is difficult to give much data on the prospects of the team. More information will come later about team prospects.

'Faculty Doings'

Dr. Howard Lewis Briggs, Professor of History, gave a talk to the Cumberland Rotary Club on Tuesday, March 4, at the regular 12:15 luncheon meeting. His topic was "George Washington's First Inauguration and First Administration."

At the last general faculty meeting, Dr. Harold Reese, general chairman of the Evaluation Committee for Accreditation, discussed with the faculty the results thus far of the studies of the various faculty committees in preparation for the visit of a group of members from the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

After the general meeting, the members of the college faculty who teach Education courses met and elected Dr. Reese chairman of the Education Department for the remainder of this year.

Women's Association Ends Intramurals

The W. R. A. basketball season ended on Thursday, March 6, with the seniors claiming the championship. The juniors bowed to the seniors with a score of 17-12.

Petty Ann Hanna led the league in scoring with 65 points.

Individual class high-scorers were senior Gwen Turnbull, 36 points; junior Ruth Rahn, 37 points; freshman A Joann Farrell, 19 points; and freshman B Margaret Ann Difer, 45 points.

Standing of Teams

Team	Won	Lost
Freshman B	0	4

The officials for the games were Mrs. Resser and Mrs. Rice, Physical Ed. Directors at Allegany, Fort Hill.

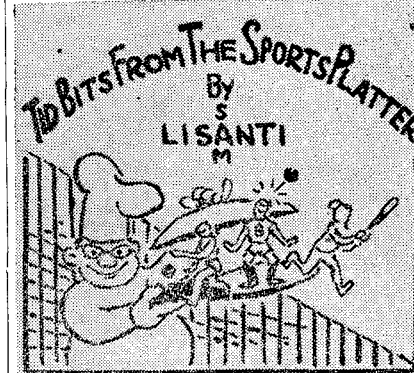

The girls' bowling season has ended for this year. Dotty Shertzer, bowling chairman, has posted the names of 27 persons who have completed their eight practices.

The three top bowlers for this season were Alice Fulton, Dolores Gilard, and Robetta Wilson.

Others receiving credit for bowling this year include: Shirley Green, Barbara Henry, Jean Kreissig, Eleanor Smith, Helen Benson, Gladys Wensel, and Phyllis Campbell, freshmen.

Martha Frank, Dotty Keefauver, Josephine King, Pat Halloran, Willie Ann Howes, Dotty Shertzer, Carolyn Hull, Colleen Kreger, Alice Meconi and Phyllis Hamburg are among the sophomores receiving credit.

Juniors attending eight practices include Juanita Blank, Emily Popp, Edith Utt, Patricia Creek, Joann Fisher, Nellie Fulk, Becky Lohr and Ruth Rahn.

The Gold Medal Basketball Tournament to be held in Cumberland will attract most of the boys from our varsity team. They will appear in the Senior Unlimited division. This was won last year by the Parker A. C. which was composed of boys from the University of Maryland; so stiff competition is expected.

Baseball practice is in full swing now. Coach Babcock expects to have a veteran team this year headed by Harold "Hot" Scott, the outfielder nonpareil. Other returning veterans include "Rooster" Carter; Ed Shuck, Davy and Don Lewis, Ralph Dyer, Jack Barham, and "Silent" Birmingham. The chief thorn in Babcock's side will be the pitching staff. With the loss of John Frank and Bill Buser of last year's team he will have to come up with a new pitching find.

Plans are being formulated for an intramural softball tournament this spring. Joe Spearman, Francey Ruffo, and John Lynch have been getting in shape by running around the girls' dorm three times daily. At 10-2—and 4.

Congratulations to the Senior Girls for winning the Basketball tournament. This scribe went on record as picking the Sophs, while the Juniors were favorites, but the Seniors won. How wrong can a guy be? Gwen Turnbull turned the tide in the final period with some snappy shooting. Ann Povish, Dolly Burrell, Maxine Conrad, Pat Benna, Mary E. Slite and Margie Robinson really looked "nice" out there. The tournament was run off in fine style and the W. R. A. should come in for a lot of credit.

Spring Training Notes . . . Does Leo Rowan have a baseball scholarship to go with the one he has in basketball? . . . Jack Cline pitched for Hagerstown Jr. College last year. Maybe he can fill the bill here . . . Since the school has not taken out that insurance policy, it is hoped that Ken Tooey and "Fuzz" Van Meter do not take batting practice in the gym.

Today's Bouquet goes to Bill Kirk for the lift he gave the basketball team during the season. This mighty mite played the game well and hard as he has three years of eligibility left he should be a top flight collegiate ball player when his career is over.

'Til next time, S. L.
