

The Maryland Gazette.

VOL. XCI.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 7, 1835

NO. 1.

Printed and Published by
JONAS GREEN,
At the Brick Building on the Public
Circle.
Price—Three Dollars per annum.

THE GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM,
OR, THE
SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION,
A WEEKLY COMPANION OF DRAMATIC LITERATURE, SPORTING, THE TURF, FASHIONS, GRAZING, AGRICUL-TURE, AND
VARIOUS SUBJECTS OF INTEREST AND AMUSEMENT.
Interpersed with a multitude of Appropriate Engrav-
ings, including Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses, Philosophical and Natural Phenomena, Legendary, &c.

THIS popular journal, although but a few months old, has since its commencement, been already obtained an extensive and profitable subscription list, which is daily increasing, and affords ample encouragement to the publishers to persevere in their efforts to render it useful, amusing, and instructive.

On the commencement of the approaching year,
the VADE MECUM will undergo several important
improvements—instead of four pages, it will be increased to eight of nearly the present size, and consequently will contain almost double the quantity of reading matter which is now given—Making it one of the Largest and Neatest Quartos ever published in the United States. It will be printed on new type, and fine white paper, and the embellishments will be considerably multiplied, and of a superior order. Persons desirous of procuring the work at the beginning of the new volume, will please send their orders at once—as they may fail to be supplied, as but few copies will be published more than are actually subscribed for at the time.

The subjects which are particularly embraced in the Vade Mecum, will be more distinctly understood from
the following brief analysis of them—

THE DRAMA forms a material portion of the Gentleman's Vade Mecum—every week an entire Play or Farce is given. They are selected with a single eye to their merits, alone, a preference, however, will be extended in all cases to native productions, when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully excluding all invidious comparisons, and recommended by their brevity, are occasionally inserted; as also, Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and Bon Mots of prominent Characters of the present and past ages, of which a rare and inexhaustible compilation is stored. The publishers, by the liberality of the managers of the two Philadelphia Theatres, and several other gentlemen connected with the stage, have obtained a very excellent and numerous selection of Plays and Farces for the Vade Mecum; many of which are new, and of the highest primary.

THE TURF. A faithful record is kept of all the Running and Trotting Matches in this country and England. Biographical and correct portraits of celebrated thorough bred Horses are published once a month.
Every fact relative to the breeding, management, keeping, and the diseases of the horse, is carefully transmitted by mail.

The Sporting Intelligence, at home and abroad, occupies a considerable portion of our columns, and is collected from the most authentic sources. Among the Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses which have
been given, are:

The American Trotting Horse, Edwin Forrest.
The Imported Racing Horse, Napoleon.
The American Trotting Horse, Lady Jackson.
The Racing Horse, Ariel, and her foal, by Eclipse.
The true-blooded popular Horse Chateau Margaux.
The American Trotting Horse, Top Gallant.
The well known English Race Horse, Touchstone.
Maudslayi, the winner of the Derby Stakes in June, 1835.

The unrivalled American Trotter, Andrew Jackson.
The celebrated English Horse, Glencoe.
A complete Treatise on Riding, with fourteen illustrations, for the improvement of Ladies in that most healthy of all exercises.

Explanation of the Automaton Chess Player, illustrated by eleven engravings.

Four Engravings, designed to represent the scene
which took place in Paris, in July last, on the attempted destruction of the Royal Family of France—with a view of the Infernal Machine; and a likeness of the Assassin, Gerard.

A correct Picture of a Race Course, occupying the
width of seven columns.

SPORTING.—Besides other matters belonging to
this head, there will be published correct accounts of Shooting Matches, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquatic Excursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c. with anecdotes of noted Dogs.

MILITARY UNIFORMS.—The publisher has employed the assistance of an excellent artist to furnish a regular series of engravings of the different Beautiful Uniforms worn by the principal Volunteer Corpses of Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Baltimore, and other places, which will be published periodically, with a particular description of each, furnished by a competent hand. This subject forms a peculiar attraction to the general interest of the work.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS.—A quarterly review is made out by a gentleman connected with a fashionable house in Philadelphia, explanatory of the various improvements and changes which costume worn
in the dress circles constantly undergo; by which it will be rendered an easy task for dressers and tailors, at a distance, to suit their customers with the most approved
colours and modern style of apparel at the earliest possible period.

MISCELLANY.—Although the purposes of our sheet may appear to be confined to the several leading subjects which may have been stated, we deem it proper to say, that there constantly is, in addition to these,
a considerable space allowed for Miscellaneous matter,
such as Tales, Poetry, Anecdotes, Legendaries, an Ec-plogue of News, Places of Amusement, Statistics, Agriculture, Domestic Economy, Valuable Receipts, &c. Also, a republication of the best and most popular of the old English and American Sporting and National Songs, Set to Music; besides many other matters, regarding
which an interest is supposed to exist.

By the above explanation, it will be seen that the Gentleman's Vade Mecum is particularly designed as a companion for the patrons of the Turf the Drama;
Sporting, the Fashions, &c. It is worthy of notice,
that its patrons in the course of one year, will be furnished with four hundred and fifty popular Plays or Farces—the price of which, separately, at one of our bookstores, would be at least Thirteen Dollars. Here, is an absolute saving of ten dollars in the purchase of a Dramatic Library—(to be had for an equal small sum)—without taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is sent along with the Vade Mecum.

The Gentleman's Vade Mecum or Sporting Companion, is published every Saturday, on the extra imperial size of a superior quality, each number forming a complete volume, and the largest class at Three Dollars per annum.

the number of agents will be limited to principal cities,
or such other places where a considerable subscription
may be obtained, we request those who propose to patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publishers, Small notes of solvent banks of the different states, taken at par. By enclosing a Five Dollar Note, two copies of the paper will be furnished to any direction ordered, for one year. Specimen numbers will be sent to any part of the Union, by addressing the publisher, postage paid.

THE MODERN ACTING DRAMA.

HAS hitherto been issued in volumes of about 300
pages each—containing the Plays, Farces, &c. which appear in the Vade Mecum, neatly printed, and bound
in elastic covers, for transportation—and published every six weeks. Eight volumes constitute a set, or one year's subscription, the terms for which is Three Dollars, payable in advance.

Subscribers to the Vade Mecum are entitled to a deduction of one-third, when subscribing for the Modern Acting Drama. An order for four sets will be thanked for, and the work forwarded to any direction, by enclosing a ten dollar note—postage paid.
Gentlemen desirous of securing a set of this work, will
please forward their names immediately—the edition,
which was a small one, is going off rapidly, and it cannot be re-published at the same price.

This work will undergo a material improvement on
the commencement of a new series in January, 1836.
It is intended to be published Every Month, or as near
the beginning as possible; each No. to contain pages of fine letter press printing, and 12 numbers to constitute a volume of 375 pages. Every Play or Farce which will be published, is to be accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Engraving—making in the course of the year nearly Fifty. Two Embellishments—to which will be added as a Frontispiece, a full sized Steel Engraving, containing the likeness of Six Distinguished Actors and Actresses. No alterations will be made from the present terms. Every person who desires to obtain an invaluable collection of the best Dramatic Act-ings should forward his name forthwith, as the edition
will be limited to the number which is absolutely subscribed for. The publisher pledges himself to make this work equal in interest and superiority of execution
to his prospectus; or he will refund the price of subscription, free of all charges. No subscription received unless the terms are complied with. No work of this kind has ever been attempted in the United States, and none
is more likely to prove popular and satisfactory.

Any person collecting four subscribers to the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, or the Modern Acting Drama, and remitting the amount of one year's subscription ($3) for each—shall be presented with the Novelists' Almanac, in two volumes, a work of considerable popularity, and which is now selling for $3—It contains the productions of eight different authors, well known
to the public as among the most interesting writers of the day.

Persons wishing to subscribe to the above works,
will address CHAS. E. ALEXANDER, Advertiser, Philadelphia, or the publishers, and they may rest assured that every attention will be paid to have them carefully transmitted by mail.

Potomac Bank of Maryland,
Elliot's Mill, Oct. 31, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given, to the Stockholders of this Institution, that the balance of fifteen dollars on each share of stock is required to be paid at the Banking House,
in the following instalments, viz:

The third instalment of five dollars per share, on the 15th December next, of which due notice has been given.

The fourth instalment of five dollars per share on the 5th of February next.

The fifth and last instalment, of five dollars per share, on the 1st of April next.

Stockholders who pay their instalments before the periods above designated, will be allowed to participate in the profits of the Institution from the first day of the month,
next ensuing the date of their respective payments.

By order of the President and Directors,
B. U. CAMPBELL, Cashier.
Nov. 6, 1835.—mta.

Anne Arundel County, Ec.

ON application to the subscriber, Chief Judge of Anne Arundel County Court, by petition, in writing, of Henry Watts of Anne Arundel county, stating that he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1805, and the several supplements thereon, on the terms therein mentioned; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, and of the debts due to him, on oath, so far as he can ascertain the same,
being annexed to his petition, and the said
Henry Watts having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided two years
within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said Henry Watts having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel county, to answer such interrogatories and allegations
as may be made against him, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from said Henry Watts a conveyance and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed; I do hereby order and adjudge that the said Henry Watts be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Anne Arundel County,
once a week for three consecutive months,
before the third Monday in April next, to appear before the said County Court, at the Court House of said county, in the city of Annapolis on the said third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why
the said Henry Watts should not have the benefit of the said Act and supplements as prayed. Given under my hand the eleventh day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five.

THOS. B. DORSEY.

A CARD.

THE undersigned with dispose of an accommodating terms, his interest, (being an undivided moiety) in a Tract of Land called "Chance," containing Two Hundred and Eight Acres, and adjoining the Farm of the late Thomas Bicknell.

Dec. 17. JAMES F. BRICE.

PROSPECTUS.

THE Subscriber proposes to publish in Upper Marlboro', Prince George's county, Maryland, a weekly journal, to be called THE BULLETIN.

In undertaking to supply this acknowledged desideratum to the populous and intelligent district in which the subscriber has the fortune to reside, his hope of ultimate success finds not its origin in sanguine expectations, but proceeds from the eminent advantages of its location. Published in the metropolis of a large and wealthy county, situated equidistant from the State and National capitals, facilities of an early communication of whatever may interest its patrons, are particularly afforded to the Editor; and though he may not hope to present to his friends much foreign information through the medium of his columns, not derivable from other journals, it is still certain that intelligence of a local nature, interesting to all,
and important to many, and otherwise unattainable, will by this means be communicated.

It will also offer to those whose means are inadequate to the expense of the larger journals, at least a synoptical view of all the important information they contain; and he trusts that those of literary taste may sometimes find in its columns, articles not unworthy of the employment of their leisure. As the plan of every publication which is to find its success in popular support, must first be expounded before public patronage can be expected, the Editor would here mark the outline of his design, with the full knowledge that it will constitute an ordeal, by which, to determine both its merit and the fidelity of its prosecution.

The Editor proposes to adapt his paper to the wishes of those by whom he is immediately surrounded, and among whom he must naturally find a majority of his patrons: he knows them to be intelligent and inquiring—the Literary department, shall, therefore, be assiduously regarded, and the most approved domestic and foreign periodicals resorted to for belles lettres notices. He knows them to be patriotic, and that they feel a deep interest in the welfare of our common country. To gratify this sentiment to the extent of his ability, his columns shall afford whatever intelligence of a political character may be calculated to interest them. No man, with the faculty of thought, is at this crisis neutral in reference to the party distinctions now prevailing in this country, and the Editor does not wish to disguise his political sentiments—they are in opposition to the measures of the present Administration. But having neither the temper nor the motive of a partisan, his comments upon party movements shall be characterized by frankness of argument, not violence of abuse
—and as it never has been his practice, so shall it never become his habit to deal in political invective or party violence. He will cheerfully lend the aid of his columns to communications from all parties—reserving to himself
the privilege of rejecting such as are objectionable for personal allusion or indecorous language. In addition to the advantages of appropriate political and literary selections, he trusts also to tempt into exercise whatever of native talent may surround him, and with such aids he may not presumptuously hope to render his paper useful and interesting. He asks not the patronage of his friends longer than his efforts merit and repay it as he wishes not to owe that favour to personal feeling, which would be denied to his editorial labors.

The BULLETIN will be published on Thursday in each week. Terms of subscription $3 per annum.

—WILLIAM H. HALL,
Upper Marlboro', Feb. 14, 1835.

A BARGAIN.

THE undersigned intending to transfer his Publication office to the Eastward, offers to sell the PRESSES, TYPS and MATTER-ALS used in the Public Work. If there be an Editor printer of the party who dares to become a competitor for the printing, we will furnish an office and the materials to do the work, and take orders on the Clerk of the House of Representatives in payment.

The patronage of the Department is worth from twelve to twenty thousand dollars per annum, and that of the House as much more.

Will editors with whom we exchange give this one or two insertions.

DUFF GREEN.

Nov. 5.

FOR ANNAPOLIS.

THE STEAM BOAT
MARYLAND will go to Annapolis, on Sunday the 20th, and 27th inst, and
return same day, leaving
the lower end Dugan's wharf, at 9 o'clock,
A. M. Passage same as last year.

N. B.—All baggage at the owner's risk.

LEWIS G. TAYLOR.

Dec. 24.

LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND. HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Wednesday, December 30th, 1835.

Benjamin Hood, Esq. a delegate returned from Anne Arundel County. George McCollough, and Granville S. Townsend, Esquires, delegates returned from Cecil County, severally appeared,
qualified and took their seats.

Mr. Ridgely presented a petition of the subscribers to the Potomac Female Institute, praying the grant of a Lottery privilege.

Mr. Annan, presented a petition of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of Frederick city, praying a supplement to the act, entitled an act to incorporate Frederick-town in Frederick county.

The Speaker laid before the House a communication from the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, enclosing a copy of a resolution passed the House of Representatives of said Commonwealth December 11th, 1835, and also a copy of an act to incorporate the Franklin Rail Road Company.

Mr. Iglehart, presented a petition of William Jenkins, former collector of Anne Arundel county, praying further time to complete his collection.

Mr. Heard, presented sundry memorials and letters from St. Mary's county instructing the delegates of said county, to vote for George Coombs, Esq. to fill the vacancy of Register of Wills in said county.

Mr. Ely, presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act to regulate the Baltimore markets.

Mr. Teackle, presented a petition of sundry citizens of Somerset county, praying for an act to authorize the construction of a Rail Road.

Mr. McLean, presented a petition of Michael Toner, and others, of the city of Baltimore, praying to condemn and make public an alley,
in said city.

And, Mr. Richardson presented a petition of sundry citizens of the city of Baltimore, praying the passage of an act to incorporate the Columbian Beneficial Society of Baltimore.

Mr. Carpenter, submitted the following message, which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We propose with your concurrence the appointment of a joint committee of the two houses, to wait upon his Excellency the Governor, and inform him that we are prepared to receive any communication he may be pleased to make, and we have appointed Messrs. Carpenter and Sutton, to join such gentlemen as may be named by your honourable body to perform
this service.

Mr. Ely, obtained leave to bring in a bill, to amend and explain an act, to limit and define
the jurisdiction of justices of the peace, passed at December session 1834, chapter 290.

Mr. Carroll of Balt. county, obtained leave to bring in bill, to establish Magistrates Courts
in Baltimore county.

Mr. Annan, obtained leave to bring in a bill, to continue an act for the dispatch of business in Frederick county, passed December session 1820.

Mr. Richardson, obtained leave to bring in a bill, to change the name of Thomas Nicholson,
of the City of Baltimore, to that of Thomas Gould.

Mr. Duvall, obtained leave to bring in a bill, for the benefit of Charles Gasaway and Thomas H. Clagett, both of Loudon county, in the State of Virginia.

Mr. Winder, obtained leave to bring in a bill, to alter and amend an act, to provide for the electing Commissioners for Baltimore county,
and prescribing their powers and duties, passed March 10th, 1827.

Mr. Berry, obtained leave to bring in a bill, to make valid a deed from Benjamin Davis, to Thomas Davis.

And, Mr. Pratt, obtained leave to bring in a bill, to authorize the recording of a deed from James Carroll, of the City of Baltimore, to Robert
D. Sewall, of Prince George's county.

Mr. Berry, submitted the following order, Ordered, That the clerk be authorized to furnish the members of this House, for the present session, with such newspapers as they may direct, the expense whereof for each member
not to exceed the price of one daily paper.

Mr. Merrick, moved to amend said order, by striking out in the last line thereof, the word
"one," and inserting in lieu thereof "two."

Resolved in the affirmative.

The said order was then read the second time
as amended, and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Townsend,

Ordered, That the committee on Internal Improvement, be instructed to open a correspondence with the Governor and Directors of the Maryland and Susquehanna Canal Company,
in order to ascertain on what terms they will sell to the State the stock of said company.

Mr. Teackle, submitted the following preamble and resolution,
Whereas the entrances of the rivers Nanticokes, Monokin, Annapessex, Pocomoke, and Wicomico, the straits of Hooper, and Coney, and the sounds of Taggier and Pocomoke, in the collection districts of Shewell's Bay, &c. common to the navigation and commerce of more than one thousand registered and licensed vessels, and affording a nursery of seedmen of incalculable value, are difficult and dangerous by reason of narrow, or meandering channels through shaded flats or shallows, in consequence whereof the owners of vessels properly belonging to those rivers, straits and sounds, although few in comparison to the numbers who resort o trade therein, have been and now are subject to an annual tax for staking out and designating the said channels; and considering that the regulation of commerce has been wholly ceded to the Federal Government, and that the individual States in their sovereign character are wholly divested of all its resulting revenues; and considering also that the numerous sailors and watermen employed in the navigation of the said rivers, straits, and sounds, are subject to a monthly charge under the denomination of Hospital money, without an equivalent benefit, as very few of those sailors or watermen are ever admitted into the Marine Hospital. And whereas an insufficient sum has been assigned by the Congress of the United States for placing Buoys

in the said waters, Therefore:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, that the Senators of this State in the Congress of the United States, be instructed, and Representatives requested, to use their exertions to procure additional appropriations, sufficient to provide that the channels of the said rivers,
straits and sounds may be distinctly marked out,
and made easy of ingress and egress by the placing of Buoys at proper sites, and that an equitable sum be also appropriated for the pay of keepers of the said buoys.

Further Resolved, that his Excellency the Governor, be requested to communicate a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolutions to each of the Senators and Representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and assented to.

Mr. Brewer submitted the following message, which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose with the consent of your honorable body to appoint a committee to consist of five members of this House, conjointly with such gentlemen as may be appointed by the Senate on their part, to contract for and regulate the public printing. We have appointed Messrs.
Brewer, Worthington, Bruhl, McMahon, and Burchenal, on the part of this House.

The Clerk of the Senate delivered the following messages.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message informing us
of your organization and readiness to proceed with the business of the session. The Senate is also ready to proceed to business.

We have elected the Honourable John G.
Chapman, President, and Joseph H. Nicholson, Esquire, Clerk.

We accede to your proposition, to sit from 10 o'clock, A. M., until 3 o'clock, P. M., for the despatch of public business.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message proposing to proceed to the election of a Register of Wills for St. Mary's county, this day at 10 o'clock, and concur therein.

We make no addition to the nomination of your honourable body. We have appointed Messrs. Wilson and Montgomery to join the committee of your house, to count the ballots,
and report the result.

Mr. Annan reported a bill, for the despatch of business in Frederick County court, passed December session, 1820, and its supplements.

Which was read the first and second time by
special order, passed, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Pratt reported a bill, to authorize the recording of a deed from James Carroll, of Baltimore city, to Robert D. Sewall, of Prince George's county.

Messrs. Carpenter and Sutton, the committee appointed to wait on his Excellency the Governor, and inform him that a quorum of the House
having convened, were ready to proceed to business, and receive any communication he might be pleased to lay before them, reported that the committee had performed the duties of their appointment, and that the Governor had answered, that he would transmit a communication to the House to day at half past 12 o'clock.

The clerk of the Council delivered the following communication from the Executive:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

ANNAPOLIS, December 30th, 1835.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

And of the House of Delegates,
It has again become our welcome duty to lay before you a general view of the proceedings of the Executive Department of the Government during the past year, and to suggest for your consideration such measures as appear to us important to the happiness of our fellow citizens or the prosperity of the republic.

In the outset, we must be permitted to pay a just tribute to the enlightened wisdom of the last General Assembly, who struck out, from the difficulties with which those important subjects
had been previously embarrassed, the most happy expedient for giving a new and powerful im-

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.

BOOKS BY MAIL.

PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty per cent of its patrons who are at the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying popular literature of a character to excite and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of merit, which may be a limited into every family.

Admission is free to all the most fastidious, and as a source of relief for all its members, promoting a social intercourse of letters and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventures, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form an indispensable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family for a cent and a half a day, postage included; a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Reed's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be found at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded, that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and uncongenial society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Librarian's Journal. It contains reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5.00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20.00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6.00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chambers's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2.50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the Port Folio for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $30.00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE,

Seventh, two doors south of Chestnut street, Philad.

THE MUSEUM OF FOREIGN LITERATURE AND BOOKS, price $6.00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $14.00.

Oct. 8

NOTICE.

THE subscribers having obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, letters of administration, with the will annexed, on the estate of Thomas Snowden, late of said county, deceased, hereby give notice to all persons having claims against the deceased, to exhibit the same properly authenticated, and they request all persons indebted to the deceased, to make immediate payments.

PHOS. S. HERBERT,
HORACE CAPRON.

Nov. 26.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans Court of A. A. County, letters of administration on the personal estate of James Hunter, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate, are requested to present them, legally authenticated, and those indebted are desired to make immediate payment.

JOHN MILLER, Admr.
Nov. 26. 3w.

SPLENDID

French, Italian, German, British and American Prints.

CONSISTING OF the most beautiful Female Portraits; Sporting Landscapes; Historical and Contemporary; Caricature Engravings and Lithographs, ever offered in this city; all of which will be exhibited to such persons as will purchase to the amount of fifty cents, the frequent handling tending considerably to soil and otherwise retard the sale of them.

The above beautiful collection of articles have just been received.—for sale by

F. M. JARBOE.

Oct. 15.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE
WASHINGTON MIRROR.

THE subscriber having purchased the Washington Mirror from its former proprietor, will in future be its conductor.

The general plan of the Mirror is, we believe, satisfactory to all our subscribers—affording a comprehensive view of the city affairs in a manner unattainable by any other paper. Our leading object being "to lay hold of those local subjects and occurrences which have not been noticed in the daily papers," including Police Reports, and all other matters as of general interest, we have engaged the valuable services of Mr. WILLIAM THOMPSON as assistant editor, whose spirited and untiring exertions to establish this paper have been so eminently successful.

We propose to furnish brief abstracts of all judicial decisions which shall more particularly interest the citizens of this District. Also a brief but comprehensive summary of Congressional proceedings.

We propose further, during the session of Congress, to publish an Evening Edition, by which arrangement our distant subscribers will receive the latest Congressional Intelligence one day and a half sooner than through any other Washington paper.

We intend, if possible, to furnish a weekly list of all New Patents; a Bank-note Table, and Prices Current of Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown, corrected with the greatest accuracy; also, Stages, Steamboats, and Rail Road Registers.

We shall exert our best endeavours to elevate the literary character of the Mirror. This can only be done by the co-operation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskilled, since far more desirable, it must be allowed, would be publications, selections than mediocre originalities.

We believe that the prospects of Washington demand such a paper as we intend to publish. She is already closely allied, by her rail road, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her competitor, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the country; by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry defy the reach of imagination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created, which will astonish the most sanguine economist. Washington and Baltimore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men.—Such, in fact, are our advantages, that prosperity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incalculable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an important community; a literary and miscellaneous family paper; a journal of current literature; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking.

Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi-annually in advance.

RUFUS DAWES.

Washington, D. C.

Nov. 5.

CASH FOR

ANY NUMBER OF NEGROES, Including both sexes, from 10 to 33 years of age.

PERSONS having likely Servants to dispose of, and wishing the highest prices, will do well to give me a call, as I am determined to buy, and give higher prices than any other purchaser, who is now or may come into this market. I can at all times be found at Mr. James Hunter's Tavern, in Annapolis. All communications directed to me will be promptly attended to.

ISAAC F. PURVIS,

COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LIBRARY.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

BEFORE the Select Circulating Library had been long in existence, it was discovered that there was still something wanting—that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown other desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the "Library" a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magaziniaria, interspersed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would encroach too much on the columns of the "Library" designed for books, and yet to pass them by is constantly a subject of regret. To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines, &c. &c. the "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of the present subscribers and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," the "Journal," and the "Companion," such an acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for subscribing, and having fewer people to deal with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and more readily corrected when they do. The short interval of two weeks between the publication of each number, it is thought too, will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies.

The following plan is respectfully submitted.

1. The "COMPANION" will contain the earliest possible reprints of the best matter in the British periodicals.
2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the Library—each number containing sixteen pages—thus, every six months, giving thirteen numbers, which can be bound with the Library at little or no more expense, and making a better sized volume; and to those who do not take the Library itself, a volume every year, of 416 quarto pages of the size of the present.
3. The price will be three dollars for a subscriber—five dollars for two—and clubs five and upwards will be supplied at two dollars each.
4. As the work will not be commenced, unless a sufficient patronage be obtained, no payment is required at present, only the name, sent free of postage. Those wishing to support the publication will be pleased therefore to announce their intention as early as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the first of January next. On the issuing of the second number payment will be expected, as its appearance will evidence a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid diffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has already at hand the material for such a work, all the really valuable matter of the English literary and amusing publications may be comprised in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely to be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and magazines ever attempted, in any country; a comparison with others is were useless here to enter upon, the "Library" itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value or cheapness; how far he is likely to do this he must leave at present to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the "Library" and "Companion" both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety-five cents, divided into seventy eight payments, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance from Philadelphia, while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magazines in octavo form would be eighteen dollars, and the postage as three to one. We make this assertion advisedly.

Subscriptions to the "Companion," will be taken either with or without the "Library." The proprietor trusts that his punctuality and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the "Library," will be considered a sufficient guarantee of the completion of his proposed undertaking.

ADAM WALDIE,

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:

The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Doctrinal works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ showing Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholic, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Question of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scripturist; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M'Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventura's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received, and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y. Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

ADAM WALDIE,

NEW GOODS.

GEORGE MONIER, MERCHANT TAILOR.

HAS just received, and is now opening at his new establishment, second door from his former place of business, a large and general assortment of Clothes, Cassimere and Vestings; selected in Philadelphia and Baltimore, with the greatest care. He invites his friends and the public to give him a call.

Sept. 17—11.

TO THE PRINTERS OF THE UNITED STATES.

J. SPITTALL.

WOOD LETTER CUTTER AND ENGRAVER, No. 21, Franklin Place, PHILADELPHIA.

RESPECTFULLY announces to the Printers of the United States, that he has commenced the manufacture of WOOD LETTERS.

Wood Letters of every description, from four to thirty-four lines Pica, or upward, made to order on the shortest notice.

Ornamental Letters of entirely new and most splendid patterns, for Heads of Newspapers, Title Lines, &c. from two lines Great Primer to any size larger.

His type will be made of materials of the best assortment, well seasoned and prepared by machinery, invented for the purpose, which ensures the most exact adjustment.

Specimens will be published as early as possible.

Engravings on Wood.

Executed with neatness and promptitude: Heads for Newspapers, Fac-similes, Ornamental and Plain Rules, &c. &c. cut with the greatest accuracy in type metal or wood.

Old cast metal cuts, ornaments, &c. engraved over, and made equal to new for half their original cost.

A liberal discount for cash. Six months credit on the most approved security. Orders from the country promptly attended to. All letters must be post paid.

Editors of papers in the country who will give the above advertisement a few insertions, and forward a paper containing the same to the advertiser, will be paid therefor in any of the above mentioned materials.

NOTICE.

THE Commissioners for Anne Arundel county will meet at the Court House in the city of Annapolis on TUESDAY the 19th day of January next, for the purpose of settling with the Inspectors of Tobacco, hearing appeals, and making transfers, and closing their books for the year 1835.

By order, J. COWMAN, CLK.

Dec. 10.—5

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Betty Davis, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate, are requested to present them, legally authenticated, and those indebted are desired to make immediate payment.

EDWARD DUBOIS, Ex'r.

Dec. 3.

THE CULTIVATOR

Is a monthly publication of 16 quarto pages, and comprises about 200 pages in a volume, published at Albany, by the New York State Agricultural Society. It is exclusively devoted to Agriculture and the Improvement of Youth. The publishing committee are J. Buel, J. P. Beekman, and J. D. Wason. The object of the publication is to disseminate useful information, among the agricultural community, in the cheapest practicable form; and the success of the undertaking, and the character of the paper, are indicated by the fact, that before its 1st volume was completed its subscribers exceeded eleven thousand, and comprised residents of twenty one of the United States.

The second volume was commenced in March. The pages are so enlarged, that each number contains as much matter as eighteen pages of the first volume. It contains many engravings and cuts, executed by good artists, illustrative of implements, animals and operations of husbandry. Price FIFTY CENTS per annum. The postage will not exceed 18 cents per year to any part of the Union.

The first volume will continue to be furnished at 50 cents a single copy.

Communications to be addressed to J. Buel, Albany, N. Y.

Subscriptions received by A. Cowan, at this office, where a specimen of the work can be seen.

Aug. 27.

FUNERALS.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Cabinet Making Business, and intends to confine himself to the future altogether to that of an UNDERTAKER.

All orders for Funerals will be attended to at the shortest notice, either in the usual manner, or according to special direction.

He returns his thanks to the public for their patronage during the last twenty years, and hopes that his promptness and attention will continue to merit their favour.

WASHINGTON G. TUCK.

Feb. 26.

PRINTING

Neatly executed at this

OFFICE.

...opening a
...door from
...and go
...ing
...timore, with
...friends and
...THE
...S.
...ENGRAVER
...ce.
...ces to the
...ates, that is
...of WOOD
...ription, from
...or upwards,
...ice.
...ly new and
...d of News-
...lines Great
...erials of the
...nd prepared
...prose, which
...nt.
...as early as
...od,
...promptitude
...milies, Ornate
...ut with the
...or wood.
...uts, &c. en-
...new for half
...Six months
...curity. Or-
...attended to.
...country who
...ent a few
...ntaining the
...paid therefor
...materials.
...ne Arundel
...rt House in
...AY the 19th
...pose of set-
...backo, hear-
...ers, and close
...835.
...MAN, CLK.
...GIVEN,
...ined from the
...nd county,
...onal estate of
...y, deceased.
...at said estate,
...gally succe-
...desire to do
...1838, Ex'r.
...TOR
...quarto pages.
...ages in a vo-
...the New York
...is exclusive-
...the Improve-
...committee
...J. D. Was-
...tion is to dis-
...ng the agri-
...apest practi-
...the undertak-
...per, are indi-
...its 1st volume
...ceeded eleven
...of twenty
...ommenced in
...enlarged, that
...h matter as
...me. It con-
...s, executed by
...lements, ani-
...ndry. Price
...The postage
...ar to any part
...to be fur-
...ed to J. Buel,
...A. Cowan,
...imen of the
...to inform his
...general, that
...Making By
...himself for the
...NDERTAK-
...be attended to
...the usual man-
...ction.
...public for their
...ty years, and
...attention will
...G. TUCK.
...G
...at this
...

The Maryland Gazette.

ANNAPOLES, THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1836.

NO. 2.

Printed and Published by
JONAS GREEN,
At the Brick Building on the Public
Circle.
Price—Three Dollars per annum.
LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND.
HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Friday, January 1st, 1836.
William Kirby, Esq. a delegate returned for Queen Anne's county, appeared, qualified, and took his seat.
Mr. Turace, presented a petition of Sarah Satterfield, of Caroline county, praying to be divorced from her husband James Satterfield;
Mr. Teackle presented a memorial and petition of sundry citizens of Somerset county,
praying that the powers conferred in the Levy Court of said county may be exercised by persons elected immediately by the people;
Mr. Worthington, presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Prince George's county, relative to the fisheries on the Potomac River;
And, Mr. Brookhart, presented a petition of Jacob Easterday, of Washington county, praying to be divorced from his wife, Fanny East-erday;
On motion of Mr. Pratt, (seconded by two other members that voted in the majority,) the house reconsidered their vote upon the order adopted on the 30th ultimo, instructing the committee on internal improvement, to open a correspondence with the governor and directors of the Maryland and Susquehanna Canal company, in order to ascertain on what terms they would
sell to the State, the stock of said company.
Mr. Pratt, then moved that said order be rejected;
Resolved in the affirmative.
Mr. Iglehart reported a bill, for the benefit of William Jenkins, former collector of Anne Arundel county;
Which was read the first and second time by
special order, passed and sent to the Senate.
Mr. Davall reported a bill, for the benefit of Thomas H. Claggett, and Charles Gasaway, citizens of Loudon county, in the State of Virginia;
And, Mr. Richardson reported a bill, to incorporate the Columbia Beneficial society of Maryland;
Mr. Teackle submitted the following order;
"Ordered, That a committee to consist of seven members be appointed to inquire into the expediency of establishing an Agricultural School and Pattern Farm, in each of the counties of this State;"
Which was read;
Mr. Merrick moved to amend said order, by adding at the end thereof, these words, "and to report a plan for providing ways and means to defray the expense thereof;"
Resolved in the affirmative;
The said order was then read the second time
as amended, and adopted.
In pursuance whereof, the Speaker appointed
Messrs. Teackle, Annan, Wharton, Gillis, Heard, Larrimore, and McCulloch, the Committee.
The House then adjourned, until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

Saturday January 2nd, 1836.
Mr. McLean presented a petition of Samuel Carey, and John E. Carey, of the city of Baltimore, praying to have certain auction duties therein mentioned refunded to them.
Mr. Richardson, presented a petition of James Alford, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be divorced from his wife Jane Alford.
Mr. Brookhart, presented a petition of Peter Nowcomer, of Washington county, praying the passage of an act authorizing the review of a certain road therein mentioned.
Mr. Bayly, presented a petition of sundry citizens of the town of Cambridge, in Dorchester county, praying the Legislature to authorize the commissioners of said town, to remove certain obstructions from the mouth of Cambridge creek in said county.
And, Mr. Merrick, presented a petition of Susan Stewart, of Charles county, praying to be divorced from her husband John W. Stewart.
On motion of Mr. Pratt,
Ordered unanimously, That Joseph J. Speed, Esq. be, and he is hereby reappointed State Director on the part of this House, in the Bank of Baltimore, for the ensuing year.
Mr. Matthews, asked the following leave,
Leave to bring in a bill, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, an act, to incorporate a company to be styled the Allegany Coal Mine Rail Road Company, passed at December session 1834, chapter 168.
Which was read, And,
On motion of Mr. Matthews, referred to the committee on internal improvements.
Mr. Annan reported a supplement to the act,
to incorporate Frederick town in Frederick county.
Mr. Wharton reported a bill, to confirm an act passed December session 1834, to alter and change a part of the division line between the second, third, and fourth election districts in Washington county.
Mr. Gough reported a bill, making additional provision for the crier of Harford county Court.

And Mr. Townsend reported a bill, relating to constables fees in Cecil county, and for other purposes.
The bill reported by Mr. Ridgely, entitled an act for the encouragement of female education
in the State of Maryland, was taken up for consideration.
Mr. Ely moved to lay said bill on the table.
Resolved in the affirmative.
The house then adjourned until Monday morning ten o'clock.

Monday, January 4th, 1836.
Mr. Larrimore, presented a petition of Lydia Roberts, of the state of Delaware, praying a pension for services rendered by her husband in the war of the revolution.
Mr. Brown, presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Harford counties, praying for the passage of an act to regulate the Baltimore markets.
And, Mr. Boyd, presented a memorial of Zephaniah Bayles of Harford county, praying the passage of an act authorizing the county court of said county, to confirm the proceedings of certain commissioners therein mentioned.
Mr. Winder, presented a petition of Henry Eberhart, of the state of Virginia, praying a special act of insolvency.
Also presented a memorial of the trustees of the Govanstown Academy, in Baltimore county, praying that the Academy and the improvements thereon, may be exempt from taxation.
On motion of Mr. Jones, Ordered, That the several petitions from sundry citizens of Somerset county, presented at the last session, praying that persons may be elected immediately by the people, clothed with the powers now exercised by the Levy court of said county, be withdrawn from the files of this house, and referred to the committee appointed on the same subject this session.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day, the house proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Ridgely, entitled, an act for the encouragement of female education
in the State of Maryland.
The said bill was read the second time, as amended, and placed in the hands of the Speaker.
Mr. Brookhart moved to withdraw said bill from the hands of the chair for the purpose of amendment.
Determined in the negative.
The question was then put, shall the said bill pass.
Determined in the negative.
The clerk of the senate delivered the following communication from the Executive.
Council Chamber,
Annapolis, January 2d, 1836.
Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Delegates,
I herewith lay before you a copy of a communication received by the mail last evening,
from His Excellency Governor Tazewell, in reply to my last to him in relation to the boundary controversy between the States.
With the highest consideration,
I have the honor to remain,
Your obedient servant,
JAMES THOMAS.

Which was read.
And, on motion of Mr. Wharton, referred to the committee appointed on so much of the Executive message as relates to the south western boundary.
Mr. Richardson, asked the following leave,
Leave to bring in a bill, to confirm an act,
entitled, an act to alter and amend the constitution, passed at December session 1834, chapter 219.
Which was read,
Mr. Richardson, moved that said leave be referred to a select committee of five to be appointed by the chair.
Mr. Burchenal, moved to refer said leave to the committee on the constitution.
Determined in the negative.
The question then recurred and was put on the motion of Mr. Richardson, to refer said leave to a select committee.
Resolved in the affirmative.
In pursuance whereof, the Speaker appointed
Messrs. Richardson, Worthington, Gittings,
Jones, and Burchenal, the committee.
The house adjourned until to-morrow
morning ten o'clock.

Tuesday, January 5th, 1836.
Mr. Duval presented a memorial of Eli Ungleboe, and Louisa Ungleboe, of Frederick county, praying to be divorced.
Mr. McCulloch presented a petition of sundry citizens of Cecil county, praying the passage of an act to authorize the commissioners of said county, to levy a sum of money for purposes therein mentioned.
Mr. Long presented a petition of William Anderson, of Somerset county, praying a special act of insolvency.
Mr. Duval presented a petition of Abraham Deaver, of Frederick county, praying the passage of an act to authorize him, to bring into this State, a certain negro slave therein mentioned.
Mr. Bonn presented a petition of William Ford of Montgomery county, praying to be divorced from his wife Aecnea Ford.
And, Mr. McLean presented a petition of Andrew Young, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be divorced from his wife Maria Young.

Mr. Richardson asked the following leave, to bring in a bill, entitled, an act concerning crimes and punishments.
Which was read.
And, on motion of Mr. Richardson, referred to the committee on crimes and punishments.
On motion of Mr. Duckett,
Ordered, That the committee on Internal Improvement be, and they are hereby instructed to enquire into the propriety of preparing and reporting to this house, a supplement to the act incorporating the Annapolis and Potomac Canal Company, passed at December session, 1835, chapter 189, which shall provide for the organization of said company, so soon as it shall be determined on the manner prescribed by the act of Congress confirming an act of the Legislature of Maryland, entitled, an act incorporating the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal company, and an act of the State of Maryland confirming the same, approved 3d day of March, 1834, that the canal thereby authorized to be made can be constructed without injury to the navigation of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and that said committee report such other amendments to said act
as may be necessary for the more efficient organization of the company thereby incorporated.

Mr. Teackle, chairman of the Select Committee, delivered the following REPORT:
Whereas a great number of persons, inhabitants of Somerset and Worcester counties, by their memorial in writing, have represented to the General Assembly, that they are laboring under great inconveniences from the want of a navigation being opened between the said counties, from the head of the "Dividing Creek" to the Pocomoke River, for the transportation of grain, timber, and other productions of the soil
and forest, the distance being about 12 miles;
and praying an appropriation in aid of opening the said navigation. And whereas, it is believed that the benefits and advantages from the proposed improvement to a large portion of the people of the said counties are such as to claim the favourable consideration of a wise and benevolent legislature.—Therefore,
Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to the order of the Governor, Two Thousand Dollars as the same may be drawn for from time to time by Levin Pollitt, Sen., William Conston, Sen., Joseph Richards, Hancock Shreve, Littleton Surges, Parker Dickerson, Teagle Townsend, Isaac S. Johnson, and William Dryden, Jun., or a majority of them,
who are hereby appointed Commissioners to contract and superintend the removal of impediments in Dividing Creek, between the counties of Somerset and Worcester—and the said Commissioners shall not draw for any part of this appropriation until they, or a majority of them, shall certify to the Governor that they have contracted for the removal of the said impediments; and have taken bond with security approved by them, in the penalty of Four Thousand Dollars, to secure the faithful performance of the contract; and the Commissioners aforesaid shall report to the next General Assembly after the completion of the work, a full and fair account of their expenditures under this resolution.

Which was read.
And, on motion of Mr. Teackle, referred to the committee on Internal Improvements.
The bill reported by Mr. Gough, making additional provision for the crier of Harford county
court.
The bill reported by Mr. Annan, entitled, a supplement to the act, to incorporate Frederick town in Frederick county.
The bill reported by Mr. Wharton, to confirm an act, passed December session, 1834, chapter 166, entitled, an act to alter and change
a part of the division line between the second,
third and fourth election districts, in Washington county.
And the bill reported by Mr. Townsend, relating to constable's fees and for other purposes;
Were severally taken up for consideration,
read the second time, passed and sent to the Senate.
The house then adjourned.

Wednesday, January 6th, 1836.
Mr. Brewer presented a petition of Elizabeth Mary White, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be remunerated for military lands due her father and uncle.
Mr. Gough presented a petition of Reuben Forywood, of Harford county, praying to be placed on the pension roll of said county.
And, Mr. Duval presented a petition of Jacob Haps, of Frederick county, praying for the passage of an act, to authorize him to sell beyond the limits of the State, a certain negro slave therein mentioned.
Mr. Teackle submitted the following pream-
bles and resolution:
Whereas the establishment of light houses at Hooper's Island, near the straits in Dorchester county, and at Sharp Island in Talbot county, have long been objects of desire to all concerned in the trade and navigation of the Chesapeake Bay; And whereas, it is believed that the loss of a large amount of property might have been avoided, and many valuable lives might have been saved to the country, by the timely erection of the lights desired on those Islands; And whereas, the necessary emplacements for the erection of territorial jurisdiction, and the condition of sites have been passed by the Legislature of this State;—Therefore,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Senators and Representatives of this State, in the Congress of the United States,
be requested to use their exertions, to procure appropriations for the erection of light houses
at such points on Hooper's Island, in Dorchester county, and on Sharp Island, in Dorchester county, as may be selected by the proper officers of the United States, and report the completion of those erections, to recommend the light vessel now stationed in Hooper's Straits, be transferred to some suitable station near the southern extremity of Tangier Island in the Chesapeake Bay, or to the seven feet Knoll, near the mouth of the Patuxent river.
Further resolved that His Excellency the Governor, be requested to communicate a copy of the foregoing preamble and resolution, to each of the Senators and Representatives of this State, in the Congress of the United States.
Mr. Sutton, reported a bill, to confirm certain acts of Isaiah Taylor, acting as a justice of the peace, in and for Harford county.
Mr. Richardson, reported a bill, to confirm an act, passed December session, 1834, chapter 219.
Mr. Carpenter, chairman of the committee on divorces, reported a bill, to divorce Jacob Easterday of Washington county, from his wife Fanny Easterday.
Also, reported a bill, to divorce Mary Floyd,
of St. Mary's county, from her husband Joseph Floyd.
And, reported a bill, to divorce Sarah Satterfield of Caroline county, from her husband James Satterfield.
The bill reported by Mr. Richardson, entitled an act to incorporate the Columbia Beneficial Society of Maryland, was taken up for consideration.
The said bill was then read the second time
amended, passed and sent to the Senate.
Mr. Townsend, gave notice that on Friday next, he should move to rescind the 53d rule of the House.

Mr. Carroll, of St. Mary's submitted the following resolution.
Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That His Excellency, the Governor, procure a sword with suitable ornaments and devices, and present in the name of his native
State, to Capt. John A. Webster, for his gallant defense of the battery committed to his charge, during the memorable attack at the city of Baltimore, September 12th, 1814.
Mr. Brookhart, (seconded by other members that voted in the majority,) moved to reconsider
the vote of the house, upon the bill reported by Mr. Ridgely, entitled "an act for the encouragement of Female Education in the state of Maryland."
On motion of Mr. Teackle, the house was called and the doorkeeper sent for the absent members.
The clerk of the Senate returned the bill,
making additional provision, for the crier of Harford county court, endorsed "will pass," ordered to be engrossed.
Also, the resolution for the payment of members and officers of the Legislature, endorsed,
"assented to," ordered to be engrossed.
The doorkeeper having returned, reported,
that in obedience to order, he had notified the absent members, that their attendance in the house was required.
The house then resumed the consideration of the motion of Mr. Brookhart, to reconsider the vote of the house, upon the bill, entitled, an act,
for the encouragement of Female Education in the State of Maryland.
On the question being put, will the house reconsider their vote upon said bill.
It was resolved in the affirmative, yeas 40,
nays 30.
The house then adjourned.

Thursday, January 7th, 1836.
Mr. Winder presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act, authorising Isaac Hood, jr. a free man of colour, to return and reside in this state.
Mr. Palmer presented a petition of Mary Lewis, of Kent Island, in Queen Anne's county, praying for a pension by county assessment.
Mr. Willis, presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Frederick counties, praying the passage of a law creating a new county, from parts of Frederick and Baltimore counties, therein mentioned.
And, Mr. Bryan presented two memorials of sundry citizens of Prince George's county, praying the establishment of District Courts in said county.
The clerk of senate delivered a letter from the honourable Thomas W. Veazey, the Governor elect, referred by the senate to the consideration of this house, which letter was read, and is as follows:
To the Honourable President of the Senate,
and Speaker of the House of Delegates of Md.
SARASSEE Neck, Jan. 6th, 1836.
Gentlemen: I have had the honour of receiving this moment, by express, your joint letter of the 4th inst. informing me that I had been elected by the General Assembly of Maryland, Governor of the state for the current year, and inviting my attendance at the seat of government,

to qualify in conformity with the provisions of
the constitution.

It would have been more gratifying to me
gentlemen, had the choice of the General Assembly, fallen on some individual better qualified than myself, to fill the office, but as it has been determined otherwise, and I have been elected,
I shall, therefore, as soon as I can make arrangements for the removal of my family, attend at
the seat of government, to perform the duties
which have been assigned me.

To the members of the two houses, over
which you respectively preside, I pray you to tender my grateful acknowledgments, for this public manifestation of their good opinion and confidence, and accept for yourselves individually, assurances of my great respect and esteem.
I am, gentlemen, your fellow citizen,
THOMAS W. VEAZEY.

Mr. Boyd, reported a further additional supplement to an act for quieting possessions, enrolling conveyances, and securing the estates of purchasers.
The house then resumed the consideration of the bill reported by Mr. Ridgely, for the encouragement of female education in the state of Maryland.
Mr. Brookhart moved to amend said bill, by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section, the following,
"And be it enacted, that after the aforesaid
trustees, shall have received the aforesaid fifteen thousand dollars, and have put the institution in operation, they shall not ask, charge or receive,
for tuition, boarding, and all necessary attention, more than one hundred and fifty dollars,
except for clothing, per annum; or at the rate
thereof, for the higher or highest branches,
taught therein, and for other branches in due proportion thereto."

Which was read.
Mr. Brown moved to amend said amendment,
by striking out these words higher or highest
branches taught therein, and for other branches
in due proportion thereto, and inserting in lieu thereof the following, "lower branches of, and
three hundred dollars, including all branches
taught therein."

Resolved in the affirmative.
Mr. Brookhart moved to amend the amendment, by striking out, three hundred, and in-serting "two hundred."
Mr. Dennis moved to strike out the enacting clause of the bill.
Resolved in the affirmative.
The house then adjourned.

Friday, January 8th, 1836.
Mr. Pratt presented the proceedings of a numerous and respectable meeting of the citizens
of Prince-George's county, held in pursuance
of public notice, at the Court House, in Upper Marlborough, to adopt suitable measures to prevent the introduction and distribution in said county, of incendiary and insurrectionary publications.
Mr. Winder presented a memorial of the trustees of Govan's town Academy, and other residents of Baltimore county, praying that a donation may be made in favour of said academy.
On motion of Mr. Wharton,
Ordered, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore report to this house the aggregate amount
of revenue paid into the treasury by each county, the city of Baltimore, and the city of Annapolis, as nearly as can be ascertained, and the amount disbursed to each respectively, for the
years ending on the 30th of November 1828, 1829, 1830, 1831, 1832, 1833, 1834 and 1835,
which was read;
Mr. Duckett moved to amend said order, by adding at the end thereof the following:
"And also the amount subscribed by the state
for works of internal improvement, and the proportion of each work within the several counties, and the disbursements by the state for the erection of public improvements and buildings
within each city and county in the state;"

Which was read;
Mr. McLean moved to amend said amendment, by inserting after the word "and," in the second line thereof, the following: "also the amount of money paid to the state by the several corporations or other boards for internal improvement, either as bonus or otherwise;"
Resolved in the affirmative.
The question was then put on the amendment
as amended;
Resolved in the affirmative;
The question then recurred, and was put on
the adoption of the order as amended;
Resolved in the affirmative.
Mr. Burchenal submitted the following resolutions:
Resolved, That it is the opinion of this house,
that the lottery system is injurious to the morals
and interests of the citizens of this state.
Resolved, That this house will not favour any scheme for the raising money by lottery or chance, during the present session, and that the committee be discharged from any further services on that subject.
Which was read the first and second time by
special order,

ing this moment, by express, your joint letter of
the 4th inst. informing me that I had been elected by the General Assembly of Maryland, Governor of the state for the current year, and inviting my attendance at the seat of government,
to qualify in conformity with the provisions of
the constitution.

It would have been more gratifying to me
gentlemen, had the choice of the General Assembly, fallen on some individual better qualified than myself, to fill the office, but as it has been determined otherwise, and I have been elected,
I shall, therefore, as soon as I can make arrangements for the removal of my family, attend at
the seat of government, to perform the duties
which have been assigned me.

To the members of the two houses, over
which you respectively preside, I pray you to tender my grateful acknowledgments, for this
public manifestation of their good opinion and
confidence, and accept for yourselves individually, assurances of my great respect and esteem.
I am, gentlemen, your fellow citizen,
THOMAS W. VEAZEY.

Mr. Boyd, reported a further additional supplement to an act for quieting possessions, enrolling conveyances, and securing the estates of purchasers.
The house then resumed the consideration of the bill reported by Mr. Ridgely, for the encouragement of female education in the state of Maryland.
Mr. Brookhart moved to amend said bill, by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section, the following,
"And be it enacted, that after the aforesaid
trustees, shall have received the aforesaid fifteen
thousand dollars, and have put the institution in
operation, they shall not ask, charge or receive,
for tuition, boarding, and all necessary attention, more than one hundred and fifty dollars,
except for clothing, per annum; or at the rate
thereof, for the higher or highest branches,
taught therein, and for other branches in due
proportion thereto."

Which was read.
Mr. Brown moved to amend said amendment,
by striking out these words higher or highest
branches taught therein, and for other branches
in due proportion thereto, and inserting in lieu
thereof the following, "lower branches of, and
three hundred dollars, including all branches
taught therein."

Resolved in the affirmative.
Mr. Brookhart moved to amend the amendment, by striking out, three hundred, and in-serting "two hundred."
Mr. Dennis moved to strike out the enacting clause of the bill.
Resolved in the affirmative.
The house then adjourned.

Friday, January 8th, 1836.
Mr. Pratt presented the proceedings of a numerous and respectable meeting of the citizens
of Prince-George's county, held in pursuance
of public notice, at the Court House, in Upper Marlborough, to adopt suitable measures to prevent the introduction and distribution in said
county, of incendiary and insurrectionary publications.
Mr. Winder presented a memorial of the trustees of Govan's town Academy, and other residents of Baltimore county, praying that a donation may be made in favour of said academy.
On motion of Mr. Wharton,
Ordered, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore report to this house the aggregate amount
of revenue paid into the treasury by each county, the city of Baltimore, and the city of Annapolis, as nearly as can be ascertained, and the
amount disbursed to each respectively, for the
years ending on the 30th of November 1828, 1829, 1830, 1831, 1832, 1833, 1834 and 1835,
which was read;
Mr. Duckett moved to amend said order, by adding at the end thereof the following:
"And also the amount subscribed by the state
for works of internal improvement, and the proportion of each work within the several counties, and the disbursements by the state for the erection of public improvements and buildings
within each city and county in the state;"

Which was read;
Mr. McLean moved to amend said amendment, by inserting after the word "and," in the
second line thereof, the following: "also the amount of money paid to the state by the several corporations or other boards for internal improvement, either as bonus or otherwise;"
Resolved in the affirmative.
The question was then put on the amendment
as amended;
Resolved in the affirmative;
The question then recurred, and was put on
the adoption of the order as amended;
Resolved in the affirmative.
Mr. Burchenal submitted the following resolutions:
Resolved, That it is the opinion of this house,
that the lottery system is injurious to the morals
and interests of the citizens of this state.
Resolved, That this house will not favour any
scheme for the raising money by lottery or
chance, during the present session, and that the
committee be discharged from any further services on that subject.
Which was read the first and second time by
special order,

And, on motion of Mr. Teackle, unanimously assented to.

Mr. Ridgely submitted the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of the western shore pay unto the commissioners of the tax for Anne Arundel county, the sum of $100,000, to be by them applied to defraying the expenses of arrest, prosecution, and the conviction of the rioters on the Baltimore and Washington railroad.

On motion of Mr. Wharton,

Ordered, That the committee on crimes and punishments be directed to enquire into the expediency of abolishing capital punishment within this state, and if it be deemed inexpedient, to enquire into the propriety and policy of prohibiting by law, the public executions of criminals in the several counties of this state.

Mr. Ely reported a bill, entitled, an act to establish magistrates courts in the several counties of this state, and to prescribe their jurisdiction.

The preamble and resolution submitted by Mr. Teackle, on the 6th inst. in relation to the establishment of light houses at Hooper's Island, near the straits in Dorchester county, and at Sharp's Island in Talbot county, was taken up for consideration.

The said preamble and resolution was then read the second time, amended, and assented to. The house then resumed the consideration of the bill reported by Mr. Richardson, entitled, an act to confirm an act passed December session 1834, chapter 219.

The said bill was then read the second time, and placed in the hands of the clerk.

Mr. Winder moved to withdraw said bill from the hands of the clerk.

Determined in the negative.

The question was then put, shall the said bill pass?

Resolved in the affirmative—yeas 62, nays 7.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill, entitled, an act for the benefit of William Anderson, of Somerset county, endorsed, "will pass," ordered to be engrossed.

And, delivered the annual report of the treasurer of the western shore, endorsed, "referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates."

Also, a communication from the Clerk of the Council, enclosing an account of the disbursements and expenditures of the Executive, within the last year, in compliance with a resolution of December session 1830, endorsed, "referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates."

Which were read.

The house adjourned.

Saturday, January 9th.

Mr. Ridgely presented a memorial of John S. Williams, Esq. of Anne Arundel county, praying the passage of an act, more effectually to prevent the destruction of sheep by dogs.

Mr. Primrose obtained leave to bring in a bill, entitled, an act to prohibit the issuing of licenses to free negroes in Kent county.

Mr. Bean obtained leave to bring in a bill, entitled, an act to provide for the payment of jurors in Montgomery county.

Mr. Darby obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, an act, to limit the sitting of the commissioners of the tax in Montgomery county.

Mr. Bayly reported a bill, to authorize the commissioners of the town of Cambridge, in Dorchester county, to remove certain obstructions from the mouth of Cambridge creek.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and passed.

Mr. Teackle reported a bill, to provide for electing commissioners of Somerset county, and prescribing their powers and duties.

On motion of Mr. Heard, the house took up for consideration the report submitted by him on the 7th inst., from the committee on the colored population, upon the order of the house, requiring them to inquire into the propriety of requiring free persons of colour to renew their papers.

The said report was then read the second time and concurred in.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill, for the benefit of William Jenkins, former collector of Anne Arundel county, endorsed "will pass," ordered to be engrossed.

The house then adjourned.

Monday, January 11.

Mr. Bryan presented a petition of sundry citizens of Prince George's county, praying relief from the unjust operation of the assessment law of 1833, in said county.

Mr. Duvall presented a petition of sundry citizens of Frederick county, praying the passage of an act to authorize the Levy Court of said county, to levy a sum of money to build a bridge over the Cotoctin creek.

Mr. Ely presented a petition of Anna Marr, widow of William Marr, a soldier of the revolution, praying for a pension.

Mr. Matthews presented a petition of Adam Gower, John Beare and others, of Allegany county, praying a division of election district, No. 1, in said county.

Mr. Teackle presented a memorial and petition of sundry citizens of Dorchester county, praying for the establishment of a Real Estate Bank.

Mr. Shriver presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Frederick counties, praying a division of said counties, and creating a new one therefrom.

And, Mr. McLean presented a petition of the Baltimore Eastern Savings company, praying for an increase of capital and banking privileges, under the name of the Chesapeake Bank.

On motion of Mr. Teackle,

Ordered that the committee on grievances and courts of justice, enquire into the practicability of expediency of prohibiting negroes and mulattoes from acting as masters of vessels in this state.

Mr. Bayly submitted the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That his Excellency, the Governor, procure silver pitcher, with suitable inscriptions, and present it in the name of the State to Dr. Joseph E. Mose, of the Eastern Shore, as a testimony of the high sense entertained of his great zeal, and the distinguished services he has rendered to advance the science of agriculture in this State.

Which was read the first time.

Mr. Bayly moved that said resolution have a second reading by special order.

Determined in the negative.

The said resolution was then laid on the table.

On motion Mr. Hood.

The house then adjourned.

Maryland Gazette.

ANNAPOLES:

Thursday, January 14, 1836.

THE FAIR.

A Fair for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the City of Annapolis, will be held at the Assembly Room, on Tuesday the second day of February next, commencing at 12 o'clock A. M. at which a variety of Fancy Articles will be exhibited, and to which the citizens of Annapolis, and all strangers who may be within reach of it, are respectfully invited and earnestly solicited to attend.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance divested of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that men, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ours. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—leaving a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunshine of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the congregation of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should commiserate and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated? "Blessed is he that can comfort the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid up in the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

JOHN W. LANSDALE, Agent for the State of Maryland to collect contributions for the erection of a National Monument to the memory of Washington, the Father of our Country, has arrived in this City, and will take this opportunity of calling on the Citizens, for their contributions.

The Monument, to the erection of which you are now called upon to contribute, must be worthy of yourselves, of your Country, and of the man to whom it is to be dedicated.—It will be a Monument not of Washington alone, but of the gratitude, patriotism, munificence, and taste of the people of the present age of the Republic. It is intended, therefore, to make it an object in which the present generation will glory, and at which future generations will admire and wonder. To do this, a general contribution of even the small sums required, (and which every one can afford) will be sufficient. For these the Agents of the Society are authorized to call upon each of you, and it is expected that no American will be found so indifferent to his own reputation, and the character of his Country, as to refuse or withhold his mite from an object so noble, so patriotic, and so honourable to the American people.

COURT OF APPEALS, December Term, 1835.

Wednesday, January 6th, 1836.—Present the whole Court.

No. 60. Winchester, Trustee of Gooding vs. the Union Bank of Maryland. The argument of this case was commenced by Johnson for the Appellant.

Thursday, January 7th.—Present as yesterday.

Stephen, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 45, Samuel H. Beall vs. James Deale, et al., reversing the Decree of the Chancellor, with costs in both Courts.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 25, Stewart and Warfield vs. Philip Duvall, et al., affirming the Decree of the Chancellor in part, and reversing in part.

Dorsey, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 100, Jones Young, et al. vs. the State of Maryland, affirming the judgment of the County Court—Chambers, Judge, dissented.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 15, Thomas Somerville vs. Wm. L. Marbury, et al., affirming the Decree of Prince George's County Court as a Court of Equity, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 63, John Cook vs. Murphy, Adm'r. of Richardson, affirming the Decree of the Chancellor, with costs.

Spence, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 54, Dennis Dorsey vs. Wm. Eagle, affirming the judgment of the County Court.

Buchanan, Ch. J. delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 25, James Kent vs. Thomas T. Somerville, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 40, Thomas P. Stabler vs. John B. Cowman, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

Chambers, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 30, The State of Maryland vs. negro Jesse Evans, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was continued by Johnson for the Appellant, and McMahon for the Appellee.

Friday, January 8th.—Present the whole Court.

Archer, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 95, John Gross, Adm'r. of Hickley vs. Hickley, Adm'r. D. B. N. of Hickley, reversing the Decree of the Orphans Court, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 11, Catherine Deakins vs. James Hollis, Adm'r. of John Hollis, affirming the Decree of the Orphans Court.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester, Trustee of Gooding vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was concluded by McMahon for the Appellee, and Johnson for the Appellant.

Nos. 36, 37. Crosswell's L. vs. Stephen Lawson, Cross Appeals from B. H. & Co. County Court. The argument of these cases was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Saturday, January 9th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's L. vs. Lawson, was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Monday, January 10th.—Present as on Saturday.

No. 62. Samuel Gordon et al. vs. Pauliney, Elliott, et al. This case was argued by Johnson for the Appellants. No counsel argued for the Appellees.

Decree of the Chancellor reversed, with costs.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's L. vs. Lawson, was continued by Mayer for Lawson, and Johnson for Crosswell's L.

Tuesday, January 11th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of the above cases was concluded by Johnson for Crosswell's L.

Wednesday, January 12th.—Present as yesterday.

Nos. 64, 65. Houck and Blair et al. vs. Hoffman, Trustee of Houck. This case was argued by Richardson and Johnson for the Appellants, and Glavin for the Appellees.

ing of the Decree of the Chancellor in part, and reversing in part.

Dorsey, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 100, Jones Young, et al. vs. the State of Maryland, affirming the judgment of the County Court—Chambers, Judge, dissented.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 15, Thomas Somerville vs. Wm. L. Marbury, et al., affirming the Decree of Prince George's County Court as a Court of Equity, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 63, John Cook vs. Murphy, Adm'r. of Richardson, affirming the Decree of the Chancellor, with costs.

Spence, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 54, Dennis Dorsey vs. Wm. Eagle, affirming the judgment of the County Court.

Buchanan, Ch. J. delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 25, James Kent vs. Thomas T. Somerville, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 40, Thomas P. Stabler vs. John B. Cowman, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

Chambers, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 30, The State of Maryland vs. negro Jesse Evans, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was continued by Johnson for the Appellant, and McMahon for the Appellee.

Friday, January 8th.—Present the whole Court.

Archer, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 95, John Gross, Adm'r. of Hickley vs. Hickley, Adm'r. D. B. N. of Hickley, reversing the Decree of the Orphans Court, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 11, Catherine Deakins vs. James Hollis, Adm'r. of John Hollis, affirming the Decree of the Orphans Court.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester, Trustee of Gooding vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was concluded by McMahon for the Appellee, and Johnson for the Appellant.

Nos. 36, 37. Crosswell's L. vs. Stephen Lawson, Cross Appeals from B. H. & Co. County Court. The argument of these cases was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Saturday, January 9th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's L. vs. Lawson, was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Monday, January 10th.—Present as on Saturday.

No. 62. Samuel Gordon et al. vs. Pauliney, Elliott, et al. This case was argued by Johnson for the Appellants. No counsel argued for the Appellees.

Decree of the Chancellor reversed, with costs.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's L. vs. Lawson, was continued by Mayer for Lawson, and Johnson for Crosswell's L.

Tuesday, January 11th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of the above cases was concluded by Johnson for Crosswell's L.

Wednesday, January 12th.—Present as yesterday.

Nos. 64, 65. Houck and Blair et al. vs. Hoffman, Trustee of Houck. This case was argued by Richardson and Johnson for the Appellants, and Glavin for the Appellees.

ing of the Decree of the Chancellor in part, and reversing in part.

Dorsey, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 100, Jones Young, et al. vs. the State of Maryland, affirming the judgment of the County Court—Chambers, Judge, dissented.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 15, Thomas Somerville vs. Wm. L. Marbury, et al., affirming the Decree of Prince George's County Court as a Court of Equity, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 63, John Cook vs. Murphy, Adm'r. of Richardson, affirming the Decree of the Chancellor, with costs.

Spence, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 54, Dennis Dorsey vs. Wm. Eagle, affirming the judgment of the County Court.

Buchanan, Ch. J. delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 25, James Kent vs. Thomas T. Somerville, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 40, Thomas P. Stabler vs. John B. Cowman, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

Chambers, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 30, The State of Maryland vs. negro Jesse Evans, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was continued by Johnson for the Appellant, and McMahon for the Appellee.

Friday, January 8th.—Present the whole Court.

Archer, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 95, John Gross, Adm'r. of Hickley vs. Hickley, Adm'r. D. B. N. of Hickley, reversing the Decree of the Orphans Court, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 11, Catherine Deakins vs. James Hollis, Adm'r. of John Hollis, affirming the Decree of the Orphans Court.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester, Trustee of Gooding vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was concluded by McMahon for the Appellee, and Johnson for the Appellant.

Nos. 36, 37. Crosswell's L. vs. Stephen Lawson, Cross Appeals from B. H. & Co. County Court. The argument of these cases was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Saturday, January 9th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's L. vs. Lawson, was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Monday, January 10th.—Present as on Saturday.

No. 62. Samuel Gordon et al. vs. Pauliney, Elliott, et al. This case was argued by Johnson for the Appellants. No counsel argued for the Appellees.

Decree of the Chancellor reversed, with costs.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's L. vs. Lawson, was continued by Mayer for Lawson, and Johnson for Crosswell's L.

Tuesday, January 11th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of the above cases was concluded by Johnson for Crosswell's L.

Wednesday, January 12th.—Present as yesterday.

Nos. 64, 65. Houck and Blair et al. vs. Hoffman, Trustee of Houck. This case was argued by Richardson and Johnson for the Appellants, and Glavin for the Appellees.

ing of the Decree of the Chancellor in part, and reversing in part.

Dorsey, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 100, Jones Young, et al. vs. the State of Maryland, affirming the judgment of the County Court—Chambers, Judge, dissented.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 15, Thomas Somerville vs. Wm. L. Marbury, et al., affirming the Decree of Prince George's County Court as a Court of Equity, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 63, John Cook vs. Murphy, Adm'r. of Richardson, affirming the Decree of the Chancellor, with costs.

Spence, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 54, Dennis Dorsey vs. Wm. Eagle, affirming the judgment of the County Court.

Buchanan, Ch. J. delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 25, James Kent vs. Thomas T. Somerville, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 40, Thomas P. Stabler vs. John B. Cowman, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

Chambers, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 30, The State of Maryland vs. negro Jesse Evans, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was continued by Johnson for the Appellant, and McMahon for the Appellee.

Friday, January 8th.—Present the whole Court.

Archer, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 95, John Gross, Adm'r. of Hickley vs. Hickley, Adm'r. D. B. N. of Hickley, reversing the Decree of the Orphans Court, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 11, Catherine Deakins vs. James Hollis, Adm'r. of John Hollis, affirming the Decree of the Orphans Court.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester, Trustee of Gooding vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was concluded by McMahon for the Appellee, and Johnson for the Appellant.

Nos. 36, 37. Crosswell's L. vs. Stephen Lawson, Cross Appeals from B. H. & Co. County Court. The argument of these cases was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Saturday, January 9th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's L. vs. Lawson, was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Monday, January 10th.—Present as on Saturday.

No. 62. Samuel Gordon et al. vs. Pauliney, Elliott, et al. This case was argued by Johnson for the Appellants. No counsel argued for the Appellees.

Decree of the Chancellor reversed, with costs.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's L. vs. Lawson, was continued by Mayer for Lawson, and Johnson for Crosswell's L.

Tuesday, January 11th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of the above cases was concluded by Johnson for Crosswell's L.

Wednesday, January 12th.—Present as yesterday.

Nos. 64, 65. Houck and Blair et al. vs. Hoffman, Trustee of Houck. This case was argued by Richardson and Johnson for the Appellants, and Glavin for the Appellees.

ing of the Decree of the Chancellor in part, and reversing in part.

Dorsey, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 100, Jones Young, et al. vs. the State of Maryland, affirming the judgment of the County Court—Chambers, Judge, dissented.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 15, Thomas Somerville vs. Wm. L. Marbury, et al., affirming the Decree of Prince George's County Court as a Court of Equity, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 63, John Cook vs. Murphy, Adm'r. of Richardson, affirming the Decree of the Chancellor, with costs.

Spence, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 54, Dennis Dorsey vs. Wm. Eagle, affirming the judgment of the County Court.

Buchanan, Ch. J. delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 25, James Kent vs. Thomas T. Somerville, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 40, Thomas P. Stabler vs. John B. Cowman, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

Chambers, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 30, The State of Maryland vs. negro Jesse Evans, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was continued by Johnson for the Appellant, and McMahon for the Appellee.

Friday, January 8th.—Present the whole Court.

Archer, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 95, John Gross, Adm'r. of Hickley vs. Hickley, Adm'r. D. B. N. of Hickley, reversing the Decree of the Orphans Court, with costs.

ing of the Decree of the Chancellor in part, and reversing in part.

Dorsey, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 100, Jones Young, et al. vs. the State of Maryland, affirming the judgment of the County Court—Chambers, Judge, dissented.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 15, Thomas Somerville vs. Wm. L. Marbury, et al., affirming the Decree of Prince George's County Court as a Court of Equity, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 63, John Cook vs. Murphy, Adm'r. of Richardson, affirming the Decree of the Chancellor, with costs.

Spence, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 54, Dennis Dorsey vs. Wm. Eagle, affirming the judgment of the County Court.

Buchanan, Ch. J. delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 25, James Kent vs. Thomas T. Somerville, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 40, Thomas P. Stabler vs. John B. Cowman, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

Chambers, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 30, The State of Maryland vs. negro Jesse Evans, reversing the judgment of the County Court, and awarding a decree.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was continued by Johnson for the Appellant, and McMahon for the Appellee.

Friday, January 8th.—Present the whole Court.

Archer, Judge, delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 95, John Gross, Adm'r. of Hickley vs. Hickley, Adm'r. D. B. N. of Hickley, reversing the Decree of the Orphans Court, with costs.

The same Judge delivered the opinion of the Court in No. 11, Catherine Deakins vs. James Hollis, Adm'r. of John Hollis, affirming the Decree of the Orphans Court.

The argument of No. 60, Winchester, Trustee of Gooding vs. The Union Bank of Maryland, was concluded by McMahon for the Appellee, and Johnson for the Appellant.

Nos. 36, 37. Crosswell's L. vs. Stephen Lawson, Cross Appeals from B. H. & Co. County Court. The argument of these cases was continued by Mayer for Lawson.

Saturday, January 9th.—Present as yesterday.

The argument of Nos. 36, 37, Crosswell's information, and the French Government, in consequence of the American Government, from the fact that they can themselves, a Frenchman who has been in the

 into the French Government, and cannot so without it without some other nation, such as France, through France.
 "You remember, that (whether from French influence, or from the fact, and we fully acknowledge, that we will see later, we will see later,
 your national feeling for us, and we will consider the declaration of war."
 "In consequence, the Americans urge that the French Government, most unimpeachable principle,
 for that every nation has a right to have commercial relations, without being called to account for it. The French they represent, will be the aggressors in such a war, and that however unwilling the Americans might have been to rush at their own accord into a contest, the nation is of a spirit not to refuse a challenge."
 "We have seen letters from America of a very recent date, which state, 'Our President is mad to have been so rude with you, but you are equally unwilling to force us into a war with you, even if should succeed in carrying a bill of noninter-course.'"
 "It remains to be seen whether the President will succeed in obtaining this. Most certainly his address to congress will point it out as the only remedy for non payment. Yet, even should so improbable a vote as that of nonintercourse take place, after some delay in America, it then remains with the French Government to decide whether it will persist in the threat which it certainly has made, of considering an act of nonintercourse as a declaration of war. In the mean time the French exports are all alive, and eager for the frey. The fishing fleets have all returned to harbour, and leave 15,000 hungry seamen at the disposal of Government. It is the very moment to commence, as the numerous petitions for letters of marque from St. Malo, and such ports, all repeat in unison. It is really to be hoped that these amateurs will be disappointed."

STATE OF MARYLAND, SC.
Anne-Arundel County; Orphans Court,
 January 12th, 1836.
ON application by petition of Francis L.
 Darnall, Henry B. Darnall and Richard
 B. Darnall, Executors of Philip Darnall, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that they give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Annapolis.
 SAM'L. BROWN, Jun'r.
 Reg. Wills A. A. County.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,
 THAT the subscribers of Anne Arundel county, have obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Philip Darnall, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscribers, at or before the 12th day of July next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate.
 Given under our hands this 12th day of January 1836.
 FRANCIS L. DARNALL,
 HENRY B. DARNALL, } Ex'rs
 RICH'D. B. DARNALL, }
 Jan. 14.—Gw.

MORE LUCK—OLD VIRGINIA FORTUNE EVER!!
 DUBOIS sold in the Monongalia, Cla-
 No. 1, which drew on Saturday last, another Prize of $100. The Noa. were 16 21 3 those that drew the Capital of $20,000, and Lottery Nos. 16 17 33—and he sold Nos.
 16 17 which was a Prize of $501. And so in the Maryland State No. 1, a Prize of $1
 Nos. 16 57 63, which was drawn in Bal-more on Monday last, and takes this occasion to offer another Brilliant Scheme, viz:
$25,000! 50 OF $1,000!
VIRGINIA STATE LOTTERY
 For the benefit of the Petersburg Benevole-Mechanic Association.
 CLASS No. 2, for 1835.
 To be drawn at Alexandria, Va. January 1
 1836.
 D. S. GREGORY & Co. Successors of Yates and McIntyre, Managers.

STANDARD SCHEME.

1 prize of	$25,000
4 prize of	7,500
1 prize of	5,000
1 prize of	4,000
1 prize of	2,281 1/2
4 prize of	1,500
50 prizes of	1,000
50 prizes of	500
50 prizes of	300
64 prizes of	200
63 prizes of	100
63 prizes of	80
126 prizes of	60
126 prizes of	50
126 prizes of	40
126 prizes of	25
3528 prizes of	16
23436 prizes of	8

$7914 prizes, am't g. to $425,407
 Tickets 28—Halves 4—Qrs. 2.
 Tickets and Shares for sale at DUBOIS'
LOTTERY & EXCHANGE OFFICE
 (Church-street, Annapolis.)

REAL ESTATE PERSONAL PROPERTY.

Terms of the authority vested in the subscribers by the last will and testament of Thomas Snowden, deceased, and in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly, passed on the 21st of public sale, with the upper part of the tract known as called "Brookside," near the Harpers Ferry, on THURSDAY, the 1st of January, 1884, at the

PERSONAL PROPERTY.

of said deceased, remaining, were sold early, consisting of many valuable negroes, Men, Women and Children, slaves for life, also all the Stock, consisting of Cattle, Horses, Mules, Hogs, Sheep, and a variety of Farming Utensils, Carts, Wagons, Ploughs, and Geer, also Hoes, Axes, &c.,— Household and Kitchen Furniture, and other property not enumerated. And on WEDNESDAY, the 29th inst. at the Farm lately occupied by said Snowden, in the head of South River, a variety of property as above described.

The terms of Sale are,

or all sums of Twenty Dollars, and under twenty, the cash must be paid, and for all sums above Twenty Dollars six months credit will be given, the purchaser giving bond with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale. The sale to commence at 10 o'clock, and continue from day to day until the whole property shall be disposed of.

HORACE CAPRON,
THOS. S. HURBERT,

Jan. 7. Adm'rs with the Will annexed.

FOR SALE,
THE DWELLING HOUSE in which I at present reside.

FOR RENT.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, in which the late General Richard Harwood resided at the time of his death.

TH. S. ALEXANDER.

Jan. 7.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias issued out of Prince George's County Court, and to me directed, against the goods and chattels, ands and tenements, of John M. S. McCubbin, at suit of George McNier, I have executed and levied upon all the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand, both at law and in equity, of said McCubbin, of in and out, all his interest and life estate in a Brick House, and Lot and premises, fronting on the north side of Prince George's street in Annapolis, occupied for many years, and until his death, by James Cleary, and by him devised to said McCubbin, also, all the life estate in reversion of the said McCubbin, after the life estate of Mrs. Catherine McCubbin, in a framed House and Lot fronting on said street, bounded on the north west side by the dwelling house and lot of Joseph Sands, deceased, and on the south east side by the dwelling house and lot of Elijah Wells, and which was also devise to said McCubbin by James Cleary, deceased, and on THURSDAY the 14th day of January, at the Court House Door in the city of Annapolis, I shall proceed to sell the above described property, to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy the debt due as aforesaid. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

R. WELCH, of Ben.
Sheriff A. A. County.

Dec. 24.

A LIST OF LETTERS.

Remaining in the Post Office, Annapolis, December 31, 1883.

Richard Anderson.

Absalom A. Balmear,
Robert M. Bann,
Edward Bird,
C. C. Brice.

Samuel Carr,
William Childs,

Wm. Davis,
Amin M. Davis,
Henry Davis,
Dunn & Stalker,
Jas. A. D. Dalrymple,
Nicholas D. Duvall,

Mr. Emmerson.

Benj. Gailthir,
James Gray,
John J. Gileon,

Nicholas M. Hobbs,
Doctor H. Hammond,
John E. Howard,
John Hall,
Rich'd. Hall,

John S. Kerr.

P. G. Lechelsier,
Dr. Theodore Lyntalcom,
Wm. Legg, (2)

Mrs. E. Menz,
Mrs. Murphy,
Robt. B. Moss,

Mary H. Poiree,
Augustus Pessall,
Mrs. Post,

Mary Ray,

Henry Sumance,
W. S. Silder,
Rev. Jesse Stansbury, (2)
Miss E. A. J. Stewart,
Mrs. A. A. Stewart, (4)

James Teakle,
Joseph Tago,
Thos. Taylor,

J. W. Whittington, (9)
Billy Ann Wood,
E. Wolfe,
Wm. Wright,
John Weaver,

Henry Baldwin,
F. Storn Brown,
Osborn Bell.

Albert Constable.

Mary Fidds,
Nancy Dorsey,
John Dorsey, (2)
D. A. Dorsey,
E. Abols, (54)

Ann Gable,
Janah Green.

F. C. Hyde,
Rachel Hopkins,
John Harrison,
Sassannah Hurst, (2)
Mary Hayden.

Jane Lake, (2)
R. C. Long.

Gilbert Munkick, (2)
William McNoir, (4)
Braxillai Marriott.

J. Packson,
Charity Phillips.

Caroline Rouse.

Judson Stawyer,
Ephraim Sawyer, (3)
Wm. T. Smith,
John Henry Smith,
John Smith, (6)

Col. Tompkins,
Eljah Taylor,

Alexander Wilson,
Geo. Wilson,
Henry Whaler,
N. Worthington, of Jno.
Dr. J. W. Westers.

R. J. CRABB, P. M.

Dec. 31.

NEW JEWELRY
AND FANCY STORE.
COB WALTER, CLOCK AND WATCH
MAKER, respectfully informs the citizens Annapolis, that he has opened a Store at corner of Church Street and State House St., where he offers for sale a neat assortment of Gold, Silver, Patent Lever, Locals, and Pains Watches; Jewelry
and Silver Ware; Rogers' Superior Watches; Fancy and Drawing Cases; Marble and Florida; Watches, Hair,
Gold, and other Branches,
the variety of other articles, all of which are sold at the lowest prices. All kinds Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, and Music are repaired and warranted. PIANO FORTES
and tuned. Apply as above.
R.

REAL AND PERSONAL
ESTATE FOR SALE.
A tract of land, situated, contained in the will of the late Dr. Hyde Ray, of the County of Annapolis, the subscribers will sell Farm, called "Stonewall Farm," lying Anne Arundel county, this farm is situated about five miles from Annapolis, fronting on the road leading from that city to Bal-
more, and running back to the Severn River, which is there navigable by vessels of any size. The improvements upon it consist of a STONE DWELLING HOUSE with two rooms below,
and two above stairs, and of the numerous Tobacco Houses and out houses necessary for the cultivation of a large Farm. The tract contains about 862½ ACRES,
considerable portion of which is covered by valuable timber. The soil is of good quality, and susceptible of improvement by use of plaster. The title is believed to be indisputable.
The subscribers are also authorized by an order of the Orphans' Court of Anne Arundel county, to sell all the personal estate of late Dr. Hyde Ray; and they propose to together with the above described Farm, the groceries, Horses, Cattle, Farming Utensils, &c.
Upon it, and which are necessary and efficient for its cultivation. Possession to be given of the whole, on the first day of January next. To one who will purchase both real and personal property, a liberal credit will be given for a part of the purchase money.
For further particulars as to title, terms,
number of negroes, &c., apply to I. Nevett Esq., Fayette st. between St. Paul's and Beverly sts. Baltimore.
I. NEVETT STEELE, Exec'r.
CATHARINE S. M. RAY, Exec'x.
Dec. 10.

THE SALMAGUNDI,
EDUCATION OF THE DAY.
EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF
COMIC ENGRAVINGS.
NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation,
will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons
with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of Literature, and which,
for the want of a proper channel for their expression, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the lifelike record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen
number to every person who desires it—
those out of the city, will forward their orders, (postage paid) and he pledges himself to no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.
The SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large
imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Yade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN 500 ENGRAVINGS
will be furnished to the patrons of this Ju-
nal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order;
and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along
with it.
The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered
to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven
will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully
packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.
THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on
alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and
the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.
All orders must come postage paid.
Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER,
Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL-UMES FOR 1886.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been whole- some.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1886, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, the descriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty possible attempts at imitations; and now all extensive lists of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment, liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procuring of works of a selected standard of merit, and to the selection of the most fastidiously and becomingly adapted into every form of literature, and to the selection of the most fastidiously and becomingly adapted into every form of literature, and to the selection of the most fastidiously and becomingly adapted into every form of literature.

The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of illustrious individuals, and curious adventures, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London quinquagesimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus enforces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so uni- versally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle of family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a duodecimo work is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Ross's Encyclopedia. One volume of the Library, containing from fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and unenjoyable society. This immense supply of periodical reading has thus been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or idle listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $5 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to excite the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio once an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1886 of the Library, and the Port Folio for $20 00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE, Seventh, two doors south of Chestnut street, Philad.

THE MUSEUM OF FOREIGN LITERATURE AND SCIENCE, price $5 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $12 00 per year.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned respectfully apprises his friends and the public, that he has been appointed at all times to the preparation of DEEDS OF MARRIAGE, BILLS OF SALE, &c.

LETTERS OF ATTORNEY, ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT, &c. Office in Church street—nearly opposite the City Hotel.

FRANCIS M. JARBOE, B. Having an approved form of Isolated Blanks, he will also attend to business relating thereto, on moderate terms. Dec. 11.

DIVIDEND.

The President and Directors of the South American Bridge Company have declared a Dividend of 35 Cents per Share for the last six months on the Capital Stock of said Company. The same will be paid on or after the first day of January next to stockholders in person, or to their order.

By order of the President and Directors, THE FRANKLIN, Treasurer. Dec. 24—5m.

SPLENDID

French, Italian, German, British and American Prints,

CONSISTING OF the most beautiful Female Portraits; Sporting Landscapes; Historical, Sentimental, Caricature Engravings and Lithographs, ever offered in this city; all of which will be exhibited to such persons as will purchase to the amount of fifty cents, the frequent handling tending considerably to soil and otherwise retard the sale of them. The above beautiful collection of articles have just been received.—for sale by F. M. JARBOE.

PROSPECTUS OF THE

WASHINGTON MIRROR.

THE subscriber having purchased the Washington Mirror from its former proprietor, will in future be its conductor.

The general plan of the Mirror is, we believe, satisfactory to all our subscribers—at least in a manner unattainable by any other paper. This plan will be strictly adhered to. Our leading object being to lay hold of those local subjects and concerns which have not been noticed in the daily papers, including Police Reports, and all such matter as is of general interest, we have engaged the valuable services of Mr. WILLIAM T. THOMPSON as a writer, whose selection and untiring exertions to establish this paper have been so eminently successful.

We propose to furnish brief abstracts of all judicial decisions which shall more particularly interest the citizens of this District. Also, a brief but comprehensive summary of Congressional proceedings.

We propose further, during the session of Congress, to publish an Evening Edition, by which arrangement our distant subscribers will receive the latest Congressional Intelligence one day and a half sooner than through any other Washington paper.

We intend, if possible, to furnish a weekly list of all New Patents; Bank note Tables, and Prices Current of Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown, corrected with the greatest accuracy; also, Stage, Steamboat, and Rail Road Registers.

We shall exert our best endeavours to elevate the literary character of the Mirror.—This can only be done by the co-operation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskillful, since far more desirable, it must be allowed, would be judicious selections than mediocre originality.

We believe that the prospects of Washington demand such a paper as we intend to publish. She is already closely allied, by her rail roads, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her compeer, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the country, by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry defy the reach of imagination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created, which will act as the most sanguine economist. Washington and Baltimore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men.—Such, in fact, are our advantages, that prosperity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incalculable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an important community; a literary and miscellaneous family paper; a journal of current literature; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking. Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi-annually in advance.

RUFUS DAWES, Washington, D. C.

CASH FOR ANY NUMBER OF NEGROES, Including both sexes, from 10 to 35 years of age.

PERSONS having likely Servants to dispose of, and wishing the highest prices, will do well to give me a call, as I am determined to buy and give higher prices than any other purchaser, who is now or may come into this market. I can at all times be found at Mr. James Hunter's Tavern, in Annapolis. All communications directed to me will be promptly attended to. ISAAC F. PERVIS, Jan. 7.—3m.

Patented Bank of Maryland.

NOTICE is hereby given, to the Stockholders of this Institution, that the balance of fifteen dollars on each share of stock is required to be paid at the Banking House, in the following instalments, viz:

The third instalment of five dollars per share, on the 15th December next, of which due notice has been given.

The fourth instalment of five dollars per share on the 30th of February next.

The fifth and last instalment, of five dollars per share, on the 1st of April next.

Stockholders who pay their instalments before the periods above designated, will be allowed to participate in the profits of the Institution from the first day of the month, next ensuing the date of their respective payments.

By order of the President and Directors, J. B. CAMPBELL, Cashier. Nov. 1885.—m.

A BARGAIN.

THE undersigned intending to transfer his Publication office to the Eastward, offers to sell the PRESSES, TYPE and MATERIALS used in the Public Work. If there be an Editor printer of the party who desires to become a competitor for the printing, we will furnish an office and the materials to do the work, and take orders on the Clerk of the House of Representatives in payment.

The patronage of the Department is worth from twelve to twenty thousand dollars per annum, and that of the House is much more. Will editors with whom we exchange give this one or two insertions.

DUFF GREEN, Nov. 5.

FOR ANNAPOLIS.

THE STEAM BOAT MARYLAND will go to Annapolis, on Sunday the 28th, and 27th inst, and return same day, leaving the lower end of the wharf, at 9 o'clock.

A. M. Passage same as last year. N. B.—All baggage at the owner's risk. LEWIS G. FAYLOR, Dec. 24.

Anne Arundel County, &c.

IN application to the Honorable Chief Judge of Anne Arundel County Court, by petition, in writing, of Henry Watts of Anne Arundel county, stating that he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

That he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at December session 1883, and the several supplements thereto, &c.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED.

The Catholic Periodical Library, which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 5 cents each.

THIS dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionally high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have a general benevolence, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and has at last done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place at the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canada has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately limited.

TERMS: The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a Religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ showing; Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholicism, or Ages of Faith; Munford's Question of Questions; Munford's Catholic Scriptures; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M. Hale's Evidence of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Languan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventura's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Wap's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y. Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

NEW GOODS.

GLASS CUTTING. HAS just received, and is now opening, his new establishment, second door from his former place of business, a large and general assortment of Crystals, Chandeliers and Vases, selected in Philadelphia and Baltimore, and the greatest care. He invites his friends and the public to give him a call. Sept. 17.—16

TO THE PRINTERS OF THE UNITED STATES.

J. SPITALL, WOOD LETTER CUTTER AND ENGRAVER, No. 21, Franklin Place, PHILADELPHIA.

RESPECTFULLY announces to the Printers of the United States, that he has commenced the manufacture of WOOD LETTERS.

Wood Letters of every description, from four to thirty-four lines, or upwards, made to order on the shortest notice.

Ornamental Letters of entirely new and most splendid patterns, for Heads of Newspapers, Title Lines, &c. from two lines Great Primer to any size larger.

His type will be made of materials of the best assortment, well seasoned and prepared by machinery, in order for the purpose, which ensures the most exact adjustment. Specimens will be published as early as possible.

Engravings on Wood.

Executed with neatness and promptitude. Heads for Newspapers, Fac-similes, Ornamental and Plain Rules, &c. &c. cut with the greatest accuracy in type metal or wood.

Old cast metal cuts, ornaments, &c. engraved over, and made equal to new for half their original cost.

A liberal discount for cash. Six months credit on the most approved security. Orders from the country promptly attended to. All letters must be post paid.

Editors of papers in the country who will give the above advertisement a few insertions, and forward a paper containing the same to the advertiser, will be paid therefor in any of the above mentioned materials.

NOTICE.

THE Commissioners for Anne Arundel county will meet at the Court House in the city of Annapolis on TUESDAY the 19th day of January next for the purpose of settling with the Inspectors of Tobacco, hearing appeals, and making transfers, and closing their books for the year 1885.

By order, R. J. COWMAN, CLK. Dec. 10.—tm.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

that the subscriber has obtained from the orphan court of Anne Arundel county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Betty Davis, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate, are requested to present them, legally authenticated, and those indebted, are desired to make immediate payment.

EDWARD DUBOIS, Esq. Dec. 3.

THE CULTIVATOR

Is a monthly publication of 16 quarto pages, and comprises about 200 pages in a volume, published at Albany, by the New York State Agricultural Society. It is exclusively devoted to Agriculture and the Improvement of Youth. The publishing committee are J. Buel, J. P. Beekman, and J. D. Watson. The object of the publication is to disseminate useful information, among the agricultural community, in the cheapest practical form; and the success of the undertaking, and the character of the paper, are indicated by the fact, that before its 1st volume was completed its subscribers exceeded eleven thousand, and comprised residents of twenty one of the United States.

The second volume was commenced in March. The pages are so enlarged, that each number contains as much matter as eighteen pages of the first volume. It contains many engravings and cuts, executed by good artists, illustrative of implements, animals and operations of husbandry. Price FIFTY CENTS per annum. The postage will not exceed 18 cents per year to any part of the Union.

The first volume will continue to be furnished at 50 cents a single copy. Communications to be addressed to J. Buel, Albany, N. Y.

Subscriptions received by A. Cowan, at this office, where a specimen of it a work can be seen. Aug. 27.

FUNERALS.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Cabinet Making Business, and intends to confine himself for the future altogether to that of an UNDERTAKER.

All orders for Funerals will be attended to at the shortest notice, either in the usual manner, or according to special direction. He returns his thanks to the public for their patronage during the last twenty years, and hopes that his promptness and attention will continue to merit their favour.

WASHINGTON G. TUCK, Feb. 26

PRINTING

Neatly executed at this OFFICE.

NO. 3

The Maryland Gazette.

Vol. XXI.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1896.

NO. 3.

Printed and Published by
JONAS GREEN,
At the Brick Building on the Public
Circle.

Price—Three Dollars per annum.

THE GENTLEMAN'S
VADE MECUM,
OR, THE
SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION,
A WEEKLY REPOSITORY OF DRAMATIC LITERATURE, SPORTING, THE TURF, FASHIONS, GAZING, AGRICULTURE,
AND
VARIOUS SUBJECTS OF INTEREST AND AMUSEMENT.

Interpreted with a multitude of appropriate Engravings, including Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses, Philosophical and Natural Phenomena, &c.

THIS popular journal, although but a few months old, has passed since its commencement, has already obtained an extensive and profitable subscription list, which is daily increasing, and affords ample encouragement to the publishers to persevere in their efforts to render it useful, amusing, and instructive.

ON the commencement of the approaching year, the VADE MECUM will undergo several important improvements—instead of four pages, it will be increased to eight of nearly the present size, and consequently will contain almost double the quantity of reading matter which is now given—making it one of the Largest and Neatest Quotidian ever published in the United States. It will be printed on new type and fine white paper, and the illustrations will be considerably multiplied, and of a superior order. Persons desiring to procure the work at the beginning of the new volume, will please send their orders at once—as they may fail to be supplied, as but few copies will be published more than are actually subscribed for at the time.

The subjects which are particularly embraced in the Vade Mecum, will be more distinctly understood from the following brief analysis of them—

THE DRAMA forms a material portion of the Gentleman's Vade Mecum—every week an entire Play or Farce is given. They are selected with a single eye to their merits alone, preference, however, will be extended in all cases to native productions, when they can be obtained. Independent articles, carefully excluding all invidious comparisons, and recommended by their brevity, are occasionally inserted; as also, Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and Bon Mots of prominent Comedians of the present and past ages, of which a rare and inexhaustible compilation is in store. The Philadelphia Theatre, and several other gentlemen connected with the stage, has obtained a very excellent and numerous selection of Plays and Farces, for the Vade Mecum; many of them have never appeared in print.

THE TURF—A faithful record is kept of all the Running and Trotting Matches in this country and England. Biographies and correct portraits of celebrated thoroughbred Horses are published once a month. Every fact relative to the breeding, management, keeping, and the diseases of this invaluable animal is particularly attended to.

The Sporting Intelligence, at home and abroad, occupies a considerable portion of our columns, and is selected from the most authentic sources. Among the Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses, which have been given, are:

The American Trotting Horse, Edwin Forrest.
The Imported Racing Horse, Messenger.
The American Trotting Horse, Lady Jackson.
The Racing Mare, Ariel, and her foal, by Eclipse.
The true-bred popular Horse, Charming George.
The American Trotting Horse, Top Gallant.
The well-known English Race Horse, Touchstone.
Mundig, the winner of the Derby Stakes in June, 1835.

The unrivalled American Trotter, Andrew Jackson.

The celebrated English Horse, Glencairn.

A complete Treatise on Riding, with fourteen illustrations, for the improvement of Ladies in that most healthy of all exercises.

Explanation of the Automaton Chess Player, illustrated by eleven engravings.

Four Engravings, designed to represent the scene which took place in Paris, in July last, on the attempted destruction of the Royal Family of France—seen from the view of the Infernal Machine, and a likeness of the Assassin, Gerard.

A correct Picture of a Race Course, occupying the width of seven columns.

SPORTING—Besides other matters belonging to this head, there will be published correct accounts of Shooting Matches, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquatic Excursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c. with anecdotes of noted Dogs.

MILITARY UNIFORMS—The publisher has employed the assistance of an excellent artist to furnish a regular series of engravings of the different beautiful Uniforms worn by the principal Volunteer Corps of Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Baltimore, and other cities, which will be published periodically, with a particular description of each, furnished by a competent hand. This subject forms a peculiar attraction to the general interest of the work.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS—A quarterly review is made out by a gentleman connected with a fashionable house in Philadelphia, explanatory of the various improvements and changes which costumes worn in the dress circles constantly undergo; by which it will be rendered an easy task for drapers and tailors, at a distance, to suit their customers with the most approved colors and modern style of apparel at the earliest possible period.

MISCELLANY—Although the purposes of our sheet may appear to be confined to the several leading subjects which may have been stated, we deem it proper to say, that there constantly is, in addition to those, a considerable space allowed for Miscellaneous matter, such as, Tales, Poetry, Anecdotes, Legendaries, an Epitome of News, Places of Amusement, Statistics, Agriculture, Domestic Economy, Valuable Receipts, &c. Also, a republication of the best and most popular of the old English and American Sporting and National songs. Set to Music; besides many other matters, regarding which an interest is supposed to exist.

By the above explanation, it will be seen that the Gentleman's Vade Mecum is particularly designed as a companion for the patrons of the Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c. It is worthy of notice, that its patrons in the course of one year, will be furnished with from forty-five to fifty popular Plays or Farces—the price of which, separately, at one of our bookstores, would be at least Thirteen Dollars; Here, then, is an opportunity of saving ten dollars in the purchase of a well-bound Dramatic Library—(to be had for an unapproachably small sum)—without taking into consideration the multiplied variety which is sent along with it, free of additional charge.

The Gentleman's Vade Mecum, or Sporting Companion, is published every Saturday, on the extra large paper, of a superior quality; each number forming eight pages of the largest class, at Three Dollars per annum, in advance. Orders from abroad, postage paid, will be promptly attended to, and the paper carefully packed, to prevent it from getting by mail. As the number of agents will be limited to principal cities, or such other places where a considerable subscription may be obtained, we request those who propose to patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publishers, Small notes of solvent banks, or the different states, taken at par. By enclosing a Five Dollar note, two copies of the paper will be forwarded to any direction ordered, for one year. Specimen numbers will be sent to any part of the Union, by addressing the publisher, postage paid.

fully packed, to prevent it from getting by mail. As the number of agents will be limited to principal cities, or such other places where a considerable subscription may be obtained, we request those who propose to patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publishers, Small notes of solvent banks, or the different states, taken at par. By enclosing a Five Dollar note, two copies of the paper will be forwarded to any direction ordered, for one year. Specimen numbers will be sent to any part of the Union, by addressing the publisher, postage paid.

THE MODERN ACTING DRAMA.

HAS hitherto been issued in volumes of about 300 pages each—containing the Plays, Farces, &c. which appear in the Vade Mecum, neatly printed, and bound in elegant covers, for transportation—and published every six weeks. Eight volumes constitute a set, or one year's subscription, the terms for which is Three Dollars, payable in advance.

Subscribers to the Vade Mecum are entitled to a deduction of one-third, when subscribing for the Modern Acting Drama. An order for four sets will be thankfully received, and the work forwarded to any direction, by enclosing a ten dollar note—postage paid. Gentlemen desiring of securing a set of this work, will please forward their names immediately—the edition, which was a small one, is going off rapidly, and it cannot be reprinted at the same price.

This work will undergo a material improvement on the commencement of a new series in January, 1896. It is intended to be published Every Month, or as near the beginning as possible; each No. to consist of 48 pages of one letter, press printing and 12 numbers to constitute a volume of 576 pages. Every Play or Farce which will be published, is to be accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Engraving—making in the course of the year nearly Fifty-two illustrations—to which will be added a Philosophical, a full sized Steel Engraving, containing the likeness of six distinguished Actors and Actresses. Illustrations will be made from the present times. The year 1896, which is to be given, is an invaluable collection of the best Dramatic Authors should forward no more forthwith, as the drama will be limited to the number which is actually subscribed for. The publisher's price is $1.00 to make this work equal in value to the price of subscription, free of all charges. No subscription received unless it is for an entire volume. No sets of this work and his own best attention to the United States, and is more likely to be of great and satisfactory.

Any person collecting out subscriptions to the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, or the Modern Acting Drama, and remitting the amount of one year's subscription ($3.00) for each—shall be presented with the Novelists Magazine, in two volumes, a work of considerable popularity, and which is now selling for $2.00 containing the productions of eight different authors, well known to the public as among the most interesting writers of the day.

Persons wishing to subscribe to the above work, will address CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia, and they may rest assured that every attention will be paid to have their orders promptly transmitted by mail.

Do. J.

THE SALMAGUNDI, AND NEWS OF THE DAY. EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1896. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their order, postage paid)—and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN

500 ENGRAVINGS

will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their getting by mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellishments which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

All orders must come postage paid.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND. HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Tuesday, January 12th.
Mr. Ridgely presented a petition of sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, praying the extension of the jurisdiction of justices of the peace, to one hundred dollars, and an increase in the fees of constables in said county.

Mr. Willis presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Frederick counties, praying for the passage of a law creating a new county, out of parts of said counties, and for other purposes.

Mr. McLean presented a memorial of Jacob Albert, and others, merchants and traders in the city of Baltimore, praying that the Mechanics' Saving Fund Society, may be changed into a Bank.

Also, presented a memorial of the President and Directors of the Mechanics' Saving Fund Society, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be changed into "The Western Bank of B. I. Timers."

Mr. Dulany presented a petition of Walker H. Armistead of the State of Virginia, praying to be allowed to bring into this State, certain negro slaves therein mentioned.

Mr. Ely presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act, creating a new county, out of parts of Frederick and Baltimore counties.

Also, presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act to regulate the Baltimore markets.

Mr. McLean presented a memorial of Luke Pierson & Son, F. W. Brune, Daniel Cobb, Joseph W. Patterson, and others, of the city of Baltimore, praying the passage of an act to incorporate the Commercial Bank of Baltimore.

On motion of Mr. McLean,
Ordered, that the petition presented by him on yesterday, of the Baltimore Eastern Savings Company, praying for an increase of capital, for banking privileges under the name of the Chesapeake Bank, be referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Turner presented a petition of James Truxon, a free negro of Caroline county, praying the passage of an act, to authorize him to dispose of his real estate to his children, by gift, devise, or otherwise.

Mr. McLean asked the following leave:
Leave to bring in a bill, entitled, an act to incorporate the Atlantic Company of Baltimore.

The clerk of the Senate returned the bill, to extend the power of the commissioners for Tobacco county, for the purposes therein named, endorsed, will pass with the proposed amendment.

Which amendment was read, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the resolution in favour of Alexander Benson Cox, endorsed, assented to, ordered to be engrossed.

And, delivered a bill, original and passed by the Senate, entitled, an act to confirm a deed therein mentioned.

Mr. Dulany asked the following leave:
Leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, an act for the augmentation of the salaries of the Chief Justices of the several judicial districts of this State.

Which was read.
And, on motion of Mr. Dulany, referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Mr. Lasell submitted the following resolutions.
Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each of the U. States has an equal right in its just proportion, to participate in the benefit of the public lands, the common property of the Union.

Resolved that the Senators and Representatives of this State, in the Congress of the United States, be requested to use their exertions to procure the passage of a law, to appropriate to the use of the State of Maryland, for the purposes of education and internal improvement, such part of the proceeds of the public lands of the United States as may be equitable and just.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be requested to communicate a copy of the foregoing resolutions to each of the Senators and Representatives of this State in the Congress of the United States.

The house then adjourned.

Wednesday, January 13th.

Mr. Brewer presented a petition of James Miles, Thomas Miles, and Elizabeth Miles, Harriet Goldsmith, and Sarah Campfield, heirs of Thomas Goldsmith, a revolutionary officer, praying for an equivalent for his lands westward of Fort Cumberland.

Also, presented a petition of Samuel Baldwin, of Anne Arundel county, a soldier of the revolution, praying for a pension.

Mr. Newcomer presented a petition of Jacob Christ, and Amelia Christ his wife, of Washington county, praying for a divorce, a monna et thoro.

Mr. Ely presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, praying the passage of an act to regulate the Baltimore markets.

Mr. McLean presented a petition of the Baltimore Insurance Company praying a continuance of its charter.

Mr. Duckett presented a petition of the President, Directors, and Company, of the bank of the United States, praying that a warrant of survey may issue on certain lands in Alleghany county therein mentioned.

Mr. Richardson presented a memorial of the Honorable Samuel Smith, mayor of the city of Baltimore, praying the passage of an act for the organization and establishment of the Baltimore City Guards.

And, presented a memorial of the President and Directors of the Franklin bank of Baltimore, praying an alteration in their charter, and an extension of their capital.

Jacob Ely, Esq., a delegate returned for Washington county, appeared, qualified, and took his seat.

On motion of Mr. Wharton,
Ordered, That two hundred and fifty copies of the papers accompanying the Governor's message, relative to the civil and documentary history of the Province and State of Maryland, be printed for the use of this House.

Mr. Willis presented a bill, entitled, an act for the division of Baltimore and Frederick counties, and for the erecting a new one by the name of "Carroll," and to alter and change the constitution of this State, so far as may be necessary to effect the same.

Mr. Carpenter, chairman of the committee on divorces reported a bill, to divorce William Ford, of Montgomery county, from his wife A. Anna Ford.

Also, reported a bill, to divorce James Alfred of the city of Baltimore, from his wife Jane Alfred.

Also, reported a bill, to divorce Elizabeth Gibson, of the city of Baltimore, from her husband John Gibson.

The resolution submitted by Mr. Ely, on the 11th inst. requesting His Excellency the Governor, to procure a silver picture, with suitable inscriptions and ornaments, and present it in the name of this State, to Dr. Joseph E. Muse, of the Eastern Shore, as a testimony of the high sense entertained of his great zeal, and the distinguished services he has rendered to advance the science of agriculture in this State, was taken up for consideration.

On motion of Mr. Wharton, and resolution was referred to the committee on agriculture.

The house adjourned.

Thursday, January 14th.

Mr. Shriver presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Frederick counties, praying the passage of a law, for the creation of a new county, out of parts of Baltimore and Frederick counties.

Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore county, presented a petition of Allen Elder, of the city of Baltimore, praying a special act, to entitle him to the benefit of the insolvent laws of this State.

And, Mr. Ridgely presented a petition of sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, praying the passage of an act, to increase the fees of Constables in said county, and for other purposes.

Mr. McLean reported a supplement to an act, passed December session, 1831, to incorporate the Baltimore and Chesapeake Steam Towing Company.

Also, reported a bill, further to continue an act, passed at November session, 1795, to incorporate an Insurance company, in Baltimore town.

On motion of Mr. Dulany,
Ordered, that the committee on the coloured population be instructed to enquire into the expediency of allowing Samuel Lattimer to bring certain negro slaves into this State.

Mr. Duckett, chairman of the committee on grievances and courts of justice, delivered the following report:

The committee on grievances and courts of justice, to whom was referred "the petition of sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, praying the extension of the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace, to one hundred dollars, and an increase of the fees of constables in said county," have had the same under consideration, and report that they deem it inexpedient to grant the prayer of the petitioners, and that the petitioners have leave to withdraw their petition.

Which was read first and second time by special order, and concurred in.

Mr. Richardson reported a bill, for the establishment and regulation of the Baltimore City Guards.

The clerk of the Senate returned the bill, to authorize Thomas Baldwin, present sheriff of Prince George's county, to bond as sheriff of said county, at any time, before the thirtieth day of February next.

Also, the bill, to condemn and make public an alley, called West Alley, in the city of Baltimore;

Also, the bill, to change the name of Thomas Nicholson, of Baltimore city, to that of Thomas Gould, severally endorsed, "will pass," and ordered to be engrossed;

Mr. Pratt submitted the following order:

Ordered, that the committee on the coloured population be instructed to report a bill, confining the expenditure of the annual appropriation on the part of this State, to the Colonization Society, exclusively to the transportation and colonization of such free people of colour, who were free antecedent to the passage of said act, or who have been born free subsequent to the passage of said act;

Which was read.
Mr. Dulany, chairman of the committee on insolvency, reported a bill, for the relief of Allen Elder, of the city of Baltimore;

Which was read first and second time by special order, and passed.

Mr. Brookhart submitted the following order:
Ordered that the committee on insolvency be instructed to enquire into the expediency of passing a general law in regard to the non-residents, so as to prevent further special legislation on that subject;

Which was read,—and
On motion of Mr. McLean, ordered to lie on the table.

The House then adjourned.

Friday, January 15th.

Mr. Wharton presented a petition of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying the passage of an act to ratify and confirm the act of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, to incorporate the Franklin Rail Road Company.

Mr. McLean presented a memorial of Mrs. Julia Ann Beck, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be divorced from her husband John H. Becker.

Mr. Brewer presented a petition of Rebecca Robinson, of the city of Baltimore, praying for a pension in consideration of the services of her husband Charles Robinson, a lieutenant during the late war of the revolution.

Mr. Ridgely presented a memorial of Horace Capron, Theodore Jenkins, and others, praying an act to incorporate the "Patuxent Company," to manufacture Cotton, Iron, and other articles.

Mr. Davall presented a petition of the aged and infirm citizens of Frederick Town, in Frederick county, praying to be exempt from serving as freemen in said town.

On motion of Mr. McLean,
Ordered, That the committee on ways and means, enquire into the expediency of prohibiting within this State, the circulation of Bank notes of a less denomination than ten dollars, and report to this house, by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Ely, chairman of the select committee, delivered the following report:

The select committee to whom was referred so much of the Executive message, as relates to the death of Capt. Jacob Schmuck, late of the United States army—to whom the last General Assembly of Maryland had directed his Excellency the Governor, to present a sword with suitable devices and ornaments in the name of this State, as a testimony of the high sense entertained by his native state, of his distinguished and gallant services to his country, on the northwestern frontier during the late war with Great Britain—beg leave to report, that they have had the same under consideration, and respectfully recommend the adoption of the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, this General Assembly has been informed by the Executive, of the death of Captain Jacob Schmuck, late of the United States army, to whom the last General Assembly of Maryland, had directed his Excellency the Governor, to present a sword with suitable devices and ornaments in the name of the State, as a testimony of the high sense entertained by his native state, of his distinguished and gallant services to his country, during the late war with Great Britain. And being also informed, that Captain Schmuck has left a widow and a daughter his only child—and that under these circumstances it was not thought necessary to procure the sword, directed by the legislature to be presented to that meritorious officer; and for the purpose of making an appropriation better suited to the present condition and situation of the family of the deceased, therefore.

Resolved, by the General Assembly of Maryland, that his Excellency the Governor, be requested to ascertain the value of the sword which was directed to be presented to Captain Jacob Schmuck, late of the United States army—and a resolution of the last General Assembly of Maryland, (No. 98,)—and to draw on the Treasurer of the Western Shore, for the amount thereof, and present the same to Ellen Schmuck, widow of Captain Jacob Schmuck aforesaid, or to pay the same to her or her order, as the case may be, for the use and education of Catherine Schmuck, his daughter and only child.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, the report concurred in, and the resolution therein contained, assented to, and sent to the senate.

Mr. Ridgely, chairman of the committee on the militia, to which was referred the bill, reported by Mr. Richardson, entitled, an act for the establishment and regulation of the Baltimore City Guards, reported the same without amendment.

The said bill was then read the first and second time by special order.

Mr. Hearn, moved to amend said bill, by striking out in the second line twelfth section, the word "foreign."

Determined in the negative.

The said bill was then passed, and sent to the senate.

Mr. Dulany, chairman of the committee on insolvency, reported a bill, entitled, an act for Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.

BOOKS BY MAIL.
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1886.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1886, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a more per centage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty similar attempts at imitation; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment, liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying public literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social betterment, reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embrace a Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Science, Tales, and a full and complete miscellany of every class of reading matter.

The Library is now conducted on a more liberal plan, embracing the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universal a delight in every part of the Union, as to form an indispensable portion of the literature of the citizen, and with which a printer's press has become really necessary to those who mix in society.

The Library is now conducted on a more liberal plan, embracing the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universal a delight in every part of the Union, as to form an indispensable portion of the literature of the citizen, and with which a printer's press has become really necessary to those who mix in society.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, "The Journal of Belles Lettres," containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $3.00 per annum, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20.00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6.00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazine and Reviews, more especially Chambers's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to cause the feelings of every member of the reading circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation, and is sent to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2.50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1886 of the Library, and the Port Folio for $30.00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid, ADAM WALDIE, Seventh, two doors south of Chestnut street, Philad.

THE MUSEUM OF FOREIGN LITERATURE AND SOUVENIRS, price $5.00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $15.00.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN.

THAT the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Elijah Chaney, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate, are requested to present them, legally authenticated, and those indebted are desired to make immediate payment to

SOLOMON G. CHANEY, Ex'r.
Jan. 14.—3w.

NOTICE.

THE undersigned respectfully apprises his friends and the public at large that he will attend at all times to the preparation of DEEDS OF MANUMISSION, BILLS OF SALE, BONDS,

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT, &c.
Office in Church street—nearly opposite the City Hotel.

FRANCIS M. JARBOE.

N. B. Having an approved form of Inalienable Blanks he will also attend to business having relation thereto, on moderate terms—for Cash.

SPECIAL AD.

French, Italian, German, British and American Prints.

CONSISTING OF the most beautiful Female Portraits, Sporting Landscapes; Historical, Sentimental, Architecture Engravings and Lithographs, ever offered in this city; all of which will be exhibited to such persons as will purchase to the amount of fifty cents, the frequent handling tending considerably to soil and otherwise retard the sale of them.

The above beautiful collection of articles have just been received.—For sale by

F. M. JARBOE.

PROSPECTUS OF THE

WASHINGTON LIBRARY.

THE subscriber having purchased the rights, with reference to its conduct, of the Washington Library, formerly conducted by Mr. J. B. Linn, and having secured the services of Mr. W. L. Garrison as assistant editor, whose special and exclusive duty it shall be to furnish a weekly list of all New Publications, a Bank note Table, and Prices Current of Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown, connected with the greatest accuracy, also, Stages, Steamboats, and Rail Road Registers.

We shall exert our best endeavours to elevate the literary character of the Mirror. This can only be done by the cooperation of those minds which are able and willing to do so in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskillful, since far more desirable, it must be allowed, would be judicious selections than mediocre originality.

We believe that the prospects of Washington demand such a paper as we intend to publish. She is already closely allied, by her rail road, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her competitor, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the country; by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry, the reach of imagination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created, which will astonish the most sanguine economist. Washington and Baltimore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men.—Such, in fact, are our advantages, that prosperity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incalculable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an important community; literary and miscellaneous family paper; a journal of current literature; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking.

Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi-annually in advance.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

RUFUS DAVES.

CASH FOR

ANY NUMBER OF NEGROES,

Including both sexes from 10 to 35 years of age.

PERSONS having likely Servants to dispose of, and wishing the highest prices, will do well to give me a call, as I am determined to buy and give higher prices than any other purchaser, who is now or may come into this market. I can at all times be found at Mr. James Hunter's Tavern, in Annapolis. All communications directed to me will be promptly attended to.

ISAAC F. PURVIS.

Patapsco Bank of Maryland.

Notice is hereby given, so the Stockholders of this institution, that the balance of fifteen dollars on each share of stock is required to be paid at the Banking House, in the following instalments, viz:

The third instalment of five dollars per share, on the 15th December next, of which due notice has been given.

The fourth instalment of five dollars per share on the 5th of February next.

The fifth and last instalment, of five dollars per share, on the 1st of April next.

Stockholders who pay their instalments before the periods above designated, will be allowed to participate in the profits of the Institution from the first day of the month next ensuing the date of their respective payments.

By order of the President and Directors.

B. U. CAMPBELL, Cashier.

Nov. 24.—mtA.

A BARGAIN.

THE undersigned intending to transfer his Publication office to the Eastward, offers to sell the PRESSES, TYPE and MATERIALS used in the Public Work. If there be an Editor printer of the party who dares to become a competitor for the printing, we will furnish an office and the materials to do the work, and take orders on the Clerk of the House of Representatives in payment.

The patronage of the Department is worth from twelve to twenty thousand dollars per annum, and that of the House as much more. Will editors with whom we exchange give this one or two insertions.

DUFF GREEN.

Nov. 5.

FOR ANNAPOLIS.

THE STEAM BOAT

MARYLAND will go to

Annapolis, on Sunday the

30th, and 27th inst., and

return same day, leaving

the lower end of the wharf, at 9 o'clock.

A. M. Passes as last year.

N. B.—All baggage at the owner's risk.

LEWIS G. TAYLOR.

Dec. 24.

Anne Arundel County, Ec.

IN application to the subscriber, Chief Judge of Anne Arundel County Court, by petition, in writing, of Henry Watts of Anne Arundel county, stating that he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors," passed at December session 1863, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein contained, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, and of the debts due to him, on oath, so far as he can ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and the said Henry Watts having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said Henry Watts having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from said Henry Watts a conveyance and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed; I do hereby order and adjudge that the said Henry Watts be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Anne Arundel County, once a week for three consecutive months, before the third Monday in April next, to appear before the said County Court, at the Court House of said county, in the city of Annapolis on the said third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Henry Watts should not have the benefit of the said Act, and supplements as prayed. Given and my hand the 10th day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five.

HON. B. DORSEY.

Dec. 24.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, Ec.

IN application by petition in writing of J. Jones Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said county, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session 1863, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by competent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application; and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed; I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Supplements as prayed. Given under my hand the 1st day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five.

GIDEON WHITE.

Jan. 7.—3m.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED

The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.

THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works most long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionally high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has never been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community, and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas, has resolved to put it to press forthwith, and he therefore invites himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore, earnestly requests that the Bishop and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comfort of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:

The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, uniform size, on five royal paper and will embrace the whole of the most interesting Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription, $1.00 per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberators contributions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.

The following is a list of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.

Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religious Boswell's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ showing Hayward's Charity and Truth; Mores, Catholicism, or Ages of Faith; Munford's Question of Questions; Munford's Catholic Scriptures; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M. Hale's Evidence of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lammegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventura's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received, and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.

Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will entitle themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

GIDEON WHITE.

Jan. 7.—3m.

FOR SALE.

THE DWELLING HOUSE

which I am present reside.

FOR RENT.

THE DWELLING HOUSE, in which late General Richard Harwood resided at the time of his death.

TH. S. ALEXANDER.

Jan. 7.

TO THE PRINTERS OF THE UNITED STATES.

J. SPITALL.

WOOD LETTER CUTTER AND ENGRAVER

No. 21, Franklin Place, PHILADELPHIA.

RESPECTFULLY announces to the

Printers of the United States, that he has commenced the manufacture of WOOD LETTERS.

Wood Letters of every description, from four to thirty-four lines Pica, or upwards, made to order on the shortest notice.

Ornamental Letters of entirely new and most splendid patterns, for Heads of Newspapers, Title Lines, &c. from two lines Great Primer to any size larger.

This type will be made of materials of the best assortment, well seasoned and prepared by machinery, invented for the purpose, which ensures the most exact adjustment.

Specimens will be published as early as possible.

Engravings on Wood.

Executed with accuracy and promptitude. Heads for Newspapers, Fac-similes, Ornamental and Plain Rules, &c. cut with the greatest accuracy in type metal or wood.

Old cast metal cuts, ornaments, &c. engraved over, and made equal to new for half their original cost.

A liberal discount for cash. Six months credit on the most approved security. Orders from the country promptly attended to. All letters must be post paid.

Editors of papers in the country who will give the above advertisement a few insertions, and forward a paper containing the same to the advertiser, will be paid therefor in any of the above mentioned materials.

anne Arundel County, Ec.

IN application by petition in writing of Edward Holland, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said county, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session 1863, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he could ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied that the said Edward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Horace, Navy trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, which said trustee has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given bond with security for his personal appearance in Anne Arundel County Court, at the third Monday in April next, to answer to allegations or interrogatories of his creditors, and having executed a deed of conveyance to his said trustee for all his property, real, personal and mixed, and the trustee having certified the delivery thereof to him by the said Edward Holland, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said Edward Holland give notice to his creditors by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, once a week for the term of three months, to appear before the County Court of the said Anne Arundel County, to be held in the city of Annapolis on the third Monday of April next, to shew cause if any they have, why the said Edward Holland should not have the benefit of the said Act and supplements as prayed.

Jan. 14.—3m.

GIDEON WHITE.

THE CULTIVATOR

A monthly publication of 16 quarto pages, and comprises about 200 pages in a volume, published at Albany, by the New York State Agricultural Society. It is exclusively devoted to Agriculture and the Improvement of Youth. The publishing committee are J. Buel, J. P. Beckman, and J. D. Watson. The object of the publication is to disseminate useful information, among the agricultural community, in the cheapest practicable form; and the success of the undertaking, and the character of the paper, are indicated by the fact, that before its last volume was completed its subscribers exceeded eleven thousand, and comprised residents of twenty one of the United States.

The second volume was commenced in March. The pages are so enlarged, that each number contains as much matter as eighteen pages of the first volume. It contains many engravings and cuts, executed by good artists, illustrative of implements, animals and operations of husbandry. Price FIFTY CENTS per annum. The postage will not exceed 18 cents per year to any part of the Union.

The first volume will continue to be furnished at 50 cents a single copy.

Communications to be addressed to J. Buel, Albany, N. Y.

Subscriptions received by J. Cowan, at this office, where a specimen of the work can be seen.

Aug. 27.

FUNERALS.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Cabinet Making Business, and intends to confine himself for the future altogether to that of an UNDERTAKER.

All orders for Funerals will be attended to at the shortest notice, either in the usual manner, or according to special directions.

He returns his thanks to the public for their patronage during the last twenty years, and hopes that his promptness and attention will continue to merit their favour.

WASHINGTON G. TUCK.

Feb. 26.

PRINTING

Neatly executed at this

OFFICE.

The Maryland Gazette.

VOL. XL.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1836.

NO. 4.

Printed and Published by
JONAS GREEN,
At the Brick Building on the Public
Circle.
Price—Three Dollars per annum.

THE GENTLEMAN'S VADE MECUM,

OR, THE
SPORTING AND DRAMATIC COMPANION,
CONTAINING A WEEKLY REPOSITORY OF
DRAMATIC LITERATURE, SPORTING, THE TURF, FASHIONS, GRAZING, AGRICUL-TURE, AND
VARIOUS SUBJECTS OF INTEREST AND AMUSEMENT.

Interpersed with a multitude of Appropriate Engrav-
ings, including Portraits of celebrated Winning Horses, Philosophical and Natural Phenomena, &c.
&c.

THIS popular journal, although less than a month
has passed since it was commenced, has already been daily increasing, and affords ample encouragement to the publisher to persevere in his efforts to render it useful, amusing, and instructive.

On the commencement of the approaching year,
the VADE MECUM will undergo several important
improvements—instead of four pages, it will be increased to eight of nearly the present size, and consequently will contain almost double the quantity of reading matter which is now given—making it one of the largest and most useful papers published in the United States.

It will be printed on new type, and fine white paper, and the Engravings will be considerably
multiplied, and of a superior order. Persons desirous of procuring the work at the beginning of the new year, will please send their orders at once—as they may not be supplied, as but few copies will be published
more than are actually ordered for at the time.

The subjects which are particularly embraced in the VADE MECUM, will be more distinctly and rooted from
the following brief analysis of them—

THE DRAMA forms a material portion of the Gen-
tleman's VADE MECUM—every week an entire Play or Farce is given. They are selected with a single eye to afford the reader a practical, however, well exposed in all cases to native productions, when they can be obtained. Independent criticisms, carefully examined, are occasionally inserted, and also, Biographical Sketches, Anecdotes, and other bits of promising promise and interest, and past ages, of which nature and inexhaustible compilation is in store.

The publisher, by the liberality of the managers of the two Philadelphia Theatres, and several other gentlemen connected with the stage, has obtained a very excellent and various selection of Plays and Farces, for the VADE MECUM; many of them have never appeared in print.

THE TURF.—A faithful record is kept of all the running and Trotting Matches in the country and England. Biographical and correct portraits of celebrated thoroughbred Horses are published once a month,
very fact relative to the breeding, management, keeping, and the diseases of this invaluable animal is particularly attended to.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE, at home and abroad, occupies a considerable portion of our columns, and is collected from the most authentic sources. Among the portraits of celebrated Winning Horses which have
been given, are:

The American Trotting Horse, Edwin Forrest.
The Imported Racing Horse, Messenger.
The American Trotting Horse, Lady Jackson.
The Racing Mare, Ariel, and her foal, by Eclipse.
The true-bred popular Horse, Chateau Margaux.
The American Trotting Horse, Pop Tipton.
The well-known English Race Horse, Touchstone.
Mumgill, the winner of the Derby Stakes in June, 1835.

The unrivalled American Trotter, Andrew Jackson.
The celebrated English Horse, Cleopatra.
A complete Treatise on Riding, with fourteen illustrations, for the improvement of Ladies in that most salutary of all exercises.

Explanation of the Automaton Chess Player, illustrated by eleven engravings.
Four Engravings, designed to represent the scene
which took place in Paris, in July last, on the attempted destruction of the Royal Family of France—with a view of the Infernal Machine, and a likeness of the Assassin, Gerard.

A correct Picture of a Race Course, occupying the
width of seven columns.

SPORTING.—Besides other matters belonging to
this head, there will be published correct accounts of Shooting Matches, Pedestrian Feats, Gymnastic Exercises, Aquatic Excursions, Fishing, Gaming, &c. with
anecdotes of noted Dogs.

MILITARY UNIFORMS.—The publisher has employed the assistance of an excellent artist to furnish a regular series of engravings of the different Beautiful Uniforms worn by the principal Volunteer Corps of Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Baltimore, and other cities, which will be published periodically, with a particular description of each, furnished by a competent
hand. This subject forms a peculiar attraction to the general interest of the work.

GENTLEMEN'S FASHIONS.—A quarterly review is made of the passing fashions, and an explanatory of the various improvements and changes which costume worn
in the dress circles constantly undergo; by which it will be rendered an easy task for drapers and tailors, at a distance, to suit their customers with the most approved
polish and modern style of apparel at the earliest possible period.

MISCELLANY.—Although the purposes of our work may appear to be confined to the several leading subjects which have been stated, we deem it proper to say, that there constantly is, in addition to these,
a considerable space allowed for Miscellaneous matter,
such as Tales, Poetry, Anecdotes, Legends, &c. in Extractions of News, Places of Amusement, Statistics, Agriculture, Domestic Economy, Valuable Receipts, &c.
Also, a compilation of the best and most popular of the
old English and American Sporting and National Songs,
set to Music, besides many other matters, regarding
which an interest is supposed to exist.

By the above explanation, it will be seen that the Gentleman's VADE MECUM is particularly designed as a
companion for the "patrons of the Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c." It is worthy of notice,
that its patrons in the course of one year, will be furnished with their forty-five to fifty popular Plays or Farces—the price of which, separately, at one of our
bookstores, would be at least Thirteen Dollars. Here,
there is an absolute saving of ten dollars on the purchase of a well-bound Dramatic Library—(to be had for at least thirty dollars)—which is worth of notice, that
the publisher will send, without taking into consideration the small quantity of paper which is sent along with
it, free of additional charge.

The Gentleman's VADE MECUM, or Sporting Companion, is published every Saturday, on fine extra imperial quarto paper, of a superior quality, each number forming eight pages of the largest class, at Three Dollars
per annum, in advance. Orders from abroad, postage paid, will be promptly attended to, and the paper sent free.

By the above explanation, it will be seen that the Gentleman's VADE MECUM is particularly designed as a
companion for the "patrons of the Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c." It is worthy of notice,
that its patrons in the course of one year, will be furnished with their forty-five to fifty popular Plays or Farces—the price of which, separately, at one of our
bookstores, would be at least Thirteen Dollars. Here,
there is an absolute saving of ten dollars on the purchase
of a well-bound Dramatic Library—(to be had for at least thirty dollars)—which is worth of notice, that
the publisher will send, without taking into consideration the small quantity of paper which is sent along with
it, free of additional charge.

The Gentleman's VADE MECUM, or Sporting Com-
panion, is published every Saturday, on fine extra imperial quarto paper, of a superior quality, each number forming eight pages of the largest class, at Three Dollars
per annum, in advance. Orders from abroad, postage paid, will be promptly attended to, and the paper sent free.

By the above explanation, it will be seen that the Gentleman's VADE MECUM is particularly designed as a
companion for the "patrons of the Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c." It is worthy of notice,
that its patrons in the course of one year, will be furnished with their forty-five to fifty popular Plays or Farces—the price of which, separately, at one of our
bookstores, would be at least Thirteen Dollars. Here,
there is an absolute saving of ten dollars on the purchase
of a well-bound Dramatic Library—(to be had for at least thirty dollars)—which is worth of notice, that
the publisher will send, without taking into consideration the small quantity of paper which is sent along with
it, free of additional charge.

By the above explanation, it will be seen that the Gentleman's VADE MECUM is particularly designed as a
companion for the "patrons of the Turf, the Drama, Sporting, the Fashions, &c." It is worthy of notice,
that its patrons in the course of one year, will be furnished with their forty-five to fifty popular Plays or Farces—the price of which, separately, at one of our
bookstores, would be at least Thirteen Dollars. Here,
there is an absolute saving of ten dollars on the purchase
of a well-bound Dramatic Library—(to be had for at least thirty dollars)—which is worth of notice, that
the publisher will send, without taking into consideration the small quantity of paper which is sent along with
it, free of additional charge.

fully packed, to prevent it from rubbing by mail. As
the number of agents will be limited to principal cities,
or such other places where a considerable subscription
may be obtained, we request those who propose to patronize the work, to transmit by mail at once to the publisher. Small notes of solvent banks of the different states, taken at par. By enclosing a Five Dollar Note, two copies of the paper will be forwarded to any direction ordered, for one year. Specimen numbers will be sent to any part of the Union, by addressing the publisher, postage paid.

THE MODERN ACTING DRAMA.

THIS work has been issued in volumes of about 300
pages each—containing the Plays, Farces, &c. which
appear in the VADE MECUM, neatly printed, and bound
in elastic covers, for transportation—and published every six weeks. Eight volumes constitute a set, or
one year's subscription, the terms for which is Three Dollars, payable in advance.

Subscribers to the VADE MECUM are entitled to a deduction of one-third, when subscribing for the Modern Acting Drama. An order for four sets will be thankfully received, and the work forwarded to any direction, by enclosing a ten dollar note—postage paid.
Gentlemen desirous of securing a set of this work, will
please forward their names immediately—the edition,
which was a small one, is going off rapidly, and it can-
not be re-published at the same price.

This work will undergo a material improvement on
the commencement of a new series in January, 1836.
It is intended to be published Every Month, or as near
the beginning as possible, each No. to consist of 48
pages of fine letter press printing, and 12 numbers to constitute a volume of 576 pages. Every Play or Farce
which will be published, is to be accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Engraving—making in the course of the year nearly Fifty. Also Embellishments—to which will be added as a Frontispiece, a full sized Steel Engraving, containing the likeness of Six Distinguished Actors and Actresses. No alterations will be made from the present terms. Every person who desires to preserve an invaluable collection of the best Dramatic Authors should forward his name forthwith, as the edition
will be limited to the number which is absolutely subscribed for.

The publisher pledges himself to make
this work equal in interest and superiority of execution
to any, respecting, or he will refund the price of subscription, free of all charges. No subscription received unless the terms are complied with. No work of this kind
has ever been attempted in the United States, and none
more likely to prove popular and satisfactory.

Any person collecting four subscribers to the Gentleman's VADE MECUM, or the Modern Acting Drama, and remitting the amount of one year's subscription ($3) for each—shall be presented with the Novelists' Magazine, in two volumes, a work of considerable popularity, and which is now selling for $3—it contains
the productions of eight different authors, well known
to the public as among the most interesting writers of
the day.

Persons wishing to subscribe to the above work,
will address CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia, and they may rest assured that every attention will be paid to have them carefully transmitted by mail.

Dec. 3.

THE SALMAGUNDI, OR NEWS OF THE DAY.

EMBELLISHED WITH A MULTITUDE OF
COMIC ENGRAVINGS.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation,
will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons
with the leading features of the news of the
day, its principal object will be to serve up
a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily fluttering along the tide of literature, and which,
for the want of a proper channel for their expression, are positively lost to the Reading world. Original wits and humorists of our
time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the
many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen
number to every person who desires it—
(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid)—and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large
imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's VADE MECUM. It is calculated that
MORE THAN

500 ENGRAVINGS

will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated
through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order;
and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this
expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to
bear him successfully and profitably along
with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be
TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered
to. Clubs of three will be supplied with
the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven
will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that
are sent out of the city will be carefully
packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their
rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on
alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Embellish-
ments which each number will contain—and
the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

All orders must come postage paid.
Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER,
Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

LEGISLATURE OF MARYLAND. HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Monday, January, 18.

Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore county, chairman of the select committee on the constitution, delivered the following

REPORT.

The select committee to whom was referred the order of the house to take into consideration what alterations, and amendments, if any,
of the constitution may be necessary and expedient, beg leave to report—

That among every free people, there are certain principles of government which are held indisputable and sacred. To secure to the people the rights which result from these principles is the first object with every government that aspires to be republican, and the means which it uses to secure to the people their rights, or in other words the adaptation of its principles to the practical operation of government, is called its constitution. To ascertain what the constitution of a state requires amendment, the constitution must be compared with its principles.

If the constitution and any one of the principles upon which it is founded disagree, the principle should prevail, and the constitution should be amended. The reason is plain, the constitution is derived from the principle; and not the principle from the constitution. The principle is the end, the object to be gained—the constitution is the means to carry the principle into effect. To suffer the constitution to prevail over the principle would be to subject the end to the means—to sacrifice the object for which government is instituted, to its form.

The committee will apply the foregoing observations to the constitution of Maryland, and agreeably to the order of the House under which they were appointed, will proceed to inquire wherein the constitution should be amended.

It is the fundamental principle of a republican government, that the people possess the sovereign power and therefore have the right to govern. This principle, so far at least as relates to the purposes of the committee, is at-tirmed in the second article of the declaration of rights. "The people of this State ought to have the sole and exclusive right to regulate the internal government and police thereof." Here is the principle, the committee will inquire whether the enactments of the constitution conform to the principle.

The first and most important power which the people delegate is the legislative. By the constitution of Maryland the legislative power is confided to the General Assembly of the State. Superadded to this legislative power the constitution entrusts to the General Assembly other high powers. It is the fountain from which the Governor and Council, exercising the executive authority, spring. The executive authority appoints the judges and nearly all the officers known to the State government. If any defect therefore exists in the organization of the General Assembly or legislative power, the defect necessarily pervades and vitiate every part of the constitution. Hence the imperative necessity to ascertain and remedy whatever defect may exist in so expanded and important a power.

The primary and in the opinion of the committee the fatal defect in the construction of the legislative power, consists not in the mere alteration from the principles of the constitution and of a republican government, but in its utter and reckless emancipation from all principles.
The declaration of rights, in which the principles of a free government, and the rights resulting from these principles to the people are asserted, declares that the people ought to have
the sole and exclusive right to regulate the internal government of the State. This is declared to be the right of the people of Maryland.
Does the constitution secure this right to the people so far from it, the constitution, notwithstanding this emphatic declaration, does not in the distribution of the legislative powers make any reference whatever to the people. The declaration of rights in not a single article affirms that any legislative rights appertain to the cities and the counties, and yet the constitution in distributing the members of the general assembly refers to the cities and counties alone.
Unequal as they are in extent, in taxable wealth, and in population, or in any attribute,
which, under even the most imaginary principle of representation would entitle them to equal weight, they are grieved by the constitution with equal legislative rights. When the constitution was adopted the grievances arising from this plan of representation was not as severe, as it has since become. At that period the cities and counties were more equal in population. Time, which is usually hailed as the great comforter
of grievances, has in this instance, at least rendered the grievance more intolerable. As the legislative system operates now, the whole legislation power, and either directly or indirectly the whole appointing power of the State may be grasped and wielded at the will of one third of the people of Maryland. It is an equitable rule that they who receive the benefit should bear the burden. The question may then well be asked, do the majority of the people for the possession of the whole political power of the State, make any compensation to the majority?

Do they pay taxes and bear the burdens of the State in proportion to their political power? The committee again repeat that so far from it,
two thirds in number of the freemen of Maryland, paying much more than two thirds of the taxes for the support of the State government, may be ruled, taxed, and in fact completely subjugated by the remaining third. It may be said that these remarks apply to the distribution of the legislative power in the House of Delegates alone. The committee would observe that by the constitutional construction of the Senate the majority of the people are in a still worse condition. In the House of Delegates the majority of the people have representatives, and therefore their voice may be heard, although it may utterly disregarded and controlled by the representatives of a small minority of the people. But one third of the people can prevent the other two thirds from having any voice at all in the Senate. The Senate is elected by electors, and a majority of electors thus chosen by a minority of the People may if they please elect the fifteen Senators without giving to those parts of the State in which two thirds of the people reside a single Senator. Thus a large majority of the people, besides having a minority of representatives in one branch of the General Assembly, must be indebted for any representative at all in the other branch to the kindness of a small minority of the people. To the same kindness must they be indebted for any voice in the executive department of the State.

This picture of the condition of the people of Maryland is dark enough already, but to make it complete, other and darker shades must be added. The representatives of one third of the people have under the constitution, not only the right to legislate upon the lives, the liberties, and the property of the whole people, but the fundamental law of the State, the constitution itself is subjected to their pleasure. It is a sickness, or then by their breath. They can preserve it in all its features as it is, or in succeeding sessions they may annihilate it, or make it what they please. The voice of the people even when it is spoken concerning the very fundamental law of their State, can neither be heard nor heeded unless the other third will it.

But this is not the only, nor perhaps the worst aspect in which the subject can be regarded. Maryland is a member of the great Confederacy of the United States. As such she has delegated and assigned interests. The constitution of the United States, entrusts to the legislation of the State powers of high importance. They elect Senators to the Congress of the United States. They can if they please elect the electors of President and Vice President of the United States, and in all cases must preserve the manner in which they shall be elected. To them too is entrusted the power to ratify amendments proposed to the constitution of the United States. These high powers can be exercised in Maryland by one third of the people, and can be exercised in opposition to the voice of the other two thirds.

The committee might here enquire into the organization of the executive and judicial authorities of the State, and then proceed agreeably to the order of the House to propose such amendments as would rectify whatever defects
may in their opinion exist in relation to the legislation, executive and judicial departments of the government. This they decline for reasons which they trust will prove satisfactory to the House. They have endeavored to show wherein exists the prominent defect in the distribution of the legislative power, but they forbore to offer a remedy. They do not look upon the General Assembly as the proper tribunal to propose such amendments to the representative system of the State, as would amount to a destruction of the system itself or to the substitution of another system for the present, and such amendments alone in the opinion of the committee would remedy the evil of which they complain. Such amendments even if they were adopted by the present General Assembly of Maryland
would have to be submitted to the next General Assembly for ratification. The ratification or rejection of important changes in the constitution would therefore depend not upon the will of the people, but upon the will of the representatives of a small minority of the people. For this reason the committee refrain to offer to the House any amendments to the constitution.

The committee will now inquire in what manner the constitution of Maryland should be amended, or rather reformed.

The constitution of the State is the supreme law of the land, and therefore, should proceed from the supreme law giver, the people. In the people alone, according to the principles of a republican government, resides the power to as-mend, alter or abolish the Constitution. It is their law, and over it they have absolute control. If there were any other powers which could continue, change or abolish it, without their consent—the people might be compelled to live under a constitution to which they were opposed, and would thus be robbed of the sovereign power. When, therefore, it is proposed to amend or reform a constitution the first inquiry should be, do the people will it—if they will it the matter is at an end. If there is reason to suppose they will it, that fact should be ascertained. Whether the Constitution be right or wrong is indifferent, for who has the authority to judge whether it be right or wrong, but the people, by whom and for whose benefit it was made. The question now arises—do the people of Maryland wish a reform in their Constitution? To judge from the public meetings which have been held, and the petitions which have been presented, a majority of the people desire it. But in a question of such importance, where the will of the people can be ascertained, it should not be left to conjecture.

The committee are, therefore, preparing, and will present to the General Assembly, a law, to ascertain the sense of the people of Maryland,
upon the subject of calling a convention to reform their Constitution. If this law should be enacted and it should be ascertained, that the people of Maryland are in favor of reform—
there is no power in the government which can, according to the principles, lawfully refuse obedience to their will. The committee are, therefore, preparing, and will present a law to provide for the calling of a convention to reform the Constitution of the State, to take effect only, in case the people should decide in favor of a convention.

The committee think it unnecessary to set forth in detail, the laws which they are preparing, unless the House by adopting this report, concur with them in opinion, that essential amendments and alterations of the Constitution are absolutely requisite, and that a convention is the best means of effecting the same. In such case, they will be ready to offer for the General Assembly, laws, fewer people to deal with. That the people be requested, at the next October election, to put upon their ballots whether they be for a reform in their constitution or not.
If they decide in favor of a reform, then an election for members of a convention, to be held at the November elections for electors of President and Vice President, or at some other more convenient time. That there shall be eight members from each congressional district, and sixteen from each double district—that the convention thus elected, shall meet on the second Monday of the May following, and form a Constitution, which constitution shall be submitted to the people at the next October election, for their ratification, and if it be ratified by them, it shall become the Constitution of the State of Maryland.

The committee are aware, that the General Assembly of Maryland can refuse their sanction to any measures which have even a tendency to reform; but they respectfully state,
that it is not within the power of the General Assembly, to deprive the people of the right to reform their Constitution, nor prevent its exercise. They would state, not however, in the language of menace, nor tone of defiance, that the people of Maryland can if they please, have recourse to their last and imperishable right,
the right of revolution.

JOHN H. CARROLL, Chm.

By order,
BENJ. SKEGAR, Clk.

Which was read.
Mr. Wharton moved that five hundred copies of said report be printed.

Mr. Winder moved that one thousand copies
of said report be printed.

Mr. Hamilton moved to lay the report and motions upon the table.

Resolved in the affirmative.
On motion of Mr. Brown, the yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:—

Athwart.

Yeas. Messrs. Gantt, Speaker, Heard, Fowler, Dun-kinson, Prunrose, Kirby of Kent, Miller, Iglehart, Ridgely, Hood, Mercer, Duke, M-rick, Carpenter, Dulany, Spalding, Hamilton, Dul-
ly, Bruff, Muliken, Long, Teackle, Jones, Dun-nis, Traverser, Ford, Bayly, Townsend, Worthington, Brewer, Duckett, Palmer, Hensley, Kir-
by of Queen Anne's, Whitlock, Horn, Gillies, Carter, Turner, Burchenal, Hardcastle, Beam, Gittings—43.

Negative.
Messrs. Ely, Brown, Carroll of Balt. Co., Winder, McCullough, Nowland, Henderson,
Willis, Annan, Duvall, Shriver, Boyd, Sutton, Gough, Nelson, McLean, Wharton, Newcomer, Brookhart, Fiery, Darby, McMahon, Matthews,
Berry, Frantz—25.

Mr. Boyd submitted the following order.
Ordered, that the committee on the Constitution shall be enlarged to seven, and that they be instructed to enquire into the expediency of reporting a bill providing for the following amendments to the Constitution.

1st. That the Governor be elected by the people.

2nd. That the Executive Council be abolished.

3rd. That the Senate be elected by the people, according one member to each county and the city of Baltimore.

4th. That all appointments to office devolved upon the Executive, shall be made by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

5th. That the representation in the House of Delegates shall be so apportioned, as to secure to each county three members, with an increase of one member for every 10,000 white population, with a restriction, that the representation of the city of Baltimore shall not exceed that of the largest county in this State.

Tuesday, January 18th.

Mr. Brewer presented a petition of Martha Jay, widow of Alexander Lawson Smith, a Captain in the army of the revolution, praying for a pension.

Also, presented a petition of Nancy Williams, the widow of John Hartshorn, a Lieutenant in the revolutionary army, praying for a pension.

Mr. Shriver presented eight petitions of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Frederick counties, praying a division of said county, and to erect a new one therefrom, to be called "Carroll."

Mr. Ely presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Frederick counties, praying the repeal or amendment of an act, passed at December session, 1821, chapter 21, relative to the medical and chirographical Faculty in this State.

Mr. Duval presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Frederick county, relative to the application of Laviee Unglesbie, praying to be divorced from her husband Eli Unglesbie.

Mr. Beam presented a petition of David Henshaw and Thomas Hodges, of Montgomery county, praying for compensation for a road laid out through their lands.

Mr. Brookhart presented a petition of Henry Locher, of Washington county, praying compensation for a valuable improvement in agriculture.

Mr. Darby presented a report of the Trustees of the Brookville Academy, in Montgomery county.

Mr. Duckett presented a petition of James Boyle, of the city of Annapolis, praying the passage of an act, supplementing to the act of 1831, chapter 100, for such other relief as to the legislature shall seem proper.

And, Mr. Bailey presented a petition of William B. Taylor, of Talbot county, praying to be placed on the pension roll of said county.

Mr. Carpenter obtained leave to bring in a bill, to authorize and empower the Levy courts or county commissioners, in the case may be, to divide the several counties in the State, to divide the same into persons in their respective counties, and to divide the same into persons in their respective counties.

Mr. Boardman, chairman of the committee on colored people, reported a bill, entitled, an act to authorize Samuel L. Garrison, of Charles county, to bring into this State a negro slave therein named.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and passed.

Mr. McLean, chairman of the committee on corporations, reported a bill, to incorporate the Potomac Company.

Also, made a favorable report upon the bill, to continue an act passed at November session, 1795, entitled, an act to incorporate an insurance company in Baltimore town.

Mr. McLean, chairman of the committee on corporations, to which was referred the bill reported by Mr. Palmer, entitled, an act to incorporate the Queen Anne's county Silk company, reported the same with amendments.

Which were read the first time, and passed.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day, the house proceeded to consider the order submitted by Mr. Wharton, on the 15th inst., instructing the committee on grievances and courts of justice to enquire into the expediency of giving to the several county courts in this State, or the High Court of Chancery, jurisdiction in cases of divorce.

The said order was then read the second time.

On the question being put on the adoption of said order.

It was determined in the negative.

The house then adjourned.

Wednesday, January 20th.

Mr. Newcomer presented a petition of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying that the act passed December session 1834, chapter 114, entitled, an act to repeal all that part of the Constitution which relates to the division of Washington county, into eight election districts, may not be confirmed.

Mr. Annan presented a petition of Nicholas Brengle, and Mary his wife, and their children, praying relief therein mentioned.

Mr. Merrick presented a petition of Ann Hill, and others, devisees and heirs of the late William Hill, of Prince George's county, praying for a special act of assembly for the distribution of said deceased's estate.

Mr. Hambleton presented a memorial of the President, Directors, and Company of the Choptank Bridge, praying the passage of an act authorizing the sale of said Bridge.

Mr. Iglehart presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, and city, Anne Arundel county, and the citizens of Annapolis, praying the passage of a law, authorizing Richard and William Linthicum, to build a bridge over Gwynn's falls at or near where the present bridge stands, known by the name of the Long Bridge.

Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore county, presented a petition of sundry citizens of the city of Baltimore, praying an act to permit William Linthicum, and Richard Linthicum, to erect a bridge over Gwynn's falls.

Mr. McLean presented a petition of Mary Hamner, of the city of Baltimore, praying a divorce from her husband James J. Hamner.

Mr. Richardson presented a memorial of two thousand eight hundred and sixty four citizens of the city of Baltimore praying for a change in the present License system.

Mr. McLean presented a petition of Sarah Richards, praying for a divorce from her husband Isaiah Richards.

Mr. McLean, also, presented a memorial of the Falls Point Savings Institution of Baltimore, praying the passage of an act to enable it to become "The Eastern Bank of Baltimore."

Mr. Winder presented a memorial of Albin Mellier, praying the passage of an act, to incorporate "The Maryland Print Works Company."

Also, presented a petition of Lovering Richards, relative to partition fences in Baltimore county.

Mr. McLean, asked the following leave. Leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, an act for the speedy trial of misdemeanors in the city of Baltimore.

Mr. McLean, asked the following leave. Leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act to prevent gaming, passed at December session, 1827, chapter 88.

Mr. McLean, asked the following leave; Leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, an act to facilitate the settlement and recovery of undisputed and indisputable claims, by judgments at law.

Mr. McMahon obtained leave to bring in a bill, to regulate the mode of distributing the votes and proceedings of the General Assembly of Maryland, and to repeal the act of Assembly heretofore passed on the subject.

Mr. Carpenter obtained leave to bring in a bill, to be entitled, an act to provide for the division of Charles county, into school districts and the establishment of primary schools therein.

The clerk of the senate returned the bill, for the relief of William Adams, of Somerset county, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendment which was read the first and second time by special order, assented to, and the bill ordered to be eng. and.

Also, the bill, for the opening and extension of Carrolls alley in the city of Baltimore, endorsed, "will not pass."

And, delivered a bill originated in and passed by the senate, entitled, a supplement to the act, to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and for the completion of the Baltimore and Susquehanna Rail Road to the Borough of York, in the State of Pennsylvania.

And the following message: Gentlemen of the House of Delegates.

We propose with the concurrence of your honorable body, the appointment of a joint committee of the House of Delegates and the Senate, for taking into consideration the expediency of providing fire proof offices, for the records and papers of the Chancery, court and court of Appeals, and the executive departments.

We have appointed as a committee on the part of the Senate, Messrs. M. J. R. Claude and Page, to join such committee as may be appointed on the part of your honorable body.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day, the house proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Willis, entitled, an act for the division of Baltimore and Frederick counties, and for the erecting a new one by the name of "Carroll," and to alter and change the constitution of this State, so far may be necessary to effect the same.

On motion of Mr. Willis, said bill was postponed, and made the order of the day for Thursday the 25th inst.

Mr. Duckett submitted the following message, which was read, assented to, and sent to the senate.

Gentlemen of the Senate, We have received your message proposing the appointment of a joint committee of your honorable body and this house, to take into consideration the expediency of providing fire proof offices, for the records and papers of the Court of Chancery, and Court of Appeals, and the Executive Department, and concur therein.

We have appointed Messrs. Duckett, Wharton and Merrick, as a committee on the part of this house, to join the gentlemen named by your honorable body.

The House then resumed the consideration of the report of the select committee on the constitution.

Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore County, then moved that said report be laid on the table, and that five hundred copies be printed for the use of the Legislature.

Mr. Burchenal moved to amend said motion, by striking out the words "the use of the Legislature," and inserting "the more general information of the citizens of this State."

Resolved in the affirmative.

The question then recurred, and was put on the adoption of the motion of Mr. Carroll, of Baltimore county, as amended.

Determined in the negative.

So the motion was rejected.

The Clerk of the Senate returned the bill, to incorporate the Queen Anne's county Silk Company, endorsed, "will pass," ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the resolution in favour of Ellen Schmusch and Catharine Schmusch, endorsed, "assented to," ordered to be engrossed.

And, delivered a bill, originated in and passed by the Senate, entitled, a further additional supplement to an act, to reduce into one the several acts of Assembly, respecting elections, and to regulate said elections.

The house adjourned.

Thursday, January 21.

Mr. Trundle presented petitions from William Sears, William Vimey, and John H. Low, of Montgomery county, severally praying to be placed on the pension roll of said county.

Mr. Bryan presented a petition of sundry citizens of Piscataway, in Prince George's county, praying the passage of a law, to prevent hog and goose going at large in said village.

Mr. Fiery presented a petition of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying the repeal of the 9th section of the act commonly called the marriage act, passed at February session 1777, chap. 12.

Mr. Whitlock presented a petition of Solomon Bulter, of Worcester county, praying an allowance of money to enable him to keep himself and family from suffering.

Mr. Wharton presented a petition of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying the passage of an act, to authorize the commissioners of said county, to levy such sums of money as they may deem proper, to purchase a fire engine, for the Hagerstown Hose Company.

Mr. Gough presented a petition of sundry citizens of Harford county, praying an alteration in the license law of this State.

And, Mr. Richardson presented memorials from sundry citizens of Somerset, Baltimore, Anne Arundel, Harford and Cecil counties, severally praying for a change in the present License System.

Mr. Richardson, also, presented a memorial of Edward Drill, Richard Hopkins, Benjamin Rutledge, and others, of the city of Baltimore, praying to be incorporated under the name of "The Band of United Brothers."

Mr. Boyd presented a petition of the Trustees of the Poor of Harford county, praying that the commissioners of said county, may be authorized to levy a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned.

And, Mr. Linsell presented a petition of sundry citizens of Kent county, praying for the passage of a law, extending the powers of Edward Nicholson, Adm'r. of William Riley, deceased, of said county, and for other purposes.

Mr. Harford, chairman of the committee on the coloured population, reported a bill, entitled, a further supplement to an act, entitled, a supplement to an act relating to free negroes and slaves.

Mr. Carpenter, chairman of the committee on divorces, reported a bill to divorce Andrew Young, of the city of Baltimore, from his wife Maria Young.

Also, reported a bill to divorce Susan Stewart, of Charles county, from her husband John W. Stewart.

Mr. Merrick, chairman of the committee on ways and means, reported the following bills, viz.

A bill, entitled, an act to amend the charter, and increase the capital stock of the Franklin Bank of Baltimore;

A bill, entitled, an act to incorporate the Eastern Bank of Baltimore;

A bill, entitled, an act to incorporate the Western Bank of Baltimore;

A bill, entitled, an act to incorporate the Atlantic Company of Baltimore;

And, a bill, entitled, an act to incorporate the Commercial Bank of Baltimore.

On motion of Mr. Hambleton, the house took up for consideration the bill reported by him, entitled, an act to increase the salary of the Treasurer of the Eastern Shore of Maryland;

The said bill was then read the second time, and passed.

The house then adjourned.

Friday, January 22.

Mr. Gough presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Harford county, praying the passage of a declaratory act prohibiting the Baltimore and Port Deposit Rail Road Company from erecting any bridge, causeway, or other obstruction over any waters in Baltimore or Harford counties, to impede navigation.

And, Mr. Sutton presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Harford county, remonstrating against the proceedings of the Baltimore and Port Deposit Rail Road Company, in the location of said Rail Road.

Mr. Kirby of Kent, presented a petition of Eliza Ann Boyd, praying to be divorced from her husband James Boyd.

And, Mr. Annan presented a petition of Abraham Reever, of Frederick county, praying to be divorced from his wife, Catherine Reever.

Mr. Wharton presented a memorial of William Price of Washington county, asking remuneration for services rendered to the state, as counsel in certain prosecutions.

Mr. Boyd presented eight memorials of sundry citizens of Harford county, counter to the memorials for reducing and restricting the length of seines to be used at the shad and herring fisheries on the Potomac river.

Mr. Ely presented a petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore and Anne Arundel counties, praying the passage of an act to regulate the Baltimore markets.

Mr. Heard presented a petition of Milly Power, the widow of Jesse Power, a revolutionary soldier, praying to be placed on the pension roll.

Mr. Long presented a petition of John S. Crockett, and Cadmus Dashiell, administrators of Matthias Dashiell, praying for the continuance of an act, which will expire during the present session of the legislature.

And, Mr. Richardson presented a petition of Edward Slicer, of the state of Missouri, praying a special act of Insolvency.

On motion of Mr. Palmer, Ordered, That the committee on agriculture be instructed to enquire into the expediency of encouraging the production and manufacture of silk, by granting a bounty on cocoons.

The House then adjourned.

WILLIAM BRYAN.

MERCHANT TAILOR.

TAKE this method of informing the public, that he has moved his Establishment to the New Brick Building adjoining the store of Mr. Dennis Claude, Junior, and immediately opposite the City Hotel, where he has opened a Large and Splendid Assortment of Goods, consisting of Cloths, Cassimers, and Vestings, Of various descriptions and qualities. He respectfully invites his friends and the public to give him a call, as he is determined to sell his Goods at the lowest prices.

Maryland Gazette.

ANNAPOIS.

Thursday, January 22, 1836.

THE FAIR.

A Fair for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the City of Annapolis, will be held at the Assembly Room, on Tuesday the second day of February next, commencing at 12 o'clock A. M. at which a variety of Fancy Articles will be exhibited, and to which the citizens of Annapolis, and all strangers who may be within reach of it, are respectfully invited and earnestly solicited to attend.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it is frequently pressed upon their attention. We admit this to be the case in the general, but we can never assent to the belief, that man, formed in the image of his Creator, however fallen, can close his ears, and shut up the avenues of his heart against the call of pity, when uttered for the aid of the unfortunate. From the very nature of our being we are all exposed to the mutations of fortune; and the calamity we deplore for others may finally overtake ourselves. Riches make to themselves wings, and flee away—death enters a household, and the children who were before basking in the sunbeams of a parent's smile, are orphaned—the conflagration of a single night may destroy the savings of years, and as we have seen verified by recent and lamentable facts, it is possible to lay down at night reposing in the lap of prosperity, and arise in the morning to find that our wealth has passed away like a dream. Thus circumstanced, is it not natural to suppose that the misery we believe to exist, we should sympathize and attempt to relieve, and does not every act of liberality which alleviates the distresses of others, bring with it a consciousness of duty performed, gratifying to the heart where it originated. "Blessed is he that considereth the poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble," is the language of divine inspiration, and what the Lord of the Universe hath promised he will also perform. In the hour of adversity the truth of this promise will be verified, and he that has ministered unto others, will be ministered unto himself. We, the Managers of this Society, solicit the aid of the citizens of Annapolis, and all others who will give us their patronage, for the support of an Institution which has for its object the relief of destitute female Orphans. Encouraged by past liberality, we make our present appeal with sanguine expectations of success—disappoint us not. While pleasure makes her exactions and spreads allurements around her shrine, remember that her joys are evanescent and often leave a sting behind, while the gift that is laid upon the altar of christian benevolence shall be as the bread cast upon the waters to be found after many days.

Applications repeatedly made, are often by that very circumstance diverted of their force, and even the friends of a cause are apt to become tired of it, if it

thy, in the division of kingdoms, hatched the treasonable idea, which has exploded in this a. bominable conspiracy virtually to destroy this Union, and sever it into fragments. In this business of dismemberment, look at the part that Maryland has performed through the means of a convention. She unblushingly takes up a military chieftain, a supporter of the Alien and Sedition Law Administration, an open bidder in the market of political anti-masonry, as a sectional candidate for the Presidency, and associates with him John Tyler of Virginia, for the Vice. Let us review and compare them, Harrison is in favour of a National Bank—Tyler opposed on constitutional grounds. Harrison is in favour of a high tariff for protection of domestic manufactures—Tyler is opposed. Harrison is in favour of a system of Internal Improvement by the General Government—Tyler is opposed—and so on to the end of the chapter. Here is a marriage of the National and the Nullifier, and the ceremony performed under the auspices of the good Whigs of Maryland, who so often had denounced military chieftains as dangerous to the liberties of the people, and Nullification as a dangerous heresy, whose aim was disunion. The plan of a political division of the country being openly proclaimed, and unblushingly supported, the question now presents itself—will the honest yeomanry of this country, who have been taught to look upon this glorious Union as the palladium of their safety, be ready and willing to sanction this species of treachery to the Constitution? Their answer will be an indignant response in the negative.

A MARYLANDER.

COURT OF APPEALS, December Term, 1835.

Thursday, Jan. 21st.—Present the whole Court, except Spence, Judge.
The argument of No. 74, Boteler and Bell, vs. Otho B. Beall, was continued by Pratt and Alexander for the Appellee, and Johnson for the Appellant.

Friday, Jan. 22nd.—Present as yesterday.
Buchanan, Ch. J. delivered the opinion of the court in Nos. 64 and 65, Honek and Baltzell, vs. Hoffman, trustee of Honek, reversing the decrees of the Chancellor, and dismissing the bills with costs in both cases.

The argument of No. 74, was concluded by Johnson for the Appellants.

No. 75, John Dubrow et al. vs. Marcus Demison, was commenced by Johnson for the Appellants.

Saturday, Jan. 23rd.—Present as yesterday.
The argument of No. 75, was concluded by Mayer and Lloyd for the Appellee, and Johnson for the Appellants.

Monday, Jan. 25th.—Present as on Saturday.
No. 21, Boteler and Bell, vs. State use Chew and Brookes. The motion to amend the record was argued by Alexander and Pratt in support, and Magruder and Johnson in opposition to it.

Tuesday, Jan. 26th.—Present as yesterday.
The argument of the above motion was concluded by Pratt for the Appellee.

No. 77, Kirkpatrick, Ewing and wife, vs. Moore, ad'rs. of Moore, et al. The argument of this case was commenced by Richardson for the Appellants.

Wednesday, Jan. 29th.—Present as yesterday.
The above case was argued by Richardson and Lloyd for the Appellants.

HORRID MASSACRE OF U. S. TROOPS BY THE SEMINOLE INDIANS.

The Mobile Chronicle of the 12th inst. says: "By the mail boat Maceppa, Capt. Carson, arrived yesterday afternoon from New Orleans, we have received the painful and distressing intelligence of the surprise and massacre of two companies of United States Troops, under the command of Major Dade, consisting of 112 men, by the Seminole Indians.

Major Dade had started with his troops from Tampa Bay to Camp King to join Gen. Clinch, when on the morning of the 28th December at 8 o'clock, they were surrounded by a large body of Indians, supposed to number 800 to 1000, and were cut to pieces. Only three men of the 112 escaped, badly wounded, to recount the lamentable history of the butchery of their fellow soldiers.

Major Dade was shot off his horse on the commencement of the attack. Captains Gardner and Fraser soon after fell mortally wounded, and their scalps were taken by the savages. Lieutenants Basinger, Henderson Mudge and Keon, and Dr. Gatlin, Surgeon to the detachment, were slain. Lieut. Basinger was wounded on the onset, and was discovered by a negro in the party of savages, crawling off to a place of concealment, and tomahawked.

Col. Twiggs of the U. S. Army chartered the steam boat Merchant, and started with four companies of troops from New Orleans to Tampa Bay. Major Belton is now there with the force under his command."

The Alexandria Gazette states that General Scott is to take command of the forces in Florida ordered to repress the hostilities of the Seminole Indians—that he will make requisition upon the Governors of two or three of the neighbouring states for troops to assist him, and that these obtained, the war will be prosecuted vigorously and the disturbances put an end to as promptly as possible.

Major Van Buren, the eldest son of the Vice-President, accompanies Gen. Scott as his Aid-de-Camp.

It will no doubt be gratifying to the people of the State of Maryland generally, to learn that a parcel of Liverpool, a parcel of Virginia (or Pennsylvania, we will not be certain which) and also a parcel of Allegheny Stone Coal, were placed in the hands of three of the most eminent Chemists in the United States, one residing in

New York, one in Philadelphia, and one in Washington city, for the purpose of having the same impartially analysed—all three of whom, although having no knowledge where the Coal came from, reported in writing that the Allegheny Coal was thirty-two per cent. better than either of the other coals.

It has also been ascertained on trial that the Allegheny coal answers all of the valuable purposes of smelting.—Cumberland (Md.) Advocate.

IRON ORE.

We are gratified to learn that extensive banks of Iron Ore have been discovered in the immediate vicinity of several coal mines near Frostburg. The preliminary steps are being taken to render this ore a source of profit to its enterprising and worthy proprietor.—Ibid.

In Boston a petition is circulating and receiving the signature of thousands, praying for the establishment of a high school for girls, for the purpose of giving the same advantages and facilities of education in the higher branches to the daughters of Boston that are given to her sons in the English high school.

HIMENEAL.

Married, on Tuesday evening, the 10th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Maceneheimer, Doctor GRANTON TYLER, to Miss MARY BOWEN, both of Prince-George's county.

—, on the same evening, by the Rev. Mr. McElhinney, Mr. WASHINGTON HARRISON, of the city of Baltimore, to Miss MARGARET, daughter of Maj. Thomas Dorsey, of this county.

—, on Tuesday evening, the 10th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Wright, Mr. FREDERICK UCKLES, to Miss PAMELIA VERLINDA TUCKER, all of Anne Arundel county.

—, on Thursday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. McElhinney, JOHN NICHOLAS WATKINS, Esq., to Miss MATILDA GREEN, all of this city.

PUBLIC SALE.

BY virtue of an order from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, the subscriber will offer at Public Sale, at the late residence of James Hunter, of the city of Annapolis, on the 11th of February next, at 10 o'clock A. M. part of the PERSONAL ESTATE of said Hunter, consisting of Household and Kitchen Furniture, one Cow, and several Young Negroes, &c.

TERMS OF SALE.—For all sums of Ten Dollars, or upwards, a credit of six months will be allowed, the purchaser giving bond, with good and sufficient security, with interest from date, under Ten Dollars the Cash to be paid.

JOHN MILLER, Adm'r.

PROSPECTUS

OF THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.
THE success of the experiment we have made to furnish a succinct history of the proceedings of Congress, from day to day, with sketches of the Debates, induces the undersigned to persevere in their plan to extend and perfect it. They have resolved that the Congressional Globe shall not only embody the parliamentary annals of the country, but shall also furnish an Appendix, which will contain the finished speeches of the prominent speakers, on the most important subjects, written out by the members themselves, from the notes and printed sketches of the reporters.

The Congressional Globe, with an Index, will be published weekly, upon double royal paper, in octavo form, as heretofore, at One Dollar for the session. It may be subscribed for separately. The appendix of finished speeches will, also, be published for One Dollar.

It is probable that the next session of Congress will continue nearly seven months; if so, the work will contain between four and five hundred pages, and will be the cheapest publication perhaps in the world.

The next session of Congress will probably be the most eventful one which has occurred for many years, and will certainly be replete with interest, and its course will have great influence in fixing the destiny of the Republic for years to come. Immediately preceding, as it does, the next Presidential election, and containing the leading minds of all the contending parties in the country, deep and abiding interest will attend the debates. The whole drama will be faithfully exhibited in the Congressional Globe and the Appendix.

We have already provided for our reporting corps, eminent ability and skill in one branch of Congress, and we expect to obtain an adequate reinforcement of capable persons in the other, by the time it meets, to fulfil our own wishes and the expectations of the Members. No pains or cost on our part will be spared to accomplish it. As the work will be continued regularly, and be made permanent, authentic, and therefore highly useful, all who take an interest in the political affairs of the country will do well to begin their subscription with the next session.

TERMS:

CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE—1 copy during the Session, $1 00
do do 11 copies during the Session, 10 00

Appendix.—Same price.
The Congressional Globe will be sent to those papers that copy this Prospectus, if our attention shall be directed to it by a mark with a pen. Our Exchange List is so large that we would not observe it, probably, unless this be done.

Payment may be made by mail, postage paid, at our risk. The notes of any specie paying Bank will be received.

No attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompany it, or unless some responsible person, known to us to be so, shall agree to pay it before the Session expires.

BLAIR & RIVES

SHERIFFALTY.

THE subscriber has been induced by the friendly solicitations and assurances, of a numerous circle of acquaintances, to offer himself as a candidate for the next Sheriffalty of Anne Arundel county. No effort to deceive the confidence of the Voters of the County, shall be wanting so far as he has capacity. JAMES CLARK, Clerkville, A. A. Co.

December 5, 1835.

25,000 DOLLARS!!!

VIRGINIA STATE LOTTERY, For the benefit of the Petersburg Benevolent Mechanic Association. CLASS No. 3, for 1836.

To be drawn at Alexandria, Va. January 30, 1836.

D. S. GREGORY & Co. Successors of Yates and M'Intyre, Managers.

SPLENDID SCHEDULE.

1 prize of	$25,000
1 prize of	8,000
1 prize of	5,000
1 prize of	3,500
1 prize of	2,322
20 prizes of	2,000
20 prizes of	500
20 prizes of	400
20 prizes of	200
35 prizes of	150
56 prizes of	100
56 prizes of	80
56 prizes of	60
56 prizes of	50
112 prizes of	40
2184 prizes of	20
15400 prizes of	10

1-040 prizes, am't g. to $329,472

Tickets $10, Shares in proportion.

Tickets and Shares for sale at DUBOIS

LOTTERY & EXCHANGE OFFICE, (Church street, Annapolis.)

PUBLIC SALE.

BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery, the subscriber, as trustee, will offer at Public Sale, at the Court House Door in the city of Annapolis, on MONDAY, the 8th day of February next, at 12 o'clock, M. all that part of the real estate of the late Dr. Matthias Hammond, which was heretofore allotted to his widow, (Mrs. Eliza Mewburn, lately deceased,) for her dower. This parcel of land contains more or less. It lies about 12 miles from the city of Annapolis, and on the road from said city to Waterloo Tavern. The title to this property is unquestionable, and the purchaser may obtain possession on the ratification of the sale.

655 1-2 ACRES,

The Terms of Sale are, That one fourth part of the purchase money shall be paid on the ratification of the sale, and the residue in two equal annual instalments from the day of sale, the whole to bear interest from the day of sale, and to be secured by bonds, with security to be approved by the trustee.

T. H. S. ALEXANDER, Trustee.

Jan. 4.—1836.

IN CHANCERY.

18th Jan'y. 1836.
ORDERED, That the sale of the real estate of Daniel Dulany, made and reported by Daniel F. Dulany, the trustee, be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shown before the 18th day of March next, provided a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper at least once in each of three successive weeks before the 18th day of February next.

The report states the amount of sales to be $3700 00.

True copy.—THOMAS A. WATERS,

Jan. 21. Reg. Cur. Can.

NEW JEWELRY

AND FANCY STORE.

JACOB WALTER, CLOCK and WATER MAKER, respectfully informs the citizens of Annapolis, that he has opened a Store at the corner of Church Street and State House Lane, where he offers for sale a neat assortment of

Clocks, Gold, Silver, Patent Lever, Locket, and Plain Watches; Jewelry and Silver Ware; Rogers' Superior Cutlery; Fancy and Shaving Soaps; Cologne and Florida Waters; Hair, Teeth, and other Brushes. With a variety of other articles, all of which will be sold at the lowest prices. All kinds of Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, and Music Boxes repaired and tuned. Apply as above. Dec. 24

FOR ANNAPOLIS AND EASTON.

WINTER ARRANGEMENT.

The Steam Boat MARYLAND, will leave Baltimore, on Sunday morning, the 27th inst. at 9 o'clock, for Annapolis, and return in the afternoon; on Monday morning, at 7 o'clock for Annapolis, and return same day; on Tuesday at 7 o'clock A. M. for Annapolis and Easton, return on Wednesday; and on Friday at 7 o'clock, A. M. for Annapolis and Easton, return on Saturday, starting from the lower end Dugan's wharf, passage same as last winter. N. B.—All baggage at the owner's risk. S. TAYLOR.

PUBLIC SALE.

BY virtue of an order of the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, the subscriber will offer at Public Sale, on WEDNESDAY, 16th February next, at the residence of the late Elijah Chaney, the

PERSONAL PROPERTY of said deceased, consisting of Horses, Cattle, Sheep, and Hogs, Farming Utensils, Household and Kitchen Furniture, the Crop of Tobacco now in the House, Corn, Oats, Hay, and Fodder, and all the Personal Property of the deceased, (Slaves excepted.)

THE TERMS OF THE SALE ARE—A credit of six months for all sums of, and over Twenty Dollars, the purchaser or purchasers to give bond with approved security, all sums under Twenty Dollars, the cash will be required.

SOLOMON G. CHANEY, Ex'r. of Elijah Chaney.

Jan. 21.—

STATE OF MARYLAND, SC.

Anne Arundel County, Orphans Court, January 12th, 1836.

ON application by petition of Francis L. Darnall, Henry B. Darnall and Richard B. Darnall, Executors of Philip Darnall, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that they give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Annapolis.

SAM'L. BROWN, Jun'r, Reg. Wills A. A. County.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT the subscribers of Anne Arundel county, have obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters testamentary on the personal estate of Philip Darnall, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscribers, at or before the 12th day of July next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under our hands this 12th day of January 1836.

FRANCIS L. DARNALL, } Ex'rs.
HENRY B. DARNALL, }
RICH'D B. DARNALL, }

ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY, SC.

ON application by petition in writing of Solomon Frazier to me the subscriber, Clerk of the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel County in Maryland, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors (on oath so far as he could ascertain them, being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied that the said Solomon Frazier has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed William Bryn a trustee for the benefit of the said Solomon Frazier, which said trustee has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Solomon Frazier having given bond with security for his personal appearance in the said Orphans Court on the third Monday in April next, to answer to the allegations or interrogatories of his creditors, and having executed a deed of conveyance to said trustee for all his property, and the said trustee having certified the delivery thereof to him by the said Solomon Frazier, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said Solomon Frazier give notice to his creditors by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, once a week for the term of three months, to appear before Anne Arundel County Court, to be held in the city of Annapolis, on the third Monday of April next to show cause, if any they have, why the said Solomon Frazier should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements as prayed.

Jan. 14.—3m. GIDEON WHITE.

ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY, To wit:

ON application by petition in writing of Zachariah Polton, to me the subscriber, Clerk of the Third Judicial District of the State of Maryland, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors (on oath so far as he could ascertain them) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied that the said Zachariah Polton has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Thomas Burgess, trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Zachariah Polton, which said trustee has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Zachariah Polton having given bond with security for his personal appearance in Anne Arundel County Court, on the third Monday of April next, to answer to the allegations or interrogatories of his creditors, and having executed a deed of conveyance to his said trustee for all his property, real, personal, and mixed, and the said trustee having certified the delivery thereof to him by the said Zachariah Polton, I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said Zachariah Polton give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, once a week for the term of three months, to appear before Anne Arundel County Court, to be held in the city of Annapolis on the third Monday in April next, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Zachariah Polton should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements as prayed.

Jan. 18.—3m. THOS. B. DORSEY.

ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY, SC.

ON application to me the subscriber a Justice of the Orphans Court of the county aforesaid in writing, of Henry Medford praying for the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them being annexed to his petition, and the said Henry Medford having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided in the State of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, and that he is owing this the time of his application, and having appointed a trustee, and said trustee having given bond for the performance of said trust, it is thereupon ordered and adjudge by me that the said Henry Medford be discharged from confinement, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette once a week for three successive months before the third Monday in April next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before Anne Arundel County Court, to show cause, if any they have, why the said Henry Medford should not have the benefit of the said act of Assembly and the supplements thereto as prayed.

Jan. 14.—3m. GIDEON WHITE.

COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LIBRARY.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

BEFORE the Select Circulating Library had been long in existence, it was discovered—that there was still something wanting—that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown that the desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the "Library" a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magazines, interspersed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would encroach too much on the columns of the "Library" designed for books, and yet to leave them by is constantly a subject of regret. To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines, &c. &c. the "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of the present subscribers and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," the "Journal," and the "Companion," such an acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for subscription, and having fewer people to deal with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and more readily corrected when they do. The short interval of two weeks between the publication of each number, it is thought too, will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies.

The following plan is respectfully submitted.

1. The "COMPANION" will contain the earliest possible reprints of the best matter in the British periodicals.

2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the Library—each number containing sixteen pages—thus, every six months, giving thirteen numbers, which can be bound with the Library at little or no more expense, and making a better sized volume; and to those who do not take the Library itself, a volume every year, of 410 quarto pages of the size of the present.

3. The price will be three dollars for a subscriber—five dollars for two—and clubs five and upwards will be supplied at two dollars each.

4. As the work will not be commenced, unless a sufficient patronage be obtained, no payment is required at present, only the name, sent free of postage. Those wishing to support the publication will be pleased therefore to announce their intention as early as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the first of January next. On the issuing of the second number payment will be expected, as its appearance will evince a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid diffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has already at hand the material for such a work, all the really valuable matter of the English literary and amusing publications may be comprised in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely to be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and magazines ever attempted in any country; a comparison with others it were useless here to enter upon, the "Library" itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value or cheapness; how far it is likely to do this he must leave to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the "Library" and "Companion" both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety five cents, divided into seventy eight payments, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance from Philadelphia, while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magazines in octavo form would be eighteen dollars, and the postage as three to one. We make this assertion advisedly.

(Subscribers to the "Companion" will be taken either with or without the "Library.")

The proprietor trusts that his punctuality and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the "Library," will be considered a sufficient guarantee of the completion of his proposed undertaking.

ADAM WALDIE.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL.
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL-UMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been whole- some.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, sub- scriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty similar attempts at imitation and has now an exten- sive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment liberal and intel- lectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying pub- lic literature of a character to enlarge and im- prove the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procure- ment of works of an elevated standard of in- tellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fasti- dious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social belief, fires read- ing and conversation. The variety thus col- lected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious ad- ventures &c. &c. An amount equal to thirty London quatuorces is sent weekly, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan is to furnish a new volume of popular litera- ture, and the work is now becoming so com- plete, that it is expected to be a valuable library to the community.

The Library is now conducted by in- dustry and care, and the number of copies sent to six or eight times the number of the first year. Five dollars per volume is the price, and the only supply of good reading is to be had at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan is to furnish a new volume of popular litera- ture, and the work is now becoming so com- plete, that it is expected to be a valuable library to the community.

Waldie's Library is published every Tues- day, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles Let- tres, containing reviews of new books, litera- ry intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper, the whole for $5 00 per an- num, or clubs of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.

This periodical contains half as much mat- ter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best mat- ter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Jour- nal. Its object is popular instruction and am- usement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circula- tion; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short pe- riod. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio once; an individual may now form a club by himself, and pay for the past three years and the volumes for 1836 of the Library, and the Port Folio for $20 00. For this an amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
Seventh, two doors south of Chesnut street, Philad.

THE MUSEUM OF FOREIGN LITERATURE
AND SCIENCE, price $6 00 per annum, the Library and Port Folio, will be all supplied for $18 00.
Oct. 24

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,
That the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, letters testamentary on the personal estate of ELIZABETH CHANEY, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are requested to present them, legally authenticated, and those in- debted are desired to make immediate pay- ment to SOLOMON CHANEY, Ex'r.
Jan. 14.—3w.

NOTICE.
THE undersigned respectfully informs his friends and the public at large that he will attend at all times to the preparation of DEEDS OF MANUMISSION, BILLS OF SALE, BONDS, LETTERS OF ATTORNEY, ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT, &c. Office in Church street—nearly opposite the City Hotel.
FRANCIS M. JARBOE.
N. B. Having an approved form of Invol- untary Blanks he will attend to business having relation thereto on moderate terms— for Cash.

SPLENDID
French, Italian, German, British and Ameri- can Prints,
CONSISTING OF the most beautiful Fe- male Portraits; Sporting Landscapes; Historical, Sentimental, Caricature Engrav- ings and Lithographs ever offered in this city; a list of which will be exhibited to such persons as will purchase to the amount of fifty cents, the frequent handling tending considerably to soil and otherwise retard the sale of them. The above beautiful collection of articles have just been received—for sale by
F. M. JARBOE.

PROSPECTUS OF THE
WASHINGTON MIRROR.
Second Volume.

THE subscribers having purchased the Washington Mirror for its former prop- erty, will in future be its conductor. The general plan of the Mirror is, we be- lieve, satisfactory to all our subscribers—af- fording a cheap and extensive view of the city affairs in a manner unattainable by any other paper. This plan will be strictly adhered to, our leading object being to lay hold of the local subjects and occurrences which have not been noticed in the daily papers— including Police Reports, and all such mat- ters as are of general interest to the com- munity. The valuable services of Mr. William Thompson as assistant editor, whose spirited and judicious exertions to establish this paper have been uniformly successful.

We propose to publish brief abstracts of all public documents which shall more partic- ularly interest the citizens of this District. A select, brief and comprehensive summary of Congress and proceedings.

We propose further, during the session of Congress, to publish an Evening Edition, by which a large and useful standard subscription will be given to the latest Congressional In- telligence, and a half volume through the agency of Washington papers.

We intend, if possible, to furnish a weekly list of all New Patented Books, Ma- chines, and Processes of Washington, Alex- andria, and Georgetown, corrected with the greatest accuracy; also, Stages, Steamboats, and Rail Road Registers.

We shall exert our best endeavours to ele- vate the literary character of the Mirror.— This can only be done by the co-operation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskil- ful, since far more desirable, it must be al- lowed, would be judicious selections than mediocre originality.

We believe that the prospects of Wash- ington demand such a paper as we intend to pub- lish. She is already closely allied, by her rail road, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her competitor, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the coun- try; by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry defy the reach of im- agination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created, which will astonish the most sanguine economist. Washington and Bal- timore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men.— Such, in fact, are our advantages, that pros- perity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incal- culable magnitude.

We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an im- portant community; a literary and miscel- laneous family paper; a journal of current litera- ture; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking. Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi annually in advance.
RUFUS DAVES,
Washington, D. C.

CASH FOR
ANY NUMBER OF NEGROES,
Including both sexes, from 10 to 35 years of age.
PERSONS having likely Servants to dispose of, and wishing the high- est prices, will do well to give me a call, as I am determined to buy and give higher prices than any o- ther purchaser, who is now or may come into this market. I can at all times be found at Mr. James Hunter's Tavern, in Annapolis. All communications directed to me will be promptly attended to.
J. C. F. PURVIS,
Jan. 7.—3m.

Patapesc Bank of Maryland,
Notice is hereby given, to the Stock- holders of this Institution, that the bal- ance of fifteen dollars on each share of stock is required to be paid at the Banking House in the following instalments, viz:
The third instalment of five dollars per share, on the 15th December next, of which due notice has been given.
The fourth instalment of five dollars per share on the 5th of February next.
The fifth and last instalment, of five dol- lars per share, on the 1st of April next.
Stockholders who pay their instalments be- fore the periods above designated, will be al- lowed to participate in the profits of the In- stitution from the first day of the month, next ensuing the date of their respective pay- ments.
By order of the President and Directors,
B. U. CAMPBELL, Cashier.
Nov. 5, 1835.—m.

A BARGAIN.
THE undersigned intending to transfer his Publication office to the Eastward, offers to sell the PRESSES, TYPE and MATERI- ALS used in the Public Work. If there be an Editor printer of the party who dares to become a competitor for the printing, we will furnish an office and the materials to do the work, and take orders on the Clerk of the House of Representatives in payment.
The patronage of the Department is worth from twelve to twenty thousand dollars per annum, and that of the House as much more.
Will editors with whom we exchange give this one or two insertions.
DUFF GREEN.
Nov. 5.

FOR ANNAPOIS.
THE STEAM BOAT
MARYLAND will go to Annapolis, on Sunday the 20th, and 27th inst. and return same day, leaving the lower end Dugan's wharf, at 9 o'clock, A. M. Passage same as last year.
N. B.—All baggage at the owner's risk.
LEWIS G. TAYLOR.
Dec. 24.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application to the subscriber, Chief Judge of Anne Arundel County Court, by petition, in writing, of Henry Watts of Anne Arundel county, stating that he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at Decem- ber session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, on the terms therein mentioned, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, and of the debts due to him, on oath, so far as he can ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and the said Henry Watts having satisfied me by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said Henry Watts having given sufficient secu- rity for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel county, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from said Henry Watts a conveyance and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed, I do hereby order and adjudge that the said Henry Watts be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors, by caus- ing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Anne Arundel County, once a week for three consecutive months, before the third Monday in April next, to ap- pear before the said County Court, at the Court House of said county, in the city of Annapolis on the said third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Henry Watts should not have the benefit of the said Act and supplements as prayed. Given under my hand the eleventh day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
THOS. B. DORSEY.
Dec. 24.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of James Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance, and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Sup- plements as prayed. Given under my hand the 31st December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
GIDEON WHITE.
Jan. 7.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of James Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance, and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Sup- plements as prayed. Given under my hand the 31st December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
GIDEON WHITE.
Jan. 7.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of James Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance, and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Sup- plements as prayed. Given under my hand the 31st December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
GIDEON WHITE.
Jan. 7.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of James Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance, and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Sup- plements as prayed. Given under my hand the 31st December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
GIDEON WHITE.
Jan. 7.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of James Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance, and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Sup- plements as prayed. Given under my hand the 31st December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
GIDEON WHITE.
Jan. 7.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of James Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance, and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Sup- plements as prayed. Given under my hand the 31st December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
GIDEON WHITE.
Jan. 7.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of James Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance, and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Sup- plements as prayed. Given under my hand the 31st December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
GIDEON WHITE.
Jan. 7.—3m.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of James Frazier, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said James Frazier having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Henry Medford his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from the said James Frazier a conveyance, and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed—I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said James Frazier be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday in April next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Frazier should not have the benefit of the said Act and Sup- plements as prayed. Given under my hand the 31st December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five.
GIDEON WHITE.
Jan. 7.—3m.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICA-TION TO BE CALLED
The Catholic Periodical Library.

Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Lan- guage, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each. THE dearth and scarcity of the best Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and ob- serving Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enter- prising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionably high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been com- piled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.

The subscriber has long since observed this fact with the utmost regret, and may certain- ly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the price of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Peri- odical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increas- ing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the ex- pectation that it will meet with sufficient en- couragement to enable him to conduct it suc- cessfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confid- ing entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canadas has resolved to put it to press forthwith; and he therefore throws him- self on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.

In this undertaking he is principally en- courage by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in gen- eral, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the prin- ciples of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by al- fording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to in- crease the popularity of the work and to ob- tain a sufficient number of subscribers to en- able him to carry it out with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual com- forts of their charges, and contribute in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denomina- tions are unfortunately blinded.

TERMS:—The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesi- astical history. The first number will be is- sued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.

Liberal commissions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.

N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.
The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succe- sion.
Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bosquet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Hayward's True Church of Christ shewing Hayward's Charity and Truth; Moses Cath- olic, or Ages of Faith; Munford's Quest- ion of Questions; Munford's Catholic Scrip- ture; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M. Hale's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesi- astical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of Christ; Challoner's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fast- ings; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.

The above is a collection of Standard Ca- tholic Works, which could not be pur- chased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.

All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as receiv- ed; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar ex- cellence.

JOHN DOYLE, Bookseller, N. Y.
Editors of Papers in the country by giving the above a few insertions, and sending the papers containing it to the publisher, will en- title themselves to a copy of the work for one year.

FOR SALE.
THE DWELLING HOUSE
which I at present reside.
FOR RENT.
THE DWELLING HOUSE, in which the late General Richard Harwood resided at the time of his death.
TH. S. ALEXANDER.

TO THE PRINTERS OF THE UNITED STATES.
J. SPITALL,
WOOD LETTER CUTTER AND ENGRAVER
No. 21, Franklin Place, PHILADELPHIA.

RESPECTFULLY announces to the
Printers of the United States, that he has commenced the manufacture of WOOD LETTERS.
Wood Letters of every description, from four to thirty-four lines Pica, or upwards, made to order on the shortest notice.
Ornamental Letters of entirely new and most splendid patterns, for Heads of News- papers, Title Lines, &c. from two lines Great Primer to any size larger.
His type will be made of materials of the best assortment, well seasoned and prepared by machinery, invented for the purpose, which ensures the most exact adjustment.
Specimens will be published as early as possible.

Engravings on Wood.
Executed with neatness and promptitude. Heads for Newspapers, Fac-similes, Orna- mental and Plain Rules, &c. &c. cut with the greatest accuracy in type metal or wood.
Old cast metal cuts, ornaments, &c. en- graved over, and made equal to new for half their original cost.
A liberal discount for cash. Six months credit on the most approved security. Or- ders from the country promptly attended to. All letters must be post paid.

Editors of papers in the country who will give the above advertisement a few in- sertions, and forward a paper containing the same to the advertiser, will be paid therefor in any of the above mentioned materials.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application by petition in writing of Edward Holland, to me the subscriber, Chief Judge of the Orphans Court for the said County, praying the benefit of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at No- vember session 1803, and the several supplement- thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he can ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and I being satisfied by compe- tent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said Edward Holland having given bond with security for his per- sonal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interroga- tories and allegations as may be made against him, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and I having appointed Joshua Watts his trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Edward Holland, who has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Edward Holland having given notice to his cred- itors, and I being satisfied that the said Ed- ward Holland has resided in the state