Miss Miller Wins Award

In a recent contest at the University of Delaware, Miss Dolores Miller won the drama critics award for the best performance and characterization. She portrayed Edna St. Vincent Millay, in the drama by Miss Millay, "Aria de Capa."

Miss Miller has participated in many productions of the Community Players; currently she is directing "Bus Stop," their latest production, which will run from April 25 to April 28.

Last year, Miss Miller was a member of the casts of "The Constant Wife," "Desk Set," and "Anastasia." This year she had a part in "The Curious Savage," and starred in "The Great Sebastians."

In 1952, Miss Miller added her talent to a Sophanes effort, playing the lead in "Born Yesterday."

Congratulations are extended from the Holly Leaf to Miss Miller for her achievements in the field of dramatics.

Staff members of our college yearbook, the Evergreen, have recently been elected for next year. Present members have selected leaders for the positions of co-editors, assistant editors, business manager, and photography.

New co-editors will be Barbara Crum and Julie Spedden. Barbara, a native of Cecilton, Maryland and enrolled in elementary education, has participated in various other college activities. These include: Phi Alpha Theta, President of the Christian Association, Social Committee, Wesley Foundation, and current member of the Evergreen staff. From Cambridge, Maryland, Julie is also enrolled in elementary education and serves as a staff member of the yearbook. Extra-curricular activities in which she has participated are: College Chorus, Ladies Ensemble, Gym Club, Women's Athletic Association, and basketball intramurals.

Barbara Mosebrook will act as Photography Editor with Sara Nichols as her assistant. Barbara, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mosebrook from Manchester, Maryland, is enrolled in the elementary curriculum. She is a member of this year's yearbook staff, a member of the College Chorus and Ladies Ensemble, President of the S.N.E.A., and Christian Association Board. Sara, a sophomore enrolled in the junior high curriculum, is from Alexander, Louisiana. She will be next year's Treasurer of the Student Government Association, and is presently in the College Chorus, Ladies Ensemble, plays intramural basketball and participates on the college bowling league. Not to be forgotten, is Les Milbourne who will again serve as Chief Photographer. Les has served as a member of the Photography Club and as projectionist for the school. He has also revealed his athletic ability as a member of the Gym Team. Enrolled in the junior high curriculum, Les is from Crisfield, Maryland.

Luke Fennell will again act as Business Manager of the Evergreen. From Glendale, Maryland, Luke is enrolled in junior high education. Christian Association Elects 1961-62 Officers

April 6 was the date when the election for the Christian Association officers for 1961-62 was held. Elected to offices at this time were Jack Nerlinger, Maurice Howard, and Joan Militzer.

Jack Nerlinger, a sophomore from Cambridge, Maryland, will assume the duties of President for the coming year. Enrolled in Junior High Education, Jack plans to teach Math and Science. He is a member of both the Science Club and the Wesley Foundation. Thinking in terms of his plans for the Christian Association in the coming year, Jack stated that he wants the C.A. to remain as an advisor to the various denominational groups on campus and also to adopt a system whereby the C.A. can be more profitable to the students.

A freshman from Ridgely, Maryland, Maurice Howard will step into the position of Vice President. Maurice is enrolled in the secondary education program; his interests center in English and Math. At present Maurice is a member of the College Chorus and the Men's Ensemble as well as President of the B.S.U. He hopes that in the coming year the office he is assuming can become a more active job.

Elected as Secretary-Treasurer for the C.A. was Joan Militzer, a sophomore from Mitchellville, Md. Joan's field in education is Social Studies on the Junior High level. Her activities include Canterbury Club, W.A.A. Board, and Intramural Sports. Joan would like to see C.A. help to put into effect a service program between students and teachers.

With the cooperation of the student body, the Student Christian Association will have a very successful year.

"Mayhem" Rehearsals To Begin This Week

Mayhem, the culminating product of hours, days, and weeks of trials, tribulations, and labors uncountable is finally beginning to shed its cocoon of mystery and suspense. The separate class presentations have been coordinated into one complete program, with all the finesse and polish that any "Mayhem" could desire. Much of the credit for this estimable feat goes to Noel Farmer and Paul Murrell, participants from the class of '62.

Mayhem Composers

Recognition should be given to those responsible for the composing of Mayhem. Participants from the senior class included students Norma Baker, Jeannie Gladden, and Hazel Joy. The junior class representatives were Luke Fennell, Betty Quimby, Yates Harris, Barbara Crum, and Brenda Foxwell. The sophomore class offerings were composed by students Linda Dentz, Wayne Towers, and Jackie Dickerson. Freshmen Doris Trapkin, Margie Lomax, Terry Sterling, and Jim Whaley were also generous in the offering of their talents.

An "editorial" committee, consisting of Brenda Foxwell, Billye Parks, Jay McCrea, and Yates Harris, was selected to review all the material submitted and, while rejecting some skits, found almost all to be good show material.

Rehearsals Begin This Week

The remainder of the casting and the beginning of subsequent rehearsals will start this week. Schedules are posted in the snack bar.

Thinking
Out
Loud

Man alive, with Mayhem, May Day, and the May Day Dance, ol' S.T.C. will be hopping from now until June the third when the Junior Prom is held at the New Army from 9 o'clock until 12.

This dance should be just the thing to round out the year at S.T.C.

This is the time of year to live! Get those term papers done. Don't let up on the work — just space your time accordingly and enjoy springtime on the college campus. There isn't a better time of the year, nor is there a better place to enjoy this wonderful season.

Softball starts soon, so instead of rushing upstairs to chat why not drop out to the athletic field and watch a game or two.

With all the picnics coming up one surely ought to attend them.

A big open house is in store the weekend of May 12.

Hey fellows! Why not ask that girl you've been drooling over all year to accompany you to the May Dance on Friday, May 5.

If you get along alright — then ask her to go to the June Ball on Saturday, June 3.

If you succeed at this time — marry her. At any rate ask her out.

And by all means don't miss Mayhem. It should really be a terrific show.

Man! It's time to live . . . so support the cause.

The Soviet Union touches 12 other nations; yet its sea coasts are longer than its land frontiers, the National Geographic Magazine says. The country's longest coast — 16,000 miles — borders the Arctic Ocean.

Newman Club Holds
Election of Officers

On Sunday night, April 9, 1961, the Newman Club met at the Catholic Rectory on Camden Avenue and elected officers for the coming year. The State Teachers College Newman Club has fourteen members. The meetings are held each Sunday night from 6:30 to 7:30 in the Rectory. A planned program is arranged for each meeting, and refreshments are served following the program.

The new officers elected were: Yates Harris, president; Linda Dentz, vice president; Nancy Lee Gibbons, secretary-treasurer; and Vicky Barbour, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Regina Taylor is the college advisor, and Father Cremin is spiritual advisor.

Programs planned for the remainder of the semester include: Sunday, April 16, a movie on the Mass; April 30, a movie, "A Day of Recollection," and a dance which the Newman Club will sponsor for the entire student body of S.T.C.

A glimpse into the casting lineup would reveal both Wayne Towers and Jerry Blazek portraying Dr. Whitney, Ginger Stelges as Mrs. Williams, Paul Murrell as Dr. Devilbiss, Neil LeCompte as Mr. France, Yates Harris as Dr. Thomas, and Joan O'Connor portraying Dr. Jesse Fleming.

Jackie Davis, class of '62, has consented to direct Mayhem, and Burnie Ruark will fulfill the duties of narrator. Dean Robinson is acting as his assistant — according to the script.

Still much of a mystery is the section of Mayhem in the hands of the faculty. There is to be a whole section done by them alone, and all signs indicate that the students will be their targets.

Just as a reminder, Mayhem will be presented on May 6th in the college auditorium at 8:15 P.M. Plan to attend, as Mayhem promises to be one of the finest entertainment offerings of the year.

tors is greatly appreciated. Furthermore, the yearbook adviser, Dr. May, should be commended for the time and assistance he has so graciously offered in the composition of the yearbook.

John Birch Society . . .
A New Finger Pointing Society

By KEN ROBERTS

The John Birch Society has created a storm lately, and some people sense a McCarthy-type atmosphere being created. This semi-secret organization is ultra-conservative and allegedly is concerned with defining to America, "Americanism" and its practice. Of course, the label put upon the enemies of the society, as well as those the society attacks, is that of Communist. Does this sound familiar? Of the proposals made by the society, one outstanding suggestion called for the impeachment of Chief Justice Earl Warren on grounds that he has given "aid and comfort to the Communist conspiracy" in America. The leader of this organization, Robert Welch, was recently attacked on the Senate floor for referring to Harry Truman, John Foster Dulles, and Dwight D. Eisenhower as Communist agents.

The society chose for its name that of a man who has been dead for sixteen years. He was, ironically, killed by Communists while a missionary in China. Birch was born of missionary parents in India but was educated in America. He was, throughout his college life, a staunch anti-Communist and fundamental Baptist. He felt it was his duty to destroy Communism and to protect the Baptist faith. While at Mercer University, Birch organized a "fellowship group" and brought before the college "evidence" of "heresy" spoken by certain professors and church leaders. Actually, five men were tried by the school and the case was dropped but not without lasting effect on those involved. Birch served in China during World War II and received the Legion of Merit.

A controversial person now, in name, represents an equally controversial society. It is said that members of Congress belong to it; Cardinal Cushing has cautiously praised its anti-Communist intent; Barry Goldwater has "been impressed by the type of people in it", and Robert Kennedy has laughed at it.

Perhaps this society is a passing phase of "Americanism" or, at worst, a small controllable group of people. We cannot hope to suppress them because then their appeal would reach out to more people, and the trite phrase, "Un-American", would gain meaning. However, the days of the McCarthy hearings are not so far behind. Let us beware of the finger-pointing groups who seem to know just who is a Communist, and what is "Un-American".

What Is The Price Of A Peaceful Security?

By BILL COTTEN

Among other things, last week was a week of seconds for the United States. We came in second again in the space race and even in the Masters Golf Tournament. We also got cussed at by the bearded one, threatened by the bald one, and laughed at by all the "Red" ones.

We were invading Cuba again, colonizing Africa, taking advantage of Great Britain, intervening in Laos, and not giving enough to anyone but taking too much from everyone. We were again, as regularly, playing the part of the sympathetic Godmother who gets caught paying too much attention to one charge and neglecting another.

Let's face it! We are holding the end of a rope, caught in a deadly game of tug-of-war. If we slip there is no regaining balance; we are down. The trouble is that we make mistakes, too. Our friends show them to us each day. We're not perfect because we haven't enough money to be. We make wrong decisions, back wrong governments, and say the wrong things; yet we manage to keep our heads above ground. We are like the kid with a new toy. Nobody likes him very much, but everyone plays with him to take advantage of his possessions. You know that old saying, "Those who have, get." Well, what we get for what we got amounts to a questioning smile, an undecided handshake, and a lot of hell.

Is it worth it? We need friends, and we need them bad — be they bribed, bought, small or large. We need these footholds for a firm stance. This makes us vulnerable. We have to give with the blows and hope that none of them is labeled T.N.T. We have to turn the other cheek and get it smacked, too.

There is one consolation, however, for we are but one of two global punching bags. The other has "made in U.S.S.R." labeled on it. They have one advantage over us. Democracy cannot be illegal.

Sports

The girls' intramural league has been aided quite considerably by the services rendered by some of the boys. On a few nights when referees weren't available for the games, Paul Murrell and Chester Davis helped out and added a little variety and humor. No kidding, boys, this was greatly appreciated!

News has it that Coach Maggs won't let Noel Farmer jump very high on the trampoline. It seems Noel is a little on the heavy side, and the tramp hits the floor when he jumps very hard.

Many of the girls have been working out on the tramp, too, during their spare time. Susie Dunstan, they say, is pretty good at this — and many of the other girls as well.

The WAA banquet has been set for May 24. This is an annual affair when the awards are given according to the points the girls have earned for participation in sports. All girls are invited and encouraged to attend this big event, so please mark it on your calendars!

Beth Reid and Barbara Streett are the official delegates to the M.A.R.F.C.W. Conference, which Frostburg is hosting this year. Two other delegates, Artie West and Ruth Tyler, will also be going to this convention — as unofficial representatives of S.T.C. Last year, Salisbury was the host school, and it was thought by all W.A.A. members to be a huge success and very worthwhile.

Representatives from all the state colleges meet at this convention and discuss how their athletic organizations run and how they could better them. Ideas are suggested by the different colleges about their award systems, their activities during the year, etc. to give the others ideas for plans during the coming year.

May Day, with a colonial theme this year, is still being planned. After the procession of the court, freshmen will do modern dance numbers to the "Coronation Waltz," "Stars Fell on Alabama," and "Waltzing Bugle Boy." Sophomores will do the traditional May Pole Dance and several folk dances, which consist, of course, of all girls. Other events will include a group of twirling majorettes and a girls' tumbling group. So far, it looks as though this will be the best May Day yet!

MDA Announces Big Extravaganza

Who says there is nothing to do around S.T.C. on week-ends? The Men's Dormitory Association, plus the WDA and many other organizations, have made plans for another big weekend to occur right after the "Mayhem" production. Co-operation of many campus organizations will keynote the success of this venture, although many of the tentative arrangements are reserved for alteration.

Starting on Friday night, May 12, from 6:30 to 8:00, there will be a Men's Open House. Immediately following this event, there will be an Informal Dance in the Library parking lot with music provided by a band from 8:00 to 12:00. This type of entertainment has never been executed before at S.T.C. There will be many extra attractions such as unique decorations of Japanese lanterns and refreshments consisting of subs and cokes.

The next day, May 13, starting at 2:00 and lasting until 4:00, will see an "Olympics" held. Contests of all kinds will be used in this unprecedented event. Beginning at 5:00 and continuing until 12:00 is the time schedule set for a Picnic and Beach Party at Ocean City. If possible, there will be box lunches packed by the girls, and free 1 o'clocks for the females.

A Buffet Dinner at 12:30 will come off on Sunday, May 21, to complete this big weekend.

Girls' Intramurals
Had Successful Season

Intramurals are over; and it was the team consisting of Brenda Foxwell, Beverly Foxwell, Loretta Hudson, Claire Evans, Joan Militzer, Barbara Spedden, Evelyn Long, and Nancy Gibbons, captain, which ended up in first place. This team lost no games all season and racked up many points behind the drives and under-the-basket lay-ups of Brenda Foxwell.

However, it was the team of Kay Ramoser's, which, although it lost a couple of games, showed the best sportsmanship. Freshman Chotts Wilkins, who fouled quite frequently, was able to accept it quite good naturedly without questioning the referees. This is the role of the possessor of a good sportsmanlike attitude. Perhaps more of the teams should have followed the example Chotts Wilkins set.

Joan Townsley and Mary Lou Price were the managers of this intramural basketball league, and it is the consensus of opinion that this league was run quite efficiently. Anything which occurred during the playing of the games was not the fault of these managers, who did all that was in their power to promote interest and sportsmanlike qualities.

Vandals in Louisville, Ky., ripped down a stop sign at a major intersection and threw it in a nearby sewer, probably giggling at the great joke their warped minds had conceived. The action wasn't so funny to the three people involved in the resulting collision. The absence of the reflective stop sign caused one driver to drive right into a busy intersection he failed to note in the darkness until it was too late to stop.

Softball Arrives
With Spring

Spring training arrived at S.T.C. this week with sore backs, arms, and legs. Softball, the only sport in which the mal can participate in the spring at S.T.C., is a big perennial hit on campus. It also tends to be one of our most well-attended intramural sports.

The first pre-season game saw Dick Bailey's Bombers whipping Wilson's Rangers by a score of 6-3. While giving a glimpse of what is to come, the game produced too many early season errors for any definite conclusions to be made. The highlights of the contest were centered around the batting of Wayne Foltz and Chester Davis and the pitching of Ronnie Brewington.

Even though predictions are made to be proven false, the opinions of many spectators pick the Bombers to capture the league by a decided margin. Brewington's hurling is the main factor in such an analysis, while the backing up of Richard Bailey, Paul Murrell, and Eddie Starkey also inances such a statement.

It is very possible for Wilson's Rangers to cap the title for they have excellent hitters and fielders in Bill Cotten, Jay McCrea, Bernie Ruark, Bob Sinagra, and Dick Taylor. Also on the maintenance staff is Ronnie Willey, a proven pitcher of the past.

Gordon Gladden's Warriors and Martin Davis' Raiders contain too much mediocre talent in all respects to have any type of challenge for the lead.

IF YOU MEN HAVE . . . noticed, the first of the latest SGA constitution, concerns the "election" or "selection" of the Male Athlete of the year. As it stood previously, the M.A.A. was to submit nominations for this award and from there an election would be held. The proposed change, applicable both to the M.A.A. and the W.A.A., states that a "selection" will be made from an established criteria decided upon by the respective organizations.

After contacting a member of the M.A.A.'s executive segment, this writer could find only two criteria for the selection of its athlete: 1—Participation in varsity sports; and 2—"attitude." Several men have asked this writer why a point system as currently held by the women could not be used by the men. The answer is very simple . . . "IT CAN." EVERY MALE IS AUTOMATICALLY A MEMBER OF THE M.A.A. WHEN HE PAYS HIS ATHLETIC FEE. THEREFORE HE HAS A VOTE. HENCE A SAY, IN THE WAY THE M.A.A. OPERATES.

Therefore, the thing for those men to do is to take an interest and active part in THEIR M.A.A. by troubling themselves to find out when the next M.A.A. meeting will be held. Then all they have to do is attend and make their suggestions known. If enough of the members see eye to eye with his recommendations when and if a vote is taken, then he's home free. (By members I refer to all, not only the three or four members of the M.A.A. board.)

In connection with this same organization, word has it that in the near future, the M.A.A. elections of officers will be held. Look for this and be sure to attend. News of the meeting will be posted on the dressing room bulletin board.

THE GENTLEMEN REALLY . . . have it this time. Also asked for by interested individuals was the possibility of a Sports Banquet to honor the varsity athletes, plus due recognition to the coaches and the Athletes of the Year. The answer is the same for this question as was the first question mentioned in this column. Please refer to paragraphs 2 and 3.

FOR AWHILE . . . a couple of men had suggested trying to schedule a track meet with Towson State. After a little thought, the feasibility of such an action was deemed as inadvisable, so the matter, for this year at least has been temporarily shelved.

ON TV LAST WEEK . . . Bob Hope made mention of the fact that Los Angeles now has two teams — the Dodgers and the (See MAYHEM, Pg. 4)

Angels. These names are ideal, according to Hope, because "With this traffic (in L. A.) you are either one or the other."

SOFTBALL TIME IS . . . here, men, so let's be sure to sign up and avoid not getting selected on a squad.

NOBODY ASKED, BUT . . . here goes my prediction for the American League standings at the end of the 1961 season. In order 1 - 10 are: New York, Cleveland, Baltimore, White Sox, Detroit, Kansas City, Boston, Minnesota Twins, Los Angeles, and Washington. National next time.

3. Co-Ed basketball game with the Day-Hops versus the Dorms on the afternoon of May 6.
4. Ronnie Willey's concert preceeding the production of "Mayhem".

Circle K To Hold Election of Officers

The Salisbury State Teachers College Circle K will hold election of officers at the meeting on April 25, 1961. The present officers will serve until that date, and the newly elected officers will serve the following college year.

At the previous meetings of the Circle K, Mr. LesCallette spoke on "Maryland In the Civil War," and Dr. Devilbiss interpreted the "Warfield Plan." The speaker for the last meeting was Dr. Davis who related on a "Submarine Incident in World War II."

The Circle K fund-raising project of selling candy has been very successful and the members would like to thank the college students for their aid in this project.

The Circle K Employment Bureau which was opened in the Snack Bar proved very successful in the number of students who desired to sign up for future employment.

Several members of the Circle K are now giving Sunday night talks to the various M.Y.F. groups in the Salisbury area on "Home Missions."

An irate motorist in London called the police to demand they remove an elephant blocking a parking space. Police found the animal, carrying a sign advertising a circus, in the parking space, all right. But, he was parked correctly. The meter had the proper currency and time was still left on the dial. The officers decided the animal was parked legally. The motorist had to seek another parking place.
