

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE U. S.
ALLEN G. THURMAN,
OF OHIO.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.
THOMAS F. BAYARD,
OF DELAWARE.

VICTORY ALL OVER THE LAND!

Maryland all Right!
She sends 6 DEMOCRATIC Representatives to the next Congress!!!

Delaware and New Jersey make a Clean Sweep!

NEW YORK FULLY IN LINE!!

Massachusetts elects a Democratic Governor and four Democrats and two Independents to Congress!

BUTLER DEFEATED!

Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas and Virginia gone for the Democrats!!!!

GREAT CAUSE FOR REJOICING!

Butler, after receiving the election news on Tuesday night. Old Spoozy is gone up.

A Great Triumph has crowned the efforts of the Democracy!

The People are Sick of Radicalism!

A Change Demanded!

No 3rd Terms! No more Salary Grabs! No more Sanborna Contracts! No more Civil Rights! No more subverting the Civil Authority by the Military! No more Amendments to the Constitution! No more Dolts in the Presidential Chair! No more Outrage Factories! Let the People take charge of this thing and they will put it right, and they mean to!

The Honest People will Drive out the Thieves!

We must have an honest administration of affairs. Let what may come, the people will no longer submit to the wholesale robbery and plunder which has been going on too long already. We will have something to give thanks for now on the 26th. We see light breaking in upon us, and there certainly is a better day coming. Who will not rejoice? The spoils, men. They are in mourning, and why should they not be? Their occupation is gone, and we hope forever. Let us have peace!

The result of the election last Tuesday will make the hearts of millions of people glad. Many who never manifested any interest in political contests will now rejoice that a ray of hope has dawned upon the country, and that there is some chance for a revival of business. That the people have lost confidence in the rulers at Washington is manifest by the great revolution in politics which has taken place within the present year. Now that the Democracy will in all probability soon assume full control of the government. It is to be hoped that they will not fall into the vices which have broken up the Republican party, and well-nigh ruined the country. But that they will have respect for the views and wishes of their sovereigns the people, and not fall into the snares which have been the immediate cause of this wholesale slaughtering of the politicians. We hope and believe that the Democracy will, even in these degenerate days, have respect for honesty and fair dealing, and stick to the Constitution, and laws of the country. There is one thing sure that the Democratic Administrations have always commanded the respect of foreign nations, and all the territory which has ever been acquired, (of value to us) has been under the statesmanship of that old party. But just here we will remark that we have just enough territory, with the exception of Cuba. That is the only acquisition which can ever be of advantage to us, and that only as a means of defense, or to prevent its being used for shelter by our enemies in case of war. Then let us try to build up our own country, increase its commerce, and command our share of the trade of the world. This we can do, and it is our duty to do it. Then, and not till then, will we receive the respect due us from foreign nations.

THE GENERAL ELECTION RESULT.

While the result of Tuesday's elections has confirmed the worst forebodings of the most dependent republicans, and more than realized the anticipations of the most sanguine democrats, it is something considerably more than the triumph of one political party or the defeat of another. It is much less of a party victory than of a popular revolution. While in States like New York and New Jersey the signs have not been wanting for some time past of a great diminution of confidence in the administration of General Grant and the claims of the republican party to a longer continuance in power what shall be said of the change which has taken place in radical Massachusetts and slow-moving Pennsylvania? The democratic victory in the former State and gains in the latter can only be ascribed to causes which have operated immediately upon the minds and hearts of the people. The result in the South was nothing more than was to be anticipated, provided the Southern people were "let alone" and suffered to have a fair and honest election. The "carpet bag" and "scalawag" representation of those States in Congress has been known all along to be a gross misrepresentation, which would speedily be put to an end to whenever the way to the ballot-box was made open. But for the spectacle of Louisiana and Massachusetts joining hands and contributing to a common democratic success we pre-sume few people were prepared. It is difficult to suppose that the result in Massachusetts was not in some measure a surprise to the democrats themselves. Certainly the press in that State had given little reason to anticipate it, and it is simply impossible that any ordinary party agencies should have brought it about. Those, in fact, were all in the hands of the defeated party—money, patronage, absolute and long-continued possession of all State and federal offices, and the traditions and prestige of more than fifteen years of unbroken republican rule. The political change which has turned over the government of Massachusetts to the democratic party, and which has elected General Butler to "say at home," is therefore, something more than one of the mere vicissitudes of politics or ordinary "chances of war." It can only be accounted for, in common with the result in New York and other States, upon the theory of a great and radical change in public sentiment. Without assuming that there has been anything like a general conversion from republican to democratic principles in any of the States which have come over to the democratic side, it is perfectly certain that the American people no longer acquiesce in the dogma that the republican party alone has the exclusive privilege and "mission" of "saving (and governing) the country," and that the democratic party is under no circumstances to be trusted with power. The election of so many democrats to Congress from States and districts which have been heretofore represented by republicans is an emphatic declaration from the people themselves that "the war is ended" and with it the by-gone issues and prejudices of war. The people are tired of hearing that "democracy is only rebellion in disguise"—the "raw head and bloody bones" with which radical leaders have been in the habit of frightening Northern voters, as they in like manner deceive Southern negroes by teaching them that the election of democratic candidates would have the effect of remanding them all back into "handcuffs and slavery." In this point of view alone the result of Tuesday's elections is of the happiest augury for the whole country. We shall hear less hereafter of sectional parties, for it will be difficult to stigmatize as such the party which has carried alike Massachusetts and Louisiana Kentucky and New York.

The magnitude and importance of such a political revolution can hardly be overestimated. It would be belittling the subject to treat it as a matter for partisan congratulations merely. Its full significance can only be understood, of course, by a consideration of the causes which have led to it. To enumerate all the causes which have operated in different States, or to assign to each cause its proportionate influence in contributing to the general result would be impossible. They may be summed up generally, however, under the comprehensive head of popular dissatisfaction with the administration of the government by the republican party—with the financial mismanagement which has produced stagnation in business and the pressure of "hard times"—with the misgovernment of the South, which has added to the financial depression of the country, and, at last, in some shape or form, awakened the sympathies and indignation of the people of the North, and with the misconduct of high officers of the government in various departments, which has given rise to disgraceful scandals and investigations, converted the civil service into a political machine, and degraded the army into a partisan policy. All these things, the people have seen under General Grant's second term, growing from bad to worse, with little or no prospect of amendment, and have viewed with alarm the possibility of their perpetuation under a third term of the same Chief Magistrate. The merit of having "investigated" various abuses, claimed by the republican leaders, the people have failed to accept as an offset for the sin of originating and fostering the abuses which rendered investigation necessary. Doubtless General Grant himself, in whose popularity and prestige the party has been so largely indebted in the past, has been during the recent elections one of the heaviest weights it has had to carry.

We have referred to the result of Tuesday as effectually exploding and dispelling of the feetism that the democratic party was at heart a rebel party, and not to be trusted with power under the federal government. It has killed another calumny equally preposterous and absurd. Since the elections in Indiana and Ohio republican journals have been in the habit of attributing the success of the democrats in those States to the "inflation heresies" which found place in some of the party platforms. Now, neither of the great parties has much to boast of on the score of its recent record upon financial questions. Only the democratic party is bound by every tradition of its past history to be a hard money party. It would be difficult to make it otherwise after the results in New York, Massachusetts, and other hard money States to the eastward.

The following from the Baltimore Gazette gives a healthy account of the State's finances, and this, too, under Democratic rule. We venture to assert that no State can show a better financial condition than our good old commonwealth, and much credit is due our State officers for their efficient management of the State of Maryland.

"Nothing could with more certainty indicate the implicit confidence universally felt by the people of Maryland in the ability and faithfulness of the officers charged with the administration of the State's finances, than the present unexampled price of the State's securities. Notwithstanding the well-known fact that two additional loans were authorized by the last Legislature, which must shortly come on the market, the ex-empt stock of the State of Maryland has been quoted at from 106 to 108 for months past, and the last quotations show 108 bid, and 108 1/2 asked.

"When we reflect how many safe investments there are, realizing seven, eight, and some as high as ten per cent. interest per annum, it is remarkable that a simple six per cent. stock should be held at such figures. So great, however, is the demand for the bonds of our State, that these extraordinary prices are steadily maintained. No State in the Union can boast of more absolute confidence in its securities, and very few can pretend to stand on an equality with Maryland in this particular. While States that have been under Radical rule are on the verge of repudiation and bankruptcy, and some are perhaps hopelessly insolvent, the Democratic State of Maryland may point with just pride to the efficient manner in which her finances have been managed, and to the very high rank which her securities hold, not only in her own markets, but in the markets of the world.

"We commend these considerations to the calm reflection of the people, and urge them as an additional inducement to every true Marylander to stand firm at the approaching election for Representatives in Congress, and to employ their best efforts to place the Government of the United States in the hands of the Democratic party. Let no opportunity be lost to secure for the State of Maryland an undivided Democratic party. Let no opportunity in the next House of Representatives. If we can succeed in placing the Government of the United States in the hands of Democrats of ability and integrity, trade will revive, business will recuperate, and general prosperity, as it has uniformly done, will follow the successful installation into power of the representatives of those great principles which are the foundation stones of the Democratic faith. Such an event would beyond question give an impetus to commerce, and the general rejoicing which would follow would equal that which have heretofore resulted from the success of the great party which for so large a portion of the life of this Government ruled over and managed the affairs of the country for the good of the whole people.

COSTLY HORSES.

The following are the prices currently reported to have been paid for the noted American horses named—Kentucky, $40,000; Norfolk, $15,000; Lexington, $15,000; Kingfisher, $15,000; Glenwood, $10,000; Smuggler, $15,000; Blackwood, $30,000; Jay Gould, $30,000; Dexter, $43,000; Lady Thorne, $30,000; Goldsmith Maid, $20,000; Starlin, $20,000; Prospero, $20,000; Roslin, $20,000; Lulu, $20,000; Happy Medium, $36,000; Clara G., $30,000; Peachbloss, $35,000; Edward Everett, $20,000; Auburn Horse, $13,000; Judge Fullerton, $20,000; Mambrino Bertie, $10,000; Socrates, $20,000; George Palmer, $15,000; Mambrino Pilot, $12,000; Elora Temple, sold when asked, for $8,000, for brood mare; $25,000 was offered and refused for Tom Bowling last summer; $30,000 was offered and refused for Banquet in his three-year-old form; $25,000 will not to day buy Baywood or Asteroid; $40,000 was offered and refused for Woodford Mambrino, and $30,000 for Thorn-dale.

TRIUMPHANT STRIDES.
What healthy pair of eyes has not seen the names Wanamaker & Brown, Oak Hall, in some shape? They point to the largest Clothing Depot in America, the giant House, corner Sixth and Market streets, on the site where George Washington lived while a resident of the Quaker City. This substantial firm, flushed with their triumph, announce in our columns for the fall and winter trade, some principles of business that will make a fluttering in the clothing trade, from Boston to New Orleans. They undertake to mark all their stock considerably lower than ever before; to label every garment with a printed slip, naming the goods, and specifying the only price that will buy it; to furnish with each piece of clothing a written guarantee of its value; and to take the purchase back, and return the money, if tendered within ten days! In the chronological tables of 1874, there is nothing to insert more startling than this great change of base in the clothing trade.

The election news has sent such a thrill of joy out among the people, that they are coming in town, and spending the money they had laid up to run away on, as they have concluded to stay in the country and go ahead improving their property &c. one man came in to buy a farm remarking that he was sure times would improve because confidence was being restored already, that one of his neighbors offered to loan him some money as soon as he heard of the election returns. He said Butler was beat and he would soon pass to the retired list, there was not so much danger of its being stolen, all persons seem pleased, and buoyed up, and strange to say some of our republican friends seem to think so, too, they say it was evident that it was want of confidence in the rulers that made things look so bad. The difference is quite marked and can be observed by any one. We say let the good work go on.

THE NATION'S LOSS.

In one of B. F. Butler's late invocations to the House of Representatives he recounted the imaginary outrages of the white leaguers in New Orleans, and asked "What will the South do if you refuse to return me to Congress?" That interesting question must now be answered. The terrible emergency suggested by Mr. Butler has occurred, and it remains to be seen whether the South can be kept in the Union without the aid of Butler. It is a pity to lose a man who lends so much grace, dignity and honor to the councils of the nation, but according to the old laws, what's done can't be helped, and what can't be cured must be endured, and republicans are proverbially ungrateful.

WILL INDORSED.

The Gift Concerts in aid of the Kentucky Library are not at all spectacular. The institution is chartered by the State of Kentucky. The first prize in the next drawing, which takes place November 30, is $250,000. It is a reliable institution, and some one will get that money. And there may be no doubt as to the honesty of its management, as the fact that the best banks in Louisville indorse it, and that Governor Thomas E. Bramlette, of Louisville, is the general manager. An institution so fathered is certainly deserving of confidence.

WHAT CAUSED IT.

The result of the elections in so many States on Tuesday, overwhelming the republican party with a tidal wave of defeat, it seems, is the effect wholly of late changes in the Baltimore custom-house. This is the fly that fell in the pond, that raised the wind, that made the storm, that caused the shipwreck! And it is none of our funeral! So say some of the patriots that were buried long ago. Balto. Sun.

An ex-rebel general, O'Neal, who served under Stonewall Jackson, is shoveling dirt on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad for $1 per day.—Washington Chronicle.

Does the Chronicle dislike Gen. O'Neal any less because he is honest enough to prefer earning one dollar a day by the sweat of his brow to rolling in public plunder after the fashion of the scallawag of the period?

MITTENED.

My lady love has "Mittened" me Through some coquetish "miff," I really cannot tell why she Went off in such a "tiff." But here's a letter from her now, What will its lines disclose— "I'll never be your wife, I vow— "Till you wear Tower Hall Clothes."

Gentlemen who want their worldly Soins to prosper had better get a suit of our splendid Clothing, the prices are guaranteed lower than the lowest to be found anywhere else. BENNET & CO., TOWER HALL Clothing Bazaar 518 Market street, half-way between Fifth and Sixth, Philadelphia.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE!

BY VIRTUE of a decree of the Circuit Court for Wicomico county, passed in the case of Cannon Knowles, Administrator of J. C. Bradley, dec'd., vs. Goldborough W. Phillips and Arcadia W. Phillips, the undersigned as trustee's will offer at Public Auction on SATURDAY, the 29th day of NOVEMBER, '74, at 2 o'clock P. M., at Sharptown, Wicomico county, the following Real Estate, to wit: All that tract of land which the said Goldborough W. Phillips bought of John G. Bradley, situated in said county, and called COW'S QUARTER and addition to COW'S QUARTER containing 85 acres, more or less. Terms of sale as fixed by Court, $100 cash, balance in six months; deferred payment to be secured by note and sureties approved by trustees. HOLLAND & COOPER, Trustees. Nov. 7-12.

A GREAT STRIDE UP AND OVER Business Customs!

This Advertisement Copyrighted. OLD METHODS found to be faulty or objectionable discarded. A new and vastly advantageous plan hereby adopted! Wanamaker & Brown Already the Largest Clothing Concern in America, and leading the Trade, STARTS ON A NEW CAREER!! Thoroughly reorganized on a greatly improved Plan, by which it is hoped to double the already immense business of ENORMOUS ESTABLISHMENT. Thirteen years of laborious and eager observation, of different methods of doing business, while establishing and extending the largest clothing trade in the United States, have brought us to the following

- Conclusions:
- 1st That a customer has a right to some GUARANTEE that his purchase shall prove exactly as represented.
 - 2nd That Cash throughout is the only basis, consistent with the very lowest prices.
 - 3rd That, though justice does not require it, comfort and actual security in dealing are greatly promoted by giving to the purchaser the privilege not only of Exchange of Goods, but of returning the same within a given time, and have promptly paid back the Cash in full.
 - 4th That all customers buying at the same time, should pay precisely the same price for the same quality of goods.
 - 5th That as customers naturally inquire into the character and quality of articles offered for sale, and may not always be correctly informed, or fully understand the clerks, a Label, made under the authority and guarantee of the firm, bearing a printed description of the name and quality of the goods, should be attached to each article.

BUT WE UNHESITATINGLY ADOPT THEM ALL, and confidently relying on the approval and support of an intelligent and discriminating public, we inaugurate what we believe to be the best system in the world, and we

NOW ANNOUNCE THESE AS OUR CARDINAL POINTS.

EXPLANATION AND ELABORATION OF WANAMAKER & BROWN'S NEW PLAN.

1st POINT. Houses doing a credit business must provide for losses on bad debts. To bear such losses themselves would drive them out of business. Therefore a per cent. "CASH" added to the price of each article sold, to cover this leakage, and Cash Buyers whether they really know it or not, pay the bad debts and the interest on the long credits of the other customers!!

2d POINT. The fairness of this feature of our plan all will praise. It is simply treating all alike—extending nothing from indisposition to bargain or ignorance, and at the same time, conceding all that shrewdness on the shrewdest customer's part could possibly extort, because the "One Price" which we mark on our goods, shall invariably be

NOT the "First" Price, but the LAST and LOWEST PRICE.

In other words, Salesmen or "Headmen" are not allowed, under ordinary circumstances, to fall below a certain figure! It is at that, or at a lower figure, that we now determine to mark our goods, calculating the cost to the exact penny, and fixing the price at the low rate afforded where business is done on a large scale.

NOTE.—Whenever the exigencies of the season, the state of trade, or the money market may demand, the right is reserved to go through our stock before or after business hours and mark down any lot or lots of goods, changing the figures on all the labels, so that the new rates are the same to all, and all buy alike at the mark down prices.

WANAMAKER & BROWN WILL NEVER HOLD THEIR GOODS.

A printed Guarantee, bearing the signature of our firm, will accompany each garment as a Warranty. This is a sample.

GUARANTEE.

We hereby guarantee

- 1st. That the prices of our goods shall be as low as the same quality of material and manufacture are sold elsewhere in the United States.
- 2d. That the prices are precisely the same to everybody for same quality, on same day of purchase.
- 3d. That the quality of goods is as represented on printed labels.
- 4th. That the full amount of cash paid will be refunded, if customers find the articles unsatisfactory, and return them within 10 days of date of purchase.

[Signed,] WANAMAKER & BROWN,
OAK HALL,
Sixth and Market Streets, Phila.

DATE,

This is simply a concession on our part to our customers, that they may have full confidence in dealing for goods they know very little about, and thus prevent any occasion for dissatisfaction on their part, and every cause whatsoever. If the garment is not exactly what you thought, if the "home folks" prefer another color or another shape, if you find you cannot use the same, and style elsewhere for less money, if you wish you had not bought it, bring it back unworn and unimpaired, and the full amount of money you paid will be returned on the spot.

THE ADVANTAGES

Incident to a system having for its cardinal points these which we have explained, are innumerable. Saving of time and temper, perfect security, absence of all huckstering, &c., &c. But above all this

IT MAKES CLOTHING CHEAP.

By enforcing CASH Payments, the bad debts are avoided. By putting plenty of ready money in hand, it enables us to buy goods at figures that credit men know nothing about. By increase of sales, a smaller profit on each article is sufficient. All of these "My Ways" lead direct to and this without lowering the quality or style of our celebrated make of Men's and Boys' Clothing. We have for years been working towards the present point, and though naturally falling into the current methods of trade, we observed and noted the defects of the old system, and have been carefully weighing for a long time these newer plans, and preparing for this

ENTIRE CHANGE OF BASE

We now swing clear of all combinations or customs, and burn the bridges behind us. INVESTIGATION IS ASKED INTO ALL WE HAVE HERE PUT FORTH. Staking the hard-earned reputation of our house on the exact fulfillment of all the promises and conditions herein laid down. On this new Plan, we begin business.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3d, 1874, And anticipate that

Marvellous and Unprecedented increase of Business for which we are well prepared. With the improvements already noted, there are also new styles, new colors, new cuts and more careful finishing. Everything possible has been done to meet and gratify the rush, and now

LET IT BEGIN.

Sam Bush and his horse had a slight misunderstanding on their way home from Delmar on Wednesday night last. The horse stopped suddenly, but Sam kept right on, performing such prodigious feats in the low and lofty tumbling line, as would have made a circus clown turn green with envy.

New Band Wagon.—The Salisbury Brass Band are having a band wagon built expressly for use next Wednesday. Mr. Emory Brittingham is the master mechanic.

Birkhead & Johnson are building a small dwelling house near the depot. Why will not some one with capital build several? They would be easy to rent or sell.

Business Change.—There is some talk of the laundry stock company being dissolved, the stock to be bought up at a fair valuation by one or two of the members.

Scarcity.—Never! no never! in all of our journalistic experience has there been such a dearth of local news. We are poor hand at manufacturing them so this part of our paper will be slim this week. Next week we will try and do better.

Entertainment.—Leavitt's Bell Ringers and the Continental vocalists gave entertainments on Thursday and Friday nights at Laundry Hall to large and appreciative audiences. Fred Jay is just a whole company in himself, and it is well worth the admission fee to see and hear him.

For the benefit of our colored friends we will say, that although the Democrats have gained the victory and have a large majority in Congress, they shall still be free, and not enslaved again as they were by radical damage prior to the election.

Accident.—Mr. Charles Chatham, a workman at the Landing Mill, met with a very severe mishap Thursday afternoon, while engaged in feeding wood to a circular saw. His right hand slipped and coming in contact with the saw the fore and middle finger and thumb were taken off. Dr. Dennis dressed the wound and Mr. Chatham is doing very well.

Lickness.—Oyster tongs have been very lively of late taking out licensees to prosecute their business. Twenty-two licenses have been issued by Wicomico's Clerk since November 4th. Whether the fact that the Police boat for this district is finished has anything to do with the increased demand, we cannot say. But Capt. Hopkins will surely catch you if you do not license.

Cat-leopards.—On Saturday evening a cat in pursuit of a mouse made a spring and drove her head in a spout in which the mouse had taken refuge with such force that she could not extricate herself. She remained fast in the spout all night and was pulled out on Sunday morning with considerable difficulty, her head being badly cut. The mouse escaped, but we think that cat will not go up the spout again.

Last Wednesday afternoon quite a number of ladies and gentlemen belonging to the Order of Good Templars in this town, left for Delmar, to attend the quarterly meeting of the Sussex County Association of Good Templars, held at that place. They enjoyed themselves immensely, and fully appreciated the hearty welcome and generous hospitality extended them by the Delmar Lodge.

Orphan's Court.—Letters of administration were granted to Alexine Shockley, on the estate of Samuel Shockley, col., and the bond given by said administratrix approved. The account of the sales of the goods and chattels of Mordcau Holloway was examined and approved. The court meets again December 8.

Courthouse Commemoration.—The bridge built by King V. White, at Farnell's crossing, was reported as accepted by Mr. Lewis for our county, and R. Jones Taylor, of Worcester.

Mr. Travis reported the sale of the Victoria Ferry to Mr. Stephens, for $24,75 to Messrs. Bennett & Riggin. One-half of these amounts are paid by Dorchester county.

Pension orders given on Geo. W. Robertson, in favor of John B. Bickel, for $3 per month.

Pension order granted Wm. Whaley January 12, 1874, on John White, was ordered to be countermanded.

The Commissioners granted an order of admission to the Alma House to Albert Morris.

Petition of Philip O. Hearn and others for the opening of a road from Deep River Bridge to Malsons' Church, in Pittsburg District was filed. The Commissioners will meet on the 24th instant.

Go to John Owen's for the best sausage and breakfast in town.

Rev. A. Webster, D. D., of Baltimore will preach in the M. F. Church of this place on Sunday, the 19th inst. at 10.30 A. M., and 7 P. M.

The Committee of Arrangements, who have in charge the celebration on Wednesday next, have met with much success in collecting the wherewithal to defray expenses. The times are fearfully dull, but the occasion justified the outlay and the people gave willingly.

Extensive preparations have been made and are making at the Park to accommodate the immense throng who will be here, and there will be a sufficient number of tables for three hundred persons to eat at once. All can have the biggest kind of an oyster dinner, as about four hundred buns have been engaged.

The Band have tendered their services for the occasion and it is expected that the bands of Snow Hill, Sanford, Laurel and Delmar will also be present.

Prominent speakers have signified their intention of attending. After the night speaking a grand exhibition of fire works will be given. Come, ye freemen, in your nightgowns, make this the grandest and most imposing demonstration ever witnessed on the peninsula.

J. H. KELLEN & Co.,
MADE IN U.S.A. and PHILADELPHIA.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

A SUBSTITUTE FOR QUININE.
For years, quinine was regarded as the only specific for malarial diseases, and immense quantities of the drug were usually consumed throughout our western country, more particularly along the river bottoms and adjoining low lands.

With the fall months malaria, in all its varied forms, stalks like an epidemic through the land, and whole districts are prostrated with chills and fever, the entire population shaking with ague. Heretofore, quinine was regularly resorted to; but, while it frequently failed to effect a cure, it invariably damaged the stomach, producing nausea, vertigo and fugitive pains in the head to such an extent that months elapsed ere the system recovered from its effects. These objections to its use were so marked, that the introduction of Kellen's Bitters was hailed as a triumph in medicine. Infinitely more certain in its beneficial effects than quinine, it possessed none of the demerits of that drug. Instead of nauseating, it tones and invigorates the stomach, and while speedily expelling the noxious humors, increases the appetite and facilitates digestion thus rendering the system stronger, and better fitted to resist the attacks of disease. In fact, a judicious use of Kellen's Bitters at this season of the year, will prevent the recurrence of this disease, even in those who have never passed an autumn without it.

There are, perhaps, no diseases so subject to climatic changes as affections of the Kidneys. Hundreds of our farmers, mechanics, and laboring men, strong and hardy in all other respects, suffer from continual inconvenience, and occasionally excruciating pains in the back and across the loins; experience a frequent desire to pass water, pain during its passage, and frequent stoppages in micturition. These are manifestations resulting from some morbid action of the kidneys (years ago), and aggravated by every change in the weather. Every slight cold flies direct to this one weak spot, and unless promptly attended to the disease becomes more chronic, and once strong a miserable wretch. Kellen's Bitters is the only certain remedy for this class of diseases. It has a peculiar tendency to the kidneys, stimulates them to healthy action, and removing the cause, prevents the formation of bilious deposits, which, if permitted to continue, will by cohesion form gravel stones necessitating a painful operation for its removal. Many of the ingredients entering into its composition, are universally recognized as specific for all complaints of the urinary organs. In Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, all disorders of the Bowels, and affections of the Throat and Lungs, it is equally certain and efficacious; while, as a remedy for the complaints peculiar to the female sex, it has no equal. It is an old and young, married and single, in every condition of life, will find this GREAT REMEDY prompt, safe, certain and reliable. The pale, sallow complexion is replaced by a bloom, the healthy countenance, and its cessation of any enables Nature to perform her functions unobscured and without inconvenience. Sold only in bottles by all Druggists and general dealers. Oct. 10, '74.

THE NEW IMPROVED
REMINGTON SEWING MACHINE
AWARDED
THE "Medal for Progress,"
AT VIENNA, 1873.

The Highest Order of "Medal" Awarded at the Exposition.
No Sewing Machine Received a Higher Prize.

A FEW GOOD REASONS.
1.—A New Invention Thoroughly Tested and secured by Letters Patent.
2.—Makes a perfect "lock stitch," alike on both sides, on all kinds of goods.
3.—Runs Light, Smooth, Noiseless and Rapid—best combination of qualities.
4.—Durable—Runs for Years without R-pairs.
5.—Will do all varieties of Work and Fancy Stitching in a superior manner.
6.—Is Most easily Managed by the operator. Length of stitch may be altered at will, and machine can be threaded without passing thread through holes.

7.—Design Simple, Ingenious, Elegant, forming the stitch without the use of Cop Wheel, Gears, Rotary Gears or Lever Arms. Has the Automatic Drop Feed, which in sure uniform length of stitch at any speed has our Thread Controller, which allows easy movement of needle-bar and prevents injury to thread.
8.—Construction most careful and finished. It is manufactured by the most skillful and experienced mechanics at the celebrated Remington Armory, 1100 N. Y. New York office No. 6 Madison Square, (Kurt's Building).

A VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.
The undersigned offers at private sale the farm formerly owned by Thomas Williams, about one and a half miles on the road from Salisbury to Spring Hill. This farm contains and is improved by a two-story Dwelling House and all necessary out buildings; has a fine first-rate young Peach Orchard, and is susceptible of a high state of improvement, having a clay subsoil. This farm has on it an abundant supply of wood and timber, and enough could be spared to pay a large amount of the purchase money. It is a fine location for trucking, being near the R. R. and navigation, and offers a rare chance for an investment.

220 ACRES,

...these on a warm border and much. Set the cuttings, after cutting out all the eyes except three or four at the top, in rows two feet apart and six inches in the rows. Next autumn they will be large enough to get out in borders where they are permanently to remain.

Asparagus may be got out as long as the weather remains good.

Cabbages.—Store these, and put away all the different roots such as turnips, beets, &c. in cellars or pits, in ground that is dry and will not, from their position, let in water.

Potatoes.—Gather, bury or put in the cellar potatoes this month. They should only be dug when the ground is dry, and in dry weather. As it is a tedious business and takes much time those who have large patches ought to begin in June.

Celery.—Continue to earth up. Some may be closed over as to be blanched for use the latter part of this month.

Endive.—Earth up the endive plants.

Winter Spinach.—Thoroughly clean and work this vegetable. Thin to stanches in the rows.

Carrot Kabs.—Serve this the same as you do the spinach, if sown broad cast, than like you do turnips.

Mint.—Set out plants of mint in frames for winter and early spring use.

Lettuce.—Will thrive best by setting out early this month in rich beds with a southern exposure, where they can be protected when the frosts come.

Asparagus and Strawberry Beds.—Already been dressed and fixed up, do so now, and do so hereafter.

...you pick carefully them in a small area to go through then pack sweet, in a barrel so tight that it will not bruise by shaking; trans to a cool cellar or open until you can send them to market they will pay you. The reward make into nice cider and the apple butter, make a large quantity and make it well. If you have more than you can consume, you can sell it well, if you get clean new firkins with tight covers to pack it in. It often brings a more remunerative price than does the cow butter. Real good cider is a healthy and invigorating drink and can be made very easily. First get a good cider mill, to work by hand, have your apples a little mellow, clean and free from decay. Grind and press, straining through a cloth. As soon as it ferments add more of the same sort until it ceases to throw off any scum. Rack it off into another clean barrel and put in each barrel four pounds of mustard seed. In a week rack this off into another clean barrel and add two pounds of mustard seed, bung tight and you will have a bright, sparkling health-giving drink for a year, provided you do not get in excess as too many of God's blessings are too plentiful to the shame of man and detrimental to the character of humanity.

FIRE-WOOD.

All spare time this month, and the weather does it allow other work to be done, all hands and teams should be employed in securing fire-wood. The best pile is raised so high and huddled that it will be safe from rain and frost.

Mringham Young is now in season, with a year and is in very poor health. It is feared that the lambs will be much longer. The lambs have not yet decided what to do with Ann and her law suit.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE U. S.
ALLEN G. THURMAN,
OF OHIO.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.
THOMAS F. BAYARD,
OF DELAWARE.

THE STATE OF OUR COLORED PEOPLE.

That portion of our population have much to be thankful for in Maryland.

Although they have spoken and acted in opposition to the party now in power in this state. Yet they have been the special objects of favor, and the recipients of blessings at the hands of those whom they have unjustly regarded as their enemies. Now we only have to say to the colored man that it is a matter of interest to every white man in Maryland, as well as to the colored man, that he should be a good citizen, and there is no better way to make him a good citizen, than to contribute to his wants, both mental and physical. In order to do this the Democratic Legislature, at its last session, appropriated one hundred thousand dollars to be expended exclusively for the education of the colored people in this State. Now this is one of the wonders of the world for a people to be constantly doing good to, and helping those who look upon them as the party and people who desire to oppress them. Now we have only to say that the Democratic party desire the elevation of the colored man. But when we say elevation, we do not mean to grant him any exclusive privileges not enjoyed by white men. As to the elective franchise that will do the negro very little good, nor the white man any harm. It is true that at times colored men will hold the balance of power, and if properly used by them, may redound to their benefit in checking excesses in any party, but only so far as the principle advocated results to the benefit of the whole people. As to the propriety of colored men holding office, that will be settled in the course of time. The time may come when the thing will work, but it will never be a prevailing dogma in Maryland, nor to any extent in the other States. There will be individual instances we have no doubt, and these instances of themselves will do no harm, but they will be like angels' visits, few and far between.

So we say to the colored man, once for all, do your best, improve your condition as much as possible, don't look for elevation before you are prepared for it, attend strictly to your legitimate business, let office alone, strive to improve in all the elevated callings, trades and professions, and you will find that the better class of white people will be ever ready to lend a helping hand and stand by you in all your laudable undertakings, and our word for it. So far as political parties are concerned, you will find that the old fashioned Democracy will stand by and protect you if you deserve it, whether you vote with them or not.

Be industrious, frugal, enterprising and persevere in doing good, and you will not have anything to fear, for want of friends. But just here we will say, that if you undertake to shape events to suit you, whether they are consonant to the public weal or you find yourself in a helpless minority, and might bring upon yourselves troubles never before anticipated. These things can only be the result of ignorance and the taking and heading unwholesome advice. But it is to be hoped that the colored people have by this time learned to take care of themselves, and are now able to judge who are most likely to give them good counsel. Be sure you are right, and go ahead. No one will rejoice more in your prosperity than the writer. Nor will anyone manifest more sympathy for you when any attempt shall be made to wrong you.

A WORD TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The year is fast drawing to a close, and the time will soon come when the Postage will have to be prepaid on the Advertiser to all subscribers whose Post Office address is outside of Worcester County. To all such we say that the Advertiser will be discontinued unless all arrears and the price of the current year be paid, and their accounts sent out for collection. To all who pay promptly before Christmas their paper will be continued as before, to all new Subscribers we say, that the Advertiser will be sent to them for the additional amount of postage. To those living within the County we say you must pay up or we must stop your paper, and collect accounts. We furnish the Advertiser at the extremely low price of One dollar, which scarcely pays for the raw material to say nothing of the expense of Printing, folding, and mailing. We are thus particular in order to inform our subscribers that they are not our benefactors, if they only take our paper and do no more for us, although they may, though grudgingly pay us one dollar a year for it. If we had ten thousand subscribers who pay us the subscription promptly without any other income we should starve at the publishing business, at one dollar a year. So you see the necessity of putting up the paper at a higher price, or cutting off each subscriber who does not pay promptly.

We are willing to send the Advertiser to all who pay us for it, but we cannot afford to send it to those who do not except those who are our contributors.

TO ADVERTISERS.

When P. T. Barnum, started out to exhibit Tom Thumb, he did not take him to Texas, a state seven times larger than Pennsylvania, with a population less than that of the state of Maryland, but he took him to the city of London, whose corporate limits were no larger than those of Philadelphia, and whose population exceeded that of fifteen of our largest cities all put together at that time. Barnum was sharp enough, to know, that in order to show a thing to the people you must take some medium that reaches them, and that medium must go where the people are to be found. We are sometimes surprised at people taking such methods as they sometimes do to advertise their business, instead of looking up some paper which devotes some space and uses such display type as is likely to be seen and read, and in a paper of a circulation which insures readers of all its content, and among all trades, professions, and callings. Some advertisers will go around to see different publishers, and see which will give him the largest amount of space for the least money regardless of the number of persons reached by said paper, instead of going to the post office, and there informing himself what papers issue the most copies, and fix his standard of value of space by the number of persons he expects to reach. This would look more business like. Everybody knows that the same space in the paper that carries an advertisement to fifteen hundred subscribers is worth three times as much as the one which only carries it to five hundred if it becomes known and to have customers see what you have to sell is the object of Advertising.

CONSOLIDATION.—We see by announcement that the Salisbury Advertiser and the Salisbury Advertiser are to be consolidated under the name of the Salisbury Advertiser. We have always contended where there was two or more papers of the same political complexion, it is far better to be united; and we have always been opposed to old bachelor's anyhow, for as a general thing they are gruff and ill-natured. Since the union of the two papers we shall expect to find the Advertiser a perfect specimen of his efficient corps of writers.—Maryland Republican.

We copy the above from the Maryland Republican, one of our most spicy exchanges. It may be that the Bachelor was a true type of his kind. But during our connection with him in a business capacity, we found him to be quite a genial fellow, but as he married quite young, and before his habits became confirmed, we must say that he had the reputation of being one of the most pleasant companions, and always a welcome visitor. We hope also that our contemporary's anticipations may be realized in regard to the Advertiser. At any rate we shall endeavor to make it an acceptable paper, and one to be desired in every household, and if we sometimes mix a little vinegar and pepper with the spice, we hope we may be pardoned for it, as it is a well-known maxim that the "way of the transgressor is hard." We have only to say that the way of a Journalist is not always strewn with flowers.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25, '74.

Messrs. Editors: Business here since the delightful rain has been more lively than for some weeks past, and the cold weather has made several branches of trade quite active. The dry-goods and clothing stores are doing a good business, and the produce merchants are well prepared for Thanksgiving Day, which will be generally observed in this city. To-morrow will be a welcomed day to many in this city, who look forward to a good dinner as one of their greatest enjoyments. There is an unusual amount of poverty here this winter, and among a class who are neither criminal nor lazy but who are praying for work which cannot be found. Crime here increases as cold weather advances, and it is an act of almost intemperance, for governments either Nation or State, to stop work at this time upon public buildings, merely because money is scarce. Better to tax the people as we were taxed during the war, and give work to the laboring man, than have crime and poverty staring us in the face. No one but those who can see poverty, as it is now seen in this, and other large cities, can have any idea of the misery and degradation that exists among those who are dependent upon the labor of their own hands for support. The "Five points" of New York city is not the only place in the country where crime and sin go together. Let strangers come here and see for themselves what a city life is in dull times, and they will think Heaven that they live in happier houses, with pure air to breathe in, and no such scenes of poverty and wickedness to witness every day. Although there are many times in many, there are hopeful times in all those who have faith in the principles of the Democratic party, and to-morrow many will have cause to thank God for their deliverance from Ring Rule, in this city especially, and throughout the country.—The leaders of the "philistines" has been de-throned, and Philadelphia is now rid of a bad "Mann."

While so much destitution is going on, fashion walks the streets as gaudy as ever, and the fair sex seem to linger around the dry good and millinery stores as if there was plenty of money to spare, and there is plenty of money, but it is in the hands of a few, at the expense of the many who are taxed so heavily. Our city is never without its sensations, and ministers of the Gospel, here, as elsewhere, furnish food for the newspapers, by their actions and words. Father Gerdemann, as he was called, will soon be tried for embezzlement of the funds left in his care to build one of the most expensive Roman Catholic churches in this city; and although his counsel seems confident of being able to prove his innocence, there are many who believe that he is guilty. The trial will be an exciting and interesting affair, and a large array of witnesses will be summoned. There are a great many poor women who left almost all their savings in Gerdemann's hands, who will testify against him, while others will testify to the labor and trouble which Gerdemann went to in his efforts to build the Church, which is quite a handsome edifice.

The "Ross Case" is now seldom spoken of. The father of Charles Ross has been much prostrated in mind and body from the loss of his child, but is now improving in health.

The places of amusement seem to be doing a good business, and unusual attractions will be offered next week at all our Theatres. Clark has been charming crowded houses at the "Walnut," while Davenport has been at the "Chestnut Street Theatre" performing in the legitimate Drama, to large and respectable audiences. The other Theatres are doing well, and are open every night except Sunday. Lectures and Concerts are held every week at the Academy of Music, and every taste seem to be gratified. "Human nature cannot live on pain alone," as Carl Shurtz says in his late lecture on education. "It requires the refreshing bath of the fountain of pleasure and you may judge of the nature of men by the pleasure which he seeks. No respectable city or town should be without its public Park or Garden, where open air concerts can be held, and even in winter public Halls ought to be opened for the purpose."

Your town is more highly favored than many others in Maryland, for you have a Park where every body can go in summer and enjoy themselves. You have a brass band far superior to any other upon the Eastern Shore, and a Public Library, and a Lyceum. With all these attractions your town ought to grow, which it no doubt will do, when business revives from the great shock which it has received. I must congratulate the Advertiser in having a good "Bell" in its office. Those your paper will ring out loud the principles of the Democratic party, and that your bell will prove of such sound metal that it will last for many years.

OMOO.

The State of New York, has gone Democratic, the first time in thirty years, without the aid of the City. The entire State including the City has gone Democratic several times during that period, but never before outside of the City. The Democracy of the rural districts have much to rejoice over.

IS NOT THE WORLD MOVING.

The experience of one of our townsmen at the House of Wanamaker & Brown, corner of Sixth and Market streets, Philadelphia, under whose eye their great advertisement had fallen, affords material for a paragraph. Our friend is skeptical of human faith. He has been so often "logged," as he euphonically styles it, in business, that his mind is unsteady. Having an errand, however, with one of the clerks in Oak Hall, he quietly took occasion to look through the 27 vast apartments, containing that immense stock to which our advertising columns call attention. A million dollars worth of goods, cut into the forms that fashion prescribes in one every-day sight. Our friend examined single specimens. Every garment is labelled, naming in print the material and the one positive price. He exhausted himself trying to beat down the clerks; not a cent did they yield. "It would cost me my situation," Finally, he brought away two suits, with a signed Guarantee from the firm, which authorizes him to return them and get his money back, if he chooses to do so, within ten days. He will not choose to do so, if his wife has any say about it.

GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER OF MASONS.

Nashville, November 24.—The General Grand Chapter of Masons assembled here this morning, James M. Austin, of New York, as deputy grand high priest. After the report of the committee on credentials had been read, the report of the general grand high priest was submitted. He reports prosperity throughout the jurisdiction. Alabama signifies her intention of rejoining the General Grand Chapter. Georgia and Texas are the only Grand Chapters in the United States yet without jurisdiction in the General Grand Chapter, but the prospects are flattering of their ultimately falling in the ranks. He also recommends that all mark masters of England, Ireland, Scotland Wales be recognized by Royal Arch Masons of this grand jurisdiction, for the reason that said jurisdiction has signified its willingness to reciprocate and recognize mark masters from this jurisdiction. After routine business, the Grand Chapter adjourned until to-morrow.

EXCITEMENT IN INDIAN TERRITORY.

Tableau, Indian Territory, November 23, via Fort Gibson.—A shooting affair occurred here this morning. Forty shots were fired. One man was fatally wounded and two others injured. The Council suspended business, and all stores are closed. Intense excitement prevails. Major Ingalls, United States Agent, is investigating the affair. Special Messenger Ross has been sent to Fort Gibson by Major Ingalls for the United States Marshal and a posse to protect the innocent and secure the arrest of the murderers, who are said to belong to the Sheriff's party. The Sheriff reported to have sent runners out to gather in his friends to prevent arrest.

LOCAL OPTION IN MARYLAND.

The St. Michael's Md.) Comet says: The Grand Jury has found bills of indictment against every liquor dealer in Talbot county, except Chapel District, which voted for license. It is said there were about forty applications from that district to the Grand Jury for recommendations to license. Counter petitions, praying the Grand Jury to recommend no body in that district, were also sent in. As the writs were served upon the liquor dealers they closed their houses. The Cambridge Chronicle says that one witness before the Grand Jury in the recent investigation of the liquor question testified of the "Sunny South," a vile decoction sold by liquor dealers, that "the first drink will make a man feel bad the second will make him sick, and the third is certain death."

At Mahanoy City, Pennsylvania, on Saturday and Sunday nights there were disturbances and excitement on the principal street which culminated in a regular fight Monday night, growing out of the Major assassination some time since. A number of shots were fired, several men injured, and great excitement prevails among the citizens. One saloon was entirely gutted. The original difficulty started three weeks since between two fire companies, at a fire, since which time the feud has been kept up.

CLOSE CONGRESSIONAL CONTESTS.—There was an unusual number of close contests in the Congressional elections. Cutler beats Phelps in New Jersey by 4 votes; Harrison, in one of the Chicago districts, has 7 majority. The Erie District of Pennsylvania elects Figgert over Curtis by 11 votes; Ainsworth, in Iowa, has 50 majority; Walsh, in Maryland, 78 majority; and Baker, in Indiana, 58 majority. Foster in Ohio, Dabney in Georgia, Farwell in Illinois, Tufts in Iowa, Boone in Kentucky, and Frost in Massachusetts are elected by less than 100 majority.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—In answer to scores of letters of inquiry, we state: The Fifth Gift Concert of the Kentucky Public Library will positively take place November 30, 1874, and there will be no postponement. The capital price will be $250,000. Save us the trouble of writing letters, good friends, and for information concerning this matter, drop a line to Gov. Thomas E. Bramlet, Louisville, Ky. You will receive full particulars by return mail. Please spare us.

A WALKING ADVERTISEMENT.

LIMESTONE SPRING, N. C. Dear Sir, I am writing to you in regard to your Golden Medal Discovery, Purgative Pills, and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Pills, they having cured me of Catarrh of nine years' standing, while curing I lost all my weight, and while curing I lost all my strength, and while curing I lost all my money, and while curing I lost all my health, and while curing I lost all my life. I am now a healthy man, and I am now a wealthy man, and I am now a happy man. I am now a man of honor, and I am now a man of respect. I am now a man of power, and I am now a man of influence. I am now a man of wealth, and I am now a man of success. I am now a man of fame, and I am now a man of glory. I am now a man of honor, and I am now a man of respect. I am now a man of power, and I am now a man of influence. I am now a man of wealth, and I am now a man of success. I am now a man of fame, and I am now a man of glory.

THE GREAT FAVORITE WITH THE LADIES. Mrs. Fanny Blynn & Son, druggists, of Live Oak, Fla., writes, Sept. 1874, "I have used your Golden Medal Discovery, Purgative Pills, and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Pills, they having cured me of Catarrh of nine years' standing, while curing I lost all my weight, and while curing I lost all my strength, and while curing I lost all my money, and while curing I lost all my health, and while curing I lost all my life. I am now a man of wealth, and I am now a man of success. I am now a man of fame, and I am now a man of glory."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was first made known to me by a single bottle often gives delicate and suffering women more relief than months of treatment from their family physician. In a few days suffering women are cured of all their troubles, nervous and general debility, and broken remedy. Its soothing and healing properties render it the most valuable medicine for internal fever, congestion, inflammation, and ulceration, and its invigorating effect result in the displacement of internal parasites, the result of a natural support. It is sold by all druggists.

OLD METHODS found to be faulty or objectionable discarded. A new and vastly advantageous plan hereby adopted!

OAK HALL

Already the Largest Clothing Concern in America, and leading the Trade, IT STARTS ON A NEW CAREER!! Thoroughly reorganized on a greatly improved Plan, By which it is hoped to double the already immense business of

WANAMAKER AND BROWN

ENORMOUS ESTABLISHMENT.

Thirteen years of interested and eager observation of different methods of doing business, while making and extending the largest clothing trade in the United States, have brought us to the following

Conclusions:

- 1st. That a customer has a right to some GUARANTEE that his purchase shall prove exactly as represented.
- 2d. That Cash throughout is the only basis, consistent with the very lowest prices.
- 3d. That, though justice does not require it, comfort and actual security in dealing are greatly promoted by giving to the purchaser the privilege not only of Exchange of Goods, but of returning the same within a given time, and have promptly paid back the Cash in full.
- 4th. That all customers buying at the same time, should pay precisely the same price for the same quality of goods.
- 5th. That no customers naturally inquire into the character and quality of articles offered for sale, and may not always be correctly informed, or fully understand the clerks, a Label, made under the authority and guarantee of the firm, bearing a printed description of the name and quality of the goods, should be attached to each article.

BUSINESS MEN thoroughly bent on upright dealing, have been thinking over, working out and experimenting on propositions similar to the above, and here and there is an establishment which has adopted one or another of these conclusions.

BUT WE UNHESITATINGLY ADOPT THEM ALL, and confidently relying on the approval and support of an intelligent and discriminating public, we suggest what we believe to be the best system in the world, and we

NOW ANNOUNCE THESE AS OUR CARDINAL POINTS.

EXPLANATION AND ELABORATION OF WANAMAKER & BROWN'S NEW PLAN.

Houses doing a credit business must provide for losses on bad debts. To bear such losses themselves would drive them out of business. Therefore a per cent is added to the price of each article sold, to cover this leakage, and Cash Buyers whether they really know it or not, pay the bad debts and the interest on the long credits of the other customers!

SO WE SAY CASH THROUGHOUT.

The fairness of this feature of our plan all will praise. It is simply treating all alike—extending nothing from indolence to bargain or ignorance, and at the same time, conceding nothing that shows up on the shrewdest customer's part could possibly extort, because the "One Price" which we mark on our goods, shall invariably be

NOT THE "First" Price, but the LAST and LOWEST PRICE.

In other words, Salesmen or "Handmen" are not allowed, under ordinary circumstances, to fall below a certain figure! It is at that, or at a lower figure, that we now determine to mark our goods, calculating the cost to the exact penny, and fixing the price at the low rate afforded where business is done on a large scale.

NOTE.—Whenever the exigencies of the season, the state of trade, or the money market may demand, the right is reserved to go through our stock before or after business hours and mark down any lot or lots of goods, changing the figures on all the labels, so that the new rates are the same to all, and all buy alike at the mark down prices.

WANAMAKER & BROWN WILL NEVER HOLD THEIR GOODS.

A printed Guarantee, bearing the signature of our firm, will accompany each garment as a Warranty. This is a sample:

GUARANTEE.

We hereby guarantee

1st. That the prices of our goods shall be as low as the same quality of material and manufacture are sold anywhere in the United States.

2d. That the prices are precise, and in every case for same quality, on same day of purchase.

3d. That the quality of goods is as represented on printed labels.

4th. That the full amount of cash paid will be refunded, if customers find the articles unsatisfactory, and return them unworn and unsoiled within 10 days of date of purchase.

[Signed] WANAMAKER & BROWN, Sixth and Market Streets, Philadelphia.

DATE,

4th Point. "Cash Returned."

This is simply a concession on our part to our customers, that they may have full confidence in dealing for goods that are very little short, and thus prevent any occasion for dissatisfaction from any, and every cause whatsoever. If the garment is not exactly what you thought, if it is a home folks' prefer another color or material, or shape, if you find you can buy the same material and style elsewhere for less money, if you wish you had not bought it, bring it back unworn and unsoiled, and the full amount of money you paid will be returned on the spot.

THE ADVANTAGES

Incident to a system having for its cardinal points these which we have explained, are innumerable. Saving of time and tempo, perfect security, absence of all huckstering, &c., &c. Good above all the rest.

IT MAKES CLOTHING CHEAP.

Sinking the prices several degrees below what they have been heretofore, or could possibly be under the old system.

By enforcing CASH Payments, the bad debts are avoided.

By putting plenty of ready money in hand, it enables us to buy goods at figures that credit men know nothing of.

By increase of sales, a smaller profit on each article is sufficient.

CHEAPNESS.

and this without lowering the quality or style of our Celebrated make of Men's and Boys' Clothing.

We have for years been working towards this point, and naturally falling into the average methods of trade, we observed and noted the defects of the old system, and have been carefully weighing for a long time these newer plans, and preparing for this

We now swing clear of all combinations or customs, and burn the bridge behind us.

INVESTIGATION IS ASKED INTO ALL WE HAVE HERE PUT FORTH.

Baking the hard-earned reputation of our house on the exact fulfillment of all the promises and conditions herein laid down.

On this new Plan, we begin business.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1874

Marvellous and Unprecedented increase of Business for which we are well prepared.

With the improvements above noted, there are also new styles, new colors, new cuts and more careful finishing. Everything possible has been done to meet and satisfy the public, and now

LET IT BEGIN.

THE NEW IMPROVED REMINGTON SEWING MACHINE
AWARDED
THE "Medal for Progress,"
AT VIENNA, 1874.

The Highest Order of "Medal" Awarded at the Exposition.
No Sewing Machine Received a Higher Prize.

A FEW GOOD REASONS.

1. A New Invention Thoroughly Tested and Approved by Letters Patent.
2. It is a perfect lock stitch, alike on both sides, and all kinds of goods.
3. Runs Light, Smooth, Noiseless and Rapid—best combination of qualities.
4. Durable—Runs for Years without Repair.
5. Will do all varieties of Work and Fancy Stitching in a superior manner.
6. Is Most Easily Managed by the operator. Length of stitch may be altered, a wide range of needle and thread can be used without passing through holes.

Design Simple, Ingenious, Elegant, forming the basis of the use of the Sewing Machine, Rotary, Sewer, or Lever Arms. Has the Automatic Drop Feed, which insures uniform length of stitch at any speed. Has a Thread Controller, which allows easy movement of needle-bar and prevents injury to thread.

Construction most careful and finished. It is manufactured by the most skillful and experienced mechanics at the celebrated Remington Sewing Machine Works, N. Y. New York office No. 6 Madison Square, (Kurtz's Building).

A SUBSTITUTE FOR QUININE.

For years, quinine was regarded as the only specific for malarial fevers, and its use was almost universal. It was, however, a very objectionable drug, and its use was often discontinued. It was, therefore, a great desideratum to find a substitute for quinine. This desideratum has now been supplied by the discovery of a new and powerful antimalarial agent, which is a perfect substitute for quinine. It is a powerful antimalarial agent, and its use is recommended in all cases of malarial fever. It is a perfect substitute for quinine, and its use is recommended in all cases of malarial fever.
