

TASTE CONFERENCE

E-Books: The Mobile Friendly Choice

Goals for this Session

- o Understand what E-books are and why faculty and students should use them.
- o Learn how to access them via OneSearch.
- o Learn how to download E-books to your mobile device.
- o Get some tips and tricks on using OneSearch to find articles and more.
  - o Learn how to link e-books from within Blackboard for student use.
- o Learn how to access electronic reference books through Credo Reference and Gale Virtual Reference Library.
- o Answer any questions you may have about OneSearch or E-books.

What is an E-Book?

- o Merriam-Webster online defines an e-book as:
  - o a book composed in or converted to digital format for display on a computer screen or handheld device (retrieved 05/13/15 from <http://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/e-book>)

You might think we only have very serious e-books

Why Use an E-Book?

- Accessible 24/7.
- Never have to remember to return the book when done using it.
- Current set-up for e-books is to purchase access for 1 person at a time.
  - Working with the library and your department liaison, there is the option for adding access for multiple users.
- Can assign students to read a chapter of the e-book – cuts down on cost of books for students.
- Can print a small portion of the book so you can highlight parts and make notes.

Print Book vs E-Book

- o The Ort Library provides access to over 100,000 e-books.
  - o Started with EBSCO in 2012.
  - o Added EBL last year.
  - o Most e-books are current titles.
- o In comparison, we have about 250,000 print books in the library from 1800's to present.
- o There would be no way we as a library would be able to add as many print books as we have access to e-books in just a couple years.

Print Book vs E-Book

- o Do you allow students to use e-books for assignments when you ask for a book to be used?
  - o Why or why not?
- o Most e-books are exactly like the print book, just in a different format.
- o We allow students to use articles found via the libraries electronic database and do not force them to use the print versions.
  - o Move away from thinking about format only.
  - o Have students evaluate the resource based on content.

Access E-Books via OneSearch

- OneSearch allows you to search for articles, books, e-books, and other resources that the library offers using a Google-like search box available on the library's homepage.
- OneSearch will search the library catalog (including items available here at FSU and items available at other USM campus libraries) and most of the library's databases.

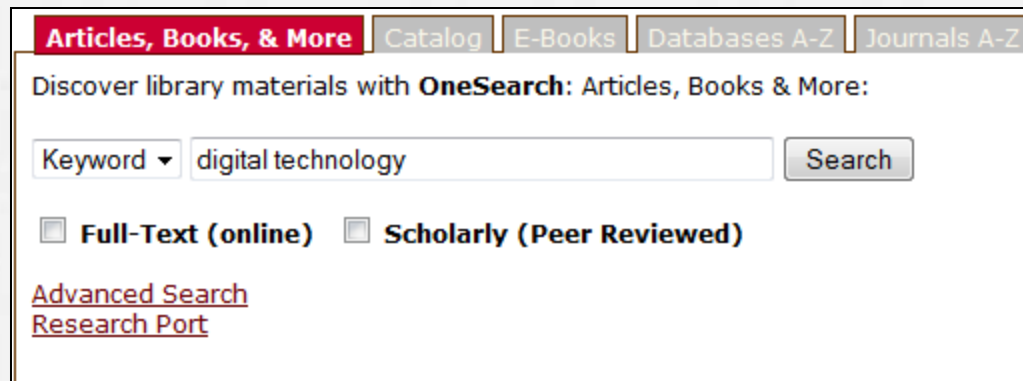

The screenshot shows the OneSearch library search interface. At the top, there are five tabs: "Articles, Books, & More" (highlighted in red), "Catalog", "E-Books", "Databases A-Z", and "Journals A-Z". Below the tabs, the text "Discover library materials with OneSearch: Articles, Books & More:" is displayed. A search box contains the placeholder text "Keyword" followed by a dropdown arrow and a text input field. To the right of the input field is a "Search" button. Below the search box, there are two checkboxes: "Full-Text (online)" and "Scholarly (Peer Reviewed)". At the bottom left, there are two links: "Advanced Search" and "Research Port". At the bottom right, there is a "Help" link.

This is the search box you will see on the library's home page.

Downloading E-books to a mobile device

In this section, you will learn the steps to download an e-book to an iPhone.

It works just as well on other Apple and Android devices.

Reading an E-Book on a Mobile Device

- You may want to read an e-book while you are working on a mobile device.
- There are two ways to read an e-book on your mobile device.
  - Access via the full site to read the PDF/EPUB document (handout available).
  - Download the e-book to your mobile device (will show today).

Download the E-book to your Mobile Device

- Steps to download an e-book to your mobile device:
  - Download the BlueFire Reader App.
  - Create an Adobe ID to authorize the BlueFire Reader App.
  - Create a MyEBSCOhost account.
  - Search OneSearch for the e-book you want to download.
  - Log into MyEBSCOhost account.
  - Download the e-book for 1-14 days.
  - Access e-book via BlueFire Reader.

Download the Blue FireReader App

- o The BlueFire Reader app is available for both Apple and Android products.
- o It is a free app in both the Apple Store and Google Play Stores.

Authorize the BlueFire Reader App

- After downloading the BlueFire Reader, you must authorize it to work on your mobile device.
- You will need an Adobe ID to do this. The app provides an option to log in or create a free Adobe ID.
- Once you authorize BlueFire Reader with your Adobe ID, you don't have to enter your Adobe information again.

BlueFire Reader app after you have authorized it.

Search on your Mobile Device

- Search on the topic of social media.
- Refine your results – select only e-books.
- We found the book we want to look at – Social Media and the Integrated Marketing Communication.
- To access the e-book, click on the title.

To Download the Book

Information about the book

Click Download (Offline) in order to download the book to your mobile device.

You need to have a My EBSCOhost account or you can create one the first time you download an e-book.

Each time you download an e-book through OneSearch, you will need to enter your My EBSCOhost username/password.

Download E-Book

Once the book is downloaded, it will then open up the webpage to have you open BlueFire Reader.

In this example you can choose to checkout from 1 – 14 days. Sometimes you will only have a choice of a specific number of days.

Open in BlueFire Reader

Again, this works the same way on Apple and Android products.

Coming Soon!!

- o EBSCOhost app just to access e-books.
- o Won't have to have an Adobe ID or the BlueFire Reader app.
- o One app to search, access, and download e-books.
- o Keep watch on the library's website and via e-mail for announcements!

Credo Reference and Gale Virtual Reference Library

This section will provide information on accessing online reference resources.

Why Use these Databases?

- Sometimes you are just looking for some quick information about a topic or need to get some background information on a topic.
- These are electronic encyclopedias and dictionaries that can be accessed 24/7.

How to access???

- To access these 2 reference databases you would first click on the Databases A-Z Tab.

- Once on the Tab, select the Link Databases A-Z.

The screenshot shows the "Databases A-Z" page. The navigation bar has "Databases A-Z" highlighted in red. The main content area says "Databases A-Z lists the approximately 60 databases available to the Frostburg State University Community." Below this is a link "Search databases by category at Research Port." At the bottom, it says "Off-campus login required for database access."

How to access???

- Click on the Letter that corresponds with the database you want to use:
  - C for Credo Reference.
  - G for Gale Virtual Reference Library.
- If you are off-campus, you will be prompted for your barcode (usually starts with 2206) and your last name to access the databases.
