Nearly sixty ladies and gentlemen

visited "Camden Hill," the residence of Miss M. Alice Freney, last Monday evening to honor to the twenty-first lighted and the guests moved at will

Many pleasant conversations were enjoyed during the evening and dancing

was an entertaining feature.

The costumes of the ladies were very pretty, and many admiring remarks escaped the lips of the gentlemen.

School Board Proceedings.

The school board was in session Wednesday with a full attendance. Mr. Gun-

by met the Board relative to the settlement for the heaters in the high school building. The matter was referred to a committee composed of Messrs. Cannon,

Perry, Secretary was instructed to notify the trustees of Delmar school to occupy the new school building next Monday. Mr. E. G. Mills and others were before the Board to renew their proposition to have the larger school house

near Delmar belonging to the school

Board to the intersection of the public road from Delmar to E. G. Mills' with the new county road running from the Wood farm to Connelly's mill, put the same in condition to occupy, including brick, work and any plastering that may be damaged from moving and etc. all free, provided the Board would establish a school. The Board accepted the proposition and agreed to open the school

as an auxiliary of Delmar school at the beginning of the winter term.

George H. Larnore, Thomas A. Lankford and A. D. Insley were appointed

Trustees of school No. 3 Tyskin, the patrons of which agreed to put the house in condition for occupancy and rent to the Board at $2.00 per month during occupancy.

George W. Cathell was appointed

PROHIBITIONISTS IN CONVENTION.

The prohibition party of this county

met in convention at the Court House in Salisbury last Tuesday morning and was called to order by John E. Delany,

Esq. The following ticket was nominated: For the legislature—Dr. W. C. Mar-

ters, Thomas A. Nelson, and Jacob W.

Riggs. For County Commissioners—

James F. Messick, James Elsey, Wm. A.

Humphreys, Elton H. Parker and George

W. Robertson. For Sheriff—Alfred P.

Towdine.

Resolutions as follows were adopted:

We, the representatives of the Prohibition party of Wicomico county, in convention assembled, meeting in Almighty

God for guidance as to the quickest and surest way of abolishing the liquor traffic from county, State and Nation, and showing our faith by our works, and believing our votes mean our words, do

set forth our principles and submit them to all persons in the county for their careful and candid consideration, as follows:

WHEREAS, The liquor traffic has entered into politics as a controlling factor in our county, State and Nation, and threatens our free institutions, and

WHEREAS, The democratic and republican parties are so much dependent upon the liquor vote as to absolutely eliminate the success of either party without it; and

WHEREAS, The prohibition party is the only party that unequivocally offers us that for which we are seeking and praying—the total abolition of the liquor

as a beverage in State and Nation; and

WHEREAS, So-called non-partisan prohibition by states has proved ineffectual

because the amendments submitted by whatever party have been defeated by the party's machinery that submitted it;

and

WHEREAS, In certain localities of our county rumors to the effect that the prohibition party is waning, and that as a party it is not progressing in our county;

therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the prohibition party is becoming stronger in Wicomico county and at large in the United States.

Resolved, That we believe for an issue

the successful issue must have a party

pledged to enforce it, and therefore reaffirm our allegiance to the prohibition party until it succeeds in electing a President and Congress.

Resolved, That we denounce high license as an abominable fraud, as a bar-

work against prohibition instead of a solution for it, as a bribe to the voters,

and as we believe, the last resort of the liquor oligarchy; that it is vicious in principle, and powerless as a remedy.

Resolved, That we believe it the duty of all who honestly desire the overthrow of the liquor traffic—but as yet differ as to methods—to unite with the prohibition party and thus hasten the day to the total prohibition of the liquor traffic from county, State and Nation.

Resolved, That we protest in the strongest terms against the buying and selling of votes.

Resolved, That we invite to full party fellowship all who agree with us upon the foregoing principles of the prohibition party. Mr. Ebenezer White presided over the meeting, and I. H. Neck, Esq., acted as secretary.

COURT REPORT.

Chief Judge Irving and Associate Judge Richard Preston.

The September Term of the Circuit Court for Wisconsin county convened Monday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Irving and Holland on the bench.

The docket being called disclosed the following cases: Appearance, 62 Trials, 50 Appeals, 10, Replevin, 11, Criminal continuances, 11, Criminal Appearance, 4, Judicial, 33.

The following were drawn as grand jurors: King V. White, foreman, Lamar Collins, John Cooper, Minos W. Clapham, Levi D. Gory, John P. Owens, Nathaniel A. Conway, Allison W. Calloway, Leonard L. Duncan, Joseph W. Ward, James H. Cullen, E. S. Hearn.

The first case called for appeal, Prindle vs. administrators of Mrs. Eleanor Woolford. This was a case in which Mrs. Prindle had recovered judgment before Justice Riggins, of Quantico for $30, for services as nurse during the last sickness of Mrs. Woolford. The administrators of Mrs. Woolford appealed from the decision of the Justice. The Court sustained the decision of the Justice. Graham & Graham for appellant; J. E. Ellegood and Jay Williams for appellee. Court then adjourned until Tuesday morning.

Tuesday morning Court called at 9 o'clock, with Judges Irving and Holland on the bench. The case of State vs. E. William Perdue, charged with forgery, came to trial. This case occupied the entire morning, and at one o'clock the jury retired to their room, where they remained until nine o'clock Wednesday morning. A verdict was arrived at about 6 o'clock in the morning.

Court is still in session as we go to press.

Our Circulating Library.

The Sons of Temperance are making an effort to open a public reading room at their headquarters over the News Office. A sub-committee consisting of Rev. M. J. Eckels, Messrs. L. McKim Porter and W. H. Hillman, waited on the directors of the Salisbury Circulating Library, and proposed that the library be moved to their room on Main street.

It was the opinion that the library could be made more useful to the community by keeping it open every evening for the benefit of the stockholders, who wish to go there to read in a room comfortably heated and properly lighted, and located in a convenient place for persons wishing to visit it to take out books.

The committee representing the Division proposed to place the library in their room free of rent and employ a librarian to keep the room open every evening in the week except Sunday from 7 to 9:30, and one afternoon, the stockholders to have the same privilege as heretofore, and any person in want of the library by paying $2.00 per year as heretofore, or the use of it while in the reading room by paying 5 cents per week. The directors will probably issue a call to the stockholders of the Library Association in a few days to meet and consider the proposition.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Items Gathered from the Various Sections of the County.

SHARPTOWN, Sept. 25.—Dr. L. P. Mitchell is very sick. Dr. Ellegood, of Laurel has most of his practice.

John H. Smith, postmaster, is attending court this week as juror. Levin T. Cooper has charge of the postoffice.

Miss Lizzie M. Twiford left here this week for Tyaskin, where she has accepted an appointment as teacher in the graded school there. She is a graduate of Salisbury High School and will, no doubt, make an acceptable teacher.

At the sale of Capt. J. W. Selby's property last week Charles W. Selby purchased the home place at $555, and S. C. Cooper the "Fort" for $100, about the wharf at $65.

The town commissioners have put a claim payment on a part of Water street thus adding to the comfort of pedestrians.

Rev. Fletcher Marine, who died in Salisbury last week has two sisters in this town and other relatives. He also owned valuable town property here.

RAINSWORTH, Va., Sept. 25.—Although I believe the correspondence department of your paper is intended more especially for local use, yet I do not think that an occasional contribution from an old subscriber will be rejected even though his present abode be not situated within the confines of his native State. It is not until we are removed from the scenes of our childhood that we fully appreciate the institutions which have been familiar from infancy, true the Advantages has always been a welcome visitor, but since it finds us on the soil of the "Old Dominion" its advent has become doubly desirable.

This part of Virginia is rather behind the times in modern improvements especially in this case in the matter of railroads, the country is cut up with water courses which act in two ways against the building of a road. First, they are a cheap and easy transportation for freight and passengers. Secondly, they necessitate the erection of a great many bridges thus requiring a large amount of capital. These hindrances however would be rapidly overcome by the average Yankee but alas the push and energy requisite to enterprise of this kind are not frequently found among the people of the "Sunny South."

Here as elsewhere the all absorbing subject of politics pervades the atmosphere and agitates alike the wealthy planter and the log cabin dweller. It is to be supposed that the democrats have a candidate for governor but "only the well informed who know his name. Many of the town's great men are on each day we hear him cursed, reviled, spat upon and annihilated, and we being unacquainted with the man's history have come to the conclusion that of all the bad men who ever dwelt upon the earth, Mahone is the most thoroughly wicked and it is a matter of much conjecture with us as to why the Allwise Creator allows so unworthy a specimen of humanity to pollute the land. Notwithstanding the seeming unpopularity of the republican nominee, we are informed by the leading politicians that the fight will be a close one, although 'tis generally thought that Mr. McKinney will be elected. GRAY EAGLE.

Congressional Committee.

Mr. Humphreys, President of the Board, was absent at the regular meeting of the county commissioners last Tuesday. Business as follows was transacted:

Mr. Levin S. Gory was authorized to have road near Court in 2nd district, called Spring Hill road, ditched.

The treasurer was ordered to pay A. F. Owens $7.00 for hog; $16.25 for ditching on alms house farm; 75 cents for repairing dearborn spring; $2.00 for hauling ditch bank and $1.00 for work on pump, and $10.00 on salary; also to pay John H. Smith $2.50 for white washing jail, and P. M. Fooks $1.00 for repairing same.

Albion Austin was granted pension of $1.00 from October 1st.

The following were appointed Judges of election, the first named in each case to act as return Judge:

1st District—Clement M. Wright, James Gillis, Richard V. Taylor.

2d District—John W. Holloway, T. W. Posey, Marcellus Bailey.

9th—William S. Parsons, E. J. Holloway, George W. Ellis.

AMID THE FRAGRANCE AND STRAWBERRY.

Things that Happen in the Great Peninsula Garden "Between the Days."

The second annual fair of Chesapeake Agricultural Fair Association, Cape Charles, Va., will begin Monday, October 7th, and continue five days.

As the nominee for clerk on the democratic ticket has declined to run, it is highly probable that the place on the ticket will be left vacant.—Princess Anne Herald.

Report came here Thursday of the falling on Shaugher beach near Milford the body of a woman with a child clasped in her arms about five or six months old. Both were buried on the beach at that place.—Breakwater Light.

A company has been formed and chartered in the city of Wilmington to conduct the silk culture and manufacture in all its branches. A farm of 200 acres has been bargained for near the city at a cost of $30,000. The stock is placed at $25 per share.

Mr. Joseph E. Bowdell sold at private sale on Monday 4 months old mare colt for $100, and not long since sold 3 weeks old colt for $125. These are good prices for Talbot colts and it goes to show the kind of stock Mr. Bowdell has on his farm.—Eastern Star.

A sea turtle 10 feet long, 5 feet wide, and weighing 1,000 pounds, was caught recently in a trap off South Harwich, Cape Cod. This monster is estimated to be fully 200 years old. As it stands the distance between its fore flippers is over 10 feet.—Breakwater Light.

Mr. E. T. Towne has a great curiosity concerning a brood of chickens with an old hen. It is a chicken with four legs and feet. It walks on two of them and holds the other two up. It seems to be sprightly as any of the rest of the brood.—Princess Anne Marylander.

Mrs. Thomas Giles, organist of the M. P. church at Oxford, Md., was taken ill by the grip. She passed peacefully away on the Sunday evening. Her sudden death was quite a shock to the community and especially to her intimate friends. Mrs. Giles was a Miss Gosselin of Linkwood, Md., before her marriage, which her widowed mother opposed. She however, ran away and was married to Giles at Sharptown, in December of 1884, at the age of sixteen.

The topographical engineers, who have been surveying the Manokin river for the last three or four weeks, have completed their labor and will immediately make their report to their superior officers. One of the gentlemen, engaged on the work told us that he was surprised to find the Manokin river such a fine waterway as the survey shows it to be. And the farms bordering its banks, were five times more valuable than he supposed.

Two sons of Mr. Andrew Reid, who resides near Harlock, ran off from their father's home on Monday night. They were aged about 12 and 16 years respectively, and no cause can be assigned for their strange conduct, as their home was a very pleasant one. They will be out to look for them on Tuesday morning, but up to last accounts he had not succeeded in finding them. He thought they may have gone to Delaware where they have relatives. The boys have probably been reading some trashy novels.—Cambridge News.

The surveys of the B. & E. R. R. have completed the line to this town and this morning crossed the river on their way to Barren Creek. The party is in fine health and spirits, with the exception of one gentleman who has been so unfortunate as to form too close an acquaintance with the pest of our country, "poison oak." Mr. Collins, of Georgetown, D. C., is the head of the party, and is leading his men with industry and skill. I am informed that the contractors are now bridging the Choptank and will be at work on the Nanticoke bridge at least by the first of November. When the work is completed it will be an imperishable monument to the energy and pluck of Messrs. Joseph B. Seth and Theophilus Tunia, two citizens who will have done more for the development of the Eastern Shore than has been done by all of us within the last half century.—Vienna Cor., Cambridge News.

Change of Text Books.

The following notice relative to the exchange of text books, has been issued to the teachers of the county by the School Board. We publish it for the benefit of the patrons of the schools.

Office School Board, Salisbury, Md., Sept. 25, 1889.

To the Teachers.—The School Board has consummated a contract, through Messrs. Wm. J. C. Dulany & Co., to place in our schools Ficklin's Series of Arithmetic, to take the place of Davies', free exchange. The terms are: Ficklin's Davies', Ficklin's Elementary for Davies' Elements of Written Arithmetic, or for two Davies' Primary. This exchange must be made before the close of the Fall term. It is desired that the teachers collect all the books in their respective school districts to be exchanged and send them in at one time to Mr. Waller, who will make the exchange. Children who have been pupils of the school and have not yet started, but that you are satisfied will do, during the Winter term, are at liberty to send in their old books now to be exchanged, as no opportunity will be given them after the close of the term. Make the exchange as soon as possible. The Board have examined the new book pretty thoroughly, and consider it about the best on the market. Very truly,

TELL-TALE WHISKERS.

HOW THEY INDICATE THE CHARACTERS OF THE WEARERS.

A Man's Good and Bad Qualities Can Usually Be Read by the Signs of His Whiskers. According to the Experts, That the Beard Man Has a Little of the Best of It.

The subject of beards furnishes an interesting study as indicating the dispositions of persons. There is nothing particularly marked about the characteristics of the "bearded youth," as his purpose in life and his character can hardly be said to be fixed. However, as he grows into manhood and matures his beard to his taste, the style he finally adopts will usually indicate his ideas of life. There is, of course, nothing particularly remarkable about young mustaches, and the little dusky side whiskers, worn wedge shape just below the eyes. They may be termed simply marks of youth. The absence altogether of whiskers and mustache in a man whose character and habits of life have become fixed and unchangeable, indicates a frank, open-hearted disposition, with a great regard for the truth and the courage to tell it, with nothing to conceal and no consciousness that is clear and apparent as his clean shaven face. He is usually a plain, unpretentious man, who pays more attention to the storing of his mind with useful information and the domestic side of life than the adornment of his person.

USE OF THE IRON WILL.
The man of iron will and firmness of purpose is he who wears a full, thick, bushy beard. If he is a man of brain and had the benefit of cultured experience, although firm in his purposes and unchangeable in his ideas, he will grant you your argument if you are reasonable. But on the other hand, if he is uneducated and inexperienced in business affairs, he will prove to be an unyielding and unchangeable antagonist, bearing in the extreme. Having only a superficial knowledge of life, he will not permit you to give an opinion contrary to his own. The long flowing pointed beard, worn by such characters as William and John Calvin did not indicate any particular trait of character in their day, as they were only worn to serve as a contrast to the clean shaven faces of the Roman Catholic priesthood. These long beards are worn as a rule by the clergy of some denominations today. There is a plausible statement about their becoming to doctors of divinity. The elongation of the countenance is materially aided by such beards, and the changes of facial expression are not so plainly observed. A man with such a beard has little reason to look proud, no matter how great a sinner he may be. Ordinarily persons in this day and age who emulate this style of beard may be found among members of some church, or hovering about the vestibule of the house of the Lord, borrowing money for some sinister or mercenary motive. This motive is not pure, he is what we would commonly call a hypocrite. If pure, his hair would be as thick as his beard, and he would pay less attention to accumulating a little of this world's goods than to the details of the church. Men who wear their beards in this style are usually lovers of fine horses, and to distinguish between the lively man and the deacon who have only to contrast the quick glances of the former with the slow, mild expression of that of the latter.

Perhaps the most marked index of the character of a man is his mustache. He is generally possessed of a fine physique, and prides himself on his shape. He is usually a gourmand, whose appetite is easily excited, and he is usually very vain, and his vanity is usually very easily excited. He is usually a man of high living and a self-consciousness that is utterly oblivious to the importance of his surroundings, is a characteristic of the man of this style of mustache. He is usually a man of high living and a self-consciousness that is utterly oblivious to the importance of his surroundings, is a characteristic of the man of this style of mustache. Die in a Courtroom.
Mr. Ken Chesapeake, one of the most prominent attorneys of Western Kentucky, died suddenly Saturday afternoon in the courtroom at Morehead, Ky. He was attorney in a suit between some heirs, and had just finished his plea, when he turned suddenly ill, saying: "I believe I am going to die." Two friends heard him utter this assistance and at his death, and he died at 10:30. "What, am I dead?" then breathed his last. His death was caused from rheumatism of the heart.

A Daughter of the East.
"Did Mr. Granderson ever speak to you, papa?"
"Yes, he has; but he had asked you to marry him, and you had consented, and then he wanted my permission."
"And what did you say, papa, dear?"
"You consented, of course?"
"No, I told him if you had said 'yes,' that settled it. And anything I 'yes,' or do wouldn't make the slightest difference."—Grip.

Advice to Mothers.
Mrs. Winklow's Sore Throat Syrup should always be used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens his gums, keeps all pain, cures his colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A Suitable Epitaph.
It has often been said that the chief characteristic of the English is its lack of veracity, but it is perhaps better that it should err on the side of kindness rather than wound the living by a brutal truthfulness, as in the case of an inscription written for the tombstone of a lady by one who knew her well. "Adieu, my dear,"—Editor's Drawer of Harper's Magazine for October.

Our Dover State Fair managers know how to make their patrons comfortable. They have made these annual meetings great gatherings of the people for social, intercourse and enjoyment. Everybody will go to see everybody else. With ample accommodations, large exhibits, liberal premiums, good music and an attractive programme of amusements, the Delaware State Fair is an assured success.

A London correspondent says that the queen "wears no large stones or flashing gems." Coincidentally, we may remark that it is the same way with a queen though the probabilities are that the queen gets the biggest salary.—Norris-town Herald.

Their gentle action and good effect on the system really make a perfect little pill. They please those who use them. Carter's Little Liver Pills may well be termed "Perfection."

Stupor, who has just celebrated his tin wedding, says he never expects to get the best of a woman in an argument; that it is simply a question of defeat or compromise.

The list of entries for the speed trials at the Dover State Fair will be a splendid assurance of a week of rare sports and enjoyment to all who love to see good horse racing.

The Southern colored woman who shot at a whip man and hit the minister says she doesn't wonder if he was beguiled by the serpent. When the parson dropped the felt like Cain.

No one knows better than those who have used Carter's Little Liver Pills what relief they have given when taken for dyspepsia, indigestion, pain in the side, constipation, and disordered stomach.

Beginner. "Fly a poor woman madam. I have not eaten a morsel of food to-day."
Lady. "Ah, my poor creature, we all have been obliged to give up my opera box."
