SELECTED.

SUCH THINGS WERE.

SCENES of my youth! ye once were dear,
Though sadly I your charms survey;
I once was wont to linger here,
From early dawn to closing day.
Scenes of my youth! pale sorrow flings
A shade o'er all your beauties now,
And robs the moments of their wings,
That scatter pleasure as they flow,
While to heighten every care,
Reflection tells me—Such things were.

'Twas here a tender father strove
To keep my happiness in view;
I smil'd beneath a mother's love,
Who soft compassion ever knew,
In them the virtues all combin'd,
On them I could with faith rely,
To them my heart and soul were join'd,
By mild affection's primal tie;
Who smile in heav'n exempt from care,
Whilst I remember—Such things were.

'Twas here, where calm and tranquil rest
O'erpay'd the peasant for his toil,
That first in blessing I was blest,
With glowing friendship's open smile.
My friend far distant deem'd to roam,
Now braves the fury of the seas;
He fled his peaceful, happy home,
His little fortune to increase;
While bleeds afresh the wound of care,
When I remember—Such things were.

'Twas here, 'e'en in this bloomy grove
I fondly gaz'd on Laura's charms,
Who blushing own'd a mutual love,
And sigh'd responsive in my arms.
Though hard the foul conflicting strife,
Yet Fate, the cruel tyrant, bore
Far from my sight the charms of life,
The lovely maid whom I adore:
'Twould ease my soul of all my care,
Could I forget that—Such things were.

Here first I saw the morn appear
Of guiltless pleasure's shining day;
I met the dazzling brightness here,
Here mark'd the soft declining ray.
Behold the skies, whose streaming light,
Gave splendor to the parting sun,
Now lost in sorrow's fable night,
And all their mingled glories gone!
Till death in pity end my care,
I must remember—Such things were.

THE GLEANER.

* DEVOTION is neither private nor public prayers; but prayers, whether private or public, are particular parts or influences of devotion. Devotion signifies a life given or devoted to God.

He, therefore, is the devout man, who lives no longer to his own will, or the way and spirit of the world, but to the sole will of God; who considers God in every thing, who serves God in every thing, who makes all the parts of his common life, parts of piety, doing every thing in the name of God, and under such rules as are conformable to his glory.

We readily acknowledge, that God alone is to be the rule and measure of our prayers, that in them we are to look wholly unto him, and act wholly for him; that we are only to pray in such a manner, for such things, and such ends, as are suitable to his glory. Now, let any one but find out the reason why he is to be thus strictly pious in his prayers, and he will find the same as strong a reason to be as strictly pious in all the other parts of his life. For the only reason why our prayers should have nothing in them but what is wise, and holy, and heavenly, is, that our lives may be of the same nature, full of the same wisdom, holiness, and heavenly tempers, that we may live unto God in the same spirit that we pray unto him. Were it not our strict duty to live by reason, to devote all the actions of our lives unto God, were it not absolutely necessary to walk before him in wisdom and holiness, doing every thing in his name, and for his glory, there would be no prayers. Nay, such prayers would be duties; they would be like prayers for wings, when it was no part of our duty to fly.

As sure, therefore, as there is any wisdom in praying for the spirit of God, so sure is it, that we are to make that spirit the rule of all our actions. As sure as it is our duty to look wholly unto God in our prayers, so sure is it, that it is our duty to live wholly unto God in our lives. So that unreasonable and absurd ways of life, whether in labour or diversion, whether they consume our time, or our money, are like unreasonable and absurd prayers; and are as truly an offence unto God.

* For this selection I am indebted to Law's Serious Call, a work which stands high in the estimation of christians of every denomination, and of which it is no mean praise to say that Dr. Johnson acknowledged, that it was the first which aroused him to the confi-

It is for want of knowing, or at least considering this, that we see such a mixture of ridicule in the lives of some people. You see them strict as to some times and places of devotion; but when the service of the church is over, they are like those that seldom or never come there. In their way of life, their manner of spending their time and money, in their cares and fears, their pleasures and indulgencies, in their labour and diversions, they are like the rest of the world. It is this which makes the loose part of the world point their ridicule against those that are devout; because they see their devotion goes no farther than their prayers; that they live by the same humour of fancy, and in as full an enjoyment of all the follies of life, as other people. This is the reason why they are the jest and scorn of the irreligious, not because they appear to have no other devotion but that of occasional prayers.

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic, it is not puffed up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully efficacious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates of respectable characters, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also consulted, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Toothach, Pleurisy, Cholick, Cramps, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Croup and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone.

It seems also as if nature had ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorants for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with a thickish or Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stooping or lying down, are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeable to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

No. 1. Sept. 1809.

I do certify, that I have been ailing nearly two years with a hectic cough and violent impression at the breast—I applied to the most eminent physicians and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief. I take this method of informing the public of the efficacy of this valuable medicine, from the cures which I have experienced—I think it an incumbent duty to offer the same to the public.

ELISHA SOWARD.

Baltimore No. 16, Water-street, sign of the plough.

No. 2. Sept. 1809.

SIR, From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sore throat, about the 26th of August, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of molasses, which took away pieces of purrid flesh and healed my throat in about 48 hours.

N. B. I also certify, that I nursed my grandchild, and infant of 17 months old which was taken about the first of August with slow fevers and loss of appetite. We immediately applied for a physician, who gave every attention for about 10 days but all to no effect; the child was given up by the physicians, and had every appearance of death, when I applied for Paul's Columbian Oil, and gave five drops morning and evening, for five days, when the child began to recover, and is now in perfect health.

MARY UNDERWOOD.

Baltimore, by Peter's Bridge.

No. 3. Sept. 6.

I hereby certify, that I had a cough and pain in my stomach for upwards of two years, when I was recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I procured one phial of that valuable medicine, which has relieved me to a good state of health again.

THOMAS ELLIOTT.

On the Hook's-town road near the turnpike gate.

No. 4. Feb. 12, 1809.

I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil, I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.

N. B. I had a violent toothach about two or three months ago, when I dropped a few drops of the above oil on some lint, and applied it to the tooth affected, and I received immediate relief.

ELEANOR ELLIOTT.

No. 5.

I comply with your request of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the tetter worm. I have been afflicted with the tetter in my hand for 12 years, and have made trial of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect. Hearing of Paul's Columbian Oil, about the 15th of January last, proving an effectual cure for the ringworm and similar complaints, I immediately got a phial of your Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions for about two months successively—when the tetter left me, and has not made its appearance since.

SUSANNA PURDEN.

N. B. My Susanna, a child aged 20 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough; I gave her six drops of the Columbian Oil, which gave immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.

John Sullivan and John Murray, vs.

Samuel Young.

THE object of the bill is to obtain a sale of a house and lot in the precincts of Annapolis, for the payment of the debts due by John Young, deceased. The bill states, that John Muir sold the said house and lot to Absolute Phelps and John Young, who paid a part of the purchase money, and that the said Phelps transferred his interest to the said Young. The bill also states, that Samuel Young is the heir at law of John, and resides out of the State; that John Muir departed this life leaving John Murray his devisee, and who has since taken letters of administration on his estate. The bill further states, that the complainants are still creditors of the said John Young, and that his personal property, has been insufficient to pay his debts. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the 16th day of June next, give notice to the said absent defendant of this application, and warn him to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 16th day of October, to show cause, (if any there be,) why a decree shall not pass as prayed.

CHURCH LOTTERY.

THE Managers having understood that many of the Citizens have delayed purchasing Tickets, from an apprehension that the drawing would not commence until a distant day. To remove such impressions, and with a view to attain the objects contemplated by the law, as soon as possible, they confidently assure the public, that the sale of a few more Tickets will justify them in commencing the drawing; they therefore earnestly solicit all those disposed to purchase to come forward, and notify to some one of the Managers, what number of Tickets they are willing to take.

I BEG leave respectfully, to notify my friends, that I have again been appointed, and have duly qualified, as Collector of Anne-Arundel county; and to remind them that the annual period for the performance of the trust is fast approaching, when, I sincerely hope, they will, with convenience to themselves, be found prepared to pay their respective accounts. From the well known disposition generally manifested by the citizens of Anne-Arundel county to discharge their taxes, and in due time, it is evident they are fully apprized of the important responsibility and fatiguing labour of the collector; that he is merely an agent in regard to the debtors and creditors of the county, and that too much indulgence cannot be shewn to one without injury to another; and of course his discretionary powers are limited by duty.
Many individuals obligingly facilitated my collection last year by sending the amount of their accounts to town, for which I beg them to accept my sincere thanks, and flatter myself I shall receive similar favours the present year; and I beg leave to inform them that all payments made to Mr. William Warfield, at Mr. Joseph Evans's store; will be gratefully acknowledged.

Land for Sale.

WILL be sold, at private sale, if immediate application is made, that valuable farm, lying on Herring Bay, the property of George Hogarth, Esquire, containing 972 acres more or less. The greater part of this land is immensely rich, it having been in a state of improvement, and uncultivated for near twenty years. The improvements are general and of the best kind. These lands possess every advantage that nature could possibly bestow on them—a very great proportion of this land abounds in every species of valuable ship and other timber, sufficient to pay the purchase money. The terms of sale will be moderate and accommodating. For further particulars be pleased to apply to the undersigned, who is duly authorized to contract for the same.

Taxes are Certain.

I BEG leave respectfully, to notify my friends, that I have again been appointed, and have duly qualified, as Collector of Anne-Arundel county; and to remind them, that the annual period for the performance of the trust is fast approaching, when, I sincerely hope, they will, with convenience to themselves, be found prepared to pay their respective accounts. From the well known disposition generally manifested by the citizens of Anne-Arundel county to discharge their taxes, and in due time, it is evident they are fully apprized of the important responsibility and fatiguing labour of the collector; that he is merely an agent in regard to the debtors and creditors of the county, and that too much indulgence cannot be shown to one without injury to another; and of course his discretionary powers are limited by duty. Many individuals obligingly facilitated my collection last year by sending the amount of their accounts to town, for which I beg them to accept my sincere thanks, and flatter myself I shall receive similar favours the present year; and I beg leave to inform them that all payments made to Mr. William Warfield, at Mr. Joseph Evans's store, will be gratefully acknowledged.

LANDS AND LOTS

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber, agreeably to the trusts reposed in him by an act of the Legislature of Maryland, passed at November session last, and by virtue of an order of the chancellor dated the fifth day of March last, will expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, on the days and at the places hereinafter mentioned, the following lands and lots, being part of the real estate of John Grinn, Esquire, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased; that is to say,

On Tuesday the twenty-third of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Union Tavern in the city of Annapolis,

One acre lot, being part of a tract of land called "Acton" lying in the precincts of the said city, on the road leading to Baltimore, and at present occupied by John Hicks. This lot is under enclosure, and has thereon an old stable and several fruit trees.

Also lots numbered 62, 63 and 64, in the said city, near the Bath. These lots are separate into two distinct enclosures, and will be sold by enclosure. One of them is enclosed by a good post and rail fencing, and is in a high state of cultivation, with a number of very excellent fruit trees thereon, and a large and commodious stable and carriage house, in good order and repair.

The other is paid in, is highly improved as a garden, with a number of excellent fruit trees thereon, and has an exposure favorable to the production of the earliest fruits and vegetables. There is also upon it a very good dwelling-house suitable for the residence of a small family.

On Saturday, the twenty-seventh of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Nicholas Watkins, at Elk Ridge Landing,

Parts of three tracts of land, viz. "Henderson's Meadows," "Young's Locust Plains," and "Addition to Samson," containing agreeably to a survey thereof lately made, 327 1-2 acres. These tracts, (all adjoining each other,) lie between 3 and 4 miles from Elk Ridge Landing, and a part thereof is at present rented to Mr. Francis Lawrence, who will shew the premises to any person inclined to purchase.

On Saturday, the third of August next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Richard Kirby, (on part of the premises,) on Deep creek, in Anne-Arundel county,

The following tracts or parcels of land, viz. "Rural Felicity," containing 223 1-2 acres; "Pratt's Neck," containing 201 1-2 acres; "Deep Creek Point," containing 80 1-2 acres; "Goldborough's Choice," containing 114 acres; "The Chesapeake," containing 58 1-4 acres; "Greenwood," containing 129 1-2 acres; "Friendship," containing 58 7-8 acres, and "The Addition to Friendship," containing one acre and an half.

These lands are situated immediately on the Chesapeake Bay, nearly opposite to Poplar Island, and command a very extensive and beautiful prospect. The three first mentioned tracts, (adjoining each other,) are divided into three tenements, on which there are good houses for tenants, and they are separated from the five last mentioned tracts by Deep Creek, over which is a bridge. On the last mentioned tracts, (also adjoining each other,) is a very handsome brick dwelling-house two stories high, with two rooms and a large passage on the first floor, and five rooms and a small passage on the second; there are two piazzas, one in front and the other back. Adjoining the dwelling-house is an excellent brick pantry or store room, and a kitchen, and near them all necessary out-houses. Also a large and well built stable and a house for an overseer. On different parts of the farm are several quarters for the accommodation of servants, and a very large barn and granary, all of which are in good repair. Also a windmill, to which most of the neighbours send their grain. The soil of these lands is adapted mostly to the growth of grain, and is of that nature that it will retain any improvement which may be made of it. The subscriber thinks it unnecessary to particularise the advantages of the situation of these lands, as it must readily occur to all, that any person residing on them, from their vicinity to the waters of the bay, will always enjoy the advantage of sending his produce to market with but little trouble, and may procure for his table all the luxuries which they afford in their different seasons. These lands are well timbered, and the woodlands are conveniently situated for the use of the farms. There are also two orchards on the premises, which are now in their prime, and contain a variety of excellent fruit.

The several tracts will be laid off so as to suit purchasers.

At the same time and place will also be sold, an undivided moiety of an Island in the Chesapeake Bay, called "Swan Island," containing 2 3-8 acres.

On Tuesday, the twentieth of August next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at Mr. Pye's Tavern, in the town of Port-Tobacco, in Charles county,

Part of a lot in the said town, numbered 59, and also part of a lot or piece of ground lying on the east side of and adjoining the said lot, being part of a tract of land called "Chandler's Hope." Upon these lots there are a large commodious two story dwelling-house, with four good rooms, and an extensive passage on each floor; an excellent cellar and kitchen under the house; a pantry and wash-house, meat-house and two separate stables—also a well of water suited to culinary purposes. There are likewise an excellent store and counting rooms with cellars under both. The counting room is at present occupied as an attorney's office, for which it is well calculated. The dwelling-house has been for several years used as a boarding-house, and lately as a tavern, and from its situation is suited for the accommodation of either a private family or a public inn. The dwelling-house and lot, as at present under enclosure, will be sold separate from the store and counting rooms.

On Wednesday, the twenty-first of August next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoon, at Mr. Pye's Tavern in Port-Tobacco, The following tracts or parcels of land, lying in Charles county, viz. "West Hutton," containing 300 acres, and "Hard Barn," containing 300 acres, and "Wicomico Fields," containing 30 1-2 acres. These tracts are contiguous to each other, or nearly so, and will be sold together. The former tract lies upon Wicomico river, about six miles below Allen's Fresh, and has a convenient landing, from which produce may be taken to vessels in the river. This is a very valuable farm, the land is level and very rich, and has thereon a tolerably good dwelling-house, and convenient necessary out-houses. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain. Fish and fowl in their season may be procured in great abundance. There is an excellent spring of good water at the door. The other tract is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the farm with wood, &c.

Also "Mintree's Marsh," containing 5 1-2 acres; "Mintree's Widdow," being a resurvey on "Gibson's Close," containing 131 acres and 2 perches; "Partner's Purchase," containing 227 acres 3 roods and 30 perches; "Hamill Outwitted," containing 165 acres; and an undivided moiety of a tract of land called "Good for Little," the whole containing 71 acres 3 roods and 30 perches. These tracts, (except the last,) lie upon the River Potomac, adjoining each other, between Pickawaxon and Cuckold Creeks, and are divided into four tenements—Their soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain and tobacco, and upon them are houses for tenants, but which want repair. Fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be had in their season. The last mentioned tract is held in common with Mrs. Hungerford, and is distant from the other tracts between two and three miles—it is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the other tracts with wood, &c. and will be sold either separate or with some one of the other tracts, or divided, and a part sold with each of the other tracts, as may best accommodate purchasers.

Also "Brother's Gift," containing 377 acres 3 roods and 6 perches; "Blithwood," containing 10 acres 2 roods and 33 perches; and "Littleworth," containing 121 acres. These lands, (the two first tracts adjoining each other, and the other nearly so,) lie within one and two miles of Potomac River, on the road leading from Port-Tobacco to Laidler's Ferry; and the first mentioned tract within one mile of Pickawaxon church—One half of this last tract is bottom land and very level—the other half is upland and also level. The soil is adapted to the growth of grain and tobacco. There is on it a comfortable dwelling-house, and other improvements, situated on a hill commanding a beautiful and extensive view of the River. There is also a good and convenient spring of water. The other tracts are upland and mostly wood, on one of which is an old dwelling-house. They will be sold together, or separate, as may suit purchasers.

The Subscriber deems it unnecessary to give more particular descriptions of the several lands and lots herein stated, as it is presumed that persons inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the sale. He begs leave to refer persons, desirous of viewing the lands for sale, to Capt. Jacob Franklin as to those on the Chesapeake, to Col. Harris as to those on the Potomac, and to Mr. Maddox as to those on the Wicomico.

TERMS OF SALE.

The purchaser or purchasers to give bond to the subscriber, with approved security, for paying the purchase money in three annual payments from the day of sale, viz. one third part thereof, with interest from the first of January next, on the whole sum, at the end of one year; one other third part thereof, with interest on the whole sum then unpaid, at the end of two years; and the residue, with interest as aforesaid, at the end of three years.

Possession of the premises will be delivered to the purchasers on the first of January next—In the mean-time they may exercise all rights of ownership not incompatible with those of the Tenants now residing thereon.

Where the premises are not tenanted out, immediate possession will be given; and in that case interest will commence on the purchase money from the day of sale.

On payment of the whole purchase money, with interest, the subscriber is authorised to execute deeds of conveyances of the premises to the several purchasers.

For Sale,

On Monday the 24th inst. will be sold to the highest bidder, the house in Annapolis, the property and lately the residence of the subscriber. The terms of sale thirty, and ninety days; notes, with approval, will be required, and the sale to commence at 12 o'clock at the City Tavern by Mr. Wm. Brewer. Any gentleman wishing to view the house and premises may apply to Mr. John Shaw.
Having a larger stock of cattle than I can conveniently support, will sell at private sale, any time this summer or fall, cattle from one to five years old of the best breed in this State; the original stock was of that valuable breed imported by James Dickinson, of Talbot county, some time previous to his death, and crossed with a bull imported by the father of the present governor, immediately from the celebrated breeder, Mr. Baker, of England, and since crossed with that of the same breed made by the late Col. O'Donnell, and William Patterson. Their meat is delicious and very fine, and give rich milk; are easily kept, and certainly winter on less food than any I have known. I will also sell part of a small flock of well selected Merino Sheep, purchased of the best importations to this State, and I will venture to say none exceeds them in quality of wool, if equalled. Any gentleman disposed to commence the improvement of his common breed of sheep with this great acquisition to the country, may be supplied with a three years old ram, ewes in lamb, or lambs, or common ewes of the country, yielding more wool than any breed I have heard of, as several have been tried and yielded pounds of wool for every nine and three-quarter pounds of carcass; these ewes will be in lamb by a Merino ram of very superior breed; but none of the above mentioned sheep would be delivered before the 10th day of October next, or as soon after as required, and then to be delivered at my farm on the north side of Magothy river, or at this place.

LANDS AND LOTS FOR SALE.

THE subscriber, agreeably to the trusts reposed in him by an act of the Legislature of Maryland, passed at November session last, and by virtue of an order of the Chancellor dated the fifth day of March last, will expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, on the days and at the places hereinafter mentioned, the following lands and lots, being part of the real estate of John Gwinn, Esquire, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased; that is to say,

On Friday, the nineteenth of July next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Richard Kirby, (on part of the premises,) on Deep creek, in Anne Arundel county,
The following tracts or parcels of land, viz. "Rural Felicity," containing 223 1-2 acres; "Pratt's Neck," containing 201 1-2 acres; "Deep Creek Point," containing 80 1-2 acres; "Goldborough's Choice," containing 114 acres; "The Chesapeake," containing 58 1-4 acres; "Greenwood," containing 129 1-2 acres; "Friendship," containing 58 7-8 acres, and "The Addition to Friendship," containing one acre and an half.

These lands are situated immediately on the Chesapeake Bay, nearly opposite to Poplar Island, and command a very extensive and beautiful prospect. The three first mentioned tracts, (adjoining each other,) are divided into three tenements, on which there are good houses for tenants, and they are separated from the five last mentioned tracts by Deep Creek, over which is a bridge. On the last mentioned tracts, (also adjoining each other,) is a very handsome brick dwelling-house two stories high, with two rooms and a large passage on the first floor, and five rooms and a small passage on the second; there are two piazzas, one in front and the other back. Adjoining the dwelling-house is an excellent brick pantry or store room, and a kitchen, and near them all necessary out-houses. Also a large and well built stable and a house for an overseer. On different parts of the farm are several quarters for the accommodation of servants, and a very large barn and granary, all of which are in good repair. Also a windmill, to which most of the neighbours send their grain. The soil of these lands is adapted mostly to the growth of grain, and is of that nature that it will retain any improvement which may be made of it. The subscriber thinks it unnecessary to particularise the advantages of the situation of these lands, as it must readily occur to all, that any person residing on them, from their vicinity to the waters of the bay, will always enjoy the advantage of sending his produce to market with little trouble, and may procure for his table all the luxuries which they afford in their different seasons. These lands are well timbered, and the woodlands are conveniently situated for the use of the farms. There are also two orchards on the premises, which are now in their prime, and contain a variety of excellent fruit.

The several tracts will be laid off so as to suit purchasers.
At the same time and place will also be sold, an undivided moiety of an Island in the Chesapeake Bay, called "Swan Island," containing 2 3-8 acres.

On Tuesday the twenty-third of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Union Tavern in the city of Annapolis. One acre lot, being part of a tract of land called "Acton" lying in the precincts of the said city, on the road leading to Baltimore, and at present occupied by John Hicks. This lot is under enclosure, & has thereon an old stable and several fruit trees.
Also lots numbered 62, 63 and 64, in the said city, near the Bath. These lots are separated into two distinct enclosures, and will be sold by enclosure. One of them is enclosed by a good post and rail fencing, and is in a high state of cultivation, with a number of very excellent fruit trees thereon, and a large and commodious stable and carriage house, in good order and repair.

The other is paved in, is highly improved as a garden, with a number of excellent fruit trees therein, and has an exposure favourable to the production of the earliest fruits and vegetables. There is also upon it a very good dwelling-house suitable for the residence of a small family.

On Saturday, the twenty-seventh of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Nicholas Watkins, at Elk Ridge Landing, Parts of three tracts of land, viz. "Henderson's Meadows," "Young's Locust Plains," and "Addition to Samson," containing a-greably to a survey thereof lately made, 327 1-2 acres. These tracts, (all adjoining each other,) lie between 3 and 4 miles from Elk Ridge Landing, and a part thereof is at present rented to Mr. Francis Lawrence, who will show the premises to any person inclined to purchase.

On Tuesday, the twentieth of August next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at Mr. Pye's Tavern, in the town of Port Tobacco, in Charles county.

Part of a lot in the said town, numbered 59; and also part of a lot or piece of ground lying on the east side of and adjoining the said lot, being part of a tract of land called "Chandler's Hope." Upon these lots there are a large commodious two story dwelling-house, with four good rooms, and an extensive passage on each floor; an excellent cellar and kitchen under the house; a pantry and wash-house, meat-house and two separate stables—also a well of water suited to culinary purposes. There are likewise an excellent store and counting rooms with cellars under both. The counting room is at present occupied as an attorney's office, for which it is well calculated. The dwelling-house has been for several years used as a boarding-house, and lately as a tavern, and from its situation is suited for the accommodation of either a private family or a public inn. The dwelling-house and lot, as at present under enclosure, will be sold separate from the store and counting rooms.

On Wednesday, the twenty-first of August next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoon, at Mr. Pye's tavern in Port Tobacco, The following tracts or parcels of land, lying in Charles county, viz. "West Hatton," containing 500 acres, and "Hard Bargain" otherwise called "Wicomoco Fields," containing 42 1-2 acres. These tracts are contiguous to each other, or nearly so, and will be sold together. The former tract lies upon Wicomoco river, about six miles below Allen's Fresh, and has a convenient landing, from which produce may be taken to vessels in the river. This is a very valuable farm, the land is level and very rich, and has thereon a tolerably good dwelling-house, and convenient necessary out-houses. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain. Fish and fowl in their season may be procured in great abundance. There is an excellent spring of good water at the door. The other tract is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the farm with wood, &c.

Also "Mintree's Marsh," containing 5 1-2 acres; "Mintree's Welldone," being a resurvey on "Gibson's Close," containing 131 acres and 2 perches; "Partner's Purchase," containing 227 acres 3 rods and 39 perches; "Hamill Outwitted," containing 165 acres; and an undivided moiety of a tract of land called "Good for Little," the whole containing 71 acres 3 rods and 30 perches. These tracts, (except the last,) lie upon the River Potomac, adjoining each other, between Pickawaxon and Cuckold Creeks, and are divided into four tenements—Their soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain and tobacco, and upon them are houses for tenants, but which want repair. Fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be had in their season. The last mentioned tract is held in common with Mrs. Hungerford, and is distant from the other tracts between two and three miles—it is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the other tracts with wood, &c. and will be sold either separate or with some one of the other tracts, or divided, and a part sold with each of the other tracts, as may best accommodate purchasers.

Also "Brother's Gift," containing 377 acres 3 rods and 6 perches; "Blithwood" containing 10 acres 2 rods and 33 perches; and "Littleworth," containing 121 acres. These lands, (the two first tracts adjoining each other, and the other nearly so,) lie within one and two miles of Potomac River, on the road leading from Port Tobacco to Laidler's Ferry; and the first mentioned tract within one mile of Pickawaxon church—One half of this last tract is bottom land and very level—the other half is upland and also level. The soil is adapted to the growth of grain and tobacco. There is on it a comfortable dwelling-house, and other improvements, situated on a hill commanding a beautiful and extensive view of the River. There is also a good and convenient spring of water. The other tracts are upland and mostly wood, on one of which is an old dwelling-house. They will be sold together, or separate, as may suit purchasers.

The Subscriber deems it unnecessary to give more particular descriptions of the several lands and lots herein stated, as it is presumed that persons inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the sale. He begs leave to refer persons, desirous of viewing the lands for sale, to Capt. Jacob Franklin as to those on the Chesapeake, to Col. Harris as to those on the Potomac, and to Mr. Maddox as to those on the Wicomoco.

TERMS OF SALE.

terest from the first of January next, on the whole sum, at the end of one year; one other third part thereof, with interest on the whole sum then unpaid, at the end of two years; and the residue, with interest as aforesaid, at the end of three years.

On the Vanity of Youthful Hopes.

In life's gay morn what vivid hues
Adorn the animating views,
By flitting fancy drawn!
No storms with gloomy aspects rise,
To cloud the azure of the skies,
No mists obscure the dawn.
With looks invariably gay,
Young expectation points the way
To ever blissful shades,
Where odours scent the breath of morn,
Where roses bloom without a thorn,
And music fills the glades.
Enraptur'd with the distant view,
Youth thinks its fictitious beauties true,
And springs, the prize to gain.
His grasp the gay illusion flies:
Experience thus the cheat defies,
And proves his hopes were vain.
The path of life though flow'rs adorn,
Yet often will the rugged thorn
Amidst the flowers arise;
Expect not, then, on earth to share
Enjoyment unalloy'd by care,
But seek it in the skies.

THE GLEANER.

SERVILE, and base and mercenary, is the notion of Christian practice among the bulk of nominal Christians. They give no more than they dare not withhold; they abstain from nothing but what they must not practice. When you state to them the doubtful quality of an action, and the consequent obligation to desist from it, they reply to you in the very spirit of Shylock, "they cannot find it in the bond." In short, they know Christianity only as a system of restraints. She is despoiled of every liberal and generous principle; she is rendered almost unfit for the social intercourse of life, and is only suited to the gloomy walls of that cloister, in which they would confine her. But true Christians consider themselves not as satisfying some rigorous creditor, but as discharging a debt of gratitude. There is accordingly not the slightest return of a constrained obedience, but the large and liberal measure of a voluntary service. This principle, therefore, as was formerly remarked, and as has been recently observed of true Christian humility, prevents a thousand practical embarrassments, by which they are continually harassed, who act from a less generous motive: and who require it to be clearly ascertained to them, that any gratification or worldly compliance, which may be in question, is beyond the allowed boundary line of Christian practice.

[Wilberforce.]

Let true Christians then, with becoming earnestness, strive in all things to recommend their profession, and to put to silence the vain scoffs of ignorant objectors. Let them boldly assert the cause of Christ in an age when so many, who bear the name of Christians, are ashamed of Him; and let them consider as devolved on them the important duty of suspending for a while the fall of their country, and, perhaps, of performing a still more extensive service to society at large; not by busy interference in politics, in which it cannot but be confessed there is much uncertainty; but rather by that pure and radical benefit of restoring the influence of religion, and of raising the standard of morality.

Let them be active, useful, generous towards others; manifestly moderate and self-denying in themselves. Let them be ashamed of idleness, as they would be of the most acknowledged sin. When Providence blesses them with affluence, let them withdraw from the competition of vanity; and, without forbiddenness or absurdity, shew by their modest demeanour, and by their retiring from display, that, without affecting singularity, they are not slaves to fashion; that they consider it as their duty to set an example of moderation and sobriety, and to reserve for nobler and more disinterested purposes, that money, which others selfishly waste in parade and dress, and enervation. Let them evince, in short, a manifest moderation in all temporal things; as becomes those whose affections are set on higher objects than any which this world affords, and who possess within their own bosoms, a fund of satisfaction and comfort, which the world seeks in vanity and dissipation. Let them cultivate a catholic spirit of universal good will, and of amicable fellowship towards all those, of whatever sect or denomination, who, differing from them in non-essentials, agree with them in the grand fundamentals of religion. Let them countenance men of real piety wherever they are found; and encourage in others every attempt to repress the progress of vice, and to revive and diffuse the influence of religion and virtue. Let their earnest prayers be constantly offered, that such endeavours may be successful, and that the abused long-suffering of God may still continue to us the invaluable privilege of vital Christianity.

Let them pray continually for their country in this season of national difficulty. We bear upon us but too plainly the marks of a declining empire. Who can say but that the Governor of the universe, who declares himself to be a God who hears the prayers of his servants, may in answer to their intercessions, for a while avert our ruin, and continue to us the fulness of those temporal blessings, which in such abundant measure we have hitherto enjoyed. Men of the world, indeed, however they may admit the natural operation of natural causes, and may therefore confess the effects of Religion and morality in promoting the well being of the community; may yet, according to their humour, with a smile of complacent pity, or a sneer of supercilious contempt, read of the service which real Christians may render to their country, by conciliating the favour and calling down the blessing of Providence. It may appear in their eyes an instance of the same superstitious weakness, as that which prompts the terrified inhabitant of Sicily to bring forth the image of his tutelary saint, in order to stop the destructive ravages of Ætna. We are, however, sure if we believe the scripture, that God will be disposed to favour the nation to which his servants belong; and that, in fact, such as they, have often been the unknown, and unhonoured instruments of drawing down on their country the blessings of safety and prosperity.

[Ibid.]

House-keepers are earnestly requested to make particular enquiry for them among children and servants, as possibly they may be found in the possession of a person who knows not their use, and view them only as old brass.

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic, it is not puffed up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully efficacious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates of respectable characters, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also consulted, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Toothach, Pleurisy, Cholera, Cramps, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Croup and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful brace to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone.

It seems also as if nature had ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorants for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisis or Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stooping or lying down, are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeable to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

No. 1. Sept. 1809.
I do certify, that I have been ailing nearly two years with a hectic cough and violent impression at the breast—I applied to the most eminent physicians and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief. I take this method of informing the public of the efficacy of this valuable medicine, from the cures which I have experienced—I think it an incumbent duty to offer the same to the public.

ELISHA SOWARD.

Baltimore No. 16, Water-street, sign of the plough.

No. 2. Sept. 1809.

SIR, From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sore throat, about the 26th of August, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of molasses, which took away pieces of putrid flesh and healed my throat in about 48 hours.

N. B. I also certify, that I nursed my grandchild, and infant of 17 months old which was taken about the first of August with slow fevers and loss of appetite. We immediately applied for a physician, who gave every attention for about 15 days but all to no effect; the child was given up by the physicians, and had every appearance of death, when I applied for Paul's Columbian Oil, and gave five drops morning and evening, for five days, when the child began to recover, and is now in perfect health.

MARY UNDERWOOD.

Baltimore, by Peter's Bridge.

No. 3. Sept. 6.

I hereby certify, that I had a cough and pain in my stomach for upwards of two years, when I was recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I procured one phial of that valuable medicine, which has restored me to a good state of health again.

THOMAS ELIOTT.

On the Hook's-town road near the turnpike gate.

No. 4. Feb. 12, 1809.

I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil, I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.

N. B. I had a violent toothach about two or three months ago, when I dropped a few drops of the above oil on some lint, and applied it to the tooth affected, and I received immediate relief.

ELEANOR ELIOTT.

No. 5.

SIR, I comply with your request of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the better worm. I have been afflicted with the better in my hand for 12 years, and have made trial of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect. Hearing of Paul's Columbian Oil, about the 15th of January last, proving an effectual cure for the ringworm and similar complaints, I immediately got a phial of your Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions for about two months successively—when the better left me, and has not made its appearance since.

SUSANNA PURDEN.

N. B. My Susanna, a child aged 20 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough; I gave her six drops of the Columbian Oil, which gave immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.

On the Vanity of Youthful Hopes.

In life's gay morn what vivid hues
Adorn the animating views,
By flatter'g fancy drawn!
No storms with gloomy aspects rise,
To cloud the azure of the skies,
No mists obscure the dawn.
With looks invariably gay,
Young expectation points the way
To ever blissful shades,
Where odours scent the breath of morn,
Where roses bloom without a thorn,
And music fills the glades.
Enraptur'd with the distant view,
Youth thinks its fictitious beauties true,
And springs, the prize to gain.
His grasp the gay illusion flies:
Experience thus the cheat descries,
And proves his hopes were vain.
The path of life though flow'rs adorn,
Yet often will the rugged thorn
Amidst the flowers arise;
Expect not, then, on earth to share
Enjoyment unallay'd by care,
But seek it in the skies.

THE GLEANER.

SERVILE, and base and mercenary, is the notion of Christian practice among the bulk of nominal Christians. They give no more than they dare not withhold; they abstain from nothing but what they must not practice. When you state to them the doubtful quality of an action, and the consequent obligation to desist from it, they reply to you in the very spirit of Shylock, "they cannot find it in the bond." In short, they know Christianity only as a system of restraints. She is despoiled of every liberal and generous principle; she is rendered almost unfit for the social intercourse of life, and is only suited to the gloomy walls of that cloister, in which they would confine her. But true Christians consider themselves not as satisfying some rigorous creditor, but as discharging a debt of gratitude. Theirs is accordingly not the flinted return of a constrained obedience, but the large and liberal measure of a voluntary service. This principle, therefore, as was formerly remarked, and as has been recently observed of true Christian humility, prevents a thousand practical embarrassments, by which they are continually harassed, who act from a less generous motive: and who require it to be clearly ascertained to them, that any gratification or worldly compliance, which may be in question, is beyond the allowed boundary line of Christian practice.

[Wilberforce.]

Let true Christians then, with becoming earnestness, strive in all things to recommend their profession, and to put to silence the vain scoffs of ignorant objectors. Let them boldly assert the cause of Christ in an age when so many, who bear the name of Christians, are ashamed of Him; and let them consider as devolved on them the important duty of suspending for a while the fall of their country, and, perhaps, of performing a still more extensive service to society at large; not by busy interference in politics, in which it cannot but be confessed there is much uncertainty; but rather by that pure and radical benefit of restoring the influence of religion, and of raising the standard of morality.

Let them be active, useful, generous towards others; manifestly moderate and self-denying in themselves. Let them be ashamed of idleness, as they would be of the most acknowledged sin. When Providence blest them with affluence, let them withdraw from the competition of vanity; and, without fondness or absurdity, shew by their modest demeanour, and by their retiring from display, that, without affecting singularity, they are not slaves to fashion; that they consider it as their duty to set an example of moderation and sobriety, and to reserve for nobler and more disinterested purposes, that money, which others selfishly waste in parade, and diets, and equipage. Let them evince, in short, a manifest moderation in all temporal things; as becomes those whose affections are set on higher objects than any which this world affords, and who possess within their own bosoms, a fund of satisfaction and comfort, which the world seeks in vanity and dissipation. Let them cultivate a catholic spirit of universal good will, and of amicable fellowship towards all those, of whatever sect or denomination, who, differing from them in non-essentials, agree with them in the grand fundamentals of religion. Let them countenance men of real piety wherever they are found; and encourage in others every attempt to repress the progress of vice, and to revive and diffuse the influence of religion and virtue. Let their earnest prayers be constantly offered, that such endeavours may be successful, and that the abused long-suffering of God may still continue to us the invaluable privilege of vital Christianity.

Let them pray continually for their country in this season of national difficulty. We bear upon us but too plainly the marks of a declining empire. Who can say but that the Governor of the universe, who declares himself to be a God who hears the prayers of his servants, may in answer to their intercessions, for a while avert our ruin, and continue to us the fulness of those temporal blessings, which in such abundant measure we have hitherto enjoyed. Men of the world, indeed, however they may admit the natural operation of natural causes, and may therefore confess the effects of Religion and morality in promoting the well being of the community; may yet, according to their humour, with a smile of complacent pity, or a sneer of supercilious contempt, read of the service which real Christians may render to their country, by conciliating the favour and calling down the blessing of Providence. It may appear in their eyes an instance of the same superstitious weakness, as that which prompts the terrified inhabitant of Sicily to bring forth the image of his tutelary saint, in order to stop the destructive ravages of Etna. We are, however, sure if we believe the scripture, that God will be disposed to favour the nation to which his servants belong; and that, in fact, such as they, have often been the unknown, and unhonoured instruments of drawing down on their country the blessings of safety and prosperity.

[Ibid.]

A liberal Reward

WILL be given (if required) by the City Commissioners, for two brass screw-joints, forming the bend or elbow of the pipe of the fire engine; they were lost either the day of the fire at the College or taken since from the house where the engine is kept.

House-keepers are earnestly requested to make particular enquiry for them among children and servants, as possibly they may be found in the possession of a person who knows not their use, and view them only as old brass.

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic, it is not puffed up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully efficacious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates of respectable characters, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also consulted, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Toothach, Pleurisy, Cholera, Cramps, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Croup and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone.

It seems also as if nature had ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisick or Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stooping or lying down, are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeable to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

No. 1. Sept. 1809.
I do certify, that I have been ailing nearly two years with a hectic cough and violent impression at the breast—I applied to the most eminent physicians and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief. I take this method of informing the public of the efficacy of this valuable medicine, from the cures which I have experienced—I think it an incumbent duty to offer the same to the public.

ELISHA SOWARD.

Baltimore No. 16, Water-street, sign of the plough.

No. 2. Sept. 1809.

From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sore-throat, about the 26th of August, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of molasses, which took away pieces of putrid flesh and healed my throat in about 48 hours.

N. B. I also certify, that I nursed my grandchild, and infant of 17 months old which was taken about the first of August with slow fevers and loss of appetite. We immediately applied for a physician, who gave every attention for about 16 days but all to no effect; the child was given up by the physicians, and had every appearance of death, when I applied for Paul's Columbian Oil, and gave five drops morning and evening, for five days, when the child began to recover, and is now in perfect health.

MARY UNDERWOOD.

Baltimore, by Peter's Bridge.

No. 3. Sept. 6.

I hereby certify, that I had a cough and pain in my stomach for upwards of two years, when I was recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I procured one phial of that valuable medicine, which has restored me to a good state of health again.

THOMAS ELLIOTT.

On the Hook's-town road near the turnpike gate.

No. 4. Feb. 12, 1809.

I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.

N. B. I had a violent toothach about two or three months ago, when I dropped a few drops of the above oil on some lint, and applied it to the tooth affected, and I received immediate relief.

ELEANOR ELLIOTT.

No. 5.

I comply with your request of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the better worm. I have been afflicted with the better of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect. Hearing of Paul's Columbian Oil, about the 15th of January last, proving an effectual cure for the ringworm and similar complaints. I immediately got a phial of your Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions for about two months successively—when the better left me, and has not made its appearance since.

SUSANNA PURDEN.

N. B. My Susanna, a child aged 20 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough; I gave her six drops of the Columbian Oil, which gave immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.

FOREIGN.

NEW YORK, JUNE 17.

LATE FROM ENGLAND.

The ship Mentor, Captain Barnard, arrived here last Saturday evening, failed from Liverpool the 11th of May.

By the Mentor, the editors of the New-York Gazette, have received a file of the London Courier, to the evening of the 9th May.

The United States frigate Essex, with Mr. Pinkney and family on board, failed from Cowes on the 6th ult. for the United States—Mr. Foster, in the British frigate Minerva, failed the same day. It was supposed both frigates would go into the Chesapeake.

Just before the Essex failed, Mr. Smith arrived from Paris with despatches for Mr. Pinkney. Mr. P. having embarked, a messenger was sent with the despatches, but too late, as Mr. P. had failed. These despatches, however, are supposed to be in the hands of Mr. Adams, a passenger in the Mentor.

The news from Spain and Portugal by the Mentor, is not so late as already received.

The Baltic fleet, under the command of Sir J. Saumarez, failed on the 29th of April. Mons L'Esclapart who was coming out as Consul General from France, to the U. S. was on board the brig Role-in-bloom, when she was sent into England.

The Courier of the 8th contains an account (received by the Anhalt mail) of a severe action fought at Colberg between the Prussians and French, in which the latter were beaten. The French wished to pass through, but Gen. Blucher, the commandant of Colberg, would not let them—hence the action, in which the French had 200 killed, and 800 wounded. The Courier of the 10th, says that the report of the action, produced a very great sensation in London, and obtained credit—but throws a damper upon the information, by saying, "that government have received intelligence from that quarter to the 29th, which takes no notice of the event mentioned."

The Parliament of England were several days engaged in debate on the question of a bullion report. The object of the report is to prevent the exportation of coin; and on its value connected with bank payments.

There is nothing in the London papers to confirm or contradict the report of a war between Russia and France.

Died, lately in England, Wm. Boscawen, Esq. the excellent translator of Horace; and Richard Cumberland, Esq. the justly celebrated essayist, and dramatic poet.

LONDON, MAY 2. The vote for the Sicilian Subsidy founded upon the Treaty with the king of the Two Sicilies, was passed last night.

Mr. Whitebread did himself credit last night by the tribute he paid to the manner in which the campaign in Portugal had been planned and conducted. But he clings still to the idea that peace is practicable, and we might honourably offer to open a negotiation with Buonaparte at present. So far from being of his opinion we think that this is precisely the moment for not negotiating—it is precisely the moment for blowing up the blow. What would negotiation do now but spread through the continent distrust and suspicion of Great Britain? What would peace do now but enable Buonaparte to repair his disasters, recruit his means and make that firm and stable, which seems now for the first time tottering.

Another list is forming for the Loan, at the head of which is the House of Reed and Irvine. There seems to be the usual eagerness for the loan that there ever was, and the consequence is a rise of Stock before it is taken.

May 6. We have received the following intelligence from the coast of France: An unusual spirit of discontent prevails amongst the French toward the government of Buonaparte. The bankruptcies, both at Paris and in other large towns in France, have been very extensive, and in the large mercantile houses, to a very great amount. The retreat of Massena from Portugal had just been published. Figueras, a strong and important fortress in Catalonia, has been invested by the Spaniards, and had surrendered. The garrison consisting of 3000 men, French and Italian, had been made prisoners of war.

May 7. Captain Cockburn arrived last night from Cadiz with despatches. A Cadiz mail is also arrived.

From Cadiz the accounts are to the 28th ult. The enemy remain in considerable uneasiness at Seville. Soult's force is said to be very small, probably owing to the detachments he has sent to Victor and Mortier. Yet he is actually employed in strengthening the fortifications of Seville, expecting an attack from the allies, and meaning as it should seem, to stand a siege. Sebastiani has been again pressed to reinforce Victor or Soult, but he is ill of a consumption, and he is gone to watch the movements of the army of Murcia. There appear to be great dissensions amongst all the French Generals.

A cartel from Marlaix, arrived at Dartmouth, brought despatches for Mr. Pinkney, from the American Charge d'Affaires at Paris. They were brought by Mr. Smith who is to remain in London to transact the usual routine of business which had been delegated by Mr. Pinkney to the American Consul Gen. Lyman. Mr. Smith set off yesterday for Portsmouth, where he will overtake Mr. Pinkney, should not the Essex have previously failed for America. The contents of the despatches have not yet transpired.

By this conveyance French Journals to the 11th inst. are come to hand; but they are as completely destitute of information as any which have arrived of late from the same quarters; they maintain a perfect silence on the affairs of the peninsula.

May 8.

THE KING.—We are much concerned to find that the last night's intelligence from Windsor did not agree with the bulletin, which, without the least variation has of late so repeatedly declared his majesty to be going on favourably towards recovery.

It is stated in letters from Cadix, that some very important proceedings had lately taken place in the Cortes, the particulars of which were but imperfectly known as strangers were excluded during the discussion. The despatches brought by Captain Cockburn, of the navy, are said to relate to these transactions.

Monday, at 1 o'clock, Mr. PINKNEY, his lady and eight children, embarked at Cowes on board the Essex American frigate, when she immediately got under weigh, and proceeded to sea through the Needles. About an hour previously to Mr. Pinkney's embarkation the Essex fired 17 guns as a salute to him.

The Gazette of last night sufficiently refutes the account circulated by the opposition, that Massena had advanced again, had crossed the Agueda in full force, and had obliged our troops to recross the Coa. The first paragraph of Lord Wellington's despatch from Patalegre, sufficiently shews that no change had taken place in the position of our troops which remained between the Agueda and Coa. Massena had not recrossed the Agueda. Lord Wellington having inspected Marshal Beresford's force, had made his arrangements with him, and returned to his own army. As the enemy had retired from Estremadura, and Badajos was to be reduced before any other operations were undertaken, there was no necessity for Lord Wellington's remaining longer absent from his own troops. This explanation we are aware, will be painful to those upon whose minds a glimpse of joy broke, at the bare idea of Massena being able to tread back his steps.

The Gazette gives an account of the movements of Marshal Beresford to clear Estremadura of the enemy, and to support Ballasteros. The latter had been pressed at Freynal by gen. Maranfin, who says the Gazette, "forced him to retire to Xeres de los Cavalleros and Salvatierra." There must be some mistake in this; for as Ballasteros, allied to co-operate with marshal Beresford, both these places are much nearer to the marshal's position than Freynal. Salvatierra is at no great distance from Santa Martha.

The Scaflower is arrived at Lisbon, which she left on the 1st. An officer, who came in her mentions a report current at Lisbon, of the fall of Badajos. No such account has been received by government.

MAY 9.

Government has this week made considerable purchases in the article of hemp, as it is said at an advanced price, which the merchants in some degree consider as a proof that a war between France and Russia is not quite so certain.

The embargo on Prussian vessels in Swedish ports, has been taken off, and American vessels proceed in their destinations without molestation. It was expected that some commercial regulations favourable to the U. S. would shortly be announced in the French ports.

PORTSMOUTH, MAY 3.

Mr. Foster embarked this morning on board the Minerva frigate, capt. Hawkins, under a salute from that ship for America. The Minerva intended to go to sea, but the wind increased from the S. W. and she could not move.

PLYMOUTH, MAY 7.

The Role in Bloom, American ship from Bayonne to N. York, with passengers, detained by the Shannon 38, and Amazon 36, had on board a Scotch captain of a merchant vessel who had made his escape from the prison at Bayonne, and who was unfortunately killed by a 6 pounder from the Shannon, as the American captain obstinately persisted in not bringing to, and the Shannon was obliged to fire several shots at her to make her come to and send a boat on board, by which obliging this poor man lost his life.

BRITISH ACCOUNT

Of the affair between the President and Little Belt.

NOVA-SCOTIA, HALIFAX, MAY 27. Arrived yesterday H. M. sloop of war Little Belt, capt. Bingham, from a cruise. The Little Belt has been cruising off the American coast:—From conversation with several officers, we have derived the following interesting information:—

"At 11 o'clock in the forenoon of the 16th inst. when about 100 miles to the eastward of the Chesapeake, a sail was observed, and chase immediately given.—At one it was discovered to be a frigate, steering east, with a commodore's blue pendant at the main, and the conclusion drawn that it was an American ship.—The Little Belt then altered her course to the southward, and in about two hours afterwards the frigate, under a press of sail, was seen standing for her.—It was soon noticed that she gained upon the Little Belt, & at half past six the latter hove to—when guarding against a surprise, the usual preparations were made for action, at which time the stars in the frigate's pendant were perfectly visible:—At about 8 she came within hail, and was twice asked from the sloop of war what ship it was—the answer to the first enquiry, was a repetition of the question—to the second a broadside of round and grape shot; which was immediately returned, and an action commenced which continued full three quarters of an hour—when the frigate ceased firing, filled her sails, sheered off and hailed the Little Belt, (which just at that time had also ceased firing,) asked what ship, was told her name, and then inquired if she had struck colours, and was answered in the negative.—The name of the frigate was then asked, and an answer returned that it was the U. S. ship President. She afterwards stood off under easy sail—and both ships lay to the remainder of the night, repairing their damages.—In the morning the frigate bore down upon the Little Belt, and coming within hail, asked permission to send a boat to her, which was granted, and an officer came on board with a message from commodore Rogers, saying he lamented the transaction, did not think she was so much inferior in force to the President—was sorry the Little Belt had fired first—would willingly render her every assistance in his power—and advised that she should go into an American port to repair. The officer then took his departure, returned to the President which made sail, and was soon out of sight, leaving the Little Belt almost a complete wreck—sails and rigging cut to pieces—11 killed, 21 wounded—and without explanation of their extraordinary conduct."

From the Norfolk Ledger of June 12. The frigate United States, Com. Decatur, went to sea on Sunday last, in the afternoon she fell in with the British frigate Eurydice, the Atalante sloop of war in company; while near each other a gun from the United States went off by accident. The circumstance was immediately explained to the commander of the British frigate, who, we understand, was perfectly satisfied that there was no intention on the part of com. Decatur to injure or offend. This trivial circumstance would not at any other time have excited notice, and proves that when of prudence and politeness meet, that is much less risk of mischief than is supposed.

Extract of a letter from an officer aboard His Majesty's sloop of war Atalante, off Sandy Hook, June 16th, 1811.

"The only public information may be expected to communicate is, that on Sunday the 9th inst. being in company with his Majesty's ship Eurydice, we fell in with the American frigate U. States, off the capes of Virginia; and that during a conversation of amicable nature between captain Bradburn from the Eurydice, and commodore Decatur, whose broad pendant was flying on board the United States, a shot was fired towards the Eurydice but did not strike her, and which no unpleasant consequences took place as commodore Decatur, instantly called out and declared upon his honour it was an accident, and not intended as an insult to the British flag, which assurances he repeated in person to the first Lieutenant of the Eurydice who was sent immediately on board the States to demand officially the reason of a shot having been fired. The matter was so adjusted we parted company.

The British sloop of war Atalante, anchored off the bar of Sandy Hook Light House last Saturday evening, and yesterday one of her officers came up to town with despatches for the British Consul. The Atalante is from Bermuda, but last from the Chesapeake bay, where she touched and delivered despatches to the British Consul at Norfolk.

The following is a copy of gen. Graham's letter to the speaker of the house of commons.

Island of Leon, April 11, 1811.

"SIR, "I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, communicating to me a vote of the house of commons, thanking me, and the officers and men under my command, for our conduct at the Battle of Buena Vista. The house must know, that the day of that day was entirely owing to the spirit of bravery which animated the officers and men, from an innate loyalty and unconquerable patriotism, which I know will be greatly cherished on receiving the approbation of the representatives of the people. It was always my own ambition that my services should merit the same distinguished honour; and having now accomplished my wishes, I trust that my future life will correspond with that conduct which I deem me much grateful notice. Permit me, Sir, to return you my thanks for the very handsome manner in which you made me the communication.

I am, &c.

"T. GRAHAM."

To the Editors of the Boston Patriot FAYAT, March 10, 1811.

SIRS, I send you for record in your valuable paper, the following account of a remarkable phenomenon that lately happened at St. Michaels, contained in a letter I recently received from Thomas Hickling, vice-consul of the U. States for that Island.—As the facts therein mentioned will probably expose him to danger, it is desirable that this information should be generally diffused; that mariners should be guarded against it.

I am, &c.

JOHN B. DABNEY, Consul of U. S. for the Azores. St. Michael's, Feb. 28, 1811.

DEAR SIR, On the 29th, 30th and 31st, ult. we were much alarmed by frequent shocks of Earth quakes—say upwards of twenty; and on the 1st inst. information was received here that a Volcano had broken out in the sea, five leagues west of this port, and half a league from the land, in fifty or sixty, and some fishermen say, in seventy to eighty fathoms of water. I repaired immediately to that part of the Island, and to my utter astonishment saw a vast column of black smoke, issuing out of the ocean. The wind was a gale from the southward and blew the smoke over the land. The sea was excessively agitated, and the surf on the shore was frightful. I was assured by the peasants that the preceding night fire had been emitted; and being curious to ascertain that fact, I returned to the city, and desired my son and son in law, to go and tarry opposite the Volcano all night.—They did so; and saw at various times, during the night, fire issue forth like a number of rockets, discharged together.—Large masses of stone, or lava, were continually thrown above the surface of the sea.—Wonderful, indeed, how fire could pierce such a vast body of water, yet such was actually the case. In eight days it entirely subsided, leaving a shoal on which the sea broke, which a happy deliverance for us; for had this formidable Volcano opened on the land, it would probably have gone near to ruin this fine Island.

I am, &c. &c.

LANDS AND LOTS

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber, agreeably to the trusts reposed in him by an act of the Legislature of Maryland, passed at November session last, and by virtue of an order of the chancellor dated the fifth day of March last, will expose to public sale, to the highest bidder, on the days and at the places hereinafter mentioned, the following lands and lots, being part of the real estate of John Gwynn, Esquire, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased; that is to say,

On Friday, the nineteenth of July next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Richard Kirby, (on part of the premises,) on Deep creek, in Anne Arundel county, The following tracts or parcels of land, viz. "Rural Felicity," containing 223 1-2 acres; "Pratt's Neck," containing 201 1-2 acres; "Deep Creek Point," containing 80 1-2 acres; "Goldborough's Choice," containing 114 acres; "The Chesapeake," containing 58 1-4 acres; "Greenwood," containing 129 1-2 acres; "Friendship," containing 58 7-8 acres, and "The Addition to Friendship," containing one acre and an half.

These lands are situated immediately on the Chesapeake Bay, nearly opposite to Poplar Island, and command a very extensive and beautiful prospect. The three first mentioned tracts, (adjoining each other,) are divided into three tenements, on which there are good houses for tenants, and they are separated from the five last mentioned tracts by Deep Creek, over which is a bridge. On the last mentioned tracts, (also adjoining each other,) is a very handsome brick dwelling-house two stories high, with two rooms and a large passage on the first floor, and five rooms and a small passage on the second; there are two piazzas, one in front and the other back. Adjoining the dwelling-house is an excellent brick pantry or store room, and a kitchen, and near them all necessary out-houses.

Also a large and well built stable and a house for an overseer. On different parts of the farm are several quarters for the accommodation of servants, and a very large barn and granary, all of which are in good repair. Also a windmill, to which most of the neighbours send their grain. The soil of the lands is adapted mostly to the growth of grain, and is of that nature that it will retain any improvement which may be made of it. The subscriber thinks it unnecessary to particularise the advantages of the situation of these lands, as it must readily occur to all, that any person residing on them, from their vicinity to the waters of the bay, will always enjoy the advantage of sending his produce to market, with but little trouble, and may procure for his table all the luxuries which they afford in their different seasons. These lands are well timbered, and the woodlands are conveniently situated for the use of the farms. There are also two orchards on the premises, which are now in their prime, and contain a variety of excellent fruit.

The several tracts will be laid off so as to suit purchasers.

At the same time and place will also be sold, an undivided moiety of an Island in the Chesapeake Bay, called "Swan Island," containing 3-8 acres.

On Tuesday the twenty-third of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Union Tavern in the city of Annapolis, One acre lot, being part of a tract of land called "Acton" lying in the precincts of the said city, on the road leading to Baltimore, and at present occupied by John Hicks. This lot is under enclosure, & has thereon an old stable and several fruit trees.

Also lots numbered 62, 63 and 64, in the said city, near the Bath. These lots are separated into two distinct enclosures, and will be sold by enclosure. One of them is enclosed by a good post and rail fencing, and is in a high state of cultivation, with a number of very excellent fruit trees thereon, and a large and commodious stable and carriage house, in good order and repair.

The other is paved in, is highly improved as a garden, with a number of excellent fruit trees therein, and has an exposure favourable to the production of the earliest fruits and vegetables. There is also upon it a very good dwelling-house suitable for the residence of a small family.

On Saturday, the twenty-seventh of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Nicholas Watkins, at Elk Ridge Landing.

Parts of three tracts of land, viz. "Henderson's Meadows," "Young's Locust Plains," and "Addition to Samson," containing agreeably to a survey thereof lately made, 327 1-2 acres. These tracts, (all adjoining each other,) lie between 3 and 4 miles from Elk Ridge Landing, and a part thereof is at present rented to Mr. Francis Lawrence, who will show the premises to any person inclined to purchase.

On Tuesday, the twentieth of August next, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at Mr. Pyle's Tavern, in the town of Port Tobacco, in Charles county.

Part of a lot in the said town, numbered 59, and also part of a lot or piece of ground lying on the east side of and adjoining the said lot, being part of a tract of land called "Chandler's Hope." Upon these lots there are a large commodious two story dwelling-house, with four good rooms, and an extensive passage on each floor; an excellent cellar and kitchen under the house; a pantry and wash-house, meat-house and two separate stables—also a well of water suited to culinary purposes. There are likewise an excellent store and counting rooms with cellars under both. The counting room is at present occupied as an attorney's office, for which it is well calculated. The dwelling-house has been for several years used as a boarding-house, and lately as a tavern, and from its situation is suited for the accommodation of either a private family or a public inn. The dwelling-house and lot, as at present under enclosure, will be sold separate from the store and counting rooms.

On Wednesday, the twenty-first of August next, at 12 o'clock in the forenoon, at Mr. Pyle's Tavern in Port Tobacco. The following tracts or parcels of land, lying in Charles county, viz. "West Hutton," containing 500 acres, and "Hard Bargain" otherwise called "Wicomoco Fields," containing 42 1-2 acres. These tracts are contiguous to each other, or nearly so, and will be sold together. The former tract lies upon Wicomoco river, about six miles below Allen's Fresh, and has a convenient landing, from which produce may be taken to vessels in the river. This is a very valuable farm; the land is level and very rich, and has thereon a tolerably good dwelling-house, and convenient necessary out-houses. The soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain. Fish and fowl in their season may be procured in great abundance. There is an excellent spring of good water at the door. The other tract is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the farm with wood, &c.

Also "Minutree's Marsh," containing 5 1-2 acres; "Minutree's Welldone," being a survey on "Gibson's Close," containing 131 acres and 2 perches; "Partner's Purchase," containing 227 acres 3 rods and 39 perches; "Hamlet Outwitted," containing 165 acres; and an undivided moiety of a tract of land called "Good for Little," the whole containing 71 acres 3 rods and 30 perches. These tracts, (except the last,) lie upon the River Potomac, adjoining each other, between Pickawaxon and Cuckold Creeks, and are divided into four tenements—Their soil is well adapted to the cultivation of grain and tobacco, and upon them are houses for tenants, but which want repair. Fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be had in their season. The last mentioned tract is held in common with Mrs. Hungerford, and is distant from the other tracts between two and three miles—it is wholly woodland, and is intended to supply the other tracts with wood, &c. and will be sold either separate or with some one of the other tracts, or divided, and a part sold with each of the other tracts, as may best accommodate purchasers.

Also "Brother's Gift," containing 377 acres 3 rods and 6 perches; "Blithwood," containing 10 acres 2 rods and 33 perches; and "Littleworth," containing 121 acres. These lands, (the two first tracts adjoining each other, and the other nearly so,) lie within one and two miles of Potomac River, on the road leading from Port Tobacco to Laidler's Ferry; and the first mentioned tract within one mile of Pickawaxon church—One half of this last tract is bottom land and very level—the other half is upland and also level. The soil is adapted to the growth of grain and tobacco. There is on it a comfortable dwelling-house, and other improvements, situated on a hill commanding a beautiful and extensive view of the River. There is also a good and convenient spring of water. The other tracts are upland and mostly wood, on one of which is an old dwelling-house. They will be sold together, or separate, as may suit purchasers.

The Subscriber deems it unnecessary to give more particular descriptions of the several lands and lots herein stated, as it is presumed that persons inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the sale. He begs leave to refer persons, desirous of viewing the lands for sale, to Capt. Jacob Franklin as to those on the Chesapeake, to Col. Harris as to those on the Potomac, and to Mr. Maddox as to those on the Wicomoco.

TERMS OF SALE.

The purchaser, or purchasers, to give bond to the subscriber, with approved security, for paying the purchase money in three annual payments from the day of sale, viz. one third part thereof, with interest from the first of January next, on the whole sum, at the end of one year; one third part thereof, with interest on the whole sum then unpaid, at the end of two years; and the residue, with interest as aforesaid, at the end of three years. Possession of the premises will be delivered to the purchasers on the first of January next—in the mean-time they may exercise all rights of ownership not incompatible with those of the Tenants now residing thereon.

Where the premises are not tenanted out, immediate possession will be given; and in that case interest will commence on the purchase money from the day of sale.

On payment of the whole purchase money, with interest, the subscriber is authorised to execute deeds of conveyances of the premises to the several purchasers.

POET'S CORNER.

SELECTED.

CAMPBELL TRAVESTIED.

On Cannock when the sun was low,
No tainted breeze betrayed the foe,
And each fly fox and timid foe,
Lay crouched in covert quietly.

But Cannock shew'd another fight,
When an old man at dead of night
Stole forth and by his lantern's light,
Stopt all the earths so cunningly.

By the farthing candle last arrayed,
The huntsman waked his favourite maid,
The well known call she straight obeyed,
And made his breakfast instantly.

The horseman met the hounds at seven,
From cover soon the prey was driven,
And swift as fiery bolts from heaven,
The pack pursued their enemy.

The chase is up! on, on ye brave,
Who never care your necks to save,
And scorn a dangerous leap to wave,
Now spur your courtes manfully.

The straining pack have neared their foe;
Hark to the halloo! tally ho!
Ne'er pause! w'er gates and hedges go,
The brush rewards your victory.

'Tis night—the hunt dine at the Sun,
The pipes are filled; the healths begun,
Each count his feats and trophies on,
And all is mirth and jollity.

Few, few shall part where many meet,
Each finds a bed beneath his feat,
And every hound couched at their feet,
Partakes a hunter's canopy.

THE GLEANER.

WE have the utmost encouragement to tread in the steps of our divine Lawgiver, and to imitate, as far as we are able, that method of propagating his religion which he adopted, and which was attended with such signal success. Although it is undoubtedly our duty "to preach the Gospel to every creature," to press it on all ranks of people, high and low, rich and poor; yet the example of our Lord plainly calls upon us to show a peculiar attention to those whom Providence has placed in the humble conditions of life. The reasons for this are obvious; they are the same which probably influenced our Saviour's conduct in this respect, and they still subsist in their full force. The poor have in general much fewer opportunities of learning their duty themselves than the wealthy and the great; their education seldom qualifies them, and their constant cares and labours leave them but little leisure, for acquiring sufficient religious knowledge without assistance. Their spiritual as well as temporal necessities are but too often overlooked and disregarded by their superiors, and yet they form by far the largest and most necessary part of the community. Add to all this, that they are commonly much freer from prejudice, much less wedded to systems and opinions, more open to conviction, more anxious to obtain information, and more ready to embrace truth, than the higher ranks of men. These circumstances evidently point them out as objects highly worthy of our utmost care and diligence, in furnishing their minds with those sacred truths, those rules of moral and religious conduct, which are necessary to render them "wise unto salvation."

With this view it was, that The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge was first instituted. It breathes the true spirit of Christianity, and follows, at a humble distance, the example of its divine Author, by diffusing the light of the gospel more especially among the poor. This is its peculiar province and employment; and there are two ways in which it carries this benevolent purpose into execution.

The first is, by encouraging the erection of charity-schools in every part of the kingdom, and by supplying them afterwards with proper religious instructions and wholesome rules for their direction and good government. The fruit of these its pious labours and exhortations in this city, and its neighbourhood, you have now before your eyes. You here see near five thousand children collected together from the charity schools in and about London and Westminster. A spectacle this, which is not perhaps, to be paralleled in any other country in the world; which it is impossible for any man of the least sensibility to contemplate without emotions of tenderness and delight; which we may venture to say, that even our Lord himself (who always showed a remarkable affection for children) would have looked on with complacency; and which speaks more forcibly in favour of this branch of the Society's paternal care and attention, than any arguments for it that words could convey to you. I shall therefore, only observe on this head, that large as the number is of the charity children now present in this place, it bears but a small proportion to the whole number in the schools of Great-Britain and Ireland, which exceeds forty thousand. And when you consider that this Society was the original promoter, and has been the constant patron and protector of these schools, which have subsisted now for near a century; that the children educated in them are taken from the most indigent and helpless class of people; that, consequently, without these schools, they would probably have had no education at all; and that nothing is so likely to preserve them from idleness, beggary, profligacy and misery, as impressing early & strongly on their unoccupied and uncorrupted minds sound principles of piety, industry, honesty and sobriety; you will be sensible that the Society has adopted a plan no less beneficial to the public, than conformable to the sentiments of the great Author of our Religion, in recommending charity schools as one very effectual method of "preaching the Gospel to the poor."

But the Society goes still farther than this. It does not confine its cares merely to the childhood of the poor; it follows them, with unremitting kindness, through every subsequent period of their lives. It is the guard of their youth, the companion of their manhood, the comfort of their old age. The principal part of its employment is to provide, at a very considerable expense, and to dispense among the lower people of all ages and occupations a very large number of Bibles, Common Prayer-books, and small tracts on a variety of religious subjects, composed purposely for their use by men of eminent piety and ability, adapted to their capacities, and accommodated to all their various spiritual wants. In these are explained to them, in the clearest and most familiar terms, the first grounds and rudiments of their faith, the main evidences and most essential doctrines of Christianity, the several duties they owe to God, their neighbour and themselves, and the nature and benefits of the two Christian sacraments. By these, also, they are assisted in the service of the church, in their private devotions, in reading, understanding, and applying the Holy Scriptures; are supported under affliction, are guarded against temptation, and fortified more especially against those vices to which the poor are most subject.

This is a short sketch of the several objects to which the governing members of our Society have directed their attention, and the provision they have made for the instruction of the ignorant and the poor. Nor is the benevolence of our Society restrained within the limits of this island only. Its principal object is, indeed, as it certainly ought to be, the instruction of our own poor but it has occasionally extended its kind assistance to other countries both neighbouring and remote. It has established schools and missions in various parts of the East-Indies, for the conversion and instruction of Heathens; and has dispersed among them many religious tracts in the Malabar language. It has carried its regard to the Greek church in Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia, Arabia and Egypt. For this purpose it has printed the New Testament and Psalter in Arabic, and has already sent a large number of both with some other tracts into Persia and India. It has published three several editions of the bible in the Welsh language and distributed them through every part of Wales, to the amount of fifty thousand copies. It has made provision for the education of youth, and the due celebration of divine worship, in the Scilly Islands, where there was the utmost need of both; and it has likewise printed and dispersed over the Isle of Man many thousand copies of the Old and New Testament, of the Common Prayer, and other religious books, in the vulgar language of that Island.

By this constant attention of the managers of the Society to the spiritual wants of the poor in many different parts of the world, as well as at home, the number of religious tracts and books which they have distributed from their first institution to this day is so immensely great, as almost to exceed belief.

printing the area. The effect of so large a number of children, disposed in due form, and uniting with one voice in the responses and in the psalm singing, was, wonderfully pleasing and affecting. This practice has since been continued annually.

* Even within the last fifty years, the number of books & tracts distributed by them has amounted to no less than 2,834,371.

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic, it is not pulled up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully efficacious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates of respectable characters, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also consulted, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Toothach, Pleuritis, Cholice, Cramps, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Group and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone.

It seems also as if nature had ranked it the first of the class of all perforals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisis or Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of coughing fast, stooping or lying down, are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeable to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

No. 1. Sept. 1809.
I do certify, that I have been ailing nearly two years with a hectic cough and violent impression at the breast—I applied to the most eminent physicians and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief. I take this method of informing the public of the efficacy of this valuable medicine, from the cures which I have experienced—I think it an incumbent duty to offer the same to the public.

ELISHA SOWARD.
Baltimore No. 16, Water-street, sign of the plough.

No. 2. Sept. 1809.
Sir, From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sore throat, about the 26th of August, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of molasses, which took away pieces of putrid flesh and healed my throat in about 48 hours.

N. B. I also certify, that I nursed my grandchild, and infant of 17 months old which was taken about the first of August with slow fevers and loss of appetite. We immediately applied for a physician, who gave every attention for about 10 days but all to no effect; the child was given up by the physicians, and had every appearance of death, when I applied for Paul's Columbian Oil, and gave five drops morning and evening, for five days, when the child began to recover, and is now in perfect health.

MARY UNDERWOOD.
Baltimore, by Peter's Bridge.

No. 3. Sept. 6.
I hereby certify, that I had a cough and pain in my stomach for upwards of two years, when I was recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I procured one phial of that valuable medicine, which has restored me to a good state of health again.

THOMAS ELIOTT.
On the Hook's-town road near the turnpike gate.

No. 4. Feb. 12, 1809.
I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.

N. B. I had a violent toothach about two or three months ago, when I dropped a few drops of the above oil on some lint, and applied it to the tooth affected, and I received immediate relief.

ELEANOR ELIOTT.
No. 5.

Sir, I have the pleasure of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the better worm. I have been afflicted with the better in my hand for 12 years, and have made trial of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect. Hearing of Paul's Columbian Oil, about the 15th of January last, proving an effectual cure for the ringworm and similar complaints, I immediately got a phial of your Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions for about two months successively, when the better left me, and has not made its appearance since.

SUSANNA PURDEN.
N. B. My Susanna, a child aged 20 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough; I gave her six drops of the Columbian Oil, which gave immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.
