Representative Zihlman is known as a staunch friend of the National Capital. He has had a long and distinguished career in the Maryland State of Representatives. He is a former president of the Maryland State Federation of Labor. Mr. Zihlman believes that the "disfranchised half million" in the District of Columbia are entitled to the political privileges enjoyed by all other citizens of the Republic.

It is not generally known that the nearly 500,000 inhabitants of the National Capital are completely disfranchised. They have no voice in their municipal government, no representation in Congress, and cannot vote for a President. For a lorg time the disfranchised Washingtonians have sgitted for self-government, and the Zihlman bill is a step, toward that end. Mr. Zihlman stated today that he intended to assess the same of the accommodation of the years again the control of the years and intended to assess the same accommodation of the years again. I. The Greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven (vv. 1-4).

1. The disciples' question (v. 1). The professe given to Peter in connection with the announcement of his purpose to build the church, and the paying of tribute with the money in the fish's mouth, provoked jealousy on the part of the other disciples. The transfiguration scene revealed the divine person and the program of the king-dom. Seeing that the kingdom we'to come to realization, despite the tragedy of the cross, the disciples thought It best to have settled the place of rank in the kingdom. Their behavior betrayed their and state of heart. In-stead of entering into sympathy with Jesus in the dark hour of his passion, they were supremely concerned with the digdities to be conferred upon themselves.

2. Jesus' answer (vv. 2-1). He taught them concretely by placing a little child in their midst. (1) Condition of entrance into kingdom (v. 3). He showed them that the great question which concerned there is as ic whether they are really in the kingdom Their behavior revealed the fact that they needed conversion before they could enter into the kingdom. Before they could even see, much less enter into the kingdom, they must be born from above (John 3:3, f). En-trance into the kingdom is infinitely more important than rank therein.
(2) Whosoever possesses childlike hamility is the greatest (v. 4). The child is dependent, lowly, and modest. Those who have been born again—converted, have these characteristics. The principle which determines rank in the kingdom is lowliness of heart. lo th kingdom we rise by sinking. The way is down. The more one realizes his own unworthiness, the more worthy he is of the divine favor and trus-

The particular reference was to the carnality and selfishness which was expressing itself in fielr conten-Christian should solemnly inquire as to whether his life would help or hinder his fellow-believers. Am I helping someone to a higher level, or am I pulling him down'to a lower? To so sin egainst Christ's own is to meet a sure and awful fate. His doom will be worse than Cowning in the sea be worse than drowning in the sea

III. Believers Are Especially Cared For by the Heavenly Father (vv. 10-14). 1. They are under angelic guardianship (v. 10). So precious is the believer in God's sight that angelic messengers have access to the very throne of God, even beholding his face, So high is the honor bestowed upon believers that the highest angels are sent to guard them.

2. The Son came especially to save such from their lost condition (vv. 11-14). The Heavenly Father dots not will that any one of these should perish. They are the objects of the Father's seeking love. The salvation of the humble believer has been secured. by the incarnation and the sacrifice of the Good Shepherd. Since God sets such value upon even the lowest be-liever, we should be most careful in our manner of life before them and in our treatment of them.

Worship and Cultura. Worship and culture, of necessity, go hand in hand. There can be no such thing as true culture apart from the religion of our dear Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The fundamental principles of true culture are enshrined forever in the Sermon on the Mount, the ten bentitudes of the Lord Jesus. Society, spart from the Founthin-head of Grace, can display to the world nothing better than a refine ment which is, at best, a veneer.-Rev. Henry Loundes Drew.

DOG HATERS "CALLED DOWN"

Writer in New York Newspaper Says Some Harsh Things About Ene-mies of the Canine Race.

A story calculated to make dog haters grit their teeth finds its way into print, remarks the New York Tribune. An East side collie awaknot as they should be, and then se cured a prompt turning in of a fire alarm, which saved many lives.

At rure intervals a case of rables develops. With this as a basis the dog haters have secured a code whose severity is such that once in a while it naturally breaks down some dog's it naturally breaks down some dog's nervous system. Leashed and wearing a mask or jaw straps, man's best friend is denied a normal life. If, his patience exhausted and his temper frayed, he bites anything, no matter whether by accident or with ample justification, he is thrown into jall without trial. Not satisfied with this, there is a coastant outery for a practical extermination of the species, with only enough left to provide raw material for vivisectionists. Yet if a score were kept showing

Yet if a score were kept showing in one column the number of human lives man's devoted servitor has saved and in another the number in anywise lost through him, the disproportion in favor of the dog would be great. A dogless civilization would be one wherein life insurance rates would be raised.

The psychology of the dog hater has never been satisfactorily evaluated. He exists—that is all we know about him. He can scan ty be said to take physical in his idelignancy, for his physical in his idelignancy, for his gloomy and somber, yet he stubornly clings to his brenzy, putfing time inventing calcaptive which so look into a don't honest and toyal exauticently refute.

resperous New Year To All

This past year has been one of unsettled conditions and low prices of farm products, and we need every penny you have to spend right here in your home community. Just stop and think for a few moments. Your mener epent at home benefits your town and community. Why not make a new resolution for 1921? Wen you can buy goods as cheap in your own community, why not do it? You have good up-to-date stores and a thritty town, so the all-get together and push it along. Since last June I have spent a greet deal of time away from the store leading 35 cars with berries and potatoes, trying to keep in touch and the aliferent markets where it would be a benefit to us both. While from a financial standpoint it has not been a benefit to me, I hope that in the future conditions may come that we may be able to help each other, so that our relations may be both pleasant and profitable. So again let me ask you, when possible, to spend your money right here at home. Read every word in this ad and follow it for 1921. Big cuts in prices on all classes of goods. The following will give you some idea of the lower prices. Bring your produce—it will act the same as your money.
