

Freshman Class Elects Officers for 1957-58

The freshman class elected their class officers at a meeting held in the college auditorium at 4:30 P.M. on November 11, 1957.

The vice-president of the Student Government Association, William Livingston, presided at the meeting until the election of the new president, Thomas Wimbrow. Thomas, a 1957 graduate of Stephen Decatur High School, has had experience in work of this type; he served as president of the senior class there.

Edward Nock, a graduate of Severn Prep School in the Class of 1953, was elected vice-president of the class. Fulfilling the duties of secretary will be Isabel Hart from High Point High School, Class of 1957. Myrna Baker, also from Stephen Decatur High School, Class of 1957, was elected treasurer of the freshman class. Representing the class on the social committee will be Ann Bozman from Princess Anne, a 1957 graduate at St. Mary's Seminary.

STC Host to 600 MAFTA Delegates

The eighth annual convention of Maryland Association of Future Teachers of America, held on the College campus Saturday, November 16, was a great success due to the splendid cooperation with the faculty of our students. Approximately 600 attended. The guests were sponsors and students from the University of Maryland, and all colleges offering teacher education, also from the high schools having FTA clubs.

In charge of housing for overnight guests were the FTA Club of Salisbury High School, directed by Miss Brown, and Wicomico Senior High School, directed by Mrs. J. MacFaddin Dick.

In charge of general arrangements were the officers of the college chapter of FTA: Barbara Carstens, president; Wayne Smith, vice-president; J. H. Williams, treasurer; and June Taylor, secretary; Dr. Carolyn Dunlap and Dr. Leila Stevens, faculty sponsors of the chapter.

Faculty members who participated officially were President Devilbiss, who extended the welcome to the college, and Dean Willis, Miss Addis and Mr. Focht, who led group discussions.

Holly Leaf Celebrates Thirty-one Consecutive Years of Publication

The official newspaper publication of the State Teachers College, The Holly Leaf, was founded in September, 1926. The newspaper has been published ever year since its founding, sometimes monthly, occasionally quarterly, and presently bi-weekly. The Holly Leaf is the original name of the publication, and the name has never been changed or altered during the thirty-one consecutive years of publication.

Numerous other changes, however, have occurred in the size, the style, and the type of content of the newspaper. When the paper was first begun in 1926, it was approximately twice the size of the present Holly Leaf, and it was published once a month during the academic year. It assumed the form of a magazine in 1940, and was published four times during the year. In 1946-47, The Holly Leaf, due to war shortages, was a mimeographed group of sheets. It is also interesting to note that in 1947-48, The Holly Leaf was even smaller in size than at present, though not published as frequently as it is today.

The underlying philosophy of The Holly Leaf, when it was founded, was clearly stated by the first Holly Leaf staff, under the editorship of Miss Lena L. Reid, Class of 1926. The aims of the

New Policy Adopted By a Section of the Women's Dormitory

The Women's Dormitory Association, on Tuesday evening, November 12, voted upon a temporary ruling to initiate an honor system as a means of enforcing quiet during study hours. This measure is to be restricted to the "High Hall" section of the women's dorm.

For the past two years the Women's Dormitory Association has been formulating plans for a new constitution. As it is nearing completion, the Association hopes that this honor system may be included in the revision plans. If accepted, (Continued on Page 4)

Rabbi Isaac Moseson Addressed Students at Thanksgiving Assembly

Yesterday, November 26, the Christian Association sponsored the annual Thanksgiving program, held in the College auditorium at 1:45.

The College Chorus sang "Come Ye Thankful People" in Processional and again in Recessional. The Chorus also sang Wagner's "Pilgrims' Hymn" from Tannhauser, and "Song of Hope", a Hebrew melody by Goodhart.

The Thanksgiving Proclamation of the President of the United States was read by Jerry Matthews. Joyce Moore, as President of the Christian Association, then introduced the speaker, Rabbi Moseson of the Jewish Synagogue in Salisbury, who presented an inspiring message to the student body. The audience sang "Prayer of Thanksgiving," and Ernest Fuchs gave the Invocation and Benediction.

Those who helped in the success of this program were Dr. Jessie L. Fleming, as director of the College Chorus; Mr. James Di Vigilio, as advisor to the Christian Association; and Joyce Moore, Carole Kirkwood, Marilyn Miller, Betty Lee Shawn, as officers of the Christian Association. Others who helped greatly were Mary Lee Todd, Helen Moran, Janet Hopkins, Judy Windsor and Marie Rippins.

BULLETIN Special SGA Assembly Will Be Held Dec. 3

At a special meeting of the SGA, November 25, a proposed amendment to the SGA constitution was discussed. This amendment concerns the method of representation on the SGA Board. The Board voted to present this amendment to the student body for approval.

It is to be presented at an all student assembly to be held on Tuesday, December 3, at which time said amendment will be read and explained by SGA Board members. Following this each class will hold a meeting wherein the amendment will be further discussed. An election will be held on Wednesday, December 4 and each student is to vote to either accept the amendment, as a whole, or to reject it. A two-thirds affirmative vote by the student body is necessary to pass the amendment.

The amendment, in its entirety, is to be posted so that all students may read it. Questions concerning any point or points of the amendment are invited and may be asked of any board member, with further discussion to take place in the class meetings as outlined above.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

November 18, 1957

To The Editor:

Last spring money was appropriated for three students to attend the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. Coming back to STC, they stated that the only thing that they learned was that the letterhead "Holly Leaf" was too large for the size of the paper.

Money was saved on the Holly Leaf expenses last year. Instead of turning the excess back to the SGA as is customary, a Polaroid camera was purchased with the idea that the Holly Leaf could take its own pictures, reducing inconveniences to others and improving the quality of the newspaper.

The first request I received this fall was to take several shots for the Holly Leaf. A quarter of the year has gone by and one picture from this Polaroid camera has been used, the other newspaper pictures printed were from Holly Leaf files of yesteryear or formal student pictures. Even to my unexperienced eye the front page of the last issue was unbalanced. In the top left corner were two identical heads, known as tombstone heads and regarded as very poor journalism taste.

The editor is familiar with Snack Bar conditions, but resorted to "borrowing" an editorial from another paper, deploring the conditions. Editorials should be firm and to the point, not wishy-washy.

She also allows news stories filled with personal opinions to be printed. I am referring to a soccer story that omitted the fact that STC was the first team to score against Maryland this year, but adds "the team should have stayed home." Is this fair to the soccer team? Is this fair to the student body?

Another point I wish to question: Is the Holly Leaf a student newspaper or a record of administrative achievements? If so much space must be devoted to the administration, why not have a few copies printed and sent to the State Board of Education.

To be a vital representation of student interest, a student newspaper must devote space to campus problems that concern students and cover a few student activities besides sports, although the sports are important. One of the most important social aspects around STC is card-playing in the Snack Bar. Yet, during my three year stay at STC, cards have never been mentioned nor has a firm statement ever been made about the condition of the Snack Bar in the Holly Leaf.

These are only a few of my gripes, but I hope this letter will awaken people at all levels that STC students want a better and more interesting newspaper. Students of STC, let our paper be like a good wine: with age comes quality and flavor.

Edwin P. Smith
("Fuzzy" Smith)

Editorially Speaking

Dear Mr. Smith,

The Holly Leaf is the official newspaper publication of the State Teachers College, Salisbury, Maryland. For several years the staff of this publication has worked toward making it a student newspaper. Progress has been made in this direction. Further improvement along many lines is planned for this year. It must be kept in mind that effective and permanent improvement takes time.

Last spring three students attended the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention in New York City as representatives of the Holly Leaf and also of the college annual, the Evergreen. A basic sum of money was taken from the funds of each of these organizations with permission of the SGA Board for this purpose. It should be noted that each of these students spent at least the same amount of money from his own personal funds for the trip. As stated in an editorial appearing in the March 27, 1957 issue of the Holly Leaf, "There was a great deal learned by the STC representatives at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Convention held on March 14, 15, and 16 at Columbia University." Evidence of this can be seen in the growth of our paper since that time.

A Polaroid camera was purchased from Holly Leaf funds for the purpose of taking pictures for the paper. This is a new venture and as such is subject to trial and error. It is a beginning, a guidepost toward the future. Excellent photography in the newspaper, perhaps not in this school year, but in years to come, is the anticipated outcome of this venture. The pictures appearing in this issue of the paper were taken with the Polaroid camera in discussion.

The two publications of the college, namely the Holly Leaf and the Evergreen, have worked together and should continue to work together in complete harmony sharing information, pictures and ideas with no inconvenience to either one.

The condition of the Snack Bar is evident to every student. Varied measures have been taken to improve these conditions with the result that students, upon coming into contact with any mention of said problem, immediately have the thought, "Oh, that again." A new slant was needed. It was and is the belief of this editor that excerpts from an exchange paper of a college facing the same problem would bring the matter out in the open once more. In showing how this other college delivered an ultimatum to its students concerning the use of their student lounge, it was hoped to impress us with the importance of taking the responsibility upon ourselves to see that such an ultimatum is not delivered to us. A careful reading of the editorial referred to above (October 30, 1957) will prove it to be firm and to the point.

Any story appearing in the Holly Leaf containing personal opinion in any degree is clearly designated as the opinion of the writer of the particular article. It seems unnecessary to explain that an article bearing a person's name as the writer or an editorial is the expression of the opinion of that writer. The need to explain this to college students is incomprehensible. Let it also be noted that STC was the first soccer team to score on the University of Baltimore soccer team rather than Maryland as was reported in the November 13 issue of the Holly Leaf.

May we emphasize that the Holly Leaf is a STUDENT newspaper. Its first obligation is to the individual student. We are not an administrative bulletin and the staff fails to see any logical reasoning behind such an insinuation. Any administrative news carried in the columns of the paper is there because of its bearing on the student's college life. We, as students, cannot detach ourselves from the administration. There is, as it should be, an interrelationship between students, faculty and the administration. Therefore, administrative news concerns students. The Holly Leaf is pledged to the accurate reporting of campus events influencing the life of the student here at STC. To the truly observant eye, this fact manifests itself in every issue of the paper this year.

The paper has not, in any manner, displayed a predominance of sports articles. Sports, especially men's sports articles, is one of the weaker sections of the newspaper as far as the quantity of articles is concerned.

It should be noted that in no daily or weekly newspaper are sports a predominant feature.

The staff of the newspaper has been, is, and shall continue working for a better and more interesting paper.

The Holly Leaf welcomes and urges constructive criticism from any and all students who first acquaint themselves with the facts. Please do not trouble us with your "gripes," but offer instead intelligent solutions to our problems with your criticism.

FACULTY

HERE AND THERE STUDENTS

By Janice Hubbard

On November 11 the girls of the Junior class gave a kitchen shower for Miss Nancy Kline, a former STC student, whose marriage to Mr. Woodrow Robbins will take place in the near future.

Mary Evelyn Doepp, Pat Ray, and Nettie Stearn were recently guest singers at Powellville Methodist Church Homecoming and on November 17, sang at Showell Methodist Church.

Mrs. Frank White and Miss Margaret Addis have resumed their duties at the Campus School after a period of illness.

On November 12 Kay Cropper was given a surprise welcome back party by her dancing pupils at the Billy Tryall Studio.

Dr. Jessie Fleming presented a lecture on modern music before the Fine Arts Study Group of the American Association of University Women on November 12. She illustrated her lecture with piano selections.

Jane Martin, Mary Evelyn Doepp, Pat Ray, and Ernest Fuchs attended a Baptist Convention in Frederick on November 9.

On November 19 Dr. Wilbur Devilbiss spoke to the Pocomoke Lion's Club, and on November 20, attended Queen Anne's County College Night held at the Centreville High School.

May Crandall, Juanita Gordy, and Becky Forsythe presented a program of entertainment for the Masons at Delmar on November 6.

Regina Hughes attended the Yale-Princeton football game on November 16.

On November 12 Ernest Fuchs was a guest of honor at a meeting of the Salisbury Kiwanis Club.

The Wesley Foundation at STC attended, as a body, the Rockawalkin Methodist Church near Salisbury on Sunday morning, November 24. Reverend Howard Gordy, pastor of the church, was a recent guest on campus at which time he spoke to the Wesley group.

The Newman Club is giving a Christmas party on Tuesday, December 17, from 8 to 11, at the St. Francis de Sales School. Dancing, refreshments, and entertainment are planned. All students are invited.

On Friday evening, November 22, Henry Hausdorff spoke to the Friday Night Discussion Group of the Beth Israel Synagogue. His topic was, "Obligations of Parents to Insure the Proper Education of Their Children."

Accidents in 1956 took the lives of nearly 35,000 persons in the prime of life—15-44 years of age—the National Safety Council reports. An additional 19,400 persons 45-64 died from accidents.

Cheerful Work of Mrs. Margaret Ennis Noted

By JANET HART

A person who does his work quietly, efficiently, and cheerfully is often taken for granted. He becomes so much a part of his work that they become almost inseparable and one is not noticed without the other. Such a situation is our Activity Center, which functions under the management of Mrs. Margaret Ennis.

Mrs. Ennis, in addition to being Supervisor of Activities of the Snack Bar and Book Store, holds the most exacting job of being a mother of five children ranging in age from thirteen to five years. She has been connected with STC since January 7, 1952.

Perhaps the main reason that this student body is so fond of Mrs. Ennis is that she, in turn, likes them so much. When asked her opinion of the students, she exclaimed, "I love them all! They seem to keep me young. In fact, I hope to enroll as a student myself in the near future." She thinks that this college affords a wonderful opportunity to get a good education.

Understanding that the association with such a large number of people as Mrs. Ennis comes into personal contact with each day could not be all pleasant, it is surprising that she has only one major concern. This is the neglect of the students to keep the Snack Bar clean. Mrs. Ennis had this to say about the problem:

"During the time that I have been here, I have seen the Activity Center grow and improve materially. But the neglect of the students in maintaining a nice center has not improved."

This is Your Snack Bar . . .
Are You Proud of It?

Clubs and Organizations on STC Campus Meet Various Student Needs and Interests

This article is one of a series planned to acquaint students on campus with the various clubs and organizations of the college. At this time, the religious groups are being considered.

The first organization is the Christian Association, the purpose of which is to uphold and promote the ideals of Christian religion on this campus. Meetings are held, from 6:15 to 7:00 P.M. on the second Thursday of each month. Sunday Evening Vesper Services are sponsored by the Christian Association. Presently, a series of programs are being presented concerning the study of various religious denominations. The first program will be a study of the Pilgrim Holiness Church. Any student who accepts its purpose may become a member of the C.A. Miss Joyce Moore is president of the Christian Association.

The purpose of the Baptist Student Union is to strengthen the Christian life of the Baptists on Campus and to maintain a relationship between the individual and the church. Meetings are held on the first and third Thursdays of every month. Every Wednesday night, mid-week prayer meeting is held at Allen Memorial Baptist Church. Occasionally, speakers are presented at the meetings. The main objective of the group, this year, is to raise money for missions. The B.S.U. has as its president, Miss Pat Ray.

The purpose of the Bible Study Group is to increase the student's knowledge of the Bible, and broaden his understanding through his own interpretation. More specifically, it is "to understand why we believe what we do, and what the Scriptures teach." This group meets every Wednesday night. Mr. DiVirgilio is the counselor.

The purpose of the Canterbury Club is to answer any questions of the students concerning the Episcopal religion or other problems. The discussions deal with whatever the group wants to talk about. Outsiders are invited to give their opinions on various matters. Father Varley and Father Truitt attend the meetings and enter into the discussions. A guide, the "Christian Way of Living" is used, although other suggestions for topics are always welcome. Dr. Elderdice is advisor to this group; Miss Sue Magee is president.

The purpose of the Newman Club is to further the understanding of the Catholic religion. Meetings are held every first and third Tuesday of the month. Father McGinley presides at the meetings. Miss Grace Zaghi is president of the Newman Club.

The purpose of the Wesley Foundation is to maintain a contact between the student and the Methodist Church. Meetings are held on the first, second, and fourth Tuesdays of the month. General topics are discussed to interest all students. An attempt is made to choose those subjects both educational and enlightening to everyone. Miss Rebecca Matthews is president.

All students are cordially invited to attend the meetings of these groups, regardless of their church affiliation.

newspaper were (1) To act as a mirror for student activities; (2) To afford an opportunity for the expression of opinions of all those interested in the welfare of the school; (3) To encourage effective English expression.

In 1927, The Holly Leaf became a member of Columbia Scholastic Press Association at Columbia University in New York City. An issue of the newspaper in 1927 relates that Dr. Anne H. Matthews, advisor to The Holly Leaf, represented the publication at the convention held that year. The membership in the organization was continued in the years following, and Dr. Matthews accompanied student delegations to the convention, where the paper was commended for its excellence.

The Salisbury Advertiser Publishing Company began publishing the newspaper in 1932 and has been printing the paper since that time.

The College Library has, in bound form, a copy of each newspaper issued since its beginning in 1926.

STC Soccer Team Wins Final Game of Season

The Salisbury State Teachers soccer team closed its 1957 season with a decisive victory on November 11, defeating Frostburg 5 to 0 in a contest played at Towson.

This, the final game for seniors Bill Brown, Tom Fallin, and Joe Steelman, was an example of the tremendous spirit of the S.T.C. team.

The defeat of Frostburg marked the only victory in four outings for the STC team, losing to University of Baltimore, Towson, and University of Maryland frosh. Much praise is accorded to Murray Smith, the leading scorer for the team.

Sport Beat

By Gary White

Oklahoma's forty-seven game winning streak will probably never be equalled. It stands out in football as Joe Dimaggio's fifty-six game hitting streak does in baseball.

What made Oklahoma's streak was a potent offensive and a stubborn defensive. During the forty-seven games, Oklahoma scored 1,615 points while limiting their opponents to a mere 276. In other words, Oklahoma averaged 34.3 points a game while their defense was giving up 5.8 points per game. To further point out their defense, out of 47 games, Oklahoma's opponents only scored in 25.

The lowest score Oklahoma was held to was seven points and that was to a Maryland team that were called National Champions. On the other hand their highest total ran up to 66 points against hapless Kansas State.

The easiest prey for the Sooners during their streak was their own conference members. Of them Kansas, Kansas State, Iowa State and Nebraska really took a panting. In a total of 19 games against these teams they managed to push Oklahoma's defense around for a minute 59 points. Oklahoma ran themselves silly running across 812 points.

Oklahoma played two bowl games during their streak and if it hadn't been for Ed "I'll find my own way" Vereb, they would have been unscored upon. Both opponents were Maryland teams who just didn't seem to know that you have to score to win.

The Sooners' closest game of the streak occurred three weeks before the death knell. They squeaked by Colorado 14-13.

Apparently in the Notre Dame game they had the right condition of body and not of mind or else Notre Dame had too much of each.

Two STC Teams Are Competing in Volleyball League

Due to the increased number of girls competing for position on the volleyball squad two teams from STC have been selected to take part in the volleyball tournament. This year's season began on Monday, November 25. Teams comprising the league are Sharptown, Mardela, Hebron, and the STC teams. Games are scheduled for one night a week.

This season new uniforms are to be purchased for the squad. They will be of gabardine material; maroon with white trimming.

All girls playing on the squad are receiving points toward the various awards to be presented at the close of each school year. Each girl has a card on which a record of points earned is entered as earned.

Managers of the team are Nettie Stern and Sue Metz.

The first volleyball team is to known as the Sky-Rockets. Those girls selected to this team are Barbara Carstens, Joyce Flowers, Ina Roy Foskey, Pat Hutson, Carole Kirkwood, Pat Lloyd, Ruth Nielsen, Marie Rippens, Marie

Simmons and Nettie Stearn.

The Torpedoes is the name of the second team. Those girls playing on this team are Jerry Baker, Janet Hopkins, Rose Lewis, Sue Magee, Sue Metz, Pauline Osinski, Jo Patterson, Betty Shawn, Lovey Ann Truitt, and Ruth Tyler.

STC Hockey Squad Ties Villa Julie

As this article goes to press the Women's Hockey squad has an undefeated record for this season. The lassies brought home a tie score from their recent game with Villa Julie Junior College in Baltimore. This game, played on November 15 at Villa Julie, ended in a 0-0 score. The Salisbury goalie, Pat Hutson, saved the team from defeat many times throughout the game with her fast thinking and accurate hitting.

Those girls playing in the game were Mary Evelyn Doepp, Helen Ellis, Delores Gardner, Pat Lloyd, Sue Metz, Emily Burns, Joyce Bennett, Louise Holbrook, Joanne Cathell, Carole Kirkwood, Pat Hutson, Ina Ray Foskey, and Mike Shortall.

Much encouragement was given the team by the cheerleaders. Those cheerleaders making the trip were Mary Wright, Connie Mears, Becky Forsythe and Jerry Baker.

After the game all retired to Villa Julie's student lounge for refreshments.
