ITEMS BRIEF BUT NEWSY.

A Week's News Paragraphs for the Advertiser of To-day.

The public schools in this county will open Monday, September 21st.

Mrs. P. C. Todd, who has been quite sick for some time past, is now improving.

Since Wednesday last week till Tuesday, September 1st, the Clerk issued 330 longing licenses.

Mr. Lacy Thoroughgood will be with Mr. Schaumbeloff when he opens his new store in the Jackson building.

The Episcopal Sunday school held a picnic last Wednesday in the town limits belonging to E. S. Todd, Esq.

There will be a special examination of applicants for teaching Tuesday, September 15th, in the High School building.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian Church of Barren Creek Springs on next Sabbath, the 6th inst., at 10.30 a. m.

Mr. N. Schaumbeloff, the new clothier and merchant tailors has arrived with his goods and is now getting ready for fall trade.

Mrs. J. D. Williams returned home on the Pratt Sunday morning. She has been visiting relatives in Virginia for several weeks.

The library of the Presbyterian Sunday School has been restored with one hundred and fifty new books, and more will soon be added.

The Republican State Convention will meet in Baltimore September 24th. The Judicial Convention meets in Salisbury September 29th.

The green house which Mr. W. H. Jackson is building in Camden for Mr. F. W. Harold will probably be completed about the 15th inst.

The new clothing store opened here last week seems to be doing pretty well. The proprietor's name is Joseph Manko and he comes from Baltimore.

Rev. Alexander Seabree is visiting relatives in town this week. He expected to have been here in time for the Green Hill celebration but was unable to do so.

Mr. James T. Truitt is making extensive repairs to his dwelling on Broad St. When they are completed his home will be not only enlarged but considerably improved in appearance.

Mr. Anthony J. Carey, of Fruitland, has moved to Salisbury and will engage in business here in connection with the Philadelphia boot and shoe store to be opened next week.

Married, at the Parsonage of the M. E. Church, South, in Salisbury, Aug. 29, by the Rev. J. T. Whitley, Mr. Corie R. Jones of Somerset county, to Miss Bertie E. Taylor, of Wicomico.

The Eastville Herald of last week says that "Rev. James M. Hope, of Salisbury, Md., preached in the Eastville Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon. The discourse was excellent."

Mr. Jacob C. Phillips sent to this office this week a basket of delicious watermelons. They are a new variety, which Mr. Phillips originated and to which he has given the name of Peninsula.

Mr. Joseph Y. Brattain, of the Baltimore Morning Herald has been in town this week, visiting relatives. The Advertiser was glad to see him, and enjoyed very much a chat about the Baltimore papers.

Dr. Gooker and other civil engineers in the employ of the N. Y. & P. R. R. road, have been surveying the road near here with a view to leveling it and also to examining titles to the road. There are rumors that there will soon be important changes in the management.

With the first day of September, the expected oyster made his appearance at the table of every family. He has so much of a tendency to "hang fire" at that figure, and all there was of him was soon taken by the restaurants and private individuals.

Last February Fish Commissioner Humphreys gave Mr. John A. Inley, of Tyeckin a few carp for his pond, and at the time they were three or four inches long. They have grown very rapidly being now 10 to 14 inches long. They are also quite tame, and will come to the surface to be fed.

The Delmar correspondent of the Wilmington Evening says the freight business at that station for the past five months has amounted to over $30,000, and the sale of tickets to more than $9,000, and he urges the necessity of the railroad company building a new building for their business.

Rev. J. T. Whitley will conduct the regular services of the M. E. Church, South, at the Court House in Salisbury, next Sunday, Sept. 6, at 11 o'clock A. M., and 5 P. M. The sermon in the morning will be on "The Fruit of the Spirit," and the Lord's Supper will be partaken of afterwards. A welcome to all.

A fire occurred on a farm belonging to Mr. Elijah Freeny, near Delmar, last Sunday about noon. The stable was burned, but a horse which was in it at the time was gotten out. By the presence of mind of Mr. Freeny's daughter, who saw the flames from her home and immediately went to the scene, a barn which was near by, was saved. The loss is about $100. No insurance.

The following is the list of letters remaining in the Salisbury (Md.) Post-Office Thursday, September 4, 1885.

Persons calling for the above letters will please say they are advertised. J. O. P. Owens, Postmaster.

JUDGE HOLLAND RENOMINATED.

The Dead-End Broken in the Democratic Judicial Convention.

The Judicial Convention which adjourned at Ocean City August 14th, after 184 ineffectual ballots, convened at Cambridge last Wednesday and unanimously nominated Judge Holland.

The Convention convened at 4 P. M., with all the delegates present, except Dr. Coaton, of Pocomoke City. Mr. Samuel W. Woolford resumed the Chair and Mr. O. D. Collins took his position as Secretary.

As soon as the Chair called for business, Dr. Dickinson, of Worcester, took the floor and delivered another of his boomerangs for Mr. Russell, after which he made the following proposition to the Dorchester and Wicomico delegates, evidently thinking they had strong Civil Service Reformers

That they form themselves into a committee and select from the Wicomico bar the man they believed to be the best man at the bar; then the three attorneys on the delegations, Messrs. Toadvin, Henry and Patton, sign a paper asserting that they believe the party selected to be the peer of Mr. Geo. W. Russell, and if they could not conscientiously make this assertion then they were to support Geo. W. Russell.

The proposition was declined by Mr. Henry, who objected to it on the ground that it was undemocratic, also that it ignored the fact that the party called for the 18th ballot, which resulted in 8 for Holland and 8 for Russell, Dorchester and Somerset voting as they did at Ocean City. This was continued till twelve votes were taken, when Dr. Rufus Dashiell moved a recess of one hour, which was carried.

On the re-assembling of the convention at 3.30 p. m., Dr. Dashiell took the floor and stated that he thought it time that the delegates from Somerset, he said, were sent to the convention as Russell men; they had stood by him on 146 ballots, while he was yet their choice and the choice of Somerset county, yet for the harmony of the party in the four counties, Somerset was now ready to change her vote. She therefore cast her four votes for Judge Charles F. Holland, of Wicomico.

This break in the Somerset delegation caused great excitement in the crowded Court House. After it had subsided and quiet again was restored, Dr. Dickinson arose and moved that the nomination be unanimous, and pledged to Wicomico Mr. Russell's support. The motion was seconded by Mr. Dixon, of Somerset. The motion was carried.

Mr. E. S. Toadvin, of the Wicomico delegation, thanked the convention, in a short speech, for the honor it had conferred upon Judge Holland, and especially Dorchester, for her unswerving support to him.

Messrs. Dixon, of Somerset, Laws of Wicomico, Wright of Dorchester, and Dr. Dickinson of Dorchester, were appointed a committee to notify Judge Holland of his nomination. After this the convention adjourned sine die.

When the news of Judge Holland's nomination was received here, many of his friends hastened to tender their congratulations. Every citizen of the Judge has been busy shaking hands with people who are rejoiced at the result of the convention; Wicomico will give him a rousing majority.

The following congratulatory telegrams have been received by Judge Holland:

Accept my congratulations on your nomination, with promise of hearty support. GEORGE M. URSUVA.

Accept my congratulations on your unanimous nomination. E. E. JACKSON.

CAMBRIDGE, September 2. Accept my congratulations on your unanimous nomination. HENRY LLOYD.

CAMBRIDGE, September 2. Add my name to the list of your supporters. A. P. MILES.

CAMBRIDGE, September 2. Accept my sincere congratulations on your unanimous nomination. J. A. PARSONS.

CAMBRIDGE, September 2. Nominated by acclamation on 147th ballot. S. P. TOADVIN.

SEAFORD, September 2. Accept congratulations. RUFUS W. DASHIELL.

CAMBRIDGE, September 2. Nominated unanimously. Congratulations. E. S. TOADVIN.

CAMBRIDGE, September 2. The right has prevailed; accept hearty congratulations. R. G. HENRY.

CAMBRIDGE, September 2. Accept my congratulations. You are nominated. EDWARD T. FOWLER.

SNOW HILL, September 3. I congratulate you and tender you my most earnest support. G. W. POWELL.

A Card to the Public.

Mr. Editors—I wish to make a correction of an advertisement in your paper in reference to fertilizers, where I am represented as saying that "I used Orchilla Guano on wheat in 1883 alongside of Tilghman's Mixture, costing me $30. At harvest cost me no difference in yield. The land is now in corn and the difference is very plainly seen where the two manures were put, being largely in favor of Orchilla, which I find will pay me better on corn than it did even on wheat. I am convinced by this trial of the guano that it is possessed of great lasting power and is therefore the very article we farmers want to improve our soil with."

What I did say in substance as follows: That I used the Orchilla guano and Tilghman's Mixture on wheat in 1883, leaving out a strip between the two, where I put nothing, and at harvest I could see no difference between where I put Orchilla and where I put nothing, but there I used Tilghman's Mixture, as my neighbors to whom I showed it will testify. This season has been so dry I could not form any correct judgment as to the corn, one seems to be as good as the other. I have been using Tilghman's Mixture for four years, and shall use it again this fall, as it has proved more satisfactory to me than any other fertilizer I have ever used. It not only brings me good crop the first year, if at all seasons, but it grows my land.

JOHN MICHAEL ARNOLD, Salisbury, Aug. 29th, 1885.

The County Commissioners.

Board met Tuesday, September 1st, with a full Board present. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Report of the examiners on proposed new county road in 1st district, to wit: At Appleton Marsh, was filed and laid over to next meeting. Report is favorable to opening said road.

Mr. Mann reported that he had contracted with Lambert H. Cooper to build out new bridge at the old Dratton mill out of good white oak for $38.00. Also, that he had received the ditching done in 1st district.

Mr. Waller, of the Board, was authorized to have the tin and woodwork on the Court House painted.

Adjourned to meet Sept. 15th, 1885.

Some important correspondence was sent out this week on account of lack of space.

Our Sharptown Letter.

Special to THE ADVERTISER.

The canny is not in operation at present.—Samuel Walker has bought the "Rider" property on Water St.—The farmers of this vicinity are busily engaged, sowing fodder.—The M. E. Church is to be newly papered, and re-painted at an early day. A good thing—"It is up" brothers.—Capt. John Selby launched a small boat from his wharf Saturday. She was christened, "Louie R. Turner."—The Smith & Stevenson are running their evaporator day and night, owing to the rush of peaches on hand.—Mr. R. W. Mobray, of Cambridge, is the guest of T. J. Twilley, Esq.—Hon. J. Augustus Parsons, of Salisbury was in town Thursday, and delivered an excellent address on the subject of his numerous friends, who had assembled to hear him.—Mr. Alfred Windsor is erecting for Mr. George Phillips a neat and substantial residence on Ferry St. The building will be completed about the last of this month, and adds greatly to the appearance of that section of the town.—At the last meeting of the School Trustees for this town, they appointed Mr. Truitt and Miss Lizzie J. McAllister to take charge of the schools. They also ordered some repairs to be made on the building. Mr. Truitt is a graduate of St. John's College, and will, no doubt, strive for the promotion of his pupils. He has heretofore wielded the pedagogical rod. We need not say anything in regard to Miss McAllister, as her re-appointment proves the satisfaction she has given as a teacher.

Who Was Sold?

A rumor has taken that treasure of some kind is buried in the ground on the Frederickian peninsula, lately removed, formerly sold. Accordingly at the meeting of the Mite Society of that congregation last Tuesday night, it was resolved to proceed to the spot and see what could be found there. Anticipating such a move, one of the ladies, whose interest in all matters connected with the church and the society is well known, had prepared a "sell" by burying, the preceding afternoon, a coffee pot and a box where the folks would be likely to dig. The old coffee pot was put in the ground and on top of this was placed the box which was covered up with new brown paper and tied with new string, and both were then covered up. She repaired with the rest to the scene of the digging, and, laughing in her sleeve, she watched the others delve and waited for developments. Of course the box was soon struck, but the new string and paper gave away the trick, and the laugh was accordingly on the wrong side. But they all had lots of fun.

Jurors for September Term.

Judge Holland drew the jury to serve at the September term of court for Wicomico county, Tuesday. The names are as follows: Stanton Parsons, Charles R. Howard, Lambert H. Cooper, Vaughn S. Waller, Wm. L. Brewington, W. W. Moore, Washington Phillips, James Laws, Perry H. Waller, George W. Cathell, Jeremiah B. Jones, John W. Smith, Isaac Kennedy, Charles E. Williams, Joseph A. Phillips, W. W. Disharoon, Elijah H. Parsons, Elijah Freeny, Eliska Powell, Benjamin Dennis, John Hich of E. James E. Phillips, W. W. Gentry, Alexander W. Carey, John E. Parker, Wm. A. Catlin, James Robinson, Minus F. Parker, John W. Parker of L. James M. Roberts, John A. Hearn, Asa Graham, Charles R. Disharoon, George A. Goslee, Harry S. Todd, William F. Fletcher, Wm. B. Gentry, Wm. S. Moore, Washington D. Dennis, Washington I. Dennis, Thomas S. Rounds, Sylvanus Trader, Samuel I. Conway, John G. Rayner, Thomas A. Melson, William H. Holloway, Hugh Ellingsworth, Benjamin F. Booth. Court met on the fourth Monday of this month.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of Temple Lodge No. 25, A. O. U. W., held in their Hall at Salisbury Tuesday last, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

This Lodge has heard with sorrow of the death of Bro. Danl. D. Rounds. Bro. Rounds gave his best efforts to the promotion of the interest of the Lodge and the spread of its beneficent principles. His brother members always held him in esteem and affection. We shall miss his kindly greeting, his generous devotion and earnest sympathy; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Temple Lodge No. 25, A. O. U. W., mourn the death of Bro. Rounds, and that we, his bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in their irreparable loss, and pray that the God above will be their stay in this trying hour.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be tendered to the family of our deceased Brother by word of the St. Lawrence, Wicomico Record, and Protector, and entered on the minutes of this Lodge.

Death of Richard Venables.

Died at his residence near Barren Creek Springs on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 1st, Mr. Richard D. Venables, in the 65th year of his age. Thus has passed away a good husband and father, and a kind neighbor and one of the foremost citizens of his district and county. He leaves a wife and four sons and three daughters to lament their loss. He went to school in Salisbury during 1834-35, and has spent his entire life farming in this county. He had one sister, who was the wife of the late Mr. Joseph Brattain of Barren Creek Springs. His remains were interred in the P. E. Cemetery at Quantico, Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. F. B. Adkins.

A Card.

Mr. Editors.—Through the columns of your valuable paper I wish to state my business and correct some statements made by one Col. Hollis (so-called) in the Wicomico Record. I have been a painter for forty-four years; served under my father. I have painted some of the finest buildings on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, or Delaware and never had a fault found. The best recommendation for a man is his work. Mr. Hollis has slandered all the painters in Salisbury. I challenge his work, and challenge him to match me on any job of work, either house painting or graining the test to be made by the work, that will speak for itself.

WM. J. ARNOLD.

Last Wednesday night a lodge of Independent Order Mechanics was instituted in Salisbury by Wm. Gentry, Architect James H. Mages, assisted by Vice Grandmaster James Johnson, both of Baltimore. The lodge will be called Blue Ridge No. 50. The officers elected were as follows: Supreme Master and D. D. G. A., J. C. Adams; W. M., John S. Adams; J. M. Best; T. Waller; R. S., John H. Gentry; S. S., George T. Henson; T. R., Lambert W. Adkins; Chaplain, Nathan W. Evans; Conductor, Eliska E. Twilley; R. G. W. M., Charles M. Moore; L. G. W. M., J. M. C. Kihany; E. G. J. M., Alfred J. Melvin; L. G. J. M., John G. Brewington; E. G. J. M., Frederick O. S. Thon; J. Murphy. There are now fifty lodges in the order in the State of Maryland.

Mrs. Pannie Hoar of Washington, D. C., who had been visiting relatives in Salisbury, returned to her home last Tuesday.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

Proceedings of Last Tuesday's Meeting—Appointment to St. John's.

The School Board met last Tuesday. B. S. Morris was before the Board and stated that through the co-operation of the trustees and the people in his district, he had raised the sum of $73.00 to be applied to purchasing a district library, and asked the Board to appropriate a like sum for the same purpose, whereupon the Board passed the following resolutions and resolution:

Resolved, That the School Board provide that the Board county school commissioner shall make an appropriation, annually, of ten dollars, to any school district that shall raise a like sum, to be applied to purchasing a library, and

Wicomico. The teachers and trustees of school No. 6 (Electon Dist. No. 8.) have raised the sum of $73.00 which they are ready and willing to apply to purchasing books for a library for said school, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Board pay to said district a sum equal to the amount raised by the district, to wit: $73.00, in annual installments of $10.00 dollars, as provided by Law; this resolution to be complied with by the Board, whether the sum raised by said district be all expended immediately, or in installments.

Mr. Forman, of the High School, Mr. Perry, the Examiner, and the teacher, Mr. Morris were appointed a committee to select a list of books to be submitted to the Trustees.

John T. Truitt was appointed to fill a vacant scholarship at St. John's College. The appointments of teachers were confirmed in all cases where appointments were reported. Assistant teachers were appointed as follows: Frederickian, Miss B. Bounds; Sharptown, Miss E. E. McAllister; B. C. Springs, Miss Lulu Langdale; Color School, Nanticoke, Morella Dickinson. Special examination of teachers was ordered Tuesday, September 15th. The Board decided to pay the teachers the first and second terms the same salary paid last year, and in case of a reduction, which is probable, it could be made in the Spring term salary. It was decided to open schools Monday, Sept. 17.

DOHCHESTER COUNTY.

Death of Lieut. Barney—The Peach Yield Heavy This Season.

The Democrats of Dorchester will hold their primaries to-day, and the convention will meet in Cambridge next Tuesday.

It is expected that Our Boy Base Ball Club of Baltimore city, who last year held the championship of the amateur diamond, will cross with the Muffers some day next week in a exciting game will be the result.

Cambridge Glaze.

John Bryan, a colored idiot, was shot and painfully wounded in the hand last Sunday at a colored campmeeting at Smithville, near Taylor's Island. The shooting was done by a Baltimore colored man who came down on the Pilot boat to the meeting.—Cambridge News.

Peaches are proving a bonanza to Dorchester this year. The crop is a good one and is bringing remarkably fine prices. On Monday over eight thousand boxes were shipped from Cambridge alone, and in all parts the owners of the golden fruit are reaping a rich harvest.—Cambridge News.

Beckwith's camp closed Sunday night, and as we said last week, will remain closed in all probability for some years. The results, from what we can learn, were very unsatisfactory to all concerned. Among diversions of the camp was a scandal started by one of the ministers by one or more thoughtless young men, which appears to be utterly without foundation. The Neck people will do a wise thing to call no more camps at Beckwith's.—Cambridge Era.

News has reached Cambridge of the death of Lieut. Barney, of Washington, D. C., and Chase Barron, formerly of the United States Navy, and for many years a resident of Cambridge, where he had many friends. Lieut. Barney entered the service in 1835 as a midshipman, and passed through the various grades until he reached the rank of Captain. He was married a Miss Deane, of Washington, and had several children, a large fortune, and for some time they resided in Paris. He performed very little active service, and was placed on the retired list by reason of physical inability.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

Democratic and Prohibition Conventions. A Fatal Horse Disease.

The Somerset Democratic and Prohibition county conventions will both meet in Princess Anne, September 8, to nominate local tickets and elect delegates to the State convention.—Crisfield Leader.

Col. Chas. Chaille Long, the eminent African explorer, paid a visit last week to his native town here and was welcomed by the friends of his boyhood. He has been over on Chinese steamer ships since.—Princess Anne Marylander.

We hear the names of Wm. Clarke Coulbourn and Thos. Stevenson, of Lawrence District, and G. S. McCready and L. J. Riggins, of Crisfield District, mentioned in connection with County Commissioners ticket. The three former democratic and the latter republican. All are good men for the position.—Crisfield Leader.

The Democratic primaries, to elect delegates to the County Convention, will be held in the different districts of the county Saturday. The Convention will meet in this town the following Tuesday to nominate candidates for county offices, and to select delegates to the State Convention, which assembles in Baltimore September 16, to nominate candidates for State offices.—Princess Anne Herald.

The Postmasters at Princess Anne, Crisfield and Deal Island were appointed on Saturday by the Board of Postmasters: Princess Anne, Samuel P. Smith; Crisfield, Oscar B. B. Ewell; Deal Island, Zach. W. Webster. All of these gentlemen are good selections and will, without doubt, discharge the duties of their offices satisfactorily to the patrons of their offices. There was a contest for each office.—Princess Anne Marylander.

A horse disease has made its appearance in Salisbury. Mr. G. Albert Dougherty, of Princess Anne, lost a valuable animal last Friday via Princess Anne, Samuel P. Smith; Crisfield, Oscar B. B. Ewell; Deal Island, Zach. W. Webster. All of these gentlemen are good selections and will, without doubt, discharge the duties of their offices satisfactorily to the patrons of their offices. There was a contest for each office.—Princess Anne Marylander.

The Town Commissioners have passed ordinances prohibiting the sale of cider on the streets, and the driving of horses at a faster gait than six miles an hour within the corporation.—Shore Hill Messenger.

Two small children of Joseph Solob, colored, were taken to school on Tuesday last, by attempting to start a fire with a stick of kindling in a neighbor's house. On her return she found the children lying on the ground and the children most horribly burned.—Pocomoke Record.

AGRICULTURAL.

Sharpen Them Up.

How often we see a farmer trying to plow with a dull plow, or dragging over the ground with a harrow, the teeth so dull that it is a heavy drag to the team, while the work done is of the poorest quality. Or another one cutting wheat or meadow with a reaper or mower so dull that it is not only a heavy load, but more or less grain or grass is left because the sickle is too dull to cut it. It costs but little to sharpen the teeth of the farm implements, while the improved quality of the work done will more than pay for the difference in a short time, while added to this is the saving of labor both to men and teams. You can not do as smooth, nice plowing with a dull plow, or work the soil into as fine a tilth with a dull harrow teeth, or save all the wheat or corn in a field when you are cutting with the sickle dull. In either case the expense of sharpening can be made up in a half day's work. And it is a false idea of economy that induces the farmer to keep working with a dull implement under the idea that he is saving a little by putting off having them sharpened. And the same rule holds good with the small garden tools. You can not do fast or efficient work with dull hoes or rakes. It takes but a few minutes to sharpen either, and you can work with much more ease and comfort, and do considerably more work in the same length of time than will fully make up for the time required to sharpen up the tools. Take a little pains to sharpen and brighten up the tools and see how much easier and better the work will be done.—Home and Farm.

Remedy for Cut Worms.

These troublesome pests, which annually destroy large areas of young corn and cabbage plants, as well as those of melons, squashes and pumpkins, seem to have an aversion to saltpetre, a solution of which in proportion to one tablespoonful to a gallon of water, has so far proved a sure preventive. A convenient arrangement for applying is a bucket holding two of three gallons and a half-pint tin dipper. The saltpetre should be dissolved in a small quantity of warm water, then mixed with the liquid in the bucket. In applying the liquid care should be used not to have it placed close to the roots of the plants and entirely around them. As the cut worms work near the surface a small quantity of the solution will be sufficient for each hill, and the labor of applying it is but light compared to that of digging the earth away from the plants with the fingers and killing the worms, which was formerly supposed to be the only safe remedy.

Luxuries Unavoidable.

The farmer is very apt to regard his hens of grain, root-house stores of vegetables, his nice porkers and his fine flock of chickens, ducks, geese and turkeys, his daily gathering of eggs, his nice butter, milk, cream, and such articles as he produces, as the necessities of life. But one-half of the world, says two-thirds, or even all of it not engaged in husbandry, look upon the majority of these things as luxuries. The farmer who grumbles at such a lot in life cannot appreciate a good living. How many thousands of villagers are there all over the country who would gladly exchange with him? Farmers are admitted to be often short of money, yet the majority of them have plenty that will bring money and all who have half the energy and thrift necessary to make a living in a village or city, have a home well supplied with comforts, and live on the fat of the land.—Ez.

Chicken Cholera.

The following is said to be a never-failing remedy for chicken cholera: Make a strong tea of the common Jimson weed (Jatropha) which is the proper name, crush up leaves and seeds, and mix up with corn meal or anything you feel like and give the chicks; if they fail to eat it readily, pour a tablespoonful of this mixture into their throats. The following is pronounced not only a preventive but a cure: Take the weed known as dog fennel, or dog daisy, and make a strong tea and give to the chickens to drink instead of fresh water. Keep them confined and allow them to have no other water and they will soon drink the tea. It will cure the sick ones and prevent the well ones from taking the cholera. It is a good plan to gather the weed and dry in the shade, so as to have in case of need.

Cabbage Worms.

A Kentucky correspondent of an agricultural paper, writing about the cabbage worm, says: "Five years ago I was troubled with the pests that I almost despair of saving any cabbage. I have half an acre in my garden, and I have had four barrels of salt in my kitchen since it was broken up, and have had no worms since. I do this every year." I was troubled with worms in my strawberries and I salted them; have had none since. When cabbage is already infested, give to the chickens the safest and quickest way to get rid of them is to pull out an under-leaved and fold it over the cabbage in the garden. Do this in the evening; go early in the morning and every worm on the head will be on the folded leaf. All you have to do is to set your foot on them and kill them."

Sulphur and Salt.

The use of sulphur with three stock of all kinds has a value in preventing many forms of disease, and especially skin diseases. I would not presume to say any success in raising stock without a free use of sulphur, and with twice I find it of very great value. Salt by the barrel and sulphur by the barrel has been my practice, and I feel liberally one barrel of sulphur to ten barrels of salt for the best profit and success. Sulphur must be used cautiously, as it is an active poison. The average bird had better not be trusted in using it. I have had chickens die by such over-doses, and I have seen them die by it. I have thoroughly and liberally used it in giving it.—Jesse Hagerdorn.

A Daily Defecation.

The Hon. John Kelly, the head and front of Tammany Hall, a man of strict integrity, an indefatigable worker, early in his office, late to leave, so burdened with business that regular meals were seldom known by him, with mind in constant tension and energies steadily trained, finally broke down.

The wonder is that he did not sooner give way. An honest man in all things else, he acted unfairly with his physical resources. He was over-drawing upon his bank with-out ever depositing a cent. The account overdrawn, the bank suspended and both are now in the hands of medical receivers.

It is not work that kills men. It is irregularity of habits and mental worry. No man in good health frets from his work. Eye and nose when the bank of vigor suspends, these men will wonder how it all happened, and they will keep wondering until their dying day unless, perchance, some candid physician or interested friend will point out to them how by irregularity, by excessive mental strain, by constant worry and by plunging in deeper than they had a right to go, they have produced that loss of nervous energy which almost invariably expresses itself in a deranged condition of the kidneys and liver, for it is a well-known fact that the poison which the kidneys and liver should remove from the blood, if left therein, soon knocks the life out of the strongest and most vigorous man or woman. Daily building up of these vital organs by so wonderfully and highly reputed a specific as Warner's safe cure, is the only guarantee that our business men can have that their strength will be equal to the labors daily put upon them.

Mr. Kelly has nervous dyspepsia, we learn, indicating, as we have said, a breakdown of nerve force. His case should be a warning to others who, pursuing a like course, would certainly reach a like result.—The Sunday Herald.

About Milking Cows.

It is a very bad plan to change milkers often. When you get good ones, keep them if you possibly can, even though you have to do some watching. Some milkers will try to get a cow in a very short time. Some one has written, "Milkers are born, not made." There is some truth in this. Some milkers will always get more milk from a cow, from day to day, and from month to month, than others. They seem to have a natural tact for the business; while some parties can never seem to get the most extended experience, learn the art satisfactorily. A rapid milker is always the best. Slow milkers are an abomination and should not be tolerated. However, we have seen negroes that were very slow at almost any other work that were expert milkers.

The secret never should always with the milk the same cows. The cows become accustomed to the one person, and will not readily give down their milk to new hands for several days.

Keep good cows, feed high, and employ the best milkers that can be had.—E. M., in Southern Live Stock Journal.

Hydrophobia.

Franklin Dyer, a highly respectable and intelligent farmer, of Helena, Kent county, Md., gives the following as a sure cure for the bite of a mad dog.

"Hydrophobia is a plant well-known to most persons, and is to be found in many of our gardens. Immediately after being bitten, take an ounce of the root of the plant (the green is preferable, but the dried will answer, and may be found in any drug store, and was used by me), slice or bruise, put in a pint of fresh milk, let down to half pint, strain, and when cold drink it; fasting last six hours afterward, and next morning repeat the dose, prepared as the last, and this will be sufficient.

"It is recommended that after each dose nothing may be eaten for at least six hours. I have a son who was bitten by a mad dog eighteen years ago, and four other children in the neighborhood were also bitten; they took the above dose, and are alive and well today. I have known a number of others who were bitten and applied the same remedy."

Hollow Horn.

The disease commonly known as "hollow horn" has no immediate connection with the horns, as animals without horns manifest the same symptoms. The disease in question is the result of inflammation, extending from the mucus membrane lining the nostrils into the sinuses of the skull and horns, there being a direct communication between these parts. Debility, improper and insufficient food, exposure, and all other causes that tend to weaken the system, may give rise to this condition. The disease is not contagious, but is hereditary, and should consist mainly of good nursing. Keep the animal in dry, warm, well ventilated quarters; pay particular attention to carding and brushing; give nourishing food and a little physic if necessary. Boring the horns is useless and barbarous, and is to be placed in the same category as cutting off the tail as a remedy for the "wolf" as still practiced by the ignorant.—American Agriculturist.

New Mode of Preserving Milk.
It is said that a company has been formed in New York City for securing pure milk by a new process. Fresh, pure milk, made in localities where it is cheap, is canned, bottled and corked when first drawn from the cow, and immediately first drawn in water or steam, both under a pressure of the atmosphere. It is then cooled, after which it may be kept a year without undergoing any changes. Heating destroys all germs and bottling prevents all connection with the outside air. Should the new method prove equal to the expectations of the projectors it will work a revolution in the milk business of the country. Give the people of the large cities cheap and pure milk, and the business would be largely increased, much to the benefit of the producers.

Consumption Cured.—An old physician retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Activated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge to all who desire it, this receipt, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Jones, 140-Power Block, Rochester, N. Y.

In the West scattering oats and barley in winter wheat is considered an extravagance. They rob the crop of much plant food, but this is soon taken off by the protection which they give against blowing away the soil from the wheat roots, or its being frozen, which is also often injurious.

HIGH GRADE BONE FERTILIZERS.
We take pleasure in again calling the attention of farmers to our High Grade Fertilizers. It being eight years since they were first offered to consumers under their present form, and from that time until now there has been an increasing demand for them, which is a far better testimony to us than any letters of praise could be. Although we do not want for these latter, as we are in receipt of many, it has been our policy to put them out for sale at a low price, and the result is that we have them on hand in large quantities. We know how and the result is that we have them on hand in large quantities. We know how and the result is that we have them on hand in large quantities.

THEIR CHARACTER.
The main characteristic of our fertilizers is that they are prepared with particular reference to the crop, and not to a chemical analysis, the latter does very well in the place and we believe in fertilizer thoroughly, but consumers are too often misled with the idea that a chemical analysis is the main thing, and if they get a good analysis and high chemical value, and a fertilizer with a high analysis, they will be misled. It is a fine fertilizer. Now it may happen that a fertilizer with a commercial valuation of $25.00 per ton, is a better fertilizer than one with a valuation of $40.00 per ton, based on a chemical analysis. And why should this be? Only because the material used in the one valued at $25.00 is better adapted to the crop than the material in the other.

THEY ARE UNIFORM.
The goods we manufacture are uniform in composition, and are only varied in proportion to the crops for which they are intended. We have no cheap material for us to use, and we believe in fertilizer thoroughly, but consumers are too often misled with the idea that a chemical analysis is the main thing, and if they get a good analysis and high chemical value, and a fertilizer with a high analysis, they will be misled. It is a fine fertilizer. Now it may happen that a fertilizer with a commercial valuation of $25.00 per ton, is a better fertilizer than one with a valuation of $40.00 per ton, based on a chemical analysis. And why should this be? Only because the material used in the one valued at $25.00 is better adapted to the crop than the material in the other.

BONE FERTILIZERS.
Our products are of a BONE BARK, because we believe that is the most satisfactory source of phosphoric acid, and the large amount of animal matter our fertilizers contain makes them especially valuable in what may be called the off or poor seasons. Some years it is noticed that some fertilizers do not give the same results, but we find the most favorable comparisons for our products are in the poor years.

To the Farmers of Wicomico and Adjoining Co's.
In taking the agency for the above well known and reliable fertilizing manufacturers, we call your attention to the fact that we have never been upon this market.

—Congressman Findlay, of Baltimore city, has been using the appointment of Mr. Morris A. Thomas as Indian Inspector, as an occasion for pouring out the venom of his spleen upon Senator Gorman. When it is what he calls the appointment of a bad man to office that he criticizes, but it takes no shrewd observer to discern the real motive of Mr. Findlay's attack. His hostility to Senator Gorman is evident throughout, and it is even said that the worthy congressman from Baltimore city has an itching palm for Senatorial honors. His bluster is nothing more than an effort to create an opposition to the return of Mr. Gorman to the Senate, and he hopes that if he is successful, the choice may fall on himself. Mr. Findlay's reputation is plain-worth, but his methods and motives are somewhat reprehensible, and he will find that his attempts at mud-slinging will neither benefit himself nor injure the object of his attack.

—Much speculation is being indulged in as to what the next Congress will do with regard to the tariff. There can be no doubt of the fact that the desire for some relief from the now excessive import duties is rapidly spreading. The people are protesting against paying $1.50 for goods that are worth only $1, in order to put money in the pockets of a few manufacturers. The principle is wrong, and the more speedily the relief, the better will it be for the country.

MARYLAND DEMOCRATS.

Nomination of Mr. Turner as Comptroller and Mr. Jones as Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

The democratic State convention assembled at noon Wednesday in Baltimore at the New Assembly Rooms, composed of over 100 delegates from all parts of the State, and was attended by a large number of the representative party men of Maryland. The delegates from the counties and the city of Baltimore were all full.

Senator A. P. Gorman, as chairman of the State central committee, went upon the platform, and was given a hearty welcome. The Senator called the body to order, and addressed the convention in a brief speech.

Mr. James A. L. McClure, secretary of the State central committee, called the roll of the delegates, including the contestants from Allegany, Gen. Andrew C. Chapman, of Charles, nominated for temporary president of the Hon. James B. Groom, of Cecil, who was unanimously elected. The committee on credentials then announced, and Mr. A. Stirling Pennington, their chairman, went upon the platform and made their report. The temporary officers were recommended to be made permanent, which the convention adopted unanimously.

Mr. Pennington said the committee had found the credentials of the delegation from Allegany county, where there was a contest. The committee heard both sides to the question fully, and gave them all the time they wanted. After hearing all that was to be said the committee discussed the questions at length, and with the purpose in view of serving the best interests of the party. The committee united in recommending that the regular delegation from Allegany, headed by ex-Judge Josiah H. Gordon, were entitled to the seats in the convention. After considerable discussion, the report was adopted.

The nomination of a candidate for comptroller of the State treasury was next in order. Col. Frederick J. Nelson, of Frederick, nominated Mr. J. Frank Turner, of Talbot, the present incumbent, in a strong speech. He eulogized the economical and efficient financial administration of Mr. Turner, and gave the statistics to show how the sinking funds had been carefully guarded and a large surplus on hand to the credit of the State. The nomination of Mr. Turner was seconded by Mr. Legg, of Queen Anne's, and others. The Hon. Levin L. Waters, of Somerset, nominated as ex-officio clerk of the Court of Appeals Mr. Spencer C. Jones, of Montgomery county, the present incumbent, in an eloquent, but brief speech. The nomination of Mr. Jones was also seconded by several.

The nomination was put that the nomination of Mr. Turner and Mr. Jones be made permanent, which was carried with a shout, and those gentlemen were declared the regular democratic nominees on the State ticket. A committee was appointed—Messrs. R. E. Breckan, R. H. Brodgen, Herman Strong, Frederick J. Nelson and Joseph R. Selig—to notify them of their nomination. This was done verbally at Barron's Hotel, but the committee will send the candidates a formal letter.

A remarkable case of diphtheria, which was afflicted for six years with Asthma and Bronchitis, during which time the best physicians could give no relief. Her life was despaired of, until in last October she procured a Bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, when, in a few days, she was well, and by continuing its use for a short time she was completely cured, gaining in flesh 50 lbs. in a few months. Free Trial Bottles of this certain cure of all Throat and Lung Diseases at Dr. Levin D. Collier's Drug Store. Large Bottles $1.00.

MARYLAND POLITICS.

Tickets Nominated in Several Counties and Baltimore City.

WORCESTER DEMOCRATS.

The Democratic County Convention to nominate a county ticket and delegates to the State convention was held at Snow Hill, Monday, with closed doors, the object being to exclude reporters of the press. Dr. Geo. W. Bishop called the body to order at 3.30 p. m. The following ticket was selected: Clerk of Court, John W. Blanton, of Berlin; register of wills, Thomas D. Purcell, of Snow Hill; sheriff, Edward W. McMaster, of Atkinson's district; state senate, Samuel K. Dennis, of Pocomoke City; house of delegates, John N. Henman, of East Berlin; Edward White, of Calhoun's district, and Joshua B. Waters, of Stockton; county commissioners, Wm. M. Purnell, of New-ark; Lemuel W. Onie, of Girdlestead; W. Thomas Boston, of Pocomoke City; Selby P. Truitt, of Snow Hill, and Elijah Figg, of Atkinson's district; surveyor, Peter S. Shockley, of Calhoun's district; wreck master, Thomas C. Pruitt, of Stockton; delegates to the State convention, A. J. Merrill, Dr. George W. Bishop, B. Jones Taylor and Thomas P. Townsend; alternates, Colonel Wm. J. Aydelotte, Levin J. Houston, Wm. S. Wilson and John W. Henry.

When the name of John N. Henman was presented for the House of Delegates, Wm. S. Wilson opposed him in a warm speech, stating that Mr. Henman was ineligible according to the State Constitution, in that he had not paid over to the comptroller of the treasury all the state taxes collected by him during his incumbency as collector of state and county taxes. Mr. Wilson's remarks brought forth heated replies from John W. Smith and Clayton J. Purnell, who, in defense of Mr. Henman, stated that he was ready at any time to settle with the comptroller.

Resolutions eulogizing Mr. Gorman were adopted.

William S. Wilson was urged to accept a nomination for the House of Delegates, but he positively refused. The ticket does not give perfect satisfaction and a part of it is a surprise to everyone. The independent are getting on their war-paint and it is thought that they will make out a ticket soon.

BALTIMORE CITY.

In the democratic conventions of the three legislative districts of Baltimore city, which met at noon Tuesday, delegates to the State convention were elected and candidates nominated to the legislature. Two of the Senators, H. Welles Rusk, of the first district, and Thomas G. Hayes, of the third district, held over for two years. In the second district Mr. Isidor Rayner, of the twelfth ward, was nominated. The third legislative district convention adopted a resolution pledging the support of its nominees to Senator Gorman for re-election, and commending him for the support of the entire democracy of Maryland. The democratic ticket for the house of delegates for the city is as follows:

First legislative district—Jas. R. Willing, Edward Fitzgerald, John Roney, Peter J. Campbell, Richard J. Penn and Charles H. Evans.

Second legislative district—C. Dodd McFarland, Patrick Kelly, Rodwell Turner, Pembroke Lee Thom, L. W. Gunther and Timothy Hayes.

Third legislative district—Charles A. Hoffman, Lewis Reitz, Harry A. Schultz, John Duling, Henry C. Seeb and Louis C. McCusker.

SOMERSET PROHIBITIONISTS.

The convention of the national prohibition party of Somerset county met at Prince's Anne, at 2 p. m. Tuesday, with James T. Daniel, of Tangier district, in the chair, and O. D. Locates, secretary. The proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. B. C. Warren, of Lawrence's district. All the districts in the county except three were represented, as follows: Princess Anne, Daniel P. Clark, St. P. Clark; St. Peter's, Isaac T. Parks; Tangier, James T. Daniel, J. T. Webster and J. D. Locates; Mt. Vernon, O. H. Furness and Daniel W. Webster; Fairmont, William E. Parks, J. T. Landen and Joshua Gillis; Lawrence's, Rev. B. C. Warren and A. J. Lawson; Crisfield, Dr. H. H. Gunby, Brinkley's, Dame's Quarter and Smith's Island were not represented. The convention was held with closed doors, no one but the delegates being present. The following ticket, to be voted for at the coming election in Somerset county, was nominated: For register of wills, James T. Daniel; for sheriff, John W. Riggins; for delegates to the Legislature, Noah M. Lawson, Samuel H. Beauchamp, James L. Bennett; for county commissioners, Alfred T. Laid, Noah J. Gibbons and Wm. D. Jones. Four of the nominees are republicans and four democrats.

BALTIMORE COUNTY.

The following is the ticket nominated by the Democratic convention of Baltimore county in Towson Monday: Clerk of circuit court, John W. Shanklin; sheriff, Silas V. Miller; county treasurer, Dr. H. J. Hebb; county commissioners, Thomas Todd, John E. Crotch, James Bittoushouse, county surveyor, Charles B. McLean; house of delegates, John Hubner, Michael O'Hara, James J. Lindsay, Walter R. Townsend, Dr. A. S. Baldwin, Wm. Pile, Sr.; delegates to the State convention, George Morgan, Luther Birmingham, B. P. Knight, C. Phillips, Lyander McCulloch, T. Nerrin and H. C. Houshine.

FRANCE HOUSE'S DEMOCRATS.

The Democratic county convention which met at Marlboro', Tuesday, nominated the following ticket: For state senate, Charles T. Clagett; for house of delegates, Dr. D. W. Snowden, William Wilson and Filmore Beal; for commissioners, James H. Shreve, Joseph H. Wilson, Wm. P. Duley, P. Ward and John M. Roberts; for surveyor, Thomas F. Billoppe; delegates to state convention, Richard Wootton, Barnes Compton, John T. Fisher and Edward W. Magruder.

ORCHILLA GUANO!

The Great Soil Enricher.

BEST AND CHEAPEST FOR CORN, WHEAT AND GRASS.

THAT ORCHILLA GUANO positively and permanently enriches the land; that it increases the crops and improves the quality of the grain; and that it never fails to insure luxuriant growth of grass for succeeding years, are facts which 10,000 farmers, who are using it in the States of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Pennsylvania are willing to testify.

Se the thalmy days of Peru, when the Guano has taken such a hold upon popular confidence as Orchilla. In three States it is to-day the most popular phosphate in the market; and deservedly so. It has all the fertilizing properties of Peruvian, without its heating and blighting tendency; and these fertilizing properties in Orchilla are not exhausted by one crop, but go on silently incorporating themselves with the soil, and making it rich. Hence it is known as "The Great Soil Enricher,"—"Good for all Crops."

Read What the Farmers Say.

J. MILTON PARKER, SALISBURY, WICOMICO CO., Md., August 8, 1885, says:—I began using Orchilla Guano 7 or 8 years ago, by putting it on wheat, at the rate of 800 lbs. per acre. On the first crop I got 12 bushels to 1 bushel seeded, on land that would not have more than returned the seed sown had no manure been used, while the stand of clover from it was also a most excellent one. I had the same land in corn six years afterwards, and the effect of the Guano was distinctly marked in the crop. I have used it right along since, and it has always paid me well on every crop to which it has been applied. My second crop of wheat from its use gave me 15 bushels to 1 bushel seeded; and the clover now growing on my land, from its use in '83, is plainly marked above that from other high-cost fertilizers alongside of it, and the difference can be seen at this writing, 200 yards away. Its effect on the same field can also be seen at the same distance, in the extermination of the sheep-weed, up to the very fine crows Orchilla left off, and I invite my brother farmers, of Wicomico and elsewhere, to see it for themselves. I believe Orchilla Guano is one of the most valuable manures to the farmer that he can possibly get hold of, as it effects the permanent improvement of the land. I intend to use it altogether, as I am thoroughly satisfied that I can get nothing better.

HENRY F. POLLITT, SALISBURY, WICOMICO CO., Md., August 10, '85, says:—Four years ago I put Orchilla Guano on one of my fields, at the rate of 300 lbs. per acre, and put the land in wheat. It made me a very fine crop, fully as much as I had a right to expect from the land. I have had the same field in corn twice since—one crop immediately following the other, my growing crop being one of them—and Orchilla is there yet, as its effects are plainly to be seen by anyone. This is the kind of fertilizer we farmers want, instead of a manure that goes off with the first crop, and leaves no improvement behind. As to the lasting power of Orchilla Guano no question can, I think, be successfully raised, as it has been clearly demonstrated to my mind—by my experience in its use—that it is one of the most durable and valuable manures we have. I shall use it again, as it improves my land.

ISAAC J. HENRY, SALISBURY, WICOMICO CO., Md., Aug. 8, 1885, says:—I used Orchilla Guano in the spring of '84 on a strawberry field. I put it in the drill at the rate of 600 lbs. per acre, and set plants on it. It has acted with splendid effect. I picked the first crop this spring, and where Orchilla went I picked berries from 2 to 3 days longer than I did where the other manures were used alongside of it, in same field. My vines now present a vigorous and healthy appearance, and I am so greatly pleased with my first experience in the use of Orchilla, that I intend to continue to use it.

HUGH JACKSON, SALISBURY, Md., Sept. 11, 1885, says:—Mr. S. F. Toadvine: I hereby authorize you to say, that I consider Orchilla Guano one of the best land improvers that I know of, and I recommend it to those who wish to improve their land.

JNO. O. FRENEY, SALISBURY, WICOMICO CO., Md., Aug. 6, '85, says: I have been using Orchilla Guano for some time, with fine success, on wheat and grass. It has given me good crops of wheat, and as a grass-grower I find it is unsurpassed. My experience with Orchilla thus far is, that it substantially and permanently improves the land. I shall continue the use of it, by putting it on for wheat this fall.

The collector's advertisements of the property of Mrs. Huntington and others, Black were put in the paper last week by mistake. The latest on both pieces of property had been sent some time ago.

According to the Wilmington Express, there have been over 3000 carloads of peaches shipped so far this season over the Delaware railroad. This would be well on to 2,000,000 bushels.

After a short, but quite a successful season, the hotels at Ocean City have declined. The regular daily trains were discontinued last Monday, and now run through to Ocean City only on Tuesdays and Fridays.

Mr. I. H. White has returned home with his sister, Lady Bennett. She is entered to teach at the Fair at Dover and Elkton. It is expected that an effort will again be made to match her with Captain Avery's Bay.

The Finkle M. P. Church will hold a festival and picnic Saturday, 26th. A program, to commence at 3 p. m., will consist of addresses, readings, recitations and a bag breaking. There will also be a ballroom session.

The Dover fair is advertised to take place this year September 28, 29 and 30 and October 1, 2 and 3. As one of Salisbury's friends is put down for Thursday, October 1st, it is expected that quite a number of our people will attend that day.

Rev. J. T. Whitley will preach a sermon to the children at the Court House, next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. All the children of the county are invited. Subject, "The Little Captive." Mail Regular service also at 11 o'clock a. m.

WICOMICO'S CORN CROP.

Reports Gathered from Various Sections as to the Yield.

We went out inquires to our correspondents in the various districts in regard to the extent to which the dry weather had injured the corn and fodder crop, and what would be the probable yield. We publish below the result of our investigation:

TRAPE DISTRICT.

Within a radius of two miles of Upper Trape there has been very little rain since the middle of June, and all kinds of crops are shorter than usual, except the fruit crop. The corn crop is the shortest we have had in this locality for more than 30 years. Outside of these limits some of our farmers have fair crops, having been more favored by the rains, and within these limits there are some lots of good corn on very low bottoms, and on well tilled clover soil. The best land in the district is the high dry land bordering on Wicomico Creek. These farms were planted early, and have suffered severely from drought, and will not yield more than one-third of a crop of corn, but the fodder will be proportionally short. The average for the district is now thought to be less than half a crop. The late showers have helped to improve the grain recently sown, and improved the late corn, but the ground is very dry yet.

SHARPTOWN DISTRICT.

The farmers in this district are nearly through taking off their crop of fodder, and when it is removed the crop of corn can be very closely estimated. The amount of corn is about one-fourth short of what it promised to be in the early part of the season. This is caused by the continued dry weather. Most of the farmers in the district have high sandy land, and consequently nearly all will have small yields. The fodder crop is not so much short as it will be very near an average. The early planted crops seem to endure the dry weather best.

QUANTICO DISTRICT.

In this district, there will be probably two-thirds of an average crop of corn and a fair crop of fodder. The corn will not be more than half what it ought to be. The crop will be shorter near Quantico and between that place and Salisbury than in other parts of the district. Towards Westing the crops are fair, and they are tolerably good along the Green Hill road. The dry weather has been the cause of the shortness of the crop.

BARRON CREEK DISTRICT.

In this district the farmers have been favored more with rain than their unfortunate neighbors. The corn crop in June and the first part of July was very promising. To use the language of one of their farmers: "The growth was all the land would bear." The want of rain when the crop was maturing shortened the promised crop. Altogether, there is an average crop, and probably more.

SALISBURY DISTRICT.

In this district, north and northeast of the town, the crop is fully up to the average, especially where it was manured broadcast. Mr. J. J. Morris has one of the best fields in Salisbury in this county. It was planted on clover and had fertilized with 500 pounds of good manure to the acre. Mr. V. S. Gurdy, of Rockwalking, also has a fine crop. The farmers in Salisbury district have no reason to complain.

WATERBURY DISTRICT.

The dry weather has seriously affected the corn and fodder crop in this section. It is the opinion of the most experienced farmers that the crop will be short about one-third. Some few farmers will have full crops.

NUTTER'S DISTRICT.

In Nutter's the crop is literally dried up down in the Johnson neighborhood and along the Worcester line. As you approach town you find a slightly improved condition of affairs, but there is a general complaint in this district of a short crop.

PARSONS' DISTRICT.

In Parsons' the crop is good where it was well manured, especially where it was planted one stock to the hill. Most of what has been said of Salisbury district will apply to Parsons'.

JUDGE HOLLAND NOTIFIED.

The Letter from the Committee—Judge Holland's Acceptance.

Judge Holland has received the following letter from the Committee appointed to notify him of his nomination for Associate Judge of the First Judicial Circuit:

PRINCE ANNE, Sept. 8th, '85.

Dear Sir:—In behalf of the late democratic convention convened for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Judge of the First Judicial Circuit of this State, to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Judge Wilson to the Senate of the United States, and which convention completed its labors at Cambridge on the 2nd inst., we hereby take pleasure in informing you that you were the unanimous choice of that body to fill said vacancy. In thus placing you before the people for so high and honorable a position, we feel that your experience on the bench, and the dignity, industry and ability you have displayed in the performance of your various offices, for so many months past, particularly recommend you to the suffrages and confidence of all the people in this circuit.

Very respectfully yours,

THOMAS DIXON,
JAMES DEMING,
WILLIAM L. LAVIS,
JOHN N. WASHNET,
Committee.

The following is Judge Holland's reply to the above letter:

SALISBURY, Md., Sept. 9th, '85.

Messrs. THOS. J. DIXON, JAMES C. DEMING, J. N. WASHNET AND W. L. LAVIS, COMMITTEE:
Gentlemen:—Your letter informing me of my nomination for Associate Judge of the First Judicial Circuit of Maryland, by the Democratic Judicial Convention at Cambridge on the 2nd inst., has been received. To you, as representatives of the Convention, allow me to express my appreciation of the honor conferred upon me by the Convention, and of the courteous and complimentary language of your letter of notification.

In accepting the nomination of your Convention, I am not indifferent to the honor conferred on me to the high and responsible office presiding with the Judiciary of Maryland, and if your action is ratified by the people, it will be my pleasure to devote my time and labor to a faithful discharge of the duties of my office.

I am, gentlemen, your ob't serv't.

CHAS. F. HOLLAND.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Judges of Election Appointed—Other Important Business.

The Commissioners met Tuesday, Sept. 15, Present, full Board and D. J. Holloway, Clerk.

The business was ordered to pay Henry P. 129 and James E. Elledge $300 for services in the suit of the Commissioners against J. E. Trader and company.

Judges of election to serve November 2nd, were appointed as follows:
1st district—Wm. J. Bounds of G. Lavin County, Perry H. Waller.
2nd district—Geo. E. Davis, Geo. W.

VENABLES, MARCELLUS W. BALLY.

8th district—W. B. Phillips, Wm. J. Waller, Thos. J. Walter.

4th district—Thos. S. Bonds, Joshua R. Parlow, Daniel W. Dennis.
5th district—D. B. Gurdy, E. Q. Waller, James A. Venables.
6th district—Marcellus Dennis, Isaac S. Williams, Elijah S. Adams.

7th district—T. Wesley Pusey, Jesse Huntington, Levi Malone.
8th district—S. H. Fooks, Thos. Morris, Josephus H. Hayman.

9th district—Odellus J. Waller, H. W. Ralston, Hugh Ellingworth.
10th district—T. W. Lankford, Joseph C. Bradley, Uriah T. Owens.

William Twilley, collector taxes 5th district, for 1883-'84, filed account for services, which was passed.
The treasurer was ordered to pay Wm. Twilley $4.88 for lumber, and work done on Nassawango creek bridge.

The report of the examiners on the Atholston road was ratified. Said road cost $800, and Mr. Mann was authorized to contract for building same.

Mr. Mesick reported that he and Mr. White of the Somerset county Board, contracted with E. J. Elliott to build new ferry boat for White Haven ferry for $90.00. Adjourned to meet September 29th.

A Widow and Didn't Know It.

On last Thursday Mrs. Winder Hastings, who has been residing long time since her separation from her husband, came to Princess Anne to see her counsel, Joshua W. Miles and Col. Page—and urged them to press suit for divorce which was begun over a year ago. At that time she was a widow but she didn't know it until she learned that it was the arrival of the evening mail, the papers of which contained an account of her husband's death at his home near Salisbury, Wicomico county. The widow was Mr. Hastings' second wife and is about 90 years old while he is 80. As soon as her counsel learned of his death they got into a carriage, drove rapidly to the depot, where Mrs. Hastings had come to take the train for home, and informed her of the fact. Thus her absolute divorce came sooner to her through the Court of Death than through our Court of Equity.

Fiftieth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jackson avail themselves today of our columns to extend to their friends a cordial invitation to be present at the celebration of their golden wedding, October 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are the parents of the Jacksons in the firm of E. E. Jackson & Co., namely, State Senator E. E. Jackson, Wm. H. Jackson, Wilbur F. Jackson, E. Watson Jackson, and I. N. Jackson. They also have two daughters, both of whom are married. The greater part of Mr. Jackson's life has been spent in farming in this county. Mr. Jackson moved to Salisbury with his family during the war, and with his sons engaged in business here, first as carpenters and afterwards as lumber manufacturers, in which latter business they have been unusually successful. For a number of years past, Mr. Jackson, himself, has not engaged in any business more than to superintend the cultivation of his farms.

All about the Eastern Shore.

Judge Goldborough has been spending some time at the Hyacinth Old Point Comfort. It is a very good place, but after one sees the Soldier's Home, Indian School and Dress Parade of the Soldiers in the Fort, he has seen it all, and the only pleasure is to walk down to the wharf when the frequent steamers come and leave. The Judge, as usual, took in the whole programme, and as he watched the steamer Northampton depart from the wharf one day he asked negro,
"Where is that steamer going?"
"Over to the Eastern Shore," he was answered.
"What part of the Eastern Shore," he asked exact Judge.
"Dar's nothin' over dar, boss, but do Eastern Shore."

Our Delmar Letter.

Special to THE ADVERTISER.
Alexander McManus, an employee of the N. Y. & P. N. R. R., was caught between cars here Saturday afternoon and received a tight squeeze.

Greenboro Morris was thrown from a cart after leaving Delmar Saturday, and had one ear torn nearly off.
Reading and arithmetical charts have been placed in Mr. S. E. Finkle's school.

Messes Gussie and Leslie Godwin, of Crumpton, Md., are visiting their sister, Mrs. Chandler.
Miss Rose Collins is visiting Mrs. G. W. Perkins.

List of Patents Granted.

The list of Patents granted to citizens of Maryland for the week ending Tuesday, Sept. 15, '85, reported by the Attorney through the Patent Law Offices of Duffy & Brashers, No. 607 Seventh St. N. W., Washington, of whom copies, and information may be had, is as follows:
Maryland Patents—E. W. Conegrum, Edville, Conshohocken, E. S. Gurdy, Baltimore, spooling H. B. Gurdy, Baltimore, basket; G. F. S. Zimmerman, Frederick, shutter bower.

Salisbury District, Wicomico Co., Md. is congratulating itself on the fine quality and promise of its new rising ministers. The "new blood," which presiding Elder Wilson obtained mainly from Drew Theological Seminary, has been classified as follows:
Girdle, Rev. J. W. Easley, good promise; Princess Anne, Robt. Watt, brilliant; Somerset, L. J. Mochnow, will succeed; Quantico, E. S. Moore, fine spirit; Traskin, J. H. Howard, transferred from Virginia Conference, good; Georgetown Democrat.

The following is the list of letters remaining in the Salisbury (Md.) Post-Office Thursday, September 17, 1885:
Ladies' List—Miss Fannie Bechtel, Mary A. Leonard, Mrs. May Morris—Gents' List—John B. Jas. Derry, G. W. Delwood, Littleton Leatherby, J. Wesley Parsons, Rev. G. W. Washington.

Persons seeking for the above letters will please say they are advertised. JOHN P. ORMAN, Postmaster.

The law passed by Congress last winter providing for the immediate delivery of letters in certain cities and towns, went into effect October 1st. By attaching to a letter a ten cent stamp prepared for the purpose, its immediate delivery to the person to whom it is addressed is insured. The applicant will be used only where there is already a free delivery and in towns having a population of 4,000 or over. Salisbury does not come in the list.

Trappe Items: The Church edifice here is being rapidly pushed on toward completion. On Sabbath morning last Rev. J. T. Bontin was in one of his happy moods and preached one of his best sermons. Mr. Marion Huntington who has been confined to his room and his bed most of the summer, is gradually improving.

Mrs. Kate Holmes wife of Rev. W. G. Holmes died Thursday Sept. 17th, at her home near Barry Creek, this county.

BARRON CREEK NOTES.

A Larger Boat for the Nantuxco—The Curr Coop Cut Short.

Special to THE ADVERTISER.
A company from Baltimore recently defrayed Mr. J. Webster $4,000.00 for 10 shares of land situated on the Nantuxco, on the outskirts of Vienna. It was wanted, being a railway, cannery etc., which they proposed building there. The offer was refused.

The causeway leading to Vienna on the Wicomico side of the river is in a most miserable condition. It is about a mile in length and at an ordinary high tide is covered by water its entire length, varying in depth from one inch or two to 18 inches or more. Beyond Bridge Creek where the grass is tall on each side the road when covered by water looks like a wide ditch.

Mr. Hooper C. Hicks is canvassing, holding of the Nantuxco for subscribers to the Nantuxco, a 30 ft. long and 10 ft. wide boat company who desire to improve the Nantuxco with a larger and more commodious boat for passengers that will average 14 miles an hour in speed. This arrangement is supposed to give permanence and success to the route. The investment and slow going Nantuxco is paying.

Rev. Mr. Taylor who has been conducting a "bush meeting" near Covington's Chapel for the last three weeks with considerable success has transferred his meetings this week to Spring Hill.

The "Pratt-Edwards" were in Vienna Saturday and Sunday last. They held their services in Dunley Hall the use of the churches, M. E. M. P. and Baptist, having been refused them. Among the attractions was a boy of 10 years whose singing prayers and addresses are stated to have been very good.

Raymond, their leader, had some success at October's Ferry and a new Church near there dedicated by him in an outcome of his labor and zeal.

Podder is nearly all down and much of the quality has been lost. The quantity is full average if not beyond. Cows should be extremely irregular in production so that some farmers claim a reduction of one-half. The crop of the district is possibly of an average one.

Among summer visitors to this section may be mentioned Mrs. Mary E. Robertson, widow of the late James Robertson, with her two daughters Misses Kate and Ella. The latter is teacher in one of the Public Schools of Baltimore city.

Squirrel shooting has commenced in earnest, and judging by the reports of the guns morning and evening they must be numerous.

Mr. Levin J. Hearn has been canvassing this section for Dr. Leavitt's (late president of St. John's College), new book "Kings of Capital and Knights of Labor."

Turnip patches owing to the drowth look very poor.

The equinox have been more numerous this season than for many years past.

SOMERSET COUNTY.

A Painful Railroad Accident—New School House in St. Peter's Dist.

Mr. S. D. Bonds, nominated for county Commissioner by the Democratic convention of Somerset county, has declined to run. He says he does not wish to hold office.

A fine school house has just been completed in St. Peter's district, near the Methodist church. In size it is 38-34 feet, two stories high, and its arrangement and model is second to no other school building in the county. Mr. W. Sydney Smith was the architect, and the contractor, being living speaks for his skill.—Princess Anne Herald.

We hear the report of very few persons mentioned for places on the republican ticket. L. T. Dryden, of Crisfield and S. S. Ford, of Fairmont are mentioned in connection with the House of Delegates. The former, to our certain knowledge, is not a candidate, but we are not informed as to the feelings of the latter on the subject.—Crisfield Leader.

At an early hour Wednesday evening, September 8th, a number of friends and relatives assembled at the home of Mr. J. P. Ellis and wife, near Kingstown, to witness the burial of their only child, Miss C. C. to Mr. Marion E. Lankford, of this county. The evening proved to be very disagreeable, but the occasion was an important one, too important, indeed to be postponed, so "between" the clouds and rain, a long line of carriages, filled with happy mourners, and willing to face the storm and darkness, started on their way to Trinity M. P. Church, Marion Station, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. W. Antwine, assisted by Rev. J. L. Straughn.—Princess Anne Herald.

Mr. George W. Berry, a former resident of this town, but now a brakeman on the New York, Phila. & Norfolk R. R., met with a serious accident at Keller station, Va., on Thursday last. He was on top of a box-car, and was running to the end of it to apply the brakes, when the train suddenly slackened speed, by the application of the air-brakes from the engine, and he lost his footing, and fell to the ground, and to save himself, jumped. He landed feet foremost on a tie. He says when he struck it, he felt as though his legs had been driven up into his body. Fortunately, however, no bones were broken, and he was immediately taken to his home at Hallwood station, where he received proper treatment, and is getting along well.—Princess Anne Herald.

Death of Wm. H. Cannon—A very Profitable Peach Crop.

Mr. George Morrison, of Lincoln, has picked and delivered to W. W. Taylor, of Cecil Co., Md., 111 baskets of Old Mixon Peaches. The peaches paid a net sum of $49.05.—Georgetown Democrat.

Thomas D. Pierce has been very successful in cantaloupe culture this year. He shipped 100 barrels one week from two acres at a remunerative price, and has since been employing this time with fine melons at low prices.—Milford News.

William J. McColley has a small orchard in Milford Neck that was two years old last spring. He says he picked over three baskets from one tree of Crawford's Late, and other trees bore nearly as many. The land is very rich.—Milford News.

Colonel William Huntington Cannon, a resident of this county, was killed at Seaford, Del. on Tuesday at his late residence. Col. Cannon will be remembered by our older citizens as a large slave-owner. The end of the war found his large fortune reduced to a sum insufficient to yield an income large enough for his immediate wants, and at the time of his death he was greatly impoverished. The Colonel was fully and round in appearance and often balanced the scales at 300 pounds.

On Friday 11th inst., the Town Commissioners of Seaford passed the bill holding water rights. The bill was passed by a vote of 6 to 3. George C. Morgan, Chairman, $30.00; W. W. Taylor, Philadelphia, $25.00; E. D. Wood & Co., Kingston, Pa., $15.00; Clement & York, Chester town, Md., $20.00; Isaac Brown, New York, $20.00; Leach & Bailey, Philadelphia, $24.00; Mr. W. W. Taylor, Philadelphia, the lowest bidder, not having bid strictly according to the specifications, the commissioners awarded the contract to A. H. Conn & Co. for $18.971.

The Ashcroft Farm, near Magnolia, has a full crop of peaches this year, as we stated some three months ago. The yield will be from 18,000 to 20,000 bushels, and the tenant, named Armstrong, has experienced considerable difficulty in getting his fruit all picked. It has been stated that he expected to realize $10,000 for his share of the crop, which is one-half; but this figure is too high. One day he delivered to Wicomico, which he carried him $700, and two days following he carried home $1,000—or $1,200 in three days. In the last twenty years this farm has had several tenants, and each one has remained but three or four years—long enough in each case to make sufficient money to buy a fine home.—Milford News.

Captain George Loez $400.00—Cambridge and Talbot Ferry Discontinued.

An arrangement has been made whereby Choptank, Md., will have a daily mail from Baltimore. The Choptank Steamboat Company, which now carries the mail to Cambridge, has agreed to carry a pouch to Choptank, further up the same river with out additional charge.—Cambridge Press.

Mr. George Mowbray, of the Crisfield Leader, who is visiting his parents in town, gave us a call. Mr. Mowbray was in town, gave us a call, and take charge of the Editor, at Pocomoke City. We wish George much success; but hope he may not be so much infatuated with the fair at Pocomoke.—Cambridge Globe.

William H. Barton, Jr., this week, purchased the dwelling and store-house, adjoining the Crisfield Hotel, of Clement Sullivan, trustee for the Chaplain here. The price paid was $1,200. Mr. Barton will likely make these two properties the headquarters to be found in Cambridge.—Cambridge News.

Capt. Andy Cook, of Cambridge, met with a sad misfortune on Thursday of last week. He had in his pocket book, which he carried in the pocket of his pantaloons, about four hundred dollars—three hundred in checks and one hundred in paper. He had been down near the Bridge and into some of the stores, and when he went home for the night he missed it and has not since been able to find it.—Cambridge News.

The ferry between Cambridge and Talbot has collapsed, and the little steamer used for the purpose has been sold. We are sorry that this enterprise, which seemed to succeed so well during the summer, proved so short-lived. It was thought to be pretty firmly established until two weeks ago, when it was announced that owing to the tardiness of support from this side of the river the captain concluded to suspend.—Cambridge Press.

E. S. VIRGINIA NEWS.

Drowning of Capt. Rogers—A Claim for Graded School in Northampton.

Captain Thomas Cunningham, one of the oldest of the active members of the Virginia Pilot's Association, died on the 4th, at Capeville, Northampton county, where he had been sick for the past six weeks.—Eastville Herald.

There has been a perceptible falling off in the potato shipments during the past week. This is owing to the fact that farmers have been busy harvesting fodder. A revival of the heavy shipments may reasonably be expected next week.—Onancock Virginian.

The Trustees of the public schools will meet in Eastville next Monday. It is to be hoped that they will do something towards establishing graded schools in this county. It is a crying shame, as well as a reflection upon the intelligence, enterprise and fine standing of our people, that we have not a graded school in Northampton.—Eastville Herald.

On last Tuesday afternoon Capt. John T. Rogers, commandant of the schooner Neptune, left Onancock with a cargo of sweet potatoes for Baltimore. Mr. Will Rogers, a brother of Capt. Rogers, and several colored men were on the schooner. Late Tuesday night while sailing in the Chesapeake bay off Cape Point, they encountered rough weather, and the best-sailing going about, Capt. Rogers was knocked overboard. After making a long but ineffectual search for Capt. Rogers, the schooner proceeded on its way to Baltimore, from which point the sad news was telegraphed to Onancock Wednesday morning.—Onancock Virginian.

THE NEWS IN GENERAL.

Events Transpiring in Various Parts of this Country, Brought Down.

There have been 130 cases of yellow fever and 39 deaths in Guaymas, Mexico, since the 1st instant. The disease has appeared at Hermosillo and Mazatlan.

United States Consul Thumuck, at Veracruz, reports that the yellow fever epidemic at that place has been very malignant, about 10 per cent of the cases proving fatal.

Hon. Dorman B. Eaton has resigned his position as chairman of the Civil Service Commission to take effect November 1st. His resignation has been accepted by the President.

The hog cholera in the southern portion of Essex county, Ontario, has assumed such proportions that it is expected to spread to the adjoining counties unless the government takes steps to stamp it out.

The English cutter Genesta won the race for the Brenton's Reef Challenge cup, making two cups won, including the Douglas cup, and one lost, the America's cup. The yacht Puritan was sold in New York at public auction for $13,500 to Edward Burgess, her designer.

Augustus L. Heckler of the Dramatic News, was Friday presented with a gold medal by the Life Saving Benevolent Association of New York, in recognition of his bravery in saving from drowning Miss Kate Bulmer and Thomas Morris of Baltimore, on August 11th, at Ashbury Park, New Jersey.

The barge Orient, with 900 tons of coal, from New Orleans, broke loose from a tug and ran ashore on Friday, and was subsequently driven ashore in a heavy sea. Four men on the barge and one member of a life-boat's crew, who started out to save the barge, were drowned.

United States Minister Hall has telegraphed to the Department from Guatemala announcing a revolution there and saying that a state of siege has been proclaimed. Prominent military officials have been arrested and two ex-ministers will be banished. It is thought that the insurrectionary movement has been frustrated.

The census of Florida shows that the population of the State has increased 64,639 since 1880. The number of acres of land assessed is 17,193,183. The value of live stock is $3,587,493. The value of real and personal property is $60,838,619, as against $39,938,309 in 1880.

Commissioner Sparks, of the land office, reports the disposal of public lands for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1885, at $20,113,663.38 acres, for $7,686,114.80, on 226,382 entries. The amount taken under railroad selections was 3,558,914 acres. The total disposals are a decrease of 6,335,636 from the previous year.

The directors of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company have directed its president to meet the president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company upon a policy of harmony. The inauguration of peace between Reading and Pennsylvania breaks a hostility which has lasted for nearly twenty years.

Suit was brought at Manassas, Ind., Saturday by the Central Trust Company of New York vs. the Lake Erie and Western Railroad to foreclose mortgages aggregating $3,300,000. A consolidation of the Lake Erie and Western and Lake Erie, Blooming and Manassas Railways was made to secure the payment of $3,300,000 of $1,000 each, falling due in 1919.

The family of Wm. Talmadge, of Des Moines, Ia., has fallen heir to an estate in England worth $1,500,000. The estate comes through the wife of Mr. Talmadge. She died three years ago, leaving her husband and three children. Mr. Talmadge was formerly a successful lawyer, having been attorney for the State of New York.

The Republican State Convention of New York, which met at Saratoga Tuesday, nominated its Democratic opponent for Governor, and General Carr, the President Secretary of State, for Lieutenant Governor, James S. Wood for Secretary of State.

The Democratic convention met Thursday.

A passenger train on the Hanibal & St. Joseph railroad collided with a special engine and passenger car, near St. Joseph, Mo., on Thursday. Both engines and the baggage car were wrecked. Supply Agent Hamilton, of the Rock Island road, and engineer Black were dangerously, if not fatally, killed.

"Doctor," said a despairing patient to his physician, "I am in a dreadful condition! I can neither lay nor set. What shall I do?" I think you had better rest," was the reply. Now, we are contented with the doctor, who would have done much better by prescribing a bottle of Salvation Oil, which would have relieved his patient at once. Price 25 cents a bottle.

The board of health of San Francisco has ordered a strict enforcement of quarantine against all vessels from Pacific and Mexican ports, owing to the prevalence of yellow fever and typhoid fever along the Mexican coast. The board has also declared quarantine in Japan, Tonquin, Shanghai and Hong Kong, in China; and the Formosa Islands, elsewhere infected.

The Ohio river meeting will meet in Pittsburgh on the 29th instant. It will hear the report of a special committee appointed to investigate the improvements of the various tributaries of the Ohio river now in the hands of corporations, and will consider the propriety of memorializing Congress to take action on the Chinese system of dams. The cost of placing such dams at the necessary points between Pittsburgh and Louisiana is estimated at $50,000,000.

A marble shaft, the gift of Colonel Herbert Hill of Boston, erected on the battle field of September 19th, at Winchester, Virginia, was dedicated on Saturday morning, ex-Union and ex-Confederate veterans uniting in the ceremonies. Lieutenant Governor Ornabes of Vermont delivered the oration. Services were held Sunday in national and Confederate cemeteries. At the mound erected on the Confederate dead a speech was made by Colonel Carroll D. Wright.

The steamship Republic, of the White Star Line, and the steamer Auraria, of the Cunard Company, collided Saturday afternoon while outward-bound from New York, near the inner Farwell buoy in Godwin's channel. The Auraria was damaged on her port counter, but proceeded on her way. The Republic had her stem broken off and went back to New York. It is charged the accident was due to an attempt of the Auraria to cross the Republic's bow. No one was injured.

Living Monuments.

On the tomb of Sir Christopher Wren, architect of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, is the inscription in Latin: "If you ask for his monument look around you." The thousands and hundreds of thousands of people who see today live from monuments and living monuments are living monuments to the power of St. John's Oil. The monument of St. John's Oil.

DEATH OF BISHOP LAY.

He Dies at the Church Home in Baltimore—Funeral Services.

Right Reverend Henry Champlin Lay, D. D., S. T. D., L. L. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Eastern and Rector of Trinity Cathedral, died at the Church Home, on Broadway, Baltimore City, about 9 o'clock, P. M., last Thursday, the 17th inst., at the age of 83 years. His life was an eventful one. He was elected first Bishop of Eastern April 1st, 1869, having been called from Arkansas, where he was acting as Missionary Bishop of the South West. Bishop Lay visited Europe twice, once by invitation from the Archbishop of Canterbury, and once after his health broke down, in 1880. His last visit was with the hope of restoring his health. His last attack was brought on several months ago while lecturing in New York. He leaves a widow and four children. One of his sons has been ordained minister of the Church in which he labored so long and faithfully. Bishop Lay was very popular in his diocese. People of all denominations went to hear him when he visited the various Parishes in his Diocese. He was an exceedingly polished speaker and writer. Besides his regular work in the Church he has written several works; notably among them is his "Studies in the Church."

When the news of his death was received here the rectors of the Peter's Church, Rev. Geo. W. Bowen, immediately draped the Church, which will remain so for 30 days. At the funeral hour the bell was tolled. In his sermon last Sunday morning the Rector very feelingly touched upon the life and character of this late Bishop.

Before his death Bishop Lay constituted the Standing Committee of which the Rev. Thos. P. Barber, of Cambridge, is chairman, the ecclesiastical authority in the Diocese. The authority remains with this body until the Bishop is elected. The Standing Committee has power to call a special Diocesan Convention, which will probably be done sometime in the Fall, for the purpose of electing a successor. The regular Convention does not meet till June. Speculation has already been made as to whom the great mantle may rest upon. Among those mentioned are the Rev. Campbell Fain of Baltimore, and Rev. Dr. Satterlee, of New York State. The latter, it will be remembered, presided at the Convention session at Princess Anne in June '85, and was generally admired for his ability. In electing Bishops in this diocese the majority, and not the two-thirds rule prevails. The Baltimore Sun of Tuesday thus describes the funeral:

The body of the late Bishop Lay, of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Eastern, was brought to Eastern Monday from Baltimore on the 11.45 train in a special car furnished by the Pennsylvania Railroad. Accompanying the remains were members of the Eastern Diocese, the Bishop of Maryland, Right Rev. Dr. Parrot; the Bishop of Delaware, Right Rev. Dr. Lee; Rev. Dr. Satterlee, of New York; Rev. Franklin Baebie Adkins; Rev. Miller, of the Church Home; Rev. O. H. Murphy; Rev. Geo. W. Bowen, of Baltimore; and other clergymen and laymen. The body was received at the Eastern Railroad Station by the assistant minister of Trinity Cathedral, the rector of St. Peter's Parish, Eastern, clergymen of the diocese who had arrived in 1880 and 1881, and the trustees of Trinity Cathedral, the vestry and wardens of St. Peter's Parish, and deputations from the parishes of White Marsh, All Saints and Miles River, in Talbot county; St. John's in Caroline; St. Paul's and St. Luke's in Queen Anne's; the trustees of the diocese, and the rector of the active parishes, namely, Geo. R. Goldsborough and Dr. L. L. Adkins, of Eastern; Dr. R. C. Mackall, of Elkton; Wm. S. Walker and Jas. Alfred Pease, of Chestertown; Wm. S. Calk, of Vienna; Henry S. Calkins, of Northeast; and Wm. S. Jones, of Princess Anne, to Trinity Cathedral. The clergy and all the visiting deputations then retired, leaving the family of the Bishop alone with their dead. When they returned to the Cathedral was respect, and the discourse of people entered to take the last look at the face of the beloved Bishop. At one o'clock the body was taken from the Cathedral to Christ Church for the funeral ceremonies, the procession of bishops, clergymen and laymen followed in the hearse on foot. The procession was headed by the Rev. Geo. S. Gassner, who bore the Bishop's pastoral staff. Although the church is a large one only a portion of the people in attendance could find room in it. The funeral anthem the "Te Deum" was read by the Bishop of Maryland, the lesson by the Rev. Dr. Satterlee, of New York, and the prayers by the Bishop of Delaware. The Nicene Creed was said and hymns 385 and 38 and the De Profundis sung with great pathos by the choir and congregation. An immense procession followed the body on foot from the church to Spring Hill Cemetery, the place of interment. It was known to be the desire of the Bishop that everything should be conducted with the utmost simplicity at his funeral. Hence carriages were used only for the members of his family and infirm people. Offerings of flowers were discouraged and no corpse was used. The funeral casket was a very plain one, finished in the which the legality of the present oyster-carrying tax will be involved.

Work on the new M. E. Church, South has been resumed, and it is the intention of the committee to push it rapidly to completion. Chairs will be used for seats, and the purchase of a pipe organ is in contemplation.

The Circuit Court meets next Monday. It is not expected to last longer than a week. There will be a case before court, in which the legality of the present oyster-carrying tax will be involved.

Work on the new M. E. Church, South has been resumed, and it is the intention of the committee to push it rapidly to completion. Chairs will be used for seats, and the purchase of a pipe organ is in contemplation.

A much needed rain fell last Tuesday afternoon and night. Though too late to benefit the corn, it is a great relief to late crops and to those getting ready to seed wheat. The atmosphere has been cooled off considerably.

Mr. T. N. Hearn has bought out the interest of Col. S. A. Graham and William Downing in the steam mill which had been used near Wicomico. He will place it on the Union tract of land near Whiteville, where he will manufacture lumber.

Judging from the entries in the races at the Dover fair, there is likely to be some close trotting. There will be a running race each day, and one of the fast trotting races is put down for each day also. We are all sure of seeing good races at the Dover fair.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion and a sermon in St. Philip's Chapel, Quantico on Sunday Oct. 4th, at 8 o'clock A. M. Also another celebration and sermon at St. Paul's Church, Spring Hill on the same morning, at 11 o'clock. P. B. Adkins, Rector.

The Board of Public Works has ordered the oyster boats to make no arrests of parties carrying oysters without license. No license will hereafter be required for boats simply engaged in carrying oysters to the Court of Appeals.

CHIEF FERTILISERS.

The Race for Cheap Fertilisers—May only the Best.

At the present time the most serious drawback (to both manufacturer and consumer) is to be found in the foolish rage for low-priced fertilisers. Ground limestone at $3 per ton, the refuse of salt works at $12 per ton and dead at fifty cents, raw South Carolina rock (not adulterated) at $8 to $10 per ton, the refuse of alum works at $12 per ton (and in large amounts) positively injurious to land and crop. New Jersey manure at $10 per ton, with not enough soluble matter to pay the freight, and manure and common lime mixed and sold under misleading names, all find too many purchasers who appear to mistake bulk for quality and with whom low price is synonymous with cheapness. The same farmer, when starting out to purchase a horse, would not look for the lowest-priced one which he could find, but would take the animal which he considered the cheapest for the price asked. Let us apply the same rule to the purchase of fertilisers and it will not lead us astray. We want a given result for the lowest possible outlay, and (provided we get the result needed) the smaller the bulk handled the better, for we may thus save both freight and labor.

Other things being equal, we find that there is most fraud in the lower priced, and least in the higher priced fertilisers, which, in most cases, the manufacturers keep up to the former standard. Many of our manufacturers having established the reputation of their standard brands, would not risk to sell to the demand for lower priced articles, but still keep them up to the same guaranteed analysis. In some cases we might name, and in more than a few, we might name the manufacturer who has great per cent on the lower-priced goods, but we might as well name the high-priced fertilizer placed on the market at a price, which, at the time, made it the cheapest source of phosphoric acid offered. Failing to make any sale, the manufacturer mixed two tons of a cheap "filler" with each ton of the fertilizer, and, by offering the mixture for one-half the original price, obtain $180 for what he had previously asked $120, and had nothing of value in it.

It is a sad fact to buy only of reliable parties, upon the guarantee that the goods are as represented, and buy goods only.—Report of Penna. State Board of Agriculture.

Unable to Decide Upon the Advantages of Making Monitions.

The republican convention for Wicomico County met in the courthouse in Salisbury last Tuesday. The convention was at 3 o'clock p. m. called to order by Col. S. A. Graham, chairman of the State Central Committee for this county, who stated the purpose for which the convention had been called. A. W. Goslee, of Quantico district was called to the chair, and C. C. Conway, of Salisbury district, was elected secretary.

A motion to sit with closed doors was lost. Credentials were approved from districts as follows: No. 1, Thomas Wilson; No. 2, A. W. Goslee, W. W. Dashiell and John W. No. 3, Dr. A. J. H. Lankford, C. C. Conway, Henry Handry; No. 4, John W. Winkler, J. J. Parsons, Benjamin Dennis; No. 5, L. A. Parsons, Wendell C. Bradley, Stephen Peters; No. 6, Not represented; No. 7, Alexander Malone, Gamaliel Banks, Henry J. Deunon; No. 8, Perry H. Goshall, Peter Hudson; No. 9, Wm. H. Goshall, A. W. E. Goshall; Wm. H. Conway, J. Goshall; No. 10, Not represented.

For delegates to the State convention the following were elected: Wm. H. Goshall, W. Goslee, A. P. Turner, R. P. Jones. Delegates to the Judicial convention: Wm. L. C. Bradley, J. J. Fooks, Thomas Wilson, Stephen Peters. A motion was passed to give the respective delegates power to cast the entire vote of the delegations in case any are absent.

An old bill on nominations was appointed consisting of one from each district. Reconsidered and withdrawn. A motion to reject the present State Central Committee is Samuel A. Graham, Levin B. Price, Thomas S. Walter, Solomon T. Parsons.

After considerable discussion on the advisability of making out a ticket, and after a partial ticket had been made out, the work was undone, by general consent of the convention. Various motions to adjourn to different places, were made and withdrawn. At last a motion was passed to adjourn for two weeks, till Tuesday, October 6th.

Amazons to Match their Horses—The New M. E. Church.

Mr. E. J. Clark, has been appointed by the school board as first assistant in the Pocomoke High School, vice Mrs. Mills Primrose resigned.—Pocomoke Ledger.

The M. E. Church at this place will be a stylish and handsome edifice, and we trust that the new building will be a necessary to complete it.—Pocomoke Times.

William T. Fleming, of Princess Anne, wants to make a match between his horse and W. S. Wilson's, of Snow Hill. The latter says he will accommodate Mr. Fleming to a different horse.—Pocomoke Times.

Worcester county republicans met in convention in the court house at Snow Hill, Tuesday last, but failed to nominate a ticket. They met again on Tuesday next, by which time they expect to have a slate of some kind fixed up.
