GetEducated.com Ranks FSU Online MBA a Top-10 for Second Time

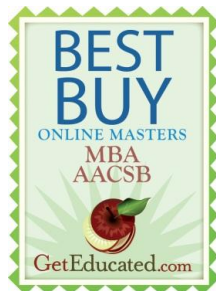

For the second time, GetEducated.com, the consumer guide to online colleges, has ranked FSU's online MBA program a top-10 Best Buy nationally among online business schools that hold accreditation by AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

"GetEducated.com's ranking reflects the extraordinary value that FSU's online MBA program represents," said President Jonathan Gibralter. "We consistently strive to offer our students a quality education, as evidenced by our AACSB accreditation, while making it as affordable as possible for them to reach their goals."

FSU moved up one step to number eight in the rankings, which come out every two years.

"FSU's rating as a Best Buy among online MBA programs honors the university as a nationally ranked leader in the field of online education," said Vicky Phillips, founder of GetEducated.com. "Their online master's in business administration program offers a top-quality education not just to the residents of Maryland but also to all online students nationwide. The College of Business at Frostburg is a laudable model for how public universities can, with leadership and determination, combine the quality of a traditional residential university with cutting-edge technology to better serve America's business professionals."

"I am proud to say that the faculty of the College of Business is committed to excellence in the quality of our online MBA program," said Dr. Ahmad Tootoonchi, dean of the FSU College of Business. "Our Graduate Policy Committee, under the leadership of Dr. Bill Anderson, meets periodically to discuss and develop strategies to resolve issues and concerns and ensure the quality of our online MBA classes. Our graduate faculty meets regularly to share and exchange ideas for quality improvement. The College of Business has committed funds to support five MBA faculty members' participation at the AACSB 'Strategies for Developing Online Courses' seminar to further develop their online teaching skills. The participants will share what they learned with the rest of the MBA faculty."

"Faculty's effort to continuously improve the quality of our online MBA program never stops, because we are committed to offer our MBA students a high-quality graduate education at the most affordable price," Tootoonchi said.

All courses are still available in face-to-face format as well. Since the fully online option has become available, enrollment in FSU's MBA program has nearly tripled, to 313 in fall 2012.

"In today's highly complex global environment, earning a graduate degree that is based entirely on face-to-face class participation is almost impossible for many citizens of the world," Tootoonchi said. "Our faculty developed a plan that provides students, regardless of their location, the opportunity to obtain a master of business administration degree through online learning without compromising our continuous commitment to high-quality education."

"At Frostburg State University online courses are the same as those experienced by classroom business students, ensuring a unique level of instructional quality not found in all online business programs," Phillips said. "Additionally, FSU's online MBA program costs only a third of the national average, making FSU an undisputed leader in the movement to leverage online learning to create a more affordable education system that sacrifices nothing in terms of quality."

The average cost of a distance learning MBA, according to GetEducated's national survey, which included 85 AACSB-accredited business schools, is $36,166. GetEducated.com estimates the cost of an FSU online MBA at $12,132 for Maryland residents and $14,616 for those from other states.

To view the online MBA-AACSB rankings at GetEducated.com, visit www.geteducated.com/online-college-ratings-and-rankings/best-buy-lists/best-buy-online-masters-mba-aacsb.

All programs offered by FSU's College of Business are accredited by AACSB International.

Music

Note: Unless otherwise noted, recitals and concerts will take place in PAC Pealer Recital Hall and are free and open to the public. For info, contact the Department of Music at x4109 or visit www.frostburg.edu/dept/music.

CES to Host the von Trapp Children

The Cultural Events Series at FSU will present a heartwarming holiday performance from the von Trapp children Thursday, Nov. 29, at 7:30 p.m.

These grandchildren of Captain von Trapp continue the musical traditions of their famous family, which was portrayed in the timeless movie, "The Sound of Music." These young siblings – Sofia, Melanie, Amanda and Justin – will perform folk and classical songs from European and American traditions, as well as holiday classics and timeless pieces from the Rogers and Hammerstein musical that turned von Trapp into a household name.

Tickets are $26 for adults and $21 for youth under 17. Corporate and group discount rates are also available.

To help audiences get into the Von Trapp spirit, CES' Inspiring Audiences program will offer a free presentation of the film, "The Sound of Music," on Sunday, Nov. 18, at 3 p.m. in Lane 111.

For info, contact the CES box office at x3137 or visit CES' website at ces.frostburg.edu.

Opera Theatre to Present 'The Wedding by Lantern Light'

FSU's Opera Theatre will present Jacques Offenbach's one-act comic operetta, "The Wedding by Lantern Light," on Thursday, Nov. 15, and Friday, Nov. 16, at 8 p.m.

"The Wedding by Lantern Light" is a story of a man named Peter, a treasure and two greedy widows who want to marry him. Dr. Mariana Mihai-Zoeter is stage director and music director. Performers will be accompanied by pianist Dr. Jay DeWire and clarinetist Dr. Mark Gallagher. Soprano Britany Poindexter and mezzo-soprano Jessica Knouse play the role of Denise, tenor Lane Conklin plays Peter, soprano Allison Moses plays Anne, soprano Bailey Kerr plays Catherine and actor Zachary Dodge plays the humble policeman.

Speake to Perform Senior Trumpet Recital

FSU trumpeter Brooke Speake will present her senior recital on Sunday, Nov. 18, at 3 p.m. She will be accompanied by Dr. Sean Beachy on piano.

Speake will play two pieces by Italian composers. Antonio Vivaldi’s “Concerto for Two Trumpets” starts very fanfare-like in the first movement, exchanging the melody between the two trumpets. The second movement is a lyrical contrast that bridges the flashy first and third movements. The concerto ends with a contrasting fanfare-like section. “La Luna” by Guido Morni was originally written for voice and piano in the opera “Una Odissea.” The piece was arranged for English horn and marimba by oboist Bart Schneemann but has been transcribed for trumpet and marimba for this performance.

Speake will also present pieces by Johann Nepomuk Hummel, Bruce Broughton, Eric Ewazen and Carson P. Cooman.

Guest performers will include Evan Schutz on trumpet, Hunter Martin on bass trombone, Tanika Henry on tenor saxophone and Robert O’Neal on marimba.

Jaeger to Present Junior Percussion Recital

FSU student Gregory Jaeger will present his junior percussion recital on Sunday, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m.

Jaeger’s playlist features songs that are meant to inspire different emotions. “A Little Prayer” by Evelyn Glennie is a solemn, organ-like piece that presents a relaxed, spiritual perspective of marimba music. Scott Ward’s “Sleight of Hand” centers around a dramatic act with moving lines and expressive percussive sections. This piece depicts the different stages of a magic act and the interaction of the magician and the audience. The magician begins with his grand entrance and then dazzles the audience with flashy colors as their anticipation grows. Finally, the magician throws all his magic and splendor into his finale to conclude his act.

Jaeger will also present works by Gordon Stout, Robert S. Cohen, John H. Beck and Ben Wahlund.

Presentations

Center for Creative Writing to Host Author Nance Van Winckel

FSU’s Center for Creative Writing will host a reading by author Nance Van Winckel on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the Lyric Theatre at 22 E. Main St. in downtown Frostburg.

This reading is free and open to the public.

Van Winckel will read from her new book of poetry, “No Starling.” Her fifth book of poetry written to date, “No Starling” is complimented by The Cincinnati Review, which says, “The poems of ‘No Starling’ project life through a strange, wonderful prism, part heavily refracting language, part heady, playful imagination. Nothing is stranger than what is true to life.” From “No Starling,” her poem “You People” received the Friends of Literature Award.

Van Winckel will have two new books out in 2013: “Pacific Walkers,” her sixth collection of poems, and “Boneland,” her fourth book of linked stories. Van Winckel is the recipient of two National Endowment for the Arts Poetry Fellowships and awards from the Poetry Society of America, Poetry and Prairie Schooner. She is professor emerita in Eastern Washington University’s graduate creative writing program, as well as a faculty member of Vermont College of Fine Arts’ low-residency MFA program. Her primary interest lately is Poetry-Off-the-Page, and she has had her “pho-toems” (digital photo-collage with text) in several magazines, galleries and juried shows.

For info, contact the Center for Creative Writing at x4340.

Visiting Primatologist Dr. Dorothy Fragaszy

Dr. Dorothy Fragaszy, an international primatologist and chair of the Behavioral and Brain Sciences program at the University of Georgia, will present a talk on her fieldwork titled “Hercules With a Tail: Wild Capuchin Monkeys Use Stone Tools” on Thursday, Nov. 15, at 5 p.m. in Compton 327. This presentation will describe Fragaszy’s research on the tool-using abilities of a group of wild capuchin monkeys in Brazil. All are welcome to attend. For info, contact Dr. Erica Hoy Kennedy at x4742.

AL Fall Seminar Series

Dr. Steve DiFazio, West Virginia University, will present “Population Genomics of ‘Populus trichocarpa’” on Thursday, Nov. 15, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room 109. For info, go to www.umces.edu/al/seminar/schedule.

Points of Pride

Geography Students and Faculty Receive Regional Honors

A number of students and faculty from FSU’s Geography Department received special recognition at the meeting of the Mid-Atlantic Division of the Association of American Geographers (MAD AAG), held in early November at Salisbury University in Salisbury, Md.

Students Gavin Caupp, Christyna McCormick, Jacob Esposito, Evan Lindstrom and Thomas Mackay represented FSU in MAD AAG’s Geography Bowl competition. Mackay was selected as one of six members of the regional team that will represent MAD at the National Geography Bowl next April in Los Angeles, and Lindstrom was selected as the first alternate member.

In addition, Tracy Edwards, a lecturer in the Geography Department, was honored as the MAD AAG Geographer of the Year. Edwards was commended for her tireless dedication to geography, her work as a MAD AAG officer and her strong encouragement of student participation in conferences and events related to geography.

For info, contact Dr. Matthew Ramspott in the Geography Department x4412.

Moore Lectures at Hagerstown CC

Dr. Robert Moore, a professor in the Sociology Department, visited Hagerstown Community College on Nov. 8 and gave a guest lecture, “The Future of Race Relations,” in three sociology classes.

Take Note

Md. Charity Campaign Pledge Drive

The 2012 Maryland Charity Campaign pledge drive is under way.

This year’s theme, Today’s Gift ... Tomorrow’s Difference, reflects the responsibility people have in Maryland to help friends and neighbors in need, ensuring that help will be available for those who ask for it.

The MCC effort at FSU has gone green, reducing the amount of paper used. Each department is receiving President Gibraltar’s campaign kickoff memo with one copy of the charity directory via campus mail. Although individual employees will not get printed pledge sheets or their own copies of the charity directory, convenient online pledging is available.

Online pledging by payroll deduction or credit card makes it easy to contribute to a charity of one’s choice. Just $1 per pay period ($26 annually) helps someone in need. Go to www.mdcharity.org to find a charity and make a pledge. Select CONTRIBUTE, then select Pledge Online and follow the on-screen directions to log in. Next click Donate Now and follow the prompts to enter a pledge amount and charity designations. When finished, print a copy of the pledge form.

To make a one-time donation by check or cash, or if you prefer not to pledge online, contact Kelly Durst, FSU’s MCC head coordinator, at x7487 or kdurst@frostburg.edu for a printed pledge sheet and a charity directory.

For info, contact Durst or any of these site coordinators:

- Annapolis Hall – Bonnie Jackson
- Compton Science Center – Linda Steele
- Framptom Hall – Linda Brumage and Tammy Shockey
- Guild Center – Stacy Wassell
- Lowndes Hall – Carla Boone
- Performing Arts Center – Beth Andrews
- Pullen Hall – Anita McGregor
- Stangle Building – Kathy Leck

Make a pledge online at www.mdcharity.org or return the completed pledge sheet to Durst in the Office of Human Resources or to a nearby site coordinator no later than Wednesday, Nov. 28.

V-Day Scarf Sale

V-day @ FSU will hold their annual Scarf Sale in the Lane Center Nov. 12, 13 and 14 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Come out and purchase a scarf to keep you warm! All proceeds go to the Dove Center and Family Crisis Resource Center. Donations of scarves are also welcome. For info, contact Sara Cramer, V-Day student coordinator, at smcramer0@frostburg.edu.

Oxfam Banquet

The Oxfam Hunger Banquet will be held Monday, Nov. 12, at 6 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. This event is open to the public.

The Oxfam Hunger Banquet is a great way to learn more about world hunger and the effects it has on people around the world. During this program, the group will discuss the number of people that go to bed hungry, how many have no idea where their next meal is coming from and what one can do to make a difference in these people’s lives.

Attendees are asked to bring a canned food donation or a monetary donation to support the Frostburg Food Pantry.

For info, contact Jamie Williams, A STAR! AmeriCorps Academic Enrichment and volunteer coordinator, at jirvine@frostburg.edu or x7598.

Sponsor a Family This Thanksgiving

Through the 13th Annual Sponsor-a-Family Program, departments and organizations on campus can help make a difference in a family’s life in Western Maryland by providing a food basket to a family in need.

If your office or organization is interested in sponsoring a family for the Thanksgiving holiday, email Clarissa Lang at the Office of Volunteerism and National Service at calang@frostburg.edu for further details as soon as possible.

All baskets will be delivered on the Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving.

USM Staff Awards

The Council of University System Staff (CUSS) is again accepting nominations for the Board of Regents’ University System of Maryland Staff Awards. These awards represent the highest honor bestowed by the regents for achievements of exempt and nonexempt employees from USM institutions, and are presented to staff members who have demonstrated excellence in one of the following categories: (1) contribution to the institution and/or unit to which the person belongs, (2) service to students in an academic or residential environment, (3) public service to the university or greater community or (4) effectiveness and efficiency in academic or administrative transformation. Two employees are recognized in each category for a total of eight awards.

Nominations are first considered at an institutional level before being forwarded to the CUSS Awards Review Committee for final selection. An internal Staff Awards Review Committee made up of the following staff employees will select nominees from FSU:

- Kelly Durst, Office of Human Resources, x7487, kdurst@frostburg.edu
- Nancy Frost, Ort Library, x3058, nfrost@frostburg.edu

- Jay Hegeman, Student and Educational Services, x4738, jhegeman@frostburg.edu
- Jesse Ketterman, Student and Educational Services, x4311, jketterman@frostburg.edu
- Dean Bolden, Physical Plant, x7004, djbolden@frostburg.edu

Contact any of these committee members with the name of a potential candidate and reasons why you believe that staff member to be worthy of an award nomination. The committee members then will work with you to complete a competitive nomination packet. FSU’s selected nominees are due to be submitted to the CUSS Committee in early December.

FSU has had staff award winners in the past, including award recipients in 2011 and 2012.

Environmental Communication

Interested in Environmental Communication? Dr. Brent Kice will offer CMST 490 Special Topics: Environmental Communication during the 2013 Winter Intersession. The course will be fully online, and students will evaluate environmental campaigns to learn the various means of communicating messages regarding environmental issues. Some campaigns the class will examine are BP and the Gulf of Mexico oil spill, the Sea Shepherd organization from the Animal Planet show “Whale Wars” and perceptions of residents concerning wind farm construction.

For info, contact Kice in the Department of Communication Studies at bkice@frostburg.edu or x4709.

Graduation Will Be Here Soon!

It’s not too early to think about graduation, especially if you intend to graduate on Wednesday, Dec. 19, at 2 p.m. in the Cordts PE Center.

The Colleges of Business, Education, and Liberal Arts and Sciences will present their graduates during a single ceremony. Tickets will be required for admission. Each graduate will be allotted six tickets.

Complete your graduation application in PAWS now and check with the Registrar’s Office to ensure everything is in order.

The first of two Commencement mailings was sent in mid-October to your local and permanent addresses. If necessary, update your information in PAWS to ensure upcoming mailings will be sent to the correct locations.

Full details about the ceremony can be found on the Commencement website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Brittni Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

Frostburg Museum Happenings

Final Fall Exhibition

The Frostburg Museum is presenting its final exhibition for the fall 2012 season, works by Hannah Ehlman and Garrett Delooze, through Nov. 24.

Ehlman is a metal-smith who portrays emotion and physical beauty through bronze, copper and steel, with focuses in jewelry and sculpture. She will graduate from FSU in spring 2013 and plans to continue her work with metal.

Using clay, chemicals and wood, Delooze aims to produce works of art that capture the beauty of Earth. His use of subtle variations in tone illuminates the beauty of the human form.

Annual Holiday Open House

The Frostburg Museum invites its members, friends and community to its annual open house Friday, Nov. 30, from 5 to 8 p.m. at the museum.

The open house is the kickoff event for Frostburg's Storybook Holiday weekend and is followed immediately by the Christmas tree lighting downtown.

A display of menorahs, traditional and modern, from the collection of Betsey Hurwitz-Schwab will once again be exhibited.

Music will be provided by three groups.

- Morbheanna at 5:30 p.m.
- Concert Antigua at 6 p.m.
- Academic Probation at 6:30 p.m.

The Frostburg Rotary will decorate a tree with its collectible Christmas ornaments. Proceeds from the sale of ornaments help the club fund its community projects. A second tree decorated with the Children of the World dolls is being presented by Kitty Davis, a museum board member.

The Frostburg Museum is a nonprofit organization located at the corners of Hill and Oak streets and is open Thursday through Saturday from noon to 4 p.m. Admittance is free; donations are appreciated.

For info, call 301 689 1195 or email FrostburgMuseum@Verizon.net.

Call for Artists

The C. William Gilchrist Museum of the Arts, at 104 Washington St. in Cumberland, will be accepting art work on Saturday, Nov. 17, and Sunday, Nov. 18, from 1 to 4 p.m. for the annual Art for Giving Exhibition. Each artist may enter two pieces of two- or three-dimensional artwork, including jewelry, sculpture, fiber art, painting and others. All two-dimensional work must be wired for hanging. The museum charges a 25 percent commission taken from the artist's listed price and will market the exhibition and the opening reception by postcard, newspaper, radio and through the Internet and websites at no additional cost to the artists.

Artists unable to drop off work in person may mail or ship their work to the C. William Gilchrist Museum of the Arts, c/o Nicole Halmos, 407 Washington St., Cumberland, MD 21502. Include the name of the piece, material, price, artist's name, address, email and phone number. Initial mailing costs and return shipping costs for items that are not sold are the responsibility of the artist.

The exhibition will open Friday, Nov. 23, with an opening reception from 5 to 8 p.m. coinciding with the Downtown Cumberland Tree Lighting Ceremony. The exhibition will continue until Dec. 23.

For info, email gilchristgallery@atlanticbb.net or contact Shirley Giarritta at 301-777-3337.

International

Where Would You Like to Study Abroad?

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also, check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Study Abroad in Limerick, Ireland, During the Spring 2013 Semester

Students can study abroad for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid may be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie.

Impact China, Summer 2013

FSU students now have an opportunity to experience Chinese culture, history and economic development via a two-week trip to visit four major Chinese cities while earning FSU credits. The faculty-led trip is a component of IDIS 350 China in the 21st Century and MGMT 490 Special Topics in Business Administration – Management, which will be offered in the first six-week session of summer 2013. Students will have the option to enroll in either course for three credits, or in both courses for six credits. The application deadline is Feb. 1, 2013.
